Smoking Sam Makes Visit To Wisconsin Governor's Office

Story and Photos by Melvin Rosen

"Can you go with us as photographer to meet the governor at 9 a.m. on October 9?" asked Jim Fanella.

"Who's us?" I asked.

"Elder Priebe, me, and Smoking Sam," he replied.

I arrived at 8:45 at the steps of our magnificent Wisconsin capitol building, where I was stopped by national guardsmen who were stationed there. I didn't have a proper press card, but my calling card stating my affiliation with the Wisconsin Conference of Seventh-day Adventists let me in. Soon we had registered in the foyer and a page escorted the four of us into the governor's office, where we met Governor Warren P. Knowles.

As Pastor Fanella explained the workings of Smoking Sam and talked about our coming Five-Day Plan, the governor showed great interest in our program. He stated that he had quit smoking several years ago and then called in all of his office staff to see Sam's lungs fill up with tar and residue.

After he had conversed about our temperance work for about 15 minutes, he signed a proclamation which reads as follows:

"WHEREAS, the great killers of man today include heart disease, cancer and mental illness; and

The Wisconsin state capitol is where Governor Knowles has his office.

"WHEREAS, medical history confirms that the most effective means of combating disease is to prevent its occurrence; and

"WHEREAS, medical science has demonstrated the link between cigarette smoking and the incidence of lung cancer and respiratory diseases; and

"WHEREAS, lung cancer accounts for the loss of fifty-five thousand lives in our country each year, as many as die in all traffic crashes; and

"WHEREAS, many groups have expressed an interest in assisting others who wish to break the cigarette smoking habit; and

"WHEREAS, among these are the Seventh-day Adventist who will sponsor a five-day plan of therapy conducted by qualified physicians to teach smokers how to break the cigarette habit;

"NOW, THEREFORE, I, WARREN P. KNOWLES, Governor of the State of Wisconsin do hereby proclaim the week of October 12 through 18, 1969, as in Wisconsin, and I urge the people of Wisconsin to heed the informed advice of physicians and medical researchers to break the smoking habit so they may protect themselves against lung cancer."

STOP SMOKING WEEK

News Writer Goes Camping

At 6:30 a.m. on September 20, I pushed aside the tent flap over my door and looked out to see the sun struggling to penetrate the atmosphere of fog and mist.

Then the voice of Elder W. S. Edsell, MV secretary, sounded over the public address system: "Good morning, campers." He was waking the scores of Pathfinders who had chosen to spend the weekend in the wooded area at York Retreat.

Stimulated by the chilly atmosphere and the enthusiastic voices of Pathfinder directors, the youth soon had fires built and prepared a good breakfast. After worship time came inspection, where one must look one's best.

Now that the day had officially begun, the Pathfinders marched to the worship site among the towering trees where they exercised their voices by singing. The challenge of missions was presented by Mrs. Delores Jones. "Lessons for Life" was the topic of the morning study led by Elder Edsell, with youth participating.

For the worship hour, Bud Patchin shared his love for youth in an inspirational song service. Elder R. J. Kloosterhuis kept every eye, ear, and body alert as he told of the crash landing of a big airplane in which the plane's captain gave his life for the passengers. From the story he drew the lesson of Christ's giving His life for us.

The warm, glowing sun, a delicious dinner and supper cooked over the open flame, a walk in nature, and a campfire rounded out the lovely Sabbath day.

Even though the day was warm, evening was chilly enough to cause Pathfinder leaders to fill plastic bottles with hot water to keep campers warm during the night. You can be assured that I donned my warmest clothes and heaviest socks before crawling into my sleeping bag for the night.

On Sunday, the closing day, club skills such as flag raising, flapjack flipping, nail driving, first aid know-how, and an axmanship relay challenged each group to do their best. The climax to the entire event was the grand march. This, along with the other events, attracted many non-Adventist campers to come and watch our youth perform.

Now it is all over. While dinner is cooking, the tents are coming down, equipment is being packed and loaded, and the excitement of the weekend moves in the direction of home, where supper around the home table will be the time to tell all that has happened.

Eston L. Allen

The axmanship event was a challenge to the girls as well as the boys.

Every girl needs to know how to use her trusty little first aid kit, especially when she's competing against other Pathfinders to win honors for her club.

These boys competing in the flapjack event are thankful they don't have to build a fire each time they want something to eat.

Everyone helps out at lunchtime.

Let's see, where'd I put those directions?

Photographers Have Two More Months To Enter N. A. Division Photo Contest

If you're handy with a camera, have you been shooting for your church? Have you been shooting for the North American Division Photo Contest, which closes December 31?

Someone will win the grand award of $100, or one of the other 11 cash prizes—and serve his church too! It might be you!

There are still a couple of months left to shoot, and perhaps you have already taken some prize-winning photographs this year. If you do not have a copy of the rules and categories, write now to Bureau of Public Relations, General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, 6840 Eastern Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20012.

Anyone in North America may enter the contest. Even if you don't win a prize, your picture may be just the one needed sometime to help your church tell its story, and you will receive remuneration for its use at that time.

Top pictures will be published in Tell and Review and Herald.

Put your camera to work for the Lord.

Editor Named for Youth Journal

F. Donald Yost, long-time resident of Takoma Park, Maryland, has been named to edit a new Seventh-day Adventist youth journal. Scheduled to begin publication in May, 1970, it will seek to communicate the message of the church to college-age young people.

Yost has had a wide background in editorial work as well as experience as a pastor. He served as youth pastor in Battle Creek, Michigan, and for several years was assistant secretary of the youth department at the General Conference.

Yost is author of the book, Writing for Adventist Magazines. He received his master's degree from the American University, Washington, D.C., and is completing work on his doctorate from Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York.

While on the staff at Newbury Park Academy, Newbury Park, California, he taught English and journalism, and later was assistant professor of journalism at Southern Missionary College, Collegedale, Tennessee. Currently, he is an associate editor of the Review and Herald, official voice of the Seventh-day Adventist church.

The new publication will beam its editorial comment to overseas countries as well as to Canada and the U.S. Other members of the staff have not been selected, but they will include young people with the ability to understand and speak to the present generation.

The Youth's Instructor, oldest religious journal in North America to be published continuously under one name, will yield to the new periodical. The Instructor will cease publication in 1970, 117 years after it was first issued in Rochester, New York. The reason given for its demise is that it was attempting to reach too broad a readership, stretching from the high-school level to the young marrieds. The new journal will partially replace that publication.

"S.S. United States" Changes Schedule For Visit to Pitcairn Island

Pitcairn Island, that tiny spot of land in the trackless Pacific Ocean, leaped into news columns around the world recently because its people chose to honor the Sabbath day!

In early September Tom Christian, radio operator on the island, received a news clipping that the luxury passenger liner, the S.S. United States, was going to make its first cruise into the Pacific Ocean in January of 1970. Tom noted that the first stop of the vessel was to be at Pitcairn on the morning of January 31, 1970—a Sabbath!

Because the Pitcairners' only way of earning money is by selling curios to passing ships, the news that the ship would arrive on Sabbath morning caused considerable dismay. Except for the schoolmaster and his family from New Zealand, all the people on Pitcairn are members of the Seventh-day Adventist faith.

Radio Request

Each week, on Tuesday afternoon, Tom Christian has a radio schedule on his ham radio rig, VR6TC, with Eddie Pullen, engineer at the Voice of Prophecy headquarters in Glendale, California, on K6DTT. During his first schedule which followed reception of the news clipping, Christian made a request: "Eddie, could you get someone to appeal to the shipping company to either advance or delay the arrival of the S.S. United States? Our people won't sell curios during the hours of the Sabbath. If we don't, it will probably disappoint the passengers, because they've surely heard about our curios."

The Voice of Prophecy made an appeal to the American President Lines, which owns the vessel, through the General Conference. At first the steamship company had the impression that the Pitcairners would sell curios on Sabbath—that the only time they would not was during their actual worship service hour.

Arrival Delayed

Further information cleared up that misunderstanding. Then followed a cable from the Pitcairn people to the shipping company, and a direct telephone call from a government aide in Fiji to the company headquarters in New York City in behalf of the Pitcairn people.

Finally the word came from New York to Glendale; and on Tuesday, October 7, from the ham radio room at the Voice of Prophecy, Eddie Pullen talked to Tom Christian:

"The American President Lines says it is definitely delaying the arrival of the United States at Pitcairn until after sundown on Sabbath, January 31," he reported. "There will be up to 1,900 passengers aboard, so the Pitcairn people can plan to have the biggest curio-selling session in their history!"

Because they chose to honor God's holy Sabbath day, a little band of some 80 people on a tiny isle in the Pacific Ocean changed the plans of a giant American shipping company!

Elder and Mrs. Sheldon Seltzer, with their children, Sharon, Sandra, and Brian, are now living in Cicero. Lorraine Hansen, left, and Pastor A. R. Friedrich have studied and worked with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson and the Ralph Dean family.

New Workers Arrive in Indiana

Elder Sheldon Seltzer, with his wife and family, has just moved to Cicero where he will pastor that church and the one in Noblesville.

Elder Seltzer is very interested in young people and their activities and problems, so he should find a ready reception from the students of Indiana Academy who attend the Cicero church.

The Seltzer family come to Indiana from Janesville, Wisconsin. Prior to working in Wisconsin they were in the Nevada-Utah Conference.

We welcome Elder Seltzer and his family to Indiana and wish them God's blessing on their labors here.

Hi Ho, We Went to the Fair

"This is Smoking Sam. . . He has glass lungs so that he will not get lung cancer."

"Come in and watch the moving picture on drugs."

"Here is something for you to read. We hope you enjoy it."

Members of the Muncie church greeted and talked with an estimated 25,000 persons recently during the Delaware County Fair.

Under the direction of Paul Harney, lay activities leader, about 20 members spent over 200 hours manning the booth. The Indiana Conference disaster van attracted much attention on the mall.

The 10- by 20-foot booth featured temperance motion pictures, Smoking Sam demonstrations, literature, and friendly words from local Seventh-day Adventists.

In all, those manning the booth distributed over 25,000 pieces of literature and enrolled about 125 in the Voice of Prophecy, Faith for Today, and Bible Speaks study programs. The four temperance films were shown about 100 times.

A Ball State University professor noticed the Listen and Life and Health magazines on the table and asked for 25 copies of each to distribute to one of his classes. He said that both he and his wife use Listen in their teaching.

Many other people stopped to chat and ask questions about the work of Seventh-day Adventists, and it will only be in eternity that the true value of the fair booth and other similar projects will be known.

Winston Speaks at Vincennes District Rally

Elder J. P. Winston, secretary of the medical, temperance, and A.S.I. departments of the Lake Union Conference, presented a challenging message at the annual Vincennes District Health and Temperance Rally, Sabbath morning, October 4. He pointed out that Jesus was healthy and powerful in body, mind, and spirit and expects His followers to maintain a joyous life by physical fitness.

Following a fellowship dinner in the city park, the MV society of Vincennes presented a program of skits and talks showing how one can "Live 365 Days a Year." Centuries ago God gave to Israel detailed and positive recommendations regarding the laws of health. The promise was that if they followed these laws, "and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee."—Exodus 15:26.

Assisting Elder Winston in the district rally were C. M. McAdams, William Carroll, Raymond Klin, Mrs. Pat Fossmeier, and Mrs. Cathryn Kuszmaul of Vincennes, and Roy Gross of Washington.

LAKE REGION

Shiloh Lady Is Ingathering Champion

For the week of October 12 to 18, the Ingathering champion for Lake Region is Mrs. Albert Cleveland of the Shiloh church, who raised $110.

We congratulate Mrs. Cleveland for being in the spotlight this week, and encourage those who are making a similar effort to help their church achieve its goal.

R. W. Bates

LAYMAN WATCHES FOR SOULS

The bells were being put on the Shiloh church. Curious youngsters watched in amazement as the giant crane swung back and forth. The faithful members of the church kept a constant vigil over the church as the workmen finished one job and then another. No less curious were the friendly neighbors, who watched with interest the building progress.

Edward Robinson of the community stood in front of the church admiring the bells. He was approached by one of the Adventist Men of Shiloh, who introduced himself as Hosie Hatchett. After a brief conversation, Mr. Hatchett invited Mr. Robinson to worship with him on the following Sabbath.

For the next two Sabbaths Mr. Hatchett, one of the local elders of Shiloh, scanned the congregation for his new friend. Failing to see him, Mr. Hatchett felt it was time to drop in on the Robinsons and renew their acquaintance. When Mr. Hatchett arrived at their home, he found Mr. Robinson out. However, Mrs. Robinson invited him in for a brief visit. Upon leaving, Mr. Hatchett made an appointment to return the next week.

The return visit found his new friend, Mr. Robinson, home and Mrs. Robinson ill in bed. After a brief visit, Mr. Hatchett mentioned world conditions, and how the solution to man's problems is found in the Bible, the Word of God. Mr. Robinson's response was that of a man honestly desiring to know truth. Listening in the adjoining room, with great interest, was Mrs. Robinson.

The study hour was set. When Mr. Hatchett returned he found Mrs. Robinson much improved and sitting with her husband, ready for their new venture. The study consisted of 10 comprehensive lessons. These lessons were prepared by the Shiloh Bible instructor, Mrs. Beatrice Hampton, who is the lay activities leader and coordinator of the evangelistic program of the Adventist Men's organization, to be used by this very active group of men.

By the end of the lessons, and before they had ever visited the church, the Robinsons were convinced that they should make a complete surrender to Christ. They were a part of a group which received certificates for completing the Bible course.

The next Sabbath, after the Go Tell graduation exercise, they were both buried with their Lord in baptism.

Hosie Hatchett has led about eight persons to Christ this year, and is continually watching for souls.

R. W. Bates

Dr. R. T. Andrews

Elder R. T. Andrews Receives Doctorate

Robert T. Andrews, graduate of Oakwood College and Andrews University, completed requirements for his Ph.D. degree at Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan, and graduated in June, 1969.

Dr. Andrews was the first graduate to participate in the program from the platform. He gave the invocation and prayer at the commencement exercise.

He has very recently accepted a call from the General Conference to serve in the West Indies Mission as chairman of the history department in the West Indies College.

New East Side Indianapolis Church Organized

Sabbath, October 18, was a happy day for "new" believers and "old" believers in Indianapolis. As a result of the Bible Palace evangelistic crusade conducted by J. M. Phipps and associates on the Indianapolis East Side, some 120 persons were baptized. Elder Samuel Flagg, pastor of the Capitol Avenue church, and Elder Phipps both felt it the opportune time to organize a new congregation.

C. E. Bradford, Lake Region Conference president, and M. C. Van Putten, conference treasurer, led out in the organization service. R. W. Bates, lay activities and Sabbath School secretary; R. D. Barnes, education and temperance secretary; and C. Woods, assistant treasurer and auditor, presented the total conference program to the group and explained the function of each department.

At the conclusion of Evangelist Phipps's sermon, Elder Bradford asked those who desired membership in the East Side church to come forward. The aisles were crowded as scores pressed to the front.

J. Lewis, assistant pastor of the Indianapolis-Terre Haute District, has been appointed pastor by the conference committee. Pastor Lewis is well-acquainted with the new converts, having worked with many of them during the evangelistic meetings.

We wish for the East Side church a bright future as they assume the responsibilities of a fully-organized church. Sabbath services are presently being held at the Zion Tabernacle, 3302 North Arsenal Street.

Pray for Detroit's Better Living Center

The initial evangelistic campaign to be conducted in the Detroit Better Living Center is scheduled to begin Sunday night, November 2. For some time Evangelist J. M. Phipps, center director and Lake Region Conference ministerial secretary, has hoped and prayed for an opening in this great metropolis.

Tent evangelism has been extremely difficult because of the stringent municipal codes regulating temporary structures. Now that the Lord has given us a permanent center with a large auditorium seating some 1,400 persons, the way is open for large-scale evangelism. And with the opportunity comes the challenge to prayer—earnest, fervent, intercessory prayer.

From every quarter of Lake Region territory, from thousands of family altars and scores of meeting places, may our petitions rise like incense invoking the throne of grace for revival showers on Elder Phipps, his corps of workers, and the honest in heart in the Detroit area.

Many years ago, the servant of the Lord, Ellen G. White, under similar circumstances, communicated Heaven's message to the believers in a certain city where evangelistic meetings were in progress.

"Let the — church have special seasons of prayer daily for the work that is being done. The blessing of the Lord will come to the church members who thus participate in the work, gathering in small groups daily to pray for its success. Thus the believers will obtain grace for themselves, and the work of the Lord will be advanced."—Evangelism, p. 112.

A.U.A. Students Accept Evangelism Challenge

A candle-lighting service highlighted a recent youth rally called to lay the groundwork for evangelistic meetings scheduled for Benton Harbor.

The special service was held for Andrews University Academy students and featured five graduates of the academy. Mark Umek, Stan Detwiler, Margery Hill, Cathy Mitchell, and Martha Myers gave personal tips on how to make this school year the ultimate in spiritual success. Youth activities coordinators, Chuck Cleveland and Rex Bell, invited each person present to shine for Christ by participating in the groundwork for the meetings to begin November 1.

"You will be amazed at what one person can do," Cleveland told the students. To illustrate this point, Bell took a lighted candle and lit the candle of one student, who in turn shared his light with his neighbor, until the darkened Gold Room in Meier Hall glowed with the shining candles of every student.

To conclude the rally, the students marched to the Pathfinder building in bands led by torchbearers. Around a blazing campfire the group sang songs of inspiration and prayed for a personal commitment equal to the great challenge.

A group of students who are "sharing their light" have promised to participate in the coming meetings to be held in Benton Harbor.

Welfare Workers Find God Answers Prayer

Last year the Holland Health and Welfare Center was notified to vacate its rented quarters, as the building had been sold. Weeks were spent searching for a new location, with the matter being made a subject of private and public prayer. However, it seemed church and welfare leaders had come to a dead end.

The officials of the city of Holland have been very much aware of and appreciate the services of our welfare center in the community; therefore, Pastor Paul Penno was impressed to present the need for a building to Nelson Bosman, the mayor of the city. After several days, Mayor Bosman called offering as temporary quarters an old vacant church building. Lack of heat or water made it unsuitable for the operation of the center, but it served as an adequate storage place until the Lord opened the doors to greater blessings.

While finishing the 1968 Ingathering campaign in Holland, Mrs. Leon Slikkers and Pastor Penno contacted Herbert Thomas of the Wire Products Company. They told him at some length of the work of the local center and of the urgent need for a building in which to operate. Mr. Thomas indicated he would discuss the matter with his partners, and Mrs. Slikkers and Pastor Penno were invited to return a few days later to learn whether help could be given.

On their return visit, the solicitors were informed that the company could not make a cash contribution to the Ingathering campaign, but space was available in the building they owned in downtown Holland in which the welfare center could locate, rent free, until some future time when the building might be sold. Mr. Thomas took the pastor through the quarters. Later Mrs. Harry Fowler, the health and welfare leader, was shown the space. The decision was made to move the center into this office space.

After many hours of scrubbing, painting, remodeling, and laying floor covering, there now is a very attractive and representative place in which to carry on our welfare work in the city of Holland. An open house for the public was held recently, at which time Elder W. M. Buckman, Michigan Conference director of health and welfare services, along with the disaster van, was present.

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you," is a promise very real to Adventist welfare workers in Holland. They thank the Lord for answering their prayers and for leading them in ways which are unknown to them.

Claribel Dorgelo, ex-president, and Barbara Ringer, president of the Michigan Conference State Federation, review office procedures and case records with Mrs. Ann Fowler, seated, director of the local center.

Mrs. Larry Townsend, a volunteer worker, and Elder Penno inspect the welfare signs at the entrance identifying the agency as sponsored by Seventh-day Adventists.

Malcolms Are Welcomed to Berrien Springs

Elder and Mrs. Elmer Malcolm and their sons Steve and Mike, recently of the Pontiac church, were welcomed into the Berrien Springs church on the evening of October 12. A near-capacity crowd filled the school gymnasium as representatives from the various divisions, including cradle roll children and the church's oldest member (94), made the Malcolms at home in their own way.

The cradle roll children presented the pastor and his family with a basket of apples and a decorated squash, symbolizing the productivity of the local community. The candle, presented to them as a general gift from the church, suggested the unfailing light the new church leaders no doubt will be in the community.

Elder Malcolm is heading up the fastest-growing church in Michigan and perhaps the fastest-growing church in all of North America. His members promised him their support and loyalty.

Elder and Mrs. Elmer Malcolm, and their two sons Steve and Mike, show some of the gifts received at their welcome reception by the Berrien Springs church.

Jackson Students Enter Fair Exhibit

Students at the Jackson church school worked hard this past school year to have ready for the Jackson County Fair four exhibits. They netted the school a very profitable $92.50 in exhibit prize money.

Each of the four classrooms of the school entered an exhibit. Mrs. Carol DeLong, art teacher, counseled and worked with the students in the preparation of the exhibits.

In addition to the school's participation, the Sabbath School prepared two entries, and the Pathfinders entered their float used in the Pathfinder Fair. These exhibits brought an additional $75 in prize money.

This is the third year the Sabbath School department had an exhibit, but the first time for the school. This is a wonderful means for the young people to achieve good public relations and witness for their faith. Four hundred pieces of literature were taken from the booths.

The youth department of the Sabbath School entered a temperance exhibit. The woman who was in charge of the entries complimented them on their good work and stated she was very happy to see that at least one group was interested in temperance work. This woman is a devoted Catholic, and it was at her suggestion that fair officials created the church and school exhibit sections. It may be a good idea for churches in other areas to contact their local fair office to request something along this line.

Edwin Kittrell, principal of the Jackson school, is presented with a prize check by Elwyn Hyde, a seventh grade student, while Mrs. Carol DeLong admires ribbons. The exhibit prepared by the seventh and eighth grades is in the background.

MASK Officers Invite Skiers To Join Them Three Weekends

The Michigan Adventist Ski Klub would like to invite all Adventist skiers and would-be skiers in the Lake Union to the three weekends planned for this coming skiing season.

MASK is designed to give Adventist skiers a place to stay for the weekend and fellowship with others who like to ski.

Camp Au Sable at Grayling is headquarters for these skiing sessions. Many begin the weekend at camp Friday night, but others join as late as Sunday morning. A meal is planned for Friday night, three meals for Sabbath, plus breakfast and a sack lunch for Sunday. The entire weekend is informal, with Sabbath School at 10 o'clock and church service following. The afternoon is mostly free. A vesper service is conducted, where everyone participates to provide the program. Following the evening meal varied activities are available, including night skiing.

MASK members leave the camp on Sunday morning early enough to be ready to ski when the slopes open. Usually Boyne Mountain or Boyne Highlands is the ski area used.

The weekends for this season are January 9 to 11, January 30 to February 1, and February 27 to March 1. For further information or to make reservations, write to the club's current president: Mel St. John, 218 Sunset Drive, Berrien Springs, Michigan 49103.

Conrad Van Hoven gives a demonstration with the use of the models Smoking Sam and Sensible Sue.

Sam and Sue Attract Fair-goers

The Holland church sponsored a stop-smoking booth at the Ottawa County Fair with a record attendance. The booth was located in the exhibition hall, where Smoking Sam and Sensible Sue were on exhibit. Conrad Van Hoven gave many demonstrations with these models. Others who helped were Mrs. Howard Dorgelo, Ron Crary, and several members from Oak Haven. By the end of the fair 35,000 pieces of literature had been given out.

The sincere interest of those who saw the display resulted in a Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking, held in a local public school. Sixty-four adults attended regularly for the five nights and 75 per cent stopped smoking. The plan was conducted by Ron Crary, Elvin B. Johnson, M.D., from Allegan, and Wynnton Bunnell, M.D., from Grand Rapids. Another Five-Day Plan is being considered for the future.

NEWS NOTES

• Sheridan Johnson, conference builder, and his son Jim discuss with George Crumley, conference treasurer, the new office partitions that they are building. The partitions will divide two large offices into four smaller ones to help relieve crowded conditions at the conference office.

• Elder Paul Cannon conducted a very successful Week of Prayer at Wisconsin Academy recently.

• Progress on the Wisconsin Academy dormitory addition is going well. The brick work is up to second floor and the concrete is poured, ready to go up with the top floor.

• Bernard Payne of Sheridan, Illinois, formerly of Richland Center, volunteered to clear the brush from the grounds near the private tent area at the Portage campground at no cost to the conference. Mr. Payne's contribution to our camp is much appreciated.

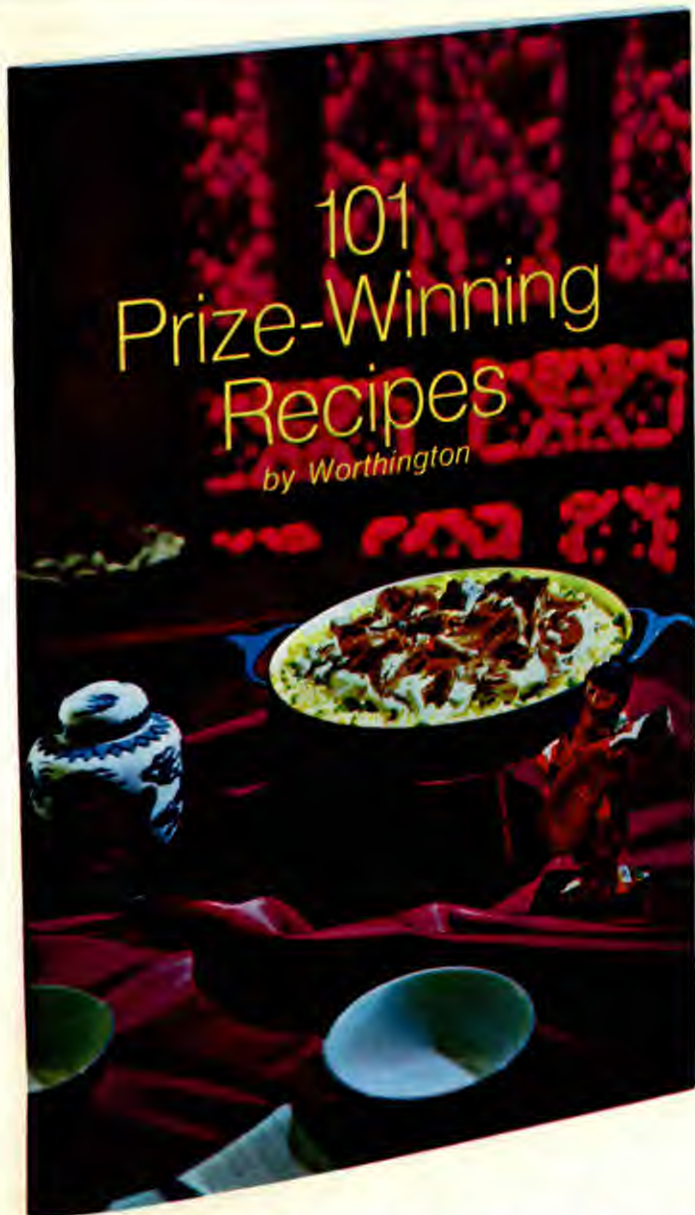

• James Fanella, assistant pastor of the Madison church, demonstrates breathing exercises at the Five-Day Plan. According to Fanella, director of the plan, about 40 out of the 50 who attended regularly had quit smoking by the end of the five days.

• Dr. Charles Dale of Hinsdale Sanitarium demonstrates a diseased organ on the first night of Madison's recent Five-Day Plan. Smoking Sam stands in the background.

Anderson-Boward Wedding

Dorothy Jean Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Anderson of Hinsdale, Illinois, and Harry Dean Boward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boward of Hagerstown, Maryland, were married Sunday, August 3, at the Broadview church.

The bride's uncle, Elder Orren Bacheller, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of the Hinsdale Sanitarium School of Nursing. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in nursing from Columbia Union College, where she is now instructor of nursing.

The groom is a senior at Columbia Union College, majoring in music education, and is employed as organist and choir director at the First Christian church, Mt. Rainier, Maryland.

Nelson-Phillips Wedding

In the Mountain View, California, church on Sunday afternoon, August 3, Jeanette Ann Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Nelson of Mountain View, and Max Gordon Phillips, son of Elder and Mrs. A. K. Phillips of Lansing, Michigan, were married. The groom's father officiated.

Jeanette, a graduate of Mountain View Academy and a junior at Pacific Union College, was affiliated with Alpha Gamma and actively participated in the Adventist college task force among ghetto children of the mission district of San Francisco. She has now transferred to nearby San Jose State College, where she is majoring in art as she looks forward to teaching.

A book editor at the Pacific Press Publishing Association, the groom, a graduate of Adelpian Academy, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from La Sierra College and holds a Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Theological Seminary at Andrews University.

With his maps laid out in front of him, Dr. Raoul Dederen plans this summer's tour of Roman Catholic and Reformation lands.

Andrews University Will Conduct Tour Of Roman Catholic and Reformation Lands

You can make your sermons come alive, your history classes more real, and your Bible studies have more meaning by participating in a guided tour to be conducted by Andrews University next summer to Roman Catholic and Reformation lands.

The tour is planned to give Seventh-day Adventist ministers, educators, and laymen opportunity to participate in such a trip without Sabbath-keeping conflicts and with vegetarian meals available at choice on the complete tour.

Dederen Will Be Director

Director of the tour, Raoul Dederen, professor of theology and Christian philosophy at Andrews University, is particularly well qualified for the job, having had 17 years of experience working in the Southern European Division.

Qualified participants may earn four Seminary credits in theology from the trip; this will involve, however, a limited amount of study and research before the tour begins. Dr. Dederen is offering a course in Roman Catholic theology this summer prior to the tour from June 15 to July 16.

Carefully planned, the 29-day tour will include such places as Paris, Lourdes, Carcassonne, Rome, Bern, Geneva, Florence, the Albigenian country, and the Waldensian valleys. It offers the rare opportunity to discover and to understand a little of the age-old Reformation heritage of Europe, and at the same time to get a close and realistic look at some cultural and religious aspects of Roman Catholicism. Nowhere will the Middle Ages and the Renaissance, Roman Catholicism and the Protestant Reformation, the Albigenian and the Waldensian struggles for toleration come to life as vividly as in these areas of France, Italy, and Switzerland. The participants will be able to trace the main lines of these historical developments by an on-the-spot visit. The itinerary features places of historical significance, and the sight-seeing is filled with spectacular landmarks that will never be forgotten by the student of Biblical prophecy.

Tour Dates and Costs

The tour begins at Kennedy Airport, July 19, 1970 and will end there on August 16. Cost of the trip is $1,235 per person. The price includes round trip air transportation from New York, tuition, ground transportation, accommodations in superior tourist hotels, three meals a day, baggage handling, guides, and admission to all museums, art galleries, castles, historic shrines, as well as all tips in hotels and restaurants.

Individuals may make arrangements at the end of the tour to stay longer if they wish.

Persons interested in the tour should make application with a deposit of $100 before January 1, 1970. The remainder of the fee may be paid in installments at the applicant's convenience, but the final payment must be made before June 1, 1970. All checks should be made payable to Andrews University. Thirty to 35 persons can be accommodated on the trip.

For further information concerning the tour, registration, and itinerary, write to Raoul Dederen, Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Michigan 49104.

MV Man Meets With Students

Elder Paul M. DeBooy, associate secretary of the MV Department of the General Conference, participated with Andrews University students in a "Campus Concern" religious retreat at the Michiana Christian Service Camp the weekend of October 9 to 12.

New Faculty Welcomed

Fifty new Andrews University faculty and their spouses were welcomed at a special social on Sunday evening, October 19. The event featured Hawaiian decor and entertainment. (Photo by Hewlett)
