The Good Shepherd

INTO a desolate land,
White with the drifted snow,
Into a weary land
Our truant footsteps go:
Yet doth thy care, O Father!
Ever thy wanderers keep;
Still doth thy love, O Shepherd!
Follow thy sheep.
Over the pathless wild
Do I not see him come?
Him who shall bear me back,
Him who shall lead me home?
Listen! between the storm-gusts,
Unto the straining ear,
Comes not the cheering whisper:
"Jesus is near?"
Over me he is bending;
Now I can safely rest,
Found at the last, and clinging
Close to the Shepherd's breast.
So let me lie till the fold-bells
Sound on the homeward track,
And the rejoicing angels
Welcome us back!

Our Camp-Meetings

Mississippi Camp-Meeting

THIS meeting was not as large as in former years. However, more were in attendance than was at first expected. Those who were present received much good and many blessings.

Each evening we enjoyed listening to the presentation of the truth in a way calculated to reach those who know it not. Previous to this Elder Wiest had held meetings for the public in the tent and this was the continuation of the series. There was a good attendance from the outside. It is believed that many additions will be made to the church as a result of this effort.

Elder R. W. Parmele of New Orleans attended the first three days and Elder F. W. Paap, of Baltimore, Md., came the next morning after Elder Parmele's departure and remained until the close of the camp-meeting. The labor of these men was greatly appreciated.

The conference business passed off pleasantly. The same officers were elected for the ensuing year and practically the same committee. The tract society report was exceedingly interesting because of the marvelous development of the book work in this conference. They were somewhat perplexed to know how to finance the conference inasmuch as tithes, at this season of the year, are low. However, this was cheerfully taken care of by the liberality of the campers and provision was made to relieve the embarrassment. This conference closed the first six months of this year with twenty-one cents a week to missions for each member. This is certainly a good record and we trust all our people will take notice. The people in Mississippi are not wealthy. Within the last year there have been forty-three bank failures, but in the face of hard times they have, by systematic giving, turned into the treasury of the General Conference more than their quota of the foreign mission money. May God help the people of Mississippi and all this union to come up to the help of the Lord and fall behind in nothing. S. E. WIGHT.

Camp-Meeting Notes

THE Mississippi camp-meeting opened in Jackson, Miss., July 23. The camp is located on the State Fair Grounds, in the shadow of the old historic capitol building, and at the head of the principal business street of the city.

A neatly arranged and well equipped book-tent stands near the entrance to the grounds where the interests of the publishing work are well cared for by Brother W. A. Woodruff, the tract society secretary. The book stand presents an attractive appearance and is a credit to our work.

Very interesting reports have been rendered by the different departments of the conference. The field agent's report revealed the fact that over $23,000 worth of orders had been taken during the first six months of the present year, also that there was a gain of more than $1,000 in deliveries over the corresponding period for last year.

The Sabbath-schools of Mississippi contributed $700 to missions during the year 1913 while for the six months ending July 1, 1914, the donations were $462, showing a splendid gain.

The treasurer's report was one of great interest. For the year 1913 the tithes receipts were $2,776.78. The twenty-cent-a-week fund brought in $1,981.04 or twenty-nine cents per member and for local conference work, $1,624.50. From a comparative report since 1910 it was shown that there had been an increase in foreign mission offerings from $801.19 in 1910 to $1,081.04 in 1913 while the donations to various enterprises in the home land increased from $423.35 to $1,748.69 during the same period.

The tract society report showed that there had been a net gain of $614.03 for the past year.

Professor L. H. Wood, principal of Southern Training School, Graysville, Tenn., also Professor A. N. Atteberry of Hazel Academy spent several days at the meeting.

Elder S. E. Wight and Brethren J. W. Davis and G. H. Curtis attended the meeting, representing the union conference.

Publishing and Colporteur Work

With the Men Behind the Books

OUR publishing and colporteur work is very largely a pioneer work. The real results of the efforts put forth by our faithful colporteurs are seldom known to them. The harvest of souls from this pioneer seed-sowing is largely reaped by others. But, it is none the less certain. There seems but little question that no other part of our work produces the results that does the colporteur work, and yet, in most cases these results are unknown to those who engage in this pioneer work with the printed page.

For our encouragement, no doubt, the Lord permits, from time to time, some of the results of the colporteurs' faithful labor to be seen. Only recently we learned of three churches having been raised up as a result of the work of one colporteur. And now comes word of a lady living far out on the western plains who has accepted the truth through reading that good old book, "Daniel and the Revelation." The only Adventist she has ever seen was the faithful colporteur who sold her the book. Nevertheless, she is a loyal Seventh-day Adventist and is so regarded by her neighbors. We know not who this worker was, and doubtless he will never know the final outcome of that visit until he gets over into the new earth. Surely we have abundant evidence that "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, (margin, 'seed basket') shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."

In the words of the song we often sing, we can say as we follow the colporteur reports, "New heights I'm gaining every day." God is certainly going before those who dedicate themselves to his service, in a remarkable way. Some days may record more accomplished than others. Some weeks, or even months, may not equal some that have gone before, but the advance, taking all together, is regular and steady. Let us therefore thank God, take new courage, and buckling on the armor a little tighter, reach out for greater achievements.

LOUISIANA

Brother Ezra Eaton, one of the Graysville students, is working in the northern part of Louisiana for a scholarship. In a recent letter from the secretary of the Louisiana Tract Society the following reference is made to his work:

"He has lost quite a lot of time for the reason that the other brethren with whom he has been working have both been very sick and so he has not been able to get in full time. For week ending July 18 he reports 48 hours, 58 orders, value $190, helps $1.20, making a total of $191.20. This seems like a pretty good report.

"Then again Brother George Colvin put in his first week and reports 42 hours, 22 orders, value $68 and says that this week he is planning to make it $100. These two are the first from the field this week and I believe we shall make it over $500 for the week. After camp-meeting we want to start sliding the weekly reports from $500 on up and reach our mark of $10,000 for the year 1914."

In the same letter Brother Godsmark also writes:

"According to the general report Louisiana led the entire Union for the month ending June 27. Rather I should say we were the foundation inasmuch as we held the bottom place. Not a record to be proud of I can tell you and yesterday Brother Leavelle and I held a council of war in regard to it. The more quickly we can forget the disgrace the better it will suit us. The way we will forget it is to talk about it and make strong efforts to present that place to some other conference. So if you hear of our making a present of that kind you will know the reason."

It is indeed encouraging to see Louisiana waking up to the fact that it is not necessary for her to always remain at the bottom of the list. We only hope that the good resolution mentioned in the foregoing paragraph will be carried out. It will no doubt require hard work, and some long hours out on the firing line, but that is the place where victory is to be obtained.

THE SOUTHEAST FORGING AHEAD

In a letter received a few days ago from Brother V. O. Cole general agent of the Southeastern Union, he writes:

"The last report from Florida shows that they now have nineteen colporteurs in the field, and that they took orders to the value of $1,248.95 during the past week. Hence, we now have two local conferences in this Union that are passing the $1,000 mark per week. To the Lord we desire to give all the praise for this. We do not want to forget, however, that he is doing it through the humble instruments that go from door to door. We have some true metal over here, and our faithful field agents are getting right down in the ditch with the boys, and the Lord is greatly blessing their efforts."

It is usually the case that in those conferences where the colporteur work is making the greatest advancement, the field agent spends nearly all his time right out in the field with his workers. Unless he does this, he is not living up to his responsibilities, nor to his opportunities. It is indeed a privilege for the field leader to go out and work side by side with each one of his faithful workers. It not only helps them, but it also gives him a fresh experience and renewed courage and confidence in the speedy triumph of this message to which we are giving our lives.

NEW HOME WORKERS' PROSPECTUS

The new prospectus for home workers is now ready. This contains a very choice selection, all of which have been demonstrated to be good sellers. The price of the prospectus has been cut down to fifty cents post-paid, and at this low rate it is expected that a large number will be used in each conference. Order through your tract society as usual.

R. L. PIERCE.

It Is Being Prepared for You

BEFORE me on my desk are the proof pages of the new harvest ingathering number, just sent over from the Review and Herald across the lawn. The cuts are in Philadelphia where will be made the plates for the pages. These will be prepared in the latest improved method for the long, steady run ahead that will be required in printing the six, seven or ten hundred thousand copies that you good people out in the fields shall order of them. Presses are already hard at work getting the three-colored cover pages ready, into which the body of the paper will be inserted when printed.

A little booklet of helpful suggestions from the officers of the General Conference, also another message from the pen of Sister White, signed in the familiar hand, though a little trembly now with the weight of years, which speaks especially regarding our harvest ingathering work, with its great possibilities for winning souls to Christ, together with most excellent experiences from a large number of those who gained them last year as they went out among friends and neighbors and strangers, is now being printed and will soon be ready to send out to all the churches.

Reports from the early camp-meetings speak of the lively interest manifested in the harvest ingathering work. Some conferences are taking for themselves an aim higher than the average suggested by the executive committee of the General and North American Division Conferences. All of which is very encouraging indeed.

The prospects are good, therefore, that we shall have the best time this autumn with our good missions* number of the Review that we ever have had. It will all depend upon the individual soldiers of Christ forming the ranks as to what we shall accomplish. By all getting ready and all doing our individual part, a grand, good work will surely be done. Let every one reading these lines resolve now before the Lord that he will do more this year than ever before, by reaching more people with this live mission-filled number, and receiving more in actual gifts for missions than in any previous year.

If by August 15 you do not receive your leaflets, mentioned above which have been sent to the elder of your church direct from the Review and Herald, write to your tract society secretary for one, so that you can be studying and preparing for work.

"God's love for his Church is infinite. His care over his heritage is unceasing. . . . He has a work for all to do. There must be constant enlargement and progress. The work must extend from city to city, from country to country, and from nation to nation, moving continually onward and upward, established, strengthened, and settled."—"Testimonies for the Church," Vol. 9, p. 228.

How to reach the camp-grounds when you arrive at Montgomery: Take car at depot, get transfer to High and Holt Street. Transfer at Court Square to High and Holt car which will take you to the camp at Hamner Hall Place.

Elder Miller and Brother Mark Wilson went to Montgomery Thursday to look after the camp preparations. Others will join them Sunday and Monday.

Remember the first meeting of the camp-meeting will be on Thursday evening, August 6. Be sure to come in good time for the first meeting. Bring sufficient bedding with you.

We have been promised good help from both the Union and Division Conferences. Come and enjoy this annual feast.

If any can not come to the camp-meeting, be sure to subscribe for the WORKER (fifty cents) that you may get the next best—to read about it.

As only six of the seventeen white churches in this conference, and six of the colored churches reported home missionary work for the quarter ending June 30, 1914, Alabama's report is incomplete. We trust that each church will keep a record of the work done in the future so that they will be able to send in a full report immediately at the close of the present quarter (September 30). Missionary secretaries desiring individual report blanks for their members may have them by writing to the office, 333 Hood Building. A church missionary record book, containing full instructions, and one which will last for five years may also be obtained for thirty-five cents.

Terrel Allen returned to his field of labor last week after spending a few days with the home folks. He goes with a determination to make two scholarships before school begins this fall.

The colporteurs will all regret to know that Milo Jeys, one of the students from the Graysville school, was forced to leave the field because of illness. In a letter received from him, in Iowa, he states that the physician thinks an operation for appendicitis will be necessary.

The good reports are still coming in from the colporteurs and we have hopes of reaching our goal for July. Are you watching the reports and praying Friday evening and Monday morning for the success of the colporteurs?

We hope all the regular colporteurs and all who have ever canvassed any in the past will come to the camp-meeting. We need you, even if you do not need the meeting.

Camp-Meeting

WE are very anxious to have all our people as far as possible attend this annual feast. I hope that we will see a large attendance of our brethren from all parts of the state. I know we have been having a drought and some will feel they can not spare the money to attend but it would please the enemy to keep our people away from the feast which God has for his Church. We should even make sacrifices to be present at the camp-meeting.

We are expecting good help from the General and North American Division Conferences. Elder Paap, who has been in the foreign fields, will be with us and his help will be greatly appreciated I am sure.

The rent on tents without floors will be two dollars. Meals will be served on the European plan and the cost will be as reasonable as it can be made and still cover expenses.

If you miss this meeting you will fail to get the blessing that God has in store for his people. I trust that fathers and mothers will make an effort to be present and to bring their children with them. Begin now to pray for God to send his Holy Spirit to lead in all the meetings.

Do not forget to write at once and order your tent. State if you desire a floor in it and also tell us what furniture you will want.

B. W. BROWN.

News Notes

ELDER LINDSAY writes that his tent is filled to overflowing every night. His congregations average about four hundred a night.

Brother Amos Allman has sent in word from Burnside, telling of a new family of Adventists in that place.

Sister Love has gone to Madison, Tenn., to be with her father who is ill.

Sister Gatton, of Louisville, writes of her magazine work and states that she is planning to attend the camp-meeting.

Brother Hicks, of Indiana, was an office visitor the past week. He was looking for a location where he could locate his family in our conference.

Brother Harry Jacobs and family spent Sabbath, July 25, with the believers in Nicholasville.

Sister Pearson, of Winchester, tells us that there seems to be quite an interest among the colored people of that city. A call is made for a minister to be sent there.

Elder Brown attended the board meeting of the Southern Training School the past week. He also visited with the churches of Bowling Green and Hartford.

Some have already ordered their tents for camp-meeting. Have you sent in your order yet? If not, you had better do so at once.

Brethren White and Dow report that their tent meetings are progressing nicely and their attendance has been increasing during the week.

Miss Flossie Callender, of Henderson, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. H. U. Jacobs, at Stanford.

Brethren Osterman and Keitts have begun their tent meeting at Bowling Green. The attendance is small but is increasing each evening.

Brother P. A. Williams of Powder Mills has recently sent in a remittance. He stated that he has been made to rejoice because the work of God is progressing in the earth.

Brother James Meyers of Lexington reports that there are some who desire to unite with the church there when a minister can be present.

Brother Winston writes from Louisville, telling of the progress that is being made on the new colored church in that place. They will begin to plaster at once.

Elder E. H. Rees has begun a series of meetings at Slick Rock in the home of Brother Williams. The meeting is being held in an arbor.

Miss Bessie Mount writes that they now have a Sabbath-school organized at Frankfort. We are pleased to receive this news.

Do not forget the educational day to be observed in all our churches, August 8. If you have not received the program which is found in the magazine Education, write to the conference office for one at once.

The August Watchman should have a large circulation in Kentucky. You had better order fifty or a hundred copies.

Louisville

God is richly blessing in the work for the people of the city of Louisville. We planned to conduct three efforts this season so we commenced our first effort the first of May and closed it the latter part of June. As a result of the work done, eight souls began the observance of the Sabbath.

We are now entering upon the fourth week of our second effort which is the best I have ever been connected with. We are glad to report that at this writing about twenty have promised to keep the Sabbath. Our attendance has been large from the first and has increased during the proclamation of the Sabbath truth.

On Sunday nights our attendance is gratifying indeed. One evening there were by actual count two hundred twenty-five outside the tent because they were unable to obtain seats.

Our tent will seat about three hundred people, which, with those on the outside, made a total of more than five hundred. Beside this, many who could not find seats did not remain for the service. The other nights of the week we have our tent full and about one hundred standing outside.

We plan to close this effort within two weeks in order to attend camp-meeting. Since the attendance has not decreased but rather increased during the study of the Sabbath question, and many are stirred in their hearts over the truth, and since other very important and attractive subjects are yet to be dwelt upon, we have reason to believe that our overflowing attendance will continue until the close of the effort.

We believe God will call out of Babylon, during this effort, a goodly number of souls. We are surrounded by great Catholic churches and institutions—the largest Catholic congregation in the city being only two blocks from the tent—yet many Catholics are attending our meeting.

Our collections have been good and we expect to be able to defray all the expense of the tent effort with donations from the people. We are praying for a harvest of souls and it causes our hearts to rejoice to see the earnestness of the people who are seeking after the truth. A number of them are already attending the Sabbath service at the church. God will surely cut the work short in righteousness.

Our Bible worker, Sister Annie Hornung, is kept busy giving the precious readings and she has the joy of seeing souls accept the truth as a result of the faithful work she is doing. We greatly need more Bible workers.

The Lord has added ninety-nine souls to the Louisville Church in the last two years, a few of which are still subject to baptism. These together with the new Sabbath-keepers, who have recently accepted the Sabbath, swell our number of believers in a way that causes rejoicing among us. At the time of the Union Conference in January we asked God for one hundred souls to be added to the Louisville Church during the year 1914. Since then we have had joy in seeing people come into the church, and we sincerely hope and pray that God will grant our petition. We desire to be used by God as the potter uses the clay, that his Spirit may bring conviction to many honest hearts and win them to the truth and that soon, when the work is all finished and Jesus comes, we may see in the kingdom of God these dear souls and with them be gathered around the great white throne.

Jackson

NO DOUBT the brethren and sisters throughout the conference will be glad to learn of the progress that is being made in connection with the work at this place.

We pitched our tent on the tenth of June on a nice lot located in west Jackson, about four blocks from the grove where the camp ground was last year, and were ready to begin our series of meetings on the night of the twelfth. We spared no pains in fitting up our tent in an attractive manner and getting out a line of advertising that we hoped would draw the people. The first night there were eight persons out, aside from our own people. The second night there were not so many, and it began to look as if the hard experiences of the past were going to be repeated. This condition of things drove us as workers and as a church to the source of all strength, and we sought the Lord most earnestly for help in this time of need. At our Sunday morning workers' meeting we had a most remarkable consecration service, a meeting not soon to be forgotten by those who were present. The Lord answered our prayers and the following night our seating capacity was not sufficient to accommodate the people.

Not only have our crowds been good throughout the entire series of meetings, but we have succeeded, far beyond our expectation, in getting the truth before the people by means of the daily press. The editor has been very kind, and has given us from one-third to a full column write-up every day. We almost feared to send the synopsis on "Who Changed the Sabbath" to the editor, as he is a Catholic, but to our surprise it was the only synopsis in the whole series that came out on the front page of the paper. We can not tell yet just what the outcome of this effort will be. A great many have become interested in the truth. Some have taken their stand, and we hope to gather a good harvest of souls as a result of the work that is being done at the present time.

The fact that we have no church home has been a great drawback to our work in this city for a long time. After studying the situation over carefully it was decided that we should secure a lot and build as soon as possible. Accordingly we launched a campaign some three weeks ago to raise money for this purpose. The Lord's blessings have attended our efforts along this line. We have secured a nice lot one block from the West Jackson car line, and by the time this paper reaches its readers the work on the church will be in full blast. Some donations have been sent in from different parts of the conference. In behalf of the Jackson Church, I wish to extend to the donors our most sincere thanks for these and all other donations that our brethren may feel impressed to give toward the building of this church. We believe that this is a step in the right direction, and we trust that it is the beginning of the end of the many difficulties that have stood in the way of our work for so many years in the past. Let our people throughout the conference remember this work in their prayers. Those in charge are desirous that every advance step may be taken in the providence of God, and that all may be done in such a way that he alone will be glorified, and his cause advanced in this city.

We as workers and as a church greatly appreciate the help that Brother Norwood has been able to give in connection with this effort.

SISTER ROBERT McKEAGUE, from Honolulu, writes: "We are receiving the Gazette regularly now, and I find it an invaluable aid in preparing programs, etc. I will ask our tract society secretary to place a standing order for the reading course books with the Review and Herald, so we may not be delayed again.

"It seemed impossible for me to finish the reading course books until lately it occurred to me to read them on the street car. In this way I have finished two, and will have finished the third by the time this reaches you."

Sister Prieger has started a French Missionary Volunteer reading course in Haiti, and is having the Morning Watch Calendar translated into the French.

Sister Fischer writes from Cuba: "Our mission society numbers over ten members. Brother Allen thought it wise to admit some of the older folks as members, as they are taking the reading course.

"The local society of Minas has a membership of twenty. The majority of these are young people, including a few children.

"Some of our members are holding Bible studies in a village here where the sugar mill is located. They report a good attendance at the meeting."

A MOTORCYCLE temperance lecturer left Philadelphia a short time ago on a trip covering the principle cities of the United States. He will also solicit for the Instructor Temperance Annual.

A business man in San Francisco recently resigned his position as bookkeeper in order to take up soliciting for temperance Instructor. This man writes that he is not leaving his business in order to take up the Instructor work in a tame manner but that he expects to throw his greatest efforts into this temperance Instructor work. He says, "It is time for the temperance people of California to do something big—to give marked prominence to the circulation of temperance literature." He apologizes for his estimate of the number of Instructors he desires to circulate. He says he has "a million idea."

Other temperance lecturers and workers all over the United States and Canada are soliciting for the Instructor Temperance Annual. All of them pronounce it the best temperance paper in existence.

Our Berean Library

For many years there has been an urgent demand, in the prosecution of our work, for an altogether lower-priced literature, and this demand has at last been met in the Berean Library with its eleven truth-filled volumes, containing something like 4,000 pages in all, which is available for the small sum of $1.86 plus the postage.

Surely God is going before his people, and preparing the way for the earth to be sown with the pages of truth "like the leaves of autumn."

This excellent set of eleven volumes is but one of the many mighty agencies in our hands for the finishing of the work, and I feel confident that it will contribute a full share in making possible our goal of at least one soul each for Christ.

It has been the writer's privilege to attend a number of our early camp-meetings this year, and at each of these important gatherings a large number of sets of the Berean Library were ordered by our people, and a testimony of universal approval is borne in their favor. Just think of it—eleven volumes for the price of two; and then, too, they contain God's great message for the hour!

We have suggested that our people read again those of the set they have already read, and carefully study each volume. When we see the power and beauty of these message-filled books, we can not but want to loan them to our neighbors and friends with a strong recommendation that they read them also.

By the time one has read these eleven volumes, he will be so filled with the message that there will be but one thing for him to do, and that is, apply for church membership.

You can see, dear brethren, what a wonderful help this is going to be to us in the finishing of this work.

At least one soul! The way to get one is to sow the seed. Sow plentifully. Do not become weary in the sowing, for in due season we shall reap if we faint not. If you want to bring ten souls to Christ, get after one hundred.

Some have ordered ten sets of the Berean Library. How many can you handle? If you begin with one set, and press into every opening, embracing every opportunity and laboring in faith, you will soon want a second one.

This morning Brother Ford received an order from one conference for two hundred and fifty sets of the Berean Library—2,750 books—to be sent direct to the camp-meeting. It is impossible to estimate all that is represented in this goodly supply of seed for the sowers.

The plan is to loan these volumes to our friends and neighbors. Use them as the interest grows, consequent upon a faithful distribution of tracts in your assigned territory. There is nothing like having a definite patch to work. Take one or more streets and carry forward the work systematically from week to week.

We would like to have you join us in this mighty soul-winning campaign. Bring the matter up at your missionary meeting, and encourage all to take hold of this with all the other lines of missionary endeavor; then the day of his glorious coming will surely be hastened, when we shall all be gathered home. "We shall come rejoicing, bringing in the sheaves."
F. W. PAAP.

Norfolk Island

BROTHER A. H. FERRIS sends a very interesting report from Norfolk Island: "We have a nice little church of about fifty members including a live young people's society. We hold our young people's meetings Sabbath afternoon. The interest taken in the doctrinal study, and the reports of missionary work done are very encouraging. Last week, on the subject of 'Righteousness by Faith' twenty-two passed the examination, receiving one hundred per cent each.

"Old and young take doctrinal studies together. It is quite interesting on examination day. We have a long veranda at the mission house, and we place tables at intervals where all who can write the examination receive paper and write under the strict supervision of the deacon, Brother Sidney Nobb, a grandson of the old Pastor Nobb of Pitcairn. The children, and those who can not write pass into a school-room where I examine them. One little girl who was regarded as mentally unable to acquire knowledge, has passed five doctrinal examinations without one mistake. Each month she takes twelve papers to her part of the island and distributes them among people who a short time ago were very prejudiced. Each time she reports twelve papers given away and twelve talks."

"Life and Health" Temperance Special

THE August issue of Life and Health (ready July 3) is a special temperance number, particularly adapted for circulation while the prohibition amendment is pending in Congress. By circulating this number and encouraging others to send petitions and letters to congressmen we hasten the passage of this amendment.

Address, Life and Health, Takoma Park, Washington, D. C.
