KEYMER New Michigan PRESIDENT

Elder Charles I. Keymer, executive secretary of the Michigan Conference for the past four and a half years, was elected conference president Thursday, November 20.

Keymer, a native of Missouri, replaced Elder Robert D. Moon who has retired after 44 years of service to the denomination.

Elder Keymer has been a minister for 32 years. He was ordained in St. Louis, Missouri in 1946. He has served as the singing evangelist for the Central Union Conference, and Missouri Conference, and has been a pastor in Florida, New York, Texas, Michigan, California, and Oregon. He was pastor of the Battle Creek Tabernacle from 1955 to 1959 when he moved to California. His replacement at Battle Creek was Elder Moon who was called from the Mountain View Church in California.

Music has always played an important part in Elder Keymer's life and work. He was the song director and soloist for the North American Youth Congress held in San Francisco in 1947, the director of music for the Carnegie Hall Evangelistic meetings in New York City, chairman of the music committee at the North American Youth Congress in 1960 held in Atlantic City, New Jersey, chairman of the General Conference Session Music Committee in 1966, and an assistant of the committee at the Vienna World Congress this summer.

Elder Keymer graduated from Columbia Union College in 1943 with a B.A. degree and majors in theology and history.

He is the first known executive of the Michigan Conference, in recent years, to have had at least one regular preaching appointment in all the 156 churches in the state.

The 53-year-old executive married his wife, Maxine, in 1941 in Wichita, Kansas. They have one son, Michael who is a representative of the United Pacific Reliance Insurance Company in Eugene, Oregon.

We welcome Elder Keymer to his new post and wish him God's blessing and wisdom as he takes up his duties as the president of the Michigan conference.

Forty Shiloh Trailblazers of Chicago solicited 902 articles of food in two hours. They arranged their collections in the shape of a castle. The nine windows of the castle represent the number of families the Pathfinders hope to win as a result of their sharing activities. On the left, the Petoskey Stones of Michigan are pictured with their 954 cans. Fourteen happy first and second graders from the Cicero, Indiana, church school collected more than one hundred cans. See story on pages 4-6.

CZECHS ASK WCC FOR EQUAL CONCERN

An organization of Czechoslovak exiles has asked the World Council of Churches to express as much concern for human rights in Communist countries as it has for Chile, Brazil, and southern Africa. According to the Czech group, persecution of churches and religious groups has deepened in Czechoslovakia in the past three years "to such an extent that informed observers speak of quiet liquidation of spiritual and religious life in the country." It charged that churches and religious groups are allowed no independent publishing activity in Czechoslovakia, that the regime places difficulties on priests in carrying out their work, that religious orders have been "brutally suppressed," and that the government "discriminates severely against all active Christians."

CHURCHGOERS PREFER SERMONS ON PRAYER, GUIDANCE, AND THE BIBLE

Churchgoers say they want more sermons dealing with prayer, God's guidance, and the Bible, and fewer sermons on politics and social action. At least that's the opinion of more than 50,000 churchgoers who participated in a national survey on the subject. As for "charismatic preaching," 26.4 percent wanted more, 24.8 percent wanted less, and 24.3 percent said they felt the present emphasis was "about right." The term, "charismatic preaching," however, was not defined in the survey.

BILL WOULD PERMIT U.S. VOTING BY OVERSEAS MISSIONARIES

A bill enabling American missionaries and other citizens living and working abroad to register and vote absentee in presidential and congressional elections has been approved, 14-to-5, by the House Administration Committee. An identical bill was unanimously approved by the Senate last May. About 750,000 Americans, many of whom are missionaries and others working for charitable organizations, would be affected. The measure now goes before the full house.

BIBLES FOLLOW U.S. TROOPS AROUND THE WORLD

The American Bible Society distributed close to two million copies of the Bible in 1974—an average of 212

Bibles or Bible portions each hour, the society revealed recently. The ABS spends more than $200,000 a year on its Scripture distribution program for the armed services. During U.S. involvement in Vietnam, the society sent 18.5 million copies to American troops. One group of infantrymen raised $2,600 to underwrite the translation, publication, and distribution of the New Testament in Koho, a language spoken in the north central highlands of Vietnam.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS TOPS IN PER CAPITA GIVING

A report issued in early November by the National Council of Churches lists Seventh-day Adventists as the highest per capita givers of any Protestant denomination in the United States, weighing in at $486.48 per member. The average for 44 other Protestant bodies was $116.77. Furthermore, over 70 percent of contributions were earmarked by Adventists for benevolence or support of missions, as opposed to congregational upkeep. The total given by members of the 44 bodies was just over $5 billion for 1974, which represented a 9.1 percent increase over the previous year. But the gain was offset by a dollar drop of 11 percent in purchasing power due to inflation.

SUSTENTATION POLICY REVISIONS

At the time the 1975 Annual Council was held in Washington, D.C., from October 9 to 16, some revisions were made to the Sustentation Policy.

One of these revisions which applies specifically to the North American Division eliminates the penalty for breaks in service, so that after January 1, 1976, an individual may be eligible for sustentation benefits if he has a total service credit of at least 15 years, is 65 years of age, and began his denominational service before he passed his 51st birthday.

This means that some individuals, who have previously not been eligible for sustentation benefits because of breaks in service, or because the individual discontinued his denominational service before he reached the normal retirement age of 65, may be eligible after January 1, 1976. Application forms for sustentation benefits may be secured from the local conference in which the denominational worker resides. The application should actually be filed with the local conference office, together with a signed personal service record, or some type of verification of the individual's denominational employment. The application is processed by the local conference and the union conference. It is then sent to the General Conference for final consideration.

The Sustentation Plan was established by the Annual Council of 1910 and began its operation January 1, 1911. It has served the church continuously and effectively since that date. At the present time there are over 4,600 individuals receiving benefit checks each month from the General Conference Sustentation Office in Washington, D.C.

Last year they provided ten food baskets to families in Hamilton County. Lower left, The Columbus, Indiana, club collected 504 cans of food and distributed 400 Pathfinder Halloween leaflets. Each Thanksgiving and Christmas hundreds of families throughout the Lake Union have their meager, non-festive fare replaced by baskets, bags, and boxes of special holiday food collected by Pathfinders.

During the Halloween season, rather than going through their neighborhoods asking for treats for themselves, this group of young people ask for treats for others. Many of them go door-to-door in their town. Some, like the Glendale Indianapolis Club, set up booths in shopping malls where people do their weekly grocery shopping. At these booths the people can contribute canned foods, and non-Adventist children can sign up to be Pathfinders. This has proved to be a very valuable public contact for the clubs.

Mr. Ayres, the director of the Glendale Shopping Center Mall, became very interested in the Indianapolis Pathfinders and has offered them free use of the mall for displays and projects in the future.

The Pathfinders of the Troy, Michigan, Church passed out grocery bags on October 28 and returned to the homes two days later for the pick-up. They distributed 300 bags and collected both canned goods and clothing.

The Prairieview Pathfinders of Monmouth, Illinois, collected 350 cans and donated them to The Pantry at Jamieson Center for community service. Many other Pathfinder clubs make up their own holiday baskets of food, clothing, and bedding, and supplement them with toys and games for children. Cash donations are used to purchase perishable food items which are added to the baskets just prior to delivery.

The Pathfinders take this opportunity of meeting non-Adventists to pass out informative literature on the club and the church. Books such as Steps to Christ and Desire of Ages are also placed in the food baskets by many clubs.

The recipients of the Thanksgiving and Christmas food baskets—widows, shut-ins, the elderly, families in financial stress—always welcome the Pathfinders with open arms, not so much because their physical needs are being met more adequately, but because the best and brightest gift of all is the joy of knowing that someone cares.

Top left, Students, Elder Habenicht, and a villager brought a ton of cement by boat—the only access to the school and village of Santa Helena. Top right, Elder Habenicht did the surveying for the clinic. Center, Tony Kinney of Chicago made bread in an oven the boys helped construct out of plate steel and a 55-gallon drum. It was the first bread the students at the mission had had in a year and a half. Lower left, The students used a mule and cart to haul clay to this building where they pressed it into adobe bricks to be used in construction of the clinic.

A Broadview Academy First

Five Broadview Academy students became the academy's first student missionaries spending six weeks in Colombia, South America.

Jim Battenburg, Orlando Gonzalez, Tony Kinney, Dan Schiffbauer, and Rod Willey, accompanied by the academy pastor, Elder R. G. Habenicht, traveled to Centro El Compa, a small self-supporting mission school in the plains of eastern Colombia. They pitched in by clearing land, repairing machinery, and making bricks for a clinic which is to be built to provide medical facilities for the area.

It was a thrilling experience and a firsthand taste of mission life for the group. A new realization of the ease and plenty that is enjoyed in America and the needs of the mission field, both in personnel and funds, was impressed on the group.

The five students, picked from a number who applied, raised the funds for the trip from relatives and friends, their home churches, and many willing members of the Illinois Conference. They will be presenting a special program in a number of the Illinois churches.

PHOTOGRAPHY—A NEW CLASS AT BVA

Photography is an exciting new class that has been added to Broadview Academy's curriculum this year. Sherry Brown, a commercial art graduate from Pacific Union College is the teacher. A total of 15 adventurous students, enrolled for the first semester.

In this class the students learn to use 35mm and twin lens reflex cameras. They also learn good composition and do all their own darkroom work, including developing the negatives and making enlargements.

At present their pictures are taken with black and white film; however, later in the year they will learn to develop color slide film.

It is hoped that interest will continue in this class and that the enrollment will grow.

Performing for the first time this school year, the Cicero Elementary School choir worshiped in song on October 25 at the church service in the Cicero SDA Church.

Project: Steps to Christ

To present to every home in Illinois the Gospel of Jesus Christ along with an opportunity for adults, youth, and juniors to study the Scriptures and become acquainted with the Adventist health message.

The Gospel presentation has been made to 46,133 homes to date. Free books requested and delivered: 70

Christ's Object Lessons, 54 Ministry of Healing, and 66 Great Controversy. A total of 272 persons are taking Bible studies, and 30 are enrolled in the V.O.P. nutrition course.

INDIANAPOLIS OPENS BOOK AND BIBLE HOUSE BRANCH

Directly across the street from the old office on Broad Ripple Avenue in the north area of Indianapolis, the Indiana Conference Book and Bible House has opened up a new branch. It offers a complete line of books, records, and health foods. This branch has advertised on radio station WHYT to reach out to the public. Store hours are 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Friday.

Children enjoy the songs as the story hour gets under way.

CICERO EARLITEEN YOUTH START SABBATH STORY HOUR

The seventh- and eighth-grade girls of the Cicero Church started a Sabbath afternoon story hour on October 25 with 40 children in attendance.

Given adult supervision and the facilities of the Cicero SDA Elementary School, the young people are gaining many good experiences and are able to witness to the non-Adventists who are attending.

Ranging in age from 4 to 12, the children enjoy the songs and the stories provided.

I.A. BUS BARN HIT BY STORM

Sunday night, November 9, a severe storm hit the campus of Indiana Academy. The bus barn was completely destroyed by tornado-like winds. A number of trees on the campus and some picture windows in the principal's house were also damaged. Three of the academy buses were housed in the barn. It's unknown how severely damaged they were, although by the appearance it does seem to be quite extensive, especially the tour bus which was parked on the end where the cement block wall fell in.

Pastor Randall Murphy and family

RANDALL MURPHY COMES TO CICERO

Randall Murphy assumed his duties as pastor of the Cicero SDA Church on October 25, 1975. He also is serving as pastor of the Noblesville SDA Church.

Elder Murphy succeeds Elder Don Houghton, who transferred to Phoenix, Arizona, to be the ministerial director for the Arizona Conference.

The new pastor was born in Clemtown, West

Virginia. He attended Fairmont State College, Fairmont, West Virginia; Frostburg State College, Frostburg, Maryland; and Columbia Union College, Takoma Park, Maryland. With his major in elementary education, Pastor Murphy later took the theological course while at Columbia Union College.

Since his graduation, Elder Murphy has spent eight years in elementary education in the West Virginia Conference and Chesapeake Conference, also as a ministerial intern in Dover, Delaware, and the Treadelpia-Reistertown District. For two years in the Salisbury-Poncomoke District he was the assistant pastor and was pastor for two more years at the Frederick, Maryland, Church, where he was actively engaged in a five-week series of meetings before coming to Cicero.

Mrs. Murphy, the former Martha Lee Shafferman of Grafton, West Virginia, and Pastor Murphy were schoolmates since the seventh grade. They have two sons, Larry, age 14, and Bruce, age 10. Both are attending school in Cicero.

BROWN ORDAINED IN ROBBINS

Elder Edward Avinger, right, ordains Roscoe Brown as local elder for the Robbins Church in Robbins, Illinois. If one word was used to describe Brown, it would be dedication. Not only does he work untiringly as elder, but he accepts many speaking engagements extended by churches, academies, and youth federations. During a lay effort in 1974 in Robbins, 13 persons were won to Christ as a result of his evangelism. Bennie Echols, left, observes the ordination service.

NEWS NOTES

- On November 16, Elder John Loor, ministerial director of the conference, ended a successful series of evangelistic meetings at the South Flint Church. He reports a total of 27 decisions with 11 persons already baptized. Elder Loor credits much of the success of the campaign to the "dedicated leadership" of the pastor, Elder Don Gettys, and the faithfulness of John Hutchison, a local layman. Hutchison has been giving Bible studies to a large number of members of his family. As a result, eight of his group were baptized before the campaign ended.

- The Vassar Church School is conducting a drive to collect 7,000 labels of the products of the Campbell's Soup Company. They can be exchanged for needed audio-visual and athletic equipment, reports Keith Ellsworth, principal. Students hope to have the needed labels for a tumbling mat by January 9. Three area food stores are serving as collection centers for the labels.

- Conference Evangelist Arnold Kraner is seeking names of interested persons living in the Holly area for his Discovering Life Crusade which will start in January. If you have names of persons who should be invited to the series, send them to Elder Earl Zager, 3241 Grange Hall Road, Holly, Michigan 48442.

- George and Bonnie Hubbard were presented with a special award in appreciation of their dedication and services to the Lake City Church, church school, and community. They are known, Elder Lyle Chamberlain reports, as one of the "helpingest" couples around.

- By popular request, made at the Linden Summer Happening, a vegetarian cooking school is being sponsored by the Fenton and Linden churches. Classes are being held every Monday evening for six weeks, and men, as well as women, have been invited and encouraged to attend. Classes began November 3.

- Two new churches will be organized on November 29 as the last official public act of retiring conference president Elder Robert D. Moon. These will be the Korean and Spanish churches of Detroit and will bring the total count of Michigan churches to 159.

Pathfinder Leaders Craft Seminar

The annual craft seminar for Pathfinder leaders was held November 2 at Grand Ledge Academy. Twenty-one different classes were given to 215 leaders including a few from Indiana.

Basic instruction was given in teaching the following crafts: basketry, braiding, cake decorating, drawing and painting, electricity, feltcraft, glass painting, Indian arts and crafts, lapidary, leathercraft, macrame, marching and drill, metalcraft, model cars, photography, rocks and minerals, seeds, outdoor camp skills, silk screening, string art, and wood carving.

The macrame class was the largest, with 25 persons spending the day knotting cords into attractive plant hangers.

Some classes were small, but the quality of the instruction received was excellent. This was the case where three persons enjoyed the presentations by Elder and Mrs. Stuart Snyder of South Haven as they taught the "seeds" class. The interest in this subject began for the Snyders only three weeks earlier when they had been asked to present this subject at the seminar. In spite of this short time to prepare, those taking the class "were delighted with the displays and suggestions" that the Snyders offered.

The metalcraft class was another where the ingenuity of the instructor, Dale Howell of Berrien Springs, paid off. Members of this class were shown how to fashion strips of metal into candle holders and scones finished in wrought iron.

One observer in seeing the rocks and driftwood being painted by the drawing and painting class reported that Pathfinders can look forward to being taught this subject by a number of "budding artists."

Those who enrolled for the marching and drill class were put through their paces in the gymnasium by Jerry Canther of Davisburg, while John Vaden of Holly taught the "whys" and "wherefores" of outdoor camping skills. Classes were held all over the campus and they were photographed "in action" by the members of the photography class taught by Elder Glenn Hill of the Urbandale Church. The photos accompanying this article are selected from those the class took.

NEW WORKERS

Two new leaders have been appointed in recent weeks as assistants in the conference publishing department.

Harry Brown, a career literature evangelist for 17 years, has been named to lead the colporteurs in the Detroit area.

Taking over the Flint district is Mitchel Gulka of Montana, who is on the scene with his wife, Pauline. For a number of years, Gulka sold radio and television advertising and then went into sales of heavy road equipment. A student canvasser while at college, he was happy when three of his four children followed in his footsteps. They also helped to influence his return to literature evangelism. He has canvassed in Colorado for three years and in Montana for the past couple of years.

KRANER SCHEDULES CRUSADE AT BERRIEN SPRINGS

Arnold Kraner

Elder Arnold Kraner has scheduled his first full evangelistic crusade since joining the Michigan conference this summer.

His first lecture entitled "Bridge Over Troubled Waters" is scheduled for 7:15 p.m., Friday, December 5, at the Berrien Springs Church. Other meetings will be held every evening until December 13 at the same hour with two exceptions. On Sabbath, December 6, and Sabbath, December 13, the meetings are scheduled for 4:30 p.m.

Elder Kraner has been a successful pastor and evangelist for a number of years and came to Michigan from Ohio.

CEDAR LAKE ACADEMY MUSIC DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES

The annual Christmas program by Cedar Lake Academy's choir, band, and Madrigal singing group is scheduled for December 13. Principal Robert LeBard cordially invites everyone to attend the sacred program at 4 p.m. and the secular one at 8 p.m.

This year, for the first time, CLA's band had a summer workshop. Band members returned to school prior to registration and three days later, on the evening of August 30, presented a full concert to a "very appreciative" audience, LeBard reports. The workshop is credited with giving the band a read headstart for the school year.

Band concerts during the second semester are currently scheduled for Ithaca, March 21; Cadillac, April 4; Muskegon, April 17; and Grand Rapids, April 18.

A drive to raise funds for new band uniforms has been started. Anyone wishing to contribute is encouraged to send a donation to the Band Uniform Campaign, Cedar Lake Academy, Cedar Lake, Michigan 48812.

The music department presented special programs during the recent alumni weekend. The choir, directed by Mrs. Gail Hall, the Madrigals, under the direction of Steve Hall, and the band, also directed by Mr. Hall, presented both secular and sacred programs.

The 53-member choir has scheduled performances at Midland, March 6; Gobles, December 6; and Andrews University, February 21.

WINTER CAMP SCHEDULED FOR DECEMBER 23—JANUARY 1

Reservations are now being taken for Winter Camp at Au Sable, December 23 to January 1.

According to Elder Lester Rilea, director for youth activities, the rates this year will be $7.50 per day for adults, $5 per day for students, and $3 per day for pre-schoolers. Special family rates are also available to enable parents and unmarried children to use the same room and for those persons providing their own housing and food.

Write to the conference youth department for additional information or to make reservations, or phone the conference office at (517) 485-2226.

APPLETON SCHOOL CHILDREN VISIT NATURE CENTER

With the golden leaves radiant against a bright blue sky and the hills a kaleidoscope of colors from autumn's changing trees, the children from Appleton's Church

School had a perfect day for a field trip to Mosquito Hill Nature Center near New London.

Upon arrival at the Nature Center, we entered a new building that had several rooms: one on pond life, one about soil, another on plants, one all about mammals. In each room there were interesting displays, pictures, informative charts. Some had skulls from various creatures, skins from mammals, stuffed animals and birds. There were boards on which we could test our knowledge of nature as a right answer made a bulb light up.

At the far right, Eric Dant and Raymond Smith of the Appleton Church School listen to the Mosquito Hill naturalist explain how nature camouflages her creatures.

Included in the many fascinating displays was a bee hive enclosed in glass with a tube running to the outdoors through which the bees could come and go at will. We watched the bees at work within the hive and even located the queen bee.

The friendly personnel at the Nature Center told us about the many creatures on display, showed how soil was formed, explained many of the secrets of pond life, and then took us on a guided hike about Mosquito Hill pointing out the beauties and wonders of nature.

It was a rare experience to be at that beautiful place on a day when the weather was perfect and the palette of autumn breathtaking. We came away with a greater love and respect for our wonderful Creator.

When you drop the meat from your diet, we make sure you don't drop the protein.

A vegetarian diet can be a very healthful diet. But you must take care to provide yourself enough protein to adequately replace what was lost in eliminating meat. Worthington Foods makes tasty, meatless dishes from nutrition-rich soy and wheat protein. And in a variety that makes your vegetarian diet not just healthful, but interesting.

Whatever your reasons for choosing a vegetarian diet, Worthington will help to make it healthful.

Worthington products are available in your local health food or specialty food store.

STUDENT BIKES TO SCHOOL

Greg Martin, a freshman at Andrews University, drove this motorcycle, a Norton 850, to Andrews from his hometown, Fairbanks, Alaska.

HAGERMAN REPLACES SMITH AS CHAIRMAN OF NURSING

Zerita Hagerman, D.N.Sc., has replaced Alice Smith as chairman of the Andrews University nursing department.

Miss Smith has moved to Washington, D.C., to serve as nurse consultant for the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists.

Miss Hagerman has been on the A.U. faculty since 1973 as a psychiatric nursing professor at A.U.'s Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital campus near Chicago.

She received her doctor of nursing science degree at Boston University and taught at two Seventh-day Adventist colleges before coming to A.U. Early last year she was invited to be a visitor on the accreditation team of the National League for Nursing.

In Washington, one of Miss Smith's tasks will be to organize a legally recognized association for Adventist nurses.

MICHIGAN TAX CREDIT OPPORTUNITY

Just a reminder as we near the close of 1975, that a gift to the General Fund of the University may be taken as a credit against your Michigan state income tax. (In addition, you may use the full amount of your gift as a charitable deduction on your federal income tax return.)

The law allows a single individual to give up to $200 as a gift, and deduct from his state income tax one-half of the amount of the gift, or 20 percent of the taxpayer's state tax liability, or $100, whichever is less. For husband and wife filing jointly, the law allows a gift of up to $400, and a deduction from the state income tax of one-half of the amount of the gift, or 20 percent of the taxpayer's state tax liability, or $200, whichever is less.

A gift to Andrews University, depending upon your income, number of children, and other factors, would cost you somewhere between 32 percent and 40 percent of the actual gift. For example, a gift of $100 to the University would cost you somewhere between $32 and $40, depending on the above factors.

Please make your check payable to Andrews University General Fund, and mail before the end of December to the President of Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Michigan 49104.

AUSA TO SPONSOR MARANATHA FLIGHT TO MEXICO

The AUSA has begun arrangements with Maranatha Flights International to sponsor a project in Mexico during the Christmas vacation.

A group of 59 people will leave A.U. on December 17 for Hautabampo, a small town 12 miles inland from the Gulf of California. They will return on January 6.

Mexico was chosen as the site for the project, according to John Ross, AUSA president, because of a government regulation prohibiting religious services anywhere except in a building built for that purpose.

John Freeman, director of Maranatha Flights, negotiated with the conference president of northwest Mexico to build a 300-seat church to be completed in three weeks.

The university bus and the occupational education van will transport the group there and back. While there, the group will have its food and housing supplied. Total cost per person for round trip transportation will be $100.

"It's a fantastic missionary opportunity," says Ross. "Several people I have talked to about the project have been excited; the Lord has really been working, and the plans are going better than I had anticipated."
