Shepperd Heads Union Youth Department

We are pleased to introduce Elder Wayne Shepperd, recently elected to succeed Elder Richard Barron as youth and temperance director of the Lake Union Conference. Elder Shepperd is well known to the students at Andrews University where he has served for the past two years as campus chaplain.

Elder Shepperd graduated from Oakwood College in 1957 and entered the ministry in New Orleans. He next served as pastor of the Tyler, Texas, Church followed by seven years as youth and temperance director of the Southwest Region Conference.

Mrs. Shepperd is the former Joyce Montgomery of Washington, D.C., and the Shepperds have three sons, Wayne, 17, Eric, 15, and Tony, 13.

Essential to his new appointment, Elder Shepperd will work closely with the youth and temperance directors of the local conferences and with the staffs of the University and the academies. He has expressed the hope that he will soon be able to visit each campus. High on his list of interests is "teaching and leading our young people in an active witnessing program."

Our Pathfinders and summer campers will soon learn that Elder Shepperd is also vitally interested in their activities. Let us all join in prayerful support of our new youth and temperance leader.

PRIEST FOUND GUILTY OF SAYING MASS

Father Joseph E. Gedra, a 71-year-old Roman Catholic priest, was found guilty in early November by a Fairfax County, Virginia, court of violating a county ordinance restricting the use of homes in residentially zoned areas. His crime? Holding a Latin mass. Father Gedra was fined $50 by the four-man, one-woman jury. Counsel for the county claimed that the ordinance was valid in that it sought to limit traffic congestion in noncommercial areas, while Father Gedra's attorneys argued the law was a restriction of the free exercise of religion. His laywers plan to appeal to the Virginia Supreme Court.

NEW ASSISTANT DIRECTOR JOINS FAITH FOR TODAY

Recently appointed assistant director of FFT programming is Gary Haynes. He will be working with Director Don Dick on the production of Faith for Today episodes. Among the organizations Haynes has been affilliated with are the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, Information Film Producers of America, Society of Motion Picture and Television Engineers, and Fellowship of Christians in the Arts. Haynes has acted professionally for six years on the New York stage and in Hollywood, and is best known for his portrayal of a blind man in the Peyton Place television series.

Since that time, however, Haynes has dedicated his life to Christ. He became interested in the Adventist church through watching the It Is Written telecast and reading E. G. White books. His wife, Valarie, began earnest Bible study and "read herself into the church." They were both baptized in 1968.

The ex-actor prayed for the Lord to use his talents elsewhere. Soon after, the Voice of Prophecy asked him to help develop materials for the Way Out program and produce 60-second radio spots for "rock" stations.

After co-hosting and co-producing "Heaven is in Your Mind," a religious radio program for teenagers on a major Los Angeles radio station, Haynes was invited by Loma Linda University to produce educational and documentary films. This inspired him to form a company called "Message Media" which produced several films in the past five years, many of them dealing with the University and health reform among the Navajo Indians.

As assistant director of programming, Haynes' responsibilities include assisting in the production of FFT episodes, choosing scripts and writers, casting, working with the budget and production schedule, and eventually writing scripts himself.

Currently Haynes is contacting Adventist medical centers for true stories and experiences for use in future Westbrook Hospital episodes.

VOP THANKS LAKE UNION FOR RECENT SUPPORT

The Voice of Prophecy thanks church members in the Lake Union for their generous support during the recent annual offering for the radiobroadcast's soul-winning ministries.

The funds given are a valued part of the yearly budget needed to carry on the work of the radio programs, the Bible courses, and the evangelistic crusades.

Also much appreciated are the prayers of VOP friends who believe with the broadcast team that the third angel's message can be proclaimed to all the world only as God's people go forward in faith, trusting in His power, and depending on the guidance of His Spirit.

As a tangible thank-you gift, a free subscription to the monthly 16-page Voice of Prophecy NEWS is offered to any church member who requests it. Postal regulations make it necessary that each person or family write out a separate request, although several such requests may be mailed in one envelope to save postage. Each person should indicate the local church of which he is a member. If you have not received a VOP wall calendar for 1976 you may wish to ask for one. There is no charge. Send all requests for the NEWS and the calendar to: The Voice of Prophecy, Dept. C, Box 55, Los Angeles, CA 90053.

Top, World War II army huts at Aore and Kauma Schools have long since outlived their usefulness. When it rains, many students must huddle under plastic sheeting or umbrellas to stay dry. Left, A bright-eyed New Hebridean girl at Aore School is keen to learn new skills to take back to her village.

Pacific People with a Problem

by M.G. Townend, Director Australasian Division

When you think of the South Pacific Islands, what picture comes to your mind? Tranquil, blue lagoons bathed in golden sunshine and ringed by gently waving palms with happy, smiling, island people singing in the foreground?

That is how many of the island groups look that comprise the Western Pacific Union Mission of the Seventhday Adventist church. However, to be honest, it is only part of the picture. The facts are that the people who inhabit most of the islands of the South West Pacific are people in great need, who desperately need the help of the Seventh-day Adventist church members around the world.

Most of the South Pacific Island countries are experiencing a period of rapid development. Because the church is largely responsible for the education of SDA youth in the South Pacific, these growing needs are placing a heavy strain upon the treasury of the Australasian Division.

The Division has selected projects within three of the local missions of the Western Pacific Union to benefit from the Thirteenth Sabbath Offering overflow on December 20, 1975. These projects are: Staff housing and student dormitories at both the Aore Adventist High School in the New Hebrides and the Kauma Adventist High School in the Gilbert Islands; a new medical facility to house the X-ray and pathology departments at the Aore Adventist Hospital; and provide an educational facility for the New Caledonia Mission.

All young people enjoy a picnic lunch once in a while particularly when the sun is shining and the day is pleasant. But every meal every day in all kinds of weather is eaten outdoors by students at the Kauma Adventist School at Abemama in the Gilbert

Left, Girl's Hall at the Kauma School is hardly a dormitory to be proud of, but the students cheerfully accept the situation as they hopefully look to the world Sabbath School for funds to erect new buildings. Right, This hut serves as the Aore Hospital's X-ray and pathology facility. Bottom, Aore Hospital was established in 1961 as a result of a generous Thirteenth Sabbath Offering overflow. The medical director is Dr. Joeli, a Fijian.

Islands. They have no dining hall. From the Thirteenth Sabbath overflow offering they plan to build a dining hall at this school which is so important for the training of Gilbert and Ellice Island youth.

Thatched huts and makeshift houses built from war-surplus materials salvaged at the close of World War II, have for more than twenty years served as staff housing at both the Kauma and Aore schools. The December 20 offering will provide funds for more permanent housing.

Both at Aore and Kauma the overcrowded dormitories were also erected from war-surplus and native materials. When the winds blow and the rains fall, the students have real problems in these decaying buildings. Private study and devotions become almost impossible under these cramped conditions.

The New Hebrides members are proud of the Aore Adventist Hospital, but are ashamed of the makeshift facilities that still house the X-ray and pathology departments. Patients come from far and wide to the Aore Adventist Hospital, very often passing other better equipped hospitals in order to come to a place with a reputation for Christian kindness, good nursing, and sound medical practice.

In New Caledonia the church leaders, parents, and children are very excited at the prospect of having their own denominational education facility for the first time. At Koumac they hope to build an Evangelistic-Educational Center which will, as funds become available, be expanded into a more comprehensive educational facility.

The Western Pacific Union Mission looks with confidence toward the world Sabbath School and the Lake Union members to provide these much needed facilities.

SANITARIUM AND HOSPITAL

PREPARED CHILDBIRTH CLASSES MODIFIED

Classes to help couples prepare for a new arrival in the family will be modified next year at the Hinsdale San in order to provide smaller classes and a more timely presentation of topics during pregnancy.

With the new plan prospective parents will come to the hospital for three evening programs at three-month intervals. Those electing a traditional parenthood preparation will meet with natural childbirth class members for the three general sessions. A special option for four sessions will be provided for those couples choosing the Lamaze approach to childbirth.

A major change in the format is the establishment of a first trimester class for women in their first three months of pregnancy and their husbands. This is the ideal time to discuss such aspects of pregnancy as nutrition, warning signs, and the effect of drugs and smoking on the unborn infant, according to Thomas W. Lant, R.N., director of nursing development.

Three months later the couple will return for a second trimester class to learn about fetal development, normal body changes during pregnancy, and body mechanics.

For the third and final trimester couples who have chosen the Lamaze option will attend four nightly sessions with in-depth instruction and practice of the breathing and relaxing exercises that are important in preparing for childbirth.

A fourth, optional postpartum class following the birth of the baby will offer instruction on layette, newborn care, breast and bottle feeding, physiology of the mother after childbirth, and other topics on the art of parenting.

Prenatal classes taught by the hospital have become so popular that something had to be done to reduce class size. "We had 74 couples enrolled in the November prenatal class," said Lant, "and that's too many for a good learning experience."

By combining subject matter common to both classes the hospital is able to offer one general sequence rather than two separate courses as in the past. With the changes the couples who want to take advantage of the classes should be able to be accommodated without any difficulty.

The new program will be operative for parents expecting a new baby in July 1976, or later.

NEWS NOTES

• Because of a crowded year-end schedule, it is impossible to hold a Sabbath School Workshop for the first quarter of 1976, until December 21. Since this is a busy time for everyone, please try to reserve the morning of that date for the workshop, beginning at 10 a.m., at the conference office. Besides receiving important instructions, you will be able to purchase your new quarter's Sabbath School supplies, and also do some last-minute gift shopping of dolls, toys, etc., at the Child Evangelism Center. Please make a real effort to be in attendance at the workshop.

• Alvera LaVelle of the Broadview Church recently related her Investment project—a Christmas club at the local bank. She told how she was able to raise $100 for Investment. Ms. LaVelle has now opened a bigger club for next year and knows it will succeed with the Lord's blessing.

UNIQUE BAPTISM AT KEWANEE

A unique baptism took place at the close of the Wyoming Better World meetings. Two deaf mutes accepted the Seventh-day Adventist faith and were baptized by Arnold R. Friedrich, conference evangelist.

Mrs. Karen Wexell from Cambridge and Charles -D. Minton of Kewanee united with the Kewanee Church. They had been studying the Scriptures from a Voice of Prophecy Bible correspondence course, and they also received personal studies from Pastor Edward Swan, the district leader.

We rejoice greatly in the conversion of these people. They look forward to the day when Isaiah 35:6 shall be fulfilled and they will be able to sing and hear the melodies of the earth made new.

PEORIA HAS SUCCESSFUL FIVE-DAY PLAN

Seventy-nine column inches were given by the Peoria daily newspaper in reporting the latest and most successful Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking.

One of the local newspaper reporters attended each session of the program, and reported through the newspaper his reactions and the general feelings from those attending.

Due to the many phone calls received, a second program was held during the month of November. It was a large group with an average of 116 in attendance each evening. Of this number there were 93 who received their certificates.

A disc jockey from station WMBD attended each session and gave a running spot several times each morning during his program.

He gave the audience his reactions during his struggle to obtain the victory over smoking. Through this exposure the whole city was alerted to the SDA community services program.

Rodney Dale, the pastor at Peoria and program director, was invited to be on the news broadcast at 6 and 10 p.m. each evening for one week prior to the program.

Now many inquiries about another program are coming from people throughout the city.

A new sign identifying the Seventh-day Adventist Church at Mt. Vernon now stands on the front lawn where everyone may be aware of the Sabbath services.

NEW IDENTIFICATION SIGN FOR MT. VERNON CHURCH

Until recent months the only sign on the lawn of the Mt. Vernon Church read: "Two Way Traffic," with arrows pointing up and down. That didn't seem to identify the church adequately, although the church name did appear on the building.

After checking the cost of a new sign ($250-$700) and taking one short glance at the depleted church expense fund, the church board quickly decided to take their chances and "allow" the pastor, Philip R. Colburn, to build the sign. There are no carpenters in the 24-member church, including the pastor.

But the Lord blessed Pastor Colburn, and slowly the new sign materialized, costing about $70. Now it, too, stands on the main street of the growing, bustling city of 16,000 people, inviting everyone to worship at the church. Maybe you should accept its invitation.

BROADVIEW ACADEMY IMPROVEMENT CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Broadview Academy began their annual campaign for school improvement Tuesday, October 28. Under the direction of the Student Association officers, several comical skits were acted out, including The Landing of the Pilgrims, The Red Coats are Coming, and The Boston Tea Party. The skits were an introduction to the announcement of the project.

This year, in the spirit of the Bicentennial, the students have chosen to build a bell tower using the bell from the old Broadview campus that has been in storage since the move to the new campus. The area around the tower will be landscaped with shrubs, plants, and benches, along with lights for the tower and the flagpole. Sidewalks will be added to connect this area with the buildings on campus.

Funds for the yearbook, Encore, are included in this campaign. The combined goal to be reached was $4,100. The end of the campaign was December 4. Each student reached for a personal goal of $20 so the project can become a reality. The three top student solicitors will each receive a scholarship.

WAUKEGAN CHURCH CELEBRATES DOUBLE BIRTHDAY

The Waukegan Church celebrated the birthdays of Adeline Schiffbauer of Gurnee and Lola Leech of Zion on Sabbath, November 1. Both of these ladies were 80 years old and were born on the same day, November 5, election day, 1895.

Project: Steps to Christ

To present to every home in Illinois the Gospel of Christ's Object Lessons, 54 Ministry of Healing, and 66 Jesus Christ along with an opportunity for adults, Great Controversy. A total of 272 persons are taking youth, and juniors to study the Scriptures and become acquainted with the Adventist health message.

The Gospel presentation has been made to 46,133 homes to date. Free books requested and delivered: 70 Bible studies, and 30 are enrolled in the V.O.P. nutrition course.

Mark your tithe envelope "Steps to Christ" for contributions to the fund.

A vegetarian dinner was served at the Waukegan Church School including a beautiful birthday cake. A musical program was presented by the young people of the church.

Mrs. Schiffbauer gave the following testimony: "I am very happy for the many blessings that God has given me through the years. My experience in the Lord grows stronger each day and I am looking forward to meeting each one of you in the new earth very soon."

Mrs. Leech said, "Although I have had many hard trials, God has been with me through them all. I am so thankful for a loving heavenly Father and the comfort of my dear brothers and sisters."

Patricia Amrein weighed a little more than three pounds at the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital where she was in an incubator.

SPECIAL BABY VISITS BROADVIEW CHURCH

The baby daughter of Paul and Patty Amrein was a special visitor with her parents at the Broadview Church this year. Little Patricia weighed just slightly more than three pounds when she was born. The church members prayed for her and went to view her through the nursery window at the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital. Her little feet were about one inch long and her chest measured ten inches around.

The Lord helped her improve so quickly that the doctors let her parents take her to Florida shortly after she was released from the hospital. Now little Patricia Amrein walks, talks, and loves to go to Sabbath School.

Paul Amrein formerly taught at the West Suburban Church School and Patty is from Broadview. Paul now teaches at an SDA school in New Port Richey, Florida.

WAUKEGAN DORCAS GIVES 14 BASKETS

Cheryl Bute, left, Dorcas leader for the Waukegan Church, and assistant leader Erma Larsen show the 14 Thanksgiving boxes that were given to needy families in the area. The Pathfinders helped make this possible by collecting canned goods instead of going trick or treating.

The students learn to form perfect loaves.

BROADVIEW OFFERS NEW CLASS

Broadview Academy is offering a practical new class for the students—baking. It is taught by Bill Starr, cafeteria manager. Bill has been in the baking business for 20 years with 11 years spent at Gem State Academy in Caldwell, Idaho, working in their Bake and Serve plant. He was the production manager there.

The mixer which the students use was donated to Broadview Academy by the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital. The oven was also donated by the San.

The students in the Baking I class are enjoying learning a practical skill and the other students in the academy are enjoying the products.

WA-RITE COMING TO SOUTH BEND

Beginning January 20, 1976, the South Bend Church will be conducting a Wa-Rite series of twelve meetings.

Wa-Rite, a new program being introduced by the General Conference, is designed to teach the scientific principles involved in weight reduction and maintaining one's desired weight by proper nutrition.

Each meeting will consist of short talks by a physician or nurse, the pastor, and a nutritionist, plus exercise and low calorie food demonstrations. Small talk groups will meet to share progress reports. Blood pressure and weight loss will be carefully monitored. As a result of an insert placed in the Ingathering literature which advertised Wa-Rite and other community services, many non-Adventists are planning to attend.

We hope that this program will not only introduce people to a more healthful way of living, but will be evangelistic as well. Nancy Nelund Communication Secretary

ANDERSON YOUTH HELP WITH FIVE-DAY PLAN

Recently Elder David Johnson, pastor of the Anderson SDA Church, held a Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking at the hospital in Anderson. One of the unique features of this plan was the involvement of the church school children in the plan.

Church school students Bryan Lawsen and Mark Johnson present a question-and-answer talk.

Under the leadership of Ishmael Combs, principal of the school, the children distributed promotional leaflets about the plan. During the program one evening Bryan Lawsen and Mark Johnson presented a question-andanswer talk on how to stop smoking without gaining weight.

It was the first smoking cessation clinic to be held in Anderson for many years. Twenty-five persons attended the clinic and most of these claimed victory at the end of the week.

Three of the new teachers employed in the Lake Region Conference are Lake Region members who have returned to their home conference to teach.

The education department is very excited that these individuals have demonstrated this interest in their "home." Our school system is making use of their diverse talents and benefiting from their dedication to Christian education.

Evelyn Marie Dennie of Gary, Indiana, is now teaching fifth grade at Shiloh Academy in Chicago.

She comes to us from Oakwood College with a major in elementary education and a minor in history. She was vice president of her 1975 graduating class. For her students she desires that learning should be fun and something they will look forward to.

Earlene Louise Kemp, born and raised in Chicago, is now teaching a variety of subjects at Warren School in Detroit. In June of 1975, she graduated from Andrews University with a major in physical education and a minor in music.

She feels that the Lord led her back to the Lake Region, and she wants to train her students to be better workers for Him.

A former student of Peterson School in Inkster, Michigan, Zelda Elaine Seay has returned to teach there. For her third and fourth grade students, she plans to teach Christ in the classroom as well as out of the classroom.

She wants to increase their learning abilities in all subjects. A 1975 graduate of Andrews University, she holds majors in communications and elementary education and a minor in English. Reginald Barnes

EVANSTON CHURCH HOLDS ONE-WEEK REVIVAL

The first week of October was set aside by the Evanston Church for a week of evangelistic meetings and church revival.

Elder R. C. Brown, Sr., secretary of the Lake Region Conference, was the speaker. Assisting him were Elder Horace L. Jones, Sabbath School and lay activities director, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Leroy Logan, musicians.

At the conclusion of the meetings four persons indicated their desire to become members of the Adventist church through baptism.

On the last Sabbath of the meetings, the gospel choir of the Sharon Church in Milwaukee and Mr. and Mrs. Logan presented an afternoon of music. The music was a blessing to all who heard it. Elder R. Don March is the pastor.

NEWS NOTES

• Time for winter fun! Come one, come all and enjoy a winter outing! Come to Camp Au Sable for Winter Camp from December 23, 1975, to January 1, 1976. Charges per day are: Adults, $7.50; students, $5; preschoolers, $3. Family rates are also available with a maximum of $25 per day. There are special rates for those providing their own housing and meals. • Pinedale (Gobles and Bloomingdale) Pathfinders have updated their club with a name change. They are now the Constellations Pathfinder Club with each unit taking names from the groups of constellations, such as Orion, Leo, etc. Club director Doug Clarke reports they spent a recent Sabbath afternoon in rewarding activities. They participated in a singing band at a local nursing home. Afterwards the group met at the school for an hour of Bible games. One Sunday in November they were able to pick up apples for only a small charge and had cider made which was sold to enable them to raise more than $100 for club supplies.

LAPEER STUDENTS HOLD WALKATHON

Lapeer Seventh-day Adventist School students and parents participated in a Walkathon recently. A total of $700 was raised for library improvement. Top earner was Marsha Davenport, who raised $100. The event was organized by Marlene Wilson, Home and School president. Here Wayne Jones, Michael Schaaf, Marlene Wilson, Mary Kay Powers, and Tracy Wilson with Scamp prepare to start walking.

PAKISTANI STUDENT CONTINUES HER EDUCATION AT CLA

Audry Guy, a student at Cedar Lake Academy, is surprised at the weight of the winter clothing she will need during the next few months.

Audry, you see, is from Pakistan where the climate is generally warm and sultry. She is at the academy because Elder and Mrs. Neal Sherwin of Vassar brought her "home" with them when they returned to Michigan this past summer after spending 20 years as missionaries to Pakistan.

Elder Sherwin helped 17-year-old Audry to leave the country rather than be forced into marrying a man in his late 20's this December.

Sherwin's support in the move had been sought by Miss Guy's mother, a native of England, who wished her daughter to continue her education in the United States rather than remain in Pakistan and be forced into the marriage. Miss Guy's natural father is deceased.

It is customary in Pakistan for parents to arrange marriages of their daughters often at age 12 or 13. But this was not the wish of Miss Guy or her mother, both accustomed to English schooling requirements and ways of life.

Miss Guy, who has been enrolled as a student in English-speaking boarding schools since age 10, enrolled at the seminary at Chuharkana-Mandi, 35 miles from Lahore, four years ago.

The seminary has classes from fourth grade through college and Sherwin had been on the staff there for eight years.

She would have been a senior at the seminary this year, but is now enrolled along with the Sherwin's children, Linda and David, at Cedar Lake Academy. She enrolled as a junior to permit her to catch up on American history and other related courses not taught at the seminary in Pakistan.

Sherwin said that Miss Guy, who plans to extend her two-year student visa to pursue training to be a registered nurse, could have faced problems graduating from the Pakistani seminary in March.

Pakistani government rules require that all seniors, regardless of the school they have attended, be able to pass examinations given in the native Urdu language.

"Audry can speak Urdu but has difficulty writing the language," Pastor Sherwin said.

The young Pakistani, although raised a Christian, has been surprised at the freedom enjoyed by women and girls in the United States.

Her first surprise came when she went shopping and discovered female clerks. "Women aren't hired to work in any retail or other type of business firms in Pakistan," Sherwin explained.

Miss Guy also has adjusted quickly to the custom of not having to cover one's face here while walking in public and of being able to shop for items in a store without being trailed by a store employee.

Pastor Sherwin, who accepted his first mission assignment in 1955 at Rawalpindi after graduation from Andrews University, received a master's degree while on furlough in 1966. He was ordained in 1959 in Karachi, where he was pastor of a 150-member church and a 120-bed hospital. In 1966, he was sent to the academy in Chuharkana-Mandi, serving there until his return to Michigan this past summer.

BAPTISM IN LAPEER

Pastor Norman Yeager reports that a recent baptism in the Lapeer Church added five persons.

David and Glenda Rau became interested in Seventhday Adventist beliefs because a church member shared his faith. As Don Rowden of Owosso worked in Flint beside David each day, he would share his religious beliefs. Upon arriving at home in the evenings David in turn shared what he had learned with his wife.

After a time they began keeping Sabbath at home but felt a need for church fellowship for themselves and their children. One Sabbath they traveled to Owosso for church services. That evening they talked and studied with Pastor Paul Penno, Jr. Later they contacted Pastor Norman Yeager, who pastors in their area, and told him about their interest. Bible studies followed which led to their baptism.

Maureen Pulliam and her daughter, Laurie Dietz, became interested in the church after reading an evangelistic advertisment in a store window. Wanda Merrills gave them Bible studies which culminated in their baptism.

Wayne Jones, a church school student, was also baptized.

A group of interested people attended the Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking in Ontonagon.

FIVE-DAY PLAN TO STOP SMOKING HELD IN ONTONAGON

Houghton and Ironwood Church pastors, Jerry Jablonski and Phil Hopkins, united their efforts in holding a Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking in the Ontonagon Holy Family Catholic Church, October 20 to 24.

The interesting feature of this Five-Day Plan was that neither pastor had to promote or make any arrangements for it to be held in Ontonagon. Several months before the October date, Mrs. Martha DeVoy, head of the Social Services Bureau for Ontonagon County in Michigan, called Pastor Hopkins, urgently requesting that the Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking be given in the City of Ontonagon. Pastor Hopkins agreed to do this, if Mrs. DeVoy would work out the preliminary details of the plan. This included radio talk shows, advertising in the Ontonagon Herald and on the radio, placing posters in store windows, and providing for a post office box for the mail that came in from interests.

Ads ran in the local daily paper for three weeks, three each week, and the funds came from the interested businessmen of the Ontonagon community. One businessman has volunteered the necessary funds to assist in the Smoker's Alumni group, who will be encouraging people in the community to stop smoking and to help with the next Five-Day Plan.

Pastors Jablonski and Hopkins noted that the radio, newspaper, and handbills assisted in bringing persons to the smoking cessation clinic.

By lecture time Monday at 7 p.m., 42 persons were on hand to receive instruction which would give them the victory over the nicotine habit. Many teachers and persons from the medical profession, along with a good cross section of the community were there. One man who had been smoking for 52 years, gave up the habit by the end of the therapy.

At the last report from this group, 29 of the 42 have quit the nicotine habit. One of these persons, a dentist, has volunteered to help with the next smoking cessation clinic to be held in Ontonagon in another year. From one of the parishoners has come a request for an informal Bible study group. This lady has taken four Bible correspondence courses from Faith for Today and the Voice of Prophecy.

Lake Union members are asked to pray that organized work can begin soon in this area. This is one of the dark counties in Michigan.

Pastor Jablonski will be holding a Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking in the Houghton-Calumet area, December 14 to 18. Pastor Hopkins has been asked to have the plan in Mercer, Wisconsin, 25 miles south of Ironwood, and one at Bruce Crossings, on M-28 about 40 miles east of Ironwood. The public is interested in better health, and we as a church have the tools to help them. Pray that much interest can be aroused that people will come to Jesus through this activity.

NEWS NOTES

• Two carloads of students from the Oakland Church School solicited $58.20 for Ingathering. One lady checked first to see whether the children believed in the new birth. When she was assured that they did, she gave them a check for $10.

• Shirley and Keith St. Clair of Arpin have made two trips this year to the Pine Ridge Mission in South Dakota. They delivered a large supply of clothing and helped with construction projects while they were there.

MEMBER MAKES SIGN FOR CHURCH

A beautiful church sign bids passersby welcome at the Bethel Church because of the efforts of Elder Richard Blessing, who was a member of that church. Elder Blessing made the sign which is mounted atop a beautiful brick planter where flowers add to the welcome. Elder Blessing has recently moved to South Carolina.

When you drop the meat from your diet, we make sure you don't drop the protein.

A vegetarian diet can be a very healthful diet. But you must take care to provide yourself enough protein to adequately replace what was lost in eliminating meat. Worthington Foods makes tasty, meatless dishes from nutrition-rich soy and wheat protein. And in a variety that makes your vegetarian diet not just healthful, but interesting.

Whatever your reasons for choosing a vegetarian diet, Worthington will help to make it healthful.

Worthington products are available in your local health food or specialty food store.

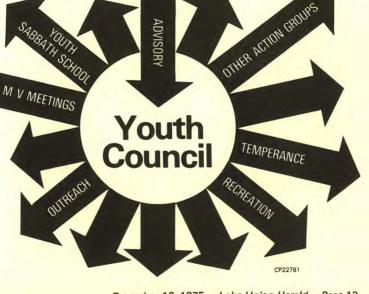

Did you ever watch a three-legged race? The winners were two individuals who ran together, step for step, each in perfect rhythm. Youth and church need this same cooperation to be successful. Till now, the various church activities for youth were all going in different directions, with no organized pattern. The results were general confusion. Under this new concept in youth involvement, all youth activity, no matter in what area of church service, is centered in the Youth Council. Beginning in January, the local Youth Council will guide each church's total youth ministry, allowing today's Adventist youth a more active role in preparing people to meet Jesus. Ask your Conference Youth Director for details.

BOOK OF READINGS ON SDA HISTORY PUBLISHED

A new, cloak-room view of denominational history is now available in a book compiled and edited in life-as-we-lived-it style by Emmett K. Vande Vere, history professor emeritus at Andrews University.

Vande Vere's own comments are brief. Well-known denominational leaders and lesser-known observers tell the story themselves, complete with the table-pounding committee discussion, humorous asides, tears, and joys that went into the development of Adventism from the Millerites to 1922.

The readings are arranged to provide a coherent overview of denominational history and yet provide a spicy, up-close perspective impossible in analytical histories, Vande Vere said.

Each chapter concludes with a selected bibliography or suggested further reading.

FETZER DONATES VINTAGE RADIO EQUIPMENT TO WAUS

John Fetzer, owner of WKZO, Kalamazoo, Michigan, has given a 1918 Marconi wireless receiver to WAUS, the FM station of Andrews University.

Wayne Woodhams, WAUS manager, declined to estimate the value of the receiver, saying only, "It's priceless." It was made by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America and bears a serial number of 44. The receiver is being displayed near the WAUS John Fetzer Studio.

Fetzer, one-time manager of WEMC, the predecessor of WAUS, also gave 12 pieces of equipment once used by WEMC. In 1930, Emmanuel Missionary College (former name of A.U.), sold the station to Fetzer.

He changed the letters to WKZO and moved the station to Kalamazoo, where it has been ever since.

ART EXHIBIT IN SOUTH BEND

An exhibit of paintings by Greg Constantine, chairman of the art department at Andrews University, started Sunday, November 30, and will run through December 28, in the main gallery of the South Bend Art Center, 122 North Lafayette.

His paintings, called "TV Images," are made up of solid bars of separate colors that form images of prominent TV scenes and characters in much the same way actual TV images are formed.

The paintings have been exhibited in over a dozen places in the U.S. and Canada.

Constantine is represented by the Gilman Gallery in Chicago and the James Yu Gallery in New York City.

NEW APARTMENT COMPLEX AT A.U.

Andrews University has begun construction of a $700,000 apartment complex for married students attending A.U.

Page 16 - Lake Union Herald - December 16, 1975

The complex will have 46 units with one to three bedrooms, bringing the total number of A.U. married student housing units to almost 350. It is being built near the school's Maplewood Apartments on the southeast corner of the A.U. property.

According to V. E. Garber, A.U. vice president for financial affairs, the complex will help remedy a shortage of housing for married students, graduate and undergraduate.

The complex will be furnished, carpeted, and airconditioned.

STUDENT TEACHERS ASSIGNED TO AREA SCHOOLS

Twenty-five Andrews University education students are student teachers for the autumn quarter at elementary and secondary schools in Berrien Springs, Benton Harbor, St. Joseph, Stevensville, Edwardsburg, Niles, and New Buffalo.

Nine students are doing their student teaching outside the local area in Chicago; Elgin, Illinois; Hinsdale, Illinois; LaFox, Illinois; Holly, Michigan; Detroit, Michigan; Cedar Lake, Michigan; Cicero, Indiana; and Oshawa, Ontario, Canada.

A.U. AIRPORT BUYS TWIN-ENGINE PLANE; OFFERS NEW RATING

The Andrews University airport has bought a twinengine aircraft to be used as a trainer for the multiengine rating.

A.U. purchased the plane, a 1955 Piper Apache, for $12,000. It has a seating capacity of four, a range of 650 miles, and a top speed of 150 m.p.h. Andy Moore, airport manager, says the plane is in excellent condition and should serve the flight program indefinitely.

A comparable new plane, he said, would have cost $90,000.

The Piper Apache will permit direct flights to Chicago over Lake Michigan, a route illegal for all single-engine aircraft, Moore said.

The multi-engine rating now possible with the Piper is the seventh rating now offered in A.U.'s flight program. Others are private pilot's license, commercial pilot's license, instrument pilot's license, instructor rating, instrument instructor rating, and air transport rating.

The Piper brings A.U.'s air fleet to ten planes. Twenty-four private planes are also based at the airport.
