Lesson 1.

The Demand for Christ.

1. Repeat the first promise made concerning a Saviour. Gen. 3:15.
2. To whom was this promise renewed? Gen. 22:18.
3. What is meant by the seed here referred to? Gal. 3:16.
4. What was the announcement of this promise to Abraham? Verse 8.
5. What is the gospel? Ans.—Good news of salvation through the promised Seed.
7. What had God said would be the result of this disobedience? Gen. 2:17.
8. How, then, might man have retained life? Ans.—Since disobedience brought death, it is evident that by obedience he would have retained life.
9. What was the result of this disobedience? Rom. 5:12; Gen. 3:17, 19.
10. Since man has sinned, through whom only can he obtain life? John 3:36.

12. Soon after the promise was made, how did the sons of Adam show that it was understood by them? Gen. 4:3-5.

14. Why was Abel’s offering accepted and Cain’s rejected? Heb. 11:4.

15. In what particular was Abel’s faith manifested? Heb. 9:22.

16. Because of this lack of faith, what was the result to Cain? Gen. 4:7.

17. What was indicated by the slaying of the victim of sacrifice? Ans.—That the sinner deserved death, but that the Promised One, typified by the victim, would die in his stead.

19. What will the remnant of God’s people be found doing? Rev. 12:17; 14:12.

---

LESSON II.

WHY JESUS LIVED IN THIS WORLD AS A CHILD, A YOUTH, AND A MAN.

1. In what way could man have retained life?

2. Sin having entered, what promise was made?

3. Name some of the results of sin?

5. What name was given him by the angel? Matt. 1:21.

10. What can you say of this city? John 1:46.

12. How was he treated by men? Isa. 53:3, 5, 7.

13. Why was it necessary that he should become a babe and pass through all the stages of life? Heb. 2:10, 17.

14. Why would this fit him especially to be our leader and priest? Heb. 4:15.

15. Having experienced all this, what is he able to do? Heb. 2:18.

16. What assurance have we concerning him? Heb. 7:25.

17. In view of all this, what are we admonished to do? Heb. 4:16.

NOTE.

Whether you are a child or a man it is your privilege in every temptation to think, Jesus, my Saviour, has been here before me; he has passed through this very way; his foot-prints are here. I have only to follow his footsteps and all will be well; and having been here he knows just how to sympathize with and help me. How this thought ought to drive away the darkness and give strength and cheer!
LESSON III.
THE TEACHINGS OF JESUS.

2. In what way must he bring the truth before the people? Ans.—By precept and example.

3. In his teachings how high did he place the standard of morality? Matt. 5:48, 8.

4. What promise does he make to those who earnestly seek such a state? Verse 6.

6. What was the teaching of Christ in reference to the law? Matt. 5:17.

8. What is one of the purposes now served by the law? Rom. 3:20.

9. In what way did Christ show the righteous and abiding nature of the law? Ans.—By teaching and obeying it in life, and in dying in man's stead to meet its demands.

10. To the dying what did he declare? John 5:40.

11. What to those who are in the darkness of sin? John 8:12.

14. What to those who were sick and weary of sin? Matt. 11:28, 30.

LIFE OF CHRIST.

17. What then was the teaching of Christ? Ans.—The law of God to convince men of sin, and faith in himself as the only escape from its terrible penalty.

---

LESSON IV.

THE SAVIOUR'S POWER OVER TEMPTATION.

1. What occasioned the need of a Saviour?
2. Who introduced sin into the world?
3. If Christ is to be a Saviour, what power must be manifest? Ans.—Power over Satan and his temptations.
4. Immediately after his baptism where was Jesus led, and for what purpose? Matt. 4:1.
6. Name the first of the recorded temptations? Matt. 4:3.
7. State the especial point in this? See note 1.
9. What was the second great temptation? Verses 5, 6.
10. What was the especial feature of this? See note 2.
15. Who delivered it into his hands? See note 4.
17. Show the similarity between these temptations and those under which Adam fell.
19. What will be the final result? Heb. 2:14.

NOTES.

1. In the first temptation Satan appealed to the appetite of Christ under the most trying circumstances. Jesus would not work a miracle to relieve himself, but endured it as a man who could not work a miracle, but simply trust God.

2. In the second temptation Satan says: Now in the first temptation you trusted God; you were right in so doing. Now I want you to do the same here, and trust him still further. Thus he seeks to lead Jesus into presumption, just where many men fall, for the land of presumption borders on the pathway of trust.

3. In the third temptation Satan appeals to man’s love for glory and power, and seeks to add strength to this by reminding Jesus that he has come here to die to obtain all this, but to obtain which he offers an easier way. Worship me and you shall have it.

4. According to Rom. 6:16, Adam, by obeying Satan, became his servant, and his possessions, with himself, passed into the hands of his new master.

LESSON V.

CHRIST’S CONFLICT WITH DEATH.

1. State the result of sin.
2. Name one way in which Jesus manifested his power to frustrate death. Matt. 4:23.

4. Why was this a marked case? Verse 39.

5. What assertion did he make at this time? Verse 25.

8. What were his feelings in the garden? Luke 22:42.

9. Describe the manner of his death.

10. What was the significance of the crown of thorns? See note 1.

11. How was he treated by men? Isa. 53:3, 5, 7; Matt. 26:67.

13. What were his feelings toward those who mocked him? Luke 23:34.

15. Repeat the agonizing cry. Verse 46.

18. What was the promise of God concerning him? Ps. 16:10.

NOTES.

1. The curse of the earth was thorns and thistles. When the Jews in their madness and mockery plaited that crown of thorns, and pressed it upon the Saviour's brow until the blood trickled down the Sufferer's face, little did they think that they were thus saying to the world, Behold the One who bears the curse of the earth.
2. The burden of the sin of the world was upon him, a mocking crowd about him; his Father withdrew his presence; the strain was too great, and he died of a broken heart. Physicians tell us that the flow of blood and water testified to this fact. See John 19:34.

LESSON VI.

TRIUMPH OVER DEATH.

1. What was done with Jesus after his death? Matt. 27:57, 60.
3. What was done by the Jews in consequence of this? Matt. 27:62, 64.
4. What was Pilate's reply? Verse 65.
5. What precautions were taken to prevent deception? Verse 66.
6. What did that guard and seal represent? See note.
7. What was the penalty for breaking that seal? See note.
12. How does Paul mention these witnesses in brief? 1 Cor. 15:3-8.
LIFE OF CHRIST.

13. What does he say about them at that time? Verse 6.

15. Why did the Lord cause such precaution to be taken? Ans.—That the world might be assured that there was no deception practiced, but that Jesus did arise.

16. For how many days did he continue to be seen of men? Acts 1:3.

18. What was the comforting promise of the angels? Verses 10, 11.

NOTE.

Oh, what great assurance God has given us concerning the resurrection of Christ! The strongest nation of earth undertook to guard that tomb, having sealed it with the seal of the iron kingdom which bore rule over all the earth. To oppose that guard or to break that seal was death to any man. But what cares the angel for the soldiers’ guard? What cares he for the Roman seal? He holds a commission from the One whose throne is in the heavens, whose kingdom ruleth over all. He smites the guard to the earth, lays his hand upon that stone, and the seal is broken, the grave opened; and then, unlike the spy, who, under the cover of darkness, enters an enemy’s land, and, having accomplished his object, hastens away to escape detection, he complacently sits down upon the stone bearing the broken seal, while the tomb is emptied of its treasure. “His disciples stole him away.” Indeed! Was Rome in the habit of lightly passing over such negligences on the part of her guards? —Oh, no! The fact is patent, Rome had come in contact with a higher power, and suffered an ignominious defeat.
LESSON VII.

THE LOVE OF GOD IN CHRIST.

2. Show that God's love exceeds this. Rom. 5:8.
3. How great was the sacrifice of God for us? John 3:16.
4. Show that the angels are given to help us? Heb. 1:14.
5. Of what may we be assured? Rom. 8:32.
6. What is first extended to us? 1 Cor. 1:4.
7. What is thus brought to us? Rom. 3:24.
8. Describe the condition of a justified man. Rom. 5:1, 2.
10. What is evidence that we are the children of God? Verse 8.
11. What must be the final result, if faithful? 1 John 3:2.
12. What will this hope lead us to do? Verse 3.
13. What made this hope a living one? 1 Peter 1, 3.
15. Is there power to keep us faithful? Jude 24, 25.
16. How is this help obtained? 1 Peter 1:5.
17. How strong is the love which binds us to God? Rom. 8:38, 39.
