

WORKS REVIEWED

The bibliography of works reviewed has been divided into several divisions. The first section contains the lives of Christ surveyed. Section II lists the commentaries and general reference works. The sermons and devotional literature are alphabetized in the third and final grouping.

Many of these volumes contributed nothing to our search for literary parallels. Some, however, gave indication of possible or even probable use, even though very little was found by way of literary parallels for the 15 chapters in this study. In order to identify how these works may be viewed in respect to the parallels located in the 15 chapters and to further literary analysis, a special notation system appears in the left margin. The numbers in the brackets should be interpreted as follows: [1] indicates a major source for the DA text according to our analysis of the 15 chapters (Several works so noted appear to have been used as major sources for other chapters of DA.); [2], a minor literary source; [3], a probable source but more study is required to establish clear dependency; [4], a possible source. There are striking similarities but a cursory examination revealed no apparent literary parallels for the 15 chapters under review (though we were keeping in mind other DA chapters and pre-DA materials as well).

A second schedule of identification keys may be found in the brackets which follow the individual bibliographic entry. This series of notations reflect the symbols used in A Bibliography of Ellen G. White's Private and Office Libraries, compiled by Warren H. Johns, Tim Poirier, and Ron Graybill. The keys are:

- [A] - From inventory of EGW private library
- [B] - From inventory of EGW office library
- [C] - Listed in C. C. Crisler's collection
- [H] - Contains EGW handwritten signature
- [()] - An inventory listing of a work containing office or private library bookplate
- [R] - Requested by Ellen G. White or her "bookmaker" by correspondence
- [N] - Unstamped books published before 1916 in White Estate possession but not on inventory lists
- [ww] - Designation for the whole work not just for the article named
- [O] - EGW had other work(s) by the same author
