Disaster and Famine Relief Offering — May 9

Grand Island Tornado — June 3, 1980
Mid-America's Greatest Storm Disaster
450 Homes Damaged
5 Killed — Many Injured

Dear Friends,

The Mid-America Union territory is well into the year of HARVEST TIME '81. This project, if carefully executed, could, with the work of the Holy Spirit, produce the largest influx of new members into our churches that we have ever experienced. May the Lord direct us as we continue to promote this plan.

There is a concern that weighs very heavily on my heart. I must share this with you because you are the ones who can do something about the matter. Even though our pastors and evangelists—with the help of dedicated church members—are baptizing large numbers, our statistics show that we are losing from our churches a number equal to about one third of the membership. If we could only do something about our missing membership, we would show a much greater growth. When we talk about growth and numbers, we are really talking about people.

E. S. Reile

Other statistics show that on the average, only half of the church members are in church. With your help, we need to be contacting those members who are absent. A person doesn't just wake up one day and decide to quit the church. Leaving the church is a gradual process. One small thing leads to a larger one.

Let's try to be in contact with those who are absent. Let's let them know that they are missed and that someone cares. Let's teach them good stewardship of their time and service to the church.

Thank you for letting me share this concern for the church with you. Pastors, church officers and church members must also be concerned enough to act on this very serious matter—and soon.

Please join me in praying for those who have grown careless. We must do something about these missing church members—all of whom are very dear to someone and to the Lord, Himself.

Cordially,

E. S. Reile, President

Disaster and Famine Relief Offering

By H. H. Voss

It is estimated that 500,000,000 people are starving to death in the world just now. Of the four billion people who inhabit the earth, three billion live in third world countries where malnourishment is the greatest problem their society faces. News reports indicate that in Africa there are nearly three million starving today. What a challenge to meet these needs in so many parts of the world! What an opportunity for followers of Christ to demonstrate compassion! Won't you plan to give generously for such a need on May 9, 1981.

Disasters are occurring on every hand around the world. No area seems exempt. Large emergency needs arise nearly every week in some part of the world. Our yearly disaster and famine relief offering is used to meet as many of these needs as possible. Besides our gifts, governments of many nations give us additional help through Seventh-day Adventist World Services (SAWS).

Your gift on May 9 will do so much good in relief of suffering humanity. Please be generous.

Notice the following statement from volume 2, page 36 of the Testimonies, "It is not the numerous prayers, but the rightdoing, doing the right thing at the right time. It is to be less self caring and more benevolent. Our souls must expand. Then God will make them like a watered garden, where waters fail not."

Notice how we too may learn to pray:

*I knelt to pray when day was done,
And prayed, "Lord bless everyone;
Lift from each saddened heart the pain
And let the sick be well again."*

*And then I woke another day,
And carelessly went on my way.
The whole day long I did not try
To wipe the tears from any eye.*

*I did not try to share the load
Of another brother on the road.
I did not even go to see
The sick man next door to me.*

*Yet once again when day was done
I prayed, "Oh Lord bless everyone,"
But as I prayed there came a voice into my ear,
There came a voice that whispered clear.*

*"Pause, hypocrite, before you pray;
Whom have you tried to bless today?
God's sweetest blessings always go
By hands that serve Him here below."*

*And then I hid my face and cried,
Forgive me Lord, for I have lied.
Let me but live another day
And I will live the way I pray.*

—Anonymous

On May 9 let us live the way we pray by returning our generous gift to help feed the starving millions.

Stafford Elected Pastor of the Year

By Alma York

The Linwood Boulevard Temple pastor was elected pastor of the year by his fellow ministers at the Central States Conference Workers Meeting in February.

R. P. Stafford attended Oakwood College with a major in Religion. He received a B.A. degree in behavioral science from the University of Southern Mississippi.

He entered the gospel ministry in 1969 for the South Central Conference, and pastored several churches from 1969-73 including Meridian, Laurel, So So, and Hattisburg. In 1971, Pastor Stafford was elected pastor of the year for the South Central Conference. He pastored 12 churches in Mississippi.

Pastor and Mrs. Stafford

In 1973, Pastor Stafford was called to be the Adventist Youth director for the Southwest Region Conference in Dallas, Texas. He also served as public relations director during this time. From Dallas, Pastor Stafford accepted a call to the Lake Region Conference to pastor the Capitol City Church in Indianapolis, Indiana. One of the greatest challenges of his pastoral ministry was the large City Temple Church of Detroit, Michigan. The church at that time had a membership over 1,500.

In September of 1979, he accepted a call to pastor the Linwood Boulevard Temple in Kansas City, Missouri. Linwood has over 700 members and operates its own pre-school program with extended care.

Stafford is recognized as an outstanding preacher and administrator. He is married to the former Deborah Wright. Deborah works for the Kansas City office of Social Security Administration. The Staffords have two children: Randy, 9, and April, 4.

The Central States Conference extends its congratulations to the Stafford family!

Allon Chapel Joins City-Wide Tribute

By Alma York

Allon Chapel of Lincoln, Nebraska was actively involved in a city-wide tribute to Martin Luther King Jr. held January 15, 1981. The tribute was a first for the Lincoln community.

The city honored Dr. King's birthday with expressions from Mayor Helen Boosalis and numerous civic community officials. Pastor Gerald H. Jones gave the invocation for tribute which was held at the Lincoln High School auditorium. Poems were presented by Alma York and Oscar Harriott. The Allon Chapel choir was one of several groups providing music.

The church's participation marked another opportunity for Christian fellowship and sharing.

Alma York is the communication secretary of Allon Chapel.

Northside Bids Farewell To the Bullocks

By Jane Byrd

The Northside Church family of St. Louis, Missouri extended their warm appreciation to Pastor and Mrs. Emmanuel Bullock for dedicated service to the church and community. The Bullocks were being honored for Pastor Bullock's recent appointment as publishing director for Central States Conference. This gave the church family the opportunity to express gratitude to this well-deserving Adventist couple and bid them farewell as they move to Kansas City.

Left to Right: Doris Bullock, Emmanuel Bullock, Otto Kirkland Northside Church members.

The Bullocks are charter members of the Northside Church. Emmanuel Bullock began his denominational service in 1970 as a literature evangelist. He was asked to direct the literature work for the St. Louis district in 1973. Pastor Bullock's outstanding service as an associate led to his appointment as conference publishing director.

The Bullocks are extremely grateful for the sincere display of affection demonstrated by the Northside family.

Jayne Byrd is the communication secretary of the Northside Church.

Report From Bethesda

By Doris Bennett

Sabbath School Investment

The Bethesda Temple in Omaha, Nebraska has experienced a successful Investment Program for the year 1980.

There were group projects as well as individual ones. The primary class saved aluminum cans which were sold to the recycling center. The Kindergarten class brought weekly contributions for Investment.

Bethesda members during Investment Program Celebration.

Some of the individual projects were: One member who had no steady income gave 10% of whatever she received for Investment; another member systematically gave a set amount each Sabbath for an entire year; saving pennies was another project; and a weight loss project brought in $1 per pound lost during the year.

According to Yvonne Harris, Investment secretary, these projects and others led to a joyous total of $150. We thank God for those who chose to participate.

Branch Sabbath School

Bethesda had the largest branch Sabbath School enrollment of the last three years. Using the theme "Suffer the Little Children", teachers enrolled 30 students for all divisions: adult, youth, kindergarten, and cradle roll. Basic lessons were taught such as cleanliness, love for others, benefits of prayer, self-control, reverence and respect. Those attending were enthusiastic and eager to learn.

Twenty-two branch Sabbath school members (excluding adults) were presented to the Bethesda Church family at the close of the session.

Richard Bath, Sabbath School superintendent, expressed sincere appreciation to Rhonda Davis, coordinator, and her corps of workers.

Doris Bennett is the communication secretary of the Bethesda Church.

HIGHLIGHTS

FESTIVAL OF NEW LIFE

Sponsored jointly by the Kansas-Nebraska Conference and the Mid-America Union.

Contestants from ten academies and junior academies were present for the Better Living Weekend held in Lincoln, Nebraska, March 27 and 28.

This festival was a culmination of a year's hard work by the participating academy students.

Besides bringing their jingles, cartoons, posters, essays, and oratorical winners to the host academy, College View in Lincoln, these teams have been very active in churches, service clubs and public high schools in the areas around their academies.

For all this hard work and service to the community, points are given throughout the year and these schools receive plaques and trophies signifying the level of student participation.

The school with the highest points receives the top award trophy. Any school winning this trophy three years in a row gets to keep this award permanently.

This year Enterprise Academy was the recipient of this special award. This shows a concerted effort by faculty and students to do such an outstanding job three consecutive years.

Roy Wightman, vice president of Adventist Health System/North speaks during the Sabbath worship service.

Lisette Perez telling a mission story.

Sue Branson of Platte Valley Academy presents her oration.

D. E. Holland, director of the Youth Department of the Mid-America Union, presents the trophy to Bruce Smith, AYBL president, Enterprise Academy.

The awards are given according to a standard point system:

- 25,000 - 50,000 - receives bronze award
- 50,000 - 75,000 - receives silver award
- 75,000 - - receives gold award

Below are listed the total points of the participating academies this year.

Enterprise	- 773,444	Minneapolis Jr. Aca.	- 51,590
Campion	- 288,529	Sunnydale	- 35,320
Mile High	- 63,375	College View	- 30,678
Platte Valley	- 54,000	Central States	- 30,250

Roy Wightman, Vice President of Adventist Health System/North, was the guest speaker. The Fountain Sisters from Columbia, Missouri provided inspirational guest singing music. Dr. Wayne Fleming, professor of physical education and his CABL group conducted Sabbath School, Mr. Lee Steele, Probation Officer from Greeley, Colorado, gave an interesting lecture Sabbath afternoon on drug abuse.

Templeton Leaving Area

L. William Templeton

L. William Templeton, assistant regional marketing manager for Ford Tractor Company, is leaving Overland Park to become vice president and general sales manager of the Kubota Tractor Corporation with national headquarters in Los Angeles, Calif.

The Templetons are members of the New Haven Seventh-day Adventist Church, where Bill has served as youth leader, elder, and chairman of the Midland Adventist School board.

Templeton has been a trustee of Shawnee Mission Medical Center for 14 years and chairman of the hospital's finance committee. For the past five years, he was also a member of the board of Blue Cross, chairing its marketing committee.

An active leader in the civic affairs of his community, Templeton was president of the South Jackson County Kiwanis Club, member of the Chamber of Commerce Agri-Business Committee, and served on the board of governors of the National Agricultural Hall of Fame.

In 1974 Templeton was awarded the distinguished service award from Future Farmers of America.

The Templetons plan to move to California in May.

Home Extension County Chairman

By Dale Culbertson

Carol Huenergardt, a member of the Scottsbluff church, has just begun serving her second term as Home Extension County Chairman. As Kimball County Council Chairman, she will head an organization made up of 12 clubs and a total membership of 175 ladies.

The Home Extension Club program is an educational program of the Cooperative Extension Service, University of Nebraska, designed to meet the needs and interests of Nebraska's homemakers.

The Kimball County Council offers a $200 scholarship for young people who are interested in a career in either Home Economics or Agriculture. The council has also held several public informational meetings on "How to Use Your Doctor", "Fire Safety in the Home", and meetings on dental care, and "Spotting Eye Problems in Children".

Carol's special goals this year are to continue the public information programs concerning family safety and health, and to support the 4-H youth groups in the county.

Dale Culbertson is director of communication for the Kansas-Nebraska Conference.

Five-Day Plan

By Phil Marino

Eighty percent of those participating in a recent Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking, were able to kick the habit. Conducted at the Capitol View Seventh-day Adventist Church, this plan utilized the services of a large number of people.

Two medical doctors, Chester Norman and Oliver Pogue; a physical education instructor, Wayne Fleming; a Home Economics instructor, Lenore McEndree; a nurse, Candy Issa; a commercial artist, Charles Short; five senior ministerial students, Neil Dye, Thomas Lawrence, Marlin Eineke, Joe Wright and Joe Sabel; four ladies from the Capitol View Church; and director of the Good Neighbor Center, Susan Moon, all assisted as instructors or discussion leaders.

Phil Marino is the communication secretary of the Capitol View Church.

"It is Written Seminar" Live From Topeka Church!

By Mr. & Mrs. Carl C. Sewell

When God places an opportunity before Pastor Dick Shadduck, of the Topeka Adventist Church, he is not one to take it lightly, in fact quite the opposite is true. When the "It is Written" Teleseminar was cancelled in Kansas City recently, Pastor Shadduck could not see losing an opportunity to reach the many people who had registered for the Teleseminar from the Topeka and surrounding areas. Thus, he quickly put together a live presentation which was held at the Topeka Adventist Church on March 1, 1981.

Enlisting the help of Pastor Marvin Williams of the New Haven Church in Kansas City, Kansas, and Pastor Larry Pitcher of the Olathe Church, as well as about 20 members from the Topeka Church, a very enlightening and fulfilling seminar was held with approximately 50 persons in attendance.

The program opened with a film, "Earth-Theatre of the Universe" which was the result of much work by Mrs. Susan Smalley of the Topeka Church. Then the first of three inspirational lessons was taught by Pastor Shadduck on the subject of how to read and understand the Bible. Pastors Pitcher and Williams led the other two lessons later in the day.

A delicious vegetarian meal was served at 1:00 p.m., catered from the Shawnee Mission Medical Center. During lunch a very informative talk on healthful foods was presented by Clinton Wall, Director of Dietetics at the Shawnee Mission Medical Center, Shawnee Mission Kansas.

Vocal music throughout the program was furnished by Joyce Gepford, accompanied by Helene Anderson at the piano, and Matt Farmer, who accompanied himself on the guitar.

Brief periods of relaxation and exercise were offered, with Jack Smalley leading the group in exercise. Leaflets were offered to encourage the proper use of exercise in promoting a more healthful way of living.

A highlight of the afternoon session was the panel made up of the three participating pastors, who fielded questions from those in attendance on various issues regarding health, as well as how moral and spiritual issues were covered in the Bible.

The continuing six-week seminar has an enrollment of 17 people in Topeka, six in Kansas and three in Lawrence.

Certainly sharing the treasures of the knowledge of the Bible and the love of Jesus Christ will bring happiness and salvation to those who are experiencing this seminar.

Evangelistic Meeting

York, Nebraska, located between Lincoln and Grand Island, is preparing for a series of evangelistic meetings beginning April 17. Harry Sharp and Rick Dye are the evangelists and Norman Haas is pastor. Send names of interested persons to Pastor Haas at 629 Ravenwood Drive, Grand Island, Nebraska, 68801, or call 308-381-7887.

Elementary Music Festival

One hundred thirty six students from 11 elementary schools attended a music festival at Platte Valley Academy February 27 and 28. A sacred concert was presented Friday evening and Sabbath afternoon, and a secular concert Saturday night.

Director of the mass choir was Allen Mitchell. He was assisted by Carlene and Moses Chalmers, all of whom are teachers at Platte Valley Academy.

Ruth Millard conducted inservice training for the elementary teachers while the students were practicing or performing.

Special features also included the Platte Valley Handbell Choir and the Balladaires.

Camp Meetings

There will be two camp meetings held in the Kansas-Nebraska Conference this year. One will be at Enterprise Academy, May 28-June 6, for those members living in the southern portion of our conference. The other will be at Platte Valley Academy, June 5-12, for those members living in the northern section of our conference.

Guest speakers will be: Mel Rees, W.J. Hackett, W.A. Fagel, W.D. Frazee, H.M.S. Richards, Jr., and the King's Heralds. Watch the camp meeting bulletin for meeting and speaker schedules.

Plan to attend the camp meeting of your choice. Send reservations for lodging for the meeting at Enterprise Academy to Kansas-Nebraska Conference of SDA, Box 4526, Topeka, Kansas, 66604. Send reservations to the meeting at Platte Valley Academy to, Kansas-Nebraska Conference, Box 6037, Lincoln, Nebraska, 68506.

Dairy Wins Outstanding Award

By William Rankin

Dairymen Habenicht and Peterson are looking especially happy these days since receiving for the first time a framed Certificate of Special Award from the State Department of Agriculture. The award was presented to the top eight dairies among ninety-six in a nine-county area in central Nebraska for 1980. It reads: "'Outstanding Dairymen Award' Special recognition to Platte Valley Academy for 1980".

Dairymen Habenicht and Peterson.

Martin Peterson who has headed P.V.A. Dairy for nineteen years (in May), explained that a dairy has to average 96% on the annual Inspector's Report which includes such vital elements as bacteria count and mastitis control. With an average herd of 210 head and an average run-through of 175 at milking time twice daily, the Platte Valley Academy Dairy has been carefully built up over a period of years and now is the main focus of all the farm's activities. Feed crops, including corn and hay, are raised primarily to provide for the dairy herd. Is it any wonder that retiring veteran of the academy farm management, Victor Certificate of special award from State Department of Agriculture.

Evangelism Succeeds in Theater

By Naomi Madden

A spirit-filled prophecy seminar was held at Sedalia, Missouri, by evangelist Richard Halversen. The meeting was well supported by the Sedalia church members.

The only available building in which to hold the meetings was an old unused theater. The members cleaned the building and made it comfortable for the townspeople who attended. Eleven thousand letters of announcement were mailed, and many person-to-person contacts were made in preparation for the seminar. Beautiful messages in music were presented by the Blessed Hope Singers.

Fruits of these efforts were five persons baptized and five joining the church on profession of faith. Another person is planning to be baptized a little later.

The pastor of the Sedalia Church is Gary Amick.

Naomi Madden is communication secretary of the Sedalia Church.

Girl Scout Leader Honored In Oak Grove

By Robert Peck

The annual Community Service Award from the Oak Grove SDA Church was presented to Mrs. Dorothy Baker. This award is given to individuals or groups who have given outstanding service to the community.

Mrs. Baker was honored for her many years of leading the Girl Scouts of Oak Grove. Several of her former scouts attended the ceremony. Charles Dye, pastor of the Oak Grove Church, delivered a speech in which he thanked Mrs. Baker on behalf of the families whose daughters were influenced by her.

Robert Peck is the secretary of the Iowa-Missouri Conference.

Just How Important Is a Will?

By Merle Barker

A Will is a written instrument, made by you in accordance with strict legal requirements, in which you direct the disposition of your property (called "estate" after your death). A Will takes effect only upon death and can be changed at any time prior to death. A Christian Will is one in which you remember God's cause in the distribution of your estate.

Any person of legal age having a sound mind who has a bank account, real estate, or other possessions, should make a Will.

The Will must be a properly prepared document in writing and must be signed at the end by the testator and witnessed by at least two independent witnesses, who need to be told that it is a Will, but who do not need to know any of its contents. Witnesses must both be present and sign in the presence of each other. A beneficiary or husband or wife of a beneficiary cannot be a witness.

You may want assistance from a lawyer or from your Conference Trust Service representative to aid you in determining how best to accomplish your wishes.

A Will is good until it is changed or revoked. Changes in circumstances after a Will has been made — remarriage, births or deaths in the family, or even a substantial change in the nature or amount of a person's property — may make a change in the Will desirable. Remarriage revokes a former Will and makes a new one necessary.

A Will is the instrument through which YOU name the person (executor) who will manage and settle your estate according to your instructions; YOU can nominate the guardian of dependent persons; YOU can create trusts and name the managers so that the proper persons and organizations will receive benefits; YOU can name the Church and its institutions in your Will; YOU may reduce estate taxes.

If the Will is properly prepared and executed according to law, it can lessen probate expenses. If there is no Will, the Probate Court must determine who the legal heirs are, and then cause someone (whom it appoints) to distribute the estate to them.

Without a Will, nothing can go to the Church or other charitable institutions. A Will can save both money and trouble for a deceased person's family.

The Trust Services department of your Conference is willing to counsel with you at your convenience and can be reached by mail at P.O. Box 65665, West Des Moines, Iowa 50265, or by phone 515-223-1197 in Iowa and 816-353-7113 in Missouri.

Merle Barker is field representative of the Iowa-Missouri Conference Trust Services Department.

Successful Cooking School At Knoxville

By Joan Arnott

A very successful Cooking School was held recently in Knoxville, Iowa. An average of 70 persons attended each of the 5 nights. Dr. Gordon Arnott presented an interesting talk each evening on the basic principles for good health and preventive medicine. He prepared colorful charts and these were effective teaching aids.

Various demonstrations were given each evening on how to make whole wheat bread, natural grains for breakfast, tasty vegetables, nutritious proteins from the soil and desserts made with little or no sugar.

Everyone was very enthusiastic about the classes and food samples and it was gratifying to see such a great interest in using natural and more nutritious foods.

The women of the church were a great help in preparing the samples. Our next project is Lay Bible Classes and we pray that the Lord will continue to bless our humble efforts for Him.

Joan Arnott is the wife of a practicing physician in Knoxville.

Busy Students

By Ada Dalin

The Nevada, Missouri Church School students are not lacking in helpfulness.

They do many things such as raking leaves, baby sitting, holding rummage and bake sales, etc., to help finance extra school programs.

They also collected cans of food and other items for Thanksgiving food baskets. Nineteen baskets were distributed to needy families.

Enclosed are pictures of a few of their activities.

Maplewood Academy Holds Senior Recognition

By Debbie Barr

Have you ever had a thought or feeling similar to this: senior rec — another amateur hour and mini-graduation? I'm sure many of you know what I'm talking about. This year's event, March 14-15, had those two usual contributing factors, and a little extra.

Before the amateur hour, the seniors sponsored a spaghetti feed. The room was very nicely decorated and the food was excellent.

At 7:30 the annual Maplewood Academy Amateur Hour began. Much care and advanced preparation and rehearsal made the program better than in most years gone by. There was a wide variety of numbers in four main areas: skits, instrumental, vocal, and novelty. First place acts in the respective categories were "The Symptoms," with Mark Stegan, Lisa Peterson, Lynette Anderson, Darcy Johnson, Luanne Heglund, Gary Walker, and Jan McTaggart; "Holiday on Ice," a flute duet by Jenny Wall and Pam Gilbert; "I Make It Through the Rain," sung by Dave Sullivan; and "the 'T,'" a tribute to the parting place for couples, presented by a group of senior guys. Grand prize was awarded to Dave Sullivan for his fine performance of "I Made It Through the Rain." Winners were selected by a panel of four judges. The evening was an enormous success thanks to the efforts of Lynette Anderson, senior class president; the sponsors, Harlen Peck and Steve Zork; and countless others.

Sunday morning at approximately 10:00 a. m., 63 seniors marched to the front of the auditorium, to receive words of wisdom from Rich Carlson.

Pastor Rich, as he is affectionately known here at Maplewood, began by telling the seniors that he stood before them a failure, a failure for two reasons — 1. because no one ever remembers what a senior rec speaker has to say, and 2. because it is impossible to keep a group of students' attention for more than ten minutes. He did talk longer than ten minutes, and nearly everyone listened to the very end. His main thought to leave with the seniors was that they would experience failure, but failure is a part of success.

Now that the senior class has been officially recognized, they are anxiously awaiting May 17 when they will descend the stage for the last time with diploma in hand.

Talented Family Join Dodge Center Church

By Betty Knudson

The Dodge Center church family are very happy to have Dr. Jack and Yvette Victorino and sons, John and Sean, living in their little city. They moved from Glendale, California, to come and staff the West Side Clinic in this small city. (The West Side Clinic was closed for a year because of the lack of a doctor to staff it.)

Yvette and Dr. Jack Victorino of Dodge Center.

Yvette is a registered nurse so together they do a beautiful job at the clinic. The patient load has built up much faster than expected.

The church family, along with the community, enjoy this wonderful family. They know God directed them to Dodge Center.

—Water—

By Clara Hansen

A seminar designed to show the proper use of water in improving health was held at the Hutchinson SDA Elementary School on February 28 — March 1. Dr. John Reaves, RPT, MPH, physical therapist and health educator with a master's of public health degree from Loma Linda University, now practicing at the Family Health Clinic and Better Living Center in Stevens Point, Wisconsin, presented this very interesting seminar. The doctor's delightful sense of humor was an added enjoyment of the instruction.

Many areas were discussed through questions and answers, but Dr. Reaves covered four main topics with illustrated talks and demonstrations. One was "How to Relieve Pain" (headache, sprains, low-back pain, boils, indigestions) using such methods as heat compresses, ice massage, hot and cold foot baths, and charcoal poultices. Another main topic was "How to Avoid the Common Cold" using fomentations and cold and hot baths. The doctor strongly stressed that your body needs 40,000 cups of water a day to function, but God has wonderfully made us with kidneys that can recycle. Thus the actual daily water intake for an adult needs to be only 8 to 10 glasses of pure H₂O. We were taught juice and milk are considered food. For the sick patient with a cold, we need to push water instead of juices, and the whole fruit rather than just the juice.

The third topic was "How to Deal with Stress." We learned that a cold or cool bath is an excellent tonic during the hot months. Both warm and neutral baths soothe nerves and improve circulation. The fourth topic covered was "How to Follow God's Plan for Action", stressing that all should become intelligent in the use of remedies which God has provided in nature as simple home treatments. A documented booklet was available for $5, entitled HOME HYDROTHERAPY MADE SIMPLE.

The community was invited to the seminar through the newspaper as well as announcements on the radio.

Clara Hansen is the communication secretary for the Hutchinson church.

UNION COLLEGE

Teacher Education

By Jiggs Gallagher

Bargains in higher education are not easy to come by these days. That's why Mid-America constituents will be happy to learn just how far their dollars for elementary teacher certification were stretched last summer.

The union contributes a $15,000 subsidy to Union College for the purpose of conducting a summer session for elementary teachers. According to Dr. Charles Felton, chairman of the Division of Human Development, the program is conducted in cooperation with Loma Linda University and held on the Union campus.

In the summer of 1980, 112 teachers currently in the field came to Union to complete a bachelor's degree or earn certification in elementary education. They racked up 320 semester hours of credit, at a regular tuition rate of $120 per hour, which would normally cost $38,400. (The program is tuition-free to the teachers.)

Another 28 teachers earned 165 quarter-hour credits from LLU in pursuit of master's degrees in elementary education. At a cost of $78 per quarter credit of regular tuition, that's another $12,870. Again, this was tuition-free to the participant because of the cooperative arrangement between Mid-America, Union College and Loma

Linda University.

Dr. Felton notes that $51,270 in credit charges cost the union only $15,000 in subsidy. "That's as good a bargain as you'll find in educational circles today," he says. He adds that in the master's program, each instructor has a doctorate in the area in which he or she taught.

Teachers interested in this year's summer program should contact Dr. Willard Meier, School of Education, Loma Linda University, Riverside, Ca 92515. The session begins in Lincoln on June 8.

Jiggs Gallagher is the public information officer for Union College.

JUDICIOUS THOUGHT—The Honorable Robert Van Pelt, retired Senior District Judge of the U.S. District Court in Lincoln, Nebraska, was interviewed by Union College President Dean Hubbard. Judge Van Pelt, 83, appeared during the college's spring chapel series on the integration of faith and learning. Among the difficult issues he tackled was how he felt sentencing a man to the electric chair (he felt it was biblically justified and served the greater good of society). The judge still hears cases during his semi-retirement.

HOSPITALS

Platte Valley Bank Contributes to Brighton Community Hospital

In an announcement made March 12, Platte Valley Bank committed itself to a contribution of $16,000 to the Brighton Community Hospital Equipment Fund Drive.

According to Richard Chenoweth, executive vice president, the bank's management felt that the gift was appropriate in view of the impact the hospital has on the community. The gift of $16,000 represents $1,000 for every million dollars held in total bank deposits as of December 31, 1980. States Chenoweth, "We felt that this ratio is one that a bank could commit itself to, showing its support of an important community project. The gift is from the bank, and in no way limits our personal contributions to the Equipment Fund Drive." The pledge will be split among the three tax years of 1981, 1982, and 1983.

Four thousand dollars of the gift have been earmarked to furnish two patient care rooms, $8,000 will go to purchase a pediatric respiration and cardiac monitor, with the balance of $4,000 being placed into the general fund to be utilized as needed.

Anyone wanting to contribute is encouraged to call the Fund Drive headquarters at 659-1472, or mail it to the Platte Valley Industrial Bank, 641 Bridge Street, Brighton, Colorado 80601.

Volkmer to Keynote Medical Center Opening

Harold L. Volkmer (D-MO), representing Missouri's Ninth Congressional District, will be the keynote speaker at the dedication and open house for the new Moberly Regional Medical Center, Sunday, May 3, at 2 p.m.

The program will include tours of the $14 million, 110-bed medical center and the adjacent Moberly Professional Arts Building for physician and dental offices and a pharmacy. The public is invited.

The medical center opening marks the completion of a 26-month building program and years of planning by Moberly area residents for a new hospital to replace the two existing hospitals, both of which were built in the early years of this century and no longer meet present health care standards and licensing requirements.

Other participants in the program will include Moberly Mayor Donald R. Schaffer; Rev. Jodie E. Jackson, president of the Moberly Ministerial Association; MRMC Administrator James C. Culpepper; and other members of the Board of Directors. Ray L. Pelton, associate director of the Health Department of the General Conference, will present the hospital commission, and Ellsworth S. Reile, president of the Mid-America Union Conference, will offer the benediction.

Moberly Regional Medical Center is a nonprofit hospital operated as a community service by the Adventist Health System/Eastern and Middle America.

Medical Center Purchases HEART Institute

Shawnee Mission Medical Center has purchased the Health Education And Rehabilitation Training (HEART) Institute which was owned by HEART Systems Division, Inc., and was renting space in the medical center.

Evaluation by the HEART Institute includes an examination of the person's diet, level of exercise, attitudes toward work and life, and physical characteristics such as the amount of body fat and the level of cholesterol in the blood. The information can be analyzed to find what changes would give the client a healthier lifestyle.

P. R. E. A. C. H. Seminar In Kansas City, Missouri

More than 100 clergy gathered in the South Broadland Presbyterian Church in Kansas City on Thursday, March 26 for a very successful P. R. E. A. C. H. Professional Growth Seminar.

P. R. E. A. C. H. (Project for Reaching Every Active Clergyman's Home) involves sending MINISTRY magazine to some 250,000 non-Seventh-day Adventist clergymen throughout the country on a regular basis. This is followed up by the seminar.

The Kansas City seminar, jointly sponsored by the Iowa-Missouri and Kansas-Nebraska Conferences, was under the direction of Field Representative for MINISTRY, Bill Quigley, from Washington, and Mid-America P. R. E. A. C. H. coordinator Halle Crowson.

The seminar featured Dr. Robert Johnston of Andrews University, Dr. Kenneth Vine from Loma Linda University and Dr. Wayne Williamson, a physician in family practice in Kansas City. Johnston lectured on the "Parables of Jesus"; Vine shared some of his vast knowledge on archaeology and Williamson talked to the clergy about the "Minister's Health".

Other seminars are being planned in other sections of the Mid-America Union where a number of MINISTRY subscriptions are being sent.

Serve Sabbath dinners all week long.

Now you can make any dinner a little more special. With help from Loma Linda. These four dishes only taste like you went to a lot of trouble. They're easy to prepare. And guaranteed to please. Why not try one tonight? If it's Loma Linda, the taste is delicious... naturally.

A special taste treat. Polynesian Chicken on Chinese Noodles with snow peas, green onions, water chestnuts, fresh mushrooms, and tomatoes and pineapple in ginger sauce.

Make Sizzle Burgers a little more special with tomato and cheese, buttered spinach noodles and Mexican corn.

Sautéed green peppers and onion dress up Swiss Steak in gravy. Try it with baked potato and honey glazed carrots. Simply delicious.

Try Sizzle Franks baked in Creamy Macaroni with cheese. Stuffed broiled tomatoes and steamed fresh broccoli make the perfect side dish.
