THE BLESSING OF DAILY STUDY

"The beauty and riches of the word have a transforming influence on mind and character."—Christ's Object Lessons, page 132.

"There is nothing more calculated to strengthen the intellect than the study of the Scriptures. No other book is so potent to elevate the thoughts, to give vigor to the faculties, as the broad, ennobling truths of the Bible. If God's word were studied as it should be, men would have a breadth of mind, a nobility of character, and a stability of purpose rarely seen in these times."—Steps to Christ, page 90.

"The more you search the Scriptures with humble hearts, the greater will be your interest. . . . Every day you should learn something new from the Scriptures."—Testimonies, vol. 5, page 266.

My Daily Lesson Study Pledge

As one who greatly desires to improve his knowledge of the Scriptures, I pledge myself to the careful and prayerful study of some portion of my Sabbath school lesson each day of the week.

Lesson Outline:

I. The Importance of Sound Doctrine
   1. It is needed. 2 Tim. 3:1-5, 13; 4:3, 4.
   2. There are false doctrines. Jer. 10:8; 1 Tim. 1:4, 9, 10; 6:3-5.
   3. It is important. 1 Tim. 4:6, 13, 16; Titus 1:9; 2:1, 7, 10.

II. Necessity of Knowing the Doctrine
   4. A sound understanding. Isa. 28:9, 10; 2 Tim. 2:15.

III. Tests of Sound Doctrine
   7. It is based on the Bible. 2 Tim. 3:15, 16.
   8. It does not misuse the Scriptures. 2 Peter 3:16; Matt. 4:6.
   10. It upholds the whole of Scripture. Isa. 8:20.

IV. Contrasting Attitudes Toward Sound Doctrine
   11. It may be opposed. 2 Tim. 4:3; Acts 5:28; Jer. 6:16; Ezek. 33:31.
   12. It may be rejected. 2 Thess. 2:3-7.
   13. It may be obeyed. Rom. 6:17.

Key Thought:

The word doctrine means, "That which is taught; a principle, or body of principles, in any branch of knowledge; . . . principle of faith."—Webster, New Collegiate Dictionary. A doctrine may be based on truth or falsehood. Hence there are true or sound doctrines, and untrue or false doctrines. In order that the child of God be not led away by false doctrines, he must have an adequate understanding of true doctrines. As related to salvation, all true and sound doctrines are based on the Bible. To be effective, sound doctrine must be understood and obeyed.
The Importance of Sound Doctrine

1. What condition in the last days emphasizes the need of sound doctrine? 2 Tim. 3:1-5, 13; 4:3, 4.

Note.—The following comment is made regarding 2 Timothy 4:3, 4: "The apostle does not here refer to the openly irreligious, but to the professing Christians who make inclination their guide, and thus become enslaved by self. Such are willing to listen to those doctrines only that do not rebuke their sins or condemn their pleasure-loving course. They are offended by the plain words of the faithful servants of Christ and choose teachers who praise and flatter them."—The Acts of the Apostles, pages 504, 505.

2. In contrast to sound doctrine, what other kinds of doctrines are there? Jer. 10:8; 1 Tim. 1:4, 9, 10; 6:3-5.

Note.—These doctrines of vanity are called by various names in the Bible:

"Doctrines of men." Col. 2:22; Eph. 4:14.
"Doctrines of devils." 1 Tim. 4:1.
"Doctrine of Balaam," "doctrine of the Nicolaitanes." Rev. 2:14, 15.

"Those who are unwilling to accept the plain, cutting truths of the Bible are continually seeking for pleasing fables that will quiet the conscience. The less spiritual, self-denying, and humiliating the doctrines presented, the greater the favor with which they are received. . . . Too wise in their own conceit to search the Scriptures with contrition of soul and earnest prayer for divine guidance, they have no shield from delusion."—The Great Controversy, page 523.

3. In what words did the apostle Paul set forth the importance of sound doctrine? 1 Tim. 4:6, 13, 16; Titus 1:9; 2:1, 7, 10.

Note.—"All manner of false doctrines, heresies, and satanic deceptions are misleading the minds of men."—Testimonies, vol. 5, p. 158.

Necessity of Knowing the Doctrine

4. How are the doctrines of the Bible to be learned? Isa. 28:9, 10; 2 Tim. 2:15.

5. Before one can know the doctrine, what must he be willing to do? John 7:17.

Note.—Commenting on this text, the servant of the Lord says: "When we are truly seeking to do God's will, the Holy Spirit takes the precepts of His word and makes them the principles of the life, writing them on the tablets of the soul. And it is only those who are following the light already given that can hope to receive the further illumination of the Spirit. This is plainly stated in the words of Christ: 'If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine.'"—Testimonies, vol. 5, p. 705.

"Whoever will prayerfully study the Bible, desiring to know the truth, that he may obey it, will receive divine enlightenment. He will understand the Scriptures."—The Desire of Ages, page 459.

6. Against what will a knowledge of sound doctrines be a safeguard? Rom. 16:17.

Note.—"The times [of the apostles] were full of peril for the church. Satanic delusions existed everywhere. By misrepresentation and falsehood the emissaries of Satan sought to arouse opposition against the doctrines of Christ, and in consequence dissensions and heresies were imperiling the church. . . . John was filled with sadness as he saw these poisonous errors creeping into the church. He saw the dangers to which the church was exposed, and he met the emergency with promptness and decision."—The Acts of the Apostles, pages 553, 554.
Tests of Sound Doctrine

7. Upon what knowledge is Christian doctrine based? 2 Tim. 3:15, 16.

Note.—The Bible is the test of all doctrine. Whatever does not harmonize and square with this, is not to be received. "There is but one standard of the everlastingly right and the everlastingly wrong, and that is the Bible."—Thomas de Witt Talmage, quoted in Bible Readings for the Home, page 125.

Speaking of Luther’s separation from Rome, the messenger of God wrote: "He firmly declared that Christians should receive no other doctrines than those which rest on the authority of the Sacred Scriptures."—The Great Controversy, page 126.

Note.—"In order to sustain erroneous doctrines or unchristian practices, some will seize upon passages of Scripture separated from the context, perhaps quoting half of a single verse as proving their point, when the remaining portion would show the meaning to be quite the opposite. With the cunning of the serpent they entrench themselves behind disconnected utterances construed to suit their carnal desires. Thus do many willfully pervert the word of God. Others, who have an active imagination, seize upon the figures and symbols of Holy Writ, interpret them to suit their fancy, with little regard to the testimony of Scripture as its own interpreter, and then they present their vagaries as the teachings of the Bible."—The Great Controversy, page 521.

Note.—"Every true doctrine makes Christ the center, every precept receives force from His words."—Testimonies, vol. 6, p. 54.

"Another dangerous error is the doctrine that denies the deity of Christ, claiming that He had no existence before His advent to this world. This theory is received with favor by a large class who profess to believe the Bible; yet it directly contradicts the plainest statements of our Saviour concerning His relationship with the Father, His divine character, and His pre-existence."—The Great Controversy, page 524.

Note.—"All points of doctrine, even though they have been accepted as truth, should be brought to the law and to the testimony; if they cannot stand this test, there is no light in them."—Testimonies, vol. 5, p. 575.

Contrasting Attitudes Toward Sound Doctrine

12. After the death of the apostles, what far-reaching results did the rejection of sound doctrine bring about? 2 Thess. 2:3-7.
Note.—The great apostasy, the substitution of the doctrines of men for the doctrine of Christ, was the result of disobedience to the teaching of the word of God. We read: “The truths of the Bible have again become obscured by custom, tradition, and false doctrine. The erroneous teachings of popular theology have made thousands upon thousands of skeptics and infidels. There are errors and inconsistencies which many denounce as the teaching of the Bible that are really false interpretations of Scripture, adopted during the ages of papal darkness.” —Testimonies, vol. 5, p. 710.

13. What has been the attitude of God’s children to His will as revealed in the doctrines of the Bible? Rom. 6:17. Compare Acts 26:19.

Note.—“God has commanded nothing that is unessential, and there is no other way of manifesting reverence so pleasing to Him as obedience to that which He has spoken.” —Education, page 244.

Lesson Outline:

I. His Sonship Proclaimed

II. Evidence of His Divine Sonship
5. His pre-existence. Micah 5:2; 1 Cor. 10:4.
9. His creative power. Col. 1:15-17; Heb. 1:1, 2.

III. The Son of God Becomes the Son of Man
Key Thought:

"'Immanuel, . . . God with us.' 'The light of the knowledge of the glory of God' is seen 'in the face of Jesus Christ.' From the days of eternity the Lord Jesus Christ was one with the Father; He was 'the image of God,' the image of His greatness and majesty, 'the outshining of His glory.' It was to manifest this glory that He came to our world. To this sin-darkened earth He came to reveal the light of God's love,—to be 'God with us.' Therefore it was prophesied of Him, 'His name shall be called Immanuel.' "

—The Desire of Ages, page 19.

THE LESSON

His Sonship Proclaimed

1. In the angel's announcement to Mary, what did he say her Child should be called? Luke 1:35.

2. What testimony did the Father give at the time of the baptism of the Saviour? Matt. 3:17.

Note.—"These words of confirmation were given to inspire faith in those who witnessed the scene, and to strengthen the Saviour for His mission. Notwithstanding that the sins of a guilty world were laid upon Christ, notwithstanding the humiliation of taking upon Himself our fallen nature, the voice from heaven declared Him to be the Son of the Eternal."—The Desire of Ages, page 112.

Note.—"Christ came to . . . reveal our heavenly Father to sinful human beings. . . . He shared the lot of men, and yet He was the blameless Son of God."—Testimonies, vol. 8, p. 286.

4. In what words did Peter express the disciples' conviction concerning the deity of Christ? Matt. 16:14-16.

Evidence of His Divine Sonship

5. What does the Bible teach concerning the pre-existence of Christ? Micah 5:2; 1 Cor. 10:4.
the habitation of the Deity—returned and resettling itself with men; and fitted to be what it must also be, a most acceptable sacrifice. For here was met together man that could die, and God that could overcome death.”—Howe, Living Temple, part 2, quoted in Life in Christ, by Edward White, page 238.

9. In what act were the divine Father and Son associated? Col. 1:15-17; Heb. 1:1, 2.

Note.—Evidence for Christ’s coexistence with the Father is seen in the act of creation. The Father said: “Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness.” Gen. 1:26. The words as and our are very significant—indicating coexistence, co-operation, co-workers together in a grand purpose of creating man “in Our image.” The first chapter in the Bible reveals the deity of the Son and His place as a Person of the Godhead.

Note.—“Jesus died, not to save man in his sins, but from his sins. Man is to leave the error of his ways, to follow the example of Christ, to take up his cross and follow Him, denying self, and obeying God at any cost.”—Testimonies, vol. 4, p. 251.

The Son of God Becomes the Son of Man

12. When and how was this prophecy fulfilled, and for what purpose? Gal. 4:4, 5.

Note.—“When the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth His Son.” Providence had directed the movements of nations, and the tide of human impulse and influence, until the world was ripe for the coming of the Deliverer. . . . In ‘the region and shadow of death,’ men sat unsolaced. With longing eyes they looked for the coming of the Deliverer.”—The Desire of Ages, pages 32, 33.

Note.—Through the life of Christ in human flesh, His death and subsequent resurrection, reconciliation between man and God was brought about. Christ died in order that He might abolish death. Rev. 1:18: The resurrection of Jesus made possible the resurrection of the dead. 1 Cor. 15:12-16. “In taking our nature, the Saviour has bound Himself to humanity by a tie that is never to be broken. Through the eternal ages He is linked with us. ‘God so loved the world, that He gave His only-begotten Son.’ John 3:16. He gave Him not only to bear our sins, and to die as our sacrifice; He gave Him to the fallen race. To assure us of His immutable counsel of peace, God gave His only-begotten Son to become one of the human family, forever to retain His human nature.”—The Desire of Ages, page 25.

Lesson Outline:

I. Concerning Our Salvation
   1. Its cost to Jesus. 1 Peter 1:18, 19; 1 Cor. 6:20.
   2. Results of its neglect. Heb. 2:2, 3; 10:28, 29.

II. All Heaven Interested in Our Welfare

III. The Need of Salvation
   8. All men are helpless to save themselves. Jer. 13:23.

IV. Salvation Provided
   10. Through His Creatorship. Isa. 43:1; Eph. 2:10.

V. Personal Salvation

Key Words:

1. Jesus. The name Jesus was given to the Lord by command of God, who made known His will to Joseph in this matter through an angel. Matt. 1:21. The reason for this choice was also stated: “For He shall save His people from their sins.” This is precisely what the name Jesus means. It comes to us from the Hebrew through the Greek. The Hebrew equivalent is Joshua. This Hebrew name is a compound one based on the verb, to save, to deliver, to set free, and a shortened form of the name Jehovah in the Hebrew. Joshua’s name, originally, was Hoshea, meaning salvation, deliverance. It was afterward changed to Jehoshua, or Joshua. Isaiah is another form of writing the same compound name, meaning in that case the salvation of Jehovah.

2. Salvation. “Salvation is a free gift, and yet it is to be bought and sold. . . . The poorest are as well able as the richest to purchase salvation; for no amount of worldly wealth can secure it. It is obtained by willing obedience, by giving ourselves to Christ as His own purchased possession.”—Christ’s Object Lessons, pages 116, 117.
Concerning Our Salvation

1. Although salvation is a free gift, what did it cost the Son of God? 1 Peter 1:18, 19; 1 Cor. 6:20. Compare Isa. 55:1.

2. What will be the consequences “if we neglect so great salvation”? Heb. 2:2, 3; 10:28, 29.

4. What is God’s desire for the human family? Ezek. 33:11. See also 1 Tim. 2:3, 4; 2 Peter 3:9.

5. To what extent is heaven interested in our salvation? John 3:16; Gal. 1:4; Rom. 8:26; Heb. 1:14.

Note.—“I saw that all heaven is interested in our salvation; and shall we be indifferent? Shall we be careless, as though it were a small matter whether we are saved or lost? Shall we slight the sacrifice that has been made for us? . . . God’s Spirit will not always be grieved. It will depart if grieved a little longer. After all has been done that God could do to save men, if they show by their lives that they slight Jesus’ offered mercy, death will be their portion, and it will be dearly purchased.”—Testimonies, vol. 1, p. 124.

The Need of Salvation

All Heaven Interested in Our Welfare

4. What is God’s desire for the human family? Ezek. 33:11. See also 1 Tim. 2:3, 4; 2 Peter 3:9.

5. To what extent is heaven interested in our salvation? John 3:16; Gal. 1:4; Rom. 8:26; Heb. 1:14.

Note.—“Men do not know their own hearts; for ‘the heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked.’ Jeremiah 17:9. But God understands the tendencies of the depraved nature of man. . . . The adversary of souls is ever on the alert to open channels for the unrestrained flow of evil in us; for he desires that we may be ruined, and be condemned before God.”—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 688.

Note.—“If you see your sinfulness, do not wait to make yourself better. How many there are who think they are not good enough to come to Christ. Do you expect to become better through your own efforts? ‘Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.’ Jeremiah 13:23. There is help for us only in God. We must not wait for stronger persuasions, for better opportunities, or for holier tempers. We can do nothing of ourselves. We must come to Christ just as we are.”—Steps to Christ, page 31.
Salvation Provided

9. How and through whom alone has salvation been made possible?

Note.—“None but the Son of God could accomplish our redemption; for only He who was in the bosom of the Father could declare Him. Only He who knew the height and depth of the love of God could make it manifest. Nothing less than the infinite sacrifice made by Christ in behalf of fallen man could express the Father's love to lost humanity.”—Steps to Christ, page 14.

“The price of heaven is Jesus. The way to heaven is through faith in 'the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.' John 1:29.”—The Desire of Ages, page 385.

Salvation is a substitutionary thing. It is won for sinful men by Another becoming their substitute. In the substitutionary death of Christ on the cross He died for the sins of the world.”—Charles G. Trumbull, What Is the Gospel? pages 37, 38.

10. With what is the power of redemption associated? Isa. 43:1; Eph. 2:10.

Note.—Only He who created man has power to redeem him. His creative power and His power to save are linked together in many scriptures. It is the creative power which transforms the life and makes a new creature out of it. That is what Paul meant when he said: “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature” (or creation). 2 Cor. 5:17.

11. What three essentials for salvation are found in Christ? Heb. 1:8; Matt. 1:23; 1 Peter 2:22.

Note.—This world has produced many great men, men of power and influence; but in Christ, and only in Him, do we find the essentials that make a Saviour. These are His divinity, His humanity, and His sinless life.

12. What assurance do we have of full and complete salvation? Heb. 7:25; John 8:36; Isa. 1:18.

Note.—God, who wants man restored in His image, freely offers him full salvation. He promises to save to the uttermost—that means completely. “If you give yourself to Him, and accept Him as your Saviour, then, sinful as your life may have been, for His sake you are accounted righteous. Christ's character stands in place of your character, and you are accepted before God just as if you had not sinned.”—Steps to Christ, page 62.

“The chain that has been let down from the throne of God is long enough to reach to the lowest depths. Christ is able to lift the most sinful out of the pit of degradation, and to place them where they will be acknowledged as children of God, heirs with Christ to an immortal inheritance.”—Testimonies, vol. 7, p. 229.

Personal Salvation

14. What sad words will be uttered by those who have rejected salvation? Jer. 8:20; Rev. 6:14-17.

NOTE.—“At the day of judgment there comes to the lost a full realization of the meaning of the sacrifice made on Calvary. They see what they had lost by refusing to be loyal. They think of the high, pure association it was their privilege to gain. But it is too late. The last call has been made. The wail is heard: ‘The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.’ Jeremiah 8:20.”—Testimonies, vol. 7, p. 16.

Lesson 4, for October 22, 1960

Christ Our Righteousness

MEMORY VERSE: “And this is His name whereby He shall be called, The Lord our Righteousness.” Jer. 23:6.

DAILY STUDY ASSIGNMENT AND RECORD

Sabbath afternoon: General survey.☐ Sunday: Key Word; Questions 1-3; Memory Verse.☐ Monday: Questions 4-6; read from Study Helps.☐ Check Here

Lesson Outline:

I. A Timely Message
1. Man has no righteousness. Rom. 3:10; Prov. 21:21.
3. Christ was “made unto us . . . righteousness.” 1 Cor. 1:30.

II. Innocence Lost
5. Man’s sin. Isa. 59:1, 2; 1 John 3:4.

III. The Way to Righteousness
8. Our own works worthless. Rom. 9:31, 32; Eph. 2:9; Gal. 2:16.
10. Our overcoming the world by faith gives victory. 1 John 5:4.

IV. Christ’s Righteousness Fits Us for Translation
12. It brings us into harmony with God’s law. Ps. 119:142; Rom. 8:4; 3:21.
14. It gives purity of heart in God’s sight. Ps. 24:3, 4; Matt. 5:8.
Key Word:

Righteousness. “The righteousness of Christ consists in right actions and good works from pure, unselfish motives. Outside righteousness, while the inward adorning is wanting, will be of no avail.”—Testimonies, vol. 3, p. 528.

“The wedding garment in the parable is represented the pure, spotless character which Christ’s true followers will possess. To the church it is given ‘that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white,’ ‘not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing.’ Rev. 19:8. The fine linen, says the Scripture, ‘is the righteousness of saints.’ Eph. 5:27. It is the righteousness of Christ, His own unblemished character, that through faith is imparted to all who receive Him as their personal Saviour.”—Christ’s Object Lessons, page 310.

THE LESSON

A Timely Message

1. Why is the message of Christ our righteousness so important now? Rom. 3:10; Prov. 21:21.

NOTE.—“The people must be instructed that Christ is unto them salvation and righteousness. It is Satan’s studied purpose to keep souls from believing in Christ as their only hope; for the blood of Christ that cleanseth from all sin is efficacious in behalf of those only who believe in its merit, and who present it before the Father as did Abel in his offering.”—Gospel Workers, page 162.

“The message of Christ’s righteousness is to sound from one end of the earth to the other to prepare the way of the Lord. This is the glory of God, which closes the work of the third angel.”—Testimonies, vol. 6, p. 19.

2. What name is given to the Lord by the prophet Jeremiah? Jer. 23:6.

3. What four things has Christ been made for us? 1 Cor. 1:30.

---

NOTE.—“The righteousness of Christ, as a pure, white pearl, has no defect, no stain. No work of man can improve the great and precious gift of God. It is without a flaw. In Christ are ‘hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.’ Col. 2:3. He is ‘made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption.’ 1 Cor. 1:30. All that can satisfy the needs and longings of the human soul, for this world and for the world to come, is found in Christ.”—Christ’s Object Lessons, page 115.

Innocence Lost

NOTE.—“The white robe of innocence was worn by our first parents when they were placed by God in holy Eden. They lived in perfect conformity to the will of God. All the strength of their affections was given to their heavenly Father. A beautiful soft light, the light of God, enshrouded the holy pair. This robe of light was a symbol of their spiritual garments of heavenly innocence. Had they remained true to God it would ever have continued to enshroud them. But when sin entered, they severed their connection with God, and the light that had encircled them departed. Naked and ashamed, they tried to supply the place of the heavenly garments by sewing together fig leaves for a covering.”—Christ’s Object Lessons, pages 310, 311.

The Way to Righteousness

Note.—If man could become righteous through his own strength, then the death of Jesus was not necessary. "It was possible for Adam, before the Fall, to form a righteous character by obedience to God's law. But he failed to do this, and because of his sin our natures are fallen and we cannot make ourselves righteous. Since we are sinful, unholy, we cannot perfectly obey the holy law. We have no righteousness of our own with which to meet the claims of the law of God."—Steps to Christ, page 62.

8. What does God's word teach concerning the effort to obtain righteousness through our own works or the works of the law? Rom. 9:31, 32; Eph. 2:9; Gal. 2:16, first part.

Note.—"Not the labors of my hands Can fulfill Thy law's demands; Could my zeal no respite know, Could my tears forever flow, All for sin could not atone; Thou must save, and Thou alone."
—Augustus M. Toplady.

Note.—"If we are faithful in doing our part, in co-operating with Him, God will work through us [to do] the good pleasure of His will. But He cannot work through us if we make no effort. If we gain eternal life, we must work, and work earnestly.
. . . Let us not be deceived by the oft-repeated assertion, 'All you have to do is to believe.' Faith and works are two oars which we must use equally if we [would] press our way up the stream against the current of unbelief. 'Faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.' The Christian is a man of thought and practice."—Welfare Ministry, pages 315, 316.

10. Before one can be said to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ, over how much must he obtain victory? 1 John 5:4.

Note.—He must have victory over every known sin. Since man lost the robe of righteousness through sin, it is logical to believe that the robe of righteousness is regained by forsaking sin and by accepting the One who has been made unto us righteousness; for, "while God can be just, and yet justify the sinner through the merits of Christ, no man can cover his soul with the garments of Christ's righteousness while practicing known sins, or neglecting known duties. God requires the entire surrender of the heart, before justification can take place; and in order for man to retain justification, there must be continual obedience, through active, living faith that works by love and purifies the soul."—Selected Messages, bk. 1, p. 366.

11. How does Heaven look upon the one who is clothed with the righteousness of Christ? Rom. 8:1.

Note.—"Christ has made a way of escape for us. He lived on earth amid trials and temptations such as we have to meet. He lived a sinless life. He died for us, and now He offers to take our sins and give us His righteousness. If you give yourself to Him, and accept Him as your Saviour, then, sinful as your life may have been, for His sake you are accounted righteous. Christ's character stands in place of your character, and you are accepted before God just as if you had not sinned."—Steps to Christ, page 62.

Christ's Righteousness Fits Us for Translation

12. How is the righteousness of Christ manifested in the individual? Ps. 119:142; Rom. 8:4; 3:21.

NOTE.—"Righteousness is holiness, likeness to God, and 'God is love.' 1 John 4:16. It is conformity to the law of God. . . . Righteousness is love, and love is the light and the life of God."—Thoughts From the Mount of Blessing, page 18.

"He who becomes a partaker of the divine nature will be in harmony with God's great standard of righteousness, His holy law."—Christ's Object Lessons, page 314.

NOTE.—"Only those who are clothed in the garments of His righteousness will be able to endure the glory of His presence when He shall appear with 'power and great glory.'"—Sons and Daughters of God, page 368.

"The righteousness by which we are justified is imputed; the righteousness by which we are sanctified is imparted. The first is our title to heaven, the second is our fitness for heaven."—Messages to Young People, page 35.

Lesson Outline:

I. Purpose of the Law
   1. To reveal the things of God. Ps. 119:18.

II. The Law a Revelation of God's Character
   6. It is holy, just, good. Rom. 7:12; Lev. 11:44; Isa. 45:21; Nahum 1:7.
   7. It is perfect. Ps. 19:7; Matt. 5:48.
   8. It is unchangeable. Mal. 3:6; Ps. 111:7, 8; Matt. 5:17, 18.

III. The Attempt to Change the Law

IV. The Law Is God's Standard in Judgment
   12. The law is the standard of righteousness. Ps. 119:172.
   13. Men are judged by the law. James 2:8-12.

Key Thought:

"The law was not spoken at this time exclusively for the benefit of the Hebrews. God honored them by making them the guardians and keepers of His law, but it was to be held as a sacred trust for the whole world. The precepts of the Decalogue are adapted to all mankind, and they were given for the instruction and government of all. Ten precepts, brief, comprehensive, and authoritative, cover the duty of man to God and to his fellow man; and all based upon the great fundamental principle of love. 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.' Luke 10:27. . . . In the Ten Commandments these principles are carried out in detail, and made applicable to the condition and circumstances of man."—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 305.

THE LESSON

Purpose of the Law

1. As the psalmist contemplated the law of God, what prayer did he offer for enlightenment? Ps. 119:18.

Note.—The Ten Commandments were written on two tables of stone. The first four commandments reveal our duty to God; the last six our duty to our fellow men. The keeping of the commandments is based upon love—love to God and love to our fellow men. Where love rules supreme, there transgression of the law is not found.

NOTE.—"Men cannot manufacture peace. Human plans for the purification and uplifting of individuals or of society will fail of producing peace, because they do not reach the heart. The only power that can create or perpetuate true peace is the grace of Christ. When this is implanted in the heart, it will cast out the evil passions that cause strife and dissension."—The Desire of Ages, page 305.

NOTE.—"The first step in reconciliation to God is the conviction of sin. 'Sin is the transgression of the law.' 'By the law is the knowledge of sin.' 1 John 3:4; Rom. 3:20. In order to see his guilt, the sinner must test his character by God's great standard of righteousness. It is a mirror which shows the perfection of a righteous character and enables him to discern the defects in his own. The law reveals to man his sins, but it provides no remedy. While it promises life to the obedient, it declares that death is the portion of the transgressor. The gospel of Christ alone can free him from the condemnation or the defilement of sin."—The Great Controversy, pages 467, 468.

5. What is the new commandment, and what is its relation to the law of God? John 13:34; 15:10. See also Deut. 6:4, 5.

NOTE.—The new commandment did not replace the Ten Commandment law. It supports the perpetuity of the law of God. Jesus said: "If ye keep My commandments [not commandment], ye shall abide in My love." His love is expressed in the new commandment: "As I have loved you." If we love as He loved, we will do what He says, namely: "If ye love Me, keep My commandments." John 14:15.

The Law a Revelation of God's Character

6. What three characteristics of the law, mentioned by Paul, are also characteristics of God? Rom. 7:12; Lev. 11:44; Isa. 45:21; Nahum 1:7.

NOTE.—"The law of God is as sacred as God Himself. It is a revelation of His will, a transcript of His character, the expression of divine love and wisdom."—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 52.

7. What other characteristic of God is revealed through His law? Ps. 19:7; Matt. 5:48.

NOTE.—"The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul.' Psalm 19:7. Without the law, men have no just conception of the purity and holiness of God or of their own guilt and uncleanness. They have no true conviction of sin and feel no need of repentance."—The Great Controversy, page 468.

Speaking of the perfection of the law, C. H. Spurgeon said: "Its perfection is a proof of its divinity. No human lawgiver could have given forth such a law as that which we find in the Decalogue. It is a perfect law; for all human laws that are right are to be found in that brief compendium and epitome of all that is good and excellent toward God, or between man and man."—Sermons, vol. 2, p. 280.
8. What is said of the unchangeableness of God and His law? Mal. 3:6; Ps. 111:7, 8; Matt. 5:17, 18.

Note.—"The law of God, from its very nature, is unchangeable. It is a revelation of the will and the character of its Author." —The Great Controversy, page 467.

John Wesley wrote: "The moral law, contained in the Ten Commandments, and enforced by the prophets, He did not take away. It was not the design of His coming to revoke any part of this. . . . Every part of this law must remain in force upon all mankind, and in all ages; as not depending either on time or place, or any other circumstances liable to change, but on the nature of God, and the nature of man, and their unchangeable relation to each other."—"Upon Our Lord's Sermon on the Mount," Discourse 5, in Works, vol. 5, pp. 311, 312.

The Attempt to Change the Law

9. What does Daniel the prophet say concerning the attempt to change the law of God? Dan. 7:25.

Note.—This prophecy has been fulfilled. In Peter Geiermann's Convert's Catechism of Catholic Doctrine, page 50, we read:

"Q. Which is the Sabbath day?
A. Saturday is the Sabbath day.

"Q. Why do we observe Sunday instead of Saturday?
A. We observe Sunday instead of Saturday because the Catholic Church, in the Council of Laodicea (A.D. 336), transferred the solemnity from Saturday to Sunday.

"Q. Why did the Catholic Church substitute Sunday for Saturday?
A. The Church substituted Sunday for Saturday, because Christ rose from the dead on a Sunday, and the Holy Ghost descended upon the Apostles on a Sunday.

"Q. By what authority did the Church substitute Sunday for Saturday?
A. The Church substituted Sunday for Saturday by the plenitude of that divine power which Jesus Christ bestowed upon her."

The Law Is God's Standard in Judgment

Note.—"The law of God is the standard by which the characters and the lives of men will be tested in the judgment. Says the wise man: 'Fear God, and keep His commandments for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment,' Ecclesiastes 12:13, 14. The apostle James admonishes his brethren: 'So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.' James 2:12." —The Great Controversy, page 482.

Note.—"The claim that Christ by His death abolished His Father's law is without foundation. Had it been possible for the law to be changed or set aside, then Christ need not have died to save man from the penalty of sin. The death of Christ, so far from abolishing the law, proves that it is immutable. The Son of God came to 'magnify the law, and make it honorable.' Isaiah 42:21. . . . And concerning Himself He declares: 'I delight to do Thy will, O My God: yea, Thy law is within My heart.' Psalm 40:8." —The Great Controversy, page 466.

Lesson Outline:

I. The Sabbath
2. It was blessed and sanctified as God’s rest day. Gen. 2:2, 3.
3. It is a safeguard against evolution. Ex. 20:8-11.
4. It was the seventh day of creation. Ex. 20:10, first part; Luke 23:54.
5. It was made for man. Mark 2:27; Isa. 56:2.

II. Christ and the Sabbath
8. The day observed after His resurrection. Matt. 24:15-20.

III. The Sabbath Taught in the New Testament

IV. The Sabbath in the New Earth

Key Thought:

“God designs that the Sabbath shall direct the minds of men to the contemplation of His created works. Nature speaks to their senses, declaring that there is a living God, the Creator, the Supreme Ruler of all. The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth His handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge.” Psalm 19:1, 2.

The beauty that clothes the earth is a token of God’s love. We may behold it in the everlasting hills, in the lofty trees, in the opening buds and the delicate flowers. All speak to us of God. The Sabbath, ever pointing to Him who made them all, bids men open the great book of nature and trace therein the wisdom, the power, and the love of the Creator.”—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 48.

THE LESSON

The Sabbath

1. When and by whom was the Sabbath instituted? Gen. 2:1-3.

Note.—The Sabbath is the sign of God’s creative power. Through Sabbathkeeping we are to remember Him as the true and the living God, and as the Creator of all things.
"The Sabbath institution, which originated in Eden, is as old as the world itself. It was observed by all the patriarchs, from creation down."—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 336.

"Like the Sabbath, the week originated at creation, and it has been preserved and brought down to us through Bible history."—Ibid., p. 111.

2. By what three distinctive acts was the Sabbath made? Gen. 2:2, 3.

Note.—In instituting the Sabbath the Lord performed three acts. His first act on the seventh day was to rest. Thus the Sabbath became God's rest day. The word sabbath means "rest." His second act was the placing of His blessing upon the Sabbath. Therefore it became His "blessed" rest day. His third act was to sanctify the Sabbath. Webster states that "sanctify" means "set apart to a holy or religious use."

3. In what way is the Sabbath a definite weapon against the teaching of evolution? Ex. 20:8-11.

Note.—The Sabbath commandment establishes three facts:
   a. The Creator, "the Lord made."
   b. Time in creation, "in six days."
   c. The things created, "heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is."

4. According to the law, which day is the true Sabbath? Ex. 20:10, first part; Luke 23:54.

Note.—The crucifixion of Jesus occurred on the preparation day, the sixth day of the week. The day that followed was the Sabbath. Since there are only seven days in the week, the day which follows the sixth must be the Sabbath.

5. For whom was the Sabbath made? Mark 2:27; Isa. 56:2.

Note.—The name Jew is said to be derived from the Aramaic form of the word Judah, applied originally to people in southern Palestine, then to all the Israelites. The Sabbath was instituted more than two thousand years before there was a Jew; therefore it is not a Jewish Sabbath. It was the Sabbath established by the Lord.

"The Sabbath was committed to Adam, the father and representative of the whole human family. Its observance was to be an act of grateful acknowledgment, on the part of all who should dwell upon the earth, that God was their Creator and their rightful Sovereign; that they were the work of His hands and the subjects of His authority. Thus the institution was wholly commemorative, and given to all mankind. There was nothing in it shadowy or of restricted application to any people."—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 48.

Christ and the Sabbath

Note.—"The Lord's day is the seventh day, the Sabbath of creation. On the day that God sanctified and blessed, Christ signified 'by His angel unto His servant John' things which must come to pass before the close of the world's history, and He means that we should become intelligent with regard to them."—Testimonies, vol. 6, p. 128.

Note.—It was our Saviour's "custom" to attend divine service on the Sabbath. The word custom implies continuous practice. His day is not to be kept in a mechanical way. We are to enjoy its holy hours and be refreshed spiritually as we meditate upon heavenly things. The Sabbath will be the happiest day of the week when we follow in the footsteps of our Master, including the custom of attending divine service on "the Sabbath day."

"God saw that a Sabbath was essential for man, even in Paradise. He needed to lay aside his own interests and pursuits for one day of the seven, that he might more fully contemplate the works of God and meditate upon His power and goodness. He needed a Sabbath to remind him more vividly of God, and to awaken gratitude because all that he enjoyed and possessed came from the beneficent hand of the Creator.”—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 48.

8. To what event did Jesus refer, indicating that the Sabbath should be kept after His ascension? Matt. 24:15-20.

Note.—The flight of God’s people took place three and one half years before the fall of Jerusalem, A.D. 70. A flight in winter would have meant extreme discomfort and hardship, and an attempt to flee on the Sabbath would have met with difficulties.

The Sabbath Taught in the New Testament

Note.—The book of Acts was written about thirty years after the resurrection of Jesus. It contains the principal historical facts regarding the apostolic church. The gospel religion taught in Acts exemplified the faith of all the apostles. In it they express their view of the teaching of Christ. Is it not reasonable to believe that if Christ had changed the Sabbath, or commanded that the first day of the week be kept, the apostles would have known about it and would have taught it with the same force as they taught baptism and the Lord’s Supper? But they are silent on this. Not a hint is given anywhere for Sundaykeeping.

The Sabbath in the New Earth

Note.—The redeemed who will inherit the new earth have experienced the new birth. They have been obedient to the commandments of God, including the fourth. In their restored Eden home they will keep the same Sabbath that was instituted by God during the creation week. The prophet says: “And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before Me, saith the Lord.” Isa. 66:23. Those who expect to share in the blessing of Sabbathkeeping in the earth made new will keep the Sabbath here. Our relation to the Sabbath must be such that we shall “call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable.” Isa. 58:13.

Lesson Outline:

I. Obedience Defined and Exemplified
   2. An example in Christ’s life. Phil. 2:8; 1 Peter 2:21-23.
   3. A sign of latter days is the absence of obedience. 2 Tim. 3:1-5.

II. Things That Lead to Disobedience
   4. The desire for popularity. 1 Sam. 15:23, 24; John 12:42, 43.
   5. The delay in punishment against evil. Eccl. 8:11.

III. Examples That Show How God Regards Disobedience
    8. Uzzah. 1 Chron. 13:9, 10.

IV. Various Aspects of Obedience
   9. It is more important than sacrifice. Ps. 40:6.
   10. It comes to those who hear God’s voice. Isa. 30:21; Matt. 11:15.
   11. It brings delight in doing God’s will. Ps. 40:8, first part.
   12. It puts God’s law in the heart. Ps. 40:8, last part; Rom. 7:22.
   13. It is rewarded. Isa. 1:19.

Key Thought:

“Often the Christian life is beset by dangers and duty seems hard to perform. The imagination pictures impending ruin before and bondage or death behind. Yet the voice of God speaks clearly, ‘Go forward.’ We should obey this command, even though our eyes cannot penetrate the darkness, and we feel the cold waves about our feet. The obstacles that hinder our progress will never disappear before a halting, doubting spirit. Those who defer obedience till every shadow of uncertainty disappears and there remains no risk of failure or defeat, will never obey at all. Unbelief whispers, ‘Let us wait till the obstructions are removed, and we can see our way clearly;’ but faith courageously urges an advance, hoping all things.”—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 290.
Obedience Defined and Exemplified

Note.—“Obedience is not a mere outward compliance, but the service of love.” “We do not earn salvation by our obedience; for salvation is the free gift of God, to be received by faith. But obedience is the fruit of faith.”—Steps to Christ, pages 60, 61.

2. What example of obedience did Christ set for us? Phil. 2:8; 1 Peter 2:21-23.

Note.—Christ is our only true example in obedience. We are admonished to “follow His steps.” Example is more forceful than precept. It is one thing to tell others what to do, and another to do it ourselves. If all the world accepted Christ as an example, and followed in His footsteps, there would be no more confusion in doctrine or hypocrisy in living.

Things That Lead to Disobedience

Note.—Saul wanted to be popular with the people. He did not want to jeopardize his standing as king. His true self is revealed by the messenger of God, who wrote: “Saul’s disobedience changed his relation to God... But Saul presumed upon his exaltation, and dishonored God by unbelief and disobedience. Though when first called to the throne he was humble and self-trustful, success made him self-confident. The very first victory of his reign had kindled that pride of heart which was his greatest danger. The valor and military skill displayed in the deliverance of Jabesh-gilead had roused the enthusiasm of the whole nation. The people honored their king, forgetting that he was but the agent by whom God had wrought; and though at first Saul ascribed the glory to God, he afterward took honor to himself. He lost sight of his dependence upon God, and in heart departed from the Lord.”—Patriarchs and Prophets, pages 630-633.

5. What emboldens some men to be disobedient? Eccl. 8:11.

Examples That Show How God Regards Disobedience

7. What seemingly slight violation caused the death of Nadab and Abihu? Lev. 10:1, 2.

8. Why was God’s anger kindled against Uzzah? 1 Chron. 13:9, 10.

Note.—“The Philistines, who had not a knowledge of God’s law, had placed the ark upon a cart when they returned it to Israel, and the Lord accepted the effort which they made. But the Israelites had in their hands a plain statement of the will of God in all these matters, and their neglect of these instructions was dishonoring to God. Upon Uzzah rested the greater guilt of presumption. Transgression of God’s law had lessened his sense of its sacredness, and with unconfessed sins upon him he had, in face of the divine prohibition, presumed to touch the symbol of God’s presence. God can accept no partial obedience, no lax way of treating His commandments. By the judg-
God still requires obedience. He designed to impress upon all Israel the importance of giving strict heed to His requirements.—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 706.

Various Aspects of Obedience

9. What does the psalmist say concerning the importance of obedience, in contrast to forms and ceremonies? Ps. 40:6. Compare 1 Sam. 15:22, 23.

Note.—The fortieth psalm contains a prophecy of Jesus. It reveals His attitude toward obedience. Four statements concerning Christ clearly set forth the various aspects of obedience. Sacrifices and offerings are essential, but God emphasizes that there is something deeper, something better, than mere external things. He looks into the heart. Forms and ceremonies mean little unless they are inspired by an obedient life. Amos 5:21-27.

10. What part does the sense of hearing play in man's obedience to God's voice? Isa. 30:21; Matt. 11:15.

11. In what is true obedience revealed? Ps. 40:8, first part.

Note.—God does not want a forced obedience. Obedience is the outgrowth of love. Love is the motive power of true obedience.

“The law of love being the foundation of the government of God, the happiness of all intelligent beings depends upon their perfect accord with its great principles of righteousness. God desires from all His creatures the service of love—service that springs from an appreciation of His character. He takes no pleasure in a forced obedience; and to all He grants freedom of will, that they may render Him voluntary service.”—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 34.

12. What attitude does the Christian take toward the law of God? Ps. 40:8, last part; Rom. 7:22. Compare Heb. 8:10.

Note.—As long as the law is in the heart, purity of life will be manifested; obedience will be supreme. As long as the law is only in the Bible or on tables of stone, we shall not delight in it.

13. What promises are made to the obedient? Isa. 1:19.

Note.—“For nations as well as for individuals, the path of obedience to God is the path of safety and happiness, while that of transgression leads only to disaster and defeat.”—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 591.

Lesson Outline:

I. The Importance of the New Birth
1. It was emphasized by Jesus. John 3:3, 5.
2. It is needed by all. Rom. 3:23; 5:12, last part.
3. It is man's only hope. Eph. 2:12.

II. An Old and New Testament Doctrine
8. Paul's statement on the new creation. 2 Cor. 5:17.

III. Illustrations of the New Birth

IV. Evidences of the New Birth
13. The mind of Christ. Phil. 2:5; 1 Cor. 2:16.

Key Thought:

"The change of heart by which we become children of God is in the Bible spoken of as birth. Again, it is compared to the germination of the good seed sown by the husbandman. In like manner those who are just converted to Christ are, as 'new-born babes,' to 'grow up' to the stature of men and women in Christ Jesus. 1 Peter 2:2; Ephesians 4:15. Or like the good seed sown in the field, they are to grow up and bring forth fruit. Isaiah says that they shall 'be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified.' Isaiah 61:3. So from natural life, illustrations are drawn, to help us better to understand the mysterious truths of spiritual life." —Steps to Christ, page 67.

THE LESSON

The Importance of the New Birth

1. What alone will qualify one to enter the kingdom of God? John 3:3, 5.

Note.—"The power of Christ alone can work the transformation in heart and mind that all must experience who would partake with Him of the new life in the kingdom of heaven. 'Except a man be born again,' the Saviour has said, 'he cannot see the kingdom of God.' John 3:3. The religion that comes from God is the only religion that can lead to God. In order to serve Him aright, we must be born of the divine Spirit."—Testimonies, vol. 9, p. 156.

Note.—"There are many who realize their helplessness, and who long for that spiritual life which will bring them into harmony with God; they are vainly striving to obtain it. In despair they cry, 'O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from this body of death?' Rom. 7:24, margin. Let these desponding, struggling ones look up. The Saviour is bending over the purchase of His blood, saying with inexpressible tenderness and pity, 'Wilt thou be made whole?' He bids you arise in health and peace. Do not wait to feel that you are made whole. Believe His word, and it will be fulfilled. Put your will on the side of Christ. Will to serve Him, and in acting upon His word you will receive strength."—The Desire of Ages, page 203.

An Old and New Testament Doctrine

4. How did the psalmist express his earnest desire for a change of life and heart? Ps. 51:7-10.

6. What appeal for genuine repentance is made by God through the prophet Joel? Joel 2:12, 13.

7. What is John's testimony concerning those who have experienced the new birth? 1 John 2:29; 3:9.

8. By what is the life of the one who is truly converted known? 2 Cor. 5:17.

Note.—"'If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.' 2 Corinthians 5:17. Through the power of Christ, men and women have broken the chains of sinful habit. They have renounced selfishness. The profane have become reverent, the drunken sober, the profligate pure. Souls that have borne the likeness of Satan have become transformed into the image of God. This change is in itself the miracle of miracles."—The Acts of the Apostles, page 476.

Illustrations of the New Birth

Note.—The new birth cannot be explained; it must be experienced. This was taught very forcibly by Jesus when He talked to Nicodemus and said that no one could see the kingdom of God without being born again. Nicodemus was perplexed when Jesus used the wind to illustrate the working of the Spirit upon the life. Concerning this we read: “The wind is heard among the branches of the trees, rustling the leaves and flowers; yet it is invisible, and no man knows whence it comes or whither it goes. So with the work of the Holy Spirit upon the heart. It can no more be explained than can the movements of the wind. A person may not be able to tell the exact time or place, or to trace all the circumstances in the process of conversion; but this does not prove him to be unconverted. By an agency as unseen as the wind, Christ is constantly working upon the heart. Little by little, perhaps unconsciously to the receiver, impressions are made that tend to draw the soul to Christ. These may be received through meditating upon Him, through reading the Scriptures, or through hearing the word from the living preacher. Suddenly, as the Spirit comes with more direct appeal, the soul gladly surrenders itself to Jesus. By many this is called sudden conversion; but it is the result of long wooing by the Spirit of God,—a patient, protracted process.”—The Desire of Ages, page 172.

Evidences of the New Birth

12. When one has experienced the new birth, what will he be willing to say? Luke 22:42, last part.

Note.—When conversion takes place, self will be fully surrendered to God. Those who are born again will always say:

“Have Thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!

Thou art the Potter; I am the clay.
Mold me and make me after Thy will, While I am waiting, yielded and still.”

—A. A. Pollard.

13. What does the one who is converted possess and reveal? Phil. 2:5; 1 Cor. 2:16.

Note.—“The Spirit of God through faith produces a new life in the soul. The thoughts and desires are brought into obedience to the will of Christ. The heart, the mind, are created anew in the image of Him who works in us to subdue all things to Himself.”—The Desire of Ages, page 176.

14. What admirable condition is revealed in the life of the one who has been born again? Matt. 11:29, last part; Isa. 57:15; Micah 6:8.

Lesson 9, for November 26, 1960

Lesson Outline:

I. The Importance of Baptism
3. The church purified and united by it. Matt. 3:11; Eph. 4:5.
4. The entrance to church membership. 1 Cor. 12:12, 13.

II. Requirements for Baptism

III. Significance of Baptism
8. It commemorates Christ's death. Rom. 6:3, 4; Col. 2:12.
9. It was not by sprinkling. John 3:23.
10. It was by immersion. Acts 8:38, 39; Matt. 3:16.

IV. Life After Baptism

Key Word:

Baptism. When Paul wrote, "We are buried with Him by baptism" (Rom. 6:4), he used the Greek noun baptisma, "consisting of the processes of immersion, submersion, and emergence."—W. E. Vine, Expository Dictionary of New Testament Words, art. "Baptism," vol. 1, p. 96.

THE LESSON

The Importance of Baptism

Note.—"Jesus did not receive baptism as a confession of guilt on His own account. He identified Himself with sinners, taking the steps that we are to take, and doing the work that we must do. His life of suffering and patient endurance after His baptism was also an example to us."—The Desire of Ages, page 111.

2. How do the Gospel writers express the importance of baptism? Matt. 28:19; Mark 16:15, 16; Luke 7:29, 30; John 3:5.

3. In what way does baptism purify and unify the church? Matt. 3:11; Eph. 4:5.

4. With what condition must all comply in order to enjoy full church membership? 1 Cor. 12:12, 13.

Note.—"Christ has made baptism the sign of entrance to His spiritual kingdom. He has made this a positive condition with which all must comply who wish to be acknowledged as under the authority of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Before man can find a home in the church, before passing the threshold of God's spiritual kingdom, he is to receive the impress of the divine name, 'The Lord our Righteousness.' Jeremiah 23:6."—Testimonies, vol. 6, p. 91.

Requirements for Baptism

5. What is the first requirement for baptism? Matt. 28:19, first part; Acts 8:35.

Note.—"Baptism is a most solemn renunciation of the world. Those who are baptized in the threefold name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, at the very entrance of their Christian life declare publicly that they have forsaken the service of Satan and have become members of the royal family, children of the heavenly King. They have obeyed the command: 'Come out from among them, and be ye separate, . . . and touch not the unclean thing.' And to them is fulfilled the promise: 'I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be My sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.'—Testimonies, vol. 6, p. 91.

7. What other evidence of fitness for baptism was given on the Day of Pentecost? Acts 2:37, 38.

NOTE.—True repentance leads to conversion and confession of sin. The prerequisites to baptism—instruction, faith, repentance, and conversion—cannot be experienced by a young child. The Bible is silent concerning infant baptism.

Significance of Baptism

8. What does baptism commemorate? Rom. 6:3, 4; Col. 2:12.

10. What other experiences teach that the mode of baptism is immersion? Acts 8:38, 39; Matt. 3:16.

Life After Baptism

NOTE.—The words "newness of life" suggest that the life previous to baptism was the old life. The same apostle who describes the new life also reveals the characteristics of the old. The old man is to be buried in baptism. The new represents the converted man. On this new life G. G. Findlay writes: "The baptism of the Galatians signalized their entrance 'into Christ,' the union of their souls with the dying, risen Lord. They were 'baptized,' as Paul phrases it elsewhere, 'into His death,' to 'walk' henceforth with Him 'in newness of life.' By its very form—the normal and most expressive form of primitive baptism, descent into and rising from the symbolic waters—it pictured the soul's death with Christ, its burial and its resurrection in Him, its separation from the life of sin and entrance upon the new career of a regenerated child of God."—George G. Findlay, in The Expositor's Bible, comment on Gal. 3:27.

12. How is the life after baptism further described? Gal. 3:27.

NOTE.—The text makes it clear that Paul speaks of the life after baptism. The putting on of Christ is an experience that comes to us through faith. The expressions: “faith in Christ” (verse 26), “baptized into Christ,” and “put on Christ,” are closely associated; they are synonymous expressions. Of these three expressions someone has said: “The first is the spiritual principle, the ground or element of the new life; the second, its visible attestation; and the third indicates the character and habit proper thereto.”

Note.—The life after baptism turns its seeking heavenward; it seeks “those things which are above.” Heavenly things satisfy the longing of the heart; they are of eternal value; they will endure. In our spiritual experience we are to “mount up with wings as eagles.” Isa. 40:31. We are to live in the heavenly atmosphere. We must continue to “seek those things which are above” until we reach our eternal goal—heaven itself.

Note.—It was after Christ’s baptism that Satan tempted Him in the wilderness, but the enemy was defeated in every attempt. The secret of Christ’s success must be ours. It is found in three words: “It is written.”

Lesson Outline:

I. The Certainty of His Coming
   2. The second coming is as certain as was the first advent. Heb. 9:27, 28.

II. The Doctrine in the Old and New Testaments
   3. Testimony of Old Testament characters:

III. The Nearness of His Coming
11. The signs in the church. 1 Tim. 4:1.

Key Words:

1. Coming. The early Christians used a word, \textit{parousia}, as a term to denote their Master's return. It was contrasted with another word rendered "absence." Technically, \textit{parousia} meant the presence of someone standing by.

"In bodily form, He is now absent in heaven: on that day [the \textit{parousia}] He will be visibly present on earth."—J. Agar Beet, \textit{Manual of Theology}, page 458.

2. Fables. In 1 Timothy 1:4, as in other scriptures, reference is made to fables, which can refer to any oral sayings handed down from the past. There was a large body of rabbinical fables.

THE LESSON

The Certainty of His Coming

Note.—The words "I will come again" were spoken at a time when the hearts of God's children were troubled. That is why the Lord began by saying: "Let not your heart be troubled." The disciples tried to understand what might happen to them should the Master leave them. To bring hope, cheer, comfort, and an undying faith into their lives, He promised that He would come again. How sweet the words sounded, "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again." This promise not only belonged to the disciples then, it is a real inspiration to God's people today who are looking forward to His appearing. God's promises will not fail. The coming of Jesus is mentioned more than fifteen hundred times in His word, and more than three hundred times in the New Testament. What an emphasis on His coming!

"It was said in the Jewish schools that an oral law had been given on Sinai, and that this law, a succession of teachers, from the time of Moses, had handed down. This 'law that is upon the lip,' as it was termed, was further illustrated and enlarged by the sayings and comments of the more famous Jewish rabbis, and in the time of our Lord constituted a supplement to the written law in the Pentateuch. For centuries this supplementary code was preserved by memory or in secret rolls, and doubtless was constantly receiving additions. It contained, along with many wild and improbable legendary histories, some wise teachings. This strange collection of tradition and comment was committed to writing in the second century by Rabbi Jehuda, under the general name of the Mishna, or repetition (of the law)."—Ellicott, \textit{Commentary}, on 1 Timothy 1:4.

There were many other oral traditions, which often served to cloud the truths taught by Jesus. See Matthew 15:3.

The Doctrine in the Old and New Testaments

3. What testimonies are given by Old Testament characters regarding the coming of the Lord? Jude 14, 15; Job 19:25, 26; Ps. 50:3; Isa. 40:10.

5. What experience is mentioned by Peter that lifts the doctrine of Christ's advent above the false teachings of men? 2 Peter 1:16-19.

Note.—"The coming of the Lord has been in all ages the hope of His true followers. The Saviour's parting promise upon Olivet, that He would come again, lighted up the future for His disciples, filling their hearts with joy and hope that sorrow could not quench nor trials dim. Amid suffering and persecution, the 'appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ' was the 'blessed hope.'"—The Great Controversy, page 302.

7. At the time of Christ's ascension, what promise did the angels make to the disciples? Acts 1:11.

Note.—"While the disciples were gazing upward to catch the last glimpse of their ascending Lord, He was received into the rejoicing ranks of heavenly angels. As these angels escorted Him to the courts above, they sang in triumph, 'Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises unto the Lord, to Him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens. . . . Ascribe ye strength unto God: His excellency is over Israel, and His strength is in the heavens.' Psalm 68:32-34, margin. . . . "The promise of Christ's second coming was ever to be kept fresh in the minds of His disciples. The same Jesus whom they had seen ascending into heaven, would come again, to take to Himself those who here below give themselves to His service."—The Acts of the Apostles, pages 32, 33.

The Nearness of His Coming

8. With what important event were the disciples concerned, and what question did they ask the Master? Matt. 24:3.

Note.—"As the people of Noah's day knew not until the Flood came, and took them all away; so,' in the words of our Saviour, 'shall also the coming of the Son of man be.' Matthew 24:39. When the professed people of God are uniting with the world, living as they live, and joining with them in forbidden pleasures; when the luxury of the world becomes the luxury of the church; when the marriage bells are chiming, and all are looking forward to many years of worldly prosperity—then, suddenly as the lightning flashes from the heavens, will come the end of their bright visions and delusive hopes."—The Great Controversy, pages 338, 339.

11. How did Paul describe the conditions that would prevail just prior to the second coming of Jesus? 1 Tim. 4:1.

Lesson Outline:

I. False Ideas Concerning His Coming
   2. The crowning act of deception. 2 Cor. 11:14.
   3. The deceived. 2 Thess. 2:10-12.

II. Specific Errors Concerning the Second Advent
   4. That it took place at the resurrection. Matt. 28:2-6; Mark 16:2-6; Rev. 1:7.

III. Christ's Coming Is Personal and Visible
   7. Promise of Jesus to come in person. John 14:3.
   8. "The Lord Himself shall descend." 1 Thess. 4:16.

IV. The Purpose of Christ's Return

Key Thought:

"Satan can present a counterfeit so closely resembling the truth that it deceives those who are willing to be deceived, who desire to shun the self-denial and sacrifice demanded by the truth; but it is impossible for him to hold under his power one soul who honestly desires, at whatever cost, to know the truth. Christ is the truth and the 'light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.' John 1:9. The Spirit of truth has been sent to guide men into all truth."—The Great Controversy, page 528.

THE LESSON

False Ideas Concerning His Coming

1. What did Jesus say would be one of the deceptions of the latter times? Matt. 24:4, 5, 24.

Note.—"Evil spirits will be put upon the track of every soul that seeks to join the ranks of Christ, for Satan wishes to recover the prey taken from his grasp. Evil men will give themselves over to believe strong delusions, that they may be damned. These men will put on the garments of sincerity and deceive, if possible, the very elect.”—Testimonies, vol. 4, p. 595.

2. Before the end of time, how will Satan himself attempt to deceive the people? 2 Cor. 11:14.

NOTE.—“As the crowning act in the great drama of deception, Satan himself will personate Christ. The church has long professed to look to the Saviour's advent as the consummation of her hopes. Now the great deceiver will make it appear that Christ has come. In different parts of the earth, Satan will manifest himself among men as a majestic being of dazzling brightness, resembling the description of the Son of God given by John in the Revelation. Revelation 1:13-15. The glory that surrounds him is unsurpassed by anything that mortal eyes have yet beheld. The shout of triumph rings out upon the air: ‘Christ has come! Christ has come!’ The people prostrate themselves in adoration before him, while he lifts up his hands and pronounces a blessing upon them, as Christ blessed His disciples when He was upon the earth. . . . But the people of God will not be misled. The teachings of this false Christ are not in accordance with the Scriptures.”—The Great Controversy, pages 624, 625.

3. What four experiences does Paul note in the lives of those who will be deceived? 2 Thess. 2:10-12.

NOTE.—It is important that we not only know the manner of Christ’s coming but that we have the right attitude toward this great event. Satan will do his utmost to deceive even the very elect. Paul earmarks those who are or who will be deceived. He tells us that they will be known by the following: They (1) “received not the love of the truth,” (2) “believe a lie,” (3) “believed not the truth,” (4) “had pleasure in unrighteousness.”

When we rely upon the word of God, accept its teaching, and live in harmony with it, we need not fear deception.

Specific Errors Concerning the Second Advent

NOTE.—When Christ came forth from the tomb, only a few saw Him. When He comes the second time, “every eye shall see Him.” The two events are entirely separate. The first has already taken place; the second takes place after the gospel has been preached or proclaimed to every nation, tongue, and people. Matt. 24:14.

NOTE.—There are those who believe that the second coming of Jesus takes place at the time of conversion, but this is not based upon a “Thus saith the Lord.” When one experiences the new birth, Christ comes and dwells in the heart by His Holy Spirit; but this is not His second coming.

6. What experience indicates that the disciples did not believe that death is the second coming of Jesus? John 21:21-23.
It is evident that the disciples regarded death and the coming of Christ as two distinct or separate events.

"The teaching so widely echoed from popular pulpits, that the second advent of Christ is His coming to each individual at death, is a device to divert the minds of men from His personal coming in the clouds of heaven. For years Satan has thus been saying, 'Behold, He is in the secret chambers' (Matthew 24:23-26); and many souls have been lost by accepting this deception."—The Great Controversy, page 525.

Christ's Coming Is Personal and Visible

7. What did Jesus promise concerning His second coming? John 14:3.

8. What does the apostle Paul say about the personal coming of the Lord? 1 Thess. 4:16.

9. What assurance was given by the angels at the time of the ascension of Jesus? Acts 1:11.

"It was the compassionate Saviour, who, anticipating the loneliness and sorrow of His followers, commissioned angels to comfort them with the assurance that He would come again in person, even as He went into heaven."—The Great Controversy, page 339.

"Satan is not permitted to counterfeit the manner of Christ's advent. The Saviour has warned His people against deception upon this point, and has clearly foretold the manner of His second coming. 'There shall arise false christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect..."—The Great Controversy, page 485.

"The glory that surrounds Christ when He appears the second time is indescribable. We read: "No human pen can portray the scene; no mortal mind is adequate to conceive its splendor. 'His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of His praise. And His brightness was as the light.' Habakkuk 3:3, 4. As the living cloud comes still nearer, every eye beholds the Prince of life. No crown of thorns now mars that sacred head; but a diadem of glory rests on His holy brow. His countenance outshines the dazzling brightness of the noonday sun."—The Great Controversy, page 641.

The Purpose of Christ's Return

"In the typical service the high priest, having made the atonement for Israel, came forth and blessed the congregation. So Christ, at the close of His work as mediator, will appear, 'without sin unto salvation' (Hebrews 9:28), to bless His waiting people with eternal life."—The Great Controversy, page 485.

Lesson Outline:

I. Man's Creation and Nature

II. Immortality
   4. God alone possesses immortality. 1 Tim. 6:15, 16; 1:17.

III. Man's True Condition in Death
   7. He has returned to dust. Eccl. 3:19, 20; 12:7; Gen. 3:19.
   8. His thoughts have perished. Ps. 146:3, 4; 6:5; Eccl. 9:5, 6.
   9. He is unconscious. John 11:11; 1 Cor. 15:51.

IV. Immortal Life
   10. It is found only in Christ. John 10:15, 17, 18; 2 Tim. 1:10.
   11. The mortal puts on immortality. 1 Cor. 15:51-55.
   12. It is received at the resurrection of the righteous. Ps. 17:15; 1 Thess. 4:15-17.

Key Words:

"Soul. The Hebrew word, nephesh, of the Old Testament, occurs about 700 times, and is rendered soul 471 times; life and living, about 150 times; and the same word is also rendered a man, a person, self, they, me, him, any one, breath, heart, mind, appetite, the body, (dead or alive,) lust, creature, and even a beast; for it is 28 times applied to beasts and to every creeping thing. The Greek word psuchee of the New Testament, corresponds with nephesh of the Old. It occurs 105 times, and is rendered soul 59 times, and life 40 times. The same word is also rendered, mind, us, you, heart, heartily, and is twice applied to the beasts that perish. . . . Perhaps it may be worthy of notice, that in all the 700 times which nephesh occurs, and the 105 times of psuchee, not once is the word immortal, or immortality, or deathless, or never-dying, found in connection, as qualifying the terms. . . ."

"Spirit. The Hebrew word ruach, occurs 400 times in the Old Testament, and is rendered spirit 240 times; breath 28 times; wind 95 times; mind 6 times, and the balance in 18 different ways. . . . Like the word psuchee, neither ruach nor pneuma is ever once connected with words which indicate that it is deathless, never-dying, or immortal."—Wilson, Emphatic Diaglott, 1870 edition, Alphabetical Appendix.
Background Information

Belief in the natural immortality of the soul led to the deification and worship of the dead. This was customary among the peoples of antiquity—Egyptians, Assyrians, Babylonians, Phoenicians, Greeks—in fact, among all except those who worshiped the true God. More than that, this false doctrine, the immortality of the soul, paved the way for the teachings of spiritism, or spiritualism, which is defined as "belief that departed spirits hold intercourse with mortals by means of physical phenomena, as by rapping, or during abnormal mental states, as in trances, commonly manifested through a medium; the practices of spiritualists."—Webster, New Collegiate Dictionary.

THE LESSON

Man's Creation and Nature

1. Who was the Creator of man, and how was man made? Gen. 1:26, 27; 2:7. Compare Ps. 103:14.

2. In what condition was man when he came forth from the hands of his Maker? Gen. 1:31. Compare Eccl. 7:29.

Note.—"In the creation of man was manifest the agency of a personal God. When God had made man in His image, the human form was perfect in all its arrangements, but it was without life. Then a personal, self-existing God breathed into that form the breath of life, and man became a living, breathing, intelligent being. All parts of the human organism were put in action. The heart, the arteries, the veins, the tongue, the hands, the feet, the senses, the perceptions of the mind—all began their work, and all were placed under law. Man became a living soul. Through Jesus Christ a personal God created man and endowed him with intelligence and power."—Testimonies, vol. 8, p. 264.

3. As David considered the miracle of his own creation, what was he led to exclaim? Ps. 139:14.

Note.—"The psalmist cannot contemplate his own frame, God's workmanship, without breaking into thanks, nor without being touched with awe. Every man carries in his own body reasons enough for reverent gratitude."—Alexander Maclaren, D.D., in Expositor's Bible, comment on Psalm 139:13-18.

Immortality

4. Who only possesses inherent immortality? 1 Tim. 6:15, 16; 1:17.

Note.—The word "immortal" is defined by Webster as "exempt from liability to die." God is the only being who possesses original life or immortality in Himself. All others must receive it from Him.

Note.—"If we do not strive to gain an entrance into the kingdom, if we do not seek earnestly to learn what constitutes its laws, we are not fitted for a part in it."—Christ's Object Lessons, page 280.

6. What has been the basis of the false teaching concerning the immortality of the soul? Gen. 3:4.

Note.—The first lie ever recorded came from the enemy of all truth. This lie is expressed in five words: "Ye shall not surely die." These words form the foundation upon which the theory of the immortality of man is based—a poor foundation to build upon. Among ancient peoples, in general there was some form of belief in survival after death, just as there was an equally widespread tradition of a universal flood. The first had its origin in the satanic lie, "Ye shall..."
not surely die;" the second, in the historical fact of the Flood.

"Herodotus reports (bk. ii, 123) that the Egyptians 'were the first who taught that man's soul is immortal.'"—J. Agar Beet, The Immortality of the Soul, page 15.

Man's True Condition in Death

8. What is the state of man in death? Ps. 146:3, 4; 6:5; Eccl. 9:5, 6.

Immortal Life

10. What definite proof do we have that immortality is found only in Christ? John 10:15, 17, 18; 2 Tim. 1:10.

Note.—Jesus laid down His life, but He was the "Prince of life." Acts 3:15. Because He was sinless and holy He came forth from the tomb. Rom. 1:4. As He was the Author of eternal salvation, so He was "the Author of the resurrection," and because Jesus was the Conqueror of the grave "He . . . asserted His right and power to give eternal life" to all who trust in Him. See The Desire of Ages, page 530. He delivered us from wrath by His death, and brought to us immortality through His own divine life.

11. What change will take place when "death is swallowed up in victory"? 1 Cor. 15:51-55.

Note.—"When, at Christ's coming, the amazing transformation from mortal to immortal has taken place, both of the righteous dead and the righteous living, then man's great enemy will no longer trouble the redeemed. The last thought that occupied their minds as the shadow of death overtook the saints was that of approaching sleep, their last feeling was that of the pain of death. As they see that Christ has come and conferred on them the gift of immortality, their first sensation will be one of great rejoicing that never again will they succumb to the power of death."—The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, on 1 Cor. 15:54.

12. When will the people of God be clothed with immortality? Ps. 17:15; 1 Thess. 4:15-17.

Note.—"The gift of immortality will be received only by those who accept God's offer of salvation through Jesus Christ, and this gift will be theirs when Jesus comes again."—The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, on 1 Cor. 15:53.

Lesson Outline:

I. Premillennial World Conditions
   3. Peace efforts. Isa. 2:2-4; Joel 3:9, 10; 1 Thess. 5:3.

II. The Beginning of the Millennium
   4. The return of Christ; the first resurrection. John 14:1-3; Rev. 20:4, 5.
   6. The saints taken to heaven. John 14:3; 1 Thess. 4:16 (last part), 17.

III. Events During the Millennium
   7. Satan bound. Rev. 20:1, 2.
   9. The righteous sit in judgment. Rev. 20:4; 1 Cor. 6:1, 2.

IV. The Close of the Millennium
   11. The loosing of Satan. Rev. 20:3 (last part), 7.
   13. The destruction of the wicked. Mal. 4:1; Nahum 1:9.

Key Thought:
The word “millennium” comes from two Latin words, mille, meaning “a thousand,” and annus “a year”—a thousand years. The word “millennium” is not found in the English Bible, but the expression “one thousand years,” which is equivalent to it, is used six times in the twentieth chapter of Revelation. The saints will be in heaven, the wicked are slain, and Satan is bound. He and his angels will be judged during this period. “The angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, He hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.” Jude 6.
THE LESSON

Premillennial World Conditions

Note.—Thinking men and women everywhere recognize the prevailing wickedness of the times in which we live. No one can deny that drunkenness, vice, crime, and debauchery have greatly increased. The sins of Noah's days are repeated in our day.

Note.—We are told that "the harvest is the end of the world." It is plain that the wicked, represented by the tares, live with the righteous—the wheat—until the end of the world. Jesus and the New Testament writers nowhere anticipated that the whole world would be converted.

3. What has been prophesied concerning peace efforts in the last days, and their results? Isa. 2:2-4; Joel 3:9, 10; 1 Thess. 5:3.

Note.—"Where is the promise of His coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning." 2 Peter 3:4. Do we not hear these very words repeated, not merely by the openly ungodly, but by many who occupy the pulpits of our land? 'There is no cause for alarm,' they cry. 'Before Christ shall come, all the world is to be converted, and righteousness is to reign for a thousand years. Peace, peace! all things continue as they were from the beginning. Let none be disturbed by the exciting message of these alarmists.' But this doctrine of the millennium does not harmonize with the teachings of Christ and His apostles."—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 103.

The Beginning of the Millennium

Note.—There will be two general resurrections, with one thousand years between them. They mark the beginning and the end of the thousand years. The first resurrection brings forth those who died in the Lord; the second, those who have rejected Christ and who will be lost eternally. Since the righteous dead are raised at the second coming of Christ, it is evident that this event will mark the last day of the present Christian age, and the beginning of the millennium, or the thousand-year period. Therefore the coming of Christ is premillennial.

Note.—"At the coming of Christ the wicked are blotted from the face of the whole earth—consumed with the spirit of His mouth and destroyed by the brightness of His glory."—The Great Controversy, page 657.

6. At the second coming of Christ what wonderful change is afforded the righteous? John 14:3; 1 Thess. 4:16 (last part), 17.

Events During the Millennium

7. After the translation of the righteous and the slaying of the wicked, where and how will Satan be confined? Rev 20:1, 2. Compare Mark 5:3, 4.

Note.—With the righteous in heaven and the wicked slain, his iniquitous work is brought to a standstill during the thousand years, for he will have no one to deceive. His place of confinement is the "bottomless pit," or this earth. The expression "bottomless pit" is the same in the Greek as that used in the Septuagint translation of Genesis 1:2 for the word rendered "deep" in the King James Version.

"That the expression 'bottomless pit' represents the earth in a state of confusion and darkness is evident from other scriptures. Concerning the condition of the earth 'in the beginning,' the Bible record says that it 'was,without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep.' Genesis 1:2. Prophecy teaches that it will be brought back, partially at least, to this condition....

"For a thousand years, Satan will wander to and fro in the desolate earth to behold the results of his rebellion against the law of God. During this time his sufferings are intense. Since his fall his life of unceasing activity has banished reflection; but he is now deprived of his power and left to contemplate the part which he has acted since first he rebelled against the government of heaven, and to look forward with trembling and terror to the dreadful future when he must suffer for all the evil that he has done and be punished for the sins that he has caused to be committed."—The Great Controversy, pages 658-660.

Note.—"The whole earth appears like a desolate wilderness. The ruins of cities and villages destroyed by the earthquake, uprooted trees, ragged rocks thrown out by the sea or torn out of the earth itself, are scattered over its surface, while vast caverns mark the spot where the mountains have been rent from their foundations....

"The revelator foretells the banishment of Satan and the condition of chaos and desolation to which the earth is to be reduced, and he declares that this condition will exist for a thousand years."—The Great Controversy, pages 657, 658.

9. During the millennium what will be the work of the righteous? Rev. 20:4; 1 Cor. 6:1, 2.

Note.—"During the thousand years between the first and the second resurrection the judgment of the wicked takes place. It is at this time that, as foretold by Paul, 'the saints shall judge the world,' 1 Corinthians 6:2, 3. In union with Christ they judged the wicked, comparing their acts with the statute book, the Bible, and deciding every case according to the deeds done in the body. Then the portion which the wicked must suffer is meted out, according to their works; and it is recorded against their names in the book of death."—The Great Controversy, pages 660, 661.

The Close of the Millennium

10. When will the rest of the dead, the wicked, be resurrected? Rev. 20:5, first part.

Note.—"At the close of the thousand years the second resurrection will take place. Then the wicked will be raised from the dead and appear before God for the execution of 'the judgment written.' Thus the revelator, after describing the resurrection of the righteous, says: 'The rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished.' Revelation 20:5. And Isaiah declares, concerning the wicked: 'They shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited.' Isaiah 24:22."—The Great Controversy, page 661.
11. What change in Satan's condition will take place at the close of the millennium? Rev. 20:3 (last part), 7.

12. As a result of the resurrection of the wicked, what does Satan attempt to do, and what is the outcome? Rev. 20:7-9.

Note.—“Satan consults with his angels, and then with these kings and conquerors and mighty men. They look upon the strength and numbers on their side, and declare that the army within the city is small in comparison with theirs, and that it can be overcome. They lay their plans to take possession of the riches and glory of the New Jerusalem. All immediately begin to prepare for battle. . . .

“In his last great effort to dethrone Christ, destroy His people, and take possession of the City of God, the archdeceiver has been fully unmasked. Those who have united with him see the total failure of his cause.” —The Great Controversy, pages 664-670.

13. How complete will be the destruction of the wicked? Mal. 4:1; Nahum 1:9.

Note.—“Satan’s work of ruin is forever ended. For six thousand years he has wrought his will, filling the earth with woe and causing grief throughout the universe. The whole creation has groaned and travailed together in pain. Now God’s creatures are forever delivered from his presence and temptations.” —The Great Controversy, page 673.

Lesson Outline:

I. God's Purpose in Creation
   1. He formed the earth to be inhabited. Isa. 45:18.
   2. The earth hath He given to man. Ps. 115:16.

II. The Promise to Abraham
   5. Looked for a city whose maker was God. Heb. 11:8-10, 13-16.

III. The Holy City

IV. New Earth Conditions
   8. The desert shall blossom as the rose. Isa. 35:1, 2; Rev. 21:1; 22:3-5.

V. The Home of the Redeemed
   12. Mortal man cannot comprehend. 1 Cor. 2:9, 10.

Key Thought:
"A fear of making the future inheritance seem too material has led many to spiritualize away the very truths which lead us to look upon it as our home. Christ assured His disciples that He went to prepare mansions for them in the Father's house. Those who accept the teachings of God's word will not be wholly ignorant concerning the heavenly abode. And yet, 'eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him.'"—The Great Controversy, pages 674, 675.

THE LESSON

God's Purpose in Creation
1. When God created this earth, what purpose did He have in mind? Isa. 45:18.

   Note.—"He created it not in vain." This earth was never intended to be a wasteland. When God created our first parents He said to them: "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it." Genesis 1:28. Though sin has decimated the earth's population and made the earth to wax old as a garment, yet the design of the Creator remains unchanged. "My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure." Isaiah 46:10.

2. Why is this earth said to be man's rightful home? Ps. 115:16.

   Note.—"'God made the world to enlarge heaven. He desired a larger family' (EGW RH June 25, 1908). This same planet will be the final home of the redeemed. He has promised that the meek 'shall inherit the earth' (Matt. 5:5)."—The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, on Ps. 115:16.

The Promise to Abraham
3. What promise was made to Abraham? Gen. 13:14-17.

   Note.—"There was given to Abraham the promise, especially dear to the people of that age, of a numerous posterity and of national greatness: 'I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing.' And to this was added the assurance, precious above every other to the inheritor of faith, that of his line the Redeemer of the world should come: ‘In thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.’”—Patriarchs and Prophets, page 125.

4. How inclusive was this promise to Abraham? Rom. 4:13.

Note.—"This was 'the blessing of Abraham' that was to be extended also to the Gentiles through Jesus Christ (Gal. 3:14). All who are Christ's are 'Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise' (Gal. 3:29). Since the kingdom of Christ will fill the whole earth, Abraham and his seed are indeed heirs of the world. The promise will be literally fulfilled when the kingdoms of this world are given to the people of the Most High, and Christ will reign with His saints forever and ever (Dan. 7:27).”—The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, on Rom. 4:13.

Note.—Abraham knew that no man-made paradise could satisfy his soul or fulfill the promise. God had shown him a better world, and he could never be wholly satisfied with this one as it now is. He foresaw the corruption and violence of the cities of man, and their eventual doom which was later confirmed in the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah.

The Holy City

Note.—"These words were designed to comfort the disciples. Jesus was leaving, but He would not forget them. He would eagerly anticipate His reunion with them in the Father's house. In the interval He would prepare for the glorious home-coming.——The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, on John 14:2.

7. In vision what did John see "coming down from God out of heaven"? Rev. 21:1-3.

Note.—Anciently the cities were measured by circumference, that is, by giving the distance around the city. Reckoning eight furlongs to a mile, the New Jerusalem would be 1,500 miles in circumference. The city is foursquare. Dividing this distance by four, would give 375 miles to a side, which means that the city is 375 miles square, with an area of 140,625 square miles. The immensity of the New Jerusalem is beyond present-day comparison. The Greek word translated "equal" suggests proportion, so the height, breadth, and length of the wall are in proportion.

New Earth Conditions

8. What inspired picture is given of the earth in its restored state? Isa. 35:1, 2; Rev. 21:1; 22:3-5.

Note.—"While the earth was wrapped in the fire of destruction, the righteous abode safely in the Holy City. Upon those that had part in the first resurrection, the second death has no power. While God is to the wicked a consuming fire, He is to His people both a sun and a shield. Revelation 20:6; Psalm 84:11.

"I saw a new heaven and a new earth:
for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away.' Revelation 21:1. The fire that consumes the wicked purifies the earth. Every trace of the curse is swept away."—The Great Controversy, pages 673, 674.

9. What change will have been wrought in man's physical life? Rev. 21:4; Isa. 33:24.

Note.—"Pain cannot exist in the atmosphere of heaven. There will be no more tears, no funeral trains, no badges of mourning. 'There shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying: . . . for the former things are passed away,' 'The inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.'"—The Great Controversy, page 676.

11. How will the redeemed spend their time in the new earth? Isa. 65:21, 22.

Note.—"Life in the new earth will not be an idle existence. Men will labor and they will enjoy the fruits of their labors. Work there will be a comfort and a source of endless delight. The saints will plan homes and gardens and they will have the time and the means to carry out their plans."—The Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentary, on Isa. 65:22.

The Home of the Redeemed

12. Can mortal man fully comprehend the glories of the saints' reward? 1 Cor. 2:9, 10.

Note.—"Human language is inadequate to describe the reward of the righteous. It will be known only to those who behold it. No finite mind can comprehend the glory of the Paradise of God."—The Great Controversy, page 675.

Note.—"The great controversy is ended. Sin and sinners are no more. The entire universe is clean. One pulse of harmony and gladness beats through the vast creation. From Him who created all, flow life and light and gladness, throughout the realms of illimitable space. From the minutest atom to the greatest world, all things, animate and inanimate, in their unshadowed beauty and perfect joy, declare that God is love."—The Great Controversy, page 678.
Teaching is an art, and the best methods of teaching are essential in developing strong Sabbath school instruction. Knowing that no finer teaching techniques have ever been found than those used by Jesus Christ, Elder Breitigam has made an intensive study of the way Jesus taught men about the kingdom of heaven. Every teacher from the cradle roll to the senior division will appreciate the inspirational material Elder Breitigam has gathered from the Bible, the spirit of prophecy, and his own many years of experience. There are also excellent check questions for thought and discussion. Price, $2.00.
How appropriate that we can give a special offering for Jesus on the very eve, as it were, of the day that the world at large observes as the birthday of our King. While the world celebrates the birth of Jesus by giving gifts to one another, let us remember the great love gift that He gave, for “greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.”

Here is our opportunity to show our love for Jesus by a gift that will mean life for many of His “friends” in Inter-America. Our hospitals around the world have meant life, physically and spiritually, for many a sick and sin-sick soul. Through the overflow of the Thirteenth Sabbath Offering this quarter, we can help two hospitals, one in Nicaragua and one in British Guiana, to pass on the gift of life.

Furthermore, by helping to build a boys’ dormitory for the new boarding academy in Puerto Rico, we can have a part in training workers for the cause of God, that they, too, may pass on the word of life to many more of those “friends” of Jesus for whom He laid down His life.

Make your Christmas gift a love gift this year.
