THE JULY WATCHMAN MAGAZINE

Speaks out with authority—because the "One having authority" backs it up—in pointing the way out of the moral predicament which every observing man realizes the whole world is in today. And it is no visionary, untried, and unworkable way out, either. The world wants to know, and God knows it has a right to know. Grasp the force of this attention-catching cover and thought-compelling middle-page message.

"The Black Plague of Industrialism," by Horace G. Franks, is a lucid article dealing with a tense situation that just now is getting the eye and ear—also the pocketbook—of every man. Where shall we stand on the labor question?

"Blasting at the Foundations of the Home," of the Socialism Series, by George McCreedy Price and Robert B. Thurber. Socialism is for the moment notoriously, or famously, in the limelight. Here is its acid test. Given the reigns of government, what does it promise to do for our homes?

"The Challenge of the Almighty," by Tyler E. Bowen. God throws his unanswerable arguments into the faces of atheists, infidels, and other non-Christians. Will these carping critics meet the Deity on the field of honor?

In all, 48 pages packed full of reading pat to the times. Scan this list of promising titles:

"It is Not a Matter of Getting to Heaven." Arthur W. Spalding.

"What Does it Take to Make a Weed?" Floyd Bralliar.

"Death in the Air." D. H. Kress, M.D.

"What Will You Do in This Crisis?" Varner D. Johns.

"The Seven Greatest Facts of History." John Lewis Shuler.

Little Talks on Great Matters:

"The Sabbath is Not a Day"—"Do You Do Penance?"—"We Shall Be Changed"—"The Badge of Shame"—"Catch Up"—"God Has Tested It."

"Memories That Make Men." Uthai Vincent Wilcox.

"Sketches From Inca Land." Ellis P. Howard.

"The Time of Trouble." (Simple Truth).

"The Incarnation of Love." Edward J. Urquhart.

"One-tenth to the Lord." Carlyle B. Haynes.

The News Interpreted, on the first pages, keeps you posted on present world issues, and suggests where a Christian ought to stand in relation to them. Trumpet Blasts, on the last page, injects a little wisdom and spice into timely topics.

LOUISIANA CONFERENCE

The Work in New Orleans

Sunday night closed the series of meetings that Elder Bunch has been holding in this city. For six weeks the campaign has been on. Meetings have been held every night except Saturday, and every afternoon except Saturday and Monday. The attendance has been good throughout, several hundred was the average.

Thorough advertising has been done. Elder Bunch has kept good accounts of his meetings in the papers, and as a result of these nearly a hundred people have corresponded with him in regard to the truth, and have asked for literature on different phases of the message. Doubtless a great many have learned the truth in this way who probably never would have learned of it in any other way.

On the last night a call was made for those to hold up their hands who believed that the message that they had heard from night to night was the truth, and nearly every one in the congregation held up their hands. Cards were passed to those who wanted them, and nearly 75 promised to keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus. In addition to these there are about one hundred who are studying, many of whom will doubtless take their stand for the truth before long. We are very much pleased to see the way the Lord has worked in this city.

To keep up the interest Elder Bunch and the writer plan to hold meetings twice a week, on Wednesday and Sunday nights for sometime to come. Also special services will be held each week for the instruction of the candidates for baptism.

It may be of interest to know that during the meetings we received $1,000 in collections, and sold nearly $100 worth of books. There have been given away nearly 12,000 Present Truth. Some of those who have been attending the meetings have been mailing them out to their friends. People from nearly all walks of life have heard the message in the various ways that it has been given. It is our hope and prayer that eternity will reveal some mighty results from our work here.

A. J. MEIKLEJOHN.

Louisiana News

Elder J. F. Wright was a welcome visitor in New Orleans last week.

Mrs. C. Knight spent several days in the city as she passed through on her way to Washington, D. C.

A special business meeting of the New Orleans church was called last week and definite plans were laid for the sale of the church and purchase of new property. A church picnic was also planned for.

In a letter recently received from Brother Babylon, now located at Rio, Washington Parish, he says his people plan to leave for Louisiana the 6th of June. His father has been canvassing for "Our Day" in Maryland, and will continue his work with the same book here. Writing from Hammond, Bro. Bell says:

"I am very glad to report that the Hammond No. 2 Church is nearing completion. The electric lights have been installed, and the building is now begin painted. Our Sunday night meetings are being well attended, and we have quite an interest worked up among the visitors which we hope to develop very soon. One new member was baptized last Sabbath, for which we praise the Lord. Pray with us that more honest-hearted souls may be seen taking their stand for this truth."

Office Mail Bag

Elder Keate spent last Sabbath and Sunday at Covington.

Brother Wilbur Moore is out in the field helping to swell the "Big Week." A card just received from him says that, although it was raining very hard, he had taken four orders in the forenoon.

Elder W. H. White is spending a few days with his parents in Massachusetts before time for our campmeeting.

Please remember that the first business session of the Conference will come on Friday, so everyone plan to come the first day and stay through until the last day.

Brother Claud Hughes reports that they have a new boy at their house. We predict that he will be a successful canvasser, just like his father. To prove that Brother Hughes is a success, I will quote from his letter: "I sold books three days this week where I sold books last year. Sold to preachers and mine foremen. The Lord was along. Pray for me."

Elder J. G. Dasent baptized three more persons at the Chestnut Street church last Sabbath. Several others are just about on the point of entering the church. The Sunday night meetings which he is conducting have been very fruitful, and continue to draw interested crowds.

Brethren Ford and Roy Mote expect to be back in Kentucky in the colporteur work in a few days. They write that their school will be out this week, and that they are bringing with them several new recruits from Indiana.

Bro. Edward Whittier writes that he will enter the colporteur work in Kentucky again this summer, and will bring with him some of the students from E. M. College.

Bro. Ira O. Wallace of the Southern Junior College will be in the field shortly, and is bringing someone with him.

Sister Mary Aldridge, also from the Southern Junior College, expects to be in the colporteur work in Kentucky as soon as school closes. Prospects are bright for the colporteur work in this field.

Bro. C. D. Minnis has been working here in Louisville for several months, selling books, and still continues to have good success in his work. He has been very faithful in his efforts to advance the cause of God.

Bro. R. W. Harris writes that he is still unable to enter the canvassing work, but he says that does not mean that he has quit work, for he says: "I don't want probation to close and me in some other line of work."

Bro. Wm. E. Bickett sends this interesting report. He met a man on the street the other day and this is what he says regarding him: "He is a strong Catholic. I told him about the end of all things being near, and he offered to buy me a new hat if I could prove it by the Bible. It did not take me long, and I received of him $2, and an order for cloth-covered Bible Readings without even showing my prospectus." BURTON CASTLE.

News From the Field

While waiting for my train at Ludlow last week, I met a young man in the station who was waiting for the same train I was, and I soon learned that he was a Baptist minister. After a little friendly talk I asked him what he thought of the Sabbath; he said he thought it was Jewish. We had a real interesting Bible study on the Sabbath, and also on the state of the dead. He asked me if the book I had would give him any light, and show how the Sabbath was changed. Being informed it would, I took his order for "Our Day in the Light of Prophecy."

Bro. Jeff Hickman writes: "Monday I was at Barthell, four miles from home, where I worked five hours and took orders for $85.50 worth of "Bible Readings." Tuesday I worked 6 hours and got $105.50 for delivery next Wednesday. Please rush these to me by parcel post." This is very encouraging. It shows that we do not have to go 100 miles from home to sell a book.

I went last Sunday to Campbellsville to meet Bro. Bickett, who is working in Taylor County. This county was worked last year by two students, but for my first six exhibitions, the Lord gave me six orders and $5.50 advance payment on these. One lady said she had a very sick baby, and could not take time to see the book, so I told her I would be very brief and show her at the door, and I sold her a book. But before I had these good experiences, I went to a thicket nearby and used the wireless, telling Him who knows where every honest soul is—for Central is never busy, it is always on the line.

And you can hear from heaven almost any time.

It is a royal service, and it is free for one and all.

So when you are in trouble, give this royal line a call.

There will be no charge—the telephone is free;

It was built for service just for you and me.

There will be no waiting on this royal line.

Telephone to glory, and receive the answer just in time.

If you fail to get an answer, Satan's crossed your wire

By some strong delusion or some base desire.

Take away obstructions, God is on the throne.

And you will get the answer through the royal telephone.

—W. H. Moore.

The Bible does not say "If you forget your sins he will forgive them," nor is it any token that because a sin is forgotten that it is forgiven; and the opposite is just as true, that because a sin is not forgotten that God has not forgiven. Nothing is easier than for the devil to bring to our minds our past sins. If he brings them up it is a token they are forgiven. If God brings them up it is a token they are not forgiven, or they are brought to our mind as a warning when we are tempted again. The Lord's spirit will call these sins to our mind so that we may confess them. Let us do it. The devil will not spend his time showing us sins that are not forgiven; he wants us to stay "unforgiven," God wants us to stay "forgiven."
—J.G. Lamson.

TENNESSEE RIVER CONFERENCE

Dear Co-Workers:

This is the first time I have attempted to give you any information through the WORKER. It has come to my mind forcibly in the past few weeks that the members of this Conference, especially the young people, are not taking advantage of the circulating library that is kept in this office.

The library is operated on the plan that will give the loan of books to the members at the lowest possible cost. Upon a written request we mail the book or books requested. They may be kept two consecutive weeks before being returned. The only cost to the one borrowing them is the cost of the postage to return them. A fee of one cent a day on each book is charged if the books are kept out over time. This is not to work a hardship, nor is it to make money; it is merely to keep the books circulating and to permit of as many as possible reading them.

The list of books in our library at the present time is—

The American Government

From Judaism to Christianity

The large majority of these books are books of this year's and past years' reading courses. If you have read a number of these books, or any of them, and not received credit for having read them, let me know and I shall give you due credit. I shall send you certificates if you are deserving of them.

Here is an excellent opportunity to improve our education. Let's take advantage of it and keep the books moving.

EARL R. HUDSON.

Union Effort

The tabernacle effort in North-east Nashville, conducted by Elder McComas and his corps of workers, continues with a splendid attendance. More than two hundred interested persons are being visited and are receiving free literature. Many small books have been sold and also a goodly number of the larger books.

For three weeks the Sabbath question has been presented in its different phases. This subject was received with much eagerness, some expressing their desire and determination to keep the day holy unto the Lord.

"Because the law worketh wrath" Eld. McComas was again challenged for a debate. This challenge came from the Foster Street Church of Christ, which church had made its boasts that it would make us leave the city. Elder McComas refusing to enter upon a debate, giving Romans 1:29:33 as the basis of his reason, our Campbellite friends then scattered hand-bills announcing a Monday night meeting, at which time they would expose Adventism. The speaker of the hour had no kind word for us as a people, or for the message which we bear, other than that he commended our zeal, but said we were void of knowledge.

Eight hundred people gathered at the tabernacle to hear Elder McComas on the following night review the speaker. The spirit manifested there was good, and we are reminded that we can do nothing against the truth but for it.

We earnestly solicit the prayers of our people throughout the Union for the success of the work here that many souls may be saved as a result of our work.

P.S.—The papers are to be furnished you in the same way as we do the Harvest Ingathering, with which you are to solicit from the people, giving them a paper. And be sure to clearly state that the money is for the Oakwood Junior College Ten-Thousand-Dollar Fund, when you send it to your church treasurer and Conference treasure so that it will not be misdirected.

If the Specter of Doubt has confronted you, if the "old-fashioned" view of the Bible which grandfather cherished has been fogged before your vision by the "intellectuals", of our day, just read the contribution in the June Signs Magazine by William Jennings Bryan and your faith will renew its vigor, a well-founded assurance will encompass your soul, and you will be glad there is a God in heaven who loves and cares for His children on earth.

At least eighteen consecrated young people are wanted by the Florida Sanitarium, to begin the Nurses' Training Course for Medical Missionaries, the first of July. Opportunities for Christian service were never as they are today, and the worker has no greater field open to him or her than the consecrated nurse. Our facilities for training are good, giving a thorough three-year course, and our school is accredited by the State. Write at once for application blank and course of study.
