The C.M.E. Offering

All know of the fine College of Medical Evangelists established among us, and of its various schools for the training of our youth for useful service in the cause of God. However, we doubt if all are acquainted with the various activities of the college, and the plans for the future.

It pleases the writer to be able to say that as he has watched the progress made along medical missionary lines at the college, he has seen great advancement along that line. It naturally was the intent of God that the work of this educational institution be a mighty factor in helping our youth catch a vision of the importance of becoming real medical missionaries, whether their field of service be at home or abroad. Christ has said, "Follow Me." We are therefore to do the things He did and teach the things He taught. It is this lofty ideal that has led your college to embark on several local mission projects that have proved very helpful to the student, especially as it has helped him catch the vision of service to mankind.

This type of program, combining the classroom activities with field work, is bringing great blessings to all at the college. Medical, dental, and nursing field activities are doing a great deal to help our youth catch a vision of what Christ meant when He said, "Follow Me."

Naturally, the ever-expanding needs of the college as it carries forward this program, along with research and other activities, requires extraordinary financial expenditure. Two hundred eighty-eight students from our Pacific Union attended C.M.E. this past school year. We must do everything possible to help them receive the training that God intends they should have, that they in turn may honor His name before men in being useful servants to His cause.

Sabbath, June 23, has been set apart by the General Conference as C.M.E.

Offering Day. Shall we not give liberally on that date, so that funds may be available to carry forward the training of real medical missionary workers from the various schools that form our college? Our youth need this training for service as never before.

May God bless your gift to our College of Medical Evangelists.

C. L. BAUER, President,
Pacific Union Conference.

Latest News From Brazil

Since last writing we have had a marvelous Week of Prayer at the Northeast Brazil Academy in the hills of Pernambuco. The school is overcrowded but happy, having 263 students. It was necessary to turn away 90 last February. During the Week of Prayer 40 joined the baptismal class. Many of these come from non-Adventist homes. Wish you could see them!

The "go-signal" to begin building will flash from hundreds of thousands of Sabbath school offering envelopes on June 30. (I can see there won't be room. You better use large baskets.)

Last week we were able to obtain a splendid location for a permanent evangelistic center in world-famous Copacabana, the most aristocratic suburb of Rio de Janeiro. If plans carry through, this project will also provide new quarters for our Voice of Prophecy offices and school. All our plans are tentative, of course, until "after June 30." This is the big date!

Dozens of letters of inquiry have come to us from many countries during this quarter, asking about our work and about our needs. This interest delights us. Most everyone writes to this effect: "This time we plan to do more than ever in the past on a Thirteenth Sabbath." You can imagine how such words thrill us. Watch for the reports. Somehow I feel it will be an all-time record. Thank you in advance and may God continue to bless every Sabbath school member everywhere.

In behalf of East Brazil, Thank You.

South American Youth Congress

For the first time, the Adventist youth of the South American Division will have the privilege of gathering in a Youth Congress July 17-22, 1956. The Quitandinha Hotel, one of the most famous in the Americas, is the place chosen for the meetings. It is not too far from Rio de Janeiro, a city of world fame because of its natural beauties. Close by is the well-known Sugar Loaf, Corcovado with its Christ on the top of the hill, Copacabana Beach, and Petropolis City. Rio is the Brazilian capital. Not too far from Rio is Sao Paulo, the capital of that prosperous state which holds the same name.

One of the most beautiful auditoriums around Rio de Janeiro is the one in the hotel. There are room facilities for 1,000 delegates in the hotel itself, and the rest of those attending will be located in the hotels in the city of Petropolis, about five-minutes' bus trip from the auditorium. You are invited to come to South America and at the same time attend the Youth Congress. Contact your local MV secretary or the General Conference MV department. If you plan to visit Brazil some day take this good chance on this special occasion, thus getting the benefits of the two things—the Congress, and the visit itself. It is good to have a special opportunity in which to associate with the Adventist young people representative of these various South American countries. We are very anxious to have the visit of many young folks from North America to join with the youth down in Rio in a big crusade of missionary endeavor for the Lord. We hope that such a gathering will be the turning point of a new day for aggressive missionary work led by the youth force of God's church in South America.

Here are some of the high lights of the six-day program: Congress hours, workshops, consecrated speakers presenting inspiring sermons, youth participation, panel discussion, special events, mission pageant, color, flags and pennants, souvenir envelopes, sightseeing, parades, and to close with a wonderful climax, the last day's program will be the South American Division's fortieth anniversary commemoration.

In commemorating the South American Division's fortieth anniversary, we are planning to take advantage of it to call on our young folks, that we might move forward the gospel cause, pressing to the mark of finishing the task: "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." We long that very soon all our duties will be fulfilled and the work of our great King will soon be finished with a great victory for His cause, and then when all shall come to an end, we shall pray no more "Thy kingdom come" because it will become a reality.

Dear young people from the great northern hemisphere, we heartily invite you to come down July 17 to 22, 1956, and please don't miss this golden opportunity.

Yosemite Nature Camp

By action of the Pacific Union Conference Committee and the courtesy of the Central California Conference, the Third Annual Yosemite Nature Camp will be held from August 16-19 at beautiful camp Wawona. This union-wide fellowship will be for Adventist youth from 15-35 years of age.

The average attendance during the two previous years has been around 200 youth.

In addition to the features which made the previous camps unforgettable, a youth counseling service will be conducted by experienced and professionally trained counselors.

The committee planning the 1956 camp includes R. W. Nelson, chairman; J. F. Dent, H. A. Lindsey, W. E. Galbreth, W. S. Lee, O. A. Troy, and Mrs. O. A. Troy.

Since accommodations are limited, make your application early. The camp fee of $7.50 includes meals, lodging, and accident and polio insurance. Write Yosemite Nature camp, Box 146, Glendale, California, for further information.

Attention, Draftees!

If you want to learn why you are noncombatants, if you would like to have the suggestive solutions to some of the problems which you may face in the service, if you would appreciate a review of the basic doctrines on which you will need information as you go into uniform, if you are interested in training which will teach you how to request Sabbath privileges, and if you are looking for a way to simplify the problem of being absent from basic training on Sabbath, take Medical Cadet Corps training.

Be present at Camp Desmond Doss at Grand Ledge, Michigan, June 26-July 10. Contact your conference War Service Commission secretary for particulars.

Pakistan Needs Workers

Copies of the Sabbath School Worker and other Sabbath school supplies sent to Mrs. M. G. Champion in West Pakistan are very much appreciated. Mrs. Champion would be glad to receive a continuous supply of the Worker, if the papers are current.

The Sabbath school lessons in that field are six months later than in the United States. So (for example) the April and May Worker mailed now would reach the mission in time to be sent out to the villages where help is so urgently needed. The need is great, and it is constant. Other Sabbath school supplies are equally welcome.

The address is: Mrs. M. G. Champion, P.O. Box 32, Lahore, West Pakistan.

Do You?

Do you receive more than one copy of the PACIFIC UNION RECORDER in your home? If so, we will appreciate being notified.

Just send a postal card to Pacific Union Recorder, Box 216, Angwin, Calif. Please give the names to which the RECORDER is addressed, and state the name to which the paper should be continued.

Thank you!

Mendocino Field Station

The Mendocino Biological Field Station at Albion is open for the summer session, with a score or more of students in attendance. The usual work for the summer quarter will be given, with field trips and ocean adventure to make it especially interesting.

Dr. D. V. Hemphill, now head of the P.U.C. biology department, with Prof. H. W. Clark, founder of the station and its director for many years, will lead in the instruction. During the last term they will be assisted by Ervil Clark, who has been invited to join the P.U.C. teaching staff, as an instructor in the biology department.

Mrs. H. W. Clark will again have charge of the kitchen and meal service.

Information regarding courses offered during the second and third terms, beginning July 8 and August 5 respectively, may be secured by addressing Prof. H. W. Clark, P.U.C. Biological Field Station, Albion, Calif.

Physics Department Moving

Rebuilding of the former college store to provide classrooms and facilities for the physics department is progressing and the move from Clark Hall will be made within a few days. This will release all of Clark Hall for the biology department.

The physics department will be well settled in its new location before the beginning of the second term of summer school, when the Institute for Secondary School Teachers of Physical Sciences and Mathematics will open. According to Dr. Ivan Neilsen, head of the department, this institute will be attended by teachers from many parts of the country.

From the Registrar

The number of students already accepted for the next school year at Pacific Union College is the largest at this date since 1951, Registrar Edwin Walter has announced. He predicts a large enrollment for 1956-57.

Summer sessions and workshops conducted for elementary teachers will also be largely attended, he says. The first term began June 11 and the second will open July 8. There will be a special workshop on materials for teachers in grades 7 and 8. There will also be a workshop conducted for teachers of one-teacher schools.

A. M. Greenfield, visiting professor from New York University, New York City, will offer special work for choir and instrumental music directors during the second term of the summer session. Courses offered are in choral interpretation and in conducting, both vocal and instrumental.

Medical-Ministerial Meetings Strengthen Gospel Team Ties

Two "firsts" took place in California recently. The Central California Conference had its first medical-ministerial meeting the week end of February 25-27; and the Southern California Conference held its first all-day medical-ministerial council for doctors and ministers on Sunday, April 8.

Elder D. E. Venden and his committee of the Central California Conference had given long-range publicity to the meeting which was held at Asilomar on the beautiful Monterey peninsula.

NOW HEAR THIS

I unhesitatingly urge all Seventh-day Adventist young men facing military service to avail themselves of the pre-induction training offered in Medical Cadet Corps by the church.

sula. Nearly four hundred were present. The carefully executed program, matched with the enthusiastic response of the ministers and doctors, resulted in an inspiring meeting.

The Southern California meeting was held at the 54th Street church in Los Angeles. Elder R. R. Bietz, conference president, Dr. Robert Brown, medical secretary, and a committee especially appointed to plan for the meeting had worked earnestly to make it a success and of practical worth. The excellent attendance and the spirited discussion of the topics presented signified this was a successful day.

By the many appreciative expressions of those in attendance at both meetings it was evident that further like gatherings are anticipated. The unity and determined purpose manifested by all toward strengthening the relationship between gospel worker and medical worker, to form a stronger ministry in the church, is most heartening. May God bless these two conferences as they move forward in fortifying these important ties between the medical and ministerial work.

And Now It Has Happened!

"Every night I prayed that God would work out everything according to His will, and now it has happened!" wrote a Faith for Today viewer a few minutes after a colporteur visited her home.

She had faithfully studied the Bible Course lessons and had determined to follow the right. Most earnestly did she pray that she might be guided into the truth.

Then came a knock at the door. A young man was selling Uncle Arthur's Bedtime Stories. When he learned that she was taking the Bible Course, he revealed that he was a Seventh-day Adventist.

"He told me that his father is an elder in the Adventist church near here which I can attend," she reported joyfully. "They will come and visit me. God has answered my prayers. He does work miracles."

The God who timed the colporteur's visit to answer the searcher's plea for guidance is working through every agency to accomplish His divine will.

Sabbath School at Yellowstone

If you are planning to visit Yellowstone National Park this summer and will be there over the Sabbath, you will be interested in knowing that a central meeting place has been appointed for all Adventists to meet for Sabbath school. The place will be the Recreation Hall at Old Faithful. The time will be at 9:30 a.m. This announcement is merely to give a mutual meeting place, the group meeting will arrange their own Sabbath school and service.

Radio-Active Chain Reaction

Someone was on the job. Someone casually mentioned the Voice of Prophecy broadcast one day to his neighbor. The neighbor responded and listened each week to the familiar music of the King's Heralds and the inspiring sermons by H. M. S. Richards heard weekly on the Voice of Prophecy program. The neighbor heard an advertisement of the Bible correspondence courses. He did nothing about it until an enrollment card appeared in the Signs of the Times. This he signed and mailed in. The young man took the Junior Bible Course as well as the Faith course. Sometime later a minister, in behalf of The Voice of Prophecy, called on this young man and influenced him to go to Canadian Union College. While at college, he sealed his covenant with God in baptism.

Harvey Helm

Today Harvey Helm has completed his college training and is actively engaged as a minister in the Ontario-Quebec Conference in Canada. As a result of his ministry, both in preparation and in active service, many more persons are rejoicing in this wonderful faith.

He writes us now that many of those baptized in his district are people who have enrolled in and completed the Faith Bible Course. He writes, "I always carry enrollment cards with me to enroll new students, for I believe it is one of the ways God plans to reach souls."

"The Blue-clad Men"

"The keys jangled, the lock clicked shut, and there we were inside the bars, looking out."

Each week these words could be repeated by at least three groups of Seventh-day Adventists in Southern California Conference. Saturday evening is a time when these people literally go to jail.

At Los Angeles City jail and at the County Honor Farm at Castaic groups of missionary-minded members from Hollywood, Eagle Rock, La Crescenta, Compton Avenue, and White Memorial churches regularly hold meetings for prisoners. Eagle Rock church alone provides the Honor Farm program while the four other churches rotate each week at the City Jail.

Here's an account of a typical Saturday evening meeting at Los Angeles City Jail: A guard unlocks the heavy door leading from the reception room of the jail to prisoners' cells and allows the church missionary band to pass through. The ominous clank of metal is the most conspicuous sound inside that heavy door. An elevator lifts the group to a long, narrow, between-the-cells meeting room where the evening service is to be held. Covering the bars at the front is a piece of rich-looking cloth, a cross, raised platform, and a piano. Into the room are squeezed 100 chairs. Every chair is filled with blue-clad men.

Perhaps it is because their freedom within the jail is so restricted that the men respond so enthusiastically to the song service. There is no hesitation when song selections are requested by the song leader. "Where We'll Never Grow Old," "Near the Cross," "The Old Rugged Cross," "In the Garden," . . . the requests roll out spontaneously. Everyone sings as though it is a rare privilege.

In the midst of the song service a young prisoner arises and sings a solo. As the words of the song pour forth on his deep bass voice, his fellow men follow each word in their songbooks. "Up from the grave He arose, With a mighty triumph o'er His foes . . . Hallelujah; Christ arose!"

Following the song service and special prayer, announcements are made and requests for visits by missionary band members to prisoners' families are arranged. Then the evening message is presented. Whatever the message, so long as it is Christ-centered, the men listen intently.

As the meeting adjourns, many of the men come forward to talk personally with the evening speaker and members of the missionary band. Their troubles, how they can obtain a Bible, what help can be given them once they are released from prison, all manner of questions come from their lips. Many come forward merely to express their appreciation for the service. From their lips, often unaccustomed to using the name of God save only for a curse, the words sound strange, the sentences labored.

Then the blue-clad men go to "lock-up" and the missionary band disperses into the blackness of the just-ended Sabbath day.

"I was in prison and ye came unto me. . . ."

Songs, Tracts, a Baptism

It was in the month of January last year we found him in the County General Hospital. One of his legs had been amputated and the other was receiving treatment to protect it from further infection.

It was there that he first heard the voices of the Sunshine Band of the Spanish-American church. The members of the band, all young people, sing and distribute Spanish and English tracts at the hospital each week. One of these Spanish papers was given to Mr. Baldenegro, who began to read it. He liked what he read and wrote to the publishers for more copies. The Pacific Press sent Mr. Baldenegro's letter to the Southern California Book and Bible

On Sabbath, May 12, in the Masonic Lodge of Canoga Park, Southern California Conference's 70th church, to be known as the Canoga Park church, was officially organized. In charge of the organizational meeting and speaker at the morning worship service was R. R. Bietz, conference president. Fred Golles has been appointed as pastor of the new church whose charter membership totaled 89 persons.

Also participating in the organizational services were Alvin G. Munson, secretary-treasurer, and Elder George W. Liscombe, home missionary secretary.

House so that they might send him the other tracts. They passed the letter to Elder R. R. Bietz, conference president, and he in turn sent the letter to Elder Samuel Weiss, pastor of the Los Angeles Spanish-American church. Elder Weiss gave the letter to his assistant pastor, Brother Fred Hernandez, who immediately visited Mr. Baldenegro and made arrangements to study the Bible with him.

After much diligent work from Brother Hernandez, Mr. Baldenegro was baptized on March 30, of this year and is now a faithful member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Clinic" and stressing the message that "If we would humble ourselves before God, and be kind and courteous and tender-hearted and pitiful, there would be one hundred conversions to the truth where now there is only one."—Vol. 9, p. 189.

This has been a blest occasion of heart-searching and decisions for Christ. The closing Sabbath of the Clinic was indeed a wonderful day. The Spirit of the Lord came very near and glorious victories were won. Nine precious souls followed their Lord in baptism, thus making a total of eighteen baptisms since the evangelistic series began. Bible studies are continuing, and others are expected to take their stand in the near future.

During their ministry with us the faithful labors of Brother and Sister Smith have been greatly appreciated. They have found a warm place in all our hearts; and as they leave to enter upon their new duties in Oceanside, our fervent prayers and best wishes go with them.

Paradise Valley Book Shop

Several weeks ago we mentioned in the RECORDER the progress of our new branch store for the San Diego area, the Paradise Valley Book Shop, 2808 E. 7th Street, National City. Now we are glad to advise our many members in this important part of our conference that this store is now open and a large stock of our own publications is available to you. We also have a good selection of sacred recordings for your Sabbath enjoyment.

Mrs. Lorraine Armstrong of National City is in charge and is more than anxious to serve you. We invite you to visit the store soon and become acquainted with Mrs. Armstrong and the many items which we are featuring. It is located next door to the Paradise Valley Sanitarium Grocery Market.

Camp meeting prices will be in effect in Southeastern from June 14 to July 15. All of the "specials" and also these special prices are available at the Paradise Valley Book Shop. You will want to come to the store because we will have some wonderful bargains this year.

Notes From Escondido

In the early autumn of last year, Brother and Sister Kenneth Smith of Palm Springs united their efforts with our pastor and his wife, Elder and Mrs. C. Mervyn Maxwell, to conduct a series of evangelistic meetings in the new Escondido church.

The local newspaper gave us good publicity, and the church members were active and loyal in their support. The attendance throughout was most gratifying, and the Bible truths of our message, being presented clearly and attractively, brought conviction to many hearts. Following the holidays the services for the public were held on Sunday nights only.

The spiritual and soul-winning objectives in the Signs and Ingathering campaigns were strongly emphasized, and the church goals were attained on the victory days previously appointed.

During the weeks of May 16 to 26, Elder and Mrs. Glenn Coon were with us conducting their "Positive Living

San Diego Union Academy Has Outstanding Year

San Diego Union Academy has finished an exciting and profitable school year. The enrollment has been 450 students, with 130 in the secondary school. The large orchestra with 45 members, and the band, 50 strong, both under the direction of Mr. Victor Johnson, have given fall and spring concerts, as well as playing in full or in ensembles for many occasions. The academy chorus of 95 members under the direction of Mrs. Lulu Pulliam, presented Haydn's "Creation" to a capacity audience the evening of May 13. This chorus and vocal solos, duets, trios, quartets have revelled in the beauty of song on occasions too numerous to mention.

Four students sent in articles to the Youth Instructor Pen League. Nancy Cain, senior, was awarded second prize in Class B, and Charlyn Smith, junior, received honorable mention in Class C6. Four students, Dean Roehl, Trevor Delafield, Carol Traylor, and Mack Brinegar, all juniors, had poems accepted for publication in the Annual High School Anthology for this school year. Enthusiasm runs high for both these fields for the coming school year. Four academy students were entered in the Bank of America Achievements Awards Program for 1956: Charles Edwards for the general field of science and mathematics; Charles Cheneweth for fine arts; Darlene Camp, liberal arts; Judy Sand, vocational arts. These four received neatly framed certificates of achievement for their respective fields. In addition, Charles Edwards was awarded a beautiful engraved cup trophy for outstanding work in grades 10 through 12. The basis of selection is scholastic attainment plus "qualities of leadership, tolerance, character, personality, regard for others, and a sense of civic responsibility."

Twenty-one students were graduated from the academy and thirty-six from grade eight.

A building program is on. Already a temporary chapel, later to be two classrooms, is fairly completed on the west end of the main building. This will permit the library to move out of the cafeteria building into its own quarters, which for the past two years has been used for a chapel. An adequate library workroom has been partitioned off and new library tables and book shelves installed. Two new units for the elementary grades are well under way. The coming school year will find ten classrooms and ten teachers for grades 1 to 8. Those wishing to have their boys and girls at home, but still privileged to attend a growing Christian school, beautiful for situation, will want to send them to San Diego Union Academy and elementary school. The plant is located near Paradise Valley Hospital, between the sea and the mountains, and on the outskirts of an industrialized area where work is plentiful and the climate excellent. Nine Seventh-day Adventist churches are located in the area, and seven buses, owned by the school, furnish transportation to the students.

Paradise Valley Sanitarium and Hospital

The Paradise Valley Sanitarium and Hospital has been enjoying much of the blessing of God during recent months. The patronage has been much larger than for a number of previous years. For some time the Sanitarium has been operating with a reasonable gain under the efficient leadership of the administrator, W. E. Guthrie. During recent months the indebtedness has all been wiped out, and during this time of debt-paying many important improvements have been made in the institution and in housing facilities for the Sanitarium workers.

The large, lovely new church will be a great blessing to the Sanitarium family. A strong soul-winning program is being carried on by the pastor, the chaplain, and their assistants. The Lord is rewarding their efforts with a good harvest of souls.

The School of Nursing is prospering and enjoying much of the blessing of God. Each year a fine group of consecrated Seventh-day Adventist young people enter the nursing school, and each year a splendid group of graduates go forth to fill a place of usefulness in the medical missionary field of evangelism.

Mr. Runyan, the assistant administrator, and the writer have just completed visiting the large number of doctors in the area that are on the Sanitarium staff. We have enjoyed sitting down with them in their offices, and talking with them concerning our work and telling them of our great appreciation for their support. We have sought their counsel as to how we could better serve them and the needs of their patients. Suggestions made have been carried out whenever possible, and a better feeling of comradeship and good fellowship has been obtained.

Paradise Valley Sanitarium and Hospital was established under the direct leadership of the Spirit of prophecy. It has done and is doing today a noble work for the Lord. We earnestly pray that it may ever be a "haven of rest," a source under God of physical and spiritual healing. In the plan of God our medical institutions are to be "evangelistic centers" where Christ and His saving grace and truth are revealed in the lives of all who minister to the sick and suffering.

The Sanitarium family have dedicated their lives to make Him known to all with whom they come in contact.

Come to Camp Meeting

It is time to think and talk about camp meeting. July 11-21 is the time set for our camp at Soquel. We are in the midst of getting all arrangements and plans finalized. We hope everyone in Central California will plan to enjoy the good things and blessings that are in store for those who attend.

Several special features are planned in addition to the regular camp meeting program. For the benefit of all of our members who were unable to attend the wonderful Laymen's Congress held in Oregon a year ago, we are planning a Laymen's Congress for the first three days of our camp meeting. Elder J. E. Edwards, who had a definite part in the other Laymen's Congresses, will be with us from the General Conference, and Elder and Mrs. G. A. Coon, who also carried a series in the other congresses will be here. Please don't miss this interesting and very thrilling part of the camp meeting this year.

Another feature will be a Sabbath School Institute and workshop which will be something very unusual, with Elder W. J. Harris and Miss Louise Meyer from the General Conference to direct it.

Another very important series will be on the Christian home. Five different speakers will take part.

The young people and other divisions are planning a special program through the entire time.

Among visitors from the General Conference are: L. K. Dickson, E. W. Dunbar, D. E. Rebok, W. H. Beaven, and G. E. Vandeman. Others will include A. S. Maxwell from the Pacific Press; U. D. Register from College of Medical Evangelists; Frank Unger from Africa; C. L. Barclay from Southern Asia; Lawrence Maxwell, Junior Guide editor. From our union office we are planning to have: C. L. Bauer, F. W. Schnepfer, A. C. Nelson, R. R. Breitigam, D. L. Olsen, C. Smith, Mary Walsh. From the Northern California Conference: Alger H. Johns and M. L. Venden, and from the Southern California Conference: M. L. Andreasen, and Paul O. Campbell.

Plan now to be at Soquel. Pray for a great blessing from God upon the entire meeting. Remember the date—July 11-21.

Voice of Prophecy Hours

The Voice of Prophecy, beginning June 3, will go on the NBC network. It will also be heard on Mutual, ABC and independent stations. We know that our people will join in praying that this new step will bring many more to a saving knowledge of Christ. Some stations have been deleted and others have been added, but as a result of adding the NBC network, in many areas of the country The Voice of Prophecy will be heard on more powerful stations. Here is the up-to-date list of stations with the times at which you may now hear the Voice of Prophecy broadcast in our conference:

Bakersfield	KAFY	550	8:30 p.m.
	KGEE	1230	9:30 a.m.
Fresno	KYNO	1300	9:30 a.m.
Merced	KYOS	1480	9:30 a.m.
Paso Robles	KPRL	1230	9:30 a.m.
Porterville	KTIP	1450	8:30 a.m.
Salinas-Monterey	KSBW	1380	9:30 a.m.
San Francisco	KNBC	680	9:30 a.m.
	KGO	810	9:00 p.m.
San Luis Obispo	KVEC	920	9:30 a.m.
Sonora	KROG	1450	1:30 p.m.
Tulare-Visalia	KCOK	1270	8:30 p.m.

It would be well to pass the word around, especially in areas where there has been a change in stations and time. It would be a real missionary venture to tell your friends and neighbors so they too might listen.

Important Notice

The Central California Conference camp meeting this year will feature a special SABBATH SCHOOL INSTITUTE AND WORKSHOP. Elder Wm. J. Harris and Miss Louise Meyer, of the General Conference Sabbath School Department will lead out.

Every Sabbath school worker, and all those interested in becoming workers in Sabbath school evangelism should plan now to avail themselves of this special opportunity.

Daily instruction and workshop periods will provide wonderful help for those who lead, teach, or help in the Sabbath school. A good selection of materials will be available.

PLEASE NOTE: Each one who attends the workshop sessions should bring along a large, sharp pair of scissors. A ruler and soft lead pencil for tracing patterns are also desirable.

COME TO CAMP MEETING!

Personnel

We wish to welcome two new workers to our conference family. Gordon Paxton, a La Sierra College graduate, will assist Elder Sydney Allen in an evangelistic campaign for Reno and Carson City. Brother Paxton began his work as a ministerial intern the first week of June.

John Kerbs has been canvassing in Utah since the first of the year to acquaint himself with the people and the colporteur problems of our Utah area. On June 1 Brother Kerbs began work as assistant publishing secretary to Brother Milton Johnson. Upon graduation from La Sierra College Brother Kerbs was offered a ministerial internship in a California conference, but chose the literature ministry for his lifetime service to his Master.

We welcome these two new workers and invite your prayers and encouragement for their ministry.

For two years Sheldon Seltzer has taught the school and cared for the church in Milford, Utah. His ministry and the loving service of Mrs. Seltzer have been greatly appreciated. We are now inviting Brother Seltzer to be the pastor-teacher of the growing Lake Tahoe church. We are confident Brother and Sister Seltzer will bring strong leadership and a rich blessing to this section of our field.

Brother and Sister Carroll Lawson have been teaching public school at Lamoille, Nevada, and on their own time have been ministering to the needs of the nearby Elko church. The Lord blessed their leadership, culminating in the Elko church dedication on May 12 of this year. We are asking Brother Lawson to continue his ministry in Elko for this summer.

Brother and Sister Harold Chapman, our teachers in Bishop, will be working in Reno this summer. Mr. Chapman will help with the work on our new office building and with the evangelistic campaign to be conducted in Reno.

A. C. FEARING.

Victory?

Do you happen to be one who says you do not believe in the Ingathering work? Remember, the gold and silver, the cattle, everything in this world belongs to God. Too much of the wealth of the world is in the wrong hands. It should be gathered to be used in the Lord's work to evangelize the world.

Now what does it mean if you do not go Ingathering? Actually it signifies you cast your vote favoring the return of foreign missionaries, the tearing down of hospitals and clinics and the closing of mission outposts, welfare centers, and church schools. It also means you are willing to let someone else do the work you should do yourself. This is serious. But this isn't all. One who doesn't participate in this evangelistic endeavor robs himself of untold blessings and satisfaction.

Consider seriously before you say "No" to Ingathering. It is the Lord's work and not man's. "The Lord's work might receive far greater favors than it is now receiving, if we would approach men in wisdom, acquainting them with the work, and giving them an opportunity of doing that which it is our privilege to induce them to do for its advancement."—Christian Service, p. 170. "God will open the way for us from sources outside our own people. I cannot see how anyone can take exceptions to the receiving of gifts from those not of our faith. They can only do so by taking extreme views and by creating issues which they are not authorized to do."—Welfare Ministry, p. 278.

Again, the Nevada-Utah Conference, with the Lord's blessing and guidance is striving to reach the Minuteman goal. Victory is now within sight. It can be easily reached when everyone does his part. The individual goal is $22.35. Let God pour out His Spirit upon all, that soon the Ingathering work may be brought to a triumphant close.

Who Says So?

I came to the conference several months ago with the forewarning by some that the people here are so predominantly of one faith that missionary work is almost futile. This may be true in certain cases, classes or areas, but I find that the people are interested—interested in finding more solid truths, interested in the message of Seventh-day Adventists, interested in knowing what makes a person a loving and lovable Christian, interested in the literature of Seventh-day Adventists, interested in someone who can lead them to peace and joy in knowing Christ as Friend and Saviour, interested to meet someone of another faith who knows what it means to be a Christian and is eager to tell others about the hope that is in him.

Certainly a farmer never expects a harvest when he has failed to sow the seed, so though the "harvest" in this conference at the present may seem rather small, we are in the seed-sowing time and if we continue to faithfully sow seed we're going to have a bumper crop of souls when the issues between truth and error become more decided and clear cut. At that time, "The message will be carried not so much by argument as by the deep conviction of the Spirit of God. The arguments have been presented. The seed has been sown, and now it will spring up and bear fruit. The publications distributed by missionary workers have exerted their influence, yet many whose minds were impressed have been prevented from fully comprehending the truth or from yielding obedience. Now the rays of light penetrate everywhere, the truth is seen in its clearness, and the honest children of God sever the bands which have held them. Family connections, church relations, are powerless to stay them now. Truth is more precious than all besides. Notwithstanding the agencies combined against the truth, a large number take their stand upon the Lord's side."—Great Controversy, p. 612 (italics supplied).

With all my heart I believe that this describes the future for the Nevada-Utah Conference. We're sowing seed here and we need many more sowers and many more dollars to sow the gospel seed in every corner of this large fertile field.

Our Greatest Treasures

"Hold the Fort! for I am coming—" sang the fifteen students at the Bishop church school on a March morning in 1953. One of the boys suddenly stopped singing and called out excitedly, "Miss Ice, that telephone pole is on fire!"

Two of the older boys hurried to investigate and discovered that the roof of the school building itself was afire.

"Attention, everyone," ordered Miss Ice in a voice much more calm than she was feeling. "File out this door quickly and do not push."

As the last child reached safety, Miss Ice called the fire department. The fire damaged the roof, attic, and ceilings of both the school and the church and the building was condemned.

With two and a half months of school yet to complete, Elder and Mrs. Frederick Rahm and the school board members must find another building, and the only available housing was over two miles from town—the former West Bishop school, church, and social hall which belonged to the Presbyterian denomination. They were willing for us to use the building for day school and for Sabbath services.

One baptism and many months later Elder Sydney Allen, the new pastor, and the church elders moved the growing church into new quarters—the office space of the Finley building. Here we held church services and church school. The school was now a two-teacher school. The office was partitioned so that there could be two classrooms, and Mrs. Sydney Allen was added to the teaching staff. The office rented normally for $125 monthly. This we could not afford, so the Lord intervened and the owners graciously offered it to the church at $40 per month.

During these many months plans were becoming realities as we talked with God daily for guidance in the building of a new church and school. About this time church attendance had become so large that the church leaders were again faced with the problem of securing more appropriate facilities and the Methodist church rented their building to us for Sabbath services.

The building program got under way in January, 1954, as workers began laying the cinder block to form a large new church building with school rooms and a Dorcas welfare room attached, and it was a happy group of students that helped load books and pencils and inkwells into the moving van when the school rooms were completed. The enrollment had reached twenty-one and there would be an eighth-grade graduation in May, the first in four years.

Commencement exercises were held for the one graduating student, Gerald Mason, on May 20, 1954.

More changes came to the school by the time its doors were again opened. First was the arrival of two new teachers, Ralph and Arlene Segoria. Later Elder Allen was transferred and Elder Leland Hesselstine and his family joined our membership.

This year, 1955-56, we have had Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chapman as teachers, with an enrollment of sixteen, three of whom were graduated May 31. They are James Lloyd Mason, Jr., Curtis George Turner, and Paul Bengs. All three plan to attend boarding academies.

Yes, we count our many blessings as we look over the past few years, and single out our Seventh-day Adventist elementary school which the Lord has so richly blessed. We hope to reach our aim as parents and teachers—to instill in our young people a sense of duty and responsibility to their God, community, and nation; that they may be morally firm, mentally enlightened, and spiritually equipped to meet unafraid each issue which arises.

Dorcas Active in Hawaii

You can depend on the Dorcas societies of Hawaii when there is a call made for aid for those less fortunate than ourselves. Sometime ago, an appeal was made for clothing for Korea, and the response from the societies in the Territory was wonderful. Approximately 1500 pounds of clothing and shoes were packed in 112 cartons and taken to the U. S. Navy yard at Pearl Harbor for crating and shipment to Korea at no cost to the Hawaiian Mission. This shipment represents thousands of very serviceable garments and dozens of pairs of good shoes. One shoe store manager sent over 200 pairs of new shoes to the Honolulu Central church Dorcas society for shipment to Korea. He has a relative employed in mission work in Korea and wanted to help.

We wish to thank all the societies who contributed to this Korean Clothing Drive and may the Lord richly bless your efforts as you seek to keep the spirit of Dorcas alive in your community.

Recently, in the city of Honolulu, the Oahu Federation of Dorcas Societies met to give a report of their activities. It was a real inspiration to hear the reports, and to know that our women of the churches are active in welfare work. At this meeting, new federation officers were elected, and they are the following: President, Mrs. L. E. Davidson, Kailua church; vice president, Mrs. Rose Chow, Central church; secretary, Mrs. Alex Kiilehua, Kaneohe church; and treasurer, Mrs. Mary Akamine, Japanese church.

Windward Evangelistic Meetings

Meetings began in Waimanalo Sunday night, April 22, with a good group in attendance. A government building recently used as public schoolrooms has been leased along the highway. The preceding Sunday a large number of our members and church friends turned out in a real enthusiastic way and the assembly room was painted in short order and the yard cleaned.

The meetings are held regularly on Sunday and Tuesday nights. The slide lectures are enhanced by the colorama black light presentation. The Kailua Sabbath school is also conducting a branch Sabbath school now as a regular story hour on Sabbath afternoons in the same building.

Please join with us in prayer that our efforts will bear much fruit in this promising area.

Baptisms for May

The following baptisms were reported during the month of May: C. E. Andross, 1; L. A. Baughman, 5; V. C. Becraft, 6; J. J. Dollinger, 10; S. L. Folkenberg, 6; J. D. Hardt, 6; E. H. James, 2; C. N. Kohler, 14; R. G. Letcher, 7; G. H. Loewen, 2; H. K. Martin, 32; B. W. Mattison, 26; F. J. Michaelson, 4; R. W. Nelson, 26; I. J. Rood, 8; Louis Schutter, 6; Wm. Shelly, 4; B. R. Spears, 27; R. L. Thompson, 12, by faith, 1; L. D. Venden, 9, by faith 1; M. L. Venden, 7; Major White, 26; Clarence Williams, 6; B. A. Reile, 13.

This brings to 405 our total of baptisms for the first five months of 1956. We are encouraged over this good report, and we thank the Lord for it. We realize there are many honest souls waiting for the truth to be brought to them by the ordained ministers and the faithful laymen; so let us keep praying and working, and leave the results with God.

The April Record

Northern California church press secretaries made an excellent record in their news reporting during April. Reports came in from 42 churches, and they indicated that 62 papers in the conference had carried Adventist news stories or items, and that the space they had given amounted to about 1425 column inches. In addition to this, items strictly about Pacific Union College and the St. Helena Sanitarium and Hospital that were published by more than 50 papers totaled over 300 column inches.

The happy ladies in this picture are holding their diplomas received for completing the cooking class sponsored by the Aiea Dorcas society. The awards were presented at the church Ingathering victory picnic held at Kapiolani Park, Honolulu, on Sunday, May 27. The picnic dinner was provided by members of the class as a demonstration to the church of some of the healthful dishes they had learned to prepare. The class was instructed by Mrs. Leona Bennett, R.N. (center).

One noticeable accomplishment during April was wide publicity given the three regional Dorcas Welfare Federation meetings, this, through the cooperation of leaders present, going into almost every paper in the places represented.

Pinecrest Application Time

Every day now we are receiving more applications for the Pinecrest Summer Camps. Of course, we still have plenty of room because it is several weeks before the first session is scheduled to begin.

Those who are present at Pinecrest this year will really have some inspiring times in store for them. In addition to the regular activities which must always remain in the program, there will be some features which will challenge every red-blooded boy or girl. Oh, yes, we will include Wilderness Survival, presented in a new and interesting way, and there will be some special projects which we have never had before.

One thing we are looking forward to is the building of a "tree castle," with access only by way of a retractable rope ladder! There will be other surprises which no boy or girl of camp age will want to miss. The activities of each session will be geared to that particular age-group—from the senior youth down to the nine-year-olds.

So study the schedule once more, and make sure that your application is mailed in plenty of time.

Work in the Camino-Placerville Area

Pastors Clarence Kohler and Clyde Sage have recently completed a series of nine Sunday night meetings for the Camino-Placerville area. The meetings, which were held in the Shakespeare Club House in Placerville, were well attended and a good interest was shown throughout the series. At the first meeting, attendance cards were distributed and free Bibles were offered to those attending all of the meetings. Over one hundred Bibles were given out at the final meeting.

As a climax to the evangelistic series, a cooking school was conducted by Miss Eva Beeler, R.N., the conference director of health education. The four evening classes were very well attended and the instruction in the correct choice of foods and healthful cooking was appreciated by many in the community as well as by our church members.

A baptism was held in the Placerville church Sabbath afternoon, May 26 at which Elder Kohler baptized fifteen persons, some of whom were the result of the Sunday night meetings and some were students who have been in the baptismal classes conducted by the two pastors. Several other interested families are receiving Bible studies.

In connection with the evangelistic effort, the Missionary Volunteer societies of the two churches have launched a program to visit every home in Eldorado County, leaving a copy of the magazine These Times, and enrolling all who are interested in the Voice of Prophecy Bible Correspondence course. Some seventy Missionary Volunteers have participated in the program and the results have been encouraging.

Plans have been completed and approved for a new church building at Camino, to accommodate the growing membership. The new church will have a seating capacity of 450 and will be located on a beautiful wooded lot one mile west of Camino on Highway 50. The land has been cleared and graded and the building site marked out, with actual construction to start soon after the close of camp meeting.

The Camino-Placerville Junior Academy has completed a successful school year with an average enrollment of 105 students. A class of eleven eighth-grade students were graduated Monday evening, May 28. Elder Louis Venden gave the commencement address.

Homecoming at Hayward

A cordial welcome was extended to everyone at the Hayward church homecoming May 19. On this special day, all former pastors and members were invited "home." Many of them came and filled the church, so that 67 primary-age children met in a special service conducted for them.

The Hayward church was organized in 1930. Honor was paid to the two charter members of the church who are still members in the Hayward church, R. L. Caldwell and N. P. Peterson. Particular mention was made of the former pastors who have guided in its development. These are Elders A. C. AcMoody, Paul Heubach, A. O. Sage, Clyde Sage, H. K. Martin, L. E. Tupper.

Elder Heubach, now dean of the school of theology of Walla Walla College, could not be present, but he and Mrs. Heubach sent a telegram which was read to the congregation: "Greetings to Hayward church on Homecoming Day. Happy memories are associated with this greeting. We have never forgotten the Christian fellowship we enjoyed there. Hayward was the first new church it was my privilege to help design and build. Keep growing until great homecoming day. God bless you."

Among the greetings from former members was a letter from the J. T. Collins family now at Cheshire, Connecticut. They wrote: "As we will be unable to be present with you on homecoming day, May 19, in person, we will be with you in spirit and send this message of greeting. We are looking forward to the time we will be back home at the Hayward church."

Elder Clyde Sage was present during the day and took part in the morning service. We were happy to have Elder Carl Becker, conference president, speak at the eleven o'clock service. The Sabbath school had been an inspiring beginning for the day of good things, featuring the dark day of May 19, 1780. "Tis Almost Time for the Lord to Come" is even more true now than it was in 1780, and the Sabbath school program followed this theme.

The church was again filled at the vesper service, directed by Brother Marvin Seibel, assistant pastor, with the topic, "The Tie That Binds." Elder and Mrs. H. K. Martin were present, and Elder Clyde Sage again attended. Elder Martin commented upon the growth of the church during the years since he was its pastor. As heirs of God it was good to be welcomed home at Hayward and to look forward to the welcome to the heavenly home. Everyone enjoyed hearing Mrs. Martin sing "My Only Hope Must Be in Jesus."

Our pastor, Elder J. D. Hardt, told "What God Hath Wrought" for the Hayward church. Membership has increased one third in the last four years, and tithe has doubled in the same period. Attention was called to the diligent work of all the members in redecorating the church. The entire church was painted inside and out. The platform has been rearranged and new furniture provided. Sabbath school rooms have been carpeted, tile has been laid in the halls. An excellent bulletin board, truly representative of the church, has been erected on the front lawn.

Elder Hardt asked each of the local elders to speak briefly. They are: R. P. Jenkins, Ray Luther, A. H. Swanson, Fred Gordon, Duane Worthington, John Hancock, Richard C. Schneider, Marvin Seibel. Brother Luther has also served as chairman of the redecoration committee during the renovation period.

Before Elder Sage sang "End of the Road" in closing the vesper service, he spoke of the pleasure of meeting so many of the members on this special occasion and admonished all to continue to be faithful until Jesus comes.

May 19 is a day long to be remembered by the Hayward church.

DOROTHY I. LIESE, Clerk.

Pathfinder Camporee

The Northern California Pathfinder Camporee which had been scheduled for May 4-6 was postponed to May 11-13 due to rainy weather. Several clubs which had originally planned to be present could not arrange to get away for this special occasion, but we still had over 400 Pathfinders and staff members in attendance.

The weather was beautiful and everyone seemed to enjoy the weekend program. It was inspiring to see representatives from various clubs organized in their individual areas with their pup tents, rustic tables, campfires, etc. The encampment stretched out for about one-quarter mile. A portable public address system was mounted on an automobile and was used to make announcements in the camp and also during assemblies. In addition to the Sabbath school and church services on May 12, everyone participated in a progressive Missionary Volunteer meeting during the afternoon. The program included singing, stories, Bible drills, and nature study.

Various activities crowded the Sunday program, including races over a specially constructed obstacle course.

A great deal of credit is due Paul Reedy and Merritt Crawford, officers in the Chico club, as well as other staff members and Pathfinders in Chico, Paradise, Oroville, and Corning, for doing ground work and helping to make the Camporee go smoothly.

It was voted unanimously to request that a conference-wide Camporee be held annually.

I Believe in the Radio Bible School Course

Because—It gives the student a greater understanding of the Bible.

"This Bible Course is surely helping me to understand the Bible. I have gone to church all my life, but I didn't know about the things contained in this lesson."

"I have read Daniel several times, but never fully understood it until I studied this lesson. I still have much to learn, but thank God, this has helped me so much."

"The Course has helped me to understand God's word and now I am able to read the Bible and understand it. I am sorry these are my last lessons. I've looked forward to them every week. Thanks for everything."

"This Course has given me a better understanding of the Bible and God's teachings, and I have received a great blessing from it."

Because—It causes people to really study the Bible.

"I have read and reread my Bible, but I can truthfully say I am getting more out of it than ever before. Thanks for the lessons. May God bless you in your work."

"These lessons have been of great profit to me, because I have to really 'dig' into God's word."

"I am so pleased with my Bible Course. I look up every scripture in my Bible and the Lord is blessing me every day."

Because—It brings people into closer fellowship with God.

"I feel a wonderful relationship with God when I study His word, and closer to Him too. Thank you so very much for this opportunity."

"My becoming a Bible student has certainly made me see things in a different light. In my everyday conversation I can say something good about the Lord and feel happy in doing so."

Because—It causes people to wish to help others.

"The course has made many things clearer to me. I am using them to help others."

"I wish to thank all who have a part in these lessons. They have brought me closer to Christ and have given me a burden for being a soul winner for Him."

Because—It leads to the true church.

"This Course has helped me to study the Bible and worship Christ better. I have been thinking of joining the Seventh-day Adventist Church."

"The Course has helped to teach me the Word of God, make a better Christian out of me, and helped to prepare me for baptism in the Seventh-day Adventist Church."

"We have been going to your church regularly—trying to keep the Sabbath and pay our tithe. We want to be really ready for baptism when we join."

OBITUARIES

URQUHART—Elder Edward James Urquhart was born May 25, 1883, in Peach Springs, Ariz.; and passed away May 23, 1956, at Sanitarium, Calif. His childhood and youth were spent in Montana. When he was 20, the family located in Chico, Calif., and there he became a Seventh-day Adventist. In 1907 he was married to Miss Maude Jeanette Parker. While living in Canada in 1911, the president of the Canadian Union invited Brother Urquhart to enter the ministry, an invitation he accepted. In 1912 he was transferred to the California Conference.

In 1916 the Urquharts were called to foreign mission service, assigned to Korea. There Elder Urquhart labored as evangelist, mission director, and president of the Korean Union, and for 13 years was the editor in our publishing house in Seoul. In 1936 he was called to the Philippine Union. Interned during World War II, they were rescued by the U.S. Army in 1945. His last years were spent at Whitmore, Calif., where he had charge of a small group of believers.

Elder Urquhart's poems, appearing in many of our denominational publications, have been a source of comfort and inspiration to many who had never known him personally.

Surviving are his wife; 3 daughters, Mrs. Mazie Davis, Mrs. Lucile Anderson, Mrs. Venus Mitchell; 2 sons, Ivan Urquhart and Dr. Stanley Urquhart; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren; 2 brothers and 2 sisters.

RICHARDS—Elder Halbert M. J. Richards was born at Mineral Point, Wis., May 5, 1869; and fell asleep in Jesus at Glendale, Calif., May 25, 1956. When he was 7, he accompanied his parents to their former home in England. While there he heard a sermon on the Sabbath and began to observe the seventh day. At the age of 17 he returned to the United States and after a time found work in Atlantic, Ia. A Seventh-day Adventist tent meeting was held there, which he attended. A company was raised up, with young Halbert Richards appointed leader. Baptism was delayed until spring. The day appointed was cold, the creek waters icy, Brother Richards sick, but as he followed his Lord in baptism he was miraculously healed. He helped his parents return to America, and soon after was called to join an evangelistic company. He was married to Miss Berta C. Sylvester in 1893. In 1897 he was ordained to the gospel ministry.

Until 1899 his work had all been in the Iowa Conference; he was then transferred to the Colorado Conference where he was instrumental in establishing the Champion Academy. In succession he served as president of the East Pennsylvania, Ontario (Canada), Texico, and Arkansas conferences. In all these fields Mrs. Richards served in conference departmental work. Following his administrative work, Elder Richards was chaplain of the St. Helena Sanitarium, pastor of the Mountain View church, the East Long Beach church, chaplain of the Glendale Sanitarium. CHRIST'S MINISTRY

THE LARGEST PART of Christ's ministry on earth was spent in restoring to health the suffering and the afflicted. A church motivated by the love and spirit of Christ will be concerned, likewise, with ministering to the whole need of man.

From all parts of the world field, reports indicate that the advances made in the work of the gospel are vastly aided by the efforts of dedicated men and women educated at the College of Medical Evangelists. As you contribute again this year on the annual C.M.E. OFFERING DAY, do so in the knowledge that your gift is a direct investment in the young people of the church and in the onward march of the everlasting gospel.

The College counts heavily upon this offering to help prepare your young people to follow in the footsteps of the Master. The parish of such consecrated young people will be limited only by human need. Their credentials will be a thorough preparation in their chosen profession, a willing hand, and a loving heart.

GODFREY T. ANDERSON,
President.
