A Sacrifice

The fourth chapter of Philippians is one of those chapters in which the Apostle Paul gives some good counsel to all of us. "Rejoice in the Lord," he says, and here is verse six as it appears in Phillips translation of the New Testament in modern English. "Don't worry over anything whatever; tell God every detail of your needs in earnest and thankful prayer, and the peace of God which transcends human understanding, will keep constant guard over your hearts and minds as they rest in Christ Jesus."

The Week of Prayer is just ahead of us—November 15 to 22. Let us plan for it, pray about it, that unitedly as a people we may experience the rich blessings that God has in store for us.

On the last Sabbath, November 22, the Week of Sacrifice Offering will be taken. This has been an annual offering for many years and has proven a great blessing to both the giver and the work of God.

Let us do our best this year that our offering will be "an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God." Philippians 4:18.

Secretary-Treasurer,

Civil Air Patrol Chaplaincy

Information from the field indicates some misunderstanding with reference to the denomination's policy concerning the enlistment of our ministers as chaplains in the Civil Air Patrol. We are therefore republishing the following actions and trust this will clear the matter:

"At the 1956 Autumn Council, a recommendation from the Plans Committee with regard to Civil Air Patrol chaplains was referred to the North American Division Committee on Administration for study. In the presentation of this recommendation it was stated that a large number of young men are enlisting in the Air Force. The enlistment of our young men in any branch of military service deprives them of their noncombatant rights under the law. Those who enlist in the Air Force are subject to courts-martial in refusal to obey an order involving the bearing of arms. The example set by our pastors in enlisting in the Civil Air Patrol, which is closely related to the Air Force, may influence our young men to volunteer for the Air Force. In view of these considerations, it was

"VOTED, That we go on record as not giving any more ecclesiastical approval to our ministers who desire to become Civil Air Patrol chaplains."—Minutes of the North American Division Committee on Administration, September 12, 1957.

The above mentioned action does not mean that those who are now serving as Civil Air Patrol chaplains must resign their commission.

There has been an increase in the number of our youth enlisting in the Air Force. These youth make it not only difficult for themselves but for their officers as well. Parents and workers are urged to counsel our youth against enlisting but rather wait for the draft. Those enlisting place unnecessary burdens upon the military and jeopardize their keeping of the Sabbath.

J. R. NELSON, Director,
War Service Commission.

Youth Activities

The Tri-Union Secretarial Council and Nature Camp, held at the South Rim of the Grand Canyon October 8 to 14, was a great inspiration to the MV and Temperance men who attended. Each caught a new vision of his responsibilities and the task that lies ahead. Considerable time was spent by the representatives of the North Pacific, Southwestern, and Pacific Unions in studying the needs of our teen-agers. The men seemed to feel that at the very time these youth need us most is the time that we provide the least for them, as a church. In view of this, the leaders pledged to do more for this class in the future than has been done in the past. We would like, however, to point to some of the excellent programs that are now being carried on for this age group.

Youth Crusade

It was my privilege to attend the Southland Youth Crusade held in the White Memorial church. This revival was sponsored by Desmond Cummings and Ted Carcich, youth directors of the Southern California Conference. Hundreds of teen-age youth, an average of about 1,200 each night and many more over the weekend, attended. Scores of decisions for Christ and many requests for baptism were made. The theme "In His Steps" was enlarged each night by Elder James Chase. The spiritual personal appeals united with the tenor voice of Charles Keymer brought an excellent response. Sunday night 118 youth came forward and signed decision cards for Christ and baptism. Monday night 200 met in the prayer chapel for special help after the regular service. On another night one thousand came forward in an old-fashioned altar call for special prayer and rededication. It really thrilled my heart to see so many youth respond in this way and to sense the Spirit of God moving upon these young hearts.

will be we do not know, but this much is certain, if we want to do something positive and worthwhile for our teenage youth, then we must launch out in a program designed specifically for them. We need to plan with them. Too many times in the past it seems we have taken a defeatist attitude and have done nothing, concluding that it couldn't be done, but the large number of teen-age youth participating in this crusade proves that with good leadership, a program, and an opportunity, they will respond.

Other Youth Highlights

During 1957 and 1958, fifty-one Voice of Youth evangelistic efforts were held in five of the local conferences. In most places these were sponsored by the MV societies and guided by the local pastors. These meetings proved to be of great value to the youth who participated by establishing them more firmly in the message. They also were instrumental in bringing people into the church as revealed by the baptismal report here:

In addition to these activities, conference-wide nature clubs are functioning in Arizona, Hawaii, Southeastern, and Southern, and these are providing wholesome recreation for families who wish to enjoy the outdoors together.

While only one senior youth camp was held last summer, congratulations to Southeastern, we are hoping to see more of these camps during 1959. Senior youth camping provides our youth with a wonderful opportunity to meet new friends, to discuss mutual problems, to enjoy Christian fellowship, and to deepen their Christian experience. These camps are a must, we believe, for every senior youth.

Also in our future planning, we are anxious to do more for the young married couples of our church. We feel that many of these young people in addition to their home and church responsibilities would like to join together in clubs for fellowship and activity. At the present time, 29 young married couples clubs are functioning in Central, Northern, Southeastern, and the Southern California conferences. These are proving to be a great blessing to those in the young married class.

Youth rallies, fairs, and camporees are being held in a number of places. The weekend of October 25 and 26, your union MV secretaries participated in a youth rally at Auburn, California, and a conference-wide Pathfinder Fair at Yuba City. Both of these programs were well planned and executed by Charles Seitz and Marvin Seibel, youth directors of the Northern California Conference. We would also give a tribute to the youth, the leaders, and Pathfinder personnel as well as the Pathfinders in making these events a real success. The exhibits at the fair were outstanding, particularly the agricultural exhibits.

A Pathfinder Camporee for the Central California Conference held at Millerton Lake October 3 to 5 was well attended. Paul DeBooy and Wayne Griffith, conference youth leaders, are to be commended for the fine spirit and interesting activities enjoyed by all. Laurence Skinner, Harry Garlick, and your union secretary were guest speakers.

Finally we wish to thank God for our Adventist youth—the grandest army in the world—capable of accomplishing so much for the cause of Christ. Our only desire is to provide for them a church-centered program of physical, mental, and spiritual activities which will assure them of an abundant entrance into the earth made new.

MILLER BROCKETT,
MV Secretary,
Pacific Union Conference.

Course in Tropical Public Health

Dr. Harold N. Mozar, director of the College of Medical Evangelists' School of Tropical and Preventive Medicine, announces the ninth annual course in Tropical Public Health which is scheduled for March 30 to May 22, 1959.

Particularly adapted to the needs of nurses, technologists, and physicians under appointment to foreign medical service, it gives attention to the causes, treatment, and control of diseases endemic in the tropics. A comprehensive survey of parasitic diseases is given with emphasis on laboratory techniques adaptable to the tropical environment. Attention is also given to simplified procedures useful for the training of native health workers.

Graduate credit of two to four quarter units may be earned. Fees are $6.50 and tuition is at the rate of $14.50 per quarter unit. Concurrently offered are other courses of related interest: Guidance and Counseling, and Christian Ethics.

Of particular interest to nurses is another related course which will immediately follow from May 24 to June 19 offering a study of the International Aspects of Nursing. Applications are now being received by the director of the School of Tropical and Preventive Medicine and by the chairman of the Graduate Program in Nursing at the College of Medical Evangelists, Loma Linda, California.

"This Is the Place"

After months of weary, trying, dusty travel across the uncharted plains and highlands, the caravan came to the mouth of a canyon that opened into a great valley. Not a tree was in sight, only in the distance an immense lake. It could be big enough to water the entire valley and make it blossom as the rose.

From persecution and exile the hundreds composing the immigrant group turned their eyes upon this land of promise. The leader had said he would lead his followers to some place in the mountains where they could live as they would and prosper. He looked out upon the great stretch of unoccupied land before them and said "This is the place." Today he stands in bronze atop a monument commemorating the event and recording upon it his famous words.

The lake water was not fresh but salt. Grasshoppers came to eat up the crops. The sandy soil drank extravagantly from the scanty supply of irrigation water. Glowing promises of new homes lost some of their enchantment. Only hard labor and sacrifice in a strange climate rewarded the settlers.

But the conviction that "this is the place" and that they were the people to do a particular work at a special time gave driving power and sustaining energy for a change in the land only a little short of the miraculous. One only needs to visit Salt Lake City and drive through the great valley with its agricultural and industrial wealth to appreciate the power of a conviction and the effects of dedicated industry and genius.

The Advent people, too, accept their call to do a special work within a particular limit of time. This makes a potent trio: the people, the work, the time. The conviction that these are applicable facts creates a tremendous force. The fourth element of place applies that force with gratifying results.

Unless a man is equally convinced that there is a place and a time for his talent, he can easily bury it in the earth and lose both it and the blessing that comes to those who are faithful with such trusts. If he can say of his home, his shop, his community, and his church "This is the place," and give himself in his place, in such a time as this, to the greatest work on earth, with a dedication equal to that that has transformed arid regions into fruitful gardens, his will be a heart satisfaction that compensates for all the sacrifice required and a rewarding benediction pronounced upon all who are faithful.

To assure success certain ingredients must be contained in the man himself as the channel God can use for His work. Character is a basic need. Highly developed and thoroughly dedicated skill makes more certain the desired outcome. Knowledge of what to do and how to do it is another essential. And the will to learn makes development possible.

For a half century the Home Study Institute has helped the youth of the church and their parents to get ready for an effectual part in the work of the world church. Earnestly dedicated, well prepared, and thoroughly convinced that this is the work, this is the time, they are the people, and this is the place the new youth of the church will become, as their elders before them have been, a mighty force for the early finishing of the world task.

W. HOMER TEESDALE, President.

Elder Ralph Larson and Elder Don Duncan have opened an evangelistic meeting in the Kalihi area of Honolulu. A school auditorium is being used. The attendance has been most encouraging. The opening night the auditorium was filled, with about six hundred present. Please pray for these meetings.

Dr. Clifford Anderson, speaker for the radio program "Your Radio Doctor," visited in Honolulu on a recent Sabbath. He was returning to Glendale, California, from visiting our work in Australia and India. While in Honolulu, he took the Sabbath morning service at the Kaimuki church.

For years a church building has been needed in Waipahu. We are one step nearer that goal. Recently the Mission Committee voted to purchase an available lot which is located in one of the nicest areas of Waipahu. Members of the church there are raising money for a new building which they hope will soon be a reality.

Members of the Wahiawa church have recently given of their time to re-roof their school building. In recent months the membership of Wahiawa have given many hours of labor on their church building as well as the school. It is pleasing to God when our church plants are kept in good repair.

Vallejo Takes Pathfinder Honors

Some fifteen hundred Pathfinders and spectators gathered on the Yuba-Sutter Fairgrounds in Yuba City on Sunday, October 26, from all parts of Northern California for their annual festival.

Booths and handicraft displays featured by each of the participating clubs were outstanding. Grand Avenue in Oakland received the highest points for their booth. Their theme beautifully portrayed a junior's service to God, to his community, and to his country.

Vallejo carried off the top honors for the day with a grand total of 173 points covering their participation in the parade and field events as well as exhibits and booths.

Elder C. H. Seitz of Oakland, director of youth activities for the Northern California Conference, was chairman of the day's tightly-scheduled program. Associated with him was Elder Marvin Seibel.

Welcome to Northern

We welcome Elder and Mrs. Arnold Kurtz and their fine family to our field. Elder Kurtz, new pastor of the East Oakland church, has already made his influence felt in a wonderful way in assuming his new duties. His spiritual ministry and the rapidity with which he is getting personally acquainted with the needs of each of his parishioners is greatly appreciated.

Brother Kurtz was born in Idaho, and there he spent the first seven years of his ministry following his graduation from Walla Walla College. He comes to us now from the south where he has served as evangelist in the Georgia-Cumberland Conference. More recently he has been pastor of the Knoxville, Tennessee, church.

In 1956 he received his Master's degree from the Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C.

Also, returning to our field from the Seminary are Elders Louis and Morris Venden. These brothers formerly served as pastors in the Sacramento area. As they return to us they will work together as an evangelistic team, starting with an effort that is now under way in Escalon. It is good to have these fine young men back with us, and we wish for them heaven's richest blessing in their specialized field of endeavor.

Brother Malcolm Maxwell is associated with Elder G. H. Loewen in the Auburn-Meadow Vista district, and Brother Donald Winders is with Elder R. C. McPherson in Stockton. These two brethren likewise have just spent a profitable period at the Seminary.

Elder E. D. Sorenson, who has been working with Elder B. W. Mattison in the Lodi Central church, has been transferred to fill the vacancy left in the Sacramento Oak Park church.

So the cause of God goes forward in a strong way around Northern California.

STANLEY M. JEFFERSON,
Public Relations.

Prescott Report

The Lord has richly blessed the work in the small mile-high city of Prescott, Arizona.

Fifteen persons joined the Prescott church on Sabbath, September 27, at the close of the three-week evangelistic campaign conducted by the Walter-Henderson team in the Cloud Cathedral. More than 40 others indicated their decision for the truth and are being given further instruction.

Two former pastors of the Prescott church, Elders W. C. Hankins and S. R. Haynes, worked with the pastor and other church members to assist the evangelists.

The work and prayers of faithful laymen were also rewarded in these baptisms. One lady, providentially guided to Prescott, was contacted by a colporteur just in time for the evangelistic series; another was visited by a deacon in the Christmas Ingathering campaign, later given the book What Jesus Said; still another is the daughter of a faithful colored sister in New York City.

Also among those baptized were two Prescott business men and their wives, a Mojave-Apache Indian lady, a lady who had been a missionary in another church, and three children of local church members.

This increase in membership makes more urgent the need for a new church in Prescott, for the congregation had already outgrown the tiny edifice on Carlton Street. A site for the new church has been purchased and a campaign is in progress to raise funds for an adequate church building.

The Prescott Church School, under the direction of Wilfred E. Rathbun, has an enrollment of 35 this year which is nearly double last year's enrollment. This has made necessary the addition of a second classroom with Mrs. W. E. Rathbun teaching the primary grades.

Week of Devotion

The Fall Week of Prayer, held October 3 to 10 at the Paradise Valley School of Nursing, was a rich blessing for the students and faculty. Elder Varner J. Johns of Loma Linda was the speaker. His theme, "The Adventist Nurse and the Closing Events of Earth's History," was an inspiration as he brought personal application of Christianity in all his messages.

It was interesting to note some of the comments that were made after the week was completed: "There was the down-to-earth appeal in each message—the personal Saviour we have and what He can mean to us if we truly accept Him."

"He is a real teacher. His presentations challenged the thinking of everyone. . . . The results seemed to be individual self-evaluation and quiet determination to improve individual lives."

Mrs. Johns assisted Elder Johns in the daily counseling. She gave valuable assistance in directing the prayer bands during the week.

This Week of Devotion will be far-reaching in its effect on the hearts and lives of both students and faculty. It has inspired all to live closer to the Saviour in order that we may share at last in the overcomer's reward—eternal life amidst the glories prepared for those who, putting self aside, devote their lives in service to Him Who died for us.

Hemet Church Report

Fall church activities are off to a good start here in Hemet with the Dorcas Society, under the capable leadership of Mrs. T. A. McFarland, sending off 1,223 articles of clothing to Watsonville. Last week found the ladies busily restocking their closets and cupboards for a future shipment.

The Pathfinders, with Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Emmerson as leaders, started their fall program with a trek to the beach shell hunting. The following week found them earning "The Order of the Squirrel" by hiking up to the top of Tahquitz Peak. Twenty-five Pathfinders and ambitious church members made it to the top.

Fathers were the victorious champions over the children at a baseball game held September 21 at the church school. A supper following the game was prepared and served by the mothers of the school children and $79 was raised toward school improvements. A new dichondra lawn at the school has already cut down the dust considerably. Iris, geraniums, and climbing roses have been planted by the teachers and students. Next to come is a cement slab for a volleyball court and other activities.

It is getting to be a daily sight to see the teachers, Donald Gibbs and Miss Glory McDonnel, and students manning hoes, rakes, and shovels before and after school hours.

One day recently found grades 5 through 8 touring Douglas Aircraft in Long Beach, and the students had the opportunity to see the C 124 Globe Master and the DC 8 Jet Airliner. Twenty-six in all made the trip. All of the children and adults were fascinated at the remarkable speeds of the airplanes and their huge size. Elder Donald Spaulding, our minister, remarked, "It certainly is making the world smaller."

New Pastor for Susanville

Some weeks ago R. L. Wangerin accepted a call to the Greater New York Conference. He had served faithfully for several years as Book and Bible House manager and more recently as pastor of the Susanville church.

To fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Brother Wangerin, the Conference Committee called Elder Edgar Keslake, a returned missionary from West Africa. He had served for about 12 years in that mission land as pastor, mission president, director of the Voice of Prophecy, and as Home Missionary secretary of the West African Union Mission. Prior to his mission service he was a district leader in Georgia and also in Tennessee.

Items of Interest

SIERRA ASSOCIATED MV SOCIETIES group was organized at Susanville, California, on October 18 by the MV societies from the western section of the Nevada-Utah Conference, under the direction of Elder D. V. Cowin, MV secretary of the conference. A constitution was adopted. Officers were elected as follows: President—Fred Elkins, Susanville, Calif.; Vice President (Spiritual Activities)—Mrs. Beverly Snyder, Reno, Nev.; Vice President (Social Activities)—Dick Shane, Lake Tahoe, Calif.; and Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. Gordon Paxton, Quincy, Calif.

SHELDON SELTZER is located in Elko, Nevada, directing the work of the church there. He and his family recently returned from Washington, D.C., where he attended the Seminary last school year. He was formerly located at Lake Tahoe.

DORCAS FEDERATIONS, the Nevada-California and Utah federations, were held in the Reno and Ogden churches, October 19 and 21, respectively. Elder D. E. Dirksen, Pacific Union Conference Home Missionary secretary, was the guest speaker.

OVER A TON of clothing was collected on short notice by our Dorcas societies for Monument Valley at the time of the federation meetings. This clothing has been delivered at the mission and none too soon. It is cold and wet there now. The Navajo people really appreciate these things. Many thanks and sincere appreciation to the Dorcas ladies who responded to this urgent call.

MONUMENT VALLEY MISSION activities increase rapidly. Dr. Mason writes: "We are tremendously busy. Just delivered eighth baby in seven days. Wednesday we saw 66 in the clinic and Thursday 45 at the clinic at Mexican Hat, 25 miles away." There were 45 Navajos at church last Sabbath and 20 white people all meeting in Dr. Mason's front room. Prayers are being answered at Monument Valley.

LAY EVANGELISM RALLIES were held in the Reno, Elko, Ogden, and Liberty Park churches October 19 and 22. Elder D. E. Dirksen's stirring messages challenged the church and were gratefully received. The meetings were scheduled and attended by Elder C. F. Phillips, local conference Home Missionary secretary.

ELDER F. H. RAHM, Price-Moab district leader, reports that Price has now exceeded the 1959 Ingathering Minute Man Goal and Moab does not have far to go. A liberal overflow beyond the enviable attainment for his district is anticipated. He writes: "It is a wonderful providence of God that gives us so much Ingathering in a time like this. Most miners are out of work, and several of the mines have closed down permanently." Nevada-Utah now has three Minute Man churches!

VERNON H. WARD, church school teacher at Lone Pine, is leading out in the organization of a Lay Evangelism Training Class. C. F. Phillips, conference Home Missionary secretary, met with the class Sabbath, November 8.

"One morning one of our business men stopped in at the office. As has been our custom, we presented him with a copy of the Desire of Ages. It was just before Fathers' Day, and I told him that it was for him to use for family worship. The book was still in its brown wrapper.

"When he returned in about three weeks, he stopped to talk with me. He said, 'I never realized what you were giving me the last time that I was here.

I want to say thank you 'again. We really enjoyed the book very much. My wife read it, I have read it, and now we have lost it to our 80-year-old baby sitter. It has even been helping my son's questions from Sunday school.'

"We thank the Lord for experiences like this. The Lord has promised that His 'word shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please.'"

Newbury Park Academy

Newbury Park Academy began its eleventh school year with 267 students, the largest opening enrollment in the history of the school.

The 'favorite spot on the campus—for new and old students alike—during the warm first weeks of school has been the new swimming pool, which was used first on the Fourth of July. The pool is being used for physical education classes as well as for the regularly scheduled recreational swimming periods.

New staff members at the academy this year are Earl Dupper, dairy manager; Betty Dupper, Cash and Carry clerk; Milo Bolander, assistant dairy manager; Don Madison, choir director and vocal instructor; Marvin Meeker and Clyde Van Scoy, broomshop employees; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nicholas, assistants in the maintenance department, the business office and the girls' dormitory, respectively.

Elder James H. Harris, pastor of the El Monte church, was on the campus October 20 to 25 for a Christian Fellowship Week.

Bible Tent in Pacoima

The Big Bible Tent was located in the center of Pacoima with large signs telling the news to those in this city and the nearby communities that an opportunity to learn about "The Hour of God's Judgment" (the theme of the series of sermons) would be given and sermons of spiritual food presented each night by Evangelist R. Wendell Nelson.

Those assisting Elder Nelson were Elder Clayton Pritchett, pastor of the Ivy Avenue church, Monrovia; lay evangelist Charles Carter; and Bible Instructors Ardenia Bevenue and Edith Calhoun.

The meetings continued for 12 weeks with a capacity attendance several

Minute Man Goal - $24.98

"And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." Matthew 24:14. Seventh-day Adventists are a missionary people with a world vision. We believe that the soul-winning results of Pentecost will be repeated in our day. Such results will require a full surrender and united action on the part of those who are looking for the return of the Lord.

The 1959 Ingathering Campaign will give every member another opportunity to help spread the gospel and speed on the great day of His coming. A special call for your Ingathering support will be made in every church in the Pacific Union Conference during the next few weeks. Your response will determine the extent of the missionary projects that can be undertaken this coming year.

The Ingathering plan has been a great blessing to this denomination. Nearly five million dollars will be raised in the North American Division during the 1959 Ingathering we are now beginning. We are hoping to reach three quarters of a million dollars in the Pacific Union Conference. With the blessing of God, and every member participating, it can be done.

Please join your pastor and church officers in the coming Ingathering Adventure for God and His cause. Thousands will be responsible for bringing in the Minute Man goal of $24.98. Will you join them?

Frequently the question is asked if Ingathering funds assist local projects. The Pacific Union Conference sponsors several mission type projects within its territory. For 1958 the union conference made appropriations from Ingathering reversion funds as follows:

Holbrook Indian Mission School	$ 5,000.00
Maricopa Indian Mission School	6,000.00
Twin Buttes Indian Mission School	6,000.00
Hawaiian Mission Academy	3,600.00
Calexico Mission School	2,500.00
Monument Valley Mission Clinic	5,000.00
Total	$28,100.00

I believe most of our members are quite informed regarding the work at Holbrook, Monument Valley, and Maricopa. Some may not be aware that we started a new Indian mission school this year on the Navajo reservation at Twin Buttes. The Southeastern California Conference operates a regular mission type intermediate school at Calexico. The school is located about a block from the Mexican border. Most of the 200 students attending are non-Adventists from across the border. This school is well thought of by officials in Mexicali, Mexico, and is regarded as an excellent public relations factor in the area. About fifty per cent of the student body at the Hawaiian Mission Academy is from non-Adventist homes, so it is also a real mission undertaking.

This is by no means the total cost of operating these projects. It represents the amount provided from Ingathering funds. Your continued support of Ingathering will help to support these mission activities within our own union conference.

nights. Many expressed regret when the meetings closed October 12 and asked that we come back next year with an evangelistic tent meeting.

The baptismal font was set up in the tent with a large blue cross against the white background of the font. A spiritual uplift was experienced by those who witnessed husband and wife, mother and children, being baptized together. Thirty-eight were baptized and twelve candidates are ready for this sacred rite.

As the result of a branch Sabbath school, a new church is being formed. Elder Nelson is asking friends and those interested in the birth of a new church to attend a meeting to be called soon.

The musical numbers contributed were by the following churches: Glendale, Eagle Rock, Van Nuys, North Hollywood, Compton, Berean, Wadsworth, San Fernando, Monrovia, and Sunset Avenue. Special selections were rendered by many individuals and groups and included a special surprise trio made up of the evangelists, Nelson, Pritchett and Carter, who sang "I Shall not Pass Again This Way."

"Little Richard" Penniman, with a story in song to tell, gave his testimony and why he left a life of plenty for the love of God. Del Delker and Bob Edwards of the Voice of Prophecy sang three numbers.

Lloyd E. Kinsey is deserving of praise for his work each night with the lighting and sound systems for the pictures and sermons. During a heavy wind storm the tent was raised from its base and had it not been that Mr. Kinsey was near, many valuable things would have been lost. Atkir Monroe was an assistant in the projection operation. Glen Anderson made it possible for all the carpentry necessary for the dais, billboards, flooring, doors, and bookstand.

A picnic arranged by Elder Nelson and the workers was held at Hanson's Dam for those who attended regularly and the newly baptized. The day was enjoyed.

Elder Nelson wishes to express his gratitude to the workers and everyone who gave their time freely to help God's work go forward.

Newhall Church Entertains

Twelve churches were represented at the Ministerial Alliance monthly meeting in October, when the ministers and their wives enjoyed a vegetarian supper prepared by Mrs. E. C. Innis and the ladies of the Dorcas Society. Assisting Mrs. Innis were Sisters Gladys Litsey, Gloria Vannix, Iola Osborne, and Alta Massey.

The meeting was held in the schoolhouse to give atmosphere to the topic for the evening which was Proposition 16. The guest speaker was Pastor Elmer Klenk of the Van Nuys Lutheran church. There was an interesting discussion at the end of the lecture.

The largest number of churches was represented at the meeting than at any previous time—Presbyterian, First Baptist, two different Foursquare churches, Church of Christ, United Brethren, Church of Aqua Dulcie, United Church, Nazarene, Bahai World Faith, Green Valley Bible Church, and the Seventh-day Adventist. Sickness in the family of the Methodist minister a few hours before the meeting and an urgent appointment for the minister of the Norman church made it impossible for them to attend. The Christian Science minister could not be contacted and the Assembly of God minister planned to come but for some reason failed to do so. The president of the Alliance is the minister of the Foursquare church, the vice president is minister of the Baptist church, and the secretary of the Alliance is Elder W. Cowper.

Melodies of GUA

Fifty years is a long time to keep up with the history of a school. In 1907 Glendale had its first church school in the gymnasium of the old sanitarium. In 1908, just 50 years ago this year, school was held in the little green schoolhouse which many may remember.

On the evening of October 12, the Home and School Association with Mrs. Otto Neufeld as master of ceremonies presented a wonderful program for the teachers and staff of 1958, depicting events down through the years. The program was given by alumni, and former teachers and principals of the school.

Glendale church school has grown in these years from a grade school with one teacher and seven pupils to an accredited academy with 48 teachers and staff members and 650 pupils.

All of this and more was depicted to the group in this program. Two former principals, Mr. Byron Dart and Mr. Lee Elder and Mrs. Dan Guild and their two daughters are pictured in front of the Balestier Road English church in Singapore where Elder Guild is serving as pastor. The Guilds spent 12 years in pastoral evangelistic work in Southern California prior to their departure to Singapore earlier this year. In addition to his present pastoral responsibilities, Elder Guild is serving as Public Relations and Ministerial secretary for the Southeast Asia Union. At the time of this writing he is holding an evangelistic series in Kuala Lumpur, the capital city of Malaya. Also, an institute is being conducted for the workers who are associated in this campaign.

Marsh, brought many interesting stories of the early days.

The president of the first graduating class, Elder Cecil Chrisman, Educational secretary of the Southeastern California Conference, was present and had a part on the program. Many other alumni were mentioned who hold responsible positions in the organized work of the denomination. Dr. Merlin Neff of the Pacific Press; Dr. Raymond Moore, head of the education department of the new Potomac University; Dr. Percy Christian, president of Walla Walla College; and Mrs. Mary Colby Montieth, superintendent of nursing education at Loma Linda, were just a few of those brought to our attention.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McCulloch who are alumni of the school were introduced. They have spent a term of service in the mission field in Beirut, Lebanon. Mr. McCulloch has now returned to his alma mater to take his place in the business office.

Margaret Vollmer Richards furnished the background music on the organ, sang a solo, and a duet with her husband, Dr. Ezra Richards, also an alumnus of the school.

No evening would be complete without food. A delicious potluck supper was served from 5:30 until time for the program to begin.

Glendale Academy surely is blessed with a wonderful Home and School organization. So far this year they have had a paper drive and have been responsible for other profitable and enjoyable occasions for both students and faculty. They have plans for a profitable series of meetings for the school year.

LOLETA BARRON, Registrar.

A lighthouse goal device was constructed during the campaign. Each member was given a red brick made out of cardboard and as they reached the Minute Man goal their name was written on the red brick, and the brick was put in its place in the lighthouse. A globe of the world was placed on top of the lighthouse and was lighted during the Victory Day services.

Although nearly everyone in the church participated in the campaign, about 90 per cent of the Minute Man goal was reached by the young people and juniors of the church. The six young ladies pictured solicited over $800, all of which was done in street solicitation.

The campaign was launched during the late summer and early fall because it is during this time that a large number of Spanish-speaking men come to the Hanford area to work. Five young men from the church were chosen to lead the bands during the drive. Julian Vargas, first elder of the church, went

Wawona Lodge Needs Help

Progress is being made daily on the new lodge building at Wawona Summer Camp, thanks to the dedicated leadership of Clyde Barber, camp caretaker. The building, however, is far from completion and help is needed desperately. If you are a skilled craftsman and could volunteer a week, week-end, or day of labor on the lodge building, please contact Clyde Barber, Box 55, Wawona, California, or call ESsex 5-6231. We would like to use this building for youth groups before next summer's camping season but such will not be possible unless volunteer carpenters and helpers are secured.

We also will need furnishings for the ten units of housing on the second floor. If you have any "extra" beds, mattresses, chests, and small tables that you would make available to the lodge, your contribution will be much appreciated. Any contributions of funds or equipment should be made to: Wawona Lodge, MV Department, P.O. Box 580, San Jose, California.

Requests for brochures giving rates and other information regarding camp facilities may be sent to the MV department or to Clyde Barber at Wawona.

We hope you will think of Wawona as your camp, summer and winter. Use its facilities—enjoy its inspiration. All reservations should be made by writing Clyde Barber.

A job of great magnitude confronts temperance-loving people—

- Alcoholism on the rise (5,000,000 reported as alcoholics).*
- Vast numbers of youth innocently developing the drink habit.
- Increase in crimes and traffic fatalities resulting from drunkenness.
- Apathy and indifference of churches.
- Tremendous expansion of unscrupulous advertising of TV and radio, in magazines and newspapers.
- Rising costs of law enforcement, rehabilitation, and expenses of treating diseases resulting from consumption of alcohol.
- Appalling increase in narcotics traffic.

LA SIERRA COLLEGE

European Trip

La Sierra College enters the jet age on July 10, 1959, when its annual tour of Europe leaves New York by Pan American jet liner, a Boeing 707. Six and one-half hours later the plane will land in London. The tour of England will include visits to bustling old London, Oxford, Shakespeare's country of Stratford-on-Avon, and Windemere on the exquisite lake of the poets.

After a flight from London, the continental tour will begin in Amsterdam, Holland. The quaint Dutch scene will be supplemented by a visit to Denmark with its beautiful capital at Copenhagen. Approximately two weeks will be spent in seeing Scandinavian area. The route from Stockholm, Sweden, to Oslo, Norway, is considered one of rare beauty. On returning to Denmark, the group will stop at the beautiful city of Odense.

The route through Germany will include points of outstanding scenic and historical interest. From Hamburg, the group will visit picturesque and romantic Hanover and Heidelberg. Passing through the Black Forest, the group visit Zurich, Berne, and Interlaken with a possible side trip to the Jungfrau Joch. In this area is found all the majestic beauty of the Alps.

In Italy the route passes beautiful Lake Como to historic Milan and Venice. The great accomplishments of secular and church history will be remembered as Rome is visited. Pisa, Genoa, and the Italian Riviera are only a few of the other romantic spots in Italy that beckon to the tourist and the student.

Monto Carlo, Nice, and Cannes on the French Riviera give an appropriate introduction to the spirit that is French. The Thone Valley with the fine old medieval city of Avignon and the bustling city of Lyons add to the appreciation of France. Orleans, Versailles, and beautiful Paris capture much of the thrilling French scene.

The return trip will be by Cunard Company's Orient Line, S. S. Orsova, which we have been informed will be air conditioned throughout. From Le Havre, France, the ship will sail through the Panama Canal with stopovers at Lisbon, Portugal, and Trinidad. The extremely reasonable fare for a tour of this kind is based upon a minimum steamship fare. Persons wishing better cabins may secure these by paying a small additional charge.

Those wishing to secure college credit along with the tour may secure from three to six hours lower or upper division credit in history or social science depending on the registration and amount of work done. Anyone wishing information about the tour should write Dr. Wilfred J. Airey, Tour Director, La Sierra College, Arlington, California.

Senior Presentation

Ninety-six capped and gowned students were presented to the student body and faculty of LSC as seniors in a special service held recently. Dr. Herbert C. Peiffer, Jr., Dean of Students at San Diego State College, presented the keynote address entitled "How Do You Do?"

To complete the program two musical numbers were rendered by the La Sierrans. The chorus sang "Still, Still With Thee," by Matthews, and the string ensemble performed "Adagio," by Corelli.

Dr. Peiffer, speaker for the occasion, has been at San Diego State College since 1937. A member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, he received his doctorate from Stanford University.

The senior class recently elected as its officers Hugh Dame, president; Tom Seibly, vice president; Ruby Bullock, secretary; and Warren Lund, treasurer.

Lorenzo Alvary

Lorenzo Alvary, popular bass of the Metropolitan Opera, will appear at La Sierra Saturday, November 15, at 8 p.m., as the first attraction of the 1958-59 Community Concert series.

Mr. Alvary is not only an outstanding figure in the American operatic scene, but has also appeared in performances in Vienna, Mexico City, Rio de Janeiro, and Paris.

Since this concert is sponsored by the La Sierra Community Concert Association, it will be open to members of that organization only.

An Unusual Book Offer

In Abraham Lincoln's log cabin home there were very few books. They were well worn, for Abe read them again and again. Often after the rest of the family had gone to sleep, Abe read before the open fireplace. Those few volumes, read repeatedly in his boyhood, became a part of the man and helped to shape and mold his life.

In every Adventist home, especially in the home where there are boys and girls, there should be books—good books, the very best to be had. Fortunate is the boy or girl who, in the home, is taught to love books. The children should have a bookcase of their own. If this is not possible, they should have shelves in the family library.

There was a time when practically every Adventist home purchased the books recommended yearly by the Missionary Volunteer department. Today we know these as Book Clubs, and there are books for senior youth, for juniors, and for primary readers. Most of these books are by Adventist writers and printed in our own publishing houses. If these books are in the home, they may be read more than once.

Today, we as Adventists have slipped from our former custom of purchasing the books recommended each year. Now the church buys a set of the books, and often the church school teacher reads the books to the children. Then the children are given a certificate for having read the books. Of course, they will get some good from hearing the books read in this way, but certainly not the benefit they would receive if they read them themselves.

This year we are making an unusual offer. Every person who buys any two of the Book Club sets will receive free the $3 book Strictly Confidential. This is a book for senior youth and adults, written by Irene Wakeham. You may buy any combination of sets to get this free book. Your Book and Bible House will be glad to give you information about the Book Clubs—about the books, the prices, etc. This special offer of a free book with two Book Club sets is good until December 31, 1958.
