THE camp meeting is located in a very pleasant grove about one-fourth mile from town. About ninety are encamped on the grounds. We have had excellent weather with an occasional shower to lay the dust. The evening meetings are quite well attended by the towns-people. Quite a few are interested in the stirring truths that are presented from night to night.

The seventeenth annual session of the Conference opened at 9 o'clock A. M., August 11, Elder J. A. Sommerville presiding. There were so few delegates that all present were invited to participate in the business. Elder Sommerville gave a verbal report of the past year's work, showing an addition of fifty-two members to the Lord's vineyard, as the result of their ministerial labors, for which they gave God the praise. There had also been an advance step in the Sabbath School, annual offerings, and tithe, also in the line of missionary work, and while he was thankful for what had been done, he felt there was room for a much-greater work, and it was only through the blessing of God that any advance in His cause had been made.

The reports were then called for by The auditor's statement the chair. vouching for the accuracy of the books and reports was first read, followed by the report of the Conference for the year ending December 30. A motion was made that this report be brought up to date in the future so as to be in harmony with the other conference reports for the year ending June 30. Carried. The financial Sabbath School and tract society reports were read and accepted sepa-The tract society has come rately. out three hundred dollars ahead with the Pacific Press at Kansas City the past year instead of running three hundred dollars behind, as it has annually done heretofore. A committee of twelve was elected, and the following names were voted in: Elders Nelson, Shultz, Sommerville, Griffin, Evans, Brethren Jones, Watts, Bender, Long, James, Cutter, and Manfull.

E. HARRIS, Secretary and Treusurer.

KEENE, TEXAS, July 21, 1904.

Elder N. P. Nelson,

President of Texas S. D. A. Conference. Dear Brother:--

I have to-day finished auditing the books of the Tract Society as kept by E. Harris, and find them correctly kept. The cash book entries agree with the receipt stubs and vouchers on file in the office, and the present amount of cash on hand agrees with the amount shown by the books.

The financial statement prepared for the camp meeting is correct according to my best knowledge and belief. ____

Truly Yours, H. T. CURTIS, Auditor S. W. U. Conference.

The Texas Conference Proceedings.

"Are you Christ's light bearer? of His joy a sharer? Is this dark world fairer for your cheering ray?" was sung to open the third meeting of the conference, July 29, at 9:00 A. M. Elder D. U. Hale lead in prayer. There were forty-eight delegates who responded to the roll-call. The secretary's report was accepted as read.

The Cusseta church presented the following:

Cusseta, Texas.

The work at this place was started by Brethren N. P. Tidwell and D. H. Day, who by living consistent Christian lives, awakened an interest and a call was sent in for a minister to come and hold meetings. To this Elder E. B. Hopkins responded, and as a result a church of 29 members has been organized. The church has a full set of officers, and have duly elected delegates to the conference of Seventh-day Adventists, to be held at Keene, July 27 to August 7, 1904, and now respectfully request admission into the Texas Conference. Signed N. P. Tidwell and D. H. Day.

A. W. Jenson moved and T. T. Stevenson seconded that the request of the Cusseta church be granted. Carried. Elder Farnsworth regretted that there was only one church to be admitted into the conference, when there should have been one for every minister in the conference. He urged the workers to go into new fields and spend less time with the already established churches. Elder Nelson advised the churches not to call for help each time at their quarterly meetings, but leave the workers free to labor in unentered fields.

The church school superintendent's report was read and showed that during the year eleven church schools and three family schools were conducted, with an enrollment of 361 pupils.

Professor Hughes made a few remarks about the Academy, stating that of all the students who attended the school the largest majority were those living right at Keene, and that but very, very few attended from over the State.

The report of the Sabbath school secretary was read showing that there were thirty-seven schools in the conference, with a membership of r,084.

None of the committees being ready to report, the conference adjourned until 3:00 P. M.

REPORT OF CHURCH SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

UPON the vote of the Texas Conference, at the Waco camp meeting, in July 1903, arrangements were made for a four week's institute to be held in Keene, for the teachers of Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas. This continued from September 15 to October 15. About thirty teachers, and those preparing for that work, were in regular attendance, and a most profitable month's study was enjoyed by all.

Full of enthusiasm the teachers went out to all parts of these states, to teach the lambs of the flock the everlasting gospel. Two of our teachers were employed by other states and eighteen within our own borders.

The three churches in eastern Texas—Avinger, New Hope and Cusseta—have so far developed their work that they have been seeking to lay plans for an intermediate school, to educate the more advanced youth among them. Through much labor and self-sacrifice on the part of patrons and teacher, the Dallas school was established. It is our only large-city school. The German brethren were happy to re-establish their school after a lapse of a year. One thing for which we must commend them is, that not one case of tardiness or absence occurred in their membership of seventeen pupils; also the prompt and liberal financial and moral support which they gave their teacher.

The Venus house school held a unique position. The parents, though knowing nothing of the truth save Sabbath-keeping, so far appreciated Christian education that they employed a teacher at their own expense of $15.00 a month and board, to give their children a physical, mental and moral training. Burleson and Austin home schools finding they could not do the best, did the next best thing and employed the eldest daughter to teach the younger children. Hutchins raised the funds for her teacher's salary by means of a garden worked by all. They intend following this plan, modified somewhat another year.

Camp Meetings for 1904.

Oklahoma, Guthrie Aug. 25 to Sept. 4.

PROF. H. T. Curtis, Southwestern Union Conference auditor, is in Oklahoma auditing the books of the conference and tract society.

PROF. C. B. Hughes expects to go to Oklahoma next Thursday to look after the interests of the Keene Academy during their camp meeting.

A MEETING of the Southwestern Union Conference committee has been called to meet at the Oklahoma camp meeting at Guthrie next week. It will be an important meeting and a full attendance of the members is expected. Some matters concerning the re-adjustment of the book work will be settled at that time, and it is likely some matters concerning the Keene Academy will also be considered.

The Keene church school enjoyed a prosperous year. Every child in the village was given the privilege of a Christian school. A special feature of the school work was the Bible lessons for the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. These were on the books of Daniel and the Revelation, and were thoroughly enjoyed by teachers and pupils. The school was supported mainly by tuition, aided by donations from those interested in this line of work.

The education of our children is a live question in our conference. Α number of churches in addition to those are laying plans for schools next year.
