Two Hundred Sixth Meeting

GENERAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

July 20, 1961, 10:00 A.M.

+++

PRESENT:

W. E. Murray, W. P. Bradley, W. Melvin Adams, Jr., R. A. Anderson, C. W. Bozarth, E. W. Dunbar, H. T. Elliott, T. R. Flaiz, M.D., J. O. Gibson, C. E. Guenther, E. B. Hare, Mazie Herin, W. A. Higgins, H. W. Klaser, M. E. Loewen, G. M. Mathews, F. R. Millard, L. L. Moffitt, J. R. Nelson, F. D. Nichol, C. E. Palmer, E. W. Pedersen, F. L. Peterson, W. A. Scharffenberg, Clark Smith

OTHERS PRESENT:

C. D. Forshee, L. C. Litten, R. Ruhling, M. R. Thurber

W. E. Murray, Chairman, read Jeremiah 18: 1-10. Commenting on these verses he said that several very fine principles are given therein. The Lord told Jeremiah that Israel was like the clay in the potter's hand. It is a great principle--to be obedient to the divine will. It is a principle that is not adhered to very much nowadays. People in this world adhere to other principles. Instead of adhering to the principles of divine will, they adhere to what they call the principles of science, for example. In this text, the Lord says that if a nation turn from their evil, He will repent of the evil He thought to do unto them. Also He says that if a nation do evil and obey not His voice, He will be forced to turn back from His promise to do good to them. This is a great exemplification of the love of God. He is not a God that decides to do a certain thing with a nation or an individual, and carries that through despite what that individual does. What a wonderful thing it is that we have a God with these characteristics. The love of God is a great subject. We never can come to the end of it in understanding all its aspects and details, and wonderful characteristics.

Opening prayer by M. R. Thurber.

MINUTES of the meeting held July 13, 1961 were approved.
