"My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work."

VOL. XII

COLTEWAH, TENNESSEE, AUGUST 15, 1918

No. 33

Report of Louisiana Campmeeting

The meeting was held at Lake Charles, in the city park. It was a beautiful place, near a large lake, and on a main thoroughfare of the city. The weather was exceptionally fine during the whole meeting. But the second day after the close a terrible storm came, and not a tree in the grove where the meeting was held that was not damaged or blown down. At the time of the storm the dining, three family and the Union tents were standing. The workers moved to a school house close to the camp and soon people began coming. Their homes were blown down, or so damaged they were afraid to risk their lives in them. The school building in which we took refuge had but few window lights left, and even some of the window frames were wrenched from their place and thrown yards away. We thank the Lord for deliverance from the furious storm.

Elder F. C. Gilbert of South Lancaster, Mass., gave most valuable service. His instruction was greatly appreciated by all in attendance. The Lord greatly blessed, and many expressed a desire to enter the work in some way. The large wage now offered by the world did not look so temptingly in the light of the future. Their desire to hasten the coming of the Lord was greatly strengthened. In the evening of the last Sabbath 18 were baptized. Seven young people definitely plan to go to the Southern Junior College.

Fifteen hundred dollars in cash and pledges was given to Foreign Missions; $125 to army camp literature; 5,800 Crisis books were sold, and best of all, 25 full sets of the Testimonies for the church were sold. Besides all this, a large number of subscriptions to the Review and Herald, Watchman, Union paper, and Yiddish Magazine were taken.

The Conference was held this year in connection with the campmeeting. There was no change in the officers, all being re-elected.

The Conference in all departments shows an increase. There are no debts; there is a good balance on hand in the tithe account. The Tract Society is now in a position to be of strength to the work. It should now become a real factor in the cause.

The Lord certainly has set His hand to finish His work in this State. We may look for great progress in the near future.

S. E. WIGHT.

A Great Question

It is written, "A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work today in my vineyard. He answered and said, I will not; but afterward he repented, and went.

And he came to the second, and said, likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir; and went not. Whether of them twain did the will of his father?" Matt. 21: 28-31.

In this parable the two sons represent two classes of individuals. The same commission is given to both, but one does one thing and the other something different. The question is asked, Whether of them twain did the will of his father?

It is evident that the two classes brought to view in the parable must be church members, for they are sons of the owner, being born into the household. Then, too, both knew that their father had a vineyard, and that it required care to make it fruitful, and thus others (strangers) would be needed to help in the work. The commission was very plain. "Son, go work today in my vineyard." It mattered not what their answer was, or what they had previously done, the commission was for today, and what they actually did was what determined their faithfulness to their father.

The parable does not state that the second son did nothing. He may have had many cares and been doing a worthy work according to his own preference, but he did not do the will of his father.

Today we are living in a time when the cares and pleasures of this life are leading many away from doing the will of God. Many are serving their own preferences or will. Yet, "All who would be sons and daughters of God must prove themselves co-workers with God and Christ and the heavenly angels. This is the test for every soul." Christ's Object Lessons, page 283.

Having made a profession, we are now listening to the commission, "Go." What our answer is matters not, but our works will show whether our profession is genuine. The will of the Lord for every Seventh-day Adventist is the proclamation of the third angel's message. Our monthly magazines form an excellent medium for doing this work. Will you, therefore, settle this great question today by selling a few magazines each week and thus help in finishing the work of the gospel? C. E. HOOPER.

Death of Elder Butler

Elder Geo. I. Butler died at the home of W. T. Heald, Healdsburg, Cal., at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, July 25, 1918, at the age of 83 years. From "Sketch of Life" of Elder Butler we take the following:

"From boyhood until his twenty-second year Elder Butler was a skeptic, leaning toward infidelity. In the Autumn of 1856 he was converted and baptized by Elder J. N. Andrews, in Waukon, Ia. March 10, 1839, at the age of 24, he was united in marriage to Lentha A. Lockwood, whose love and devotion he reciprocated for 42 years.

"In 1865 Elder Butler was chosen president of the Iowa Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, and served in that capacity for eight successive years. In 1872 he was called to the presidency of the General Conference. In this office he served for eleven years. From 1882 he was many years president of the Review and Herald Publishing Association.

"In 1883 he was sent by the General Conference to visit the European fields, where he spent more than a year preaching through interpreters, reporting to our American periodicals, and gathering information, which when presented to the General Conference, led to the establishment of three publishing centers in Western Europe.

"Burdens fell heavily upon his shoulders in the four years that followed. In 1888 his health failed, and he retired to Florida for rest and recuperation. In 1889 his wife, Mrs. Lentha Butler, was stricken with paralysis, which rendered her a hopeless invalid, and for twelve years he cheerfully and tenderly cared for her. November 15, 1901, she died, and was buried in Bowling Green, Florida.

"Early in 1902 Elder Butler was called by his brethren to take the presidency of the Southern Union Conference and the Southern Publishing Association, which responsibilities he bore for six years.

"In 1907 Elder Butler was married to Mrs. Elizabeth Work Grainger, widow of Prof. W. C. Grainger, who, as the first Seventh-day Adventist missionary to Japan, died in 1899, and was buried in Tokio.

"Elder and Mrs. Butler were in attendance at the recent General Conference held in San Francisco and enjoyed the meetings very much. After the conference they were invited to Healdsburg, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heald. Both were worn and needed rest.

"Mrs. Butler's health improved, but with Elder Butler it was different. About the middle of May he was confined to his bed, and in the weeks that followed he steadily lost strength. A cancerous tumor on the spine was affecting stomach, liver, and other organs. During his sickness he was cheerful, and greatly enjoyed the visits of his old friends and companions in labor. He looked into the future without fear, and calmly planned with his wife all business matters which required her attention.

"A strong, loyal standard-bearer has gone from us, but his work lives after him. He was a forceful preacher, a clear, virile writer, and an efficient, able executive."

The Junior Missionary Volunteer Manual

"Is there really a Junior Missionary Volunteer Manual?" I hear the Junior leaders ask. Yes, truly.

It was prepared by Miss Ella Iden, one of the assistant secretaries of the Missionary Volunteer Department, after consulting with our leading Junior workers.

We can say, then, that it represents the best ideas on Junior work thus far. Like children, this Junior work is bound to grow. By and by we will know more about this blessed work for the lambs of the flock, for God is going to do great things through the children in these last days.

The Manual is published by the Pacific Press, has 80 pages, is bound in paper, and sells for 40 cents.

Everyone interested in Junior work should have a copy. The Junior leader cannot afford to get along without it. It was prepared as a summer school text book for teachers. The majority of our Junior superintendents are the elementary school teachers. With the help of the appendix it is just as valuable to any Junior leader, whether teacher or not. Order from your tract society. M. E. KERN.

Education Campaign

SLOGAN

Every S. D. A. Home Personally Visited.

GOAL

Every S. D. A. Boy and Girl in Our Own Schools.

Every Student in Our Schools a Worker.

That's Fine

When I received from the Review and Herald the other day a report of our Educational Campaign output up to August 1, I said aloud, "That's fine!" When I showed the report to my assistant, he exclaimed, "Isn't that fine!" When I read it to a Union secretary and an academy principal, they said in one breath, "That's just fine." And it is a fine report, better than most of us dared hope for at so early a date. Here it is, in the form of totals, representing material sent into the field and orders to be filled:

Campaign Education	32,610
Campaign Leaflets (each)	32,185
Census Blanks	32,160
Home Posters	23,594
Church Posters	2,500

What do these figures mean? For the Educator, they mean more than three times as many as have been used in any previous campaign in its nine years' history, and over 12,000 more than a sort of maximum set at the opening of this campaign. It means enough for a copy for every family and isolated believer in North America. That's fine, for we are all in this campaign together to bring every S. D. A. boy and girl into our own schools. The children of the church, and our schools, belong to all the membership, not to parents only.

For the leaflets, these figures mean 12 times 32,185, or nearly 400,000 since there are 12 of the leaflets. That's fine, for it suggests the familiar phrase "like the leaves of autumn" for our educational work. Our goal for the leaflets is a set in the hands of every S. D. A. reader.

For the Census Blanks, it means that we shall soon reach the estimated total of our young people of school age, 36,000, since one blank serves for only one person. That's fine! Our eagerness to have on file in our Educational offices the name and address of every S. D. A. boy and girl of school age is steadily growing. We have something good in store for them.

For our Home Posters, it means that as soon as they are distributed, one will hang on the wall of every S. D. A. home in North America, with or without children. That's fine, for it will help keep us all keen on adding stars to our attendance flag.

For our Church Posters, it means that the total of 3,000 churches in North America will soon be adding stars to their denominational service flag. That's fine, but it should not be forgotten that this poster should go up also in every school, office, publishing house, sanitarium, and other public place, wherever people go and come, so as to help keep before us our perpetual goal of every S. D. A. boy and girl in our own schools, and every student a worker.

W. E. HOWELL.

Harvest Ingathering Campaign

For a number of months faithful and earnest work has been done in preparation for our 1918 Harvest Ingathering campaign. The subject matter of the paper as well as the mechanical skill shown in its makeup will make it the most effective medium ever used to give to the people everywhere a knowledge of this rapidly growing work. This method of advancing the cause is no experiment. It has, during the past few years especially, proved itself most effective. What we have done is a guarantee of what we can do, and this should be doubly so since we can profit by our experience.

There is one thing that we should watch carefully, and that is the suggestions of the enemy. He will furnish a thousand excuses why we cannot hope to succeed this year. Faith talks of what can be done. To the child of God obstacles are simply stepping-stones to loftier heights. We trust this call to service will not be lightly esteemed by anyone. Many have withheld their service, but the hour is nearing when all opportunities to do service for God will be passed. We must redeem the time. We must settle it definitely now that we will not appear empty-handed.

Every believer should now plan definitely to take part in this great forward movement. Be sure that your supplies, such as goal cards, report cards, official solicitor's cards, papers, and any other necessities, are ordered early. Make every needed preparation and enter into this effort with a spirit that will bring success. We can be assured that holy angels will accompany us. As far as possible all should open the campaign as early as possible in the month of September. Set a good goal and keep right at it till you reach it.

F. W. PAAP.

MISSISSIPPI CONFERENCE

Mississippi Conference Association of Seventh-day Adventists

The Mississippi Conference Association of Seventh-day Adventists, a legal body, will hold its first session in connection with the Campmeeting, on the camp-ground at Jackson, Miss., Sept. 19-29, 1918. The first meeting will be held at 10 o'clock a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 24. At this meeting officers for the coming two years will be elected, and such other business transacted as may properly come before the meeting.

C. J. BUHALTS, President.

N. L. TAYLOR, Secretary.

Mississippi Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

The first biennial session of the Mississippi Conference of Seventh-day Adventists will convene on the camp-ground in Jackson, Miss., Sept. 19-29, 1918, for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may come before the Conference.

The first session will be held Friday, Sept. 20, at 9 a.m. Each church is entitled to one delegate, without regard to numbers, and to one delegate for each 10 of its members. We hope there will be a full representation of the duly accredited delegates from all of the churches of the Conference at this first meeting.

and the names sent in to the secretary of the Conference, Ben C. Marshall, 316 Lyric Building, Birmingham, Ala. Each church is entitled to one delegate for the organization and an additional delegate for each ten members or fractional part thereof.

We hope every church will be represented, as this will be a very important meeting. All officers are to be elected for the incoming biennial term. Who knows but this may be our last Conference meeting? Prophecy is rapidly fulfilling, probation is closing, eternity will soon be here. The campmeeting is a good place to get our spiritual strength renewed. Come to this spiritual feast.

We expect to have with us Elder F. C. Gilbert, one of our most able speakers, with whom many of you are acquainted. L. A. Hansen will represent the medical work. Brother Hansen is a zealous, earnest worker. From the Union we are expecting Elder S. E. Wight, president of the Union; Elder O. R. Staines will represent the Home Missionary work; Elder A. N. Allen, Military Department; Professor John Thompson, Educational and Missionary Volunteer; V. O. Cole, Field Missionary work. A good corps of workers. I am sure you will want to come. The Lord says none can afford to remain away. That is especially true in these closing days of probation.

Alabama Conference Association

The first biennial session of the Alabama Conference Association of Seventh-day Adventists will be held in connection with the Campmeeting and Conference at Birmingham, Ala., September 12 to 22, 1918, for the election of a board of trustees and the transaction of any other necessary business. The first meeting will be held at 10 a. m. Monday, Sept. 16th. The delegates to the association are the regularly accredited delegates to the Alabama Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

A Word From Pensacola

The Sabbath question was presented last Sunday night, July 28th, and as usual we could not accommodate the people who came out to hear. In fact it was our largest attendance. Notwithstanding it rained during the forenoon and early afternoon, God overruled for us and we had nice weather for the evening service.

After filling every seat, all available chairs and boxes, about 100 people sat around on the grass outside, while many went away for lack of room. Our week-night attendance is also very good, the tent being filled comfortably almost every night. Some have already expressed a determination to keep the Sabbath. Surely this is the Lord's doings, and marvelous in our eyes. We especially desire that all will pray that these dear souls now "in the valley of decision" will yield to the pleadings of God's Spirit and keep His commandments.

The donations continue to be excellent, which is another evidence that God is working mightily for us here.

The workers are visiting over one hundred homes, and many have evidenced a deep concern about their relation to God.

We have met with some difficulties, and Satan has been on hand to oppose the work of God, as is his custom. But we are of good courage and are certain that God has a people here who will take their stand under the banner of Prince Immanuel. While we desire your prayers in behalf of the interested ones here, we also ask that the workers be brought before the throne of grace in a special way that He will keep us humble and use us as channels through which He can do a mighty work of saving souls in this city.

KENTUCKY CONFERENCE

Seventh-day Adventist Conference Association of Kentucky

The Seventh-day Adventist Conference Association of Kentucky will hold its first biennial session in connection with the Campmeeting on the campground, Louisville, Kentucky. The first meeting will be called at 10 a.m. Friday, Aug. 30, 1918. At this meeting officers for the coming two years will be elected and such other business transacted as may properly come before the association.

Louisville Effort

The fourth week of the Union tent effort here in this city is now in the past and we can truly say that "The Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear." The meeting opened Sunday night, July 7, and as the solemn truths of the Message have been presented from night to night, a spirit of inquiry has been manifested on the part of the people that is rarely seen. While we are in the midst of the Sabbath Truth, yet there are 25 who have this early decided to obey God's commandments and keep the Sabbath. We have a large list of names of those who are deeply interested and who have requested personal studies.

Letters from those conducting efforts in different parts of the Union show that the time has come for a mighty work to be done, and that the Lord has set His hand to finish the work of proclaiming this message here in the Southland. In the meetings here the attendance has been excellent from the first. The 40x 100-foot tent has been inadequate to take care of the Sunday night crowds, and there has been a fine week-night congregation. Last night, notwithstanding a storm that came up just before time for the meeting, the big tent was full, with many on the outside. All the workers feel that the Lord has blessed in these meetings in a remarkable way.

Associated with Bro. G. A. Davis and the writer in the effort here are the Union Bible workers, Miss Anna Hornung and Miss Ethel Tripp, together with the following Kentucky Conference workers: Bro. M. C. Taft, who is taking up the work of the ministry here; Mrs. M. M. Lucas, Bible worker; Mrs. S. D. Bossing, pianist, and Bro. Andy Schroader, who has charge of the tent. Mrs. J. W. Wilhelm and Mrs. R. I. Keate are rendering valuable assistance, doing volunteer Bible work. Every indication is that there will be a large harvest of souls as a result of these meetings. We ask the continued prayers of the readers of the WORKER that the Lord will richly bless in the work here.

I. M. MARTIN.

Office Mail Bag

Elder Keate reports a new church organized at Lecta last Sabbath, with a membership of eleven.

Elder Martin tells us that 25 people have already taken a definite stand on the Sabbath question.

Brethren Keitts and Winston report continued interest in the tent effort being held in Paris.

Elder J. G. Dasent has arrived, and is busily engaged in formulating plans for the colored campmeeting, which will be held in Louisville, August 29 to September 8. A large attendance is desired.

B. E. Wagner is visiting the churches at Locust Branch, Ford, and isolated brethren in Nicholasville and Richmond.

Campmeeting begins soon. We hope all will plan to attend this important gathering, which will be held August 29 to September 8, in Louisville. Mrs. B. E. Wagner will have charge of the children's meetings at campmeeting, and wishes each child that comes to bring scissors. Parents, please take notice of this.

Brother M. L. Howard reports a very interesting experience. In his canvassing work last week he found a lady who believes the seventh day is the Sabbath. She purchased a "Bible Readings," and expects to study the question thoroughly.

Orders for tents and rooms for the coming campmeeting are coming in, and prospects are that we will have a large attendance.

BURTON CASTLE.

Singing and Our Campaign Song.

We are told to "serve the Lord with gladness," and "come before his presence with singing." Ps. 100:2. When we do this we please the Lord. "I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving. This also shall please the Lord better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs." Ps. 69:30,31.

Paul, the great apostle to the Gentiles, advocated "singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord." Col.3:16. John the Revelator, giving a view of the remnant, emphasizes this virtue: "And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints." Rev. 15:3.

No campaign can be successfully carried forward that does not have the uplift of song in it. We have heard so many expressions of appreciation of our soul-winning song, "Win Them One by One," that we wish to adopt it as our campaign song for this year. We have made arrangements with the publishers to get a supply at short notice and so will be glad to supply any orders at the following prices: 2 copies 10c, 12 copies 50c, 25 copies 75c, 100 copies $2.50. Send all orders, with cash, to Home Missionary Department, Takoma Park, Washington, D. C.

In looking over the records we find this is the largest report ever sent in for the Kentucky Conference. The offerings are $224.48 more than last quarter, and $314.96 more than the corresponding quarter of last year.

We hope that no church will feel satisfied until every church member is a member of the Sabbath School.

Southern Junior College Notes

Our Sabbath service at Collegedale on August 10 was a very precious experience. Professor Wood had charge of the service, presenting from the Bible and Testimonies the great importance of a speedy preparation of our young people, and even the children, for the giving of the last message to the world. After this, the readings prepared for the churches in the Southern and Southeastern Union Conferences were given, and there was a ready response on the part of those present. During the summer our students and some of the teachers are absent, but those here gave money and time amounting to approximately $200.00. The amount would be much larger than this if the means were available to those present.

Brother George Crawford has recently had charge of the work of laying the pipes for the water system. He reports that the boys are working faithfully. Over half a mile of ditch has been dug, and the pipes are being laid in the ditch.

Bro. H. A. Shreve reports that the cement work is going well for the foundation of the boys' dormitory.

Bro. C. E. Ledford, perhaps, has been in greater favor than anyone else on the farm for several days past, as he has been delivering watermelons from the school "Smileage Patch" by the hundred, and he is receiving many smiles, for which watermelons are expected in return.

The Lord is still blessing with favorable weather, and the farm and garden crops are looking good.

Miss Maude Jones has left Collegedale, and will enjoy a rest and vacation visiting friends and relatives at several places.

Miss Margaret Keate has been called away to Birmingham on account of the illness of one of her friends.

Mrs. Boyd reports that 65 dozen ears of sweet corn were dried last week. This corn was of the finest quality, and has been highly complimented by many.

Bro. C. S. Corkham and Miss Reeder and also Professor and Mrs. Beardsley were visitors to the school from the Oakwood Junior College.

We had Brother Cooper from Mississippi over Sabbath.

Miss Dillen and Mrs. Knox from Graysville were visitors at the school.

Miss Orelia Wooldridge has returned for a stay of one week, before going to Florida, where she will engage in church school work.

Bro. A. H. Wolfe, who has charge of the dairy, reports three new calves in that department.

President Wilson On Missions

In a recent communication to the Methodist Episcopal Society the President stated:

"I entirely agree with you in regard to the missionary work. I think it would be a real misfortune, a misfortune of lasting consequences, if the missionary program of the world should be interrupted. There are many calls for money, of course, and I can quite understand that it might become more difficult than ever to obtain money for missionary enterprises, but that work undertaken should be continued, and continued as far as possible at its full force, seems to me of capital necessity, and I, for one, hope that there may be no slackening or recession.

"I wish that I had time to write you as fully as this great subject demands, but I have put my whole thought into these few sentences, and I hope you will feel at liberty to use this expression of opinion in any way that you think best.

(Signed) WOODROW WILSON."

"The Mission of Missions" will be one of the editorials in the September WATCHMAN. What part have missions to play in the great struggle for liberty. Don't fail to read this article and pass the word along to your friends and neighbors.
