M. L. ANDREASEN--STATEMENT CONCERNING:

R. R. Figuhr reported on a visit which he and R. R. Bietz had with M. L. Andreasen, shortly before the death of Brother Andreasen on February 19, 1962, at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital. Elder Figuhr then presented the following statement which had been prepared before the death of Brother Andreasen, and which was adopted:

On Friday, February 16, 1962, R. R. Figuhr and R. R. Bietz visited M. L. Andreasen, in the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital. The matter of suspended credentials and problems related thereto were frankly discussed. Elder Andreasen gave assurance that it is not his desire to engage in any activity which would harm the church which he loves so much and to which he has given so many years of his life. If his activities have created doubt and confusion he regrets this as much and more than any one else.

For two years he has not written to the churches, and he has consistently given instruction to the offshoots that his letters and pamphlets are not to be duplicated. Elder Andreasen has given assurance that he has no plans for the future to send material to the churches. He believes that further statements in regard to his convictions should be directed only to the Officers of the General Conference or other members of the General Conference.

March 1, 1962

OTHERS PRESENT:

D. A. Delafield, C. D. Forshee, N. W. Litchfield, R. Ruhling, M. R. Thurber

W. E. Murray, Chairman, read Hebrews 10: 32-39. In these verses, Paul refers to the former days in which the believers endured a great fight of afflictions, but they were faithful. Then he exhorts them to "Cast not away therefore your confidence," and the reason for his doing that is that He has a "great recompence of reward." Elder Murray said, I am a little inclined to believe that we have our attention so taken by what we are doing, the little things about our feet and hands these days, that we do not look for the recompence of reward. The Apostle was a great one to throw out before the believers the history of the gospel, and he also called the attention of the people to the things he thought they had need of. "Ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. For yet a little while, and He that shall come will come, and will not tarry." The great fundamental doctrines of the gospel were ever present in the Apostle's mind. This morning, what a wonderful thing it is that we still live in the great hope of that coming. We need to cheer our hearts by this promise. In that time and in our time, we have need of patience, for He that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

Opening prayer by R. R. Figuhr.

M. V. Campbell, Chairman, before reading the first seven verses of the 46th Psalm from the Revised Standard Version of the Bible, stated that the first part of this familiar Psalm seems of special interest to us now when nations are testing high megaton explosions in the air and the sea, and are contemplating explosions in space. These verses start by showing God as our only refuge in time of trouble. Next it speaks of great commotions affecting the earth and the sea, causing mountains to shake in the midst of the sea, and the waters to roar and foam. Next we are lifted above the fear and turmoil of earth to the quietness of the city of God. Again, though, the text brings us back to the anger and rage of the nations, concluding with a second reminder that God is our only refuge.

R. R. Figuhr, Chairman, read Psalms 139: 1-12, as given under the topic Abiding Presence--2, on page 588 of the Church Hymnal. Commenting on these verses, he said that evidently the Psalmist did not try to cover up anything from the Lord. It is a wonderful thing to recognize the constant presence of the Lord. The Psalmist seems to have done that. The words "Thou compassed my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways," indicate how intimate was the relationship between the Psalmist and the Lord.

Opening prayer by A. W. Cormack.

MINUTES of the meeting held March 22, 1962, were approved.
