Closing Days at Pacific Union College

Simplicity, economy, efficiency. With these three words expressive of the dominating ideas of their organization, the members of another senior class graduated from Pacific Union College, and many of them are already engaged in active work. Most of those who finished advanced courses this year have secured definite positions in the various branches of the Master's work, or are planning to pursue additional study at the college or at Loma Linda. Forty names appear on the class roll, distributed over the various courses as follows:

Four students finished the Academic Course, all of whom expect to continue study at the college next semester. They are Eunice C. Clark, Ethel S. Forsberg, George Henry Rue and Phillips J. Tunnell.

Miss Ella Lenore Ballard completed the Normal Piano-forte Course, after giving a very delightful recital for graduation on the evening of May 25, in the college chapel.

The largest class yet to complete the Pre-medical Course received diplomas this year. The nine members of this class were Elliott Gillette Colby, William Donald Edwards, Frederick

Charles Gregg, Freda Haffner, Caleb Clifford Hedberg, Roscoe M. Hippach, Lawrence Parsons, Paul K. Ito and Thomas Gordon Reynolds. All of these and about six other college students are planning to enter the College of Medical Evangelists at Loma Linda in September. Surely our young people are realizing that "the medical work is the right arm of the message."

The teaching forces of the church schools will soon be augmented by the addition of eight young ladies, graduates of the Normal Course: Edna Evara Anderson, Marjorie Bernice Chipman, Jessie Grace Chinnock, Ethel Leora Field, Gladys Evara Robinson, Lysle Mabel Spear, Eleanor Frances Tallant and Eric Salida Widen.

The members of the Ministerial Course, all of whom will be actively engaged in the work in the near future, if they are not already busy in tent efforts and other lines of gospel work, were six in number: Marvel Beem, Alzo Virgil Edwards, Chauncey T. Hare, William A. Johnson, William Frederic Miller and Luther Lambert Moffitt.

Eleven finished the full Collegiate Course, and received the Bachelor's degree. Those who received the degree of Bachelor of Arts are: Benjamin Ely Grant, Jr., Florence Lynam-Hanson, John Sheldon Hindbaugh, Norman Lester Howe, Helen Geneva Knight, Charles Elliott Weniger and Lydia Kime Wolfkill. Those who received the degree of Bachelor of Science are Wilford Clinton Baldwin, Day D. Coffin, Roy Alexander Falconer and Myrtle Alley-Rice. Three of these,—Benjamin Grant, Jr., Day Coffin and Roy Falconer,—received their degrees in absentia, being students in the medical course at Loma

Linda, who had completed their pre-medical work at Pacific Union College. Several of the sixteen-grade graduates will be engaged in teaching next year, at the college and elsewhere.

One advanced degree was conferred—the degree of Master of Arts—upon Prof. George McCready Price, of Lodi Academy. Professor Price has long been prominent among us as a teacher and writer. His latest published work, "Q. E. D.," a scholarly treatise in the doctrine of creation versus evolution, was accepted as his master's thesis.

Class Organization

About the middle of the second semester of the school year 1917-18, the graduating class organized with the following officers:

Charles Weniger, president; John Hindbaugh, vice-president; Jessie Chinnock, secretary, Elliott Colby, treasurer; Gordon Reynolds, sergeant-at-arms.

A splendid spirit of co-operation marked the progress of the class as it planned and executed its work. Prominent among the activities of the class were the daily prayer-meetings held during the Week of Prayer, and the weekly prayer-meetings held during the remainder of the semester. An outing held several weeks ago in the woods near the college, a reception to the college faculty held two weeks before the close of school, and the reception tendered to the senior class by President and Mrs. C. W. Irwin and the Alumni a week before commencement were among the pleasures enjoyed by the members of the class.

Class Night

On the evening of May 30, the members of the class rendered a program in the large chapel before an audience of more than 400 people. The entire program of recitations, orations and music was rendered by members of the class. It was as follows:

Program

Baccalaureate Sermon

On the following Sabbath morning the class marched in to special reserved seats to take part in their baccalaureate service. The music was furnished by Mr. Andrews, Mr. Arthur (college organist), Miss Hartley, and a special choir chosen for the occasion. Prayer was offered by Prof. M. E. Cady and the benediction was pronounced by Elder C. E. Knight.

The class was very happy to have Dr. P. T. Magan preach the baccalaureate sermon. He chose for his text 2 Sam. 10:11, 12, giving as the unique title of his discourse, "And Peter Sat Warming Himself." He emphasized the point that commencement this year should wear a garb of a much more somber tone than usual; that the seriousness of the times demands our whole-hearted devotion; and that it is no time for us to be standing about warming ourselves; we must be up and doing; we must keep pace with the cause.

Commencement

On the following Sunday evening, June 2, the commencement exercises were held, with an audience of about six hundred present. At that time diplomas were given to and degrees conferred upon the graduates named above. The program is given in full.

Program

Thus another year of study at Pacific Union College has closed; another corps of workers has been sent into the broad harvest fields, and we are reminded that we shall soon gather in that supreme commencement in the school of the Master-Teacher.
Charles Elliott Weniger.

Fresno Camp Meeting

The Central California camp-meeting, held at Recreation Park, Fresno, May 29 to June 9, closed last Sunday night. The Lord came very near to His people during this time and all who were able to attend received a rich feast of good things. Elder W. A. Spicer, secretary of the General Conference, was with us and brought a message of hope and trust in God, telling of the providential way in which the Lord is working in behalf of our people in Europe who are affected by the war. We read of the marvelous way in which the Lord delivered Peter from prison, the three faithful Hebrews from the furnace of fire, and Daniel from the lions, but we are surprised when we hear that the Lord is, in our day, working in behalf of His people in as marvelous a manner as He did of old.

Elder W. H. Anderson, who for twenty-three years has labored to give the truth in Africa, attended the meeting and gave excellent help. Elder E. C. Boger, superintendent of the South Carribean Conference, which includes in its territory Trinidad, the British, French and Dutch Guianas, Venezuela and the Windward, Leeward and Virgin Islands, also gave excellent help. Among the general workers from our own field who took part in the meeting were Elder J. W. Christian, our new union conference president, Elder J. Adams Stephens, Elder M. N. Helligso, our new young people's secretary for the union field, Elder G. W. Reeser, Prof. M. E. Cady, Brother F. E. Painter, Prof. C. W. Irwin, of Pacific Union College, Prof. J. H. Paap, of Lodi Academy, and Prof. W. G. Wirth from union college.

Elder N. P. Neilsen, who for several years has efficiently administered the affairs of the Central California Conference, having accepted the presidency of the Danish-Norwegian Seminary at Hutchinson, Minn., it became necessary to fill the vacancy. Elder J. Adams Stephens, under whose leadership the work in the Northwestern California Conference has gone steadily forward for several years, was chosen to take Elder Neilsen's place. All seem pleased with this choice, and while our people in the local conference regret very much to lose the helpful and progressive leadership of Elder Neilsen, yet they feel that Elder Stephen's experience in executive work will enable him to lead the work in this field to the satisfaction of all.

Brother George A. Wheeler, who for several years has been secretary-treasurer of the local conference, and secretary of the Central California Bible house, was elected missionary secretary and Brother W. F. Field was chosen conference secretary. The other officers elected were: Educational secretary, Mrs. Alice M. Mann; young people's secretary, Richard R. Breitigam; field secretary, C. L. Davis, Sabbath-school secretary, Dr. Myrtle B. Hudson; executive committee, J. Adams Stephens, E. H. Adams, F. E. Brown, G. A. Grauer, Nis Hansen, M. L. Rice and P. J. Wolfson. The delegates decided to make the offices of departmental secretaries elective hereafter, instead of appointive, thus conforming to the plan of the General Conference. Formal action also was taken, making the conference sessions biennial instead of annual, and changing the constitution in conformity to this new plan.

Expression of our views upon the subjects of temperance and religious liberty were voiced in appropriate resolutions. Plans were also laid for the continued upbuilding of the educational and young people's work in this field.

Continued hearty support of the Red Cross by all our people was pledged by the delegates.

The biennial report of Elder Nielsen and the reports of the departmental secretaries, showed growth in all lines. Central California Conference has nearly doubled its membership in the past six years, nearly one thousand having been added to the faith. The number of churches has increased during the past two years from 30 to 35. New church buildings have been erected at Bakersfield, Madera and Barstow, while the Porterville and Shafter churches are conducting their services in the recently erected church school buildings. Sister Mann reported that new school buildings have also been erected at Rolinda and Barstow. The Fresno, Dinuba, and Island school buildings have been enlarged and at Laton a commodious dwelling house was converted into a school building. Six new churches were admitted into the conference, these being: Madera, Exeter, Wasco, Fairmead, Hanford (Spanish) and Barstow Colony. Sister Mann also reported a growth in the young people's societies of from 28 to 37 in the last two years, and in the membership from 561 to 812.

Brother Wheeler, in submitting the treasurer's report, said that the income for the last two years was $79,602.82, and that the literature sales from the Bible House last year amounted to $11,256.01. A tribute to the excellent work of Sister Lida Ackley, now deceased, was paid by the delegates assembled. Sister Jennie Powers, who has been in charge of the Sabbath school work of the conference since the death of her sister, reported that the Sabbath school membership has grown from 1602 in 1906 to 1886 at the close of 1917, and that the total offerings for the two years were $16,709.14.

Our people in Central California are moving forward energetically in personal work for neighbors and friends. The entire field has been districted and every effort will be put forth to reach all the residents systematically and regularly once a month.

The services upon the camp-ground the first Sabbath were exceptionally well attended, the large three-pole pavilion being entirely too small to accommodate the great throngs. Seats from the other tents were brought so that practically all on the grounds were in use. Elder Christian drew the hearts of all near to God as he told of the Lord's power to save from sin and to keep those who put their trust in Him. Practically the entire congregation surrendered to God or renewed their consecration to Him, at the close of this service. Between 200 and 300 attended the after-meeting, held in the young people's tent. We cannot at this writing give the exact number baptized at the close of camp-meeting but this will be reported later, the Lord willing. Our people who attended the camp-meeting have returned to their homes, encouraged and strengthened to bear the burdens and perplexities of these times of stress, with confidence that the Lord soon will lead His people into the heavenly Canaan.

FIELD TIDINGS

ARIZONA

J. E. Bond, Pres.      Orley J. Bond, Sec.
615 North 10th St., Phoenix, Arizona.

Williams

On May 12 Elder I. P. Dillon and the writer began meetings in the Williams Opera House with a good attendance. These services have continued with varying interest until the present time. The testing truths have been presented, and we are hopeful that some will obey.

A Sabbath school was organized, meeting at Elder Dillon's home, and though small in numbers yet we enjoy the study of these precious lessions. On Sabbath, June 1, a number of our people from Flagstaff motored over and we had the first union Sabbath school ever held in this part of the field.

An invitation from one attending our meetings in Williams to go over to a place called Garland Prairie, about twenty-five miles away, and hold meetings in a school house, was accepted, and at the appointed hour on Sunday, May 26, we found about twenty-five persons assembled to hear the Word. The teacher had built a fire in the large stove, which we appreciated very much, as the day was cold and windy. At the close of an interesting discourse on the coming of the Lord, given by Elder Dillon, the people voted that we should return the next Sunday and preach to them.

The following Sunday about the same number were present. One lady who seems quite interested said she wanted us to keep coming until we had explained everything on the chart. Others requested us to visit them in their homes. We plan to hold a ten days' meeting in this school house in the near future. The prospects here are indeed the most encouraging.

As this is a scattered field, we find it quite a help to use our Ford car in getting around to these out of the way places. We are all of good courage, and ask an interest in the prayers of God's people for the work in this part of the vineyard.

Salt Lake City Church Notes

Brother C. H. Bates plans to be at Provo over next Sabbath and Sunday. He will speak at the church to our people while there.

Dr. Eastman returned from Idaho to spend a few days here last week with his family. Sister Eastman was received into the church last Sabbath by letter.

A lively interest is taken in the sale of the new book, "A World Perplexity." The church gave an advance order for something over five hundred copies of the book. Those who are engaged in its sale are meeting with splendid success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Everett left Wednesday for Valentine, Montana, where they will make their future home. We are sorry to lose Sister Everett from our congregation, but hope she will be able to find a church home among our people at their new location.

We were pleased to have with us at the Sabbath services last week, Brethren Jensen, Ford and Burgess from Pacific Union College. They were asked to take charge of the afternoon service and gave us some most interesting addresses on practical Christianity. Brother Ford sang a solo which was much appreciated. He and Brother Jensen are engaging in the book work for the summer, and each plan to earn a scholarship. Brother Burgess, after spending a few days in the city, proceeded to Denver, where he will be employed during the summer months.

W. M. Andress.

Gleanings

Mrs. H. E. Lysinger and children left Grand Junction, June 2, for an extended visit with the "home folks" in Missouri. Elder Lysinger accompanied them as far as Denver.

Brother J. H. Weeks our conference secretary and treasurer, is attending a family reunion at the home of his mother in Portland, Oregon, and recuperating for strenuous work when he returns to the office.

Are you planning for camp-meeting? Remember the place and date. Salt Lake City, Utah, July 18 to 28. You need the blessing to be received by attending th's service. Plan for the children and bring them to receive a portion of the blessings.

Elder H. E. Lysinger left Grand Junction June 6 for an extended tour of the southern portion of Colorado and into New Mexico. Some of our companies in that section have not had a quarterly service in as much as two years. This will certainly mean much to the upbuilding of the work in these isolated sections of our conference.

To date, we have orders for more than fifteen hundred copies of "World Perplexity." Only a portion of the churches have sent in their orders. Is yours among the number? If not, we are still expecting it. Now is the time to use this splendid book in doing home missionary work among your neighbors. Tomorrow may be too late. You will be responsible.

Brother C. L. Snodgrass writes of the work in Cedaredge: "The news of this meeting has spread throughout the entire country, and from every direction for many miles I am receiving requests to come over and hold some meetings." Brother F. S. Chollar will follow up the interest at this place, as Brother Snodgrass is not able to stay in that altitude on account of his wife's health.

Brother H. B. Meeker is in the southern portion of Colorado assisting Brother Patton, who is just starting into the colporteur work. Have you noticed the new names which are being added to our list of colporteurs? Will not our brethren and sisters throughout the conference remember these workers daily before the throne of grace, as they go from door to door with the printed page?

Ogden

After giving Bible readings for some time in different parts of Ogden, three dear souls were buried in baptism with their Saviour not long ago, as a result. Others whom we continue to study with are interested, and we hope and pray that the dear Lord may lead at least some of these out of darkness into His marvelous light.

Recently the writer visited isolated members. As the times grow more and more perplexing, it is truly a joy to see the confidence our brethren and sisters have in God and in His word. They believe firmly that our Saviour will soon come to take His people home. One sister gave Bible readings once a week in her neighborhood, and one person was ready for baptism.

A great interest is taken in our mission investment fund in every place where I have visited. Various ways and plans are suggested to help in this investment fund. One family of three signed for four dollars each, and paid the full amount before I left. Some promised to donate one-tenth of their bean crop; some two days' earnings; several pledged five dollars, and others agreed to give five cents on every dollar made up to December 1, or all 1917 dimes received. Several of the sisters said they would give the profits on all eggs laid on the Sabbath day. Even the children wanted to have a part, promising to give all pennies received and all buffalo nickels.

May God bless these efforts put forth to further His cause in the earth. "Every man according as he purposed in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver." 2 Cor. 9:7.

Attention! Camp Meeting

The following letter has just been received at this office and is self-explanatory. We hope and pray that it may be possible for us to be able to have this action rescinded.

"Mr. S. Donaldson, Secty.,
742 Third Street,
Santa Rosa, California,

Dear Sir:—

I regret to inform you that owing to the recent order of the Director General Mr. McAdoo, all convention rates are withdrawn effective June 10, 1918.

Under the circumstances, delegates attending the Northwestern California Seventh-Day Adventists' Conference at St. Helena, Cal., in July, will be called upon to pay the full regular fare in each direction.

Yours truly,

M. O. Bicknell,
Chairman California Terminal Lines."

Oakland Camp Meeting

Have you decided yet whether you will attend camp-meeting this year? It is time now for every one to decide this important question. And the important thing is that every one should by all means decide to attend. Under no ordinary circumstances should any one remain away. The meeting will be held in Beulah Park, East Oakland. Last year all agreed that this was the most delightful camp-ground of any in the conference, and we are fortunate in again securing this location. We believe we are justified in expecting a larger attendance than ever before.

The conference session will be held in connection with the camp-meeting this year. Every church will of course choose their delegates to represent them in the conference meetings. We are very anxious, however, that just as many of our church members as possible be in attendance at the conference session. As important as the business part of our work will be, we must not lose sight of the spiritual side of our camp-meeting work. We can not possibly over-emphasize this feature. It should require no argument to convince all that in such times as these, no sacrifice too great can be made if thereby we can receive the spiritual help so much needed.

Elder A. G. Daniells is looking forward to this gathering with great anticipation. On the morning he started for the East recently he led us in family worship. His burden of prayer seemed to be for our camp-meeting. He prayed that we would be blessed by having a large attendance and a pentacostal outpouring. May it be so. Elders Daniells, Christian and other leading workers will attend. Begin to-day to pray and to plan. Write to your friends and ask them to meet you at Beulah Park, July 25 to August 4.

God's Aviation Corps

All the world is keyed up to a supreme effort; and any one who in the midst of this intensity fails to put in every ounce of his energy can feel himself nothing less than a slacker. But as the work of the church embraces more and higher objects than the work of the nation—as it aims to save and make happy not only for time but for eternity—so much the more devoted and keen for service must every church member be.

Whoever gets into the Lord's service must volunteer. Volunteer! and get into whatever branch you are best fitted for. But before you make your choice, I should like to call your attention to the Aviation Corps. It's a branch of the service that appeals to the spiritually daring, nerve-steady, resourceful and ambitious. And it develops those qualities where there is none too much of them to start with. And then, it brings results unique in value, and not less important than any other. It's the newest department in the service.

Our Aviation Corps is the magazine work. Of all the branches of service, it's the most adaptable, the most up-to-date, the most mobile. It can go anywhere, any time, at any speed. The information to be picked up by our magazine workers and passed in by them, is the most varied, extensive and recent to be obtained.

It is a service that must appeal to thousands of our students and other of our young people, who are full of vigor, initiative and desire for earnest service. And to a great if not equal extent it must appeal to our stay-at-home church members who can spend only an occasional hour. The great cities must be worked; and for this, specially trained squadrons as well as lone fliers must be provided. Our own neighborhoods, city or country, must be worked, and in this less strenuous service nearly every church member may make frequent flights. There is great opportunity in the Aviation Corps. The "Watchman" Magazine will help you start. Write for information to your tract society. A free booklet entitled "General Sales Information," will be sent you.

A. W. Spalding.

Northern California Conference

The Northern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists will hold its eighth session (first biennial), June 20 to 30, 1918, on the campground at Oak Park, Stockton, Cal., for the purpose of electing officers and transacting such other business as may properly come before the meeting. Each local church is intitled to one delegate in the session of this Conference without regard to numbers, and one additional delegate for every 20 members or major fraction thereof. The Conference Executive Committee, ordained ministers, and Conference Departmental Secretaries are Conference delegates. The first meeting is called to convene at 10:00 A. M., Thursday, June 20, 1918.

Clarence Santee, President.

Verah MacPherson, Secretary.

Make it a rule, and pray God to help you keep it, never if possible, to lie down at night without being able to say, "I have made one human being, at least, a little wiser, a little happier or a little better this day."
—Charles Kingsley.

Education Campaign

SLOGAN

Every S. D. A. Home Personally Visited

GOAL

Every Seventh-day Adventist Boy and Girl in Our Own Schools
Every Student in Our Schools a Worker

All Things Are Now Ready

All the literature and general plans for our educational campaign are now ready. The literature is as follows:

"The Campaign Educator"; Education leaflets, one to four pages each, "Why I should Attend an S. D. A. School"; "The Measure of Our Strength"; "What Does It Mean?"; "The Call of the Child"; "Why Hazard All?"; "Telling Facts and Figures"; "Our Schools"; "Into All the World"; "Ways to Win"; "God's Purpose for Our Children"; "A Plea to Our Youth.."; Education posters—Church, School and Office Poster, 14x20 inches; Home Poster, 10x14 inches; School Census Blank; Educator Subscription Blank.

These things were all ready to begin filling orders June 1. The price of the "Campaign Educator" is five cents a copy, mailed in a wrapper; four cents a copy in quantities of five or more. All the other campaign literature is free.

Let us PUSH, PRAY and PERSEVERE until we realize our slogan: "Every S. D. A. Home Personally Visited."

W. E. Howell.

35,000 sold of the second quarter "Liberty" before announcement was made regarding this number. But "What are these among so many?"
