OTHERS INVITED

Karl Bahr, H M Baldwin, Orley Berg, C M Clark, F Donald Yost.

DEVOTIONAL MESSAGE

Prayer was offered by Leo Ranzolin.

Robert H Pierson spoke about the need for repentance, revival and reformation in the preparation of a people for the coming of the Lord, and read the following statement from the November 22, 1892 issue of the Review and Herald:

"The time of test is just upon us, for the loud cry of the third angel has already begun in the revelation of the righteousness of Christ, the sin-pardoning Redeemer. This is the beginning of the light of the angel whose glory shall fill the whole earth."

INTRODUCTION

M Carol Hetzell introduced Victor H Cooper who has just arrived from the British Isles to serve as associate secretary of the Department of Communication.

REPORTS

J H Hancock, assisted by Leo Ranzolin, presented the various plans and devices which will be used during 1974 to celebrate the Silver Anniversary of the Pathfinder Club. Special emphasis will be placed on the Voice of Junior Youth evangelism program both in North America and in some overseas fields.

January 3, 1974

(Reports - contd)

A L White reported on the ongoing program of the E G White Estate, making special mention of the plan to establish E G White Seventh-day Adventist Research Centers. The first of these, at Newbold College, England, will open officially on April 21, 1974.

V W Schoen announced that 55 conferences and all 10 unions in North America showed gains in Ingathering raised over last year's total for the same period. The total amount reported through December 29, 1973, is $7,383,514.29, a gain of $346,286.55 over last year.

D W Hunter reported briefly on his visit to the Afro-Mideast and Southern Asia Divisions. In Tehran, Iran, Hovik Serrafian, Temperance secretary, has presented the Five-Day Plan on television and radio. It is estimated that 30,000 people have stopped smoking as a result. He has conducted a Five-Day Plan in Tehran's largest mosque.

Ret Chol of Sudan who worked among Sudanese refugees in Ethiopia, was invited to return to Sudan when reconciliation was effected, and assist in writing the new Constitution of the country. He was able to incorporate provision for religious liberty. Because of his prominent position, he was contacted by a group of 20,000 Messianic Moslems of whom 4,000 now claim to be Adventists.

MINUTES of the meeting held December 27, 1973, were approved.

(A-398) ENERGY CONSERVATION COMMITTEE REPORT

VOTED, To accept the report of the ad hoc Energy Conservation Committee, as follows:

1. That in offices where lighting is adequate only a part of the lights be used.
2. That lights in offices and committee rooms be turned off when not in use, including during the noon hour.
3. That car-pooling on a voluntary basis be encouraged wherever practical.
4. That any suggestion for a four-day week not be implemented except as a last resort, but to concur that if we are forced into a four-day week our working hours be Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., with one half hour for lunch to be "staggered" within the departments.
5. That we do not plan to separate the heating plants now used by the General Conference, the Review and Herald and the Takoma Park Church, inasmuch as the cost of additional equipment and the increase in the cost of operation would make such a separation impractical.
6. That additional fuel storage facilities be provided as soon as possible, suggesting the addition of a 10,000-gallon storage tank.
7. That G E Beagles and Elbert Pester be requested to make contacts as needed with fuel oil suppliers in an attempt to assure an adequate continuing supply of fuel.

OTHERS INVITED

Karl Bahr, H M Baldwin, C M Clark, D A Delafield, F Donald Yost.

DEVOTIONAL MESSAGE

Theodore Carcich read Revelation 7:1-3. He mentioned three recent world crises in which Divine intervention alone averted nuclear war.

"Amidst the strife and tumult of nations, He that sitteth above the cherubim still guides the affairs of the earth." Education, page 178.

Prayer was offered by W R Beach.

REPORTS

E E Cleveland gave a brief summary of the work of the Ministerial Association. He then told of the success of the Floating Seminar sponsored by the Academy of Adventist Ministers, three and a half days of retreat designed for the spiritual enrichment of pastors. Mission '73 advocated the holding of seven-hour prayer services in each church, and where this program has been followed the response of ministers and lay members has been very encouraging.

C C Weis reported the ninth week figure of $148,120.22 raised in the Ingathering campaign in the North American Division. Through January 12, the total raised to date is $7,941,874.30.

DEVOTIONAL MESSAGE

Robert H Pierson presented practical applications of the life of victory manifested in a quiet acceptance of neglect, provocation and offense.

Prayer was offered by Victor H Cooper.

INTRODUCTION

K H Wood presented Ernest A Pender, manager of Stanborough Press, England.

REPORTS

M H Reeder outlined the publicity work being done through Ecumedia and Dateline Religion. In addition, nearly 100,000 column inches appeared in the newspapers of the United States during the fourth quarter of 1973. In spite of these and other programs sponsored by the Department of Communication, at the time of the last survey, only 1 in 3 people in North America know anything about Seventh-day Adventists.

He also announced that in March, Adventist World Radio will release a Turkish broadcast. Future plans include holding three area councils in North America, and prospects are bright for a Black television program developed by Walter Arteis.

A record 5,500 students graduated from the Bible Correspondence School in Sao Paulo, Brazil on December 16, 1973.

M S Nigri announced that a Portuguese television program has been started in Toronto, Ontario, by Henry Feyerabend.

January 31, 1974

(M S Nigri report - contd)

At a recent visit to Mexican Pacific Academy, President Echevarria of Mexico manifested great interest in textured vegetarian protein products manufactured there and has offered a long-term loan to the Academy beginning with $2,000,000, to develop the industry.

The chairman announced that the special emergency gift from the General Conference staff to members in the British Union, amounted to $3,548.75.

MINUTES of the meeting held January 24, 1974, were approved.
