THE SOLOMON ISLANDS

While the writer was in Australia, Pastor G. F. Jones and wife began work in the Solomon Islands. The work met with success from the beginning. Many who at that time were in darkness—the grossest of heathen darkness—have now been guided into the way of peace and are rejoicing in the light of the third angel's message and the power of Jesus to save from sin.

A recent report from that Island shows that they now have over two thousand Sabbath keepers in the five main stations and twenty-six out-stations in that field. Not having sufficient laborers from the home land, they are obliged to use some of their native workers in these out stations for a few months, and then he returns to the main school so that he can acquire more knowledge while another native goes out in his place. The white workers are connected with the five main stations on the different islands of the group.

Recently a chief of one of the out stations announced to Brother Gray that he was now prepared to turn away from all of his heathen ways and fully identify himself with the message. These wonderful victories came at the time he was engaged in a round of heathen ceremony that would have taken him at least two years to complete. The canoe that he was to have completed for this heathen festival, he will now make up for the mission. He also promised to give up his tobacco, and all other bad habits. Nineteen were recently baptized in Viru, which is a part of that group. They are still calling for help. There are hundreds of people dying not only in the Solomon Islands, but in other places, without a knowledge of the third angel's message. Oh, that we might be able to send them the message we love so much. Please do not forget the mid-summer offering, Sabbath, July 18.

Brother Beddoe, assistant secretary of the General Conference, writes: "We here in the General Conference have just been giving very careful study to the mid-summer offering. In the first place the status of our mission budget makes it necessary that we have more than an ordinary offering on that day. This was recognized and was voted at the time of the Spring Council that a special effort should be made to have our churches give an average of one dollar per church member for missions so that we could answer some of these calls."

CAMP MEETING

Definite arrangements have been made for the holding of our coming annual conference and camp meeting session again on the fair parking grounds at Puyallup, Aug. 13-23. Our meeting having been held there the last two or three years most of our people are now acquainted with the grounds and location and are beginning to feel quite at home in coming to the same ground for our camp meeting. The new camp meeting pavilion, which all know, who were in attendance last year when one end of our old one went to pieces, was a necessity and has been made. It is ten feet larger than the old one and will provide accommodation for a much larger congregation. We are planning on a very large meeting this year and we hope that all of our people are already beginning to lay definite plans to be in attendance. It is none too early to begin thinking in a definite way of the coming camp meeting and conference session which ought to be the very best ever held in this field. We have the promise of good General Conference help, so from a human view point we believe that we can look forward to a spiritual feast of good things.

THE ACADEMY

Last week-end was a busy time at the Western Washington Academy. A splendid company of twenty young men and young women were in the graduating class. This is the largest class ever graduated from our school. Parents of many of the graduates and others of our brothers, sisters and friends, some coming as far as from California, were at the Academy for the closing days of school and we believe all were very favorably impressed with the spirit and morale of the school in every way. As no doubt others will speak of the closing exercises more in detail, I will mention some others items.

We wish that all of our people could see the splendid lot of tomato plants raised by Elder Wyman in the new greenhouse which is a real asset to the school. The plants are now out and from present indications with favorable conditions there should be hundreds of bushels of this delicious product for the tables for our boys and girls for the next school year. A number of young men are remaining at the Academy during the summer to work on the farm and in the wood shop. It would do our people good to see the work that is being put out by the wood shop at this time. A splendid lot of church pews have been made for the churches at Auburn and Bucoda and are commendatory to the efficient work of the shop.

Brother Pike of Port Angeles, who is connected with the woodwork shop at the Academy was called home recently owing to the illness of their youngest child which has since improved so that he returned to the Academy a few days ago.

ITEMS

Tents were shipped out from Puyallup Monday, May 18, for summer efforts at Raymond, Shelton and Carnation. It was planned as far as possible in each place that the tents should be pitched and meetings begin not later than Sunday evening, the thirty-first. So undoubtedly by this time tent meetings are in progress in the three places mentioned. If any of our people have friends in any of these places it would be well to call the attention of the workers to them.

The meeting at Raymond is being conducted by Elders Holbrook and Tupper and assisted by Brother and Sister Melendy and Sister Wade. Elder Libby assisted by Brother Hayes Davis, from the College, will hold an effort at Shelton, and Brethren Atkin and Shafer with their wives, at Carnation. We hope that as a result of these summer efforts there will be a good ingathering of souls.

Brethren Atkin and Shafer went to Bucoda to give Elder Tupper a little help in the finishing touches of the new church building at Bucoda so that he might not be delayed in getting tent meetings started.

Elder Hoffman of Portland is spending a few days in the city with Brother Nomura working among the Japanese in Seattle and vicinity.

Elder Purdon of Salt Lake City, formerly of Portland, has been in the city for the past few days visiting relatives and friends.

Sister Hightower, one of our isolated Conference Church members of Sauk, Washington, is a patient in one of the city hospitals. Elders Pettit and Ogden called on her a few days ago and was glad to find her improved healthwise.

Among the recent visitors at the Academy were Sister Steunenberg and her daughter from California, mother and sister of Professor Steunenberg.

Elder and Sister Graham made a trip last week to Illwaco to visit Elder Graham's sister.

Elder Lingenfelter met with the churches at Auburn and Enumclaw last Sabbath.

Elder Ogden met with the Kent church last Sabbath.

Elder Oliver and Brother and Sister Melendy toured to Portland Sunday, the twenty-fourth, to attend Elder Everson's Sunday evening meeting and make investigations relative to the tabernacle equipment for our conference.

Elder and Sister Pettit returned from their recent trip visiting relatives and friends in Oregon to their post of duty in Seattle.

Elder Bunch gave the baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class at the Academy Sabbath, May 23, and Doctor Holden the graduating address Monday evening the 25th.

Professor Nelson went to Everett last Friday to visit the church school and spent Sabbath with the church there. He planned on visiting Fern- dale and Bellingham before returning to the office.

"He who beholds the Saviour's matchless love will be elevated in thought, purified in heart, transformed in character."

COLPORTEUR NOTES

It will be interesting to the readers of the GLEANER to know, that though many of the mills and camps are closing down for a while, still there are several of the workers who are hammering on. W. C. Christensen at Everett, Willard Atherly in and near Seattle, H. B. Johnson near Centralia, Wesley Lawrence at Port Angeles, John Kennett part time in Seattle.

At present a Sister Nelson from Chicago is entering the work here, planning on working at Ballard with Home Physician and Our Day. A Brother and Sister Malott accompanied by their son are entering this field, choosing to work in and near Tacoma. Also a Brother Angel from Montana is starting work with Home Physician in Seattle.

I trust you will remember the colporteurs in your prayers and do everything in your power for the scattering of the printed page.

TACOMA

In the revival which has just closed here in the Tacoma church, the message calling for a revival and a reformation has been stressed and strong appeals have been made for the church to get ready for the loud cry of the third angel's message.

Those who were convicted of sin and those who desired to live the life of victory pressed to the altar for prayer, and a new experience has come to many, bringing back that first love to hearts that had grown cold and formal.

The condescension, humiliation, and sacrifice of our divine Lord was uplifted in these meetings both in sermon and in song, and the contemplation of the matchless depths of a Saviour's love has filled the minds and melted the souls of some.

Some not of our faith attended these meetings and there is a growing interest as a result. We are planning to continue the meetings here, and will no doubt hold another two weeks series beginning Sabbath, June 6.

We were glad to have Elder T. G. Bunch here to lead out in this revival, and we also appreciated the good music rendered by the "Melendy Melody Makers."

FOREST HOME SCHOOL

A successful school year closed May 17 with an interesting program given by the children of the school home in the parlor of the dormitory.

A new piano has been added to the music equipment of the school.

A radio has been installed in the home and good results have been attained in hearing long distant stations.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wolfkill motor-ed to British Columbia in company with one of the students.

Lula and Viola Julin were pleased to have with them at the close of school, their father, Mr. Victor Julin of Oakville Washington.

Mrs. Minnie Sype and her son Elder R. J. Sype were recent visitors to the school.

A new chicken house has been built and four hundred White Leg-horn baby chicks are enjoying their new home.

Forest Home School and vicinity are rejoicing over the fact that the power has been turned on and the conveniences of electricity are now in use.

THE NEEDS BEYOND

Our offerings to missions the first four months of 1925 were $268 per week per member. This is less than half of our goal. Compared with some other conferences this is not so bad. And yet the tithe is increasing and souls are being won to the truth. Should not this mean more offerings to missions?

The greatest appeal though that comes to us is the great need in the fields beyond. Not only the needs but the success that is crowning the efforts of our missionaries should stir each one of us to faithfulness and renewed efforts to do his part. The following extracts from a letter from Elder Spicer, writing from Africa, may help us at this time:

"More depends upon us at the home base than we can ever realize. How our brethren rejoice to hear of the sturdy, devoted efforts of the conference leaders in North America to win souls and rally all hands to deeper consecration to God and His cause. Dear brethren at home, we cannot for a moment look back or falter, or let our hands tremble as we hold the ropes. While the enemy sows tares and sends out evil reports that cast gloom upon our missionaries at their task, let us in the name of the Lord sound the call to renewed earnestness and sacrifice throughout all our ranks. May God help the believers to stand by.

"Things are breaking here in Satan's kingdom of darkness as in all the world. Old Africa is astir. I am not saying it as merely a good thing to say. It is a fact. This Division has doubled its membership in four years. There is a new move on for evangelism in the European sections. Good fruitage is being seen. And new areas are opening among the tribes and tongues to the northward. Word just comes down from Nyasaland that Elder Ellingworth on a four weeks' tour along the outposts with two groups of native evangelists saw 431 new souls give their hearts to God. This old Ethiopia that has been in darkness for millenniums is arousing and literally stretching out its hands unto God.

"Do you know, brethren, this field has over ten thousand students in our schools. Its Sabbath schools have over 14,000 members. When I contrast the situation now with what I saw here ten years ago I am astonished to see how God is setting His hand to the work in Africa. Tell the believers what God has wrought through their gifts, and let them know, brethren, how on every mission station eyes are turned toward the old home churches—with prayer—to God to help them to send on the means and the missionaries in increasing stream."

We cannot slacken our efforts at home. We have not all paid for our Relief Books, nor disposed of our Big Week books thus some of our churches are in arrears to the office. We should give these matters some attention. There is much to look after at home it is true, and yet the condition of our mission offerings should engage our especial efforts so that we may month by month reach a higher goal with the ultimate aim of reaching the 60 cents per week per member before 1926 with its new duties shall dawn.

We are drawing near the end of all things earthly. Let us rally with our hearts and means to usher in the unending joys of the heavenly kingdom.

NEWS ITEMS

On Sabbath, April 25, there was a church organization effected in Gooding, Idaho. Several new ones have accepted the faith as a result of Brother Johnson's energetic work there and it seemed best to organize them into a church. This was duly officered, Brother D. C. Taylor of King Hill being ordained elder. Brother Taylor has been in the faith for some time.

Professor Johnson reports an interest in Ontario where he is holding meetings at present and some are beginning to accept the faith. We trust he may have a good harvest of souls there.

Elder Wagner and Brother Belding closed their meetings at Richland, Oregon, and are about Caldwell ready for camp meeting preparations.

We were pleased to see Brother Claude Conard of Washington D. C., and Professor Peterson of this Union at the academy this week for a short time. Brother Peterson's smiling face always does us good in Southern Idaho.

The 16th of May several went to Emmett and Payette for services. Elder and Mrs. H. G. Thurston, Samuel Thurston, Brother R. E. Keller, and Miss Helen Burch composed the crowd. They drove from Payette to Ontario to attend Professor Johnson's meeting that evening.

On the 23rd of May a large company gathered at Weiser and in the afternoon the church was formally dedicated. Elder Coberly delivered the dedicatory address, Professor Johnson read the scripture selection, and Elder Thurston offered the dedicatory prayer. Samuel Thurston sang a solo.

Elder E. M. Oberg, accompanied by R. E. Keller, has just recently completed a series of stereopticon lectures in the interest of the mission work, visiting the following churches, La Grande, Baker, Parma, Caldwell, and Boise. At each place there was a good attendance, and a number of orders were placed for Big Week sets by each of these churches. These meetings were very much appreciated by all and they received a cordial invitation to come again.

THE SOUTHERN IDAHO CONFERENCE ASSOCIATION

The sixteenth session of the Southern Idaho Conference Association of Seventh-day Adventists will be held on the camp ground, in connection with the Southern Idaho Conference and annual camp meeting June 11 to 21, 1925, at Linden Street and Indiana Avenue, Caldwell, Idaho. The first meeting will convene at 10:30 a. m., Monday, June 15, 1925. The purpose of the meeting is to elect officers for the ensuing term, and to transact any other business that may properly come before the Association. Delegates to the Southern Idaho Conference meeting are members of the Association.

NEWS NOTES

Miss Lola Standard, one of the recent graduates from the Portland Sanitarium Training School, who is well known to many in our conference, left this week for Washington, D. C., where she will take some special work in Washington Missionary College. This course is preparatory to entering upon her work in our field as conference nurse. Miss Standard expects to arrive home in time for the camp meeting, August 20.

Prof. C. A. Russell has been a recent visitor to our conference. He spent some time at both Laurelwood and Columbia academies, delivering the commencement address at Columbia. While here the Laurelwood board enjoyed the privilege of his counsel in one of their meetings.

The past week-end was a busy one at both academies, as it witnessed the commencement at each. The friends of the schools were torn between two desires, as they would have enjoyed the programs at each place. The baccalaureate sermon at Laurelwood was delivered by F. B. Jensen, and the commencement address by Prof. Everson.

Mr. and Mrs. Melendy, of Tacoma, were present at the Everson meeting on Sunday evening. The audience greatly enjoyed the beautiful duet they rendered.

R. L. Walin, Union Conference auditor, was a visitor in our office the last of the week.

Prof. H. E. Westermeyer, recently elected principal of Laurelwood Academy, arrived in our conference last week from Loveland, Colorado, where he has been principal of Champion Academy.

Elders Erntson and Hilgert were office visitors on Wednesday, making preparations for their summer's effort to be held in McMinnville.

Many of the Sabbath schools are busy with their preparations for Rally Day, which is set for June 13. Are your plans well under way? This is the time to make a special effort to gather in those "missing members" and enroll them in the Sabbath school. Remember the conference slogan FIVE THOUSAND SABBATH SCHOOL MEMBERS IN WESTERN OREGON. If we could just get all the church members enrolled in Sabbath school we would have our FIVE THOUSAND MEMBERS.

Elder and Mrs. Jacobs are making their arrangements to spend the summer among the churches in the Astoria district. This is territory enough to keep them very busy.

Mrs. W. C. Gehman, stenographer in the conference office, is taking her vacation at the present time, so that she may be at home by the time Elder Woodman arrives back from Wisconsin. We feel sure Mrs. Gehman will have a delightful time, since she had the opportunity to motor to Southern California with her cousin.

Prof. Colcord has been kept quite busy of late at the interesting work of lettering the diplomas for the graduates from the two academies. He burned the "midnight oil" several evenings to get them all ready on time.

Doremus Union School held its closing exercises on Thursday evening at Redmen's Hall.

Copies of the "Sabbath School Worker" containing the program for Rally Day may still be obtained at our office, at ten cents each, or eight cents if five or more are taken.

The CAN YOUR MONEY stickers to be used on the receptacles in which you save up your Sabbath School Investment money have arrived, and may be obtained from Miss Starbuck.

No doubt everybody rejoiced when they learned by the "Review" that our Sabbath schools gave Africa an overflow of more than eighteen thousand dollars. Now, what are we going to do for the Philippines? They are just as deserving, and just as needy as Africa. We have several Western Oregon young people in that field, and still others from this Union Conference. Let us cheer their hearts by showing them we remember them and their problems, and want to help bear the burdens.

Brother Ammundsen, home on furlough from the Philippines addressed the Central Sabbath school on Sabbath with reference to the needs of that field. He told of visiting, in company with Elder R. R. Figuhr, the Igorrote country, where one school has already been established, and where many other openings exist. A number of Igorrote young people are in the Training School, and might be sent out to fill these calls if there were money to send them. A good overflow on the Thirteenth Sabbath would help to open up work in these needy places. Let's give them an overflow! Conference Office

Elder J. S. Rouse went to Walla Walla Thursday to supervise construction of the camp. Sunday night he leaves for Caldwell where he was invited to deliver the commencement address for the graduating class of Gem State Academy.

Elder W. A. Schebo, Elder R. H. Martin, Brethren A. J. Hoskin and H. T. Westphal are assisting with the camp construction from the Spokane district.

The office will be closed from Tuesday June 2 to June 14 inclusive. All mail addressed to us at Spokane will be forwarded to Walla Walla. We will give immediate attention to all mail orders while on the camp grounds.

We look for the Walla Walla camp meeting to be one of the very best camp meetings ever held in the Upper Columbia conference. Two hundred family tents are being erected for your convenience. Many orders are being received indicating that a large number plan to attend. Please read Vol. 5 pages 162-167 of the "Testimonies for the Church" and other extracts also which may be found by referring to the index. We are told that it is a duty to be in attendance at camp meeting. If each one would take a little time to study just how we can cooperate with the Lord and each other a great blessing would be ours.

Don't forget the book tent at camp meeting. There will be a large assortment of character building books on display. A special price is in effect during the encampment. Think over the needs of relatives, friends and neighbors. Then make those selections. It may mean the salvation of someone. Each and every worker in the book tent desires to contribute toward making your time pleasantly spent on the camp-ground.

Drop a letter to your friends and relatives urging them to be present at camp meeting. New life to many souls has come because a friend urged their attendance. It is real missionary work. Try it. R. R. T.

A COURSE IN HIGHER EDUCATION DURING SUMMER VACATION

Several years ago when I was attending Walla Walla College, my brother, who was a farmer, and not an Adventist, asked me a question which I have never forgotten. He said, "How is it that you spend three months selling books, and make enough to go to school the other nine months? I work all the year on the farm, early and late, and scarcely make ends meet." Truly this is marvelous in the eyes of the world. The Lord has abundantly blessed the faithful efforts of those who scatter the printed page, that souls may be saved.

Our schools are closed for the summer vacation. From different parts of the Upper Columbia Conference recruits are offering themselves for the colporteur service. More than twenty have given their word that they will enter the field. We believe that with the blessing of God every faithful worker will make good. There are splendid prospects this year.

If students working three months, can earn a scholarship and get back to school, why can not a wide-awake man working all the time make a living for himself and family? It can be done, and this is the real need of the field. There should be a regular army of colporteurs. Students are needed to reinforce them during the summer months. Our territory should have living representatives in the various localities. These workers should regard the territory under their charge as a sacred trust given them by the Lord. Has He not said, "Go work today in My vineyard?"

A glance at the colporteur reports in the GLEANER will be evidence enough that the Lord is giving success in this line of work. Better than all monetary considerations is the valuable training that is being obtained in the service. The colporteur work is a course in "higher education," a preparation for "the school of the hereafter." Why not begin now to plan to enter the colporteur work as a calling. If you are interested address the undersigned at 817 Nora Ave., Spokane, Wash. Byron A. Meeker,

THE COLLEGIAN

The possibility and success of a weekly "Collegian" has been proved, during the last semester of the past school year. The degree of success attained is based on the numerous testimonials received from various universities, colleges and former students. We are pleased most of all by the eagerness with which the students read the paper each Thursday noon as it comes from the press.

Although the weekly has been discontinued for the summer, there will be a monthly in newspaper form. This summer "Collegian" will be a booster for W. W. C. Prospective students may receive it by sending in their names and addresses. We urge that all students feel free to send in news for this summer monthly. Everybody would like to know what everybody else is doing.

The subscription price for the weekly for the school year 1925-26 will be $1.00 or fifty cents per semester. Send in your subscription on or before September 16 and receive every copy from the beginning.

"LET THE HEATHEN BE AWAKENED"

Today we are seeing a literal awakening in the heathen world—an awakening which means a reaching out for the Gospel.

Stories of missionary progress which read like romance are coming to us from the Far East, from Africa, from South America, and from the islands of the sea.

These stories as they are published each week in the "Review" are read with soul-stirring interest by our brethren and sisters. They show in an unmistakable manner that God has set His hand for the accomplishment of a speedy work in the earth.

In one issue each month the cardinal features of our Faith are being reviewed in our church paper. It is well in these closing days of earth's history, when our enemy is doing his utmost to attract us away from the Message, to reconsider and meditate upon these principles of divine truth. Some of the articles in months to come will be on the topics, The Sabbath of the Bible; The Second Coming of Christ; Righteousness by Faith; The United States in Prophecy; The Seven Last Plagues; The Battle of Armageddon; The Millennium and the Saints' Inheritance; The Nature of Man, State of the Dead, and End of the Final Impenitent. These articles will be by some of our best writers and will be of such a character that they will be good for others as well as ourselves.

A series of articles on the subject of practical Christian experience will soon appear. These are contributed by Elder O. Montgomery.

Is the "Review" a regular visitor to your home? If not, you better begin at once to have it come for it will do you good. The price is $2.75 a year. Send order to your conference office.

"The liberality of the Jews in the construction of the tabernacle and the erection of the temple, illustrates a spirit of benevolence which has not been equaled by Christians of any later date."

OBITUARIES

Butcher.—John J. Butcher was born in the state of Wisconsin July 31, 1861; and died at Tacoma, Wash., May 20, 1925. He leaves to mourn, his wife, two daughters, and one son. Bro. Butcher accepted present truth in 1890. He was a firm believer in the third angel's message, and we believe he sleeps in Jesus.

F. M. Oliver.

Hamlin.—Clarence Hamlin was born in Minnesota Dec. 21, 1918; and died at North Bend, Ore., May 3, 1925. A father, mother, four sisters and three brothers are left to mourn. Little Clarence will be greatly missed by his classmates in Sabbath school,—in fact the whole church will miss his smiles. But we believe we shall meet him again ere long. That event cannot be delayed much longer.

H. A. Niergarth.

Stanwood.—Leo Stanwood was born in Oswego Co., N. Y., July 23, 1855; and died at Seaside, Oregon, May 2, 1925. He was married to Mrs. Loretta Burnshaw in Olean, N. Y., in 1896. Seven years ago they came to Seaside, Oregon. Although the deceased was never affiliated with any church, he was always in sympathy with the Adventist faith, of which church his wife is a member. Sister Stanwood, three step daughters, and two brothers are left to mourn. The funeral, conducted by the writer in Portland, Oregon, was attended by a host of friends.

V. P. Hulse.

Dotson.—Mrs. Emma K. Dotson died in Baker, Oregon, April 17 after an illness of several months. She was born at Warfino, Colorado, May 18, 1868, and came to Oregon in 1905. She is survived by one son and three daughters. Mrs. Dotson professed Christianity early in life, and embraced the third angel's message about twelve years ago, and though a great sufferer in her last illness, never faltered in her faith. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer.

F. D. Wagner.

Oleson.—Clarence Oleson was born in Bellingham, Wash., twenty years ago. He was drowned in Lake Whatcom, April 16, 1925. Funeral services were conducted by the writer.

R. J. Sype.

Webb.—Daniel Andrew Webb was born in Kentucky in June, 1850; and died in Bellingham, Wash., May 8, 1925, of apoplexy. The last act of his life, so far as we know, was to purchase some Big Week books for relatives, and to express his courage in God. Funeral services were conducted by the writer.

R. J. Sype.

Starr.—Frank Dixon Starr was born at Parma, Mich., Nov. 7, 1851; and died at College Place, Wash., April 20, 1925, aged 73 years, 5 months, and 13 days. He embraced present truth under the labors of Elder Joseph Bates, and preached for almost fifty years the message which he loved. He served as a conference administrator for many years in Indiana, Tennessee, and Ontario. He also served as proof reader and Bible teacher at the "Review" office in Battle Creek. He taught Bible at Mt. Vernon College and in Iowa, and labored in South Dakota, Illinois, and Upper Columbia. Owing to advancing years he retired from active labor in the cause, but still labored for souls and preached as opportunity offered till within three weeks of his death. He was conscious to the last, and fell peacefully asleep with the calm assurance that he had fought a good fight. His faith reached forward to the final day of resurrection and reward. Elder Starr was held in high esteem by all who knew him for the Christian integrity, simplicity, and sincerity which characterized his life. His devoted companion and one son are left to mourn. Elders J. S. Rouse and Oscar Hill assisted in the burial service which was held at College Place.

W. A. Gosmer.

Pefley.—Ora Samuel Pefley was born January 18, 1880, in Jackson County, Missouri; and passed away May 9, 1925. Death was caused from Cerebrospinal meningitis. When two years of age he with his parents moved to Kansas where he grew to manhood and was married to Mary Adalaide Hollon in the year 1901. To this union was born two daughters, Thelma and Anna Mae. In 1918 he enlisted in the World War, 20th Infantry, Co. D. In the same year he was married to Mildred Mae Ackley at Junction City, Kansas. To this union was born a son, Glenn Lewis Pefley. In the year 1920 he with his family came to Medford where he resided until the time of his death. He joined the Seventh-day Adventist church in January 1921, to which he has been a faithful member. He leaves to mourn his loss: his wife, Mildred Pefley of Medford; two daughters, Mrs. Thelma Piolatto and Mrs. Anna Mae Flannigan, both of Los Angeles, California; his son, Glenn of Medford; also five sisters and three brothers, besides a host of friends.

T. L. Thuemler.

Johnson.—James Lewis Johnson was born March 25, 1858, near Rockford, Indiana. Life's journey for him was one that many times seemed rugged and rough. At the age of two years he was motherless, and at fourteen fatherless. When grown to manhood he was married, and in a few short years he was bereft of wife and three children, having one little two-year-old daughter left to him, who grew to womanhood, and was then taken by death from a family of children. For twelve years his life was one of loneliness, which was a sore trial to one who was such a great lover of home. Following these years he was again married, and was happy in this companionship, and also in that of the son who came to bless their home. But less than two years ago this circle was broken, and his home again taken from him by the death of his companion, and the son now mourns the loss of both father and mother. Besides this son, one aged brother in Bluffton, Indiana, and four grandchildren there also, with the little one here, mourn his loss.

Most of his life was spent in his native state, though more than twenty-five years ago he came to Walla Walla, having lived there almost continuously since, working at carpentry. He was well known to a large circle of friends here, as well as in Milton where he has been living for nearly three years.

While his life has always been one of strictest integrity and uprightness, yet it was not until about ten years ago that he gave his heart to God, and became a Christian. Many can testify to the change this made in his life, and of the real joy it brought to his heart. The brittle thread of life was snapped almost instantly, but we rest in full assurance that his peace was made with his God, that his work on earth was finished, and that he rests in peace until the great resurrection morning, when that glad reunion comes to the faithful. His death came Sunday, May 10, 1925, making his age sixty-seven years, one month and sixteen days. He was laid to rest at Milton, Oregon. Elder Gosmer conducted the funeral service, assisted by Elders Stewart and Long.

"Christ paid an infinite price for us, and according to the price paid He desires us to value ourselves."

NO GLEANER NEXT WEEK

Following our usual custom of dropping out one issue of the GLEANER during the summer months, no GLEANER will be issued under date of June 11. Contributors will please bear this in mind, and send in copy for the June 18 issue so that it will reach our office by Friday morning, June 12.

ITEMS

The time for the mid-summer offering is Sabbath, July 18.

In view of the great need in the foreign fields, the General Conference has asked us to make the mid-summer offering, Sabbath, July 18, a real dollar day.

An average of $1.00 for each member will mean much to missions. If you have forty church members that would mean $40.00 from your church. If you have three hundred members, $300.00 for missions. Let us all do our best.

Morris Lukens.

CORRECTION

Our attention has been called to an error in the Colporteurs' reports printed in the last two GLEANERS. The words hours and orders in the heading were transposed. The first column should have been headed orders, and the second hours.

DEATH OF S. N. CURTISS

Spencer N. Curtiss, superintendent of the Pacific Press Publishing Association, of Mountain View, Calif., passed away Sabbath morning, May 23, at his home in Mountain View, after an illness of more than a year. Bro. Curtiss has been connected with our publishing work since the year 1881, first with the Review and Herald Pub. Association, and later with the Pacific Press. For several years he was manager of the International Branch at Brookfield, Ill. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

UNION OFFICE NOTES

Eld. C. A. Purdom passed through College Place on his return to Salt Lake City from a trip to Seattle.

Prof. and Mrs. Rathbun are visiting Mrs. Rathbun's mother and sister, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Meeker. They are leaving soon for their new field of labor,—Jamaica.

Prof. C. A. Russell of the General Conference, and Brother S. J. Lashier left the evening after Sabbath for the Southern Oregon camp meeting.

Prof. Lane and family are visiting friends in College Place, and attended the commencement services of the College. Prof. Lane was for several years an instructor at Walla Walla College, but is now teaching at Pacific Union College.

Eld. and Mrs. W. B. Ammundsen with their two children, who have just returned from the Philippine Islands on furlough, are spending a few days in College Place. At the Sabbath school last Sabbath, Eld. Ammundsen told of the great need of the native people of the Philippines, and appealed for a large thirteenth Sabbath offering, which is to be used in carrying the gospel to these people. If we cannot give ourselves to the mission fields, let us give liberally of our means to carry the gospel to the dark places of the earth.

PORTLAND BRANCH NOTES

The Missionary Volunteer Reading Course books for 1925 are now all in stock. There are some very interesting books in the courses this year as revealed by the following list:

Senior Course

Ups and Downs of Life by Mrs. Ruth Lees Olsen, $1.00

Missionary Adventures in Africa

by Eld. W. H. Branson, $1.50

How We Got Our Bible by Dr. J. P. Smyth, $1.00

Life of Abraham Lincoln by J. W. McSpadden, $1.25

While the price in single volumes totals $4.75, when ordered at one time as a "set" the price is $4.15. If you come prepared at camp meeting to take the books home with you, the price is still less—i.e. $3.95.

Junior Course

In the Lion Country, by S. M. Konigmacher, $1.25

John Williams the Shipbuilder, by Basil Mathews, $1.00

Early Writings (cloth), by Mrs. E. G. White, $1.25

Primary Course

The Congo Picture Book, by Bertha Spear Boger, $1.35

Stories Mother Told, by Mrs. Vesta J. Farnsworth, $1.35

Set price postpaid $2.30, camp meeting $2.15.

We have some good news for you: "Steps to Christ" can now be had in limp binding, pocket size, (4x5 1/2) printed on Bible paper at $1.00.

Of gifts there seems none more becoming to offer a friend than a beautiful book.—Amos B. Alcott.

When thou makest presents, let them be of such things as will last long; to the end they may be in some sort immortal, and may frequently refresh the memory of the receiver.—Thomas Fuller.

"Why not give books?"

Brother S. F. Hance who was to sail for Alaska June 2 writes: "Howard, our little boy, met with a serious accident to his eye; he ran a knife into it. The doctor thinks his eye can be saved, although his sight will be impaired. We have postponed our sailing two weeks on account of this." We shall hope and pray that little Howard may have sight again.

S. J. Abegg.
