Hospital Day at Andrews Memorial Hospital

At the microphone is the Governor Sir Hugh Foot. Seated l. to r. are Hon. C. L. A. Stuart, Minister of Health, Dr. M. Hoehn, Director, AMH; Elder A. C. Stockhausen, Pres. B.W.I. Union; Lady Foot; Sir Alexander Bustamante, Elder O. P. Reid, Chaplain, AMH.

A Hospital Day programme is something new in Jamaica. The administration had talked about it for several years, but 1956 saw the idea become a reality.

On the morning of June 26, last-minute preparations were going according to plan when an emergency surgery arrived to upset the schedule, but the rest of the staff carried on.

From 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. the general public visited and were guided through the institution. Posters and displays were arranged in the various departments and explained by the nurses who led the tours.

The Cancer Society displayed a banner and solicited members in the recently formed Society. The Jamaica Nurses Association plans to erect a building for its headquarters,

A small model of the proposed building was erected in the matron's office. The chaplain's office displayed an open Bible on a simulated pulpit draped in gold cloth, and behind it a picture of Christ. Several hundred copies of "Your Friends the Adventists" were given out by the chaplain.

The X-Ray Department showed an X-Ray picture of one of our patients with lung cancer, and leaflets on smoking were freely distributed. In the kitchen sample trays for the three daily meals were set up. Leaflets on "Why We Don't Serve Meat" were given out.

Comparisons were made between the prices charged by hospitals and average hotels, and attention was drawn to the high cost of the equipment required in surgery, X-Ray, and other departments to operate a hospital, At the end of the tour, a brochure from Andrews and a leaflet on hospital service were given.

Radio Jamaica set up equipment on the grounds where seats were provided and a platform built. Recorded music was played from 4:00 to 5:00 P.M.

At 5 o'clock His Excellency Sir Hugh Foot and Lady Foot arrived with the aide-de-camp, Major Smith. Also present was Sir Alexander Bustamante, Leader of the Opposition. The reception committee took this party on a special tour which ended at the platform where a short programme was planned. The President of the British West Indies Union, Elder A. C. Stockhausen, was chairman of the programme.

Dr. M. R. Hoehn, Medical Director, explained the purpose of Hospital Day, stating that it is a programme to acquaint the public with the function of a hospital and at the same time promote better health in the community. The Minister of Health, Hon. C. L. A. Stuart, arrived and spoke of the need of medical work, and expressed appreciation for what Andrews has done to help meet this need. Sir Alexander Bustamante is an old friend of the institution, and spoke with high regard of the work through the years. Sir Hugh Foot, Governor of Jamaica, spoke of his contacts with our work through the years and expressed his pleasure at seeing the dream of a hospital come to such a fine reality.

Dr. and Mrs. Rittenhouse and Mrs. Shankel provided excellent music and Dr. Rittenhouse sang "The Blind Plowman". Copies of "Ministry of Healing" were presented to Sir Hugh Foot, Sir Alexander Bustamante and Hon. C. L. A. Stewart, and a basket of flowers to Lady Foot. Presentations were made by four little girls dressed as nurses.

Invitations had been mailed out to prominent people in the city. About 250 people in all were present.

Following the programme, light refreshments were served. Then the invited guests were given guided tours through the departments. Copies of "Listen" were given out. Representatives were present from the University College Hospital, Tuberculosis Sanitarium, Kingston Public Hospital, Nuttall's Memorial Hospital and St. Joseph's Hospital.

The following Sunday, Radio Jamaica gave a 15 minute re-broadcast of the programme.

The "Gleaner" gave a 3-column write-up of 13 inches covering the programme with a picture and story.

We feel that much good has been accomplished and goodwill fostered in political and social circles by this Hospital Day programme.

E. J. Heisler Administrator.

BAHAMAS NEWS NOTES

The very healthy climate and the usual hospitality of the natives make South Andros a most enjoyable place in which to work. To fully appreciate the many attractive things about this place one would have to come and spend a short while and see for himself that the half has never yet been told.

This section of our Mission Field is truly a very challenging one, but under the blessings of the Lord, signs of progress have been seen.

At the present time the writer is conducting studies with twenty individuals, twelve of whom are to be baptized by the middle of next month. The enemy of our souls is very vigilant in this area but we lift our voices in praise to God for the indications of victory for His followers.

The most promising feature of our work in this area is our school which is attended by a number of the finest young people. At present many of these youths are preparing for baptism. My wife, assisted by Sister Eulase Forbes, is trying to continue the good

BIBLE CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL

In no other department is a greater soul-winning work being done than in the Bible Correspondence School. Since our last Session, 33,738 students have been enrolled, 12,615 of these having received diplomas. As a result of this 1,401 have been baptized. Elder G. A. E. Smith, head of this department, carries on a large correspondence. A large percentage of the letters coming in are so expressive of appreciation, so alive with experiences of God's goodness and leading, sometimes so pathetic in their revelations, and so earnest in their petitions for solutions to their problems, and prayers for guidance, that the joy of helping souls find Christ and His peace compensates for the ever demanding labour. The Bible Course has also proven a great blessing in preparing fields for evangelistic efforts. Last year the Union launched out by faith and called Elder W. A. Holgate to give his full time to follow-up work for those taking the course.

BUILDING

One of the greatest problems in the British West Indies Union is that of providing adequate church buildings to house our congregations. Elder E. E. Parchment has been giving counsel in the erection of suitable places of worship. During the past six years, 114 church buildings have been completed and dedicated and the beautiful new Spanish Town church is now ready for dedication. A state-ly office building has been constructed in Nassau, Bahamas, and a fine lot has been purchased in Mandeville where we hope soon to see a representative office building for West Jamaica and a building to house the Mandeville church. At the West Indian Training College a new and imposing administration building has filled a great need. At present the building of a new print shop is in process and we hope to start the girl's dormitory very soon. At Andrews Memorial Hospital a duplex cottage has been built and a new roof has been put on to the hospital building inasmuch as the hurricane of 1951 had done extensive damage to the old roof.

INSTITUTIONS

The progress being made in our Medical Institution brings joy to our hearts as we think of the many years of desperate struggle to get the work on a solid foundation.

Today Andrews Memorial Hospital is paying her way both financially and in the high esteem in which she is held by her many patrons. Outside doctors no longer hesitate to take their patients there. In-patients keep our rooms full and out-patients are more than the doctors can take care of. Doctor Hoehn has done much to break down prejudice by his genuine friendliness and helpfulness. He has made time in his busy programme to render free service at the Public Hospital, a Government Institution, each week and the language of his kindness has spoken to the hearts of his medical associates there more than anything he could do.

Doctor Rittenhouse, who has been here less than two years, has won the hearts of our many patrons by his calm and dignified manner, his interest and understanding, and his genuine skill, and both patrons and non patrons by the depth and sweetness of his voice. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Heisler have joined the hospital staff. Mr. Heisler in the capacity of Administrator and Business Manager and Mrs. Heisler as Matron. Elder and Mrs. O. P. Reid arrived from Barbados a few weeks ago. Elder Reid now fills the long-felt need of Chaplain.

The West Indian Training College, under the able leadership of Dr. M. J. Sorenson has made progress. In the six-year period under review, 154 students have graduated from the Junior College, and most of them have found employment in the organized work as ministers, teachers and office secretaries. We have deeply felt the loss of the Bull family, who for many years proved a great asset. We are happy, however, that we have been able to have the services of Elder and Mrs. R. M. Mote and Doctor and Mrs. Shankel. The Shankel-Rittenhouse quartette is like the dessert of the well balanced and nourishing meal to which Dr. Shankel's influence in the college could well be compared, and we hope that our present corps of overseas workers will long remain with us.

Miss Edna Parchment has done splendid work looking after the finance of this institution. The April report shows a gain of $1,618 with subsidy. At last the long felt need of a suitable building to house our Printing Industry is being realised. The new shop is under construction and we hope will be ready for occupancy before many more weeks have gone by. Last year the Printing Industry made very substantial progress and for the first four months of this year there is evidence already of greater achievement. We are just awaiting the green light from the General Conference to go ahead with the construction of the new girl's dormitory, another long felt need.

FINANCE

In looking over the tithes and offerings since our last Session, we are pleased to see a steady

WEST INDIAN TRAINING COLLEGE FAREWELL

As we were ready to reopen school for the second semester we were faced with some vacancies that had occurred as a result of some calls that had come through to some of our staff members.

Elder Oswald Rugless received and accepted a call from East Jamaica Conference to take over the headmastership of Kingsway when Brother Percy leaves for the States for advanced study.

Elder O. S. Rugless

Brother and Sister Rugless have served their alma mater faithfully and well for the last eight years. One of the difficult and responsible positions in a boarding school is that of dean. It requires a lot of patience, wisdom and tact to have the supervision of a hundred boys and to look after them all the time. The Lord has richly blessed Elder Rugless in this work and he has endeared himself to an ever growing circle of young men both in school as well as those who have left school. Brother and Sister Rugless' service in the dormitory and in the classroom will always be gratefully remembered. As this family leaves the hill and enters into a new sphere of service the best wishes and prayers of the College will follow them.

Very recently Southern Missionary College passed on through the General Conference and the Division a very urgent and important call for Dr. Shankel to connect with that institution as head of the Social Science department. After prayerful consideration, Dr. Shankel decided to accept the call. He and his good wife will be leaving us soon to take over this new position.

During the two years the Shankels have been connected with the College they have greatly endeared themselves to both students and teachers. Dr. Shankel has devoted a whole lifetime to the ministry of teaching and the cause of Christian education. His wise counsel and guidance have been of great value in organizing our scholastic programme and in many administrative problems. Also, in the classroom his influence has been felt as the students have sat at the feet of a modern Gamaliel.

Dr. G. E. Shankel

Mrs. Shankel with her husband and with the Rittenhouses has made a valuable contribution to the musical interests of the school. Their wide range of musical talents have been given most generously to the school, to our churches in Jamaica and to the general public. We are sorry to lose them, and their leaving us will be an irretrievable loss.

Miss Laurel Marr has been granted a year's leave of absence by the College Board. She is going to the States for advanced studies and hopes to get her Master's degree from Nebraska University in 1958. She has served West Indian Training College efficiently and well for the past six years. We also bid her Godspeed. We look forward to her return to Jamaica to continue her teaching services at the College.

Miss Laurel Marr

Some of the gaps created by these dear workers leaving have already been filled. We hope by the opening of our new school year in 1957 to have a complete staff again. Our prayers and tender memories will go with these workers as they leave us.

—M. J. SORENSON, President,
West Indian Training College.

YOUTHS' CONGRESS—EAST JAMAICA CONFERENCE JULY 26 — 29, 1956.

The explosion went off and the echo remains with us. From St. Mary to Portland, from St. Catherine to St. Thomas, we can hear whispers of the spiritual impact and the lasting impression which our Youth's Congress burned upon the hearts of the Missionary Volunteers of East Jamaica.

Pastor and Mrs. W. A. Fagal and the "Faith for Today" Quartette have swept us over like a tropical storm. They appeared with expectancy and disappeared with praises.

Our indebtedness to these our guests is beyond our gratitude to repay. They have departed from our fair shores, but have left us to reap the laurels that they have won.

Pastor Fagal's first sermon on Thursday night is a favourite reference library from which many quotations are made by those who heard it, but his sermon at the Kingston Race Course before a congregation of eight thousand people brought our Congress to a grand climax. The people who returned home that Sunday night by specially chartered train went with their hearts burning, and those who went by trucks departed rejoicing in the Lord. The despairing went home with hope for the joys of heaven, and the fearful undertook their journey with courage for the future. To mention the concert at the Ward Theatre at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, July 29, will serve only to make us greater debtors to the "Faith for Today" organization. Dr. and Mrs. Shankel and Dr. and Mrs. Rittenhouse joined with the Quartette to thrill the hundreds of people who occupied seats and standing room in the concert hall.

Another of the great memoirs of the Congress is the vision of what harmonious developments may be achieved when departments of our various institutions combine together in promoting one common cause. The British West Indies Union supplied the official touch; the West Indian Training College gave us the educational ring; the Andrews Memorial Hospital added the health aspect; and most exciting of all East and West bent their cardinal points backwards and merged into each other. We are indeed grateful that Pastor A. H. McLean could have been associated with us in this well-rounded Youth's Congress so that we could have realized our Congress theme, "Christ for Me".

East Jamaica Conference.

work which was so ably carried on by their predecessors, Brother and Sister C. J. Barnes.

Already we are experiencing opposition but we know that God is still leading His church and with your prayers and our continued devotion to the work of God, South Andros can be wrested from the enemy. We solicit your prayers to this end.

EAST JAMAICA'S NEWS NOTES

The City Tabernacle choir of New York City, sponsored by Brother C. A. Pitter, and the Misses Joyce Bryant and Vivienne Cervantes, passed through our Conference recently. The choir gave an outstanding performance before a large audience on the Kingsway High School grounds on the eve of their departure to the States.

* * * * *

East Jamaica Youth were thrilled to have Elder & Mrs. W. A. Fagal and the "Faith for Today" television quartette as special guests at the Youth's Congress which convened July 26th to 29th. Soul-stirring messages were delivered by Elder Fagal. Musical items of rare excellence were contributed by the quartette at each session. In conjunction with the Shankel-Rittenhouse family quartette, the Faith for Today group thrilled the large gathering at the Ward Theatre in a special programme on Sunday afternoon.

The grand climax of the Congress was a mass open air meeting at the Kingston Race Course, where an estimated 8,000 were in attendance. Following Pastor Fagal's stirring sermon approximately 250 souls came forward responding to an appeal to make public confession of their acceptance of the Lord Jesus for the first time and for special prayer and counsel.

* * * * *

A 3-day workers' meeting of the East Jamaica Conference workers convened July 16-19 at the Kencot S.D.A. Church with a full complement of workers in attendance and special guests from the B.W.I. Union. The keynote of the meeting was EVANGELIZE!

* * * * *

The East Jamaica Conference announces the arrival of its newest member, Rudyard Emerson, in the family of Brother and Sister K. G. Lewis of St. Catherine No. 3 District. We pray that God will give Brother and Sister Lewis wisdom to train this little boy for the kingdom.

* * * * *

The office family also has an addition in the person of Miss Ruby Rall of West Indian Training College. We are confident that her presence will give strong assistance to the statistical and Bible House Departments where she is stationed. May God's blessing rest on her.

* * * * *

On August 1st a Dorcas Exhibition and Sale sponsored by Lower St. Andrew and West Kingston Districts will be held at the Kingsway High School grounds. Mrs. Edna Manley, wife of the Chief Minister, will open the Exhibition officially at 3:00 p.m. Many other distinguished guests will be present.

* * * * *

The much needed Youth Centre building at the North Street S.D.A. Temple is making satisfactory progress. We look forward to the completion of this unit to provide adequate accomodation for the young people of North Street and the overflow congregation on Sab-baths.

While we acknowledge with sorrow that our church buildings are really becoming too small for our congregations, we rejoice at the rapid increase in members of the Advent believers, which itself is an indication of the soon return of our Saviour.

* * * * *

From Williamsfield church comes an interesting account of soul-winning interest. Two young ladies under parental control accepted the Advent Message as presented by Brother K. Lewis. Just before their baptism the Anglican Minister told their parents to forbid their baptism, for if they allowed the children to be baptized they would be cut off from the Anglican church. In order to keep back the interest the people of the community are taking in the meetings, the minister supplied tracts entitled "Adventism" to his members to be sold to Seventh-day Adventists and all who attend our meetings. We are happy to report that the very means the devil has used to hamper our success has been used to advertize our work. Many who knew nothing of our work or showed no interest whatever in it are now anxious to know what Adventists believe and teach.

One of the young ladies mentioned above wrote to Brother Lewis stating that despite the threats from the Minister and her mother she is determined to be baptized, for in the Adventist church she found her Lord and Saviour. We solicit the prayers of the readers of the "Visitor" on behalf of these sisters.

CAYMAN NEWS NOTES

On a recent trip to Cayman Brac, the writer found Brother Mahabee, the district pastor, and the little band of members courageous and working together to build up the advent cause in that island. A number of good interests are enrolled in the Bible Class, and an M. V. Club has also been organized as a special aid to the youth.

For the past four months Colporteur A. L. Lyle has been doing successful work in placing our truth-filled books in many homes on Grand Cayman. Bro. Lyle is also district leader at West Bay where a fine church of 30 members was organized in February.

A good interest in our message pervaded during the two weeks revival meetings in East End church. Pastor and members rejoiced together when, at the close, eight precious souls received the rite of baptism.

The Savannah church building has just undergone repairs and a complete paint job. The transformation has not only inspired the members, but has aroused a new interest in the Advent message through-out the district. Evidence of this is seen in the capacity crowd gathering each night for a short revival series at present. It is hoped that a full-message campaign will be commenced there about the middle of September.

Cayman Missionary Volunteers are on the March. Four M. V. Clubs are busily engaged and plans are on foot for an additional club to be organized soon.

POET'S CORNER

A HOUSE THAT IS A HOME

*A house is such a friendly thing
When occupied by those who bring
Within its walls a will to live —
A will to get, and likewise give.*

*A room can always speak to me
Through little things which one may see;
That easy chair beside the light
Bespeaks an evening of delight;*

*That vase of flowers sitting there
Says there's a love of beauty rare;
The pictures hanging on the wall
Give out a note of cheer to all.*

*This worn place in the carpet here
May bring to eyes a wistful tear;
It tells of golden moments past
Which linger on, e'en to the last.*

*The books upon the mantel share
The thoughts of great men rich and rare
No room is ever quite complete
Without a hearth for weary feet.*

*A house can be a living thing
When housing those who've learned to sing;
Who've learned to smile instead of fret —
Who've learned to give as well as get.*

*Oh, yes, a house can always speak
Of happy days, or days as bleak
And lifeless as the souls who live
Without the faintest yen to give.*

*A house can be a wondrous thing
When love pervades its every wing.
But 'tis not money which alone
Transforms a house into a home.*

growth. The tithe has climbed from £29,074 in 1949 to £62,463-7-2 in 1955. The Mission offerings have climbed from £9,328-10-7 to £19,108-0-1. The Ingathering receipts for 1949 added up to £6,895-1-5 while in 1955 £9,597-7-8 was raised. This year we hope to raise over £11,000. Surely God has blessed His people and funds have flowed in for the finishing of His work.

We pause to pay tribute to the worth of the ladies who work untiringly in the Union Office and the Bible Correspondence School. Only eternity will reveal the results of their labours.

We must also mention the long years of service of Pastor and Mrs. J. A. Reid, both of whom fell asleep in Jesus during the period under review.

(Please Turn Over)

Having given you a retrospective view of the progress of the last six years, let us now take a prospective look into the future. I have been told that more than thirty years ago a foreign worker went back to the United States and made the statement that the work was finished in Jamaica. It is not finished yet, brethren, it has only just begun in the B. W. I. Union. There are still scores of towns and islands without a lighthouse for God and the Third Angel's Message. There are 70 souls outside the truth for every one who has accepted it. Many of those are closely bound to us by ties of blood and friendship. What a mighty challenge this presents to us. Only those who are spiritually blind fail to see that the work of the Lord is rapidly closing up. He will soon cut it short in Righteousness. Probation soon will close. The opportunities to win the lost will soon have passed from us forever. The Reaper will soon gather the Harvest of the Earth, and terrible will be the cry that will go up, "I am not saved." My earnest prayer is, that every worker and church member will catch a greater vision of the unfinished task and throw himself into the breach and make up the hedge for God. Let us adopt as the keynote for this session "That the Advent hope might blaze forth with greater splendour than ever before."

APPRECIATION

To God we give glory for what has been accomplished and to all who have had a part in making this report possible, I want to assure you that your work is not only recorded in heaven but is written in the hearts and lives of your associates and fellow-workers.

We request that the visiting brethren from the General Conference and Division carry back an expression of gratitude from this British West Indies Union Mission Session. Your counsel has been greatly appreciated and we are conscientiously using the funds given for the advancement and finishing of the work of God.

"Truth, like iodine, helps when it hurts."
—T. N. Tiemeyer.

Until The Day-Break

EVELYN RUTH REID —nee DAVIS — was born in Barbados in the year 1893. At the age of thirteen she travelled to the U.S.A. where she spent twenty-seven (27) years. In 1934 she returned to her homeland and accepted the tenets of the advent Faith under the preaching of Dr. Glen Millard. She immediately became active in church work, excelling in Dorcas activities, Singing band solicitation during Harvest Ingathering campaigns, and Bible Instructor work.

In the year 1941 she responded to a call to serve as Matron of the Caribbean Training College in Trinidad, and soon endeared herself to both students and faculty by her motherly smiles and Christian disposition.

She became united in Holy Matrimony in 1945 to Pastor O. P. Reid and joined him in Missionary activities in British Guiana. Side by side they laboured as he Pastored the city churches of Georgetown and conducted his vigorous Evangelistic Campaigns. She was instrumental in seeing scores take their stand for the Truth in efforts held not only in British Guiana, but Dutch Guiana and in her homeland of Barbados — fields in which her husband served.

It was her burden and longing to join him in active missionary work in Jamaica and see the Andrews Memorial Church develop in a strong way. God has seen fit to deny her this privilege. She now rests in peace, but her winsome smiles, Godly life, admirable patience, and complete resignation to God's Will during the months of her affliction will ever be a source of inspiration to all with whom she came in contact.

She leaves to mourn, her beloved husband, Pastor O. P. Reid, her son, Branston Thomas in the U.S.A., a host of dear friends where she laboured, as well as a number of friends and loved ones here in Jamaica. She rests in peace in the Blessed Hope.

*Sweet be thy rest,
And peaceful thy sleeping;
God's way is best,
Thou art in His keeping.
O blessed sleep.*

*Where ill's ne'er molest thee!
Why should we weep?
For heaven hath blessed thee
Sweet be thy rest.*

*Thy work is done,
Thy sowing and reaping;
Thy crown is won,
And hushed is thy weeping.
From tears and woes,
From earth's midnight dreary.*

*Thine is repose,
Where none ever weary.
Sweet be thy rest,*

*Sweet be thy rest;
No more we may greet thee,
Till with the blest,
In heaven we meet thee.*

*O union sweet,
That death cannot sever!
There we shall meet,
Where sad tears fall never,
Sweet be thy rest.*
