BEAR VALLEY

Located in the tops of the San Bernardino Mountains is the greatest mountain resort in Southern California. Big Bear Lake is a fine body of water, which with the splendid timber growing in the valley and on mountain-sides forms a beautiful sight indeed. Last year this resort

Recognizing the need of having some means for calling the attention of the multitudes visiting in the valley to the message, steps were taken last year to erect a chapel. A half acre of ground was placed at our disposal on a long term lease. The location is the very best that the val-

ference committee has recently taken steps to further strengthen the work in Bear Valley. In order to provide a reading room in connection with the chapel, money is now being raised to build a rustic cottage next to the chapel. In this way a plain but comfortable place will be providley affords. Money was donated and a beautiful rustic chapel erected. The accompanying cut gives a good view of the chapel. This is the only building in the valley dedicated to religious purposes. The Lord has blessed in giving us the leading position in religious work.

The Southeastern California Conference committee has recently taken steps to further strengthen the work in Bear Valley. In order to provide a reading room in connection with the chapel, money is now being raised to build a rustic cottage next to the chapel. In this way a plain but comfortable place will be provid-

The conference committee has placed Elder C. McReynolds in charge of raising the funds for this building. We are in great hopes that money enough will soon be in hand to start this work. This is a great mission field right within our own borders. A strong work must be carried on there. We appeal to our brethren and sisters to rally to this work. Only eternity will reveal the good done by this mountain mission.

In addition to the quantities of literature circulated, meetings will be held and other means used to keep the message before the people. We desire to place a full set of the young people's Reading Course books in the library for the benefit of the hundreds of young people who will visit the valley. All contributions in this line will be appreciated. All kinds of denominational books and literature will be gladly accepted. All such can be sent to the conference office in Riverside, or sent direct to Brother and Sister J. G. Mitchell, Pine Knot Post-office, California.

Annual Constituency Meeting of the St. Helena Sanitarium

The annual constituency meeting of the California Medical Missionary and Benevolent Association was held at Sanitarium, California, March 12, 1919. Elder J. L. McElhany, president of the association, presided.

Elder J. N. Loughborough, a pioneer of the sanitarium organization, was present and all were intensely interested in listening to the experiences related by him incident to the selection of the present site of the institution. He told of the diversity of opinion in those days regarding our medical work, some at least holding the idea that our one sanitarium at Battle Creek would be all our people could support for some time to come. During this time of perplexity a letter was received from Sister E. G. White, then in Switzerland, and from which he read the following:

"God has said that if the men connected with this institution walk humbly and obediently, doing the will of God, it would live and prosper; and from it would be sent forth missionaries to bless others with the light God has given them. These will, in the spirit of Jesus, demolish idols in high places; they will unveil superstition, and plant truth, purity and holiness where are now cherished only error, self-indulgence, intemperance and iniquity."

After relating the foregoing Elder Loughborough led in an earnest prayer thanking our heavenly Father for past blessings, and imploring His guidance during the meetings of the day and throughout the future.

Dr. G. K. Abbott, medical superintendent, presented plans for the future of our work in the institution, which when fully carried out will result in great benefit to our entire field.

C. E. Rice, business manager, spoke briefly of some of the perplexities and successes of the year, emphasizing the fact that the true success of our work is registered in the books of heaven rather than in the books of account in our office.

Helen N. Rice, superintendent of nurses, gave a brief but interesting report of the work in her department. She stated that since the time the institution started the training of nurses, twenty-five years ago, 255 nurses have been graduated. A number of these are in foreign mission fields, others are connected with conference work, and a larger number are engaged in general nursing. At the present time there are 57 students in training.

Alma J. Graf reported regarding the social life of the nurses, emphasizing the value and importance of the new dormitory for nurses, completed and occupied August, 1918, in the upholding of high standards and ideals, and in providing each lady nurse with sanitary and comfortable quarters. "These, with the efforts of the "house-mother," make possible the home atmosphere which is of great importance in the lives of the students.

Elder M. N. Helligso presented a brief but encouraging report regarding the chaplain's work, also the Bible study and spiritual work among the patients and members of the sanitarium family.

The financial statement of the association for the year 1918 was presented by the treasurer, C. E. Rice, which was certified to by the auditor of the Pacific Union Conference.

This report showed a net operating gain of more than $15,000.

The committee on plans presented a number of carefully drawn up resolutions, some of which provided for needed improvements about the institution, others for extension work along missionary lines, the re-arranging of the training school curriculum to place the school on the highest possible standard, thus maintaining it as an accredited school in the State of California.

The personnel of the board of directors elected for the ensuing term is as follows: G. W. Wells, G. K. Abbott, J. W. Christian, Claude Conard, C. H. Jones, Ida S. Nelson, E. R. Rhymes, C. E. Rice, R. Rose, Clarence Santee, H. S. Shaw, W. C. White.

This institution, which had so small a beginning, has now completed forty years of service for humanity by its ministrations to the sick, by upholding true health principles, and in the training of many workers in the science of combating sin and disease.

News Items

Brother J. A. Neilsen, our home missionary secretary, visited the church at Collbran, Sabbath, May 31, in the interest of the home missionary work.

We notice during the week a falling off in renewals for the "Review and Herald." How about your subscription? Don't let it expire. The same price prevails, $2.50 for one year.

The past week brought some fine orders for the new book, "The World's Destiny." However, we have not heard from all the churches, and we hope that the missionary secretaries and elders of each church will do their part in presenting this message-filled book to our people in such a way that they will use them liberally in presenting the message to friends and neighbors.

Sabbath, June 7. Elder H. E. Lysinger, our conference president, plans to meet with the company at Durango, Colorado. We would urge that all who live in territory adjacent to Durango make it a point to attend this meeting. They will find them of deep interest and on account of the rush of work preceding camp meetings time will not allow Elder Lysinger to visit all the isolated members in the neighborhood of Durango. Get in touch with Elder M. J. King, Dolores, Colorado; he can give you all particulars. Remember the date,—beginning Friday evening, June 6, closing Sunday night, June 8.

Brother H. B. Meeker, our field missionary secretary, has been spending the week helping Brethren Robinson and Wynn, of Rulison, Colorado, to get started in the colporteur work. This branch of God's great work is showing a healthy growth at present, as the calls coming to Brother Meeker to assist our brethren and sisters in getting started are more than he can answer. He is extremely busy, but was wearing a broad and happy smile as he passed through Grand Junction last Friday. We hope that others will feel the call to answer this line of endeavor and help to rapidly finish the work. Drop us a line at the office and some one will come and help you.

The missionary spirit of the Grand Junction church is reviving again, following a long siege of enforced idleness on account of the "flu" epidemic. At a business meeting held recently, a missionary committee was selected for the church. Last Sabbath morning this committee reported that it felt sure that camp meeting was coming to Grand Junction this year, and in view of this fact that the church here should visit every home in Grand Junction with truth-filled literature at least four times preceding camp meeting. In a few moments $45.00 was pledged to buy tracts to distribute to every home in the city. The plan is that the last visit with tracts shall include a printed invitation to attend camp meeting.

NEVADA MISSION

Box 2072, Reno, Nevada

News Notes

Brethren of the Nevada Mission field, be sure to attend the camp meeting at Reno, Nevada, June 10 to 16!

Brother David Hartman, who has been assisting Elder George Sims at Alturas, is now at Pacific Union College, where he will receive his B. A. degree with the 1919 class.

Elder M. A. Hollister went to Fallon last Friday, expecting to remain over Sabbath and then to visit Brother C. L. Bond at Lovelock, and also the company at Winnemucca.

It is very natural for us to be glad to hear that Elder C. S. Longacre, Elder J. W. Christian, and other representative ministers will attend our camp meeting. It is likewise natural that they should feel disappointed if we do not make special efforts to be present in as full force as possible to receive the important messages they will bear.

Brother H. Lyle Wallace writes the following from Fallon:

"All here are busy preparing for the coming camp meeting, which we hope and pray will be the best in the history of the Nevada Mission."

Elder George G. Sims sends the following encouraging and interesting report from Alturas, California:

"Eight individuals have expressed their intention to observe the Sabbath. Several others are very hopeful.

"The Lord has specially interposed in behalf of Sister Pratt's little girl in answer to prayer. In view of the puzzling character of her illness, three doctors were called in consultation, and failed to encourage hope for her recovery. In view of her confident expressions of faith in the healing power of God, she was anointed and prayer was offered. In less than a week she was at school again. This experience has excited the interest of some whom we could not reach before."

Modesto Camp Meeting

Besides the weekly gatherings in synagogues and other places of worship, God has, from ancient times, ordained that His people should gather from time to time, usually yearly, in special meetings to gain strength, and to become better acquainted with Him. Those who did not avail themselves of these privileges were eventually cut off.

Much has been written in the "Testimonies" of the importance of camp meetings. The following is quoted from an MS. testimony entitled, "The Importance of Camp Meeting Work":

"Camp meetings are one of the Lord's means for the warning of the world. They are one of the most effective methods of reaching all classes with the gospel invitation... Old and young are called, and the Lord impresses the hearts of the hearers. By this means the call to the supper, as presented in the parable, is given to all... The Lord has in a special manner honored these gatherings, which He has called holy convocations... Nothing can be equal to these meetings for making an impression upon the people... Will our brethren and sisters come up to the camp meeting to use all their God-given tact and talents of influence, not only to receive, but to impart?"

Increasing cares and perplexities will make it more and more difficult for some to attend. Only by a more determined effort will we succeed in resisting the temptation. The Lord says that He has called "old and young" to these meetings. It is a personal invitation from Him to you. He knows that we greatly need the blessing that will be given there. We cannot afford to refuse His invitation.

There are many who seldom have the privilege of gathering with those of like faith. He invites them also to this feast of His appointing. We need this blessing to meet the things which are before us in the coming year. The Lord has said: "Soon God's people will be tested by fiery trials, and the great proportion of those who now appear to be genuine and true will prove to be base metal. . . . To stand in defense of truth and righteousness when the majority forsake us, to fight the battles of the Lord when champions are few,—this will be our test." Vol. 5, page 136.

These are solemn words. What will cause "the great proportion" to fail? In Revelation 3:14-18, the Lord has given the answer,—"lukewarm," careless, not knowing our danger, yet warned of it in the Word.

Brethren and sisters, plan to come to the meeting. In the same testimony from which the first quotation was taken, speaking further of God's call to "old and young" to some to the camp meeting, I read: "By this means, the call to the supper, as presented in the parable, is given to all." In response to that call, the apostle says, "And they all with one consent began to make excuse." Luke 14: 16-18.

I know that it is impossible for all to come: but many more could if we would do all our part to comply with the Lord's invitation. Come and bring your loved ones. There is a blessing for you. God will not let you suffer loss while you break the thread of weary toil. and come to rest under His shadow. The blighting shadow of cold, unfeeling indifference must not be our eternal ruin.

The Modesto camp meeting will be held June 19 to 29, at Ensen Park, in the northeast part of Modesto. There will be good shade and water.

Colporteur News

Sister Helen Rollins, who has sold about 1,000 of our 25 cent books, has just ordered 1,000 more to be sent in one shipment.

Miss Esther Wallin, who has just finished a successful delivery of books to the amount of $114.00, has demonstrated that our sisters can go into the thickly settled rural districts and have excellent success.

The Strever Brothers, who just sold about $1,500 worth of books in the Turlock section, are now working the territory around Manteca. They are having excellent success among the foreign people, and have sold books, so, far, in eleven different languages. One Greek, after receiving his book, stated in the presence of others that the book was a good one. This helped to deliver a number of others to people of the same nationality.

Important Camp Meeting Directions

The Northern California camp meeting will be held in Ensen Park, Modesto, June 19 to 29.

Rates for tents: 12 x 17 with burlap carpet and fly, $5.00; 10x12 with burlap carpet and fly, $3.50.

To reach the grounds: Those coming by auto or other private conveyance, by McHenry Highway, turn to the right at Morris Avenue, going two blocks direct to the camp. If you come on the Tidewater Electric line, get off opposite Ensen Park, North Modesto, and go two blocks east.

A camp representative will meet trains.

Bring checks for baggage to the superintendent of the camp, Brother W. B. Taylor.

Come and share in the feast.

Clarence Santee.

Conference Notes

Brother William Voth spent Thursday, May 29, in Sacramento, on business for the conference.

Brother David Hartman, of the Nevada Mission, visited our office, May 28, on his way to Pacific Union College.

Elder T. H. Watson, with the assistance of Brother T. C. Tunsen, is opening a series of meetings at Oakdale. Will our brethren and sisters kindly remember them in their prayers?

Many are planning on summer vacations; but do not forget the annual camp meeting that is to be held at Modesto, June 19 to 29. The place selected is very pleasant, indeed, and those who attend will surely enjoy it. As there will be no conference session this year, the entire time will be given to spiritual instruction. Come one, come all!

F. M. Butterfield, your home missionary secretary, has been doing some exceptionally fine work among our churches, encouraging them to use large clubs of the "Present Truth" series, giving instruction, and laying plans for house-to-house work. It is planned to thoroughly cover the Northern California field with "Present Truth" during the remaining months of 1919.

To All the World

Occasionally we hear some one say, "I do not believe in foreign missions." Still others say there is "work enough at home." How true! But do we blush because we have done so little? Yes, there is enough work at home to make us resolve to put forth more earnest endeavors. But is there work enough to make us forget our Lord's command? The gospel commission is to go to all the world. We are facing this tremendous task. More than half of the human race are without a knowledge of our Saviour. What pen can describe their needs, what tongue can tell of their sorrow? Who can better appreciate the eternal joys that will come to the souls in these darkened lands who accept Christ, than he who believes and gives to foreign missions?

Are we withholding our offerings from the Lord's treasury? Does the cry of the teeming millions enter our hearts? Are we responding regularly, methodically, and liberally, as God prospers us, to advance the message of truth in all the earth?

It may seem to some quite a task to raise our full amount for missions this year. But should we doubt the Lord's promises? And may we not, in the retrospect of past achievements, be fully assured that God's presence will go with us, and that we shall gloriously succeed?

To this end let us all pray, plan, watch, work, and give.

G. W. Wells.

Conference Notes

Elder A. M. Dart brings a good report of his Sunday night meetings now being conducted at the Mission church in San Francisco.

The conference committee, at a meeting last week in the office, arranged for public efforts to be held at San Jose and Vallejo. Elder C. F. Folkenberg will conduct the effort at San Jose, and Elder W. A. Johnson at Vallejo.

The effort now being conducted in Fort Bragg by Elder E. A. Brown and Brother A. Edwards is being well attended. The interest seems to grow, and they have bright hopes for a number of souls to accept the message.

The writer spoke at Pacific Union College, Sabbath, May 24, and was highly gratified to see the good spirit manifested, and the earnest desire on the part of the faculty and students to re-consecrate their lives more fully to God and His service.

Sabbath, June 7, will be Rally Day in all our Sabbath schools. The Sabbath school department has taken special pains to supply plans and articles for making this day a real uplift to all our schools. It is sincerely hoped that each school will cheerfully do its part, and with God's blessing it may be a crowning success.

News From the Field

Brother M. A. Reese sends the following encouraging words with his last report:

"God is still giving me success. One man, when I had finished canvassing him and failed to obtain his order, and only spoke a few words before parting about him taking the book, ordered and paid for it in advance. Thank the Lord, His angels were present. Let us be of good courage: God will lead us and give us success. The canvassing work was ordained of God. We will succeed, for He is leading out in this work. If we surrender our hearts daily to God, and then 'pray and work, and work and pray' there are not enough letters in the alphabet to spell failure." Surely, dear reader, this is true. The great question with each of us should be, what are we doing to help in this work.

Again Brother Reese, says: "I met a man 86 years old, who was much impressed that he should keep the Sabbath, and God gave me words to speak to him, and Scripture to read to him, and he says he is going to keep the Sabbath. He bought two books, one for himself, and one for his daughter, who is to leave June 8 for Africa, as a missionary."

Brother Reese's last report was for over one hundred dollars worth of work.

There are many ways in which we can have a part in this work. One sister wrote me to send a colporteur to her county to work, and she would give him a home while working. There should be many more such homes open to our faithful colporteurs. In this way you can have a part in their work. If you would like to give the truth to your neighborhood or county, and cannot take it yourself, then open your home to one of our colporteurs, and let him take it for you.

Brother Charles Utt sends in a good report from Mendocino County and others have been doing good work. A number of new colporteurs are preparing to enter the field at once. This work is to close soon, and our opportunity to help finish it will be gone. What are we doing?

News Notes

Elder G. A. Snyder recently moved to Alhambra, where he expects to labor for a time.

Elder W. H. Bradley reports a good interest in his tent meetings, which opened Friday evening, May 16, in Santa Monica.

Elder W. M. Adams is conducting an effort near the intersection of Twenty-fourth Street and Vermont Avenue, Los Angeles.

Our "Recorder" readers will be glad to know that Sister Edna J. Calkins, well known as a Bible worker, is again resuming work in this field.

Elder P. L. Knox is now located in Pomona. He plans to hold a series of meetings there this summer, and look after the upbuilding of the work in general.

Brethren Francis D. Nichol, J. Henry White, Owen Troy, and Miss Reathel Jenkins, who have been in attendance at Pacific Union College during the past year, expect to join us in work during the summer in Southern California.

We are pleased to welcome to the conference Elder J. W. Miller, of Denver, who, with a company of workers, expects to hold a series of meetings for the colored people in the city of Los Angeles.

Encouraging reports come from Elder J. R. Patterson and Brother Floyd Ashbaugh, who are holding meetings at Paso Robles. We are glad to announce that within a week or two a church will be organized there.

We are glad to welcome Sister Maude C. Parker, of Santa Barbara, at the conference office a few days ago. Miss Parker is connecting with the Bible work in this conference. She is assisting Elder W. H. Bradley at Santa Monica.

Word from Brethren E. A. Mathwig and E. R. Reynolds states that they expect to close their effort at Oxnard in the course of a few days. While the attendance has not been large, yet the brethren are hopeful of some additions to the company there as a result of the work done.

Miss Sue Nary, Brethren Frank Smith, and Fred Miller, graduates of this year's medical evangelistic class, have accepted invitations to assist in the field missionary work in this conference. Miss Mary Treber also finished her work in the medical evangelistic course and will be able to devote her full time to the conference now.

Elder N. J. Waldorf, Bible teacher at White Memorial Hospital, reports that during his connection with the hospital the medical and medical evangelistic students have shown a good interest in the Bible classes. In addition to the regular class work public services are held three nights each week in the new church building. At the present time these meetings are well attended, the same persons coming each night. As a result the workers expect a good harvest of souls.

San Diego and Environs

Sister Josephine Gotzian has been successful in selling many copies of Elder Haskell's new work, "Bible Handbook." Her goal is 450 copies. It is a fine little help in Bible study, and the proceeds go to help print books for the blind.

The schoolhouse at Paradise Valley Sanitarium has been enlarged during the winter. Brother Cushman and the two largest boys of the school have done all the work, and they are justly proud of the achievement. The new room will be used for woodwork and cooking.

The San Diego schools have extended the time in order more thoroughly to complete the year's work. A day spent with each school revealed teachers and pupils hard at work. The agriculture class at the G Street school is making use of the garden for experiments and study.

Only about half a dozen of our young men remain at Camp Kearny, and these hope soon to receive their discharges. A number have already taken up the book work, and are meeting with success. All have plans for work which they hope to do, school and conference work in some form predominating.

Elders R. S. Owen and L. E. Folkenberg are beginning a series of tent meetings in San Diego. A Bible training institute is being planned in connection with this effort, the training to be given in part at the sanitarium. Those interested in such a training should watch for further notice in the "Recorder."

The word enthusiastic is scarcely strong enough to describe the feeling regarding the new vegetarian cafeteria at San Diego. Brother H. A. Hebard and his corps of helpers are kept busy waiting upon the hundreds who come to sample the good foods. Already Brother Hook's bread and pies are gaining fame, and his electric oven is too small to supply the demands. The dietitian is often called upon by the customers. One lady remarked that she would come again and bring seven more just like herself for well balanced meals.

A New Minister

fronted with the needs of this people, should see in this new minister an opportunity to preach the third angel's message to those at our door.

The magazine will contain 20 pages including a two-color cover. It will be the earnest endeavor of the editors to make this paper a real magazine of truth and we bespeak the heartiest cooperation of our people for a large circulation.

The prices are as follows:

Single subscription, one year 50 cents.

Single copy 15 cents.

5 to 40 copies any one issue, each 8 cents.

50 or more copies any one issue, each 7 cents.

Surely no one can find fault with the price, and a little effort on our part will enlist a large number of regular subscribers, while many can sell from 25 to 100 copies to the Mexican workers in our neighborhood.

So brother, sister, let us meet the new minister with a hearty welcome.

Let us send in a call for him to visit our neighborhood first. Let the first issue find a large circulation in our neighborhood. He will be glad to come; and the beauty of this kind of servant is that he can be in as many places at the same time as desired on the part of those who have an interest in his mission.

"The cause of Christ is robbed, not by a mere passing thought, not by an unpremeditated act. No! By your own deliberate act you made your will, placing your property at the disposal of unbelievers. After having robbed God during your lifetime, you continue to rob him after your death, and you do this with the full consent of all your powers of mind, in a document called your will. What do you think will be your Master's will toward you for thus appropriating His gifts? What will you say when an account is demanded of your stewardship?"

To "Watchman" Agents:

To help students meet the increase in next year's school expenses, the "Watchman" will give 50 free copies on each order for five hundred, 100 free copies on each order for one thousand, 125 free on second thousand, and 150 on third and each additional thousand from this date. The same courtesies will be extended to all agents and churches during the summer, and will take place of any previous bonuses that have been offered. Our summer issues will be the most attractive of any we have published.

The Paradise Valley Sanitarium will start another three-year course of training for nurses, August 4, 1919. The instruction given in this course qualifies those who have accredited entrance requirements for state registration.

Twenty young people are wanted for this course. Application blanks and calendars will be mailed to those interested.

There will also be a special course organized July 1 for those desiring a practical nurses' training but do not wish state registration.

Full information concerning this course will be given on application. Address Training School Superintendent, Paradise Valley Sanitarium, National City, Cal. 5t

The Nurses' Course in the Loma Linda Training School will begin August 17, 1919. The White Memorial Hospital in Los Angeles is the Clinical Hospital for the Loma Linda Medical College, and student nurses spend a portion of their time in training there.

By an action of the State Board of Health which was intended to become effective September 1, 1918, it was required that students entering the nurses' course in an accredited school should have completed twelve grades of regular school work. However, conditions brought into existence by the war caused a temporary revision in this requirement and provision has been made by the State whereby students having less than twelve grades may still enter accredited training schools. Write for information and calendar to Superintendent of Nurses, Loma Linda, Cal.

THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1919

The new book, "World's Destiny," by Elder G. W. Reaser, is receiving a wide circulation. Unless you have already done so, secure a copy at once and read it. You will find this a splendid book to give a friend or neighbor, as the author deals with God's original purpose in creating the world, its destiny, also of its inhabitants.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to a book, "Outline Studies from the Testimonies," recently compiled by Prof. Clifton L. Taylor, head of the Bible department of the Alberta Academy. The book is highly recommended by a number of our leading brethren. Anyone desiring to secure a copy of this book should address your tract society. Price, one dollar, postpaid.

Dedication of Edendale Church

On Sabbath, May 17, the Edendale (Los Angeles) church-members were made to rejoice as their church building was dedicated free of debt. It was a beautiful day and many friends of the city were present to unite with them in the song of jubilee.

When the hour of service arrived, the church was well filled. A number of the older church-members were present. Memories of the past flashed through their minds as they now looked upon the building with its new coat of stain and its freshly tinted walls and ceiling. The church was tastily and profusely decorated with flowers which added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

All united in singing, "Come, we that love the Lord, and let our joys be known," after which an appropriate prayer was offered by Elder O. E. Jones. The chairman then gave a short history of the building of the church.

It was during the year 1911 that this church, under the leadership of its pastor, Elder J. W. Adams, was built. For some time prior to this, the Edendale company worshipped in the church school building. But as the congregation grew it sought new and better accommodations, which effort resulted in the present commodious place of worship.

Many were present who knew of the "ups and downs" in the story of this church from the first inception to the present. They had been faithful through it all and to-day are of good courage. Like Isaiah they have set their faces "like a flint" toward Zion.

The dedication of this church building free of debt was made possible through the sale of the church school lot for $700, and liberal donations to the amount of $310, totaling $1,010. Besides lifting the debt, new opera chairs have replaced the former seats, a new organ is installed, runners for the isles, and other needed things purchased, which adds to the convenience as well as the beauty of the building. All these have been paid for leaving a credit on the balance sheet of $110.00 A happy hour for this company! How appropriate the words of the Psalmist: "Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces. For my brethren and companion's sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee."

Elder J. W. Christian, president of the Pacific Union Conference, gave the dedicatory address, which was of a very practical nature. He based his sermon upon the words found in Psalms 122:1. All present expressed themselves as thankful for the truth which binds our hearts together, and to see the day when the Edendale church was dedicated free of debt. Appropriate music was rendered, which was enjoyed.

The services of the hour were closed by Brother David Odom, after the congregation joined in singing, "The church has one foundation, 'Tis Jesus Christ her Lord."

A New Minister

We are always interested when we hear that a new minister has come into our field. We want to meet him and become personally acquainted with him. We are anxious to hear the message he brings; and we delight in offering to him our services in a co-operative way for a larger and stronger work. This is exactly what we desire all of our people to do as far as this new minister may be of service in reaching the thousands of strangers at our door.

The new minister referred to is a Spanish magazine to be published quarterly by the Pacific Press Publishing Association in the interest of the many thousands speaking the Spanish language in the West and Southwest. For years our brethren have earnestly desired a medium of communication with the Spanish-speaking people that they might bring to them the message of truth for this time. Not only will this paper be welcomed by our Spanish-speaking people who we are sure will give it as wide a circulation among their relatives as possible, but our English-speaking people will especially welcome it. We who cannot speak Spanish, but who are constantly con-
