

SOUTHERN UNION WORKER

"My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work."

Musical Lives

Set your life to music, brother,
Don't leave out the minor key;
Sorrow's touch is skilful, brother,
Striking chords of sympathy.
Joy and sorrow have their pleasure,
Both possess some magic power,
Learn the secret of their treasure,
It will cheer some lonely hour.

Set your life to music, brother,
Knowing, ere you touch a key,
That the Christian only, brother,
Truly sings life's melody.
Tears and laughter, joy and pleasure,
In love's setting, sweetly lay;
Life becomes a golden measure
When music crowns the pilgrim's way.

General

Harvest Ingathering

We should now begin to plan for the Harvest Ingathering for the year 1914. We are being asked by the General Conference to raise a definite sum this year, an average per member of $1.54. This, of course, does not mean that when one has secured $1.54 he has done his whole duty, because there are children belonging to the church who will perhaps be able to secure but very little money.

The membership of the Southern Union Conference is 2,066. At the rate of $1.54 per capita, it would mean that we raise $3,181.64. The following table will indicate the amount each conference should secure:—

Conference	Memb.	Amount
Alabama	200	$ 308 00
Kentucky	275	423 50
Louisiana	262	403 48
Mississippi	132	203 28
Tennessee River	617	950 18

At the above rate, the amount the Southern Union Mission should raise would be $893.20. As divided into local missions:—

Mission	Memb.	Amount
Alabama	200	$ 308 00
Kentucky	75	115 50
Louisiana	75	115 50
Mississippi	124	190 96
Tennessee River	106	163 24

Every church in the Southern Union Conference would do well if at once it would place its order for the number of papers it wishes to use. Suppose we make a strong, hard pull this summer and all get ready for the campaign when it comes on. Readings will be furnished and everything that can be done will be done by the union to help each local conference and each church to secure the very best results possible this year. With all our many duties, suppose we at once place a definite order with the tract societies of our several conferences for the number of papers we need. The Lord is going out before this people, and now is the time for us to lay plans to do a great work for the Master.

S. E. WIGHT.

Missionary Work by Correspondence

"THE great lack of men to go from place to place and preach the Word may be in a great degree supplied by tracts and papers and by intelligent correspondence."—Missionary Work by Correspondence, p. 2.

A most effective way of using periodicals is in connection with missionary correspondence. A letter should be written explaining that a paper is being sent free of charge, and a copy of the weekly Signs of the Times, or some other missionary periodical should be mailed with it. The paper should be sent for several weeks; and then if no reply has come to the first letter, a second should be written, and the papers continued for some time longer. The question may be raised, "Why write a letter to send with the first paper?" There are several reasons for doing this. One is to let the person to whom the paper is sent know that there will be no charge made for it. In these days there are so many tricks played upon the people in order to extort money from them that they are naturally suspicious. When a paper comes to them which they have not ordered, they think at once that it is a device on the part of the publishers of the paper to get them to take it, and that later on it will be followed by a bill.

Another reason is that a letter warm with the love of Christ will be likely to incline the receiver to read the paper. The personal interest shown is likely to have a good effect. Still another reason is that it opens the way to get into personal touch with honest seekers after truth.

The letters should be written with care and prayer. Every letter will make some impression, favorable or unfavorable. It has been said of one of the successful missionary workers in the early days of the message, that she would write a letter, pray over it, rewrite it and pray again, and perhaps repeat this several times before she felt that the letter was what the Lord wanted it to be. When finally ready to go, it would be such a letter as might appeal to even a heart of stone. As in all missionary work, there must be a deep burden for souls, and much prayer, in order that the letters and papers may be used by the Holy Spirit to win souls.

In writing to strangers care should be taken to state in some pleasant way that the paper is being sent free of charge and that other copies will follow. Attention may be drawn to some article of special interest. The address should be plainly given, and the signature should indicate the sex of the writer, and, if a woman, should indicate whether single or married. The papers should be neatly wrapped, as all these details make an impression on the receiver.

Care should be taken to avoid the use of expressions not generally understood, such as "present truth," or "third angel's message." Expressions should not be used that would imply in any way that the writer considered himself wiser, or in any way superior to the person addressed, or that he regarded him as a subject for missionary labor. It is better to approach a person as a fellow-seeker after truth, rather than as one to be instructed.

Missionary correspondence has been the means of bringing many people into the church. One sister in the early days labored earnestly in this way, and raised up several churches. Though feeble in body, she was as successful in bringing people into the truth as many ministers have been. What she and others have done, many church-members can do.

Publishing and Colporteur Work

With the Men Behind the Books

As many of our "men behind the books" can testify, there is something about the colporteur work that is contagious. As the Lord so richly blesses those in the field who are faithful in putting in their time, it creates a desire in the hearts of others to also have a part in this good work.

We have been quite forcibly reminded of this of late as this good spirit has gotten into the Home Office and captured two of the younger employees in the bindery,—Miss Ida Craddock and Mr. Jesse Dortch. They have already resigned their positions in order to enter the colporteur work with the expectation of earning scholarships, that they may attend Graysville Academy next year. While we are sorry to lose them from the immediate circle of the Publishing House family, yet we could not discourage them in this commendable undertaking and we shall pray that the Lord will bless their efforts with success.

THE JULY WATCHMAN

The largest number of "advance" orders that has ever been received for any issue of the Watchman, has been received for the July number which is now off the press. According to the usual custom this would not be ready for mailing before June 10th, and yet on that date we had orders, including the subscription list, for approximately 18,000 copies. It is an exceptionally strong number, both editorially and from a selling point of view, and it is expected that it will enjoy the largest circulation of any issue that has been published for some time.

Of late there have been several additions to our force of employees. Miss May Warren, of Graysville, Tenn., has connected with the proof-reading department. Brother C. Blackburn, who has been working at the Food Factory the past few months, has now returned to the Publishing House and taken up work in the shipping room. This will release Brother Stark for work in the bindery. Miss Alsie Gray, of Nashville, has also taken up work in the bindery.

LAST week was an unusually warm one, the temperature being one hundred and over, a considerable portion of the time. Notwithstanding the unusual heat all hands worked faithfully, and are doing their best to get a nice lot of books ready for the coming deliveries this fall. We are now printing an edition of "Patriarchs and Prophets," which is to be followed by three or four other books. All are of good courage, and feel to rejoice because of the splendid progress that is being made in the field.

It should be noticed that this week another conference has reached the thousand-dollar-a-week mark; namely, Alabama. Alabama has been working hard for this, and we feel that Brother Wilson and his faithful band of workers are to be congratulated upon this accomplishment. Now that they have gotten started, we hope they will be able to keep the good work going.

The others are coming. Notice the following from Brother Love, of Kentucky:—

"We enclose herewith our check for $250, which please apply on account. Doubtless you have noticed that the last colporteurs' report we sent you was not very large. However, we are glad to tell you that we are expecting a much better report of the past week's work. So far we have received two reports that were around $150. One brother took $154 worth of orders in twenty-one hours. Recently two of our colporteurs made deliveries of one hundred per cent. The outlook is encouraging for Kentucky and we are of the best of courage."

Thus the good reports run. It is indeed a great privilege to be connected with a growing work, and one that is so important as this of helping to carry the last warning message that is to go to this world. Therefore, let us all be faithful, and put in full time although the weather is hot, and the Lord will reward us accordingly.

News Notes

BROTHER WHATLEY and family passed through the city last week on their way to Red Level, possibly to connect with Brother and Sister Leitzman in the school work there. They made the office a short call.

Elder Miller left Friday to visit the tent company at Montgomery and to hold a series of meetings at Mobile, beginning the 10th. He will visit some of the churches in the vicinity of Mobile before returning.

J. G. Dasent and R. Roberts are at Nashville attending the institute held for the mission workers in connection with the tent meeting there, conducted by Elder Sidney Scott.

Now is a good time to subscribe for the SOUTHERN UNION WORKER to keep informed as to what is being done in the other conferences of the union, as well as our own.

The camp-meeting will soon be here, August 7-16. Begin now to plan to attend. We have the promise of good help from the General Conference, and the union will be well represented. We hope every church will also send a good representation. The meeting will be held at Montgomery.

Have you been noticing the work of the colporteurs of late? They are certainly doing fine. Do not fail to remember them in your prayers, at least twice a week,—Friday evening and Monday morning.

Word from the Borden Springs Church says they have "waked up." They are interested in the salvation of their friends and neighbors, and are out working for them. They have a live elder there. What about your church, is it awake?

We are short on our Twenty-cent-a-week Fund. The time for the thirteenth-Sabbath offering will soon be here. If we would pay our full quota this month and then every church would raise about $7 extra on the thirteenth Sabbath, that would make us even. Who will try?

We have some books on hand, somewhat shelf-worn, which we offer cheap. "Monitor of Health," cloth bound, 408 pages, for twenty-five cents, as long as they last. Then we have some "Christ's Object Lessons," a most excellent book, for fifty cents. Now is your chance for some good books. Order from the Alabama Tract Society, 333 Hood Building, Birmingham, Ala.

Field Report

I HAVE spent my time the past month visiting the churches. I first went to Lockport, where we held a three days meeting, but because of sickness all could not be present. We held the quarterly meeting and those present testified of their desire to be more faithful in their devotion.

I next went to Louisville, where I found Elder Lindsay and his associates busy in the tent meeting. They are pushing the work in this city that the honest in heart may be saved. There seems to be a real interest on the part of several and we expect to soon hear of some being added to the church as a result of the work there. I met with the colored brethren and held one meeting with them. There was a good spirit of earnestness manifested by the people and we were pleased to have an opportunity to talk with a company who were candidates for baptism. This service was to take place the following Sabbath and I understand that nineteen were buried with their Lord in baptism at the appointed time.

Then I went to Boston, where I visited at the home of Brother Pound. They were deeply interested in the progress of the message.

I then visited Bowling Green, where I spent several days holding meetings with both the white and the colored brethren. On Sabbath, May 30, we organized the white brethren into a church with twelve members. Officers were elected and plans laid to do aggressive missionary work. The same day, Elder Scott being present, we organized the colored believers into a company and elected a leader and treasurer. Four persons of this number were baptized by Elder Scott the following day. The colored company had been brought out as a result of the labors of Brethren Osterman and Winston.

I next visited the Locust Branch Church where, for several days, we held a profitable meeting. The church was encouraged and new members were added. Six heads of families followed their Lord in baptism. Three more expressed their determination to obey the truth.

At this writing I am at Panola.

B. W. BROWN.

News Notes

WE are glad to report the organization of a Sabbath-school at the home of Brother Kindred near Panola. It has eleven members and we hope to see this school grow.

Brother Hickman and wife have been visiting with his parents at Stearns, Ky., the past week. Brother Hickman has returned and will work hard to make up the time he has lost from the colporteur field.

Elder Lawrence reports the baptism of nineteen persons, Sabbath, May 30. These have all been added to the Louisville Colored Church. We are thankful for this good addition to the membership.

Brother Alexander Perry and wife attended meetings held at Locust Branch, the past week.

Brother Osterman and Sister Delia Wilson have gone to Nashville, Tenn., to attend the Bible institute for colored workers.

Elder Brown has been holding meetings with the Locust Branch Church the past week. He reports the baptism of six persons and tells of three more who have promised to obey God.

Brother Winkler has been delivering during the past week, but because of his books being delayed he has been compelled to defer the delivery of several books until a later date.

Brother and Sister Harris met with the Sabbath-keepers at Panola, May 30. Their visit was appreciated.

Brother Huston Kindred, of Panola, spent Sabbath, June 6, with the church at Locust Branch.

The Watchman, our missionary magazine, is gaining favor everywhere. If you are not reading it each month, you should order at once from the Kentucky Tract Society and not miss another number. The price is only one dollar a year.

Brother Williams reports a ninety-eight per cent delivery. We are indeed glad for this. It is evidence that God is going before our workers, and gives them success when there is a drought on.

Elder Lindsay reports a good interest in the tent meeting and states that the work is onward in the city of Louisville.

Elder Scott, the union evangelist, met with the colored brethren at Bowling Green, Sabbath, May 30. His visit was appreciated and the people express themselves as desiring to have him visit them again.

Brother John Grounds spent Sabbath, May 30, with the church at Nicholasville. He then went to Nicholas County to canvass for "Bible Readings." We welcome him to our conference.

Elder Brown spent several days of the last week in May with the churches in Bowling Green. A church was organized, and the colored believers were organized into a company.

Brother and Sister R. O. Diehl were visitors at Nicholasville the past week, spending Sabbath there. They went from there to Boyd County, and will canvass for "Bible Readings." They plan to locate at Ashland.

The colored church at Louisville is growing and the Sabbath services have been of interest, the congregations being so large that the building has been packed. They are hoping to be in their new building in the near future.

Brother Jacobs and family, also Brother Ethington and wife, spent Sabbath, May 30, with the church at Nicholasville.

Sister Reichenbach and her little daughter Mildred sold over one hundred magazines in Lexington in a few hours. We are glad to add the names of these workers to our list.

It is to be hoped that our brethren will pray for the faithful colporteurs that not only they will take the orders, but be successful in delivering the books. Your prayers are needed at this time.

Camp-Meeting Notes

UNDER this heading we hope to keep before the readers of the WORKER, the latest developments in reference to the coming camp-meeting. Watch it.

Those wishing tents for camp-meeting, should place their orders at once, addressing C. B. Caldwell, 810 Jackson Ave., New Orleans.

Elder Parmele visited the mayor of New Orleans recently, to talk with him about the camp-meeting. The mayor seemed pleased that our meeting is to be here this year, and volunteered the following remark: "You can have for your camp any ground over which I have control." At this writing the location is not settled.

Let our churches elect their delegates to the conference as soon as possible, and send in their credentials to Brother Caldwell. Each church is entitled to one delegate without respect to the number of members, and one additional delegate for each fifteen members, or major fraction thereof.

At the present writing it appears that the best railroad rates that we will be able to obtain will be the following: A party of ten on one ticket, two and one-half cents a mile; a party of twenty-five on one ticket, two cents a mile for each person, one way. Why can not those coming from the southwestern part of the State plan to leave Jennings on the same train, and secure a party ticket for twenty-five from Jennings? Those coming from the northwestern part of the State could plan to leave Alexandria on the same train and easily make up a company of twenty-five. A letter just received from Shreveport states that there will be at least ten from Shreveport. These can come on a party ticket to Alexandria at the rate of two and one-half cents, and there they can be joined by enough more from different places to make up twenty-five. More will be said of this plan later.

To show their appreciation of the camp-meeting being in New Orleans, and the welcome that they wish to give to our brethren from other parts of the conference, the New Orleans Church is making up a fund to be given pro rata to those who come to the meeting from more than one hundred and fifty miles. Already they have $76 subscribed to this fund. They extend a hearty welcome to all their brethren throughout the State.

One of our church treasurers writes regarding the camp-meeting, "I think all the members of the church here will be very glad that the camp-meeting is to be held in New Orleans. I have never had an opportunity to attend before, but think I shall make an effort to get there this year."

News Items

BROTHER HUBBELL, who has been working with the Temperance Instructor, writes: "I received a letter from Hon. Richard Pearson Hobson, M. C., from Alabama, in which he speaks in excellent terms of the plan I am working. I sent him an Instructor especially marked for hasty reading, and a letter outlining my work, asking for his views and suggestions, and the answer was all I could think or ask for."

A recent letter from the Protestant Magazine publishers mentions, "Have placed printing order for the second edition of 15,000 copies of the June number." We expect to learn that this order has been repeated again, for this office has received several reorders for the June Protestant. It is a splendid issue.

Brother James Turner is now in Bogalusa, and in a recent letter he says, "I hope to roll up a good list of orders before many weeks. . . . I am anxious to get started again, as there seems to be so much to do. Truly the harvest is ready, for the fields are white." Surely this expresses the mind of all our colporteurs throughout the State.

Brother Leavelle is in Collinston with Brethren Hirst and Eaton, and the latest word is that Brother J. W. Davis will join him there and together they will visit several places in the interest of the colporteur work.

Recently we mentioned that one of our papers published in Takoma Park, D. C., had been designated as "pestiferous" by the Morning Star, the official Catholic paper for the archdiocese of New Orleans, La. At that time we were unable to tell just which one of our papers was meant by this description, but after writing to the editor of the Protestant for information we received the following: "I will say that the aforesaid matter appeared in the Youth's Instructor of May 5, at the close of an article by J. N. Quinn upon the situation in Ulster." From this we see that objections are made to matter appearing in papers which are comparatively neutral in the Romanist question and it behooves all Protestants to be awake and ready to use Protestant literature whenever the opportunity offers. The Protestant for June is a splendid issue showing the workings of Catholicism in American politics. The June number will be in demand for many months yet, but it is a question whether a supply can be obtained much longer. Place your orders now and introduce the Protestant to the Protestant ministers in your locality. They will welcome you and doubtless will order a supply for their membership.

Moeling and Other Places

ON Monday night, the 20th of April, I began holding a series of meetings in the little saw-mill town of Moeling, located on the Iron Mountain Railroad, forty-five miles from Lake Charles, La. I closed the meetings on the 17th of May. A little schoolhouse was used for the meetings. Some benches were made for us by a friend, without any cost to the conference, and so we had capacity for seating between fifty and seventy-five people. I preached each night and twice on Saturday and Sunday, with a very few unavoidable exceptions. A good deal of visiting was done and our literature was shown to the people. I gave the "Family Bible Teacher" away at the services, and in my visits, many other tracts. In all I gave and sold about $60 worth of our message-filled books and tracts, while I was holding the meetings. No public collections were taken, but friends of the truth handed to me, personally, something over $30 for the help of the cause. They were also "given to hospitality," for it was their will that I should not be put to expense for my entertainment while laboring among them, and not only in this, but in many other ways was kindness shown.

A Bible reading in connection with a covenant to keep the Sabbath commandment, was presented and six signed it. Four were baptized on May 21st and united with the church. In the future we believe that more of our many friends there will follow the example that has been set.

After a short visit at home, I assisted Elder Parmele in conducting the funeral of Sister Roberts, of Marthaville. Then

I visited in Alexandria, and found the work onward. Sister Goodwyn, by the help of the Lord, is getting some precious souls to become obedient to the truth, and already some are calling for baptism. I held one service while there, in Sister Goodwyn's home, after which I felt like Paul when he "thanked God and took courage."

I then proceeded to this place, Glenmora, where I have been making preparations to begin another series of meetings. Brethren, I want you to remember me at the throne of grace, that a harvest of souls may be gathered here for the Master. Let us all keep in the love of God and so run to the end of our race, that we may hear our Lord say to us, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Camp-Meeting

It is now time to make definite arrangements for the camp-meeting. Lay aside your loose change for this purpose. Plan to be present, for these annual gatherings are of untold help to the upbuilding of the image of God in our lives. We are anticipating a great meeting this year, and none can afford to miss it.

News Items

ELDER WIEST spent Sabbath, the 6th, with the Jackson Church and preached to a large attendance of our own people and several visitors. He was also at home last Sabbath, the 13th, and met with this church again, as his meeting began last Sunday night, the 14th.

Brother Smith spent last week at home, looking after his work and preparing for a visit among the colporteurs this week. He helped in the pitching of Elder Wiest's tent last week.

Miss Ruby Holt has recently left Jackson to make her headquarters at Yazoo City. While there during the summer months, she will continue the sale of her magazines.

Wm. A. Woodruff visited at Biloxi, the 6th and 7th. On his return home, he stopped off at Hattiesburg and spent the night. Brother E. J. Bayly and Sister Sarah Ingham were found to be of good courage and are doing an active and aggressive work with the people of Biloxi. Elders Burke and Morrow are still doing a faithful work at Hattiesburg.

Ralph Raymond, a young student of the Graysville Industrial School, has recently been secured as assistant in the office during the summer and early fall months. Owing to the extra duties of Elder Wiest in connection with his tent effort which is just beginning, and the oncoming camp-meeting, it was imperative that he have assistance in his correspondence. Also, in view of the growth of our work generally, it was found that some assistance in the office would be of much value to us during the busy season of the summer and fall. Ralph comes to us well recommended, and it is believed that he will render valuable help.

This week we are glad to report two new workers added to the list of colporteurs; namely, H. Nixon and M. C. Ellis, both from the Oakwood Manual Training School. It will be seen by a glance at their reports that they have entered the work with energy and determination for success.

May we have your order early for your supply of Quarterlies? They are now in stock. Order early and be sure of yours.

Camp-Meeting Notice

As already announced, our camp-meeting this year will be held at Jackson, Tenn., beginning Friday night, July 10, and continuing to the night of July 20. We hope everybody will be on the ground early enough Friday so that everything may be arranged before the beginning of the Sabbath.

Tent rent this year will be $3 for a 12x14 foot tent. The price on lumber, for flooring, will have to be given later. Cots will rent for seventy-five cents. All those who desire tents, flooring, and cots should write C. F. Lowry, 227 Hatton St., Jackson, Tenn. If there is anything you want in the way of accommodations that we have not advertised, and you will write Brother Lowry, he will do what he can to get them for you. Each should order his tent early. If you have a tent of your own and desire to pitch it on the ground, please write Brother Lowry about this so he will save you a place.

News Items

BROTHER JOHN KRAUSS took $144 worth of orders last week. He writes that he is of good courage. Brother Krauss is canvassing in the vicinity of Brownsville.

Brother Berdon Hampton, who is canvassing in Fayette County, took $65 worth of orders in two days. He writes that he expects to have his mother with him soon.

We are beginning to receive lists of delegates who are to attend the coming camp-meeting. Has your church elected delegates yet? This should be attended to at once. Send a list to F. C. Varney, 509 Cole Building, Nashville, Tenn.

Elder Norwood left Nashville Wednesday, June 10, to connect with the tent effort to be held in Jackson before the camp-meeting. They will have a large company there, and will work hard to strengthen the interest in Jackson.

Do you study the colporteur reports each week? Each of us should interest ourselves in this branch of the work and should not fail to pray for these faithful workers. Several of the young people who have been connected with the publishing house or going to school here in Nashville, are going out into the field within the next few days to earn scholarships.

Elder W. A. Hennig and family arrived in Nashville, Tuesday evening. He came at a very opportune time, as Brother Norwood is just leaving the city to connect with the tent company at Jackson, Tenn.

Misses Ida Craddock and Wilhelmina Dortch, in company with our state agent, I. C. Pound, left for Dickson, Tenn., Wednesday afternoon, June 9, to enter the colporteur work.

Civil War in Colorado

THE great miner's strike in Colorado has been causing no little uneasiness among State and federal officials the past few weeks. There has been actual warfare in the strike zone between the strikers and government troops. It has been reported that troops patrolling the strike region have taken undue advantage of the situation and have committed many outrages. As a result, Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver has headed a committee composed largely of miners' wives to visit President Wilson and protest against the outrages of the soldiers.

The condition in Colorado is just another one of the many signs of the soon coming of Christ. But the public at large does not realize this, therefore this situation is dealt with in a leading article in the July Watchman. What a splendid opportunity to show the public what all such unrest is leading to!

The Mexican situation also lacks a great deal of having quieted down. From a diplomatic standpoint the situation in Mexico is still tense. Another leading article on the Mexican controversy appears in the July Watchman.

Some other leaders in the July issue are:—

A Century of Peace.

Will the Coming of Christ Be Secret?

California and the Sunday Law.

The Peace Movement vs. the War Movement; Which Will Prevail?

Why not have a standing order, so you can receive a supply as soon as the magazine is off the press each month? The July number is now ready. Order early through your tract society.

Low Prices on Cooking Oil

Have you noticed the special prices the Nashville Food Factory, at Madison, Tenn., is giving just now on cooking oil? These prices are the lowest yet quoted by anybody who has the best grade of oil. Five-gallon can free on board at Madison, $3.90; two five-gallon cans, $7.70.

Hazel Academy Items

THE school finished its thirteenth year on Tuesday, April 28.

The commencement exercises proved interesting as well as profitable, though the attendance was not as large as usual on account of the very unfavorable weather.

The baccalaureate sermon was preached by Elder J. W. Norwood, on Sabbath, April 25.

The class decorations for Tuesday evening's exercises were simple, but effective. An interesting program was rendered by the graduates and others.

The commencement address was delivered by Elder S. E. Wight, who chose for his subject "Strength." There were three in the class this year, which makes our number sixteen for the last three years. The address was very practical in its nature, and was much appreciated by the class as well as by the entire audience.

A good spirit prevailed in the school, especially during the last few weeks, and nearly every student made a definite surrender of his life to God for service. To lead them to do this and train them for service is of course the aim of our schools.

As there were four who desired baptism, it was planned to hold this service on Sabbath afternoon at the little stream just east of the school. On account of the heavy rains this was postponed till Sunday afternoon. It was a quiet though impressive service, and was a very fitting part of the closing exercises. We were pleased to have Elder Norwood with us to conduct it.

The students went to their homes or to their fields of labor determined to let their lives witness for God as never before, and from the good letters received from a number of them we are sure the Lord is wonderfully blessing them.

Three of our students from Mississippi are in the colporteur field and are meeting with most excellent success.

The calendar is now in the hands of the printers and will soon be ready to distribute. Considerable matter of interest to students and friends of the school has been added. It is expected that the work in music for the coming year will be greatly strengthened. Instrumental music will be given special attention.

Professor Halvorsen has been doing some repair work and installing the bath tub and kitchen sink. These will add greatly to the pleasure and convenience of "home" life. The work is now nearly finished.

Sister Lewis has recently donated to the dairy department a fine barrel-churn, and Dr. Will Mason an ice-box, so we are now well equipped for handling butter during hot weather. Most of the butter is sold to regular customers at Murray, our county seat.

A valuable microscope has been arranged for by those connected with the school. This can be obtained for about $50, though costing, originally, almost three times this amount. The school surely should have it. Who will help us secure it?

On Thursday, June 4, Professor Atteberry called on Brother Boyce and some of the believers at Paducah, while on his way to Illinois to visit relatives for two or three days. In Illinois he met two of our last year's students, who were anxious to get back to school, and were working hard to bring others. We hope every student will do this. Write for calendars to distribute, or send the names of those who should be in school.
