The Statistical Report for 1914

A Report Showing Fifty-Two Years of Progress

In the following pages will be found the fifty-second annual statistical report of this denomination. This report is arranged under three divisions whose membership and percentage stands thus:—

North America, membership 72,015, 57.22 per cent; Europe, membership 35,146, 27.93 per cent; all other countries, membership, 18,683, 14.85 per cent.

There are 26 union conferences, 128 local conferences, and 106 organized mission fields.

Membership

At the close of 1914, the total membership was 125,844, a gain during the year of 11,287, or 9.85 per cent. The gain for 1913 was 8,180, or 7.16 per cent, and that was the largest gain ever recorded up to that time. The gain for 1914 was greater than that reported for the preceding year by 3,107. The actual net gain in membership for the year 1914 was greater than the entire membership of the denomination throughout the world as it stood thirty years after this movement had begun its work. The number of baptisms during the year was 14,999. The net difference between the gain of members and the number of baptized is 3,712. Considering the proportionate number of deaths during the year, there is thus indicated a relatively small number of apostasies from the faith.

It will be observed that the report now includes only members of churches. For years the number of companies and their membership as well as the number of baptized scattered believers have been shown in the report, but in harmony with the vote taken at the last session of the General Conference, this information has been discontinued. The aggregate communicants thus dropped out of the report would be approximately 15,000. That is to say, the plan of omitting the membership of companies and scattered believers accounts for the elimination of approximately 15,000 communicants from all reference in this report. This difference in the method of reporting is not apparent in older, settled conferences; but in new territory, and especially in foreign mission fields, the difference in many cases is very apparent. In some cases, the present report gives about two thirds of the actual working communicants in the last-named countries. This not only affects the number reported, but also the per capita. It would be well to bear this in mind in making comparisons of per capita of new fields with those for older conferences.

Churches

The number of organized churches at the close of 1914 was 3,702, a gain during the year of 113, or 3.15 per cent.

Laborers

This work is now carried forward in 87 different countries, by a force of laborers comprised as follows: ordained ministers, 926; licensed ministers, 565; licensed missionaries, 1,454; colporteurs, 2,076, secretaries, 292; total evangelistic laborers, 5,313.

Other laborers are engaged in lines of work as follows: Teachers in mission schools, primary schools, and colleges, 1,616; employed in publishing houses, 735; in sanitariums and treatment rooms, 1,696; a total of 4,047 institutional laborers. If to this be added the 5,313 evangelistic laborers, there is secured a grand total of 9,360 laborers engaged in all lines of denominational work, or one laborer for every thirteen members.

Funds

The total funds contributed for evangelistic work by members of the denomination during 1914 were $3,090,484.80, a per capita of $24.56. This amount contributed is greater than the preceding year by $223,757.40, the per cent of increase being 7.80. Of the total amount contributed $2,328,751.88 was from North America, or 75.35 per cent, and all other countries, $761,732.92, or 24.65 per cent.

The amount raised for the three general classes of funds were as follows: Tithe, $1,818,436.08, 58.84 per cent; foreign mission offerings, $772,248.39, or 24.99 per cent; home and local offerings, $499,800.33, or 16.17 per cent. The per capita for the membership in North America was $32.33, for all the members outside North America, $14.15, an average of $24.56.

During the fifty-two years since this work has been organized, there has been contributed for evangelistic work alone, $31,675,894.76.

Total Funds

At the close of 1914, the total valuation of the 1,449 church buildings was $2,226,561.88, an increase of $177,750.37 for the year. Donations and investments during 1914 increased the net worth of the denominational institutions approximately $500,000. A further expenditure of $484,682.55 was made in the support of denominational educational institutions, so that the grand total contributions for evangelistic work, the increased valuation of church buildings, and the support of, and investments in, denominational institutions during 1914 constitute a grand total of $4,461,202.86, an average of $35.45 for each church member throughout the world. For 1913 this average was $32.70, thus showing an increase of $2.75 per member for 1914.

Educational Department

The denomination is conducting three general classes of schools: namely, mission schools in foreign mission fields, in which there are approximately 375 teachers, and an enrolment of 10,000; 611 primary schools (grades 1 to 8), with 703 teachers; 67 colleges and academies (grades 9 to 16) with 538 teachers. All these schools have an enrolment as follows: Grades 1 to 8, 24,965; grades 9 to 16, 4,735, making a grand total enrolment of 29,700. The total number of teachers is 1,616. The expense of annual maintenance of all the schools, aside from those engaged as mission schools, is $640,230.84.

Publishing Department

At the close of 1914 there were 38 publishing houses and branches having assets amounting to $1,602,846.58, in which were employed 735 persons engaged in the production of denominational literature, the sales of which for 1914 amounted to $2,109,834.60. This literature is issued in the form of approximately 375 bound books, 350 pamphlets, 1,300 tracts, and 134 periodicals in eighty-eight different languages. This literature is distributed by 2,076 colporteurs, of whom 885 are engaged in the North American Division, and 1,191 in other countries.

Sabbath-School Department

The number of Sabbath-schools at the close of 1914 was 4,936, with membership of 133,815. This membership is 6.32 per cent greater than the membership of churches. The total contributions for the year amounted to $344,390.23, or $2.57 per member. The entire amount was devoted to foreign missions. Since this work was organized, the total contributions from Sabbath-schools have amounted to $2,353,596.88, or 7.43 per cent of all the funds raised.

Sanitarium Work

The number of sanitariums and treatment rooms at the close of 1914 was 42, having assets of $2,894,605.67. In these were employed 122 physicians, and the total number of employees stood at 1,696.

Young People's Work

There are 1,070 young people's societies, having a membership of 19,898. The total contributions for the year amounted to $34,676.53, of which $24,478.07 was devoted to foreign missions.

It will be observed that the amount of money raised as offerings to foreign missions in the North American Division was $615,565.95; the membership in this division is 72,015. This amount is therefore an average of $8.55 for each member. The significance of this last amount will be better understood when it is explained that the latest available reports indicate that for 1913 the average per capita contributions on the part of the members of all the Protestant bodies in the United States was 63 cents. The figures ranged from $1.93, the highest, for the Moravian bodies, to twenty-one cents per member for the lowest.

For 1913 Seventh-day Adventists gave in this division an average of $6.95 to foreign missions; for 1914, the average was increased to $8.55. In order that no misunderstanding may arise on the part of any into whose hands this report may go, it should be explained that for each field until the beginning of 1915.

this average contribution of $8.55 for all the members in the North American Division Conference is not the total of funds raised for evangelistic work. It is simply the amount devoted to foreign missions. The total amount for evangelistic work, as well as for all lines of home interest, the latter including the increase of valuation on church buildings, support of, and investment in, institutions, etc., from the 72,015 members in North America, is indicated in the following summary:—

FUND	AMOUNT	PER CAP.	Foreign Offerings	156,682.44	2.91
Tithe	$1,269,962.09	$17.63	All other interests	456,492.77	8.48
Foreign Missions	615,565.95	8.55
Home interests in addition to tithe	1,414,025.62	19.63	Totals	$1,161,649.20	$21.58
Total	$3,299,553.66	$45.81	Surely the evidences of progress in the Lord's work, as set forth in this report, must be cheering news to the heart of every believer in this cause. That this growth is not spasmodic is shown by the reports already in hand for 1915, indicating a greater gain than for the preceding year. The number of baptisms in North America during three quarters will equal those for all of 1914.
The total of funds raised outside North America for the 53,829 members, as indicated above, constitutes an average for each member outside this country, of $21.58, distributed as follows:—
FUND	AMOUNT	PER CAP.
Tithe	$ 548,473.99	$10.19

(b) Miscellaneous offerings received by the North American Division Conference during 1914 were $4,440.77. To this should be added as general total of $613,277.23 as the total mission funds received by the North American Division treasury during 1914. These figures agree exactly with the included in column 19. (c) The amount shown in column 18 for each of the three divisions covering this report is for book and periodical sales the value of literature which each publishing house has manufactured and sold during the year.

In closing this report, a few statements will be proper regarding the facts presented in summaries I and II. The figures contained in summary I indicate the amount given for all the lines of work specifically named therein. The amount contributed for Sabbath-school work is listed in columns 5, 6, and 7. A portion of this amount was used for foreign mission work, and for many years, a portion was retained for home interests. In summary II, column 3, is indicated the amount given for foreign missions from all sources. Likewise the amounts raised as tithe and for home missions are also shown. In other words, all the funds raised for evangelical work since the organization of this cause are grouped under three heads in columns 2, 3, and 4; namely tithe, foreign missions, and home missions. Of the total amount contributed, 68 per cent was for tithe; 19.30 per cent for foreign missions; and 12.70 per cent for home interests. The total contributions have exceeded thirty-one and a half million dollars — truly a large fund for gospel effort. This amount represents the united effort of all the members of this denomination since its organization to the present time in their endeavor to extend this cause. And as the number of members has increased, not only has the amount of funds contributed increased from year to year, but the per capita amount contributed has almost uniformly increased each year until it has now reached the highest mark yet attained, namely $24.56. This represents the average amount for every member throughout the world of funds contributed solely for evangelistic work. Other funds have been given for the support of institutional work, the erection of church buildings, and other lines, so that the total contributions for all lines of work during 1914 from the members throughout the world, as previously shown, amount to an average of $35.45, or for the membership in North America, $45.81.

Column 8 of summary II indicates the percentage of growth by ten-year periods. This steady increase in the amount of total funds contributed for the extension of this work is graphically shown on the opposite page. This chart also shows the increase in contributions in behalf of foreign missions as well as the gain in membership.

The outstanding, prominent features of this report may be summarized thus: The number of believers baptized and connected with this cause during 1914 was much larger than for any year since this work was organized, with the consequent greatest increase in the membership of churches. A cause for gratitude is the fact that apostasies from the faith have been very, very few, and are apparent only when the total results are compared. Another feature which must appear prominent in even a brief consideration of the figures presented in the preceding pages, is the fact that the year 1914 witnessed not only the largest amount of contributions received for the extension of this cause, but the largest amount per capita. The outline on the opposite page shows that not once since this work was begun has either the growth in membership or in contributions for the ten-year periods taken a downward trend, but every upward advance has been followed by still others, until this cause today shows more rapid progress than ever before in its history. The foregoing presentation of growth respecting this cause should be a source of encouragement and cheer to believers.
