The Land-Dyaks Are Coming

All my life I have been fascinated by the word "Borneo." I had longed in my fancy to live in Borneo. That childish dream has materialized. Here we are, missionaries in Borneo.

As if to hurry on the completion of the proclamation of the third angel in all the world, Borneo has just begun its ingathering of souls. There is joy in the jungles around the Sadong River, real joy. The villages ring with joy and gladness and the voice of singing. Twelve villages of long-houses have learned the Advent hymn:

"Lift up the trumpet, Loud let it ring, Jesus is coming again."

There is a particular reason why there is great rejoicing in the jungles among Seventh-day Adventists. Five precious souls from this tribe have recently been baptized, ready to be presented to King Jesus when He comes. These added to two baptized formerly give us seven souls from among the Land-Dyaks. Three years of arduous work have made possible this result. These have been years of actual combat with the prince of darkness, who has held these primitive folk all these centuries in awful fear of his visitations. At last his shackles are being broken.

No longer will the men in the rice fields leave their work unfinished when a certain bird flies over it; no longer will there be need of bringing sacrificial offerings of food to the cocoanut tree to appease the wrath of one who is conquered; no longer will there be head-hunting and drunken brawls within certain long-houses. Their long swords, their daggers, their wooden pouches for betel-nut with its little tin case for lime may now be thrown into the Borneo rivers forever.

Pioneering had to be done here. Our entry into Sarawak is of very recent date, and the pioneering is still in process of taking place. We feel that Pastor Albert Munson was our pioneer among the Land-Dyaks, as he cleared jungle and helped to build the school house for the Ayer Manis school at the 37th mile on the Simanggang Road out from the capital. There are difficulties to overcome. The most virulent type of malaria exists. The soil is full of hookworm. And yet, in spite of it all, God has blessed us with a splendid year, its very first, at the Ayer Manis station. We planted and ate a good crop of Dyak rice, which is not polished and extremely healthful. We had sweet potatoes, sago, beans, greens, and incomparable tropical fruit. The health of our 20 boys and two missionary families has been precious in the sight of the Lord. These 20 boys are picked boys. They are the sons of the village chiefs, who help their boys to become Christians. When they permit the boys to attend the school and live at the dormitory it is understood that these boys will never again be pagans. Wonderful favor that God has given us with these people!

The people of the villages know that God is with us. They know that when they needed rain early this year, God heard the Adventist prayers; they know that time when a little girl was dying, that the missionary prayed and she was about in two days; they know that time when the chief's wife in Rayang screamed out with a jumping toothache, that the medicine plus the blessing of Jesus Christ can cure their illnesses; and they know that the words of a chief to "Dr." Pohan recently expresses the sentiment of thousands of Land-Dyaks when he pleaded, so reminiscent of Bible days, "if you will only pray my wife will be healed."

Death of Elder M. C. Wilcox

We have received word that Elder M. C. Wilcox passed away Tuesday, September 17. He had been ill for some time and his death was not unexpected. Funeral services were held Sabbath afternoon in Mountain View, which was his home for many years.

The Recorder extends deepest sympathy to Sister Wilcox and other members of the family.

League of Evangelism

Last week we outlined the plan for the League of Evangelism and gave the study and work plan for the first year, or Class I.

Following is the outline for Class II:

PHYSICAL:
1. Obtain a General Conference home hygiene or practical nursing credit. (See Junior Handbook.)

SOCIAL:
Plan, in counsel with the M. V. executive committee, and lead in indoor and outdoor social events.

MENTAL:
1. "Missionary Volunteers and Their Work," (Chapters 1-20), by the General Conference M. V. department.
2. "Messages to Young People," by Ellen G. White, cloth $2.00, paper, $1.25.
3. Obtain a certificate for a second current Senior M. V. Reading Course.

SPIRITUAL:
1. Observe the Morning Watch.
2. Read the Bible through the second time, observing one of the color threads suggested in M. V. Leaflet 18, Bible Study.

SERVICE:
1. Lead out in at least one of the M. V. band or group endeavors listed in Class I.
3. Give a series of 20 sermons in an evangelistic effort, or 20 Bible readings, or engage in five weeks of colporteuer evangelism, or medical ministry in connection with an evangelistic effort.

Next week we shall list the elective projects.

Note: All books may be ordered from your Book and Bible House.

Special Prices

The value of the writings of the Spirit of Prophecy is too well known to need comment. Every home should have the valuable books that contain so much light for these troublous times.

How fortunate it is that special discounts are being given during the month of September. A complete set of the Testimonies, nine volumes, may be obtained for one-fourth less than the regular price. The $12.00 cloth set will cost $9.00, and the $16.00 limp set will sell for $12.00. The Conflict series, "Patriarchs and Prophets," "Prophets and Kings," "The Desire of Ages," "Acts of the Apostles," and "Great Controversy," may be obtained at the same discount, the cloth set costing $8.45, and the limp set $12.20. The Index is now obtainable for $2.80.

These special prices will end September 30. Also, they are obtainable by a very special arrangement and may not be repeated. Rising costs of printing make it seem unlikely that such a discount can again be offered.

Marching On

We are surely marching along well toward our conference goal of $4,500, with $3,059.88 reported on September 14. The thrill of finishing is just ahead. Only a little over $1,400 to raise. With every member raising a dollar a week during the next two weeks, the job will be done. What a privilege it will be to pray, when we have finished again, "I have finished the work Thou gavest me to do." Only those who actually have a part in the work can participate in such a prayer. May every member in our conference be able to say, with Paul, "I have finished my course."

The following letter came in our mail recently:

"I am interested in your little Bible literature and am anxious to read more, your representative was here and left me a copy of 'The Hope of the World' and I would like to read more. Please send me particulars and prices."

"Yours respectfully."

Let us leave our ingathering tract in every home that many such requests may come.

"If you get your goal, and I get mine, soon every church and our conference will be in the 'Over' line."

A. B. HUNERGARDT.
One Thousand Souls Won
Where were these one thousand souls won to Christ and this message? In the country called the Gibraltar of heathenism. According to late statistics 6,824 persons in every 10,000 in that country are adherents to the Hindu religion. One of the most difficult fields in the world, yet it must hear the message for this time. Our colporteurs began to pioneer the way in this field in 1893 and we worked for 20 long years before we had the first one thousand believers, but at the end of 1934 we had 303 Sabbath schools with a membership of 10,000. But now listen, during the last two years we actually added to the church in that difficult field one thousand members and the prospects are that the Lord will do a still greater work in the near future. What field is this? Southern Asia. During this quarter we have heard about this country every Sabbath. We have heard about its needs and the great opportunities before us to win many souls. Now shall we not remember Southern Asia in a very special way with a very liberal offering on the thirteenth Sabbath?

David Voth.

Current Happenings
Brother Spillman writes, "The Tabernacle church of San Francisco is still forging ahead. The second week of the campaign finds us with $900. We have 18 members who have raised their $10.00 goal, and 15 members called Minute Men. We are determined to go over the top within our allotted seven weeks. One of our Russian brethren who has not felt capable before of soliciting, already has solicited over $20.00 and his wife has the same amount. We are well organized and the church is consecrated to the task. Any church with courage, work and a lot of prayer is bound to succeed. . . . We praise the Lord and give Him the glory."

Elder Haynes is visiting the churches, holding meetings with them and assisting them in their Harvest Ingathering field work. He has visited Turlock, Fresno, Bakersfield and other churches.

Brother Kent is in the field assisting the colporteurs in taking orders and in delivering books. "The Lord is blessing this branch of the work."

Elder Voth has assisted in soliciting in Gustine, Newman and Livingston.

Brother Wickman writes, "Brother Hughes and I were out just a little over one hour and a half this afternoon and collected about $25.00, and we are going out again tomorrow morning. . . . Our singing band started two weeks ago. The band is doing real well. . . . I might mention something interesting regarding our work preparatory to Harvest Ingathering in one of the cities. We well remember the difficulty we had last year, and how we dreaded the prospects for this year. A few days before we started to launch the campaign I asked the traffic chief of the police system regarding the possibilities of putting out our program and he told me it would destroy the reputation of our work so I came back to this town with the church system. . . . As you might know, we encouraged us and I thanked God in my heart for helping us in breaking down the fortress of the enemy. I asked about the singing band as they had stopped us two years ago, and he urged us to go right ahead as the community would enjoy the singing."

We are anxious to get a Harvest Ingathering report from every church in our conference every week. No matter whether the amount solicited is small or large, we like to have your report.

With the help of Elder J. D. Haynes and Elder H. G. Thompson, the Coalinga company of believers have almost reached their Harvest Ingathering goal. The Coalinga church has recently had its interior remodelled and painted.

Word comes from Elder Folkenberg that Elder Oswald, Union Conference home missionary secretary, was assisting him in soliciting among the business men in Fresno for several days. Brother Oswald also spent the Sabbath in Fresno. We appreciate this help. The Fresno singing band is doing real well. They are getting from $14.00 to $17.00 a night.

Members of the various churches of Kings County came together in a union meeting at the Armona church on Sabbath, September 14. Elder Emanuel Remsen, Union field missionary secretary, was present to give a stirring appeal to our people on behalf of the colporteur work. Several prospective book workers signed cards signifying their interest.

Brother Porter is kept busy visiting our schools that are just opening, finding teachers, and so forth. The prospects are that we will have more church schools than in any previous year.

Elder Copeland has been away several days with Elder Nozaki soliciting among the Japanese.

Bakersfield, Shafter District
Elder J. D. Haynes assisted Elder J. H. N. Tindall in the promotion of Harvest Ingathering in the Kern County district on Sabbath, September 14. Elder Haynes had the morning service at Bakersfield. In the afternoon a rally for the district was held in the Shafter German church. At this meeting three persons pledged to support the world-wide mission program for five minutes each, at $11.08 per minute. Approximately 80 persons pledged themselves as Minute Men for $11.08 each.

To All Members of Churches in the Southern California Conference
Beloved Brethren:
Never in the history of this world have God's people had such indisputable evidence that the end of all things is at hand as they now have. It just seems that this whole earth vibrates with the mighty trend of momentous events which are hastening the great day of God. Surely, we are on the verge of the eternal world, and but little times remains in which to finish the work. We have undoubtedly arrived at that time when we are to "arise and make a rush for the kingdom."

Times have certainly been hard. At the present time there seems to be just a little financial easement, but still we do not have funds to advance the work as rapidly as we desire. We do not have funds to purchase all the literature we should to freely distribute to our neigh-of the work we have to do, we shall make is not that we should abandon our work and rush away on some journey. No, it rather means that in our work, that is, in the very performance of the work we have to do, we shall make the rush spoken of. We are to take advantage of every opportunity and utilize every possible facility to the fullest extent, and we are to be as expeditious as possible about this.

It occurred to the writer that if every Seventh-day Adventist family would immediately and thoroughly search shelves, magazine and paper racks, the attics and garages, and book shelves, many hundreds of thousands of tracts, papers, and magazines and books containing the third angel's message would be found stored away. Therefore, we wish to earnestly suggest that every Seventh-day Adventist family search out all this literature that has been laid by. Old copies of the Signs, Watchman, Review and Herald, Sabbath School Worker, Sabbath School Quarterly, Little Friend, Health, and Life and Health and other of our papers can be utilized.

We wish to earnestly suggest that each person who reads this article will immediately set about gathering together all this literature in the home, and that each family will put forth the necessary effort to see to it that it is quickly scattered in places where our literature has not been so thoroughly and systematically distributed. Doubtless scores of tons of these publications are now lying idle and unused, and unless they are utilized as above suggested, they may even find their way eventually into the junk yard. I believe the Lord will be pleased if we immediately utilize every scrap of paper containing this truth, to the very best advantage. "This literature may be old and out of date, but it contains the truth of God. It was written and published for the purpose of spreading this truth; it was never intended that it should lie on our shelves or in the attic. Let us employ this unused literature to, in a measure at least, fulfill the instruction we have that our publications should be scattered like the leaves of autumn before it is forever too late. The judgment day must not find this literature on our shelves. We pray that every Seventh-day Adventist home may quickly be cleared of these unused books and papers that the world may have the advantage of their message while mercy lingers a little space."

Mexican Effort in the City of Redlands

We have just completed the second week of a series of meetings for the Mexicans of Redlands and vicinity. Services are held every night, with the exception of Saturday night. An average of about 100 are in attendance each night, and we thank the Lord that those that do come, come regularly.

Brother C. A. Robaina, pastor of the Mexican church in Calexico, is associated with the writer in this effort. Dr. E. E. Pohle, of Loma Linda, is also giving us help from time to time. In two clinics held to date he has treated fourteen persons.

Believing what is heard is better fixed in the mind if it is also seen, we are using stereopticon slides with each lecture. Also as an added attraction we are employing motion pictures of educational films.

We indeed count it a pleasure to be able to hold these meetings in Redlands, as it has been a number of years since an effort was held in this section for the Mexican people, and we look for a goodly number of precious souls to be added to the Redlands Mexican company as a result of this effort.

We ask for the prayers of the brethren in our other churches that God’s Spirit may be allowed to enter the hearts of the unconverted, making them new creatures in Christ Jesus. E. R. JOHNSON.

Arizona Academy

The Arizona Academy opened September 9 with a good enrollment in the academy and the grade school. The dormitories are filling up rapidly, and as there are twice as many boys as were here last year, the attic of their dormitory is being remodeled to accommodate them.

New students are still arriving, and we are expecting a larger enrollment than last year, with even more successful efforts in studies and religious activities.

If you have been planning to attend this Christian school but have not yet made your arrangements, your application will still be welcomed.

We are expecting the blessing of God on the year’s work in this Christian institution, and earnestly desire the prayers of our friends in the Pacific Union Conference.

FLASH 9 "LETTER" 9 "MYSTERY"

The past week has had the good news that four of our churches had reached their goals. On Sunday night, Vallejo received over the telephone that it had passed the $600 mark, which was the goal suggested for the present year. We feel that the members of the Vallejo church need to be congratulated on this achievement. A reference to last year’s records indicates that Vallejo raised only $729.99 to the end of 1934.

The second church reporting did so on Sunday morning, through a telegram. The message read: “Redding over the top, and still going strong.” Isn’t that a splendid spirit to show at such a time as this? “Going strong” although the goal has been reached.

Monday morning brought the good tidings from Smith River. The treasurer’s weekly card bore this short note: “Over the top and still going.” May the Lord bless the members at Smith River as they keep on working for a good overflow.

The mail on Tuesday morning conveyed the good news that the little Santa Rosa Italian church, one of our newest churches, had reached its small goal of $50. We shall expectantly watch the reports each week for the good news of the churches which go over.

The 1936 General Conference

This will be the last Harvest Ingathering campaign before the General Conference which will convene in San Francisco next year. At this great gathering of God’s people momentous decisions will be made relative to our mission program. In no small measure this Conference will be guided in its policies by the returns from the churches during this Harvest Ingathering campaign.

What shall be our word, members of the Northern California Conference—advance or retreat?

VICTORY DAY—OCTOBER 12

Let every church and every member bear in mind that Victory Day has been appointed for October 12. Many of our churches have now reached the halfway mark. The full goal, with God’s blessing, in the majority of cases, is well within reach for that day. Let us all plan to raise our individual goals and to put our churches over on Victory Day.

INTERESTED BEING FOUND

Home Bible Study League requests and reports from several places indicate that the present campaign is truly serving God’s purpose in finding interested souls. Just this morning in giving his contribution, an interested business man turned over the subscription price of a Watchman, making this statement: “I do like this magazine. I wonder if I can get it continually?” He is being followed up. Let us all search diligently for perishing souls.

THE DIVINE PROMISE

“Consecrate yourselves wholly to the work of God. He is your strength, and He will be at your right hand, helping you to carry on His merciful designs. . . . Those who are impressed to enter the work. . . . are to go forward in the name of the Lord. If they depend on God for grace and strength they will succeed. . . . In this work all the angels of heaven are ready to cooperate. All the resources of heaven are at the command of those who are seeking to save the lost. . . . "Workers for Christ are never to think, much less to speak, of failure in their work. The Lord is our sufficiency in all things."”—Christian Service,” pp. 258-261.

C. J. RITCHIE.

"Let us remember that a Christ-like life is the most powerful argument that can be advanced in favor of Christianity, and that a cheap Christian character works more harm in the world than the character of a worldlying.”—Vol. 9, p. 21.
Newsgrams

It is estimated that over a thousand persons were turned away from the doors of the Oakland Woman's City Club Theater, at the opening night of Elder West's effort, September 15. His unique method of portraying Christ, as found throughout the Bible, held the deep interest of all. It is planned to hold two meetings next Sunday night, one at 6 p.m. and one at 8 p.m. to accommodate the crowds who wish to hear Elder West.

Miss Bessie Crane, our conference nurse, is in the midst of her school inspection work. This week she is completing the work at the Golden Gate Academy and grade school.

The Bible House has just received a stock of 1936 Morning Watch Calendars. The price is same as last year, 5 cents for the plain, and 15 cents for the deluxe. You will want one of the new 1936 wall calendars, price 25 cents.

Just a suggestion: when mailing in orders, do not forget to include the state sales tax of 3 cents. Tax must be paid on periodicals coming into the state as well as those published in the state.

Our Schools

The educational outlook in the Northern California Conference is good this year. All our schools are now open. We are glad to announce new schools at Galt, Woodland, Grass Valley, and Fairfield.

Stockton is proud of its completed new two-teacher school. Yuba City has reopened its school, after being closed last year. Our Redwood Creek school in Humboldt County is beginning its second year with county support. Sebastopol reports an overflow enrollment.

The shortage of teachers, especially women teachers, has been seriously felt. It is the greatest shortage the denomination has ever known. This is partly due to the fact that schools that were closed during depression years are being opened again, and new schools are being started. Our people are becoming more and more conscious of the needs and advantages of Christian education.

There are still many children that should be gathered in. We appeal to workers and church leaders to put forth special effort to gather these during the next few weeks.

Remember, "There is no more important work than the education of our youth." A. C. Nelson.

PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE

Reported by Students of Journalism

Students Active in Religious Phases of College Life

Consecration service Friday evening, September 13, the first Sabbath service at 11 o'clock, organization of prayer bands and the Missionary Volunteer society were some of the religious activities of the opening week.

At the first Friday evening consecration service over 200 young people expressed their appreciation in being at P. U. C. and determined to make this year count.

Sabbath morning, President W. I. Smith in his sermon, encouraged all to make this school year the best not only in scholastic endeavor but also in spiritual attainment.

College Board to Consider Items

Three matters of business that will come before the College Board at its next session, October 7, are: the giving of some recognition to the new building and commending what has been accomplished, accepting the request for remodeling plans for renovations in the chapel, and the submitting of a budget for the building of a swimming pool.

A restudy of the fundamentals of Christian education, and the ways and means by which to adhere more closely to the blueprint for Seventh-day Adventist educational institutions will be given by a joint meeting of the Board and faculty for three days, October 4-6. Educational secretaries will also join the group which may be the first of several such meetings to be held at the various denominational colleges.

"Bay Bridges" Lecture Coming

"Bay Bridges," a stereopticon lecture, will be presented by Mr. Hugh Sutherland, authority on bridges, Saturday evening, October 5, in the college chapel.

Attendance Campaign Successful

The student campaign, started as school closed last May, with a goal of 110 per cent enrollment for 1935-36, ended last Friday with a number of the campaign groups well over the 150 per cent mark. Enthusiasm ran high as each band vied for first place. The notable increase in enrollment and the successful completion of the campaign gives the Associated Students of P. U. C., with Milton Lee as president, a good start toward a successful year.

Enrollment Tops Five Hundred

Coming from near and far, more than 500 students, the largest enrollment in the history of Pacific Union College during the first month, have enrolled in classes for this year.

The school homes report crowded conditions, with many students obtaining lodging in the village. Dean Minnie Dauphinee states that the apartment in the Home Economics building has been remodeled to house ten women. The medical offices and sewing equipment have been moved from West hall to provide more room for men. Wentzel Cowper, assistant dean, has charge of this group.

Classroom Unit Nears Completion

Classes, it is expected, will occupy permanent rooms within a week, as the first floor of the new classroom unit nears completion. The roofing is completed and the second floor is well under way. Carpentry is finishing rapidly to finish their work within a month. When the building is finished the entire Irwin hall will be stuccoed.

Bus Brings Students Up Mountain

The Angwin Limited is accomplishing another purpose. With William Miller as driver, thirty students come from the Sanitarium to attend classes at P. U. C. It seems that the bus is overcrowded, but everyone appears to be satisfied.

Academy Serves Seventy Students

Seventy students are under the direction of Principal R. B. Lewis in the Academy. On the teaching staff are: Miss Alice Babcock, English and history; Prof. Donovan Courville, science; Mrs. Lucy Taylor-Whitney, Spanish; and Principal Lewis, Bible and mathematics.

Dr. McReynolds Encourages Health

Dealing with various phases of health, condemning eating between meals and stressing the necessity of a correct appetite, Dr. Mary McReynolds began her series of yearly chapel talks, Monday, September 16.

College Clubs to Organize Friday

Most of the college students will join one of the clubs which will organize next Friday. The Speech Forum, Language, Commercial, Biology and Stamp clubs will be organized to meet once a month during the chapel period.

Harvest Ingathering for S. D. A. Missions

An Added Stimulus

When one thinks of the fine amount of good which has been accomplished through the medium of our Harvest Ingathering work since the inception of this plan, it fills the heart of every Seventh-day Adventist with joy. The over $16,000,000 raised has resulted in untold opportunities in all parts of the world for presenting the truth which we all hold so dear. This fact should make us do our best again this year, 1935, to raise the amount the General Conference is asking for, yea, under the blessing of God to go far beyond it.

However, when one thinks of the chaotic and troubled condition of the world today and of the potentialities for serious trouble among the nations and the soon ushering in of the Armageddon, foretold in the Revelation, he should feel an added stimulus to finish the work and cut it short in righteousness. We shall not, if present signs do not fail, have many more opportunities to engage in this glorious campaign for foreign mission money. Days, weeks, and months are precious, for we know not what an hour will bring forth. Probation is at the offing and the curtain will soon come down. It will be too bad if we have been derelict in our duty and sacred obligations.

Cooperation is a valuable asset in the world today. Without it no worthy enterprise can possibly succeed. In this Harvest Ingathering campaign it is not so much what we individually receive that is going to count as that we all together do our part—North, South, East, and West, in California, Nevada, Arizona, and throughout the states of our country—to put this over. When we think too of the spiritual blessings we will give the people through their reading of the paper and also of the blessings that we ourselves will receive individually, we must decide that it is a very worthwhile endeavor.

WILLIAM G. WIRTH.
