Preface to the 1992 Edition

Scope of the Yearbook
A world directory of the Seventh-day Adventist Church is given in the following pages. It includes the General Conference and its international divisions, union and local conferences and missions, and related institutions. Institutions that are managed but not fully owned and operated by church entities are not included. The information has been furnished by the organizations themselves; but in cases where current reports have not been received, the most recent previous records have been retained or adjusted.

In the conference and mission sections, employees are listed in the following sequence: ordained ministers holding ministerial credentials; credentialed commissioned ministers, credentialed commissioned teachers, credentialed missionaries, licensed ministers, licensed commissioned ministers, and credentialed literature evangelists. The Directory of Workers gives the names and addresses of these workers. Institutional employees are listed separately in the Index of Institutional Workers.

The data that appears below has been summarized largely from the 1990 Annual Statistical Report, while the figures for the number of churches and for church membership throughout the Yearbook are drawn from official reports rendered for June 30, 1991.

Denominational History
Seventh-day Adventists are, doctrinally, heirs of the Millerite movement of the 1840's. Although the name "Seventh-day Adventist" was chosen in 1860, the denomination was not officially organized until May 21, 1863, when the movement included some 125 churches and 3,500 members. Work was largely confined to the vicinity. The first non-Protestant Christian mission was established in 1872, and 1877 saw the opening of a school, but the project ended when riots broke out in the vicinity. The first non-Protestant Christian country entered was Russia, where an Adventist minister went in 1886. On October 20, 1890, the schooner Pitcairn was launched at San Francisco and was soon engaged in carrying missionaries to the Pacific islands.

Seventh-day Adventist workers first entered non-Christian countries in 1894—Gold Coast (Ghana), West Africa, and Matabeleland, South Africa. The same year saw missionaries entering South America, and in 1896 there were representatives in Japan. The Church now has established work in 182 countries.

The publication and distribution of literature were major factors in the growth of the Advent Movement. The Advent Review and Sabbath Herald (now the Adventist Review), general church paper, was launched in Paris, Maine, in 1850; the Youth's Instructor in Rochester, New York, in 1852; and the Signs of the Times in Oakland, California, in 1874. The first denominational publishing house at Battle Creek, Michigan, began operating in 1855 and was duly incorporated in 1861 under the name of Seventh-day Adventist Publishing Association.

The Health Reform Institute, later known as the Battle Creek Sanitarium, opened its doors in 1866, and missionary society work was organized on a statewide basis in 1870. The first of the Church's worldwide network of schools was established in 1872, and 1877 saw the formation of state-wide Sabbath school associations. In 1903, the denominational headquarters was moved from Battle Creek, Michigan, to Washington, D.C., and in 1899 to Silver Spring, Maryland, where it continues to form the nerve-center of an ever-expanding work.

The distinctive Seventh-day Adventist message may be summarized as "the everlasting gospel," the basic Christian message of salvation through faith in Christ, in the special setting of the threefold message of Revelation 14:6-12, the call to worship the Creator, "for the hour of his judgment is come." This message is epitomized in the phrase, "the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.;"
FUNDAMENTAL BELIEFS OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

Seventh-day Adventists accept the Bible as their only creed and hold certain fundamental beliefs to be the teaching of the Holy Scriptures. These beliefs, as set forth here, constitute the church's understanding and expression of the teaching of Scripture. Revision of these statements may be expected at a General Conference session when the church is led by the Holy Spirit to a fuller understanding of Bible truth or finds better language in which to express the teachings of God's Holy Word.

1. The Holy Scriptures
The Holy Scriptures, Old and New Testaments, are the written Word of God, given by divine inspiration through holy men of God who spoke and wrote as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. In this Word, God has committed to man the knowledge necessary for salvation. The Holy Scriptures are the infallible revelation of His will. They are the standard of character, the test of experience, the authoritative revealer of doctrines, and the trustworthy record of God's acts in history. (2 Peter 1:20, 21; 2 Tim. 3:16, 17; Ps. 119:105; Prov. 30:5, 6; Isa. 8:20; John 17:17; 1 Thess. 2:13; Heb. 4:12.)

2. The Trinity
There is one God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, a unity of three co-eternal Persons. God is immortal, all-powerful, all-knowing, above all, and ever present. He is infinite and beyond human comprehension, yet known through His self-revelation. He is forever worthy of worship, adoration, and service by the whole creation. (Deut. 6:4; Matt. 28:19; 2 Cor. 13:14; Eph. 4:4-6; 1 Peter 1:2; 1 Tim. 1:17; Rev. 14:7.)

3. The Father
God the Eternal Father is the Creator, Source, Sustainer, and Sovereign of all creation. He is just and holy, merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness. The qualities and powers exhibited in the Son and the Holy Spirit are also revelations of the Father. (Gen. 1:1; Rev. 4:11; 1 Cor. 15:28; John 3:16; 1 John 4:8; 1 Tim. 1:17; Ex. 34:6, 7; John 14:9.)

4. The Son
God the eternal Son became incarnate in Jesus Christ. Through Him all things were created, the character of God is revealed, the salvation of humanity is accomplished, and the world is judged. Forever truly God, He became also truly man, Jesus the Christ. He was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He lived and experienced temptation as a human being, but perfectly exemplified the righteousness and love of God. By His miracles He manifested God's power and was attested as God's promised Messiah. He suffered and died voluntarily on the cross for our sins and in our place, was raised from the dead, and ascended to minister in the heavenly sanctuary in our behalf. He will come again in glory for the final deliverance of His people and the restoration of all things. (John 1:1-3, 14; Col. 1:15-19; John 10:30; 14:9; Rom. 6:23; 2 Cor. 5:17-19; John 5:22; Luke 1:35; Phil. 2:5-11; Heb. 2:9-18; 1 Cor. 15:3, 4; Heb. 8:1, 2; John 14:1-3.)

5. The Holy Spirit
God the eternal Spirit was active with the Father and the Son in Creation, incarnation, and redemption. He inspired the writers of Scripture. He filled Christ's life with power. He draws and convicts human beings; and those who respond He renews and transforms into the image of God. Sent by the Father and the Son to be always with His children, He extends spiritual gifts to the church, empowers it to bear witness to Christ, and in harmony with the Scriptures leads it into all truth. (Gen. 1:1, 2; Luke 1:35; 4:18; Acts 10:38; 2 Peter 1:21; 2 Cor. 3:18; Eph. 4:11, 12; Acts 1:8; John 14:16-18, 26; 15:26, 27; 16:7-13.)

6. Creation
God is Creator of all things, and has revealed in Scripture the authentic account of His creative activity. In six days the Lord made "the heaven and the earth" and all living things upon the earth, and rested on the seventh day of that first week. Thus He established the Sabbath as a perpetual memorial of His completed creative work. The first man and woman were made in the image of God as the crowning work of Creation, given dominion over the world, and charged with responsibility to care for it. When the world was finished it was "very good," declaring the glory of God. (Gen. 1; 2; Ex. 20:6-11; Ps. 19:1-6; 33:6, 9; 104; Heb. 11:3.)

7. The Nature of Man
Man and woman were made in the image of God with individuality, the power and freedom to think and to do. Though created free beings, each is an indivisible unity of body, mind, and spirit, dependent upon God for life and breath and all else. When our first parents disobeyed God, they denied their dependence upon Him and fell from their high position under God. The image of God in them was marred and they became subject to death. Their descendants share this fallen nature and its consequences. They are born with weaknesses and tendencies to evil. But God in Christ reconciled the world to Himself and by His Spirit restores in penitent mortals the image of their Maker. Created for the glory of God, they are called to love Him and one another, and to care for their environment. (Gen. 1:26-28; 2:7; Ps. 8:4-8; Acts 17:24-28; Gen. 3; Ps. 51:5; Rom. 5:12-17; 2 Cor. 5:19; 20; Ps. 51:10; 1 John 4:7, 8, 11, 20; Gen. 2:15.)

8. The Great Controversy
All humanity is now involved in a great controversy between Christ and Satan regarding the character of God, His law, and His sovereignty over the universe. This conflict originated in heaven when a created being, endowed with freedom of choice, in self-exaltation became Satan, God's adversary, and led into rebellion a portion of the angels. He introduced the spirit of rebellion into this world when he led...
9. The Life, Death, and Resurrection of Christ

The church is the community of believers who confess Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. In continuity with the people of God in Old Testament times, we are called out from the world; and we join together for worship, fellowship, for instruction in the Word, for the celebration of the Lord's Supper, for service to all mankind, and for the world-wide proclamation of the gospel. The church derives its authority from Christ, who is the Head, and from the Scriptures, which are the written Word. The church is God's family; adopted by Him as children, its members live on the basis of the new covenant. The church is the body of Christ, a community of faith of which Christ Himself is the Head. The church is the bride for whom Christ died that He might sanctify and cleanse her. At His return in triumph, He will present her to Himself a glorious church, the faithful of all the ages, the purchase of His blood, not having spot or wrinkle, but holy and without blemish. (Gen. 12:3; Acts 7:55; Eph. 4:11-15; 5:25-27; Matt. 28:19, 20; 16:19-20; 18:18; Eph. 2:19-22; 1:22, 23; 5:23-27; Col. 1:17, 18.)

10. The Experience of Salvation

In infinite love and mercy God made Christ, who knew no sin, to be sin for us, so that in Him we might be made the righteousness of God. Led by the Holy Spirit we sense our need, acknowledge our sinfulness, repent of our transgressions, and exercise faith in Jesus as Lord and Christ, as Substitute and Example. This faith which receives salvation comes through the divine power of the Word and is the gift of God's grace. Through Christ we are justified, adopted as God's sons and daughters, and delivered from the lordship of sin. Through the Spirit we are born again and sanctified; the Spirit renewes our consciousness of salvation now and makes the judgment in the future. (2 Cor. 5:14, 15, 19-21; Rom. 1:4; 3:25; 4:25; 8:3, 4; 1 John 2:2, 4:10; Col. 2:15; Phil. 2:6-11.)

11. The Church

The church is the community of believers who confess Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. In continuity with the people of God in Old Testament times, we are called out from the world; and we join together for worship, fellowship, for instruction in the Word, for the celebration of the Lord's Supper, for service to all mankind, and for the world-wide proclamation of the gospel. The church derives its authority from Christ, who is the Head, and from the Scriptures, which are the written Word. The church is God's family; adopted by Him as children, its members live on the basis of the new covenant. The church is the body of Christ, a community of faith of which Christ Himself is the Head. The church is the
16. Spiritual Gifts and Ministries

God bestows upon all members of His church in every age spiritual gifts which each member is to employ in loving ministry for the common good of the church and of humanity. Given by the agency of the Holy Spirit, who appontions to each member as He wills, the gifts provide all abilities and ministries needed by the church to fulfill its divinely ordained functions. According to the Scriptures, these gifts include such ministries as faith, healing, prophecy, proclamation, teaching, administration, reconciliation, compassion, and self-sacrificing service and charity for the help and encouragement of people. Some members are called of God and endowed by the Spirit for functions recognized by the church in pastoral, evangelistic, apostolic, and teaching ministries. Some members are called of God and endowed by the Spirit to foster unity of the faith and knowledge of God. When members employ these spiritual gifts as faithful stewards of God's varied grace, the church is protected from the destructive influence of false doctrine, growth, with a growth that is from God, and is built up in faith and love. (Rom. 12:4-8; 1 Cor. 12:9-11; 27, 28; Eph. 4:8, 11-16; Acts 6:1-7; 1 Tim. 2:1-3; 1 Peter 4:10, 11.)

17. The Gift of Prophecy

One of the gifts of the Holy Spirit is prophecy. This gift is an identifying mark of the remnant church and was manifested in the ministry of Ellen G. White. As the Lord's messenger, her writings are a continuing and authoritative source of truth which provide for the church comfort, guidance, instruction, and correction. They also make clear that the Bible is the standard by which all teaching and experience must be tested. (Joel 2:28, 29; Acts 2:14-21; Heb. 1:1-3; Rev. 12:17; 19:10.)

18. The Law of God

The great principles of God's law are embodied in the Ten Commandments and exemplified in the life of Christ. They express God's love, will, and purposes concerning human conduct and relationships and are binding upon all people in every age. These precepts are the basis of God's covenant with His people and the standard in God's judgment. Through the agency of the Holy Spirit they point out sin and awaken a sense of need for a Saviour. Salvation is all of grace and not of works, but its fruitage is obedience to the Commandments. This obedience develops Christian character and results in a sense of well-being. It is an evidence of our love for the Lord and our concern for our fellow men. The obedience of faith demonstrates the power of Christ to transform lives, and therefore strengthens Christian witness. (Ex. 20:1-17; Ps. 40:7, 8; Matt. 22:36-40; Deut. 28:1-14; Matt. 5:17-20; Heb. 8:8-10; John 16:7-11; Eph. 2:8-10; 1 John 5:3; Rom. 8:3, 4; Ps. 19:7-14.)

19. The Sabbath

The beneficient Creator, after the six days of Creation, rested on the seventh day and instituted the Sabbath for all people as a memorial of Creation. The fourth commandment of God's unchangeable law requires the observance of this seventh-day Sabbath as the day of rest, worship, and ministry in harmony with the teaching and example of Jesus, the Lord of the Sabbath. The Sabbath is a day of delightful communion with God and one another. It is a symbol of our redemption in Christ, a sign of our sanctification, a token of our allegiance, and a foretaste of our eternal future in God's kingdom. The Sabbath is God's perpetual sign of His eternal covenant between Him and His people. Joyful observance of this holy time from evening to evening, sunset to sunset, is a celebration of God's creative and redemptive acts. (Gen. 2:1-3; Ex. 20:8-11; Luke 4:16; Isa. 56:5, 6; 58:13, 14; Matt. 12:1-12; Ex. 31:13-17; Eze. 20:12, 20; Deut. 5:12-15; Heb. 4:1-11; Lev. 23:32; Mark 1:32.)

20. Stewardship

We are God's stewards, entrusted by Him with time and opportunities, abilities and possessions, and the blessings of the earth and its resources. We are responsible to Him for their proper use. We acknowledge God's ownership by faithful service to Him and our fellow men, and by returning tithes and giving offerings for the proclamation of His gospel and the support and growth of His church. Stewardship is a privilege given to us by God for nurture in love and the victory over selfishness and covetousness. The steward rejoices in the blessings that come to others as a result of his faithfulness. (Gen. 1:26-28; 2:15; 1 Chron. 29:14; Hag. 1:3-11; Mal. 3:8-12; 1 Cor. 9:9-14; Matt. 23:23; Rom. 15:26, 27.)

21. Christian Behaviour

We are called to be a godly people who think, feel, and act in harmony with the principles of heaven. For the Spirit to recreate in us the character of our Lord we involve ourselves only in those things which will produce Christlike purity, health, and joy in our lives. This means that our ammusement and entertainment should meet the highest standards of Christian taste and beauty. While recognizing cultural differences, our dress is to be simple, modest, and neat, befitting those whose true beauty does not consist of outward adornment but in the imperishable ornament of a gentle and quiet spirit. It also means that because our bodies are the temples of the Holy Spirit, we are to care for them intelligently. Along with adequate exercise and rest, we are to adopt the most healthful diet possible and abstain from the unclean foods identified in the Scriptures. Since alcoholic beverages, tobacco, and the irresponsible use of drugs and narcotics are harmful to our bodies, we are to abstain from them as well. Instead, we are to engage in whatever brings our thoughts and bodies into the discipline of Christ, who desires our wholesomeness, joy, and goodness. (Rom. 12:1, 2; 1 Cor. 10:23, 24; Eph. 5:1-21; Phil. 4:8; 2 Cor. 10:5; 6:14-7:1; 1 Peter 3:14-17; 1 Cor. 6:6-19; 20; 10:31; Lev. 11:14-7; 3 John 2.)

22. Marriage and the Family

Marriage was divinely established in Eden and affirmed by Jesus to be a lifelong union between a man and a woman in loving companionship. For the Christian a marriage commitment is to God as well as to the spouse, and should be entered into only between partners who share a common faith. Mutual love, honor, respect, and responsibility are the fabric of this relationship, which is to reflect the love, sanctity, closeness, and permanence of the relationship between Christ and His church. Regarding divorce, Jesus taught that the person who divorces a spouse, except for fornication, and marries another, commits adultery. Although some family relationships may fall short of the ideal, marriage partners who fully commit themselves to each other in Christ may achieve loving unity through the guidance of the Spirit and the nurture of the church. God blesses the family and intends that its members shall assist each other toward complete maturity. Parents are to bring up their children to love and obey the Lord. By their example and their words they are to teach them that Christ is a loving disciplinarian, ever tender and caring, who wants them to become members of His body, the family of God. Increasing family closeness is one of the earmarks of the final gospel message. (Gen. 2:18-25; Matt. 19:3-9; John 2:1-11; 2 Cor. 6:14; Eph. 5:21-33; Matt. 5:31, 32; Mark 10:11, 12; Luke 16:18; 1 Cor. 7:10, 11; Ex. 20:12; Eph. 6:1-4; Deut. 6:5-9; Prov. 22:6; Mal. 4:5, 6.)

23. Christ's Ministry in the Heavenly Sanctuary

There is a sanctuary in heaven, the true tabernacle which the Lord set up and not man. In it Christ ministers on our behalf, making available to believers the benefits of His atoning sacrifice offered once for all on the cross. He was inaugurated as our great High Priest and began His intercessory ministry at the time of His ascension. In 1844, at the end of the prophetic period of 2300 days, He entered the second and last phase of His atoning ministry. It is a work of investigative judgment which is part of the ultimate disposition of all sin, typified by the cleansing of the ancient Hebrew sanctuary on the Day of Atonement. In that typical service the sanctuary was cleansed with the blood of animal sacrifices, but the heavenly things are purified with the perfect sacrifice of the blood of Jesus. The investigative judgment reveals to heavenly intelligences who among the dead are asleep in Christ and therefore, in Him, are deemed worthy to have part in the first resurrection. It also makes manifest who, among the living are abiding in Christ, keeping the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus, and in Him, therefore, are ready for translation into His everlasting kingdom. This judgment vindicates the justice of God in saving those who believe in Jesus. It declares that those who have remained loyal to God shall receive the kingdom. The completion of this ministry of Christ will mark the close of human probation before the Second Advent. (Heb. 8:1-5; 4:14-16; 9:11-28; 10:19-22; 1:3; 2:16, 17; Dan. 7:9-27; 8:13, 14; 9:24-27; Num. 14:34; Ezr. 4:6; Lev. 16; Rev. 14:6, 7; 20:12; 14:12; 22:12.)

24. The Second Coming of Christ

The second coming of Christ is the blessed hope of the church, the grand climax of the gospel. The Saviour's coming will be literal, personal, visible and worldwide. When He returns, the righteous dead will be resurrected, and together with the righteous living will be glorified and taken to heaven, but the unrighteous will die. The almost complete fulfillment of most lines of prophecy, together with the present condition of the world, indicates that Christ's coming is imminent. The time of that event has not been revealed, and we are therefore exhorted to be ready at all times. (Titus 2:13; Heb. 9:28; John 14:1-3; Acts 1:9-11; Matt. 24:14; Rev. 1:7; Matt. 24:43, 44; 1 Thess. 4:13-18; 1 Cor. 15:51-54; 2 Thess. 1:7-10; 2:8; Rev. 14:14-20; 19:11-21; Matt. 24; Mark 13; Luke 21; 2 Tim. 3:1-5; 1 Thess. 5:1-11.)

25. Death and Resurrection

The wages of sin is death. But God, who alone is immortal, will grant eternal life to His redeemed. Until that day death is an unconscious state for all people. When Christ, who is our life, appears, the resurrected righteous and the living righteous will be glorified and caught up to meet their Lord. The second resurrection, the resurrection of the unrighteous, will take place a thousand years later. (Rom. 6:23; 1 Tim. 6:15, 16; Eccl. 9:5, 6; Ps. 146:3, 4; John 11:11-14; Col. 3:4; 1 Cor. 15:51-54; 1 Thess. 4:13-17; John 5:28, 29; Rev. 20:1-10.)

26. The Millennium and the End of Sin

The millennium is the thousand-year reign of Christ with His saints in heaven between the first and second resurrections. During this time the wicked dead will be judged; the earth will be utterly desolate, without living human inhabitants, but occupied by Satan and his angels. At its close Christ with His saints and the Holy City will descend from heaven to earth. The unrighteous dead will then be resurrected, and with Satan and his angels will surround the city; but fire from God will consume them and cleanse the earth. The universe will thus be freed of sin and sinners forever. (Rev. 20:1-15; 1 Cor. 6:2, 3; Jer. 4:23-26; Rev. 21:1-5; Mal. 4:1; Eze. 28:18, 19.)

27. The New Earth

On the new earth, in which righteousness dwells, God will provide an eternal home for the redeemed and a perfect environment for everlasting life, love, joy, and learning in His presence. For here God Himself will dwell with His people, and suffering and death will have passed away. The great controversy will be ended, and sin will be no more. All things, animate and inanimate, will declare that God is love; and He shall reign forever. Amen. (2 Peter 3:13; Isa. 35; 65:17-25; Matt. 5:5; Rev. 21:1-7; 22:1-5; 11:15.)
THE CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

(As revised at the Fifty-fifth Session held in Indianapolis, Indiana, July 5 to July 14, 1990.)

CONSTITUTION

Article I—Name

This organization shall be known as the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Article II—Purpose

The purpose of the General Conference is to teach all nations the everlasting gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ and the commandments of God.

Article III—Membership

Sec. 1. The membership of the General Conference shall consist of:

a. All union conferences and union missions that have been or shall be properly organized and accepted by vote of the General Conference in session.

b. All conferences and missions and unions of churches directly attached to the General Conference, and all conferences and missions and unions of churches directly attached to a division, that have been or shall be properly organized.

c. Delegates representing conferences and missions attached to a division but not to any union conference or mission shall be appointed by the respective division executive committee in consultation with the organizations concerned.

d. Delegates representing union conferences and union missions, conferences and missions and unions of churches attached to the General Conference but not to any division shall be appointed by the Executive Committee in consultation with the organizations concerned.

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee may call special sessions of the General Conference at such time and place as it considers proper, by means of a notice as provided for in Sec. 1., and the transactions of such special sessions shall have the same force as those of the regular sessions.

Sec. 3. The election of officers, and the voting on all matters of business shall be by viva-voce vote, or as designated by the chairman, unless otherwise requested by a majority of the delegates present.

Sec. 4. The delegates to a General Conference Session shall be designated as follows:

a. Regular delegates.

b. Delegates at large.

Sec. 5. Regular delegates shall represent the General Conference's member union conferences, union missions, member conferences, missions, and unions of churches as defined in Article III, Sec. 1., and shall be appointed with the objective that at least 25 percent be lay delegates as follows:

a. Delegates representing union conferences shall be appointed by the respective unions.

b. Delegates representing union missions, and unions of churches having division affiliation shall be appointed by the respective division executive committees in consultation with the organizations concerned.

c. Delegates representing conferences and missions attached to a division but not to any union conference or mission shall be appointed by the respective division executive committee in consultation with the organizations concerned.

d. Delegates representing union conferences and union missions, conferences and missions and unions of churches attached to the General Conference but not to any division shall be appointed by the Executive Committee in consultation with the organizations concerned.

Sec. 6. Regular delegates shall be allotted on the following basis:

a. Each union conference and union mission shall be entitled to one delegate other than its president (who is a delegate at large), without regard to membership; and an additional delegate for each conference and mission in its territory without regard to membership.

b. Each union of churches shall be entitled to one delegate, without regard to membership.

c. Each conference and mission directly attached to a division or to the General Conference shall be entitled to one delegate, without regard to membership.

d. Each union conference, union mission, union of churches, and attached conference and mission described in Sections 6-a, 6-b, and 6-c shall be entitled to additional delegates based upon its proportion of the world church membership. The total delegates under this provision shall not exceed 1,200.

Sec. 7. Delegates at large shall represent the General Conference, its divisions, and its organizations and shall be appointed on the following basis:

a. All members of the Executive Committee.

b. Four delegates from each division, without regard to membership, and one additional delegate for each 100,000, or major fraction thereof, of the division membership, such delegates to be appointed by the division executive committee and their credentials to be ratified by the General Conference in session. At least 50 percent of these delegates shall be laypersons, pastors, teachers, and non-administrative employees.

c. Those representatives of the church's general and division institutions and other entities, and those general workers, field secretaries, lay persons, and pastors who are selected by the Executive Committees of the General Conference and its divisions, the credentials for whom are to be ratified by the General Conference in session. The number of these delegates shall not exceed 20 percent of the total number of both regular delegates and other delegates at large herein provided for.

Sec. 8. Credentials to sessions shall be issued by the General Conference to those appointed as provided for in harmony with the provisions of this article.

Sec. 9. Calculations for all delegate allotments as provided for in this article shall be based upon the membership as of December 31 of the second year preceding the General Conference Session.
Article V—Election

Sec. 1. The following shall be elected at each regular session of the General Conference:

a. A president, vice presidents, a secretary, an undersecretary, associate secretaries, division secretaries, a treasurer, an undertreasurer, associate treasurers, division treasurers, general field secretaries, division field secretaries, a director and associate directors of the General Conference Auditing Service, directors of division Auditing Services, a secretary and associate secretaries of the Ministerial Association, a director and associate directors of each duly organized General Conference department; namely, Church Ministries, Communication, Education, Health and Temperance, Public Affairs and Religious Liberty, Publishing; a director of Archives and Statistics, a director of Adventist Chaplaincy Ministries, a director and associate directors of Trust Services; division Ministerial Association secretaries, division presidents of Andrews University, the directors of Trust Services, and, for divisions in which special circumstances require it, any other departmental or service directors, upon the request of the division executive committee, and the approval of the General Conference Executive Committee.

b. Persons, not to exceed 80 in number, to serve as members of the Executive Committee, at least 30 of whom shall be laypersons from all the divisions.

Article VI—Executive Committee

Sec. 1. The Executive Committee of the General Conference shall consist of:

a. Those elected as provided by Article V except the directors and associate directors of the General Conference Auditing Service and directors of division auditing services.

b. Presidents of union conferences, presidents of union missions, past presidents of the General Conference holding credentials from the General Conference, the manager of Adventist World Radio-Asia, the president of Andrews University, the directors and associate directors of Biblical Research Institute, the president of Christian Record Services, the executive director of General Conference Risk Management Services, the director of Geoscience Research Institute, the president of Loma Linda University, the president of Oakwood College, the president of Pacific Press Publishing Association, the director of Philanthropic Service for Institutions, the president of Seventh-day Adventist Radio, Television and Film Center, the president of Review and Herald Publishing Association, the president/executive director of Adventist Development and Relief Agency International, the executive secretary of Adventist-Laymen's Services and Industries, the director of General Conference Personnel Administration, the editor and associate editors of Adventist Review, the president, secretary, undersecretary, and associate secretaries of Ellen G. White Estate, the speaker of Ayer, Hoy y Manana, the speaker of Breath of Life, the speaker of Faith for Today, the speaker of It Is Written, the speaker of Voice of Prophecy, and the speaker of La Voz de la Esperanza.

e. As the Executive Committee may advise, and perform such other duties as usually pertain to such office.

Sec. 3. Vice Presidents: Each vice president shall assist the president in the general administrative work of the General Conference or preside over a division territory.

Sec. 4. Secretary, undersecretary, and associate secretaries: It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep the minutes of the proceedings of the General Conference Sessions and meetings of the Executive Committee, to maintain correspondence with church organizations, and to perform such other duties as usually pertain to such office. The undersecretary and associate secretaries shall assist the secretary in this work.

Sec. 5. Treasurer, undertreasurer, and associate treasurers: It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds of the General Conference and disburse them in harmony with the actions of the Executive Committee, to render such financial statements at regular intervals as may be desired by the president or by the Executive Committee, and to perform such other duties as usually pertain to such office. The undertreasurer and associate treasurers shall assist the treasurer in this work.

Article VIII—Term of Office

Sec. 1. All officers of the General Conference and those members of the Executive Committee provided for by Article V, Sec. 1-a, shall hold office from the time of election until the next ensuing regular session, or until their successors are elected and appear to enter upon their duties.

Sec. 2. Members of the Executive Committee provided for by Article V, Sec. 1-b, shall serve from the time of their election until the next ensuing regular session.

Article IX—Corporations and Agents

Sec. 1. Corporations may be authorized by the General Conference in session or by the Executive Committee.

Sec. 2. The General Conference Corporation is a legal entity formed to hold title to General Conference assets, to serve the General Conference in carrying out its purposes, and to receive gifts and legacies for the General Conference unincorporated.

Sec. 3. At each regular session of the General Conference, the delegates shall elect the trustees of corporate bodies connected with this organization that may be required by the statutory laws governing each corporate body.

Sec. 4. The Executive Committee shall appoint or employ agents and other persons as necessary to execute its work effectively.

Article X—Bylaws

At any regular or special session of the General Conference the delegates may enact, amend, or repeal bylaws. Such actions may embrace any provision not inconsistent with the Constitution.

Article XI—Amendments

This Constitution or its Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the delegates present and voting at any session, provided that, if it is proposed to amend the Constitution at a special session of the General Conference, notice of such purpose shall be given in the call for that special session.
BYLAWS

Article I—Territorial Administration

Sec. 1. The General Conference normally shall conduct its worldwide work through its divisions, each division to operate within a specified territory in harmony with General Conference policies.

Sec. 2. a. The duly-organized divisions are: Africa-Indian Ocean Division, Eastern Africa Division, Euro-Africa Division, Far Eastern Division, Inter-American Division, North American Division, South American Division, South Pacific Division, Southern Asia Division, Trans-European Division, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics Division. The boundaries of these divisions shall be subject to adjustment only at sessions of the General Conference or at annual councils of the Executive Committee.

b. The duly-organized attached unions are: Middle East Union Mission, South African Union Conference, Southern Union Mission (Africa).

c. China.

Sec. 3. If a territorial adjustment is made at an annual council, it shall be made only provided each division and other territory affected is represented at the council by at least one of its officers, or in the case of an unorganized territory by a senior church leader from that territory. An exception to the requirement of such representation shall be made in a condition of emergency. In such a case, the Executive Committee shall make whatever adjustments are necessary for the conduct of the work in the territories affected.

Sec. 4. Union conferences and union missions, together with all other organizations and institutions within a division's territory, shall be responsible to that division's executive committee, or in the case of General Conference institutions and fields without divisional affiliation, to the General Conference Executive Committee.

Article II—Standing Committees

Sec. 1. At each regular session of the General Conference, such standing committees as may be found necessary, including the following, shall be elected to consider items of business that may be referred to them and to bring in their reports and recommendations to the session:

a. Constitution and Bylaws Committee
b. Plans Committee
c. Nominating Committee

Sec. 2. a. The membership of the Nominating Committee shall consist of the following:

1) Each division and each attached union shall be entitled to membership on the Nominating Committee based upon its proportion of the world membership as of December 31 of the second year preceding the session. The total under this provision is not to exceed 200 provided, however, that each division shall have at least eight members and each attached union shall have at least one member.

2) Each of the following General Conference institutions shall be entitled to one member on the Nominating Committee: Adventist World Radio, Asia, Andrews University, Christian Record Services, Home Study International, Loma Linda University, Oakwood College, Pacific Press Publishing Association, Review and Herald Publishing Association, and Seventh-day Adventist Radio, Television and Film Center.

b. The members of the Nominating Committee shall be chosen as follows:

1) Each division delegation, each attached union delegation, and each General Conference institutional delegation shall act as a unit in selecting the members to which it is entitled. Other delegates at large will join the delegations from the divisions in which they are or were last employed or now reside.

2) The election of the above representatives on the Nominating Committee shall be by the method of voting considered by each delegation to be most convenient and efficient, taking into consideration the size of the delegation and other circumstances.

c. Each division delegation shall select its representatives on the Nominating Committee to represent as far as possible the various geographical areas, organizational segments, and types of activity of the division.

d. Those chosen as members of the Nominating Committee must be duly accredited delegates in attendance at the General Conference Session.

e. Delegates elected under the provisions of Article V, Section 1-a of the Constitution shall not be members of the Nominating Committee.

f. No delegate shall nominate more than one person for election to the Nominating Committee.

g. The Nominating Committee shall elect its own chairman and secretary under the temporary chairmanship of the President of the General Conference whose term is expiring.

h. The Nominating Committee shall limit its nominations to those positions for which budgetary provision has been made.

i. In order to expedite the work of the Nominating Committee, the representatives from each division shall be allowed a reasonable amount of time to meet and consider the personnel needs of their respective divisions and to make recommendations to the full Nominating Committee. Decisions of these groups shall not be binding on the Nominating Committee as a whole, but shall be submitted as recommendations which will be considered. The Nominating Committee shall also recommend that the following North American Division Officers serve the General Conference as listed below:

NAD Secretary to serve as General Conference Associate Secretary
NAD Treasurer to serve as General Conference Associate Treasurer

Article III—Vice Presidents

Sec. 1. General vice presidents shall be elected to assist the President with the general administrative work of the General Conference. In addition a vice president shall be elected to serve as president of each division of the General Conference.

Sec. 2. The general vice presidents and the president of the North American Division shall in the absence of the President chair meetings of the Executive Committee.

Sec. 3. The vice presidents elected for the divisions shall serve as chairmen of the division executive committees operating in their respective territories and shall have charge of the work in those territories under the direction of the division executive committees and shall be designated within their respective division territories as presidents of the divisions over which they preside.

Article IV—Undersecretary and Associate Secretaries

An undersecretary and associate secretaries shall be elected to share with the Secretary the responsibilities of his office. They shall perform such duties connected with the Secretariat as may be assigned to them by the Secretary.

Article V—Division Secretaries

Sec. 1. A secretary shall be elected for each division to be designated "division secretary."
Sec. 2. Division secretaries shall work under the direction of their respective division executive committees. It shall be their duty to keep the minutes of the division executive committee meetings, to collect information and make such reports as may be required, and to do such other work as usually pertains to this office.

Sec. 3. Division executive committees may appoint associate and assistant secretaries as may be required to carry on the work.

Article VI—Undertreasurer and Associate Treasurers

An undertreasurer and associate treasurers shall be elected to share with the Treasurer the work of his office. They shall perform such duties connected with the Treasurer as may be assigned to them by the Treasurer or by the Executive Committee. They may be authorized by the Executive Committee to sign checks under the instruction of the Treasurer.

Article VII—Division Treasurers

Sec. 1. The departmental, association, and service departments, associations, and service in carrying the work of the General Conference office, usually in one or more special procedures or functions. These special assignments shall be carried on largely in the office and serve to expedite the work of the departmental staff. Field appointments for departmental assistants shall be of a very limited nature and shall normally be confined to the North American Division.

Article XI—Division Departments—Directors/Secretaries, Associates, and Assistants

Sec. 1. Division departmental, association, and service directors/secretaries and associates shall be elected by the General Conference for the respective divisions and shall serve under the direction of their respective division executive committees.

Sec. 2. Division executive committees shall appoint associate and assistant directors/secretaries that may be needed to serve in special capacities, to work under the direction of their respective directors/secretaries.

Article XII—Director of Archives and Statistics

At each regular session the General Conference shall elect a director of Archives and Statistics whose duties shall be to administer the General Conference Archives and to compile and report the statistics of the world work, and who shall serve under the direction of the Executive Committee.

Article XIII—Executive Committee

Sec. 1. a. During the intervals between sessions of the General Conference, the Executive Committee is delegated the authority to act on behalf of the General Conference in session including the authority to elect or remove, for cause, officers, directors, and associate directors of departments/associations/services and committee members and to fill for the current term any vacancies that may occur in its offices, boards, committees, or agents by death, resignation, or otherwise.

b. The Executive Committee shall also have power to grant or to withdraw credentials or licenses and to approve committees and employ personnel that may be necessary to execute its work effectively.

c. The Executive Committee shall have power to effect the retirement, before the expiration of the term for which they have been elected, of persons elected under Article V, Sec. 1-a, of the Constitution who may develop a health condition that prevents them from properly discharging their duties.

d. The removal from office by the Executive Committee of any person elected under Article V, Sec. 1-a, of the Constitution or its withdrawal of credentials or licenses shall be by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at any regular meeting.

e. The Executive Committee shall have the power to remove, for cause, members from the Executive Committee or any committee for which it is responsible by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at any regular meeting.

Sec. 2. a. A meeting of the Executive Committee, known as the Annual Council, shall be held annually for the purpose of considering budget requests and making appropriations, for the transaction of other business, and for the adoption of policies that may be necessary in the operation of the worldwide work.
b. A meeting of the Executive Committee, known as the Spring Meeting, shall be held annually for the purpose of receiving the audited financial reports of the General Conference and for transacting regular Executive Committee business as provided in the General Conference Working Policy relating to Spring Meetings.

Sec. 3. A majority of the full membership of the Executive Committee, including the President or a general vice president, is empowered to transact denominational business of any nature at any time and place.

Sec. 4. Any fifteen members of the Executive Committee, including an officer of the General Conference, shall, after due notice to available members, constitute a quorum of the Executive Committee and shall be empowered to transact business that is in harmony with the general plans outlined by the Executive Committee at the designated place of meeting of the Executive Committee as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 5. All meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held at the General Conference headquarters, or at another place that may be voted by the Executive Committee.

Sec. 6. Meetings of the Executive Committee may be called at any time by the ranking officer of the General Conference who may be present at headquarters, and this officer, or any member of the committee appointed by him, shall act as chairman of the meeting.

Article XIV—Division Executive Committees

Sec. 1. In each division, a division executive committee shall be constituted as hereinafter provided for the transaction of business pertaining to the division.

Sec. 2. The members of a division executive committee shall be the President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, and the field secretaries of the division; the presidents of union conferences; the division departmental, Ministerial Association, and service directors/secretaries; and any other member of the General Conference Executive Committee present. Other members may also be appointed by the division executive committee.

Sec. 3. The actions taken by division executive committees pertaining to the administration of affairs in division territories shall be considered final, provided they are in harmony with the plans and policy of the General Conference as set forth in the Constitution and Bylaws, and with its Executive Committee actions at Annual Councils.

Sec. 4. Five members of a division executive committee, including the chairman, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. When the chairman is unable to be present, the Secretary may convene such a meeting at division headquarters and shall serve as chairman unless otherwise determined by the President. Minority meetings of fewer than five members of the division executive committee may be held for the transaction of necessary routine business, but actions taken at such meetings shall not be final until the minutes of such meetings have been approved in a meeting with a quorum present.

Article XV—Auditors and Audits

The Executive Committee shall have the accounts of the General Conference and of its legal corporations audited at least once each calendar year, and the auditor shall report the results of these audits to the Executive Committee annually. The auditor shall report also to the General Conference at its regular sessions. The General Conference Auditing Service shall also be responsible for auditing the accounts of divisions and, through the respective division auditing services, the accounts of the division institutions, union conferences, union missions, conferences, missions, other institutions, and special funds. While the General Conference Auditing Service shall be under the general direction of the Executive Committee, this provision shall not interfere with the independent professional judgment of the Auditing Service.

Article XVI—Remuneration and Expenses

Sec. 1. The Executive Committee shall appoint annually a minimum of eight persons not in its employ who, with officers of the General Conference and not less than seven presidents of union conferences, shall constitute a committee to review the remuneration, related allowances, and expenses of employees.

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee shall have power to make necessary adjustments from time to time in the remuneration of employees.

Article XVII—Funds

Sec. 1. The funds of the General Conference shall be as follows:

a. A tithe of the tithe receipts of the union conferences and union missions, unions of churches and of the local conferences and missions not included in union conferences and union missions.

b. Regular mission offerings.

c. Special gifts and proceeds from the maturities of planned giving.

d. A percentage of the tithe of the local conferences and missions of attached unions as determined by the General Conference Executive Committee, or, in the case of North America, the General Conference Executive Committee meeting with the conference presidents.

e. Appropriations from publishing houses, health-care institutions, and other institutions that are under the control of the General Conference which, because of the character of their work, have more than local influence and responsibility, as may be arranged by joint counsel of the Executive Committee and the board of management of each institution.

Article XVIII—Division Retirement Plans

Sec. 1. Divisions shall adopt a plan for the support of retired and/or disabled employees and for dependent spouses and dependents of such employees in harmony with the principles set forth in the General Conference Working Policy.

Sec. 2. Such plans shall be funded by contributions from participating organizations as agreed upon by the respective division executive committees.

Article XIX—Appropriations

Sec. 1. The Executive Committee shall make its appropriations to the world field at Annual Councils. These appropriations are to be based on budget requests from the fields.

Sec. 2. Appropriations shall be made subject to the receipt of the full amount of funds estimated in the General Conference budget. In case of a shortage, the distribution shall be on a pro rata basis to all the interests represented in the budget.

Sec. 3. Appropriations for major projects shall be held in trust for the purpose for which the appropriation was designated. In case the project is abandoned, the funds shall revert to the General Conference. Other funds appropriated to divisions shall be administered by the respective division executive committees.

Sec. 4. All funds raised in divisions, except the regular funds belonging to the General Conference, as indicated under Article XVII of the Bylaws, may be used for the advancement of the work in the fields in which they were raised and are to be administered by the respective division executive committees.

Sec. 5. General Conference funds in all the world shall be made available to meet the annual appropriations of the General Conference.

Article XX—Finance

Sec. 1. To provide a working fund for regular operations and to protect against a possible financial emergency or depression the General Conference shall maintain an amount of working capital as defined and specified in the Working Policy.

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee, acting through its legal agency, the General Conference Corporation, shall have power to make annuity contracts; but all moneys obtained in this way shall be invested in securities and not be made available for appropriations until the annuity contracts have matured.

Sec. 3. The tithes and mission offerings received by the General Conference shall be appropriated for the work of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination. It shall not be within the prerogative, therefore, of the Executive Committee, the Treasury, nor of any agent or agency of the denomination, to lend these funds to private individuals, to endorse notes, sign bonds or other securities or in any other way to divert the funds of the General Conference from their intended purpose.

Sec. 4. The basis for computing goals and per capita funds shall be the average of the membership of the four consecutive quarters ending on September 30 of the preceding year as published in the General Conference official statistical reports.

Article XXI—Indemnification

The General Conference shall indemnify any person who is serving or has served as a member of the Executive Committee or Officer of the General Conference (and his/her executor, administrator, and heirs) against all reasonable expenses (including, but not limited to, judgments, costs, and legal fees) actually and necessarily incurred by him/her in connection with the defense of any litigation, action, suit, or proceeding, civil, criminal, or administrative, to which he/she may have been a party by reason of being or having been a member of the Executive Committee or Officer of the General Conference, except he/she shall have no right to reimbursement for matters in which he/she has been adjudged liable to the General Conference for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his/her duties.

This right of indemnification shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, all other rights to which such member of the Executive Committee or Officer may be entitled.

Article XXII—Dissolution

In the event of the dissolution of the General Conference Corporation, any funds remaining after all claims have been satisfied shall be transferred to any tax-exempt religious organization recommended by not less than a two-thirds majority of the Executive Committee and approved by a resolution of not less than three-fourths of the members of the Board of Trustees of the General Conference Corporation of Seventh-day Adventists. The dissolution process shall be in harmony with the procedural requirements of all federal and state laws applicable to unincorporated religious associations or religious corporations.

To effectively meet the risk management challenges of the 1990s, Risk Management Services has established an objective to be your "Partners in Service and Prevention." With tremendous risks facing the church today, the need to provide protection against catastrophic loss is essential. By working together, we can be "partners" in service with each other, striving to prevent losses, and to prevent the mismanagement of assets entrusted to us to finish the work of sharing the gospel message.

Risk management is much more than just insurance. Effective risk management encompasses the process of planning, organizing, directing, and controlling the activities and resources of the organization in order to minimize, reduce and, if possible, prevent the adverse effects of accidental losses. We invite you to be our partner as we serve our global church.

 Statistics: Churches (no report); believers, 75,000; population, 1,153,500,000.
EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

The following Directory of Educational Institutions lists denominationally owned secondary, collegiate and university schools with their administrative and teaching personnel. An incomplete secondary school (S-3 or S-4) or a complete elementary school (E-1) is listed only if it is a boarding school or the highest-level Adventist school in the country where it is located.

The categories of the individual schools are given following their names. Categories are based on national systems and national post-secondary requirements for admission to higher education either directly or by officially-recognized examinations. Such terms as “college,” “university,” or “institute” have varying meanings in different countries. Where more than one category follows the school name, secondary, tertiary and/or graduate tertiary programs function on the same campus under joint administration, even though the faculty listing may not so indicate.

If you want to reach someone with the gospel, leave MESSAGE magazine.

This dynamic ethnic magazine has something to attract every member of the family! It serves up delicious vegetarian recipes, dramatic stories of faith, and helpful articles on happy family living. MESSAGE also has a long history of inspiring interviews with the successful and famous.

But here's what MESSAGE does best: It applies Bible principles to personal problems—like stress and finances—as well as national issues like drug abuse and AIDS. It brings its readers a Christian perspective on today's hottest issues. It also presents the fundamental beliefs of Seventh-day Adventists in one-year "soul-winning doctrinal schedule."

As you see your friends discover a new Christian lifestyle, you'll be glad you left a MESSAGE.

To send MESSAGE for one year (six issues), send us the name and address of the person(s) you want to reach. Please enclose check or money order for US$8.97 (for each name) and mail to: MESSAGE, Box 1119, Hagerstown, MD 21741.

Please add US$5.10 for addresses outside the U.S.A.

LIST OF COUNTRIES WITH THEIR ORGANIZATIONAL LOCATIONS

This list contains countries and major island groups of the world, especially those given in the territorial descriptions of this Yearbook. Each one is accompanied by the name of the division, union conference or union mission where it is located. The division name is used in cases where a country is divided into more than one union. Readers who wish to find the church organization in a given country or island group should consult both this list and the index to find the page where the desired Seventh-day Adventist headquarters is given.

Our Advertisers

Effective advertising is more than a gesture of goodwill between competent suppliers and their favorite buyers. It is specific information concerning available services rendered by whom, when, and where.

The Yearbook serves thousands of S.D.A. offices throughout the world. While it is designed primarily as a directory and reference book, the advertisements introduce several business establishments and their products and services to the administrators and institutional purchasing agents of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination.

Some 19th Century
Seventh-day Adventist "Firsts"

First permanent Sabbath-keeping Adventist congregation established in Washington, New Hampshire, as result of contact between Frederick Wheel-er, Rachel Oakes Preston, and T. M. Preble.
"True Midnight Cry" presented at the Exeter, New Hampshire, camp meeting, resulting in the first general acceptance of October 22 as the hoped-for date of the advent.
First vision given to Ellen Harmon in December: As a result, some of the "disappointed" were convinced that God had indeed been leading the movement.

Joseph Bates first began to observe the Sabbath after reading an article by T. M. Preble.

1846
Marriage of James White to Ellen Harmon.
Initial publication of sanctuary insights of Hiram Edson and O. R. L. Crosier in "The Day Dawn" (perhaps as early as 1845) and "The Day-Star."
First officially printed account of Ellen White's earliest vision: a two-page broadside entitled "To the Remnant Scattered Abroad."

1847
First of the "Sabbath Conferences," held in Rocky Hill, Connecticut. Designed to unify the "scattered flock" over the central truth of the Sabbath.

1848
Ellen White issued her first testimony to the church, addressed "To Those Who Are Receiving the Seal of the Living God."
Joseph Bates published the first hymnbook for Sabbathkeeping Adventists.

"The Second Advent Review and Sabbath Herald" first published. This became the general church paper.
First article on spiritual gifts written by James White and published in the "Advent Review."

1850
"The Second Advent Review and Sabbath Herald" first published. This became the general church paper.

Review and Herald Printing Office, the first church institution, established in rented quarters in Rochester, New York. A hand press was the first printing equipment purchased by SDAs.
First youth magazine, "The Youth's Instructor," published in August.
James White wrote the first series of Sabbath school lessons and published them in "The Youth's Instructor."

First work by Uriah Smith printed in the "Review."
First regular Sabbath schools organized.
First issuing of ministerial identification credentials. Designed to protect the church against impostors, the credentials were signed by two leading ministers—usually James White and Joseph Bates.

First issue of denominational literature at a tent meeting in Rochester, Michigan.
Ellen White applied the Laodicean message to Sabbathkeeping Adventists for the first time.

Systematic benevolence accepted as a plan for regular giving.

1860
First general acceptance of the name "Seventh-day Adventist."
SDA Publishing Association organized at Battle Creek, Michigan, October 1 and legally incorporated May 3, 1861.
The Church of Christ's Second Advent of Parkville, Michigan, became the first legally incorporated SDA church.

The Michigan Conference became the first state conference to organize.
First conference-controlled issuance of ministerial credentials and certificates of ordination. Conference held in Battle Creek accepts the first church covenant: "to keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus."

Ellen White's vision on health.

1864
Michael Belina Czechowski, a convert to the SDA church, became the first member to leave the United States for mission work overseas. He served in an unofficial capacity.

1865
SDAs made their first official arrangements for noncombatant status in wartime.
General Conference approved first work among black Americans.
1866
First SDA medical institution established. The Health Reform Institute later changed its name to the Battle Creek Sanitarium. The Institute published the "Health Reformer," SDA's first periodical devoted to health.

1869
Vigilant Missionary Society established in South Lancaster, Massachusetts. SDA women met weekly to assist the poor and needy of their area. The 1869 General Conference organized the SDA Missionary Society for distribution of SDA literature. A non-United States resident was for the first time invited to attend a General Conference session as a delegate.

1870
Foreign Mission Society established.

1871
Stephen Haskell organized the first conference tract and missionary society, the New England Tract and Missionary Society, to combine the work of the Vigilant Missionary Society and the SDA Missionary Society.

1872
Mrs. Adelia Patten Van Horn became the first SDA woman elected to serve as General Conference treasurer.

1874
Ellen White had her first vision on education. The SDA Educational Society was incorporated. This led to the founding of Battle Creek College, the first SDA college. Later that year, James White became the first SDA college president.

1875
Goodloe Harper Bell prepared the first set of books used in SDA schools to teach Bible history.

1876
First special session of the General Conference.

1877
First attempt to define the authority of the General Conference: "The highest authority under God among SDAs is found in the will of the body of that people, as expressed in the decisions of the General Conference, when acting within its proper jurisdiction."

1878
SDA Sabbath School Association with auxiliary state associations established. First Sabbath school offerings given. First special institute designed to provide spiritual and educational advancement for ministers, scheduled to precede a General Conference session.

1879
Organization of the American Health and Temperance Association. On January 5, a number of SDAs signed the first temperance pledges.

1880
First SDA medical institution established. The Health Reformer, SDA's first periodical devoted to health.

1881
First college paper, "The Battle Creek College," published. First European General Conference held at Bale, Switzerland.

1882
Formation of first SDA ministerial association. Two of the twenty-four members of that Michigan association were women.

1883
First school of nursing opened in Battle Creek.

1884
