The "Right Hand" Reaches Tribes People

By Abel V. Pangan

Drs. Reuben Sprengel and Clark Lamberton with their wives joined the writer's group on a trip to the mountain village about forty kilometers from the City of Chiangmai to visit with our two Maeo boys working there among their fellow tribesmen. The group took medicines, a few simple dental instruments for teaching the boys how to extract a decayed tooth, and a few items of food which those boys need very much. With enthusiasm the group started happy and strong. Everything went wonderfully well until the group of hikers were resting on a mountaintop half way there when the rain poured down upon them. Soon the trail which led to the village became a rivulet. Everybody and everything was wet and dripping. In spite of the chilly wind which blew on their wet bodies, the group continued their journey up and down the mountains. Reaching the village just before sunset, they aired their wet clothes and bedding, while others sat by the stove inside the house to warm themselves. (The Maeo stove is more of a bonfire inside the house.) The smoke filled the house offending the visitors eyes.

That night a meeting was called which filled the village chief's house. The Maeo people love to listen to the wondrous story of Jesus' wonderful love. The impressive meeting lasted until nearly midnight, for the villagers wanted the visitors to sing many songs. Going to bed was a most welcome treat after the strenuous trip and the prolonged meeting, but even after the group had gone to bed, many of the village people lingered around to see the sleeping bags and air mattresses. They talked and conversed until midnight. Then at about 4 o'clock in the morning the dwellers of the house started chopping greens for their pigs and resumed the loud talking. Many of the Maeo people spend more time in preparing the pig feed than they do in preparing their own food.

At daybreak, the group got up and got ready for taking care of the sick ones. Dr. Lamberton made a penicillin ointment by grinding penicillin tablets and mixing it with vaseline. That was very important for the boys to observe so that they can make their own when needed. While the penicillin ointment was in the making, the ladies demonstrated how to wash sores and wounds and how to bathe a baby full of sores on the head. They asked permission to cut off the dirty strings tied around the patients' necks and legs that are there for superstitious beliefs. After the sores and wounds were washed clean, the penicillin ointment was applied. There were more diseases to treat than what the group was prepared for. Dr. Lamberton, demonstrated the extraction of teeth. It looked very easy to do. The dental instruments were left with the boys to use. As an expression of appreciation for the splendid medical service rendered them, one of the Maeo women handed a hen to Mrs. Sprengel. Thus the Maeo people were able to get an image of what Christian missionaries are. These people learned more of the Jesus of the Christians through the "right hand" of the ministry.

George A. Huse Visits Southeast Asia

Elder George A. Huse, Publishing secretary of the General conference, Washington, D. C., visited the Southeast Asia Union's publishing houses, the MALAYSIAN SIGNS PRESS, VIETNAM SIGNS PRESS, and the THAILAND PUBLISHING HOUSE, during December 1963. In addition to this he gave valuable instruction to the 88 literature evangelists of the Vietnam Mission during their annual gospel sales convention, December 26—29.

Elder Huse is the chairman of the General Conference Publishing House Rehabilitation and Expansion Committee which has appropriated more than M$119,000. During the last three years for equipment to modernize our three publishing houses.

A native of Missouri, Brother Huse has headed the denomination's publishing department at the church's headquarters for fifteen years. His record of service for the church began in 1918 when he became a literature evangelist in Missouri. He was associate secretary of the department for three years prior to his present appointment.

His assignments for the church have included four years as manager of publishing houses in France and Spain, and management of publishing houses and Book and Bible houses at various places across the United States.

History of the Teluk Anson Church

By T. C. Chin

The Seventh-day Adventist Church in Teluk Anson was organized on the 31st of October, 1933. Five days short of thirty years today, this edifice is built and now solemnly set apart for the service and worship of God.

The membership of this church is made up almost entirely of people of the local municipality. The church held their meetings in a club house for many years through the courtesy of the club authority right up to the time when they moved over to this new church building.

Before the year 1955 the Mission endeavoured to secure a piece of State land from the government to build a church as it was our wish to see the work of God grow and expand in this district. A desirable site was located which was a hundred yards away from the club house where we had our Sabbath services. Negotiation was started with the government for that piece of State land on which we proposed to build the church. But we were told that the government themselves were short of land for their own need, and thus our request was turned down.

After much painstaking effort we found this present location, a beautiful location, and through the kindness of the former owner of this piece of land, Mr. Thong Park Seng, a small sub-division of land was arranged, and the transaction was completed in early 1961.

Mr. Khoo Ewe Boon, our Architect who designed the modern church plan for our church in Bagan Datoh, was contacted to design a plan for this church. It was approved by the Seventh-day Adventist Union of Southeast Asia in Singapore, and later the plan was approved by the Town Council of Lower Perak. Mr. Tan Kean Aun, the contractor who built our parsonage in Bagan Datoh, was given the contract to build this church. We are completely satisfied with his construction work. We do appreciate his splendid work and assistance. Without his fine services we might have not brought this project to a success. The total cost of this church project is nearly M$ 30,000.00.

We are grateful to our heavenly Father for this new church building in Teluk Anson. It will seat approximately one hundred and forty people, and it is our hope that some day in the future this church will be filled to its capacity with worshippers of the True God. We are happy, today, to dedicate this building to the cause and service of God, and may this church be a gateway to heaven for those who enter its door, and at last the people of God may go home to join the angelic host where we may return to Him endless praise.

Teluk Anson Church Dedication

By Doyle Barnett

Friday Afternoon a group of four from Singapore drove down the main highway leading into the city of Teluk Anson our attention was attracted to a new building with a group of people standing in front of it. Looking more carefully we noticed it was the new Seventh-day Adventist Church. All of us were impressed with the good location, the attractive building, and felt that this edifice would not only be a lovely and adequate meeting place for our people, but would also be the means of attracting attention to the Adventist people and faith.

On Sabbath morning the people came early to enjoy fellowship together in this newly erected building and to join in worship and Bible study. Practically the entire membership of our Bagan Datoh church, about 25 miles away, were present to attend the dedication service. It was a day of joy for our Indian believers for they now had a permanent church building to worship God in.

Pastor C. D. Martin, Division MV Secretary, gave the dedicatory sermon. In it he not only mentioned the building as a temple for meeting with God, but he gave special emphasis to dedicating the temple of each life as a place for Jesus to dwell in through the Holy Spirit. God is more interested in dedicated temple lives than in temple buildings, and if He does not dwell in the hearts of the individual members of the church, then He cannot dwell in the temple building.

Brother M. Lucas of Singapore translated Pastor Martin's sermon into Tamil. Pastor S. J. Lee, the Union Auditor, was also present and welcomed visitors and friends to the special service. Other visitors were Brother & Sister J. C. Knight, long ardent believers in the Advent faith, Pastor P. G. Rathnam, a retired minister still laboring for the Master, Brother V. M. Joseph, pastor of the Bagan Datoh Church, Miss Elsie Tan of Kuala Lumpur

Colporteur's Institute in Cambodia

By Wong Yew Seng

September the 20th to 24th were our Cambodia District Colporteur days. For that was the first Institute for our colporteurs. In past years, just because we had only one or two colporteurs, we sent them to Saigon to attend the institute there. In recent years our literature work has shown much improvement. So we decided to have our own.

The Union publishing secretary Pastor John Bernet, and our district leader Pastor R. E. Neall, regarded the institute as an importance and historical one. They attended these meetings and gave us much support and help.

In our institute Pastor Neall told the colporteurs how the Lord gave this wonderful literature soul winning plan to us. And he emphasized that God has ordained the canvassing work as a means of presenting before the people the light contained in our books. Canvassers should be impressed with the importance of bringing before the world, as fast as possible, the books necessary for their spiritual education and enlightenment. This is the very work the Lord would have his people do at this time. All who consecrate themselves to God to work as canvassers are assisting to give the last message of warning to the world.

The writer presented a talk in which he instructed colporteurs to realize the importance of the canvassing work as one great means of finding out those who are in peril and bringing them to Christ. They must go out into various parts of the country, make openings for the presentation of the truth, and try to improve every opportunity of drawing souls to Christ.

Then Pastor Bernet instructed them how to meet the people and to present the books and magazines. He also brought them a new vision to work shop by shop and home by home covering all the territories. Finally, he added that if colporteurs would be industrious, systematic and alert then success will be with them.

Chiangmai Pathfinders Sell Literature

By Abel V. Pangan

In order to raise funds for the MV Pathfinder Club to send as many members as possible to the campere at Bukhet, the members rallied hand in hand in literature evangelism. The club invited Pastors John Bernet and K. T. Chin, Union and Mission publishing secretaries respectively to help. Mr. Y. T. Chen, assistant publishing secretary of the Thailand Mission came also. By God's unfailing help, within two and a half days the club was able to sell almost Ts 9,000 worth of books and magazines. Hundreds of people were approached and talked with about Jesus. Many homes and shops were visited. Some interested persons were found.

The campaign was extended for three weeks so that the club members could go out and sell books and magazines by themselves. At the end of three weeks prizes were awarded to the first three who sold the highest amount of books and magazines. The first prize of a small portable radio transistor was awarded to Nai Suwan Asakhit who sold Ts 1,093 worth of books and magazines. Nangsao Pongsie Khammipon received the second prize while Nangsao Ban Yen Itakhit got the third prize.

Sabah Training School

By R. E. Bartolome, Educational Secretary Sabah Mission

A week of spiritual feasting and blessings was enjoyed by the students and teachers of Sabah Training School in Tamperuli, Jesselton, during the Week of Prayer conducted by Pastor J. H. Lantry, Educational and MV Secretary of Southeast Asia Union, on October 7 to 12, 1963. It was a week of heart-searching and decision for Christ, when seven students stood up and promised God to be baptized when an appeal was made at the close of the Week of Prayer meetings.

Our hearts are thrilled to see these students making their decision for Christ. The hosts of heaven rejoice to see these dear souls on the side of Prince Emmanuel. When some of the parents of these students learned of the decision of their children, they threatened them. One parent told her daughter that financial support would be taken from her if she becomes a Seventh-day Adventist. Another parent told her daughter that if she receives baptism, she will commit suicide. This girl said that she is not afraid of this threatening and hopes to be baptized soon. We hope and pray the Lord to bless these students in spite of the trials and opposition that they be given strength to obey God rather than men.

A baptismal class is being conducted for these students and others by Pastor J. H. Benedicto, the principal of the school, and Mr. Cresente Zamora, our new arrival from the Philippines. We are looking forward when these students will be baptized soon.

Bhuket Church Dedication

By John F. Harris

Bhuket, Thailand was the scene of dedication services for the new Ban Khian village church, Sabbath afternoon, October 19, 1963. It was a happy day for the one hundred members and friends who gathered to present this new house of worship to God. It was not only the first Seventh-day Adventist church building on the island but the first Protestant church as well. This island has a population of 80,000.

A large piece of land was obtained in December of 1962 and early in 1963 construction began. The building is of simple but functional design. At present there is no electricity in this village, but wiring was installed so that lighting could be made possible by using a generator. Members met in the church for the first time on the 15th of June, 1963.

The congregation was pleased to have many guests with them on the dedication Sabbath. Among them who were present; Pastor A. E. Gibb, Secretary for the Far Eastern Division who delivered the sermon at the morning worship service; Pastor Sunti from Bangkok, who preached the Dedicatory sermon; Pastor P. G. Wick, Thailand Mission President, who gave the Act of Dedication, and Pastor G. O. Bruce, Southeast Asia Union Treasurer, who offered the Dedicatory Prayer. Pastor Sopan from Bangkok, the former pastor in Bhuket, gave an interesting history of the growth of the church on the island. The initial contact that led to the first baptism came as a result of our Bhuket clinic. Since that time nine years ago our membership has grown to nearly forty.

A new day is dawning for God's work on this island. Hundreds have been enrolled in the Voice of Prophecy Bible Course. Branch Sabbath School evangelism has taken root. Our fine medical team of Doctors Van Arsdell and Watson has done much to provide an atmosphere of friendliness and trust so necessary to a successful evangelistic program.

Three weeks before the new church was dedicated a full scale evangelistic program was begun in the church. The writer, assisted by Nai Cheun, ministerial intern, and the membership began a series of meetings presenting our doctrines in the setting of God's wonderful love. The meetings were geared to appeal to people who were looking for something a little better in life. On the opening night the church with a seating capacity of one hundred was filled to overflowing. People were sitting in the aisle, standing in the doorway, on the porch, and at every window. It was estimated that at least two-hundred-fifty people were in attendance.

At the time of this writing the Spirit of God has been manifested. Souls have been freed from their filthy habits and real desire has been shown to continuing Bible study. Some twenty-five non-Adventists are studying in the Bible-marking class. There are others who come simply to listen. To our Heavenly Father we give all credit and praise!

We in Bhuket do ask that the readers of the "Messenger" remember these new interests in your prayers that they may soon be a part of God's great family on earth and that this new church building may be a light of God's love upon this island.

Jesselton Church Child Evangelism

By Mrs. Ruth Leong

The Jesselton Chinese Church in Sabah, Malaysia, conducts three Branch Sabbath-Schools every Sabbath afternoon.

One of the Branch Sabbath-Schools is held at the home of Mr. Chong En Fui. The attendance is very encouraging. About twenty children come every Sabbath and their ages range from one year to sixteen. Most of these children come from Christian homes, except for a few who come from Buddhist homes. These Children memorize the songs and the memory verse every Sabbath. The older boys and girls attended the last 13th Sabbath School program at our church in Jesselton and repeated the memory verses for the quarter and sang a special song. All were thrilled to see these children learning the truth of God.

We collect Sabbath-School offerings at the Branch Sabbath School and the money has been used to purchase a set of Bedtime Stories for the children to read and color sets to color.

The little girl in the picture is the grand-daughter of Madam Soon Loi Yin, a very faithful and devoted member of our church. Though this little girl is only five years old and is attending the kindergarten, yet she was able to repeat from memory all the memory verses for the whole quarter last 13th Sabbath. Her mother belongs to a prominent church, but each Sabbath her little daughter insists that her mother bring her to our Sabbath-School. Now the mother is having Bible studies with Pastor Leong and hopes to join our church in the very near future.

We pray that God will richly bless these three Branch Sabbath-Schools that they may bring forth a good harvest of souls for God's kingdom. May we solicit your prayers on behalf of these Branch-Sabbath-Schools.

New Teachers for STS

By Mrs. Andrew Peters

On August 5, Mr. and Mrs. Crescente Zamora arrived in the State of Sabah to join the faculty of our Seventh-day Adventist Sabah Training School in Tamparuli. Mr. and Mrs. Zamora smilingly informed us that they were both summer graduates from Philippine Union College, and had just been handed their diplomas at the airport in Manila.

Mr. Zamora holds a Bachelor of Science degree, and is teaching Science and Mathematics, besides helping with Bible studies and many other activities. Mrs. Zamora has her Bachelor of Science in Commerce, and is not only teaching bookkeeping and typing but is assisting as accountant in Sabah Training School. Mr. Zamora's brother, Nestor, is head of the music department of Southeast Asia Union College in Singapore.

"I am trying to keep the Sabbath holy in spite of my family being not believers of the true Sabbath. Please pray for me and my family."

"I have been greatly benefitted by your lessons. My doubts have been cleared. They have given me peace and hope. They are written in such a way that one feels as though the teacher is before you in person presenting the lesson. I wish that my friends too will have the same experience as I did by studying these lessons."

"Since I began studying these lessons, I have obtained peace of mind and sweet calm in my soul. Please pray to God that I must always have this experience."

and her sisters from Penang, and Mr. & Mrs. Andrew Tan also of Kuala Lumpur.

Pastor T. C. Chin, President of the Malaya Mission gave a history of the work and the progress of the construction of the new church. Mrs. Chin was also present for the dedication service. The writer offered the dedicatory prayer.

The first baptismal service was conducted in the new church in the afternoon. Three of the candidates were from the Bagan Datoh Church and the rest were from Teluk Anson. Pastor Rathnam performed the baptismal rite. All rejoiced to see these youth dedicating their lives to Christ. A call was made by the writer on Sabbath afternoon for others who desire to join the Adventist faith and many hands were raised. Then the whole congregation stood and joined with this group in rededicating their lives to God.

A large group of young people are members of this church, and as they consecrate their lives to God in active, loving ministry we believe the work will make rapid progress in Teluk Anson.

As we see such representative building erected for the preaching of the gospel of salvation to perishing humanity our hearts rejoice at the growth of the work, and the extended opportunities of doing greater and better service for the blessed Saviour. May it be possible for our people everywhere to support this program of building new centers from whence the light of truth may shine brighter and brighter until the Day spring dawn in the hearts of all who respond to His healing rays.

Colporteurs Released

Last November two colporteurs were making a delivery of books in Vietnam about one hundred kilometers south of Saigon. These colporteurs were two young men of seventeen and twenty years of age. They were traveling by small boat down a small stream or canal with a large box of books for delivery.

These young men were stopped and held by a group of men in that area who are not supporters of the present government in Vietnam. The colporteurs were held for nearly two months but were not hurt in anyway. During this time the colporteurs were often questioned and urged to support these men in their political aims.

When it was discovered that these colporteurs were not in anyway concerned with political affairs but were only concerned with the religious matters they were released and permitted to return safely.

Now these young men are again out in the literature ministry work happy to be preserved from harm and happy to have had an opportunity to witness for their faith and happy to be back in the work of the literature ministry. Please pray for these and the other Literature Evangelists in Vietnam.
