Column 2, 1906-10 includes Treatment Rooms. For a number of years the figures in Summary 7 have included information regarding certain sanitariums and treatment rooms, and of those connected therewith which were listed in Table 2 as being under private management, but are now omitted from this report. This omission will account for the apparent decrease in the above figures.

A Resumé

At the close of 1930 there were 21,461 evangelistic and institutional laborers connected with denominational activities, which are now carried forward in 141 countries of the world, in 417 languages, operating under 499 conference, 206 associated, and 399 institutional organizations, having an aggregate investment of $53,314,348.60.

The membership of the 6,741 churches is 314,253, a net gain during 1930 of 14,698, or 4.91 per cent. The number of Sabbath school members who may be considered communicants, total 382,743, or for every one hundred church members there are 121.71 communicants.

The membership of the entire denomination in 1916 was 141,488, so that the gain up to the close of 1930 was 172,765, or for every one hundred members in 1916 there are now 222.11; that is, the gain in membership during the past fourteen years has been 31,277 more than since this movement began up to the close of 1916.

The membership at the close of 1930 constitutes one Seventh-day Adventist church member for every 6,234 of the population of the world, while in 1912 the proportion was one member for every 18,358 of the world's population.

The number baptized in 1930 and uniting with the church was 28,536, or over 78 every day—nearly two average churches.

During 1930 the membership in North America contributed total funds for all lines of evangelistic work aggregating $8,144,449.50, an average of $67.56; the membership in all other fields contributed $3,868,160.04, an average of $20.49; making the total contributions for 1930 $12,112,609.54, an average for the membership throughout the world of $38.54, of which tithe was $19.83; foreign missions $12.79, all other funds $5.92.

The number of primary and mission schools operated by the denomination is 1,977 intermediate and advanced schools 201, a total of 2,178. The total enrolment of denominational schools of all grades and in all countries is 93,181, or one student for every 3.37 church members. This enrolment is high because of the many hundreds of natives taking work in mission or primary schools who are not yet members.

Sales of denominational literature during 1930 in 146 languages aggregated $4,715,709.89; since 1863, $88,472,955.29. One copy of each piece of literature would now cost $1,814.73.

Total contributions for all lines of work since the organization of this movement, $179,545,639.31, of which $131,338,086.09 (73.15 per cent) came from North America, and $48,207,553.22 (26.85 per cent) came from all other countries.
