

SOUTHERN UNION WORKER

"My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work."

Too Much Alone

We go our ways in life too much alone;
We hold ourselves too far from all our kind;
Too often we are dead to sigh and moan;
Too often to the weak and helpless blind;
Too often, when distress and want abide,
We turn, and pass upon the other side.

It should be ours the oil and wine to pour
Into the bleeding wounds of stricken ones;
To take the smitten and the sick and sore,
And bear them where a stream of blessing runs.
Instead we look about—the way is wide,
And so we pass upon the other side.

Publishing and Colporteur Work

With the Men Behind the Books

In a recent issue mention was made of the canvassing spirit having gotten into the Home Office and causing two of our bindery employees to enter the field. One of these was Brother Jesse Dortch, and of his first two days' work, Brother I. C. Pound, field agent of the Tennessee River Conference, writes as follows:—

"I spent one and one-half days with Brother Widgery this week and took $34 worth of orders to start him. I met Jesse at the train Tuesday noon and we started to the field Wednesday morning. I spent two full days with him and took $64 worth of orders. These orders are O. K. as we took them from the very best people in the country. Neither Jesse nor Brother Widgery have come in yet so can not give final report. Brother Krauss has been poorly again this week but, notwithstanding, came in Thursday noon with $71 worth of orders. Surely the Lord is blessing our efforts. We are not satisfied, only very grateful for what he is doing. I pray that we may have wisdom to direct all things in such a way as to hasten the day when the work shall be finished."

THE MAY SUMMARIES

The canvassing summaries for May for the three unions comprising the territory of the Southern Publishing Association, have just been received, and are as follows:—

	Book Sales	Mag. Sales
Southwestern Union	$12204 00	$
Southern Union	10958 80	558 50
Southeastern Union	7250 75	568 80

To his report, Brother Cole adds:—

"As long as things grow there is evidence of life. It is certainly encouraging to see the continual growth of the colporteur work in the Southeastern Union. In comparing our May report with the report of the corresponding month of last year, we find a gain of thirteen colporteurs, $2,961.87 in orders, $1,315.45 in deliveries, and $392.10 in magazine sales. To the Lord we give the praise for these blessings."

Brother Davis was not at the office when sending his report and was therefore unable to give the figures for May of last year, but he states that the Southern Union just about doubled, which is indeed an encouraging gain.

Brother Harrison writes that on account of so much rain in the Southwest during May, their report is considerably smaller than it would have been otherwise. We understand that it has now stopped raining over there, so that the workers can again put in full time, and hence they expect to have a much larger report for June.

THE ATLANTA BRANCH

Brother Randall, manager of our Atlanta Branch, reports that the sales of that office for May show a gain of $2,253 over May of last year. Also, that the gain in sales for the first five months of 1914 is $5,271 as compared with the corresponding period of 1913. At this rate it would seem that our loyal workers in the Southeast will experience little trouble in reaching the mark set for that Union; viz., $50,000. Up to May 31 the sales of the Atlanta Branch amounted to $20,580.

THE JULY WATCHMAN

At this writing the first edition of 30,000 July Watchman is practically exhausted, and hence a second edition is now being printed. This is indeed a splendid number, and will sell readily all through July. The August issue will also be a strong number, an announcement of which will probably appear in next week's WORKER.

EXPERIENCE OF A HAZEL STUDENT

In this department of last week's WORKER appeared reports from two of the students of the Hazel school who are canvassing in Mississippi. Therefore, the following experience, taken from a letter from Brother W. A. Woodruff, secretary of the Mississippi Tract Society, will doubtless be of special interest to the WORKER family. He writes:—

"In several places where our workers have had the most marvelous success, the preachers of other denominations have become alarmed, and have set themselves both with pen and voice, and a good strong influence, to hinder our work by opposing it bitterly. This has had its effect. But in the face of the very bitterest, you might say, Brethren Peterson and Terry are still reporting their $100 per week and over. This week Claude fell a few cents short, but you know he will come again.

"Brother Peterson relates a very interesting experience. He went some distance into a man's field where he was plowing. And by the way, this man had been prejudiced by his pastor. When Brother Peterson walked up, the man turned to him and showed him the road and told him he would give him five minutes to get to it. Brother Peterson, being 'armed,' assured him that he was confident that he could reach the road in two minutes, so suggested that he use the other three in showing his book. Without waiting for a reply, he dived right in and flooded the man with his canvass. When his three minutes were up, Brother Peterson said he looked at the man, who was literally piercing him with his eyes. He said the man looked at him for a long while without saying anything. Finally he exclaimed: 'You little D——, put me down for the best binding.' Who do you say got the victory here? I claim that R. D. walked off with victory marked all over him. I think this is a pretty good one.

"Thought I would just tell you about this to show you what is being done in badly prejudiced places. It is pretty bad language to send along in a letter, but inasmuch as you are acquainted with the experiences of colporteurs, perhaps it will not sound so badly to you after all."

INQUIRY FROM A NORTHERN CONFERENCE

"The letter which I mentioned last week that I had received from the —— Union, was from the general field agent of that union. He writes as follows: 'I have heard of your remarkable work in the colporteur field of late, and see the report for March is over $4,000. I also note that your membership is 132. I am anxious to know how this has been done, and how the primary cause was brought about. Trusting to be favored with a reply to be used to the glory of God,' etc. This was rather a hard letter for me to answer, but I suggested to him that we had in the first place a real, live, wide-awake corps of workers. Then I mentioned the splendid instruction received at the institute last winter, and how we all had cooperated with the workers in endeavoring to make their work a success. But I told him that I thought above all that it was the power of God working in and through consecrated lives, strengthening them to give the message to thousands of hungry souls in the old South-land."

Thus we see that the Lord's Spirit is at work upon the hearts of the people and that he is giving success to the efforts of our humble students in spite of prejudice and the wrath of the enemy. Furthermore the success that is attending the work in what has so often been termed the "most needy field," is attracting attention in many of the more prosperous conferences in the North and elsewhere which only demonstrates the power of God to use the weaker as an object lesson to the stronger. We trust that all our workers will keep so humble that the Lord may continue to bless and prosper their efforts with success, for it is "Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts," that the work is to be accomplished.

The Steady Colporteur

C. J. DART

How dear to our hearts is the steady colporteur,

Who pays his account twelve times in each year,—

Who lays down the money, and does it quite gladly,

And casts 'round the office a halo of cheer.

He never says, "Wait on me; the books are not sold;

My expenses are heavier than now I can meet."

But quite cheerfully says, "Ready, here is the gold,

The people are waiting the next one to greet."

How welcome his check when it reaches our sanctum;

How it makes the pulse throb! And the publishers, too!

We outwardly thank him; we inwardly bless him—

The steady colporteur who pays when its due.

MARK WILSON, Field Missionary Secretary.

OFFICE ADDRESS, Room 333, Hood Bldg., Birmingham, Ala.

HELEN M. KEATE, Sabbath-School and Y. P. M. V. Secretary, Fort Payne, Ala.

ELDER MILLER closed his meetings at Mobile, and left there on the twenty-fourth for Red Level, to which place he was called to counsel in reference to school matters. He expects to be with the tent company at Montgomery over the Sabbath, June 27.

Report from Gadsden, under date of June 22, says, "We had quite a good congregation out last night. Some very nice people attended. The Baptist church near us is holding revival meetings, which take a good many away from us. They will close on Wednesday, I believe."

Brother Wilson is in Eutaw this week, assisting the colporteurs in that place.

Charles Griffiths, who was injured last week, has so far recovered as to be in the work again.

Dorothy Tolman, a little girl of the Long Island Church, has made one dollar win three dollars by selling temperance Instructors. She sold forty one day, and sixty another. This is good. Can not other little girls do the same?

Word from the tent companies at Montgomery and at Gadsden says the attendance and interest in the meetings are increasing. At Montgomery a number have remained after the services to ask questions. Let us all remember these companies every day at the throne of grace.

Elder Miller reports good meetings at Mobile, not a large attendance, but quite a regular one. Some have expressed themselves as fully convinced that we have the whole truth. He says that he can get the place of meeting for only twelve nights.

From the Field Secretary

NO DOUBT all are watching with interest the progress of the colporteur work. This is indeed very encouraging and should call forth from every heart thanks and praise to God. Not for what man has done but for what God is doing.

Since the close of the institutes for the students at the Graysville and Oakwood schools, our time has been spent in the field with the colporteurs. We spent a part of the first two weeks in the northern part of the State with the Jeys boys and the workers at Guntersville. We are much pleased to have our school boys with us and feel sure that the practical lessons of the field work will be of great value to them. The boys have been meeting some trying experiences in the way of sickness, but they are coming with some good reports anyway. Brother Milo's second week gave him $105 and Brother Earl's first week of only thirty-seven hours gave him $53.75. We feel sure the boys will be in the Graysville school another year.

The students from the Oakwood school are all of good courage and are meeting with the best of success. Their reports are running from $50 to $155 per week. One of the brethren had to pass through some severe discipline at the hand of a fellow countryman a few days ago. The man had been made the overseer of a plantation and the colporteur was canvassing the farm. This overseer came with the plea that he wanted one of his books and after being shown the prospectus, took it from the colporteur's hand, stating that he desired to keep that one. The colporteur insisted that it was only a sample and that he would need it to continue his work. In the tussle for the prospectus the colporteur received a blow on the head, cutting a small place. We are glad to state that he is out in the work again and we feel sure the experience will be helpful to him and a warning to all of us, that we are coming to the time when we can not work. We remember the Lord told us several years ago, that the work which we had not done then, must now be done under trying circumstances. We are now passing through that experience but we are not discouraged. Indeed the Lord is doing great things for the colporteur work. We are making a gain of from fifty to seventy-five per cent over the same months of last year.

We will be with the students two more weeks and then return to the office to get our records and reports ready for the camp-meeting. Remember the faithful colporteurs at the throne of grace. The people are terribly stirred over the boll-weevils in their cotton, but such things only furnish a text for the wide-awake colporteurs. Pray the Lord to give wisdom, courage, and zeal to press on in this great work.

OFFICE ADDRESS, Nicholasville, Ky.

Report from the Field

At the time of my last report I was at Panola. We held two meetings at the home of Brother Kindred and those attending gave close attention to the truths presented. I next went to Nicholasville and spent a few days at the office.

I then took the train for eastern Kentucky, and arrived at Webbville at six o'clock in the evening. I went to the hotel and spent the night. There I found opportunity to talk and pray with some people who were desirous to know about the truth. The next day at ten o'clock the mail-carrier arrived and brought a horse from Blevins to carry me to the home of Brother Ratliff, where I spent three days and spoke, two nights, to a good congregation at the schoolhouse.

The believers of the Halcom Church were encouraged and strengthened. We only have a few left at this place who are living the truth but some of them plan to attend the camp-meeting.

From the Halcom Church Brother Ratliff accompanied me, on horse back, to Davisville. We had a very pleasant trip as it was a cool day. We arrived at the home of Brother Lindsay Ramey and there met Brother and Sister Dow who were looking for us. We were glad indeed to see them and to learn of their courage. The night meetings were well attended. On Sabbath morning I was pleased to see forty-two present for Sabbath-school at 8:30 o'clock. Because these brethren obey God's commands the people did not want them to use the schoolhouse for their meetings. So one of the brethren gave them the use of a house and they have put in seats and have a very comfortable place of worship. Our meetings were made very impressive by the presence of God's Holy Spirit. Hearts were melted and confessions made. Sabbath evening eleven adults followed their Lord in baptism and we were pleased to see husbands and wives go down into the water together, starting out to live the truth united in their homes. Three young ladies were converted during this series of meetings and at the last meeting held on Sunday night they decided to be baptized. As I had arranged to go the next morning to Salyersville, across the hills, it seemed best to have the baptism at the close of the night meeting. All retired to the creek and at ten o'clock three souls were buried with their Lord in baptism. As the people lifted their voices in song, it seemed that all the woods sang out the praises of God. The birds even seemed to catch the spirit of the meeting and sang. We organized a church of nineteen members, all of them having been baptized into the message. These people, though poor in this world's goods, are rich in faith and they manifest a willingness to give of their money to help carry the message to all parts of the world. There are several more that we expect will come into the organization a little later. God has given those who went into the church victory over the liquor and tobacco habits and has made them clean for the indwelling of his Holy Spirit.

Brother and Sister Dow have done faithful work in laboring for these people and their hearts were made glad to see their labors bring forth such fruit. As they have labored in this part of the State for about one year they have had many perplexities to meet but the angels of God have gone before them over the hills and through the valleys, and crowned their efforts with success. Brother and Sister Dow will remain with this church a few days and will then go to Carter where I will join them later.

June 22 I bade the believers good by and am now on my road to Salyersville. I am glad that soon the work of God will be done and we can lay down the burdens and go into the city of God where the redeemed will meet together from Sabbath to Sabbath.

Camp-Meeting Notes

ORDERS for tents are beginning to come in. Have you placed yours yet?

We have been promised our groceries for our dining-tent at wholesale rates. So we feel sure the board will be as cheap as last year, to say the least. This means that none can afford to board themselves.

The young people of the New Orleans church have organized an orchestra to furnish music for the camp-meeting. We believe this will greatly improve our singing. They are practising on the good old Advent songs.

The work of preparing the camp will begin early, so that a little time for rest and spiritual refreshing will be given the workers before camp-meeting begins. We are sure that this will better fit them for the burdens of the meeting.

Bring the following articles to camp-meeting: Liberal supply of bedding, especially sheets, towels, mosquito nets for the beds, and a few rugs, a small mirror, and toilet articles. The rest can be secured on the camp ground. But above all, bring with you the blessed Spirit of God. Come to help make the camp-meeting a success.

One sister writes to inquire if she can secure some magazines to sell, to help her get to camp-meeting. Certainly, and are there not others who would like to do the same thing?

General News Items

DR. W. WILLIAMS has given up his position as pharmacist in a drug store in Alexandria, and has gone to Nashville to take some instruction in connection with Brother Scott's meeting there, expecting to enter the work upon his return to Louisiana.

The New Orleans Church No. 2 has purchased and paid for a lot, and has raised $1,000 toward their new church building. Work on the new building will soon be begun. They still have some copies of that excellent little book, "Sabbath Readings for the Home Circle" to sell, all the proceeds from which will go into their building fund. Only $1.08 sent to the tract society office will bring you a copy of the book post-paid, and will put $1 into the building fund. The book sells ordinarily for $1.50. Order quickly, before they are gone, and the opportunity to help this worthy cause also passes.

Brother Sligh has returned to the State and has connected with Brother Lowry in his tent effort at Athens. His help is much appreciated in this effort.

News Items

ON Sabbath, June 20, the Jackson Church and Sabbath-school met in the tent on the Fair Grounds in which Elder Wiest is conducting his series of meetings. Elder H. C. Balsbaugh spoke at the eleven o'clock hour.

During the past week Brother Virgil Smith has visited with colporteurs at Durant, Enid, and Highpoint. He will make an effort to be with several others this week.

Word from Elder Morrow at Hattiesburg, states that he and Elder Burke have pitched their tent in a new location in the city, and it is hoped that they will have a good attendance.

The last reports from the colored effort at Greenville stated that there was a good interest.

Quite a little has been said with reference to the work that may be done with our magazines. Brother A. H. Friberg, of Meridian, recently sent us the names of seventeen yearly subscribers to the Protestant magazine which he had secured in three or four days while he was going about his regular work. If others would exert the same effort in behalf of this magazine, the Watchman, and our other periodicals, we are sure the same results could be accomplished.

It is encouraging to us to know that so many of our people plan to attend the coming camp-meeting. We have word from several who did not attend last year, that they expect to be here this year. Let all plan to attend, and we believe the way will be opened.

It is necessary that all who plan to attend should send in their orders early for camp accommodations. In a letter sent out recently by Elder Wiest, you will be informed with reference to the charges, and so we shall appreciate it if you will send us your orders early so that the necessary reservations and preparations may be made. Send your orders to the office. It is now less than one month till the meeting.

Camp-Meeting Date Changed

OWING to the fact that so many of our people who are farmers will be unable to attend the camp-meeting at the regular date of July 10-20 and other reasons which I can not now explain, we have decided to change the date of this meeting to August 28-September 7. J. W. Norwood.

News Items

THE Nashville Food Factory at Madison is shaping its affairs with the view of going out of business about the first of September. The stock is being closed out at a special price,—$1.10 worth of foods at list prices for each dollar received on cash orders. The force of workers at the food factory has been cut down nearly one-half and crackers are manufactured, during this hot weather, only as ordered. We are all sorry to see the factory preparing to close its doors. The foods will be greatly missed, not only by our people in this field, but all over the country. Quite a shipment of foods to Nassau, N. P., Bahamas, was made a short time ago.

Brother Luick, who has been employed in the food factory for nearly two years, went to Iowa with his family a few days ago. Brother Tom Brown who has also been employed in the factory has connected with his brother's bakery business in Murfreesboro. For the present his family remain at Amqui.

Brother Norwood reports an increased attendance at the meeting now being held at Jackson, Tenn. Sunday evening, June 21, over two hundred and twenty-five were present.

Brother Pound has returned from an extended tour among our experienced and new colporteurs in the western part of the State. He brings very encouraging reports from this part of the field.

We have just received the first reports from our new colporteurs, Brethren Widgery and Dortch, and their reports are indeed encouraging.

Brother J. A. Young has changed territory. He is now located at Humboldt, Tenn., in the cotton district, where he is working for a fall delivery.

Brother J. S. Moore is preparing to make a delivery the latter part of this month. We received his order for books, the first of the week, to be shipped immediately. Delivering time is the visible climax of the colporteur's efforts. We confidently expect that Brother Moore's hopes will be all realized. The Lord has greatly blessed him in securing these orders and we feel sure he will just as greatly bless him in his delivery.

Elder S. E. Wight, spent Sabbath, June 20, with the church at Bowling Green, Ky.

The sad news of the death of Sister Lizzie Johnson, of Dickson, Tenn., has just been received here at the office. Sister Johnson was one of our faithful isolated members.

Hazel Academy Items

WORK on the farm is progressing nicely except for the dry, hot weather. Some crops have been kept from suffering greatly, by proper cultivation. Prospect for tomatoes is not very promising unless we have rain soon.

Word from various parts of the field speaks of the encouraging prospects for a good school next year. The fact that our workers and people generally, realize more the value of a Christian education to our young people, is one of the most encouraging omens. They must be the burden bearers, and how shall they be able to discharge their obligations unless they make use of the means God has placed in their reach to prepare themselves?

Recent word from Jackson speaks of the increased attendance at the tent meetings.

Professor Halvorsen is at present with the company there, doing stenographic work and otherwise assisting in the tent effort.

In a recent letter from Miss Brown, who is taking work at the teachers' summer school at Mt. Vernon College, she says she is enjoying her work very much, and feels she is gaining many things which will be of help in the school work next winter.

Our bathroom and kitchen sink are now in use and are very much appreciated by those at the home. These things have been greatly needed for several years, and we are sure all will be glad they are now installed. It is our purpose to have things simple and plain, but some conveniences not so necessary in a private home, are almost indispensable where a large number of people are together.

It is hoped that another piano may be provided this year, for the music department. The school has made provisions for strong work in instrumental music the coming winter.

Miss Lura Reed writes from Louisiana, where she is canvassing, that she hopes to return to school next fall and bring her sister with her.

It is hoped that every young person who can possibly do so will attend camp-meeting.

At the Jackson, Tenn. camp-meeting, it is planned to hold a Hazel Academy reunion, and we wish every former student as well as others who are interested to accept this as an invitation to attend. The one held last year was greatly enjoyed by all.

Do not forget to write for as many calendars as you can use to advantage.

"The Breaking of the Day"

THOSE who attended the General Conference last year were greatly blessed in listening to Brother and Sister Paap sing that beautiful and most appropriate song, "The Breaking of the Day." Many of these songs were sold on the ground in single sheets for five cents a copy.

We are sure many will be glad to know that this song is in "Songs for Service," by Charles P. Whitford. The book contains 252 pages and is brim full of the choicest hymns. It is published by the Southern Publishing Association, and will be furnished in the board binding, post-paid, for only thirty-five cents.

Onward

ELEANOR EVADNE ELLIOTT

ONWARD! Upward! Ever on!
Though you tread life's path alone,
Though the way be steep and long,
Keep plodding on the upward way.
There's no night without a day.

Onward! Upward! Ever on!
Over rocky ledge and hill,
Onward plod ye with a will,
Onward though your pace be slow,
Onward for the end you know.

Onward! Upward! Ever on!
Onward through the darkest night,
Onward plod ye in God's might,
On through sorrow or through cloud,
And be clothed in glorious shroud.

Onward! Upward! Ever on!
Pause not, faint not in the dark,
Nearer, nearer, listen, hark!
Hear ye not the angel choir,
And the music of the lyre?

Onward! Upward! Ever on!
Lo, now look before thy face,
Quicken now thy slack'ning pace,
For, behold the glorious place
Where God leads thee by his grace.

Onward! Upward! Ever on!
For beyond the grave there lies
In the distant jeweled skies,
Homes of beauty yet more fair,
Than the earthly mansions rare.

Onward! Upward! Ever on!
Strengthen now thy weary heart;
Watch and pray for time is short.
Soon the struggle will be o'er;
Sin be gone forevermore.

Onward! Upward! Ever on!
In courts above the journey 'll end
Where centuries of years will blend,
And joy and peace forever flow
Like streamlets, rippling as they go.

Onward! Upward! Ever on!
There to join in angel song
Through the ceaseless ages long;
There to flit like birds about,
There to raise the voice and shout.

Onward! Upward! Ever on!
A thousand years there's but a day.
There every path an upright way,
And Jesus there is Lord and King,
And oft in praise to him we'll sing.
Onward! Upward! Ever on!

VERY IMPORTANT

Hereafter matter to appear in the next number of the WORKER after it is received, must be in the printer's hands Wednesday evening of the week before the date of the paper for which it is intended. This is because of a demand from the several conferences that the paper be printed and mailed in time to reach the subscribers before the Sabbath.

Notice

At the solicitation of the Southern Publishing Association management, the date for the Tennessee River camp-meeting was first set for July 10-20. It was believed this would be the best date for the Publishing House workers to attend camp-meeting. Owing to the increased volume of work during this year, as well as to self-denial week, thirteenth-Sabbath offering and mid-summer offering, coming so close together, it makes it impossible for many of the people living in Nashville to attend, and what is true of the Nashville church will be true of all the churches where the self-denial week has been as thoroughly observed.

We also hear that many of the farmers will be deprived of the camp-meeting because of the late season. This is something that no one in the early part of the season anticipated.

Possibly a few of the people could attend better in July than later, but the great majority desire that a change be made, and for this reason, and not because two or three have changed their minds, has the date been changed to August 28-September 7.

From letters received and by personal touch with the people, we know this change will meet the mind of a large majority. We trust that it will be for the best interest of the cause, and that when the time does come for the camp-meeting to be opened, that there will be the largest attendance ever known at any camp-meeting in this State. S. E. WIGHT.

A LITTLE PREMATURE

The announcement that the Nashville Food Factory had closed its doors was a little premature. The factory is still in operation though with a reduced force, and is filling all orders as usual. It will probably close about the first of September. Until its stock is exhausted it will continue to fill orders with fresh, wholesome foods. Do not fear that you will get stale goods. Nothing of the kind will be shipped.

Study at Home

MANY young people are prevented from attending school by circumstances over which they have no control. But they need not despair. They should avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by the Fireside Correspondence School to keep up their studies until circumstances permit them to attend a resident school. One lady writes as follows: "I am enjoying my study (Bible Doctrines) very much indeed, and I find that the message as outlined in the study is clearer to me than at any time during the ten years I have been an Adventist. I thank you for urging me to start in when I did." Another student, engaged in ministerial work, says: "I assure you that from actual experience in both, I place the 'Fireside' above the International Correspondence School in every respect." Certainly he does not refer to the number of courses offered.

The Fireside Correspondence School has some thirty courses prepared, including history, Bible, English, Greek, Latin, commercial, and mothers' normal subjects. For further particulars address the principal, C. C. Lewis, Takoma Park, D. C.

Important Prohibition Item

THE status of the prohibition question before Congress has received a sudden change. About six weeks ago the administration caucus of the House decided to postpone consideration of the Hobson amendment (H. J. Res. 168) until the next session of Congress, which convenes the first Monday in December. The prohibition leaders, while desirous of immediate action, accepted the caucus decree, and for this reason sent out request that the petition work be held in abeyance for the present.

But within the last few days, pressure, presumably from the liquor forces, has been brought to bear in order to force a vote in the House of Representatives on the question. At this writing it is expected that a rule of action will come from the Committee on Rules, naming an early date in July for the consideration and disposal of the Hobson amendment. It will be incumbent upon all those who favor eliminating the liquor traffic to at once send in petitions and strong letters to members of Congress, asking for a favorable vote on the proposed amendment. A good, strong, respectful letter to individual members of Congress will do as much, if not more, than petition blanks containing a few names. However, the petition work should not be discarded. It is to be hoped that our churches and leaders throughout the country will give this matter prompt attention. Church officers and leaders should address letters to the respective members representing the districts in which the writers are located.

S. B. HORTON,

For Religious Liberty Association.

Low Prices on Cooking Oil

Have you noticed the special prices the Nashville Food Factory, at Madison, Tenn., is giving just now on cooking oil? These prices are the lowest yet quoted by anybody who has the best grade of oil. Five-gallon can free on board at Madison, $3.85; two five-gallon cans, $7.60.

"THE soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing."
