What Time Is It?

"It is time to be brave. It is time to be true.
It is time to be finding the things you can do.
It is time to put by the dream and the sigh,
And work for the cause that is holy and high.
It is time to be kind. It is time to be sweet,
To be scattering roses for somebody's feet.
It is time to be sowing. It is time to be growing.
It is time for the flowers of life to be blowing."

"And There Was Not One Feeble Person Among Their Tribes"

"The Lord brought them forth also through the wilderness and there was not one feeble person among their tribes." It was Dr. B. G. Wilkinson speaking at the recent Home Missionary Council held at Denver. He emphasized the fact that it was not only the leaders who are to be strong, but there is not to be one feeble person in our ranks. What is needed is a more complete organization down through our churches that will in some way help every member find his place.

"There is something fabulous in organization. I do not know what it is. Julius Caesar took six million men and organized them and that organization stood for four hundred years. I believe that Jesus Christ has greater power of organization than Julius Caesar had. I believe that if we will submit, God will reorganize us until there will not be one feeble person in all our ranks. I believe that our standards are altogether too low. Some one has said: 'Make no small plans, for they have no power to stir men's blood.' Rather we should make such plans that men's blood will be stirred. We must erect higher standards. Moody when on his deathbed called his boys to his bedside and said, 'I have not labored to lay up wealth for you, but there is work for you to do. Bring me my Bible and pen and ink,' and he wrote as his dying words on the margin of his Bible, 'When God is your partner, make your plans large.' When we get together with God we can make our plans large, and we shall see fabulous things. I believe in the divine optimism. Everything else is going to pieces; everything else is growing weaker and weaker; but the third angel's message is growing stronger and stronger. May God help us to arouse the great army of valiant men and women to the task before us that the time may soon come when there will not be one feeble person in all our ranks."

I think these remarks of Dr. Wilkinson are especially appropriate at this time when the crying needs of our mission fields are offering such a challenge to all of God's people to arise and through the Harvest Ingathering campaign bring to the Mission Board's coffers the funds that are required.

God grant that there may not be one feeble person in all the Lake Union Conference during this important drive.

The Parochial School Amendment

It is hoped that no one will conclude that because nothing has been said in the HERALD of late concerning the Anti-church-School Amendment that the campaign regarding it has closed.

As stated in a previous article, the Attorney General of Michigan stated as his opinion that the amendment proposed by the Civic Association of Wayne County was unconstitutional, and instructed the Secretary of State not to place the amendment upon the ballot. Following this, the Civic Association applied for a writ of mandamus to compel the Secretary of State to place the said amendment upon the ballot to be voted on in November. The case is now before the Supreme Court and we expect a decision to be rendered in time to give information regarding the matter. In the meantime, we should plan to meet the issue as if nothing had intervened, and in order to exercise the right of ballot on November 2, when the amendment will come up, all must register. Since the primaries of last month opportunity will be given to register. All must register in cities of ten thousand or more, even though they have been registered in times past. We understand in smaller communities, if one is already registered, it will not be necessary to reregister unless the local board should order it to be done. It would be well to ask advice of county and township officials regarding this.

Of course it is well known now that women may register and vote.

As we have referred to what the Testimonies have said in reference to voting, it will be unnecessary to repeat what has been said on the subject.

Inasmuch as Sunday enforcement laws will soon be a part of political propaganda, it would be well to be prepared to exercise the right of ballot against laws and candidates which will mean the restriction of civil and religious liberty.

Field Tidings

Harvest Ingathering thermometers all over the field are beginning to register the temperature in every church. It is waxing pretty warm in many places, too. Reports from those who are out "feeling the pulse" of the field are encouraging.

We were glad to welcome Elder S. T. Shadel's smiling face at the Union office last week. He came hurrying into the office in his usual breezy and cheery manner with his tongue going at both ends, all enthusiastic over the progress being made throughout West Michigan in the Harvest Ingathering work. He reported that one of the ministers in his conference, Elder Jorgensen, had set his individual goal at $400 and secured $80 of it the first day he was out.

In a letter from Brother Lawrence Jorgenson, the captain of the Harvest Ingathering hosts in South Wisconsin, he reports progress in the Ingathering campaign. He is bubbling over with enthusiasm at the prospects of South Wisconsin making her goal before the first of November. His good wife is leading him a merry chase, we understand, she having secured over $20 in a few hours in a small town the first day she went out. We do not know whether it is she that is responsible for his enthusiasm or he that is responsible for hers, but we are willing to let the matter drop without an argument, for we are inclined to believe that the spirit they are manifesting is contagious over in South Wisconsin. We hope all the other good people over that way will catch the same disease.

Reports from Indiana indicate that the campaign is getting well under way. Twenty-one churches have reported their progress to date. Brother O. B. Hall, Indiana's "Ingathering Specialist," is busy among the delinquent churches helping them to get into the campaign. Indiana is after the Union banner and is not letting any grass grow under her feet.

Reports are beginning to come in from East Michigan where the conference has been divided into districts with workers assigned to each district. Elder Westworth, the president of the conference, is personally directing the forces, and from past experience we know that when he turns loose all the enthusiasm pent up in his body it means success in any undertaking.

Illinois and North Michigan were a little late in getting started in their campaign inasmuch as their camp-meetings overlapped into September. However their meetings are now past and in both conferences every worker has been assigned a number of churches for which he is responsible.

Chicago people started their campaign September 1 with a "bang." Judging from reports the "bang" is still sounding. They reported nearly a thousand dollars in receipts for the first four days of their campaign. This we think is exceptionally good when we take into consideration that they are not allowed to do any soliciting in the city proper, but must sell every paper outright. It is quite evident, however, that they are getting a good price for some of their papers.

No definite report has yet been received from North Wisconsin, other than the workers are out among the churches working with and encouraging them in the good work. We are not worrying, though, for that silence in North Wisconsin means everybody is working hard. When the sun sets on the last day of the Harvest Ingathering drive, North Wisconsin will be right on the spot with her full quota. What they have done before in North Wisconsin, they will do again.

Harvest Ingathering day at the College will be October 6. On the night of October 5 the students will set their goal. We have no idea what it will be, but we know the E. M. C. spirit. We have come in contact with it many times in the past, and it has made too many deep impressions on our hearts and pocket-books to forget it very soon. The E. M. C. spirit always wins. October 6 will be another red-letter day at E. M. C.

Harvest Ingathering

The Harvest Ingathering campaign is now on. Our workers are in the field pushing the work. Doubtless your church is very busy soliciting funds from neighbors and friends. The Harvest Ingathering paper is a most beautiful paper, and will certainly appeal to the public. Every Seventh-day Adventist should set his individual goal at not less than $10, because the goal for the General Conference is $500,000. By getting at this work at once, and pushing it with zeal, we can clean up on all goals by November 1. The Illinois Conference is behind $10,000 on its offerings to missions, known as the fifty-cent-a-week fund, but by giving liberally of our means and pushing in the Harvest Ingathering campaign, we can pass our goal this year, as we have done in other years. Last year we went beyond our goal on the twenty-five-cent-a-week fund $4,000. Let us put our shoulder to the wheel and pass the fifty-cent-a-week fund for the year 1920.

Our people at camp-meeting pledged willingly on this fund, and also on the Harvest Ingathering campaign, 300 people pledging to raise on the Harvest Ingathering campaign around three thousand dollars. If our people throughout the conference will push forward accordingly, we will raise more than $10,000 in the Harvest Ingathering campaign.

It will be of interest to all who are helping to raise this fund, to know how much the Illinois Conference has raised each year for the past ten years: We raised in 1910, $186.28; 1911, $219.25; 1912, $326.77; 1913, $473.43; 1914, $490.69; 1915, $741.10; 1916, $1,397.61; 1917, $1,711.22; 1918, $2,121.01; 1919, $5,306.67. Last year we raised more per capita in the Illinois Conference than any other conference in the Lake Union. This year the Lake Union Conference has promised a banner to the conference that raises the most per capita before the close of December. Let us work for the banner. The Harvest Ingathering slogan for the denomination is, "The God of heaven He will prosper us, therefore we His servants will arise" to our appointed task. Nehemiah 2:20.

Fox River Academy Dormitory

Our brethren are now working on the Fox River Academy dormitory, pushing it up as fast as money comes in to buy the material. We must now push forward to get it enclosed for the winter. At first we thought we could build only the basement to the dormitory and cover it over, but if our people are faithful in promptly sending in the money they have pledged, we shall be able to put up the entire structure, and enclose it before cold weather sets in. Please send in your donations at once, and those who have not pledged, please pledge liberally, because we now have only about half enough to complete the building.

At present the boys are living in tents, because they have no other place to stay. Please give us a lift.

Harvest Ingathering at Camp-Meeting

At the recent camp-meeting held at Peoria, Ill., the writer was asked to do all of the purchasing for the camp. In all, upwards of $800 was spent for supplies from not more than ten different firms in the city. On the last Sabbath of the meeting a strong effort was made to raise pledges for missions. Without doubt in my mind, the Spirit of God gave me the impression that I ought to go to the managers of the different firms from whom the purchases had been made and ask them to give a liberal offering for missions. A good share of the following Sunday was spent in special prayer for the success of the undertaking, that God would send His Spirit and soften the hearts of the men and make them favorable to this work.

Monday morning came and with it the rush of breaking up the camp, but I felt that it would be wrong to disregard the impression that was given, and accordingly went to the city on my appointed mission. It was very evident from the first that God had answered prayer and was present for the day. The first man that I approached said that it would be impossible for him to give for such a purpose out of the company's money. After some conversation, he stated that he could give me an amount equal to 10 per cent of the total purchases which I had made, and report it as discount for cash. A discount of 2 per cent had been given each day as I had paid the bills. I gladly accepted this offer and from it got the cue for the following conversations. I worked on this basis the remainder of the time and, with but one or two exceptions, every firm gave me an offering equal to 10 per cent of the total purchase which I had made. In four hours I was able to gather $60 in cash for missions.

In every case, the offerings were made very cheerfully. I followed the policy of telling them, in about ten minutes of the big mission work that we are engaged in, and mentioned the large donations that were made at the recent meeting. After having told my story, I made it very plain what I wanted and the checks were forthcoming. In one instance I left the street car, told my story, got the check, walked one block and took the same car to another part of the city. The car had gone around the loop about ten blocks.

The world recognizes the fact that it is necessary to reciprocate in matters of this kind, and I believe that thousands of dollars might be gathered in every year from the thousands of firms that Seventh-day Adventists deal with in the course of twelve months. Possibly it is not yet too late for this plan to be carried out in some of the cities where our camp-meetings have been held this year, even though they may have been closed for some time. It will not do any harm to try. But remember it means more hours soliciting from Heaven than from man in order to make it successful.

News Notes

Two of our departmental secretaries, Misses Evelyn Meleen and Edna L. Walker, have resigned that they may enter school at the Emmanuel Missionary College. During the recent conference, Brother L. S. Thompson was elected to the secretaryship of the Missionary Volunteer work and the educational department in the conference. His headquarters will be at the academy at Sheridan, Ill.

Brother D. A. Mitchell and wife, who have been laboring at Peoria during the past summer, arrived in Springfield last week where they will labor in company with other workers now located there.

We hope that all of our churches are now in full swing with the Harvest Ingathering campaign. We are plentifully supplied with papers at this office so that all orders can be filled promptly.

There has been an advance in the price of a large number of our books since August 1, among these we would mention the World Crisis series which now sell for fifty cents, with the usual discount given to home workers. We believe that they will sell as readily at this price as they did at the old price of twenty-five cents.

Those in attendance at our camp-meeting pledged to raise $3,690 in the Harvest Ingathering campaign. We feel confident that we shall more than reach our goal of $6,000 this year. The time has come when we should expect and attempt great things for God in this work.

We are glad to be back in the home office again from our good camp-meeting at Peoria. About six hundred of our people were in attendance the whole or part of the time.

Brother R. J. Watson recently took four of his children to the Tri-City Sanitarium for tonsil operations. We hope and pray that they are getting along nicely.

Brother G. W. Kimberlin is now located at Mt. Carroll: His first week's sales since camp-meeting amounted to $105.

Terre Haute Tent Meetings

Our meetings have progressed in a very satisfactory manner since our last report of a few weeks ago. The entire series has been carried on under favorable conditions. We have not lost one meeting on account of stormy weather. It was a drawback to the work to have our Bible workers, Sisters Ida Kimball and Amanda Perkins, so late in coming to our assistance.

The attendance diminished some when the testing points of our faith were presented, but a goodly number of honest seekers after truth continue to come every night, which is a source of encouragement to us as workers. Six have definitely decided to keep the Sabbath, and about a dozen others will, we believe, have the courage to step out in obedience to all the commandments of God.

We plan to close our meetings soon, and we earnestly solicit the prayers of our brothers and sisters that these dear souls may be given strength and grace to step out and take God at His word.

Ingathering Experiences

The conference is getting well started in the Harvest Ingathering work. Everywhere great blessings are coming to those who are out in this work. Not only is a large fund for missions being secured, but many interested ones are being located. The following are some of the experiences from the field:

The Lafayette church sends in a report of $101.83 for one week. At the bottom of the card is written: "The above is for less than two hours' work." That is fine! I have since learned that the church had a field day and every member of the church reported for duty except two. We may expect great things from Lafayette.

A sister at Ft. Wayne went out to work one day last week. At first she received small donations. At one house the woman refused to give anything, but changed her mind and handed the sister a dollar bill. This seemed to excite her and in leaving she fell down three steps and skinned her elbow; but while she fell down her spirits went up, and she continued her work for some time, averaging $1.32 per hour and over thirty-seven cents a paper.

Sister Mellinger, who is seventy-five years old, last week secured $2.20 in two hours. And still some of our older members say they cannot. Better try it again and see.

Last week I arrived in Peru just as two sisters were returning from a few hours' work. They averaged $1.10 per hour. Their experiences were enjoyable, as opportunity was presented to speak a consoling word to a discouraged soul and point the sinner to the Lamb of God.

Brother and Sister R. H. Carlin, members of the Conference church, report an average of 19½ cents for the papers mailed them.

The Indianapolis Twenty-third Street church reported $148 for the third week of the campaign.

Brother G. H. Charles of Denver, another of our isolated members, sent in the good information that he has secured $1.75 for five of the ten magazines sent him. This is an average of thirty-five cents an hour per paper. Brother Clark was the first member of the Conference church to report last year.

Belding

Knowing that the HERALD readers are interested in the work in all parts of the field, I am glad to report the development of the work in Belding. The progress of the work has been impeded because of having no church building for public work. At the time the effort opened a little over a year ago, we had no church nor Sabbath school. The Lord has blessed the efforts put forth and we now have a church of twenty-eight members and a Sabbath school of about forty. The prayers of the little company have daily ascended to God that we might build or secure a church building from which the truth may be proclaimed. He has answered these earnest petitions beyond our expectations. Heretofore we have held our services in halls and private houses. We have now purchased the Episcopal church building, situated on a beautiful corner lot just one block from the main street of the city, and in a good residential district. This property is estimated to be worth six thousand dollars. The building has not been erected more than twelve years. We secured this property for $3,500 and through prayer and sacrifice we now have it paid for within about six hundred dollars, and this is covered in pledges. We expect to redecorate the building at once and then we shall have a very fitting place of worship in which to welcome the public.

Dear reader, please join us in praying that a large company may be gathered out from this place to keep the commandments of God and eventually stand on the sea of glass.

B. F. WILLIAMS

News Notes

The Harvest Ingathering work is on throughout the conference and some excellent reports are being received at the office.

For the first eight months of the year there has been received and forwarded to the General Conference for missions $27,352.44 from West Michigan, making an average of 28 cents per week per member. This was $10,748.69 more than was given for the same period of last year, but we are $20,730.24 short September 1.

We are looking forward to large returns being sent in for missions on the sale of produce for the Temple of Missions or the $50,000 fund; and all that is received on the Harvest Ingathering work will help us reach our goal for 50 cents a week.

Elder and Mrs. Piper met with the Wright church and Sabbath school last Sabbath and report very interesting meetings. The Wright Sabbath school is one of the progressive schools in the conference.

Brother and Sister Alden and daughter were callers at the office last week, bringing in several thousand wrapped Present Truth ready for mailing to people in Allegan County.

The hall meetings at St. Cecelia Hall in Grand Rapids are well attended each Sunday night. The workers in the city as well as the church members are anxiously waiting for Professor and Mrs. Lamson to make Grand Rapids their home, and all are looking forward to a progressive work in the city this fall and winter.

Now as many young people are going and have gone away from home to the different schools, we are sure that they are remembered at the different firesides and around the family altars. Let us pray that God will put His Spirit upon both students and teachers that laborers may be fitted for the work of God.

Cedar Lake Academy opened Tuesday, September 14, with practically a full house.

Brother and Sister G. W. Hosford were callers at the office recently. They will locate at Ionia for the fall and winter.

Brief Items From the Swedish Churches in Chicago

We have been encouraged by seeing some new faces at our Sabbath services lately. Most of our young people are attending the Broadview Seminary and nearly all the children have begun in the local church school. Miss Foreman, who has successfully conducted our church school the past two years, opened her third term in this school the first Tuesday in September with about twenty-five pupils in attendance.

We miss our young people in the church but we are glad to know that they are getting a preparation that will fit them for greater usefulness in the closing work. We thank God for a good training school near Chicago. With the blessing of God this should mean more ministers, Bible workers, and canvassers from our Chicago churches in the future.

Our people are at present enthusiastically engaged in the Harvest Ingathering work. We have been a little inconvenienced by not being able to get the papers when we needed them, but this has helped us to exercise more patience. In harmony with the suggestion of our conference home missionary secretary, the churches were organized into bands based on the Sabbath school organization and we have endeavored to place nearly every member of the church in some band. Our people in the First Swedish church report $330 and $40 was reported in the South Side Swedish church for the first three weeks. One sister has already reported $65 and another, who is the oldest member in our church, she having passed eighty years, has reported twenty dollars. Several others have done remarkably well. Some who have not done very much in past years have determined to reach the goal this time.

We appreciate the interest our brethren and sisters are showing in the different activities of the church and their desire to see the work finished, and that we each may have a part in this glorious message.

Mr. Hans M. Vixie and Miss Sylvia Sevens were united in marriage at the home of Elder N. R. Nelson in Chicago, September 14, 1920, Elder Nelson officiating. Mr. Vixie acted as chorister in the Springfield tent effort this summer, and Mrs. Vixie was connected with the tent work at Tomah, Wis., this summer, serving as pianist. Both these young people are students of Emmanuel Missionary College, and will continue their work there the coming year.

Prof. Eli M. Lane and Miss Nellie M. Jordon were married at the Prairie Avenue Church in Chicago, Sunday afternoon, September 12, 1920.

Young People's Societies and School Boards take notice: We have a few sets of 1919 Reading Course books on hand which we will send out at camp-meeting prices. Senior Set—"On the Trail of Livingstone," "The Hand That Intervenes," "Fruit from the Jungle," and "Comrades from Other Lands," value $3.95 for $3.25 postpaid. Junior Set—"Red, Yellow, and Black," "Stories of Brotherhood," "Stories Worth Reading," and "Jack of All Trades," value $2.40 for $2.15. Primary Course—"The Doers" and "Boys and Girls of the Bible." Order at once, as they will not last long.

Lansing

September 12 was the last night of the tent meetings, the first was July 18. We had a good attendance every night; Sunday nights the tent would not accommodate the people, even the last night many were standing who could not be seated. The offerings were good, all expenses except the wages of the workers were covered by the contributions.

The cooperation of the church was greatly appreciated. The members assisted in giving out announcements, distributing Present Truth, and with the music.

Sabbath, September 18, many gathered at Grand River in More's Park. The day was ideal and the surroundings most appropriate for a baptismal service. All nature seemed to say that God is love. Twenty-three were baptized.

The work is just beginning in Lansing. Many are interested who will soon unite with God's people. William Bergherm and wife, Miss Sell, Mrs. Graham, and the writer composed the company of workers.

A Calendar in Every Home by Christmas

I wish to call the attention of our people in the Lake Union Conference to the new 1921 Home Missionary Calendar. This Calendar is now coming from the press and will be ready for mailing week after next—October 1. It contains a beautiful three-color cover with other illustrations in two colors.

This will be the second year for our denominational Home Missionary Calendar, and there will be many new and valuable features. It will be the same size as last year, with a string device for hanging on the wall, and printed on a much better grade of paper. The price this year is 35 cents.

I trust that every Seventh-day Adventist home in the Lake Union will have one or more of these calendars. Our brethren who are office men should secure one to hang in their offices. Every loyal hearted Seventh-day Adventist ought to be proud of his own denominational calendar. Order now from your tract society. Send for a few extra ones for distribution or sale among your neighbors and friends. They will appreciate them.

A calendar in every home by Christmas.

An Ingathering Banner

At the recent session of the Lake Union Conference committee it was voted to issue to the conference making the highest amount per capita in the Harvest Ingathering campaign a banner. This banner will be a large and attractive one and will be displayed by the conference securing it at all general meetings, conventions, and camp-meetings.

This banner will be prepared and presented to the conference earning it after the close of the year when all funds received in the Harvest Ingathering campaign for this year will have been received and recorded.

Which conference will be the one that will present to the General Conference the largest amount of funds per capita?
J. L. McCONAUGHEY

The Junior Missionary Volunteer Society

The time has arrived when our church schools have opened. All of our teachers will remember the recommendation passed at the Missionary Volunteer and Educational Council not very long ago, urging that the Junior Missionary Volunteer Society in the church school be started during the first week of school. I shall be glad to know, of course, that these societies have been started. However, if it has slipped along until this time and the organization has not been developed or no beginning made, please take this as a gentle reminder and set to work at once to organize the Missionary Volunteer Society in the church school. You all know the splendid Manual which we have upon Junior work from the General Conference. These can be secured through your tract society if you do not already have them. I do not see how a teacher can do the best possible work with the Junior Missionary Volunteer Society unless she has a copy of one of these books.

I will be glad to have you write reports direct to me concerning experiences which you have in getting the work started, and in the Harvest Ingathering work this fall. The Harvest Ingathering will be the first business, or missionary work, which the Juniors will undertake this year.
H. T. ELLIOTT

Economical Use of Ingathering Papers

Some inquiries have been coming to the Union office regarding the proper use of the Harvest Ingathering papers. In order that all may thoroughly understand the use that is to be made of these papers we offer a suggestion or two.

These papers are furnished free to every individual who will go out with them and solicit offerings from his friends and neighbors for the advancement of our mission work. It is not designed that these papers should be sold outright, although in one or two exceptional cases this may become necessary. So far we know of only one place where the papers must be sold when used in raising funds and that is in the city of Chicago proper. However, in all other places it is the plan to solicit offerings, and when a contribution is made to our work to leave a paper in the hands of the contributor that he may read of the progress of our work in the lands across the sea and perhaps through this medium become interested in our work and the truths of our message.

There are a few who are taking the papers from house to house and scattering them promiscuously whether an offering is made or not or whether or not any interest is manifested in our work. These papers cost a great deal of money to produce them and should not be scattered promiscuously. They should be handed out very carefully and prayerfully and an effort should be made to make every paper bring in something.

When out with the papers soliciting and you meet individuals who do not care to make an offering to our work, yet with whom you may have had a good visit, or some spark of interest might have been manifested, it is perfectly proper to leave a paper. After they have read the paper and learned of the work Seventh-day Adventists are doing in the world-wide field their hearts may become more favorably impressed, and many times they may be lead to investigate our work and message.

Every individual must be his own judge just how to use the papers. Your own conscience should prompt you when to give out the papers if no offering is received. It is better to use up all the papers, even though some may be carefully handed out without bringing any returns, than to have them lying on the shelves after the general campaign is over.

May the Lord direct us in the use of these papers in a way that will bring the greatest results to His work.
J. L. McCONAUGHEY

Wanted

At least one hundred young men and women to enroll in the Normal Department of Emmanuel Missionary College at Berrien Springs, Mich. The work of God is being delayed for the want of consecrated, efficient Christian teachers. What does that mean to you personally? Stop, think, act!

NORMAL DIRECTOR, E. M. C.

My Work Is Best for Me

Let me but find in my heart to say;
This is my work, my blessing; not my doom;
Of all who live, I am the only one by whom
This work can best be done in the right way.

Then shall I see it not too great or small
To suit my spirit and prove my powers;
Then shall I, cheerful, greet the laboring hours,
And cheerful turn, when the long shadows fall
At eventide, to play, and love, and rest;
Because I know for me, my work is best.

—Henry van Dyke
