FROM THE FIELD

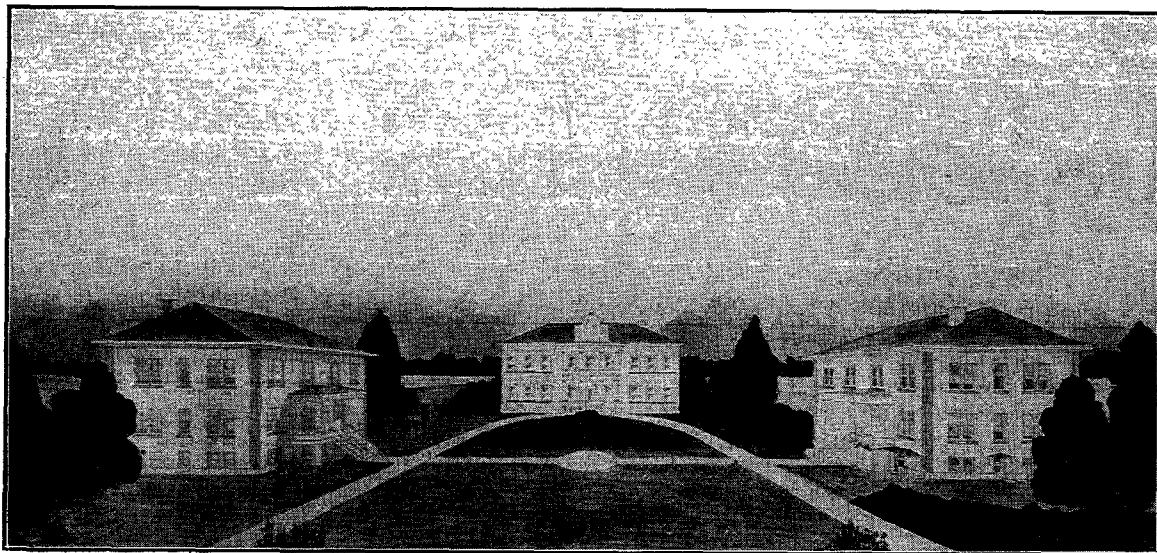

It was my privilege to spend a short time last week with the workers in the Arizona Conference. At the time of the camp meeting and annual conference session, the brethren voted to begin building on their new academy at once. Since then, our brethren have been busy getting things in shape to open their academy by the middle of September with as nearly finished buildings as time will permit.

$30,000. About $24,000 is already available and our brethren confidently expect that the response of the constituency in the conference, not yet visited, will make possible the full $30,000 to complete these two units.

The old church school building, consisting of three rooms, will be moved over on the academy grounds as a temporary measure. In this building the lower grades will be taught, while in the basement of the two ago to fully realize that which they felt would give stability to the work; but they have prevailed and to-day their dream is being realized. We confidently expect the constituency will appreciate what is being done and the young people of academic grades will attend their own school.

A new day has come to Arizona. A strong, active young ministry is being created and we expect to see a good, substantial growth in mem-

ARIZONA ACADEMY

Two units of the three unit plan, are now under construction. The girls' dormitory, consisting of two floors above the basement, is all enclosed, and the boys' dormitory is well under way. Prof. Chester Kellogg, formerly of the Lodi Academy, is master-builder, and with him are associated a number of well qualified builders. The estimated cost of these two units, furnished, is boys' dormitory temporary partitions may be placed that will give temporary chapel and class room facilities for the upper grades. That will be all that can be done this year, and indeed the constituency of the Arizona Conference is to be congratulated on so much accomplished in so short a time.

It seemed like an impossibility to the believers in Arizona a year or bership in this field. Arizona is in a position to do her share not only in the home land, but for foreign missions, and we have every reason to believe that no one will be disappointed from this quarter. Elder Sandborn and his associate workers have the confidence of the constituency and a spirit of loyal co-operation is very marked in their associations.

J. W. Christian.

HALF WAY

So far as our record on missions offerings for 1920 is concerned, it is made for the first half of the year, and the accompanying statement gives the results of each of our local conferences, also the union. To June 30 the amount of our quota was $169,364, of which we raised $137,155.40, leaving a shortage of $32,208.60. Our weekly average is forty and one-half cents. While this is very good, yet we are sure every one would much prefer that we had reached our goal. This, however, is indicative of what each one must do during the next six months, if we reach our full fifty cents per week. And we must not fail.

In this connection we desire to express to the brethren and sisters in the Pacific Union Conference, our appreciation for their liberality. This is tangible evidence of the interest our people have in our mission endeavors, for where our "treasures are, there will our hearts be also." Such a report will be an encouragement to relatives and friends who are devoting their life to obeying the command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

While our showing is very good, there is another phase of this with which we must reckon. Doubtless all have read the article in the current issue of the "Review," by Elder W. T. Knox, entitled, "A Call of Distress." What Elder Knox says in this article is so serious that every one should give immediate heed, that the situation may be bettered. As Elder Knox has so forcefully placed the matter before us, it is not necessary to repeat it here. If you have not read his article, do so at once and ask God to show you what He would have you do.

OPEN DOORS

Sister Ella Barr, of Riverside, has ably demonstrated that there is a wide field of usefulness right at our very doors if we have our eyes open to see it. Sister Barr has had, for some time, a burden to place the "Anti-Tobacco Annual Instructor" in the hands of the school boys in Riverside. Her experience in accomplishing her purpose is so interesting that I pass it on hoping it may encourage others to take up a similar work in their community. The following is a brief report of her work given in her own words:

"For several weeks I have been working on a plan to put the 'Anti-Tobacco Annual Instructor' into the hands of all the school boys of Riverside from eight years old up. I first called on the business men, physicians, ministers and city officials, inviting them to contribute toward furnishing these papers for the school boys, showing them the 'Annual' and explaining the ruinous effect of the cigarette especially upon growing boys, and telling them how extensively the habit was getting hold of our Riverside boys.

"I found the people very responsive to such an appeal—even men who are smokers themselves and others who have chewed the weed all their lives. So I was not long collecting money to pay for 1200 copies of the 'Annual' and have ordered more for which I am still soliciting.

"I called on our superintendent of city schools, asking to be allowed to have the papers passed out through the schools. At first he objected on the grounds that the sentiment of the paper was too strong against tobacco in that it condemned many good people, especially among the fathers of the boys who would carry them home. I assured him that 90 per cent. of the parents are in favor of the movement, including the fathers who smoke, many of whom I find to be the strongest advocates of the plan. He said he would like to meet the young man we had in mind to present the papers (Prof. Max Hill) so a meeting was arranged and he was soon fully won over and gave his consent to our plan. It was quite a concession on his part as he had said no publication was allowed to go through the schools in that way since they had once done so and found later they bore the teachings of 'Russellism' which was not apparent on the surface.

"The Girls' High School is also to be furnished with the Annual."

Sister Barr wrote a poem entitled "The Little White Slaver" which was published in the "Riverside Press." One man who read it sent her five dollars to help her in her good work. This poem appeared also in the June 8 issue of the "Youth's Instructor."

DURING VACATION WEEKS

Just before Professor M. E. Kern sailed for Europe this spring, he sent a message to the Missionary Volunteer Secretaries of North America suggesting that they give special attention to the work of encouraging our young people everywhere to make the very most of their Summer vacation. "The sale of literature during the vacation gives our young people a practical experience which is invaluable, and also has in it great possibilities for deepening the spiritual life."

These are true words, and it is certainly encouraging to learn that an unusual number of our young women throughout the country are taking up the magazine work this Summer, many of them having purposed to earn a scholarship in this way. A large number of young people have demonstrated that the plan is a success. Some who sold the "Signs Magazine" earned their scholarships in a surprisingly short time. The only requisites are a little grit, a willingness really to work for a few weeks, and a consecrated determination to succeed.

The profits now given on the single copies of the "Signs Magazine," and on the yearly subscriptions obtained, make it possible for young women to go from home to home and easily earn a scholarship. We will gladly place helps, sample copies, and easily learned canvasses in your hands free, and assist you in getting started. Here, then, is an opportunity. Don't let it slip by. Look at its advantages.—You earn a scholarship, have a profitable change of work, a part in carrying the message for the hour, a chance to study human nature, and get a business training; and you begin with so little capital—merely the price of enough magazines to start with. Write your Tract Society Secretary for particulars NOW—before you forget about it.

THE WINDOWS OF HEAVEN

"And He said also unto His disciples, there was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. And he called him and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward." The practice of Christian stewardship is one of the fine arts. To become skillful in this virtue requires persistent and painstaking endeavor, for it is more difficult to give than to gain. But he who practices a consecrated stewardship will have opened to him the "windows of heaven."

Many a man's money is standing between his soul and his Saviour. The bars which will keep many out of the kingdom of God and close the "windows of heaven" are made of silver and gold. The unfaithful steward may gain the whole world but lose his own soul.

Men have robbed God in tithes and offerings. He says to bring them into the storehouse and "Prove me now . . . if I will not open you the windows of heaven." There is no lack on God's part. The treasure rooms of glory are still flooded with rich gifts; the fountain and streams still overflow. The Lord is saying to us, "The lack is not on my side it is on yours. I am ready. Prove me now. Fulfill the conditions on your part."

When God's people set apart the tithe and offerings of the product of the fields, forests and shops, when the profits of factories and bank accounts, wages and salaries are all brought into the storehouse; the promised blessing such as there will not be room enough to contain will be poured out upon the church at home, and a new thrill of life and joy will be sent around this old world. The work will be finished quickly, and the Lord will come.

G. W. Wells.

OUR SPANISH NEIGHBORS

During the past few troubled years, thousands of these friends from across our southern border have found refuge with us. The June and July issues of our Spanish magazine, EL CENTINELA, are especially fitted for opening the hearts of these people. Such vital truths are considered as: Justification by Faith, Baptism, The Law and the Gospel, The Sabbath Question, Evolution, The Second Coming; also many others. If each literature worker who goes into Spanish sections will secure a few copies of EL CENTINELA, many of these hungry and needy souls can learn of the truths we love. Single copies, 15c; 5 to 40 of one issue, 8c each; 50 or more of one issue, 7c each. Subscription rates, $1.50 a year, 90c for six months. Order through your Tract Society.

FIELD TIDINGS

COLLEGE AND SUMMER SCHOOL

Brother John Arthur and John Newton are installing a set of sweet-toned Celesta Chimes for the organ. They have also transferred some stops from the north gallery to the main organ, thus improving the effect.

Prof. W. W. Ruble spent a few days with the teachers, getting acquainted, arranging for certification, and attending to other matters connected with the work that Professor Cady has carried so long. His Sabbath sermon was much appreciated.

The workshop has been improved by the addition of a universal woodworker, one machine that does the work of five in the making of doors and windows, cabinet work, and other such lines. This will be used by the woodworking classes.

Doctors Shryock and Risley and their families, accompanied by Doctor Canfield, all of Loma Linda, made a visit to the college. They have made a tour of the Yosemite Valley and included the college and the St. Helena Sanitarium in the trip.

The ground floor front basement of the college building is being fitted up for the Commercial Department next year. It is a fine large room, well lighted from the west, and conveniently situated. Two other classrooms in the same section of the building are also being prepared. The lath and the flooring lumber are from the college mill.

The nation's birthday was not passed by at Pacific Union College. Near the "Window Tree" a happy company spent the day. A patriotic program, games, and an old-time neighborhood picnic dinner filled the day for the summer students and the people of the community. Prof. H. G. Lucas gave the address of the day. The dinner was presided over by Mrs. Robbins, who is master of such ceremonies.

Brother Taylor and his helpers are busy making repairs and additions to the cottages and the school homes. Room is at a premium, and partitions and cupboards serve to make more rooms, if not more room. Brother Alfred Anderson, of Ukiah, who has purchased the Rine cottage, is assisting in the work.

SAN DIEGO CAMP MEETING

Arrangements have been made with the San Diego parks commissioners for the Southeastern California Conference to hold its annual camp meeting in the Exposition Grounds. All who visited the Exposition will recall how beautifully it was situated in Balboa Park. San Diego is placing at our disposal a very delightful location for our meeting.

Three of the Exposition buildings—the Industrial Hall, the Cafeteria and the Harvester Building—are included in the arrangement. These buildings have room enough for all meetings, offices, book stand and committee rooms besides a delightfully commodious cafeteria accommodation.

Surely the Lord has favored us with exceptional facilities for our camp meeting in the city of San Diego. It holds out to us a wonderful opportunity to lift the standard in that city. We must not fail to make this an extraordinary meeting.

From every part of the conference our people must come for this meeting. The success of the meeting depends upon you. Coming in the month of August it affords an opportunity to get into the refreshing climate of San Diego during the hottest part of the summer. All our people should put forth special effort to attend. August 12 to 22 is the date.

Where there is Peace, there is God.

CALIFORNIA CONFERENCE ASSN. OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS LEGAL MEETING

The twenty-fourth annual meeting of the California Conference Association of the Seventh-day Adventists will be held in connection with the regular forty-ninth, annual camp meeting of the California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists in Oakland, California, August 5 to 15, 1920, for the election of the board of seven trustees for the ensuing term and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. The first meeting will be called at 9:30 a. m. Monday, August 9, 1920.

G. W. Wells, President.

COME EARLY

I wish to make special mention of the published call appearing in the "Recorder" for our conference session. You will observe that the first session of the conference will be held Thursday evening, August 5, at 8:00 o'clock.

We urge all our churches to give this matter proper attention and be sure to have their delegates elected and the names sent to the conference office. We earnestly request all the delegates so far as it is possible to be present at the first meeting.

Thursday evening the conference will be organized, the delegates seated, the president's report rendered, and the standing committees appointed. This will be a very important meeting and no one will want to lose the inspiration and blessing that may be received from being present at this first session.

The times in which we live demand that much care and prayerful thought be given to our work. We fully expect that the sessions of the conference in connection with the camp meeting will not only be interesting and instructive, but spiritual as well. May we not expect God to speak to us by His Spirit as we together plan for the enlargement and steady advancement of the work that we all love?

The happy privileges of these annual gatherings will not be enjoyed many more years, and we should all take advantage of the present opportunities and plan to attend the camp meeting for the entire time.

G. W. Wells.

SPECIAL NOTICE REGARDING OAKLAND CAMP MEETING AND RAILROAD RATES

We have been advised by the railroads that we can secure reduced rates for return trips provided 100 receipts are secured on going trips where a fare of $1.00 or more is paid. This means that in order to get the reduced fare home there must be 100 people attend the camp meeting who have paid a fare of $1.00. For this reason we strongly urge that as many of our people come on the train as possible, and when purchasing tickets state that you are going to attend the annual Seventh-day Adventist camp meeting and secure a receipt for same, being particular that the purchase price is on the receipt. Sale dates on going trip will be August 2 to 15 inclusive, and on return trip August 5 to 17 inclusive. Reduced rates cannot be secured on return trip unless all of the above suggestions are complied with.

The first business meeting will to be held at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, August 5, 1920.

STOCKTON SCHOOL

After a year of hard work the Stockton church school closed June 4. The teachers, Misses Eva and Isabelle Wilson, of Lodi, though meeting with some difficult situations, did good work. Instead of a closing program, the school board furnished two freezers of ice cream, and with other patrons of the school went for a picnic, at which an old-fashioned spelling match was held.

It was necessary, when so many grades were spelling together, to adapt the words to the capacity of the spellers, and it was interesting to see the little folks handle the words they had been drilling on during the year; especially little Walter Blakemore, who stood up till the very last, and spelled correctly every word that came to him until he was given the word "rain" which was too much for him. We hope he will always be able to do as well, and we commend his teacher for the thorough work she has done with her little charges. Dottie Rose, of the seventh grade, and James Christianson, of the eighth, kept the floor till at last Dottie was given a word she had never seen nor heard before, and went down, leaving James the victor, whose reward was an extremely large dish of ice cream, to which he did full justice.

All were well pleased with the showing the school has made, both on this occasion, and in their final examinations, and realize credit is due, to a large degree, to the faithful work of the teachers. We are sorry to lose them, but they have planned to take up other work, in which we believe the Lord will bless them as He has in this.

Mrs. Nettie Rose, Secretary.

Did you tackle that trouble that came your way

With a resolute heart and cheerful?

Or hide your face from the light of day

With a craven soul and fearful?

O, a trouble's a ton, or a trouble's an ounce,

Or a trouble is what you make it! And it isn't the fact that you're hurt that counts,

But only, how did you take it?

NEWS ITEMS

Some one left an electric fan at our camp meeting. The owner should write the office concerning it.

Brother Wilbur Nelson, our young people's secretary, is helping Elder M. L. Rice in the meeting at Dos Palos.

Elder H. S. Shaw spoke in the Fresno church, Sabbath, July 3, on baptism. At the close of the sermon three persons were baptized and received into the church.

In a letter from Elder M. L. Rice, he states that their meeting at Dos Palos had begun, that the attendance thus far was good and they were encouraged over the prospects.

Elder George T. Vore and family left this conference July 6. They will visit relatives in the East and then Brother Vore will go on to his field of labor in Cuba.

Brother Guy Mann called at the office and reported that the interest at Laton was still good, and that their attendance had been increasing. There are from 100 to 150 in attendance each night.

GLENDALE CHURCH

For several years the Glendale church has been occupying a chapel much too small for its needs. Recently a campaign was undertaken to improve this condition with the result that the church building was moved to a new location and enlarged to accommodate an audience of 900.

Our new church home is well liked by our people and is considered by the public as an improvement to the city. The total amount of money raised for this building and for the improvement of our intermediate school in Glendale was almost $18,000. Before the dedication of the church all bills were paid. The total value of our church and school property in Glendale since this investment is approximately $33,000. While our facilities are none too large, we are thankful that we can now accommodate our rapidly growing audience and Sabbath school, and that justice can be done in the education of more than 100 students attending our school.

AUGUST SIGNS MAGAZINE

The cover of the Signs Magazine for August tells the story of our day, the lure of the big city with its gay life enticing the country boy away from God's great outdoors. More than one editor compares our time to that of Rome when the people deserted agriculture and flocked to the cities where idleness and wickedness and degeneracy grew apace. Apropos to the cover message we have two articles:

The Country, The Poor Man's Salvation, by Ellen G. White.

This Jazz Generation, by the Editor of the Dearborn Independent.

Beside these the Magazine contains thirteen other articles, which make a well balanced and varied menu for the reader.

The Signs Magazine is finding its way into more offices and homes this summer than ever before, and the words of appreciation that come from its readers assure the publishers that it is A Magazine With A Message, and that the message so dear to the heart of every Seventh-day Adventist is finding lodgment in the hearts of thousands through the mediumship of this periodical.

SIGNS WEEKLY BACK NUMBERS

Frequent requests come to us for left-over copies of the "Signs" weekly to use in missionary work. As nearly as possible, we print just enough to supply the regular mailing list, but now have a few thousand back numbers on hand, all of 1920 issues. These are just as good for missionary work as the day they were printed. Prices are as follows:

100 copies.....$1.00
1000 copies..... 7.50

These are postpaid prices, and just barely enough to pay for paper stock. Signs of the Times, Mountain View, Calif.

You may have heard of the "Broken Stone" mission, the story of the Indian chief with whom Brother F. A. Stahl, medical missionary among the Incas in South America, broke a pebble, promising to send a missionary later, carrying half of the stone he took. After three years this promise was fulfilled, and now on a visit to this remote region of the Andes Mountains you would find more than two hundred members of a Seventh-day Adventist church, with two mission schools in operation.

This is only one of the hundreds of interesting incidents given by Brother Stahl in his new book, "In the Land of the Incas." No more thrilling recital has ever been given of how that more than fifteen hundred people, once ignorant, superstitious, and enslaved, have been won to Christianity and to the cause of present truth. This new book tells of the once prosperous, well governed Inca Indian race; of Pizarro's conquest in 1531, after which priest rule and political robbery began, reducing these people to a state of ignorance, vice and degradation. Do not fail to gain the inspiration this wonderful missionary story has for you. Now ready at your tract society. Price $1.25 postpaid.

"Fellow-laborers in the great harvest field, we have but little time left in which to labor. Now is the most favorable opportunity we shall ever have, and how carefully ought every moment to be employed. So devoted was our Redeemer to the work of saving souls, that He even longed for his baptism of blood. The apostles caught the zeal of their Master, and firmly, steadily, zealously went forward to the accomplishment of their great work, fighting against principalities and powers, and spiritual wickedness in high places. We are living in a time when even greater earnestness is needed than in the apostles' day."

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Brother W. C. Raley returned from the Paradise Valley Sanitarium the first of the week, where he was auditing the books.

Elder W. F. Martin returned to Glendale, Friday of last week. He has been attending camp meetings in the Northern Union Conference.

Brother W. K. Nary, of Loma Linda, called at the union office last Sunday. He spent a couple of days in Los Angeles visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Violet R. Bell returned to the office recently after a pleasant vacation. She accompanied her mother to Wisconsin for a visit with relatives and friends.

Our fifty-cent-a-week fund figures for the six months, ending June 30, are most encouraging. Be sure to look at the statement as it appears elsewhere in this issue.

Elder Meade MacGuire, field secretary of the General Conference missionary volunteer department, is spending a few days at the Glendale Sanitarium in the interests of the young people's work.

Elder J. Adams Stevens is attending the General Conference home missionary convention in Denver, Colorado. Two or three of the home missionary secretaries of the local conferences in this union are also in attendance.

Friday, July 9, Mrs. W. W. Ruble, wife of Prof. W. W. Ruble, our educational and missionary volunteer secretary, submitted to a heavy operation at the Glendale Sanitarium. At this date she is doing nicely and we trust will continue to do so.

Monday, July 5, the Pacific Union Conference office people, with their families, went for an outing. All our departmental secretaries happened to be in just at that time, but the next day were again scattered. This was our "Fourth of July celebration," a picnic, the first we ever held, and a farewell for Brother and Sister Coffin.

Brother D. E. Robinson, a member of the editorial staff of the "Watchman" magazine, called at the union office one day last week. He was on his way to St. Helena, where he expects to spend some time assisting Elder W. C. White in compilation work.

Last Monday, Brother F. E. Painter underwent an operation at the Glendale Sanitarium. Brother Painter regretted greatly to be compelled to do this just at this time, when such a large number are in the field canvassing, and he felt he should be assisting them, but the advice of our medical men was that it should not be delayed. Let us all pray that God will give our brother a speedy recovery.

Word has just been received that Professor and Mrs. M. E. Cady have left for their new field of labor. Professor Cady is answering a very urgent call from the Columbia Union Conference to take the educational work in that union. From the strong work along educational lines he did in the Pacific Union, we are certain the Columbia Union is very fortunate in securing his services. The "Recorder" readers wish both Professor and Mrs. Cady success in their new field.

Sabbath afternoon, July 10, the dedicatory exercises of the Glendale Seventh-day Adventist church were held. It was indeed a most solemn and impressive occasion. Brother I. A. Ford, one of the church elders, read the scripture lesson; Elder G. W. Reaser gave a brief history of the building project, cost, time of construction, etc.; Elder J. W. Christian gave the dedicatory sermon, in which he set forth the purpose of the church, also its mission. Elder J. O. Corliss offered the dedicatory prayer.

Four medical evangelists from the College of Medical Evangelists at Loma Linda, Norman Brayshaw and wife and Brother Fred Miller and wife, left Southern California recently for foreign fields. Brother and Sister Brayshaw have gone to connect with our work in Nicaragua, and Brother and Sister Miller left for Havana, Cuba.

There came to our office last week a copy of the first announcement of the Arizona Academy. From the cut, which appears elsewhere in this paper, Arizona is very fortunate in securing such an up-to-date school plant. This will be a great factor in strengthening the work in Arizona. The brethren are pushing their buildings to completion as rapidly as possible, and plan to have everything in readiness by the time school opens.

Brother and Sister F. A. Coffin, with their little son, Clarence, left Glendale last Monday evening for Washington, D. C., where Brother Coffin will connect with the editorial staff of the "Review and Herald." They went via Portland, Ore., where they will visit relatives and friends for a time, reaching their destination about the middle of August. Brother Coffin has been connected with the Pacific Union Conference office for a number of years. He has ably filled the office of publicity secretary of the union, and through his efforts thousands of articles, regarding our work, points of doctrine and other topics of moment, have appeared in the daily and weekly newspapers throughout the states of California, Arizona, Nevada and Utah. While we regret to have Brother Coffin leave us, we will hope to hear from him through the columns of the "Review" and our good wishes accompany both him and Sister Coffin in their new and larger responsibilities.
