

THAT THEY MAY HAVE LIGHT —

As we lift our eyes to the fields afar let us not forget the multiplied thousands from various foreign lands who have come to make their homes among us. In addition to these, there are many native Americans who do not speak and read the English language. Many of these people are here in the Providence of God to receive the Gospel. One of the most effective means of reaching them is to supply gospel literature in their mother tongue. Sabbath, June 8, has been set aside to give each of us an opportunity to give a contribution to make possible a greater work along this line. We know that the members of the North Pacific Union will do their part.

Congratulations to Walla Walla College "Collegian"

The General Conference Bureau of Public Relations recently announced that the Walla Walla College school paper, The Collegian, has won the Pace-Maker award issued by the Adventist Collegiate Press Associate. This is the highest rating the ACPA gives. The Certificate of Award was presented to the Collegian staff representatives in an award ceremony at the chapel hour Monday, May 20.

This award represents a tremendous achievement for a college paper in the field of journalism. It is not easily earned. Judges carefully and critically analyze all the issues of each of our college school papers. Their decision is based in a detailed score rating chart. The following congratulatory message from Elder E. W. Tarr, chief of the bureau of Public Relations of the General Conference, and his associates, was read at the award exercise:

"The Adventist Collegiate Press Association takes pleasure in once again awarding to the Walla Walla Collegian the organization's highest commendation for journalistic excellence.

"That The Collegian, with its ever-changing staff, can turn out this kind of performance year after year, is indeed noteworthy. It speaks well for the caliber of students enrolled at Walla Walla. It speaks well also for the caliber of education that is dispensed by the faculty of this institution.

"To produce a campus publication while the staff continues under the heavy pressure of college studies and campus activities is no easy feat. It demands of the staff a sense of responsibility and dedication of purpose that marks men and women as leaders.

"We of the General Conference Bureau of Public Relations shall look hopefully to the halls of Walla Walla for leadership, especially in the peculiar field in which we are particularly interested—public relations for the church that holds and heralds the message for earth's final hour."

—E. W. TARR, Chief of Bureau of Public Relations and his associates.

We in the North Pacific Union Public Relations office wish also to heartily congratulate the Walla Walla College Collegian. We are proud of Walla Walla College and its good school paper.

Summer Sessions for Institute of Scientific Studies

Two Institutes of Scientific Studies for the Prevention of Alcoholism will be conducted this summer. The Fourteenth Annual Session of the Loma Linda Institute will be held on the campus of the Loma Linda University in Loma Linda, California, July 8 to 19, and the Eighth Annual Session of the Washington Institute will be conducted on the campus of the American University in Washington, D. C., July 29 to August 9.

The Institutes are conducted on a graduate level for educators, clergymen, public health personnel, physicians, nurses, social welfare workers. The course of study will include twenty basic lectures, twenty discussion periods, four seminars, four forums, and four field trips.

The spotlight of science will be focused on alcoholism and the effects of alcohol, even in small quantities, on the physical, mental, and moral powers of the individual, as well as on the social, economic, political, and religious life of the nation. Attention will be called to educational, medical, religious, and legislative measures that have been adopted in various countries of the world to hold in check the rise and spread of alcoholism which has now become America's third major problem.

Thirty-minute discussion periods will follow each lecture, providing an opportunity for student participation and clarification of viewpoints. This procedure will allow academic freedom and mutual interaction between lecturers and students. All questions will be recorded for future reference and publication.

Application for fellowship grants or tuition scholarships should be submitted as early as possible. Prospectus and application forms may be secured from the National Committee for the Prevention of Alcoholism, 6830 Laurel St. N.W., Washington 12, D.C.

Who May Attend the Lay Congress

The North Pacific Union Lay Congress, July 24-27, will be in the interest of the church soul-winning program. We look forward to having pastors, church officers, and lay delegates in attendance. It is the purpose of the congress to give practical pointers on more effectively communicating the everlasting gospel to lead men to Christ.

We desire a good attendance at the congress! Every church should plan for representatives to attend. Each church is invited to send a minimum of two delegates; and additional delegates may be chosen for each fifty members if the church so desires.

What about non-delegates? Suppose a church member interested in soul-winning desires to come to the congress at his own expense—can he attend? Non-delegates are invited! They will be welcome!

Non-delegates will come at their own travel, meals, and lodging expense. The cost of meals and lodging for the congress at Gladstone will be $10. Non-delegates should send the application blank with a $2 deposit to the conference Home Missionary Secretary.

Notice: Suppose an individual makes application and deposit to attend congress, and he later finds he is unable to come. Write to your conference Home Missionary Secretary before July 19 requesting a deposit refund. There will be no deposit refunds after this deadline.

Seventh-day Adventists have a great responsibility at this hour. God has committed to us a world message. Are we communicating the gospel effectively? It will take self-sacrifice and service to complete the task. Come to congress and receive new inspiration!

Guest Speaker for Camp Meeting

The meetings are always a special blessing at camp meeting. This year Idaho is fortunate to have Elder N.

Elder N. R. Dower

R. Dower, president of the Washington Conference, as our guest speaker each evening. You will be thrilled and inspired by his earnest presentation of the doctrines of the church in today's setting.

Elder Dower is a forceful speaker with a message that always reaches the heart. Bring your friends and neighbors every meeting.

Elder C. L. Purdy, the Union Conference singing evangelist, will lead out in an interesting musical program each evening.

Plan to be present! Bring a friend.

Academy Graduations, 1963

The week end, May 24-26, was graduation time in the four academies of the Oregon Conference. The total number of graduates came to 247, and were distributed as follows among the academies:

Columbia	46
Laurelwood	92
Milo	65
Portland Union	44

247

We are proud of the very fine men and women that came forth as the product of our academies. The spirit of consecration and zeal for the Lord Jesus manifested by these graduates is rich reward for the work and sacrifice it has cost to maintain a strong program of secondary education in the Oregon Conference.

Congratulations, Graduates!

Baptism in Cedar Creek District

A letter dated May 15 from Elder Logan E. Houser, pastor of the Cedar Creek district, contained the following encouraging paragraph:

"Sabbath afternoon, May 4, was a joyous occasion for the believers in the Cedar Creek district as they gathered for a baptismal service in the Cedar Creek church. Six precious souls were baptized and united with the various churches; three with the Sara church, one with the Amboy church, and two with the Cedar Creek church. The three who united with the Sara church are the first fruits of the recent effort held there. Another lady who attended several of the meetings decided on baptism as she witnessed the service on that Sabbath, and still others are continuing with Bible studies. Several of the laymen are giving studies regularly and we look forward to another baptism in the near future. We thank our heavenly Father for the blessings of the Holy Spirit received in the lives of those who united with the commandment-keeping people."

MV Family Campout

A family campout during the 4th of July holidays will be sponsored by the Oregon Conference MV Department. Site for the campout will be Big Lake Youth Camp. Dates: July 3-7.

In addition to recreational activities, opportunity will be given for those attending to spend some time working on cabins being constructed.

The Youth Camp area will be available to campers, as well as the public camp area on the west side of Big Lake. Those attending must provide their own camping facilities and meals.

It is also planned at that time to organize formally an Oregon MV Out-door Club.

Big Lake is located at the summit of the Santiam Pass, 3 miles south of Highway 20.

Sound Advice for S.D.A. Teen-Agers

It goes like this:

Always we hear the plaintive cry of the teenagers: "What can we do? Where can we go?"

The answer is, "Go Home."

"Hang the storm windows, paint the woodwork, rake the leaves, mow the lawn, shovel the walk, wash the car, learn to cook, scrub some floors, repair the sink, build a boat, get a job.

"Help the minister, the Red Cross, the Dorcas Society, visit the sick, the poor, study your lessons, and then, when you are through—and not too tired—read a book.

"Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your town does not owe you recreation facilities. The world does not owe you a living. You owe the world something. You owe it your time and energy and your talents, so that no one will be at war or in poverty, or sick, or lonely again.

"In plain, simple words. Grow up! Quit being a crybaby. Get out of your dream world. Start acting like a man or a lady."

Elder Tarr Is Coming

To minister to us at our coming camp meeting is Elder A. F. Tarr, an associate secretary of the General Conference. Elder Tarr was born and educated in South Africa, also labored in that field in various capacities, the last being that of president of the South African Union Conference. Following this he served as secretary of the Southern Asia Division with headquarters in Poona, India.

In 1950 Elder Tarr accepted appointment as president of the Northern European Division for the church, with headquarters near London, England. He held this position until August of 1962, when he was named a secretary of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists at General World Session of the church in San Francisco, California. Elder Tarr speaks Afrikaans besides his mother tongue, English.

His experience and successful ministry will bring inspiration and blessings to our coming camp meeting.

Pathfinder Fair

Sunday, May 19, was a glorious day for our annual Pathfinder Fair at Ritzville, Washington. Twenty clubs came from all over the Upper Columbia Conference to make this a big day in pathfinding.

When these clubs were lined up three clubs deep across the front of our guests in the grandstand, in all their colorful uniforms, guidons, club flags and U.S. flags, they presented a thrilling picture of youth on the go. Surely these clubs are on the march, preparing to take their full part in earth's final hour.

After the opening fanfare played by Elder Reo Clyde, assistant director of the day's events, and the national anthem and flag salute, Elder John H. Hancock, North Pacific Union MV secretary, gave the clubs and officers the challenge of the true spirit of pathfinding, the great vistas of unexplored territory ahead for each club member and the fine art of displaying our skills and crafts at these annual fairs.

The Fair Judges, Ed Maxted, chairman, Mrs. Robert Scheib, Mrs. Glen Axford, Ray Meyers and Rolland Canaday, did a beautiful job to keep the figures for each event straight. When the totals were tallied for all fair activities for the day we had the following clubs as winners in each category: Sweepstake Clubs: Grandview, Moses Lake, and Stateline. Trophy Club: Pendleton, and Honor Club: Hermiston. This is the first time we have had three clubs tied for first place. The competing against a standard instead of against each other made possible many clubs receiving first place ribbons in each event. We honor all clubs for their great spirit of fair play in every Pathfinder event.

The booths were outstanding. They depicted various ideas on the general theme, "Camping is Fun." Most clubs received blue ribbons in booth display.

The surprise feature of our Fair was furnished by Robert Fisher of Moses Lake. He is a nationally recognized sailplane artist, having taught sailplane flying during World War II and last year flew his sailplane in the first transcontinental flight from the west

Among his demonstration were looping the loop, doing five spirals and finally landing his sailplane on a Ritzville golf course in full view of the Fair grandstand. Our clubs are indebted to Mr. Fisher and his crew for this fine finale to our 1963 Pathfinder Fair.

Our Ritzville church were great hosts. They provided a lovely lunch to all who desired good food, and Elder F. W. Ruddle did everything he could to make everyone happy at this big day dedicated to our junior youth.

MONTANA

A Feast of Good Things For Montana

The time for our annual camp meeting is almost here. The dates are June 27 to July 6, and the place is the campus of Mt. Ellis Academy in Bozeman, Montana. As this is election year the program is a bit different. The first constituency meeting will be held at 2 p.m. on Thursday, June 27, in the Academy chapel. At that time delegates will be seated, committees will be elected and the business of the Conference will be conducted, such as the election of officers for the next two years, and reports of progress will be given of the work for the past biennium.

On Thursday night at 7:30 p.m., the Voice of Prophecy "B" Team, will be with us for the one service. You will want to hear them in person: Elder H. M. S. Richards, Jr., Miss Del Delker and Mr. and Mrs. Brad Braley. This will be the one and only service they will have with us, so do not miss this treat.

There are many good things in store for the balance of the camp meeting. Elder W. R. Beach, Secretary of the General Conference, will be with us for the first half of the meetings. He will come in on Thursday and be with us through Monday. At the same time, Elder R. R. Hegstad, editor of Liberty magazine, will have several fine services. During the middle of the camp meeting, Elder W. A. Higgins of the Publishing Department of the General Conference will bring us many spiritual blessing. Elder A. F. Tarr, associate Secretary of the General Conference, will be with us for almost the entire time, and he will have many good things to bring to us. Elder W. E. Murray, General Vice-President of the General Conference, will be bringing us a feast of good things during the last week end, as will Elder C. L. Purdy.

We have been promised the services all of the Union brethren at some time during the camp meeting. About half of their number will be with us for the first portion of the meeting and the last half. We are always pleased to tell you that Elder and Mrs. V. T. Armstrong will be at our camp meeting. They plan to be here for the entire time. The Walla Walla College will have representatives, including Dr. P. W. Christian, and a special educational program will be held on the first week end.

Then, of course, you will not want to miss the special book sale which will be conducted on Sunday. Many fine bargains will be offered which you will wish to obtain.

So why not plan to enjoy a feast of good things including soul-stirring sermons, the best of music, lovely fellowship with God and His people. Why not plan to take your vacation at camp meeting time and take in the full feast of good things.

God through His servant has given some timely counsel regarding camp meetings, such as: "It is important that the members of our churches should attend camp meetings. . . . Individually you need the benefits of the meetings."—Testimonies, Vol. 6, p. 38. "Strengthen the meeting all you possibly can by being present with your families. Put forth extra exertion to attend the gathering of God's people." "Anciently the Lord instructed His people to assemble three times a year for His worship. . . . They met to recount God's mercies, to make known His wonderful works, and to offer praise and thanksgiving to His name."—Ibid., Vol. 6, p. 39. "Let all who possibly can, attend these yearly gatherings. All should feel that God requires this of them. . . . Come with your offerings as God has blessed you. Show your gratitude to your Creator, the giver of all your benefits. . . . Let none who are able come empty-handed."—Ibid., Vol. 2, pp. 575-576.

God's servant has even something to say about our books. "Because books were being sold at low prices, some being especially reduced for the occasion, many were purchased, and some by persons not of our faith."—Ibid., Vol. 9, p. 72.

So may we see many of you for this great meeting. It is almost time for that first meeting. God bless you as you plan, and may we all be seeking His face for rich blessings.

Behind Prison Bars

"I was in prison and ye came unto me." Matt. 25:26.

On Sabbath, May 4, four men confined by prison walls and fences, but unshackled from the chains of sin, were buried in baptism and arose to a life of fellowship with Christ.

At Montana State Prison, through the cooperation of the Protestant Chaplain, Joe Smith, we have been privileged to carry on a program of personal work and monthly Sabbath services for some time past. God has blessed with a good interest in our message and some baptisms in the past.

Brother George Beech, a layman from the Butte church, has faithfully labored for many years, conducting the Sabbath services on the first of each month for those who desired to attend. His efforts, along with the help of the district leaders have borne fruit.

At the beginning of this year, we were given the opportunity to conduct weekly Bible classes for twelve weeks for all who cared to attend. The response was good, and the attendance held up well for the entire quarter. At the end of the twelve weeks we were offered the privilege of continuing another quarter which, of course, we accepted. This series is in progress now. Those baptized are members of this class, and also have studied through the Voice of Prophecy correspondence courses. Two prisoners, baptized in the prison formerly, have encouraged and assisted these men in their studies also.

Some real victories have been won in the lives of these brethren; and their battles will continue, as they will, in the future, be going to homes or circumstances where their convictions may not be understood or appreciated. While in prison they are granted freedom from labor on the Sabbath—a privilege given to those who have been baptized as Seventh-day Adventists. We are very grateful for this and realize that the outside will often be less accommodating.

Our new believers are determined to be faithful and are taking up their work of witnessing where they are. Won't you pray for them and for us who minister to them. What joy it will be to hear, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Matt. 25:40.

On Sabbath, May 11, the Butte district met in a meeting at Butte. Although we had a real snowstorm, we gave our Conference president and his wife, Elder and Mrs. A. J. Gordon, a warm welcome. We were blessed by Elder Gordon's ministry in a morning service and, after a pot-luck dinner and fellowship, another service. At our afternoon service, the writer conducted a baptism, at which time four precious souls united with the Church—three with the Helena church and one with the Conference church. We thank God for these and many more who are entering the ark before the flood of evil engulfs the world. May they and all of God's people unite in warning and rescuing those as yet unsaved.

WASHINGTON

COMING—

"They Shall Shine as the Stars!"

The spectacular rendition of "They Shall Shine as the Stars!" featuring Washington Conference elementary, intermediate, and secondary elements of Christian education, including Auburn Academy, will be presented on the second and final Sabbath afternoon of camp meeting at Auburn Academy, June 15, from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Over 1,000 participants, including all of our graduates in colorful caps and gowns, will bring you the most thrilling, heart-warming, and unique adventures in basic Christian living, Christian fellowship, and Christian inspiration! Be there to witness also the official presentation of diplomas and certificates of graduation to all graduates of our Christian education schools of the Washington Conference.

Do not fail to make plans NOW to take in this outstanding program at camp meeting. Be sure to be there early in order to get good seats for yourself and your family. You will be glad you came!

Auburn Academy Commencement

Auburn Academy graduated another "largest" class of 121 members in commencement exercises Sunday, May 26. The class is the largest to be graduated from a Seventh-day Adventist secondary school.

Elder N. R. Dower, president of the Washington Conference, was the commencement speaker.

Other services of the graduation week end included consecration Friday evening, May 24, at eight o'clock and baccalaureate at 3 p.m. Saturday, May 25. Pastor Edward Norton spoke at consecration and Elder Paul C. Heubach, pastor of the Walla Walla College Church, presented the baccalaureate service.

The Class of 1963 chose for their motto, "Christ First," and for their aim, "To Make Him Known." Fuschsia pink and silver were class colors with pink rose buds as the class flower.

Linda Altman and Lorraine Mittleider were co-valedictorians of the forty-fourth annual graduating class. Both maintained a 4.0 grade point average. Linda is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Milton E. Altman of Bellingham. Lorraine's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Mittleider, Bellingham. Lorraine recently received a $150 scholarship awarded by Walla Walla College.

The class gift to the Academy is a 40-foot galvanized flag pole with flags of Washington and the United States. Located in the center of the future campus, the pole is surrounded by decorative shrubbery.

As Auburn Academy graduates another group of service-minded Christian youth it looks to the future and invites other young people of academy age to fill the gap left by this year's class.

at Milo Academy in Oregon and MEA, Montana.

He is a member of the National Association for Secondary School Principals, of Phi Delta Kappa, and of the American Society of Comparative Education.

On the WWC staff Professor Leonie will be teaching both in the education and biology departments.

Norman Cavasos, supervisor in science at Walla Walla College Academy from 1959-1961, will return to the academy teaching staff this fall. A graduate of Walla Walla College with both B.S. and B.A. degrees, Mr. Cavasos has been teaching high school science on the coast for the past two years.

Wesley Jordan, 1963 graduate with a major in general studies, and Virginia Loop, Walla Walla College alumna of 1962, will replace Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Smith who have accepted positions at San Diego. Miss Loop is currently teaching grades 3-5 in the Boise church school.

Have You Ordered Your Set?

No Seventh-day Adventist home can afford to be without the three volumes of the Spirit of Prophecy Index. These books are invaluable to worker and laity alike. They will be of great assistance in general study. The Sabbath School teacher will be a better teacher through their use. All will become better acquainted with the great truths of God's word by using these helpful volumes. Materials that have been difficult to find in the old, one-volume index of the Spirit of Prophecy, will be found readily through the three-volume set.

The Montana Book and Bible House joins its sister conferences in making these available to our people at a greatly reduced price. The list price of each single volume is $12.50, but for a limited time there will be a cash introductory price of $10.50 for each volume or $31.50 for the set, postpaid. For those who want a time payment plan, there is still a saving over the list price. There are three plans to choose from:

Plan A: By sending $3.20 to the Book and Bible House, Volume one will be mailed to you immediately. Then you may send in $5 each month for the next six months. After the third $5 payment, volume two will be sent, and upon receipt of the fifth payment, the last volume will be mailed. The sixth and final payment must be sent within 30 days after you have received the third volume.

Plan B: By sending $1.95 to the Book and Bible House, Volume one will be mailed; then remit $10 per month for three months. When your first $10 payment is received, Volume two will be mailed, and Volume three after the second $10 payment reaches us. The third and final $10 must be sent within 30 days after you have received volume three.

Plan C: This is a lay-away plan. In order to reserve a set at this special price you may send in to the Book and Bible House any amount as you can. When the full $31.50 has been remitted, your set will be sent to you.

Just fill in the handy order blank found in the GLENER or make out your own order stating whether you are paying cash, or desire to buy on plans A, B, or C.

Walla Walla College

Master's Degrees Conferred On WWC Campus

Eight candidates for master's degrees, all experienced professional people, two in teaching, one in business, three in nursing and administration, and two in biological research, received their degrees from Dr. P. W. Christian, president of Walla Walla College, in Sunday morning's ten o'clock commencement exercises.

Six receiving the degree in education were: Clifford Sorensen, Peter Strutz, Mrs. Alice Maye Young, N. K. Baroi, Miss Beulah Fenton, and Mrs. James Roberts.

Mr. Sorensen, vice principal at WWC Academy and supervisor in science and mathematics there since 1961, will be taking a new position as principal of Pacific Union College's preparatory school July 1. He will study on a National Science Foundation grant at Colorado State College this summer.

Mr. Strutz, whose B.S. degree is in business administration, plans to take study in psychology at the University of Alberta, at Edmonton, this fall. Mrs. Strutz, who received the M.A. degree in education in 1961, has been WWC's director of health service for the past three years.

Mrs. Young plans to return to Florida where she will continue her professional career in nursing.

Mr. Baroi, an overseas student from Pakistan, is returning to his own country where he will teach mathematics in the upper high school grades, and teacher training subjects on the junior college level, at Kellogg-Mookerjee High School, Jarlirpar, West Pakistan.

Miss Fenton, a graduate of the WWC School of Nursing who has nursed in local hospitals, will continue in the Inservice Education Department of the Portland Sanitarium and Hospital where she has already begun her work.

Mrs. Roberts, a graduate of PUC, with nurse's training taken at the New England Sanitarium and Hospital, Stoneham, Massachusetts, received the M.A. degree from Dr. P. W. Christian, who as president of PUC presented her bachelor's degree to her in 1949. She will nurse in the local area during the coming year while her husband completes work for his M.A. degree at WWC.

Colin Campbell and Henry Gerber received M.A. degrees in biology. Both plan graduate study: Mr. Campbell at Loma Linda University on a research fellowship program and Mr. Gerber at the University of Oregon.

Assisting in the presentation of degrees were Vice-president R. H. Brown and Registrar Mrs. Irene Black. Departmental chairmen assisting in hooding were Dr. Robert Silver, education, and Dr. Harold Coffin, biology.

Orvin Wagner to Receive Master's Degree

Orvin Wagner, instructor in physics at Walla Walla College, will receive the M.S. degree in physics from Arizona State University, Tempe, in absentia at this June's graduation.

After taking the B.S. degree from Walla Walla College in 1959, Mr. Wagner studied at ASU on a teaching and research assistantship the next year. In 1960-'61 he was manager of basic research at Controls Company of America, Tempe. The year before he joined the local college staff he did Solid State Physics research at Lockheed Corporation, Palo Alto, California.

A member of the American Physical Society, Mr. Wagner had an article "Field Emission of Rutile Diodes" published in the February issue of the Journal of Applied Physics. Co-author was W. W. Happ of ASU. The WWC faculty member also has a patent pending concerning the same problem entitled, "A semi-conductor device."

Master Guides Are Invested

Climax of the year's Missionary Volunteer program in Master Guide work came Friday evening, May 25, when two Walla Walla College youth were invested as Master Guides, highest rank of the training program.

Marilee McCoy, junior nursing major from Hollister, California, and C. Douglas McDonald, freshman theology major residing in College Place, accepted the challenge as Master Guides from Elder A. J. Reisig, MV Secretary of the Upper Columbia Conference.

Under the leadership of Dean McDaniel, senior theology student, the MV Society has not only conducted a training program for Master Guides, but also an active In-Service program for those who have already attained this rank.

New Faculty Members

Two new faculty members for Walla Walla College, one for Walla Walla College Academy and two for Rogers Elementary School, were announced by President P. W. Christian this week.

Robert L. Noel will join the faculty of the department of engineering as associate professor coming from Emmanuel Missionary College where he has been on the staff since 1954. The engineer holds both the B.S. and the M.S. degree from the University of Wisconsin and has had advanced study in the University of Michigan and Michigan State University. He was also a special lecturer in the Michigan State University extension division. He is a registered engineer in Illinois and in Michigan.

Professor Noel's experience in industry has been with Honeywell, Ray-O-Vac, and Electro-Voice. The new staff member is a member of the American Society of Metals, Society for Engineering Education, and Society for Non-destructive Testing.

Andrew Leonie, Jr., principal of Mt. Ellis Academy, Bozeman, Montana, for the past three years, joins the WWC faculty next fall as assistant professor of education after completing work for the Ph.D. degree in comparative education at Montana State College, Bozeman.

Born in South Africa, Professor Leonie is an American citizen and has taken all his college degrees in the United States. He holds a B.A. degree from Columbia Union College with majors in biology and chemistry, an M.S. degree from the University of Oregon in physiology, and did additional graduate work at the University of Pretoria, South Africa, before beginning doctoral study at MSC.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Leonie taught in South Africa. The new faculty member's administrative experience has been as secondary school administrator
