March 1, 1990, 10:00 a.m.

MEMBERS PRESENT

In Luke 11:1 the disciples said, "Lord, teach us to pray." "Where there is no prayer from the heart, there is no religion," said Auguste Sabatier. When Archbishop Francois Fenelon prayed he said, "Lord, I know not what I ought to ask of you. You only know what I need. You know me better than I know myself. O Father, give to your child what he himself knows not how to ask."

One obstacle to prayer is that people do not trust God enough to realize what He can do with their lives. You do not have to work for acceptance by God because He has already forgiven and accepted you. Another obstacle is "the narcotic of busyness." People with this problem think of prayer as a part of competition no less strenuous than running a race. Our souls can find rest only in God.

Ellen G White once stated that nothing is needed more in this world than the practical results of communion with God. We are challenged to be a people of prayer. Lord, teach us to pray.

PRAYER

Francis Soper offered prayer.

REPORTS

W T Clark reported that doctors are encouraged by the improvement in Jacob Mittleider. He is now at Loma Linda University Medical Center and is able to take food by mouth and to converse lucidly.

S F Monnier reported on his recent trip to the South Pacific Division. He went mainly to the French-speaking islands. In Tahiti

90-62

March 1, 1990 - GCC

2,000 attended his seminar. On another island every Adventist came to his meeting and brought along a non-Adventist. When the meetings were over, every non-Adventist in attendance decided to join the Church which was a real breakthrough in this predominantly Catholic area.

Monnier was thrilled to stand beside his son-in-law, the President of the New Caledonia Mission, and visit the churches with him.

A number of years ago a young man from another island came to New Caledonia and accepted the Lord. He was third in line to become the paramount chief of two-fifths of the island on which he lives. Now his grandfather and father are both dead. At first there was great opposition to his becoming the chief due to his being a Seventh-day Adventist. However, he will soon assume this position because he was observed praying for his father before his death while no one from the father's church came to pray with him. The new chief-to-be was advised to be very tactful and patient with his people.

Every year since 1983 David Gilmore, a very humble fruit picker, held a small crusade in the city of Brisbane. The Kingston Church has now been organized with a membership of 100 from these meetings. They hope to double this number in two years.

F Donald Yost asked what is being done in Europe to meet the challenges and opportunities offered by the changed situation in many of its countries. W T Clark responded that the divisions are laying plans to expand the evangelistic outreach of the Church.

Michael H Stevenson, who recently returned from Europe, commented that emphasis is being given to programs for the children and youth in these countries. Pathfinder Clubs are now being organized where they have never been allowed before. Other areas are sending in groups of people to help with the work.

MINUTES of the meeting held February 22, 1990 were approved.

STATEMENT TO THE
GENERAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

February 15, 1990

I wish to resign from the position of Director of the Adventist Personnel Service, effective immediately. I came to the General Conference early in 1984 to help establish a Personnel Management Information System (PMIS). That has been done.

I suggest that:

1. An individual with proven professional personnel management experience, and an aptitude for systems development, be selected to fill the position of Director of the Adventist Personnel Service. This will better assure the effective accomplishment of the entire mission of the Adventist Personnel Service.
2. The position of the Adventist Personnel Service Director remain an elected position. This posture in the church organization is essential to the effective accomplishment of the mission of the Adventist Personnel Service.
3. Actions be taken to facilitate the realization of the Adventist Personnel Service concept that has been envisioned by many farsighted church administrators for a number of decades. This concept is fully described in my letter of resignation that I am sending today to Elder Wilson.

I leave the General Conference with a feeling of gratitude for the opportunity I have had to serve the church over the past seven years and with complete confidence that the church will realize all of the conceived benefits of the Adventist Personnel Service if these suggestions are carried out.

Adventist Personnel Service

REPORTS

H F Otis Jr reported on the work in the Soviet Union. For 73 years the people there have been taught atheism. Now that the doors are open to Christianity, Satan is going about like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour.

When Otis first went to the Soviet Union approximately a year and a half ago, one of the first questions he asked of those in charge of the new seminary was how they were going to feed their students. In a country where there is so much centralized government planning, no one had thought about this need. He urged our people to ask the government for some land. Otis was thinking in terms of 100 acres. The government gave one-half an acre.

It was decided to ask laymen to help with the project and when Jacob Mittleider was contacted in Utah, he agreed to leave with his wife at short notice. He was told to bring along the garden implements and seed he would need. In April of last year he planted his seeds in seed boxes, got the garden soil balanced and ready for planting, and then planted the garden when the plants were ready to be transplanted. The garden seemed to almost explode once it began growing. People came by the hundreds to see what was happening, including those from agricultural schools and the media. Articles appeared in Pravda and Izvestia and a 30-minute video was filmed and shown on TV. When the government saw what was being done, it donated five acres of land to the Seminary. More food was produced than the Seminary could use so vegetables were given to an orphanage and a hospital.

90-70

March 8, 1990 - GCC

Revised

Mittleider was requested to teach a seminar in Yalta last fall, with 300 experts in attendance. At the conclusion of the seminar M P Kulakov was given an hour to explain to the group what Seventh-day Adventists believe.

In January of this year Mittleider returned to the Soviet Union to negotiate the purchase of textbooks to be used in his classes this spring. It was then that the Otises noticed the problems Mittleider was having with his equilibrium and advised him to see a doctor.

His medical problems worsened so rapidly that he had to have brain surgery in Tula rather than in Moscow. He could not be flown out of the country from Tula so he was transferred to Moscow by ambulance. As soon as arrangements could be made, Mittleider was flown to Paris where he had a second surgery. Last week he was flown from Paris to the Loma Linda Medical Center where further surgery was done yesterday. It is only by the grace of God that he is alive today. He is hoping to return to the Soviet Union in spring to take up his work once more.

Mittleider has made a major contribution to the Church through his agricultural work in the Soviet Union. The Church is now viewed as one whose major concern is for people. Though Satan has done his utmost to disrupt the work, God is still in charge. As civil governments are being replaced by religious governments, the work will not become easier. We must take advantage of every opportunity and work now as never before to finish the work.

Charles R Taylor reported on his recent trip to the Middle East. There are 900,000,000 Muslims in the world. Learning how to approach these people is the biggest challenge to Christianity and the Seventh-day Adventist Church today. After the Global Strategy meeting in Cohutta Springs last year, Taylor was asked to help the Middle East Union develop a strategy to meet this challenge in a union where the ratio of SDAs to the population is .02 per thousand—the lowest in the world.

Taylor wondered what he could do as a tourist visiting Morocco. While there he learned that Muslims respond to friendship and Christian love the same as anyone else. He was able to make friends with people he met, and he plans to stay in contact to see if he can develop a deeper friendship with them.

A plan to penetrate the 54 unentered population segments of one million in Turkey over a ten-year period has been developed. Taylor, Jim Neergard, and Ohannis Delico visited five of the six unentered area segments that are targeted for this year and made tentative arrangements to provide health programs for schools. There are eight members in one church in Istanbul. In a country of 55,000,000 it is time to find a combination to unlock the doors to giving the Gospel to these people. Taylor urged General Conference workers to take one unentered segment and visit it in connection with their travel to other countries.

Owen Troy reported on his visit to the native Indian camp meeting in Nome, Alaska. This is only the third time a camp meeting has been held for this group, and it has already tripled in size. The people on St Lawrence Island are relatives of the people in Siberia who were allowed to visit Alaska recently. The native Americans are concerned and excited about sharing their faith with their Siberian relatives and are hoping to begin a radio program for these people since they speak the same language. There is an urgent need for Eskimo workers.

D F Gilbert shared good news in regard to Eugene Stiles. A CAT scan done last week indicates that there does not appear to be any growth of new cancer cells. Radiation implantation has been put on hold. The doctor says he cannot explain this except that the Lord works miracles. Healing is still going on slowly and improvement will continue as the left side of the brain takes over from the right.

DEVOTIONAL

The Chairman read from and commented on Matt 24:45-51. Here Christ is speaking to His disciples and the church at large. He commends the faithful and wise servant who represents Christ's true followers. But who is the wicked servant? Could he represent some Christian Adventist believers? He begins to beat his fellow servants. Could the beating be contention over doctrinal issues, quibbling, or finding fault? In some cases this could be the conservative Adventist accusing the liberal Adventist of delaying the Lord's coming or vice versa. We need to press together to bring about unity.

"I urge those who claim to believe the truth, to walk in unity with their brethren. Do not seek to give to the world occasion to say that we are extremists, that we are disunited . . . Avoid dissension." TM 57, 58

"Those who start up to proclaim a message in their own individual responsibility, who . . . still make it their special work to tear down that which God has been for years building up, are not doing the will of God."—TM 51

It is important that we all work together to see that God's work is completed in His way and as He would desire.

AD IN TIME MAGAZINE - REPORT

Gary B Patterson reported that many inquiries have been received by the North American Division regarding the circulation of The Great Controversy by Ellen G White. David Mould, who is promoting this program, is attempting to raise $1.3 million to cover the cost of an advertisement he hopes to place in Time magazine. He is appealing to pastors and laymen alike to help finance this project.

Quotations in the ad from various religious leaders are taken out of context and placed beside comments of Ellen G White misrepresenting both the setting of her words and those of the leaders being quoted. Church leadership feels the ad is of a sensational nature and misrepresents the facts.

Mould intends to add 160 pages of pictures and captions which are not a part of the original book. He has been unwilling to submit the proposed materials to the Ellen G White Estate for evaluation and has a history of refusing to accept counsel. He is also giving the impression that the Pacific Press Publishing Association has agreed to print the books for him.

Several members expressed the view that Mould should be prevented from raising money from church members, and if possible Time magazine should be contacted and informed that the ad is not supported by the Church and does not represent the Church and Ellen G White correctly. Patterson read a letter that is to be sent to all union and local conference presidents in the North American Division and stated that a full report would be made to the North American Division Committee next week.

MINUTES of the meeting held March 8, 1990 were approved.

The Chairman referred to an article in Christianity Today entitled "The Truth About Seventh-day Adventists" written by Kenneth R Samples. Samples describes three different groups in the Church today--the evangelical Adventists, the liberal Adventists, and the traditional Adventists.

The Chairman outlined the positions of these groups as Samples sees them and indicated that in some parts of the world there is considerable debate on certain issues. However, where the Church is united and refuses to accept endless debate on social and theological issues, the membership is increasing rapidly.

There is no endorsement for pluralism in the Bible. In Galatians 1:8 Paul says, "But though we, or an angel from heaven preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."--KJV Pluralism has been sowing doubt and uncertainty and reaping apostasy, stagnation, and paralysis.

God is still leading the Church and we will see revival. But we need to get back to preaching the gospel and proclaiming the soon coming of the Lord.

March 22, 1990 - GCC

REPORT

D A Delafield reported on the interest shown by the retirees in a prayer ministry for the 1,800 population segments of one million who have never heard the gospel. Retirees are being given the opportunity to indicate an area of the world for which they would like to pray, and C R Taylor is assigning a certain segment to each one who has expressed an interest. Delafield appealed to each General Conference Committee member to join in this project and accept the responsibility of praying for the area in which he or she is interested.

AD IN TIME MAGAZINE - UPDATE

Gary B Patterson reported that the letter to all union and conference presidents in regard to David Mould's soliciting financial support for the ad he hopes to place in Time magazine has been mailed. Hal Bonawitz, the District Manager for Time in the Washington, DC area was contacted; and he indicated he was aware of the ad but has given the assurance that an ad such as this would not be accepted by Time without approval by the Church. The publisher is disturbed over the use of the Time name, logo, and cover without permission.

Harold J Lance, former president of Adventist-Laymen's Services and Industries International (ASI), has written a letter stating that neither he nor the ASI has supported this project nor has he given permission for his name or picture to be used. Robert E Kyte, President of Pacific Press Publishing Association (PPPA), has also indicated that the PPPA wants nothing to do with this project.

MINUTES of the meeting held March 15, 1990 were approved.

DEVOTIONAL

Martin W Feldbush of Adventist Chaplaincy Ministries shared an experience he had as a hospital chaplain. A young lady who was a former patient in the psychiatric unit said, "I want to thank God that today is the 'first day of the rest of my life' because I always wanted every other day to be my last!" She had come to view life through new eyes.

We all need to reexperience our early spiritual awakening with the freshness of our initial walk with the Lord. We need to view life through three different perspectives.

The first perspective is gratitude. 1 Thess 5:18 says, "In everything give thanks . . ." We do not have to be happy with everything that happens to us, but we can find something good in it.

The second perspective is our worth. Ellen G White tells us, "Would you know the worth of even one soul, look at the cross . . . and know that He would have died for just one . . ."

The third perspective is trust. Psalm 23:4 says, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me." We have nothing to fear, for God is with us.

If we will view life with these perspectives in mind each day, perhaps we can see God again as we did the first time.
