Harvest Ingathering

The bugles are sounding, calling Christian men and women into action for the annual Ingathering campaign in behalf of the world-wide mission fields. Many respond gladly as the call appeals to them. Their hearts are filled with courage and enthusiasm as they join the ranks of faithful Christian soldiers in active solicitation work to secure their individual goals.

The official date for the opening of the campaign this year is somewhat earlier than the date heretofore appointed. This change is due to the general desire in the field to have the annual Ingathering campaign date advanced. The delegates assembled at the Autumn Council in 1937 recommended that the date of the 1938 Harvest Ingathering Campaign be August 13 to October 5. Realizing the need of the guidance of the Holy Spirit in this great work, it was recommended, "That a Harvest Ingathering Consecration Week be observed in all our churches in North America immediately preceding the beginning of the campaign, and wherever possible the church meet together for at least two evenings during the week, preferably Wednesday and Friday evenings, to seek God for the preparation necessary to do the work successfully, and to pray for the Spirit of God to impress men of wealth and the public generally, to give liberally in response to the Harvest Ingathering appeal."

While it may be impossible for the churches throughout the Northern Union to live up to the letter of this recommendation because the time for the Consecration Week is already past as far as the recommendation is concerned, yet we invite all our people to make the Ingathering work a point of prayer. They can follow the recommendation, seeking God most earnestly that the spirit of Jehovah may impress men to give liberally for missions. I appeal to you, dear believers throughout the Northern Union, to give prayerful consideration to the great need of the mission fields during the time of the Ingathering. Do your very best for God and He will bless your efforts abundantly.

E. H. Oswald.

Ordination of Ministers

The word of God declares that a true minister of the gospel is an ambassador of the Lord Jesus Christ. Men do not enter the ministry as a vocation. They are called by the influence of the Holy Spirit. The word of the Lord declares, "And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron." The Spirit of prophecy gives the following admonition regarding the selection of workers to the gospel ministry:

"Men should not be encouraged to go into the field as ministers without unmistakable evidence that God has called them. The Lord will not entrust the burden for His flock to unqualified individuals. Those whom God calls must be men of deep experience, tried and proved, men of sound judgment, men who will dare to reprove sin in the spirit of meekness, men who understand how to feed the flock. God knows the heart, and He knows whom to select."

In harmony with these authoritative statements, the Minnesota Conference was privileged to ordain four faithful candidates to the gospel ministry. A special service was arranged for Sabbath afternoon, June 25, for the ordination of J. C. Harder, A. L. Bietz, C. H. Lauda, and S. A. Douglas. A large audience witnessed the occasion. The hearts of the people were solemnized by the presence of the Holy Spirit. As these men go forth in their ministry, our prayers are that the Lord may richly bless their endeavors in souls for their hire. We also solicit the prayers of God's people in behalf of these men who have devoted their lives and their all to the advancement of God's work in the earth.

E. H. Oswald.

We Are Going Out Again

August 13 is the day when the 1938 Ingathering Campaign will open officially. Many of our people, however, have already been out and earned their Minute-Man button and are going right ahead. The forces are getting so restless in many places that we had to start in advance of the official opening day.

Every conference has sent out bulletins and instruction letters giving the marching orders for this year. Churches as well as districts know what their goals are and what is expected of them. District leaders are telling us that they have new plans for a large and faster work. It sounds good. Conference presidents are calling in their workers for a rally meeting. A spirit of earnestness and loyalty to missions possesses every soul. There is a feeling of expectancy in every heart. It is the Spirit of God moving us out to the finishing of the work.

We met with a group of Ingathering organizers in the Minneapolis First English church the other evening. Brother Dennis, the elder, in the absence of the pastor, had done a fine piece of work in placing his members of over 600, in individual bands and assigning territory to each group. It must have taken him days to do it. Such a service is greatly appreciated. We visited Elder Wiest, the St. Paul pastor. He was a sick man. The burden of his heart was the Ingathering campaign. He begged us not to start too early, for he wants to do his part in the work.

Surely we have found a good thing when we found this great people, and a great prize when we found this message. Both will triumph some day, and we with it if we remain loyal and finish our task. Let us talk courage again as we move out into action this year.

"O brother, be faithful! eternity's years

Shall tell for thy faithfulness now,
When bright smiles of gladness shall scatter thy tears,
And a coronet gleam on thy brow.

O brother, be faithful! the promise is sure,
That waits for the faithful and tried;
To reign with the ransomed,
immortal and pure,
And ever with Jesus abide."

The 1938 Gift Number of the Harvest Ingathering

The material which makes up the 1938 Yiddish and Yiddish-English Harvest Ingathering for the Jewish people will be attractive to these friends. They will be pleased to learn what is being accomplished by Seventh-day Adventists. The photographs of Rabbi Hyamson, Dean of Orthodox rabbis in the United States, and of Elder C. S. Longacre, Secretary of the International Religious Liberty Association, feature the two center pages of the paper. The efforts of these men who have done noble work in defending God's ancient weekly cycle, will be of deep interest to the children of Abraham.

We sincerely hope that this year not a Jewish person in your community will be missed during the Ingathering campaign. These friends of ours need the message this year's magazine contains, and the funds which they contribute will be of value to the onward progress of the work of God.

Please do not contact the Jews this year on September 26. This is the Jewish New Year. October 5 is the Day of Atonement. On these days the Jewish people handle no funds.

Be sure to tell them of our world work, and how we freely and gladly contribute our efforts to all classes and peoples. We hope our workers and people will express sympathy in behalf of the oppressed and down-trodden people of other lands.

Any further information will be gladly given by addressing the Jewish Department, Takoma Park, D. C., or Elder Samuel Kaplan, 628 West 139th Street, New York City, N. Y.

We hope the Lord will greatly bless the efforts of our people during the 1938 campaign.

Very sincerely yours,
For the Jewish Department,
F. C. Gilbert, Secretary

Self Help Labor for Students at Union College

Many times the question is asked, "Does Union College provide labor to help students defray expenses?"

The answer is decidedly, "Yes." During the past school year $61,118.19 was the total labor credit earned by students. Out of every $100.00 student income, $47.66 was obtained through labor.

Labor was provided for students in the following departments: Commercial, cafeteria, bookbinding, print shop, farm and dairy, laundry, dormitories, janitor, campus, craftshop, broomshop, and library. In our plans for next year we expect to provide even more labor than during the past year.

We have the following financial plans to offer.

For Women

1. $325 cash, $4.05 labor credit per month, full class work.
2. $300 cash, $6.85 labor credit per month, full class work.
3. $275 cash, $9.60 labor credit per month, full class work.
4. $225 cash, $15.20 labor credit per month, 13-15 hours class work.
5. $175 cash, $18.70 labor credit per month, 11-13 hours class work.
6. $150 cash, $20.25 labor credit per month, 10-12 hours class work.

For Men

1. $350 cash, $6.30 labor credit per month, full class work.
2. $325 cash, $9.05 labor credit per month, full class work.
3. $300 cash, $11.85 labor credit per month, full class work.
4. $250 cash, $17.40 labor credit per month, 13-15 hours class work.
5. $200 cash, $20.95 labor credit per month, 11-12 hours class work.
6. $150 cash, $24.00 labor credit per month, 9-11 hours class work.

Each of the financial plans includes tuition for the specified class load, room rent and flat laundry, board (12.50 a month average for girls; $16.00 a month average for boys), personal laundry for boys ($1.50 a month average), and matriculation and medical service fees.

It is necessary to plan on $15.00 to $20.00 extra for books, and in the case of pre-medical and pre-nursing students it is well to plan on about $20 extra for laboratory fees.

If the full amount of the cash requirements is paid at the beginning of the school year, a five per cent bonus allowance will be given, otherwise the cash requirement may be arranged for, paying $35.00 (plus $15.00 for books) at the beginning of the school year, and the balance may be arranged in monthly payments. We will be glad to guarantee labor in harmony with any plan under which the student enters.

In case there are some young people who find it impossible to arrange $150 for the minimum cash requirement, we will be glad to have you enter for one semester which would require only $75.00 cash.

We are very eager to help our patrons and college young people with any financial problems they may have in arranging for schooling. Write us and we will be glad to help you.

H. C. Hartman,
Business Manager.

A Colporteur Letter

Realizing as I do that there are fathers and mothers, young men and young women in Israel who are not only eagerly observing the sales reports coming in from the colporteurs, but who are constantly praying for their success in the work to which God has so graciously called them, I thought you would be interested in a few extracts from a letter recently received from one who has just been in the work since camp meeting.

"I could not put into words the struggle I had to leave headquarters Sunday night. Although the Lord had blessed me with $69.50 worth of orders for the week previous, it seemed I just could not go out again. I could in my imagination hear the farmers telling me that the crops had been hailed out and I felt I had to work all week for nothing. If I ever was tempted to quit, it was then; but as far as letting that thought remain in my mind for any length of time—well, I just could not harbor it there, so I started out with a grim determination and on Monday evening before I retired I had $32.00 worth of orders. You may well imagine how happy I was, for not only had I been blessed with orders but also with experiences worth more than money to me. At the close of a forty-hour week I turned my steps toward headquarters. It was about thirty-five miles away, and I could not get either a bus or a train, so at six in the evening I started to walk down the highway, happy as a lark. My feet were heavy but my heart was light. A satisfaction such as comes from having completed a week in the canvassing field cannot be obtained or felt in any other work.

“The public too, certainly takes notice, for this past week many business men have told me that they take off their hats to us young people engaged in this work. That alone made my heart overflow with joy, for if these business men take such notice, how much more must our Captain be pleased, knowing as He does our innermost thoughts and burdens for lost souls. Last year at this time I was earning a definite salary of $28. a week, but when I think of it my heart pains me that I turned my back to the canvassing work and followed the beckoning of earthly joys. Now each day I spend in the canvassing work I am more thankful that I had the opportunity of entering into this soul-saving work. I would not exchange the experiences I have gained in the canvassing field for all the wealth of the world.”

Experiences such as these come in from dozens upon dozens of our colporteurs. Should you feel that God is calling you to enter this branch of His service, I trust that you will contact your field secretary at your earliest convenience.

The Indian Work

Those who attended the Huron camp meeting will remember the programs given in the interest of the Indian work, and the parts rendered by the Indians themselves, some of whom were dressed in native costume. Our hearts were stirred by “The Indian’s Plea,” a poem touchingly rendered by a young Indian woman. As soon as this young woman returned to her home following her baptism at Huron, she began doing missionary work by writing to another Indian woman who had attended the meeting, telling her of her baptism and urging her to take the same step.

After the close of the camp meeting, we were privileged to go to Pine Ridge to hold a three weeks effort. It was there that we were shown the message written to this woman. Our hearts rejoiced last Sabbath to see her, with five other Indians, buried with their Lord in baptism. It is in this same locality where Brother John Two Bulls lives, who presented such an urgent appeal at camp meeting for someone to cultivate the seed which Brother Marley had so faithfully sown in their neighborhood.

Our meetings were held beneath a shade made of boughs, which they erected for that purpose. Each forenoon a two-hour Bible school was conducted for the children. One child, a boy of eleven years, joyfully went forward in baptism. We wish you could have heard his mother tell now his life had been spared a number of years before in answer to her prayers, as all alone with her two boys out on the hills all day long, she prayed for him until he opened his eyes and said, “I am all right now.” She says it was then that she dedicated him to the Lord, and had long looked forward to the time when he would give his heart to God. Now she was happy that the time had come.

The most urgent need of these people right now is a church building in which to worship. This is three hundred miles from where we are to establish our first church on the Cheyenne Reservation. We plan to effect a church organization there very soon. A number of other families are planning to unite with us there before long.

How we do long for the time to come when we may have a mission school where the little boy above mentioned, and others of our Indian children who are just as sincere, may have a Christian education.

Calvin D. Smith.

Notice

We are very desirous of finding a good Adventist home where the little Indian boy who sang in the large auditorium at our Huron camp meeting can stay and attend church school, furnishing his board and tuition. He and his mother are newly baptized believers, and are very earnest in their experience. The mother would like to get work where she can keep her two children with her and send them both to church school. She is a good worker, having done considerable house work in the homes of the government workers, and is also a good seamstress. Those interested, kindly write us. We know of no better missionary work than this to help the Indian work.

Our friends have been so kind in sending us literature for our work that we have all of the old Reviews which we can use for some time. We do, however need more used clothing with which to help the Indian people who are in need of it. Please send what you can spare, transportation prepaid, to the writer and it will be greatly appreciated.

Honor Roll

for Churches and Companies

The Lord’s work demands haste

This is the space where we will list the churches that have raised their church Ingathering goal this year. I am wondering this morning which church or company will be the first listed in this space. We have a few reports from churches that have succeeded very well in raising a large portion of their goal. Please report to our office when your church goal is reached. We hope that before the Ingathering campaign is over all of our churches can be listed in this column.

May the Lord give you courage as you go out to witness for Him. Let us pray and work and hasten the message to the uttermost bounds of the earth. Let us all do our part.

W. H. Hanhardt.

God’s Care for His Word

“One lady, who was unusually interested, noting an item on pork on the HEALTH news page, said, ‘Well, I don’t believe in eating pork. I haven’t for the last twenty years.’ When I told her that I did not either she immediately replied, ‘You are an Adventist, aren’t you?’ After telling her that I was, she explained how a young man came to her home twenty years ago and sold her a copy of Bible Readings. She studied the book and tried to look up the verses in the Bible, but was unable to find them. About three years later another colporteur came selling Bible Readings. She had him show her how to look up texts in the Bible and find the ten commandments. Three years ago she asked someone to take her to our church and she became thoroughly acquainted with our people through an effort which was held in her city."—Taken from one of Miss Marie Klein's weekly colporteur reports.

Would you like to have a part in such a work? Would you like to have the wonderful experience enjoyed by the faithful literature minister? "Influenced with the Spirit of God, He will gain a deep, rich experience, and heavenly angels will give him success in the work."—Testimonies, Vol. VI, p. 320. I shall be pleased to receive inquiries.

Robert Brown.

Elder S. A. Reile and company of Eureka, report large crowds ranging from four to five hundred on Sunday night. The week-night attendance is not as large. We wish them the Lord's rich blessings as they present the truth for this time.

Elder and Mrs. Smith recently had a baptism of six Indian brethren on the Pine Ridge Reservation. Three more families are interested and will soon follow the example of those that have gone forward in baptism. Then we will be able to organize the first Indian church in South Dakota. This is a happy day to which we are looking forward, and may God bless Elder and Mrs. Smith in their efforts for these long neglected people.

The Sioux Falls church had a picnic Sunday, July 31, which was also a reception for Elder and Mrs. A. V. Rhoads. The Sioux Falls church is making good progress. The attendance on Sabbath days and Wednesday night meetings is very good. New interests are springing up in that section of the field.

The Huron church sent a goodly check for the first Harvest Ingathering in the conference. We are told that they have raised $250.00 toward their goal. That is indeed excellent.

Sister Hibbison surprised the office force the other day with a check of $27.00 Ingathering funds from her field. Oh, how wonderful to see our people launch out without any special coaching to gather in the funds for the great and white harvest field.

Elders Reiner, Staton, and Bresee, also Sister Stewart, started the work in Rapid City a week ago. We will look for the Rapid City church to soon reach its Ingathering goal.

The crops are now being harvested. In some sections of the state they are good and our people are returning to the Lord His own in tithes. Their offerings, no doubt, too, will be more liberal as the brethren realize upon their year's labor.

Elder J. H. Rhoads is recovering from a severe attack of the flu and we hope he will soon be able to join Brother Gackenheimer in the effort at Elk Point.

It was a pleasant surprise to see Elder Hanhardt's face in the office again and he is hard at work organizing for the Harvest Ingathering. We welcome Elder Hanhardt back to the conference after his few weeks of absence.

Brother Ortner is spending a few weeks at the Boulder Sanitarium. We wish him speedy recovery and the family an enjoyable summer.

A Wise Investment

We live today in a time of uncertainty. Apparently sound institutions are crumbling under the stress of world-wide changes. Men are searching diligently and even feverishly for sound investments and are finding few, while money by the millions figuratively is collecting rust.

We as Christian S. D. A. young men need not look far for the best investment we can make here on earth, not only of our means, but of our time and lives. Not only is a Christian education an investment for eternity if rightly used and guarded, but if we lend ourselves whole-heartedly to God's guiding hand as manifested in schools of His planting throughout the world, we then prepare for service in a calling such as the world cannot offer. And our reward will not be measured in paltry dollars and cents, but in starry crowns.

As with all good investments, the right time to invest is now. Plan and pray so that you will be able to attend Sheyenne River Academy for the year 1938-39.

J. V. Peters, Preceptor.

I Learned How to Pray

"The first day I was out I don't believe I ever was so discouraged. I worked only five hours then came back to my headquarters. I had just about made up my mind to quit. The next morning before I came to the first house I prayed and asked God to send angels before me to prepare the hearts of the people. As I walked up to the house I know the Lord was with me. I received an order for Dawn of a New Day, a dollar deposit, and a good lunch. That day I received six orders. I did not know how to pray before I started canvassing, but I surely have learned to pray now. It is only the power of God that has kept me. I haven't been discouraged since. With the help of God and your prayers, I want to be a faithful worker in His vineyard. I am thankful that the Lord has called me and I want to be as true as Daniel."

A Laborer Departs

At the time of the Russian camp meeting at Butte a mutual agreement was entered into by Brother V. Tkachuk and the North Dakota Conference, and a settlement was made with Brother Tkachuk which was considered satisfactory by him as well as the representatives of the conference and the other leading brethren who participated. Brother Tkachuk of his own free will had decided to discontinue his services in conference employ and stated his conviction to the brethren. He felt that it might also give him an opportunity to finish his college education which he had not quite completed.

The agreement was based entirely on Brother Tkachuk's decision in the matter and the final agreement was not reached without prayer on the part of all concerned. We believe the Lord led by His Spirit. Elder Louis Halswick, secretary of the Bureau of Home Missions, was present and aided with his counsel.

Brother Tkachuk has labored in North Dakota for a few years and is well known to our believers and the laborers in the conference. We are sure that all will remember Brother Tkachuk in their prayers that God may direct him in his future plans. Brother Tkachuk has endeavored to do his best along evangelistic lines, in his pastoral duties, as well as in the Ingathering campaigns and all other church activities. He planned to leave about July 15 to join his wife and son who had previously left for the East where Mrs. Tkachuk's parents live. We wish Brother Tkachuk's and his family God's rich blessing as they leave us to enter upon other lines of service.

Word has just come from a sister at Bottineau in regard to the effort being conducted by Elder Wall and Brother G. H. Rustad. She says, "We are having some wonderful meetings with Elder Wall and Brother Rustad. Five are ready for baptism thus far and we are hoping and praying that several other interested ones will take their stand." Well, that is a good report. Let's pray for the effort at Bottineau.

Harvest Ingathering is going well. Two brethren worked two hours the other day here in Jamestown and gathered $70.00. The business men were waiting for them. This shows that it is God's work. How much are you going to gather in for missions this year?

Elders Loewen and Seibel, and Professors Fowler and Lang, conducted a very profitable young people's rally at Manfred on Sabbath, July 30. Several of the young people from other churches were present. We hope this rally has helped the young people in their Christian experience. On Sabbath, August 6, Elder Loewen planned to hold a young people's rally in the Kulm church.

Brother George Brand from Harvey started a lay effort last Sunday evening. He states that twenty-eight strangers were present. They all seemed to appreciate the meeting and assured Brother Brand that they would advertise the meetings so that a big crowd would be present next Sunday night.

Brother Grau, from Nome, writes: "Our attendance is fine, and regular, which is what counts."

A new Sabbath school was recently organized in the home of Mrs. J. M. Carnahan at Leonard, North Dakota.

Elder Michalenko writes from his district, that their attendance is fair.

"The homes are scattered and it is quite an effort on the part of these rural people to come to the meetings every night." He further states, "The crops are all gone but perhaps the Lord has something good in store."

Have you been noticing the reports of our colporteurs from week to week? Surely our student colporteurs are doing a grand work.

The Youth and Camp Meeting

The camp meeting season is heaven's hour of opportunity to many a man and woman, boy and girl. It is the occasion when our spiritual life is refreshed, built up and strengthened. God's special blessing attends this annual conclave of His people, just as anciently God blessed the assembled hosts of Israel. We are instructed in the Spirit of prophecy to economize in some other way, but not to deny ourselves the privileges of camp meeting. Our youth should be present. Nothing should hinder them from coming. Rightly conducted, the camp meeting may prove the golden hour in their experience. Youth are taught to work for youth. The book "Education", page 297, says: "Arbitrary measures or direct denunciation may not avail in leading these youth to relinquish that which they hold dear. Let them be directed to something better than display, ambition or self-indulgence. Bring them in contact with truer beauty, with loftier principles, and with nobler lives. Lead them to behold the One 'altogether lovely'. When once the gaze is fixed upon Him, the life finds its center. The enthusiasm, the generous devotion, the passionate ardor of the youth find here their true object. Duty becomes a delight, and sacrifice a pleasure. To honor Christ, to become like Him, to work for Him, is the life's highest ambition and its greatest joy. 'The love of Christ constraineth'."

Camp Meeting Notice

Cottages are for rent at the popular price of 25 cents a night per person, with a minimum of six occupants in a cottage.

Dormitory rooms are 65 cents and 90 cents per day for two persons, with a 10-cent additional charge if the Riverview Park management furnishes the linen. Private tents may be pitched for the nominal fee of but $1.00 ground rent for the season.

The Iowa Conference expects to pitch a number of tents which will be offered for sale. That is, those who desire the tents may purchase them at prices from $5.00 and up. These are seviceable tents but not new. Those buying will take the tent with them upon their return home after the camp meeting. A few cots will also be offered for sale. If you contemplate purchasing, will you kindly write the conference office so that we may learn about how many tents to pitch?

Come to camp meeting praying that all may enjoy the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Evangelistic Efforts In Clarinda

For five weeks we have been conducting an evangelistic effort here in Clarinda. It is still too early to see what the definite outcome will be, but we are planning for a baptism in the near future. There has been much opposition. Two other evangelists have carried on their efforts while we have been here, and today one of the ministers is opening his barrage of gun fire against the Sabbath of the Lord. When the smoke has cleared away we will see what the effects will be.

Meanwhile we are gathering in the fruits from other efforts that have been held in this district; such as in Atlantic, Benton, and Sidney. In the last named place, four were recently baptized. Brother Carter assisted in the public meetings in Hamburg and is leading out in a strong way. Brother Davis did good work in Benton where a recent baptism was held. Brother and Sister Combs have faithfully carried on in Clarinda, while I have been visiting other churches on the Sabbaths, and they have been assisted by our faithful colporteur, Brother Strickland. His work has been greatly appreciated as he has assisted in finding those who are interested in Bible truths. Up to the present time, it has been my privilege to baptize and receive into the churches in this district nineteen members. We believe that the total number to be baptized will reach twenty-five before the camp meeting.

Time to Start

Imagine my embarrassment (?) as I write out this notice that it is now time to start the Harvest Ingathering, while all around me are reports of ten churches and one whole district that are already over the TOP. August 13 is the date set for starting, and I promised that I would keep the early results a secret until that date. Look for the news of the big start, in the Harvest Ingathering Bulletin for the week ending August 13. I would like a report immediately from every church treasurer where the work has already been started, and then please report to us by postal card each Saturday night after that.

The work has started much earlier this year and results are most gratifying. Let no church or individual delay longer to start. If we all work at the same time, the work will be finished on time and we can all have a part in a great Harvest Ingathering Victory in a few weeks. "Every member at work now, and every church 'over' by October."

Our people are fired with unusual zeal as they realize that present world events give unmistakable evidence that God's work must be finished soon. "The Master of the House" will soon return to take an account of His servants. There will be great joy and satisfaction among the faithful stewards. No one should be satisfied until he has done his full part in providing the funds necessary to complete another successful year of the greatest mission program ever attempted. It takes $11.65 now to support this program for one minute. Will you be a minute man? We have a fine minute man button and also beautiful bookmarks for those who raise $25, $50, $75 and $100 amounts. These bookmarks are provided by the union conference. The conference has also voted to give each minister a 1939 set of Ministerial Reading Course books when his district goal is reached. On your bookmarks you will find the words, "For the glory of God, whom I love with all my heart and soul." Let this love motivate your Harvest Ingathering.

News Item

Minnesota's youth are earnestly preparing to enter Maplewood Academy or Union College this fall. We expect a large attendance in both institutions. There is no better place for a Seventh-day Adventist youth than in one of our Christian schools.
