"My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work."

Trust

I WILL commit my way, O Lord, to thee
Nor doubt thy love, though dark the way may be,
Nor murmur; for the sorrow is from God,
And there is comfort also in thy rod.

I will not seek to know the future years,
Nor cloud to-day with dark to-morrow's fears;
I will ask a light from heaven, to show
How, step by step, my pilgrimage should go.

—Sel.

Attending Camp-Meeting

It is important that the members of our churches should attend camp-meeting. The enemies of truth are many; and because our numbers are few, we should present as strong a front as possible. Individually you need the benefits of the meeting, and God calls upon you to number one in the ranks of truth.

Some will say, "It is expensive to travel, and it would be better for us to save the money, and give it for the advancement of the work where it is so much needed." Do not reason this way; God calls upon you to take your place among the rank and file of his people.

Brethren and sisters, it would be far better for you to let your business suffer than to neglect the opportunity of hearing the message God has for you. Make no excuse that will keep you from gaining every spiritual advantage possible. You need every ray of light. You need to become qualified to give a reason for the hope that is in you with meekness and fear. You can not afford to lose one such privilege.

Anciently the Lord instructed his people to assemble three times a year for his worship. To these holy convocations the children of Israel came, bringing to the house of God their tithes, their sin-offerings, and their offerings of gratitude. They met to recount God's mercies, and to make known his wonderful works, and to offer praise and thanksgiving to his name. And they were to unite in the sacrificial service which pointed to Christ as the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world. Thus they were to be preserved from the corrupting power of worldliness and idolatry. Faith and love and gratitude were to be kept alive in their hearts, and through their association together in this sacred service, they were to be bound close to God.

In the days of Christ these feasts were attended by vast multitudes of people from all lands; and had they been kept as God intended, in the spirit of true worship, the light of truth might through them have been given to all the nations of the world.

With those who lived at a distance from the tabernacle, more than a month every year must have been occupied in attendance upon these holy convocations. The Lord saw that these gatherings were necessary for the spiritual life of his people. They needed to turn away from their worldly cares, to commune with God, and to contemplate unseen realities.

If the children of Israel needed the benefit of these holy convocations in their time, how much more do we need them in these last days of peril and conflict! And if the people of the world then needed the light which God had committed to his church, how much more do they need it now!

This is a time for every one to come to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty. The forces of the enemy are strengthening, and as a people we are misrepresented. We desire the people to become acquainted with our doctrines and our work. We want them to know what we are and what we believe. We must find our way to their hearts. Let the army of the Lord be on the ground to represent the work and cause of God. Do not plead an excuse. The Lord has need of you. He does not do his work without the cooperation of the human agent. Go to the camp-meeting even though you have to make a sacrifice to do so. Go with a will to work. And make every effort to induce your friends to go, not in your place, but to go with you, to stand on the Lord's side and to obey his commandments.

Help those who are interested to attend, if necessary providing them with food and lodging. Angels who are commissioned to minister to those who are heirs of salvation will accompany you. God will do great things for his people. He will bless every effort to honor his cause and advance his work.

MRS. E. G. WHITE.

News from the Nashville Agricultural and Normal Institute

WHEN Professor John L. Shaw, General Educational Secretary of the denomination, was on his way to Graysville Academy to deliver the closing address, he stopped at Madison to visit the school and old friends at this place. This was Professor Shaw's first visit to this part of the South. He addressed the student body, giving an interesting and instructive talk on the work in India. We were glad, indeed, to have Professor Shaw with us, and only regretted that his appointments were such that he could not spend time enough to visit some of the highland schools, especially as he had listened to the address of Dr. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, when he spoke to the students of the Foreign Mission Seminary in Takoma Park and told them of the opportunities offered by the South and of the work being done by our people in the highlands. We hope Professor Shaw will have opportunity to visit these schools in the near future. Dr. Claxton told our people in Washington that this is one of the most practical ways any people can reach, with the gospel, the stalwart race in the highlands.

Tuesday, June 9, Professor H. L. Wood, former science teacher of Union College, and principal-elect of the Graysville Academy, spent several hours with the Madison school family. Professor Wood evinced a deep interest in the workings of the school and its methods of training workers for the highland districts of the South. He gave two very instructive talks to the school family and his visit will long be remembered with pleasure. He recognizes the fact that the Southern Training School at Graysville has its mission and that the Nashville Agricultural and Normal Institute has its mission and that the two institutions should cooperate in the closest manner for the preparation of workers in the South. He voiced the feelings of the Madison school faculty.

The summer term of the Madison school opens the twenty-fourth of June. During the summer term especial attention is given to the speedy preparation of teachers. Last year Professor W. S. Boynton of the Fernando Academy was one of the students at the summer school. This was Professor Boynton's first glimpse of the South, but as the needs of the field were studied day after day and the instruction of the Lord concerning this field was brought home to his heart, he resolved to cast his lot with the self-supporting workers of this section of the vineyard. He returned to California to teach during the past winter. While there he has studied, with others, the needs of the South from the spirit of prophecy, and last Monday, June 8, the Madison school family were given the pleasure of an all-day call from a company of twenty-three California young people who were on their way from the Pacific coast to the northern part of Georgia where they are to enter the work either as students or as instructors and workers in the new school being started on the property purchased for that purpose by Brother and Sister Hurlbutt near Reeves, Ga. It is the first time in the history of our work that such a large company has come South at one time to engage in the self-supporting work. It ought to be a source of great encouragement to all of us. May the Lord bless all those who have had the courage to take this step.

Sister Hurlbutt has been in the truth for a good many years, and has been in the South twice in order to see the needs of the work. The place purchased by herself and husband is not far from the city of Rome. It consists of about five hundred acres of land on which she hopes to see a school developed. There are a number of workers already on the farm, several of whom have formerly been students of the Madison school. Others expect to join the company at Reeves in the near future. God has said that many schools should be established, and he is showing that his Spirit is at work in the hearts of men. We are living near the end of time and what is done must be done quickly.

She Was Faithful

A LITTLE, black, fourteen-year old girl in Haiti has become a member of our Missionary Volunteer organization. Her society is away in the interior. Under all circumstances it would be difficult to make the journey to the coast, but during the recent uprising it was positively dangerous as well, yet that girl walked a hundred and fifty miles to take her society report to Sister Prieger, who has charge of the young people's work in the Haitien Mission. She has determined to do her part of God's work in Haiti faithfully. To her that meant diligent service and faithful reporting. Should it mean less to you and to me? Surely not. She was faithful in her part of God's work. Are you?

Publishing and Colporteur Work

With the Men Behind the Books

THE following encouraging word from Brother Virgil Smith, field agent of Mississippi, will, we are sure, be of general interest to our readers, and especially to the "men behind the books." He writes:—

"It is indeed wonderful what the Lord is doing for us in Mississippi. I believe with you that the time had not yet arrived for such wonderful things to be done in the colporteur work, especially in Mississippi; but now the time is here, and we are trying to be minutemen, men of the hour and to do just the work the Lord would have us do. I believe that this is but the beginning of what we are going to see, not only in one state but throughout the great harvest field. Surely if the Lord can do such things here he can elsewhere, when there is complete surrender. The time in which we live certainly demands it.

"I am sure you can not help but rejoice with me at the work the Hazel students are doing. I can hardly tell you how good it makes me feel to receive reports like these:—

	Hrs.	Ords.	Value	Helps	Total Value
Monday . . . .	9	16	$ 53 00	$ 2 00	$ 55 00
Tuesday . . . .	9	15	50 00	2 10	52 10

"The first one is from Claude Terry, and the second from R. D. Peterson, both of whom are working for 'Bible Readings for the Home Circle.' Don't these reports look good? The girls are not doing so well, however, but have the grit of bulldogs. At one little town which they worked, they only took one order. The doors were slammed in their faces and they had to canvass the people through the screens. They were called Mormons. The people had been warned against them by the ministers, over the telephones and in other ways, but notwithstanding all this opposition they are of good courage and are trying to do all they can to place our good books in the homes of the people.

"Some of our best workers have been sick and have not been able to work for a month. Therefore I do not now look for us to reach our goal ($2,000 in one week) until the latter part of June. We hope that the sick ones will be able to return to work next week."

The largest report received thus far from Mississippi for one week amounted to $1,763.65. That was before any of the students were in the field, so we believe that had not a number of their workers been sick, Mississippi would undoubtedly have reached the $2,000 mark before this.

NO MORE "PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE" PLAIN

No more orders should be taken for "Past, Present, and Future," PLAIN. There is to be no plain binding of the revised edition, and there are only enough left of the old edition, plain, to fill the orders that have already been reported for delivery later. It is now expected that the new edition will be ready by August 1.

News Notes

THE tent meetings at Gadsden are continuing with an increase of attendance and interest. Brethren Keate and Marley are kept busy from morning until night.

The tent meetings at Montgomery are continuing with an interest. The attendance, however, is not all that the brethren desire.

Elder Miller reports a good meeting held at Stapleton. He is now at Mobile, where he expects to hold a series of meetings.

Brother R. T. Jacks, who is canvassing at Guntersville, Ala., says that he is of good courage. He believes that to be one of the faithful servants it is necessary for him to do the work the Master has given for him to do "while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work."

Chas. Griffiths, one of the colored colporteurs working in Marengo County, met with rough treatment at the hands of a young colored man he chanced to meet. We have not learned the particulars. Brother Wilson left the office on Sunday to visit him.

Some good reports have been received from the colporteurs in the different parts of the conference who are taking orders for fall delivery.

Missionary Volunteer Notes

AN encouraging word has just been received from a member of the Louisville society which I wish to pass along to the rest of our young people. Brother Ruhl states, while sending his third review on the senior reading course, that their society is rapidly increasing, and they are all earnestly trying to make it larger and better all the time. He says that even the children are helping. They are determined to make their society the largest and best in the union.

Another quarter is about to pass and with it the first half of 1914. What is our record for the quarter to be? I hope that each member of our Missionary Volunteer Department will realize that it depends upon him as an individual to be faithful in reporting, so that we can altogether make this the best quarter of our experience. Please be prompt in sending your report at the close of the quarter.

WE have secured as good a location for our camp-meeting as there is in the city of New Orleans. It is on the corner of St. Charles Avenue and Calhoun Street, across the street from Audubon Park. It is only about one block from the Tulane University.

Quite a number of our people in New Orleans have already ordered tents for the camp-meeting. We would appreciate it if all desiring tents will place their orders at once with Brother C. B. Caldwell, 810 Jackson Ave., New Orleans, so we can estimate the number that will be required. We are led to expect the largest attendance at the camp-meeting this year that has ever been known, and we expect to have comfortable accommodations for all, even if notice of your coming is not received. But it would greatly help us, and you too, if you would now write your order for a tent, and state what furniture you will require. Why not have your tent all furnished when you arrive?

Brother D. C. Boles, of Jennings, La., has kindly consented to act as "party treasurer" for the party coming from the southwestern part of the State. We would suggest that the party leave Jennings on No. 10 on Thursday, July 30. If a party of over ten and less than twenty-five is secured, the fare from Jennings will be $4.65. Will not those coming from that section immediately send $4.65 to Brother Boles so he can have the party ticket ready before the train arrives? If more than twenty-five come in the party, he will refund one-half cent a mile. If less than ten write him, sending the amount before July 27, the money will on that date, be returned to those remitting, and full fare of three cents a mile will have to be paid. So let all who are coming from that section of the State register with him at once. Should anything prevent any who have remitted from coming, their money will be refunded.

Sister Frances Goodwyn, 1242 Elliott Street, Alexandria, will act as "party treasurer" from that point. The train will be announced later. Let all who wish to come in the party from Alexandria write Sister Goodwyn, sending her $4.85. The same principles will apply in this case as in the case of those coming from Jennings. If a party of ten come from Shreveport, or from some point beyond Alexandria, a party ticket can be secured to Alexandria, and for the balance of the journey, the other party ticket will apply.

Brother Lowry has moved his tent to Athens and begun work. He found no interest at Haynesville and Homer. Let us remember this effort in our prayers. At present Brother Lowry is alone in the meeting, Brother Sligh having gone to St. Louis.

Friday morning, June 12, Brother C. B. Caldwell returned from a trip to Florida, bringing with him his bride, formerly Miss Beryl Cummings, who has been for some time past the teacher of the church and intermediate school at the Florida sanitarium. We wish this happy couple a long and useful life, and that their tie may strengthen in the eternal world. They have rented Brother McLennan's home on Magazine

Street, where they are at home to their friends. A reception was accorded them at the mission on Sunday night, the fourteenth, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

One isolated sister writes, "I enclose one dollar for the Review and Herald for six months. I can not get along without the Review for it is my Sabbath preacher. I have neglected to renew my subscription and am lost without it."

This week we have the first reports from Sisters Bethel and Viola Mann who are working in Minden. We are glad to welcome these new workers to our ranks of colporteurs and wish them the best of success.

Brother Turner's grand total has not shown in the past the correct standing and we take this opportunity to correct it. Up to date, he has delivered $825 worth of books in place of the $432 we reported last week. In addition to making such a splendid delivery we are glad to report that Brother Turner has paid in full for every delivered book and has a small overpayment to his credit on our books. His next delivery comes July 15.

At this writing, June 16, Brother Leavelle is with the brethren in Collinston. He writes that from there he will go to Monroe. While with Brother Hirst they took $85 worth of orders.

Do not forget the camp-meeting dates, July 30 to August 9. Come for the first meeting and enjoy every one, including the last one. Remember the place is New Orleans and a partial refund will be made to all coming more than one hundred and fifty miles. Every thing indicates a banner attendance, and orders for tents should be placed early.

Louisiana Conference

THE fourteenth annual session of the Louisiana Conference of Seventh-day Adventists will be held in connection with the camp-meeting in New Orleans, La., on St. Charles Avenue, opposite Audibon Park, July 30 to Aug. 9, 1914, for the election of officers and the transaction of other conference business. The first business meeting of the session will be called at ten o'clock, Friday, July 31. Each church is entitled to one delegate without regard to numbers and one additional delegate for each fifteen members or fractional majority thereof. The churches should elect their delegates at once, and forward their credentials to C. B. Caldwell, 810 Jackson Ave., New Orleans, La.

R. W. PARMELE, President,
C. B. CALDWELL, Secretary.

Louisiana Conference Association

IN harmony with the charter of the Louisiana Conference Association of Seventh-day Adventists, a board of seven trustees will be elected for the association by the Louisiana Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, (unincorporated,) at its fourteenth annual meeting.

ELDER WIEST preached at the Jackson church on Sabbath, June 13, preparatory to the opening of the tent meeting on Sunday night, June 14. Since that time the meeting has been in progress, with quite a good attendance.

Owing to the many duties in connection with the effort, Elder Wiest thought it wise to have some additional help, so Elder H. C. Balsbaugh was called from the colporteur field to assist in this effort.

Brother Virgil Smith left the first part of last week for a trip among the colporteurs in the northern part of the State.

As will be seen, our colporteurs' reports are varying quite a little from week to week. This is occasioned by the fact that many of our workers are not yet able to be at work, and others are meeting bitter opposition by people of other denominations, while still others are working in districts which are badly infested with the boll-weevil. These hindering causes, of course, have to be met, so let us remember our faithful workers all the more fervently in our prayers that their work may not be hindered by the enemy of all good, and that their faith and courage may continue strong.

Let us not fail to remember that Sabbath, June 27, is the end of another quarter, and is the time when our Sabbath-schools are asked to give liberally for the work in Japan. Fifteen thousand dollars should be raised by our schools in the North American Division. Let us put ourselves on record as having done our share. Shall we make it "Dollar Day"?

It will be just about one month from this date till our annual camp-meeting is in session. Let us plan together and encourage one another throughout the State, so that we may have a large attendance.

Have you ordered your Sabbath-school supplies for the third quarter? If not, send us your order at once.

A Real Winner

THE temperance number of Our Little Friend is meeting with a hearty reception, in fact much greater than was anticipated. This indicates how well it is appreciated. The first 25,000 were all sold before they were off the press. The second edition of 10,000 lasted only a couple of days; and now 20,000 more are being printed, and it looks as though a third of them will be ordered before they are printed. Let us give our children the opportunity of circulating this good little temperance worker. Speak a word to them. This pretty little paper sells readily and fills its place in this great temperance cause among the little folks as no other literature does. Let the children carry the temperance banner. They have an influence on those who are older. This temperance Little Friend is their special ammunition in the warfare against this evil.

Five or more copies, two and one-half cents each. Order through your tract society.

SATURDAY night, June 13, Brother E. C. Widgery left Nashville for Brownsville, Tenn., where he will connect with Brother John Krauss, in the colporteur work.

Brother Jesse Dortch left Tuesday, June 16, for Brownsville, Tenn., where he will meet Brethren Pound and Widgery. Brother Pound will help these young men in getting started in their new work. Brother Dortch is working to earn a scholarship to enter the Graysville school this fall.

A few weeks ago Brother W. J. Keele of Cedar Grove, Tenn., ordered five hundred copies of the Protestant magazine. This week he has ordered five hundred more.

Thursday night, June 11, a nice little church reception was given in honor of our new pastor of the Memorial Church, by Brother H. E. Simkin and family, at their home. A very interesting program was rendered, followed by refreshments and a general social time which made Elder Hennig and his wife feel that they are welcome.

Brother Boyce has been having some very interesting cottage meetings and Bible studies at Paducah, Ky.

You want to be sure to read the reports of our colporteurs this week! You can not help but feel encouraged when you see how the Lord is blessing these few, but faithful colporteurs.

By the time this paper reaches you Brethren J. W. Norwood, C. F. Lowry, and their associate workers will have their tent meeting well under way. Let us remember these workers in our prayers, and then help to bind off the work by our presence at camp-meeting, July 10-20.

We have only received a list of delegates from three churches in the conference. Please send us the names of your delegates at once.

Two-thirds of the edition of the July Watchman have been sold. This issue is a beauty! If you have not received a copy of it and you will send us ten cents, we will be glad to send one to your address.

From a Colporteur

It has been a long time since I have written to the WORKER, although I am interested in hearing from the workers.

Most of my work has been in Stewart County. From there I moved to Somerville, Tenn. I sold several books in and around Dover. I visited the Methodist minister and he liked my book, "Daniel and the Revelation," so well that he gave me a check for the three-dollar binding. I also visited the jeweler of the place and found him reading his book. He said he had decided that it was a good book.

I came to Somerville the 26th day of May. I expect to have my mother with me in a few days. There seems to be a good interest here, my best record being forty-six dollar's worth of orders in one day. We wish to see things move in this place, so we ask an interest in your prayers that we may be true representatives in the work of God.

BERDON HAMPTON.

Sowing Beside All Waters

"In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good." Eccl. 11:6.

Periodicals may be used in as many ways as tracts. A supply of them should be kept in the homes, that they may be given to the tradesmen who call, and to others who visit the home.

They should be distributed in hospitals, poor-houses, benevolent asylums and other public institutions. The inmates of such places usually have time to read, and are glad to receive our papers. Many of them are longing for something different from what they have, and are ready to be helped.

Prisons should be regularly supplied with our periodicals as far as is allowed. Prisoners have souls to be saved, and many have found the Lord in prison who never sought him outside of it.

In all these places the foreigners should be remembered. Periodicals in all the leading languages may be obtained from the tract society offices. Many of these people are very grateful for any thoughtful attention that is paid to their needs, and this prepares their hearts to receive the truth.

When traveling by train or by boat, periodicals may be carried to hand to fellow-travelers. People read much on the trains, and are usually glad to accept papers, especially if attention is called to some interesting article in them. Papers given in this way will often open the way for a personal talk on the articles in them, and other points of truth.

Reading racks should be placed in places of public resort, such as railroad stations, waiting rooms of various sorts, and any place where the public congregate, where permission may be obtained to place them. They should be filled regularly. It is a sad sight to see one of these racks standing empty week after week, missing many opportunities to enlighten souls.

All reading-rooms and public libraries that will accept our periodicals should be regularly supplied with copies of all of them. In some towns there are libraries and reading-rooms for foreigners. Care should be taken to supply these with periodicals in the languages represented in them.

Periodicals may be handed out anywhere where the public are. A few may be laid on the seats in public parks, they may be left on the seats of street cars, or handed to the people in them. They may be left in restaurants and cafés, on the counters of stores, in the rest-rooms of the large general stores, and many other places.

Remember it is the wide sowing of good seed that prepares the way for a bountiful harvest. E. M. GRAHAM.

VERY IMPORTANT

Hereafter matter to appear in the next number of the WORKER after it is received, must be in the printer's hands Wednesday evening of the week before the date of the paper for which it is intended. This is because of a demand from the several conferences that the paper be printed and mailed in time to reach the subscribers before the Sabbath.

Stories Worth Rereading

To aid parents in selecting good reading for their children, the Youth's Instructor has just completed a book of very choice stories for the youth and children—a book by which adults will be benefited. This book has been named "Stories Worth Rereading." It is neatly bound in cloth, contains 320 pages 5½x7¾ inches, and is 1¼ inches thick—a regular $1 book. But it will be given with a full year's subscription for the Instructor for only fifty cents extra—the Instructor one year, and the book post-paid for $1.75. "Stories Worth Rereading" can be secured only with the Instructor. Those who are now taking the Instructor may renew their subscriptions for one full year from the date of the expiration of their present subscription, and receive the book on the renewal. The book will not be furnished on club subscriptions.

Canvassing for Subscriptions

WHILE good results will be obtained from the regular sale of periodicals from house to house, attention should also be given to obtaining subscriptions for them. Once paid for, the periodical will go to the home for a period of time, during which there will be given considerable light on this message. "A mistake has been made in soliciting subscriptions for our periodicals for only a few weeks, when by a proper effort much longer subscriptions might have been obtained. One yearly subscription is of more value than many for a short time. When the paper is taken for only a few months, the interest often ends with the short subscription. Few renew their subscriptions for a longer period, and thus there is a large outlay of time that brings small returns, when with a little more tact and perseverance, yearly subscriptions might have been obtained. You strike too low, brethren; you are too narrow in your plans. You do not put into your work all the tact and perseverance that it deserves. There are more difficulties in this work than in some other branches of business; but the lessons that will be learned, the tact and discipline that will be acquired, will fit you for other fields of usefulness, where you may minister to souls. Those who have poorly learned their lesson, and are careless and abrupt in approaching persons, would show the same defects of manner, the same want of tact and skill in dealing with minds, should they enter the ministry.

"While short subscriptions are accepted, some will not make the necessary effort to obtain them for a longer time. Colporteurs should not go over the ground in a careless, unconcerned manner. They should feel that they are God's workmen, and the love of souls should lead them to make every effort to enlighten men and women in regard to the truth. Providence and grace, means and ends, are closely connected. When his laborers do the very best they can, God does for them that which they can not do for themselves; but no one need expect to succeed independently and by his own exertions. There must be activity united with firm trust in God."—Testimonies, Vol. V, p. 399.

This work of soliciting subscriptions for periodicals may be taken up in connection with the house to house sale of papers or may be made a regular business. There are workers who take a few sample copies with them and devote their efforts to securing subscriptions. They say it is almost as easy to obtain a subscription as to sell a single copy, and much more profitable, for then the visits of the paper are insured for a length of time. It accomplishes more in a given time than the house to house sale does. Both methods have advantages, and each will reach some people that could be reached in no other way.

Our Attitude

WHAT ought to be our attitude toward a paper and its circulation, of which thousands say: "It's the best I ever saw;" "It contains just what the people ought to know, and presents it in a way any one can understand;" "It revolutionizes communities, changes homes of strife and poverty into homes of peace and prosperity, and reforms individuals"? That paper is the Instructor Temperance Annual. It is the most popular paper, among all classes, of any of our publications.

"He that walketh uprightly walketh surely."
