HE IS COMING.

SISTER, Jesus is preparing
Many mansions up on high,
Starry crowns for thine own wearing,
When he cometh by and by.
He is coming! He has promised
He would come and take us home
If we'd watch and labor for him,
Winning others till he come.
He is coming! Signs fortell it,
And the day is just at hand;
Loud and long then let us swell it,
Till we pass the border land.
He is coming! He is coming!
Let us raise our voice and sing
He has died to ransom lost ones,—
Christ, the true and faithful King.
He is coming! He is coming!
This our constant theme should be
Till we shall, beyond the border,
Swell the anthem of the free.
He is coming! Loud creation
Sends it rolling o'er the plain;
With a mighty voice earth's nations
Send the chorus back again.
We'll rejoice when comes that morning
And our King shall reign in peace.
He will wake the loved now sleeping,
And will give them sweet release.
On those verdant hills and mountains,
All things will be bright and fair;
Toil and pain will then be over;
Death can never enter there.
Sin is banished there forever,
Toil and care that here we find,
When we reach beyond the river,
We shall leave it all behind.
We shall be with Christ forever,
When shall come that glorious dawn,
We shall meet to part, no, never,
On the resurrection morn.
Let us praise our God that reigneth,
And a grateful tribute bring,
Till we meet, all partings over,
In the palace of the King.

MISSIONARY WORK FOR MISSIONS.

ALL our people in North America ought fully to understand that just now they have an unusual opportunity to render the cause of God excellent service. This particular opportunity will last for only a short time. In a few months it will be gone. A similar one may not come again for a number of years, if ever.

I refer to the circulation of the "World's Missions Special" of the Signs of the Times. This important, valuable, and timely special number of the Signs has been prepared at great expense and untiring energy by the publishers and editors. When the matter was nearly ready to go to press one year ago, the manuscripts and illustrations were all destroyed in the Pacific Press fire. During the past year, new articles and illustrations have been secured from all parts of the world, and fresh up-to-date facts and figures relating to missions have been gathered.

And now this special is ready for distribution. It is ready to tell its splendid message to the world. Its message is intensely interesting. It is instructive, thrilling, uplifting. It will tell the world that God has decreed that the gospel of his coming kingdom is to be given to all the world in this generation, and that when this is done the end will come. It will tell of God's wonderful providences during the last century, which have been preparing the way for the gospel to be preached in all the world in this generation. It will tell of the open doors in all lands for God's messengers to enter. And for the first time it will tell the Christian churches in this country of the worldwide missionary work now being carried on by Seventh-day Adventists. This is information the people ought to have. It will impress many minds as nothing else will that we can tell them. The paper is ready for circulation. This is the opportunity for our people. In a few months it will be gone. What we fail to do now can not be done six months from now. Surely, our people will be wise and prompt in this matter. People who have confidence in this cause, and love it as we do will not let this opening for service go by default.

The good news has recently come to us that one of our young people's societies has subscribed for over two thousand copies of this missions number, and has dedicated the profits to the ever-needy and interesting cause of foreign missions. This donation of profits amounts to $131. Such a liberal consecration of both time and money for the home and foreign missionary work affords a beautiful example for others to follow.

May the Holy Spirit move all to great earnestness.

BOOKMEN'S CONVENTION.

THE readers of the GLEANER have been made aware before this time that it is planned to hold a bookmen's convention just before the Union Conference convenes in Philadelphia. This convention will open Sunday evening, November 10, and will continue till the opening of the conference, Thursday evening, November 14. Four full days will thus be given to the discussion of this most important branch of the work. No doubt every phase of the book work will be discussed by those that have had most experience in it. Brethren Daniels, Irwin, Evans, Spicer, and perhaps Brother Prescott, representing the general work, will be there. And then Brethren Palmer, Bryant, Reavis, Bowen, and Brother Blosser from Mich., besides all the general bookmen in our Union. We write this to encourage as many of our brethren and sisters to attend as possible.

We think that all the delegates that have been appointed to attend the Union Conference should plan to attend this bookmen's convention as well. We are extremely anxious that all the tract society secretaries should be there. They have as much to do with books as any one, and they greatly need the encouragement that this convention can give them. We believe it would be a splendid thing for many of our preachers to attend this convention and conference for the good they would get out of it, even though they may not have been elected as delegates. We expect a great uplift in this branch of the work as the result of this convention, and we believe the leaders of the work in this Union Conference can not afford to lose the opportunity it will give.

Programs have been sent to all those that have been asked to act a part, and so they will give them the best thought they have. Let all plan to be there Sunday evening, so as to get all there is of the meeting.

After Many Days.

OFTEN times workers know not until after many days the result of their efforts for others. This thought was brought forcibly to my mind a few mornings since by the news which came in the mail. Brother Lamb, of Bangor, Me., wrote that he has recently discovered that a lady who formerly lived near his home has been keeping the Sabbath for two years. She now resides in another part of the city, and for some reason has had no opportunity of communicating with Brother Lamb and his wife. She was led to think about the Sabbath truth by talks and reading matter given her when a neighbor to Brother Lamb. It finally impressed her mind so forcibly that she yielded obedience to God's law.

A letter from Brother Thompson told of a visit he recently made in Hope on a gentleman whose name he sent to the Maine Tract Society for missionary work last winter, and for whom he had labored and prayed. He found the gentleman rejoicing in the truth and keeping the Sabbath, but very ill. He fell "asleep in Jesus" last week, and it cheers our hearts to know that we were permitted to help give him the message for our day, and that it was accepted with gladness.

No doubt there are many isolated ones in the State keeping the Sabbath of whom we have never heard. In the days to come we shall see much fruit of this kind as the result of the distribution of the truth envelopes.

NOTICE TO YOUNG PEOPLE.

It has been found necessary to make some changes in regard to ordering the books for our Missionary Volunteer Reading Course. Everything except "Early Writings" should be ordered direct from Review and Herald, Takoma Park, Washington, D. C., instead of from the tract societies.

The books will be studied in the order named below:

"Early Writings," 75 cents.

"Into All the World," cloth, 50 cents; paper, 35 cents.

"Outline of Mission Fields," sent free to all who order "Into All the World," at the same time such order is filled, or later.

World Map, showing prevailing religions, 50 cents.

"Pastor Hsi," cloth, $1; paper, 65 cents. This book can be had bound with the book, "One of China's Scholars," which gives the story of the life of Pastor Hsi up to his conversion; cloth, $1.25. Watch the Review and Instructor for announcements.

The FIELD

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

It has been about a month since our eight tent companies closed their efforts. About one hundred new believers are rejoicing in the "present truth" as the immediate results. Considerable other fruit of these efforts will doubtless be borne later on. Between thirty and forty have been added to the number of believers in West Philadelphia as the results of the effort conducted there by Elder O. O. Bernstein and those assisting him.

The number of those walking in the light in Scranton has been increased by about twenty since Elder W. H. Smith and other workers began the tent effort there about June 20.

A church of over twenty has been organized at Jersey Shore where Brother I. M. Martin, assisted by others, conducted a tent effort during the summer.

There are new believers in Harrisburg, Stroudsburg, Honesdale, and Pottstown, and among the Germans in Philadelphia, where Brethren Spies, Baierle, Wiest, Hilton, and Meyer respectively have conducted tent meetings during the season just closed.

Let us all rejoice together that the Lord has blessed his servants in giving them so many souls as the result of their efforts. And shall we not all pray earnestly that all these new believers may prove true and loyal to the message in all its parts?

W. J. FITZGERALD.

WEST PENNSYLVANIA.

SINCE our last report to the GLEANER, we have closed our tent meetings in Homer City, and have secured a hall in a central location in the village, where we hold meeting once or twice a week. The hall is used by others every alternate Sunday, and by a lodge on Tuesday evening. This is not a very desirable way to try to continue our work in Homer City, but this is the only hall in the village, and we must do the best we can.

Some of our interested people have moved away from the village. There are quite a number who acknowledge the truth, but do not seem to have the courage to obey. We hope the Lord will help these interested ones to feel the importance of obeying this solemn message.

Two men from Center County, were in Homer working at carpentry, and became interested in the message, bought reading matter freely, and gave us an invitation to come to their home town and give the message there. They said, "You will have larger audiences in our town than you have had in Homer City; for this doctrine has never been preached there."

We have recently received an earnest invitation from a brother to come to Strongstown and hold a series of meetings in the Lutheran church, which he has secured for that purpose. There is also an interest to hear the truth at Glen Campbell, and also in a country neighborhood about five miles from Glen Campbell. All these calls for labor are in Indiana County. Certainly our locating in this part of the field a little more than a year ago was the proper thing; and while we have not as yet seen souls taking hold to obey the truth so rapidly as we had hoped, yet the seeds of truth are being sown, and the harvest will come by and by.

OUR CHURCH-SCHOOL BUILDING.

A word about our church-school work may not be out of place. The building is in process of erection, and we are doing all we can to push forward the work, and finish the house within the next few weeks.

To those who have not paid their pledges we would say, The help now would be appreciated very much. To those who did not pledge anything at camp-meeting but feel disposed to aid us, our message is, We shall be truly thankful for any assistance given us. The Lord has been very gracious to us in putting into the hearts of so many of our brethren and sisters a willingness to assist us in this school enterprise.

Brethren and sisters, pray for the work and workers in this part of the field.

We are thankful to read the reports of the progress of the work in different parts of the great harvest-field. May the work soon be finished and cut short in righteousness.

J. W. WATT.

BROOKLYN CHURCH NUMBER TWO.

THE work in connection with this church has taken a turn in the right direction; that is, in working with a consuming zeal to accomplish the task given to her by the invisible Head. On Sabbath, October 12, we had a very inspiring quarterly meeting. Almost every member in the city limits attended, responded to the roll-call, and, with two or three exceptions, had words of courage and hope to give. Items of general interest to the cause as a whole were considered, and it did my heart good to see the congregation to the unit standing with unswerving loyalty to this organization and the truths and principles for which it stands. We decided not to come behind in the raising of our share of the $150,000 fund, and pray that all our churches will rally and let this conference sing the song of jubilee before the Atlantic Union Conference convenes. This beautiful Sabbath closed leaving behind it very pleasant reminiscences.

Sabbath, October 19, was also a day of great praise and gratitude to God. I took as the subject of my address, "The More Sure Word of Prophecy," and expatiated at length on the authoritative way in which Daniel, the servant of the most high God, was able to tell the king his dream. "Thou sawest," not, I think you saw, or it may be you saw, or I guess you saw, or did you see? but "thou sawest, . . . and sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands." Dan. 2:31-34.

After a light luncheon, a young people's society was organized in connection with this church; not merely for form and fashion, but having as our incentive, the great needs of our field. We have realized as never before, that this message must go to the world in this generation, and if our people are to get it, we must bestir ourselves in a way we have not yet done; therefore we organized for aggressive work, and feel that if all the members of this society receive the unction from on high, we shall not pull in our reins until the work is done. We had enrolled about eighteen members, having as officers, president, Carrie Carmon; secretary, Elba Mahony; treasurer, Elizabeth Tait. If I mistake not, this is the youngest society now in the Greater New York Conference, and may be the smallest(?) but we are to be heard from at an early date, because we mean business. The battle is the Lord's, and we are his.

J. K. HUMPHREY.

436 Elton St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

RICHMOND, VA.

WE opened our meetings in Richmond, August 4, and continued until the last of September, when we entered our hall. Sixteen decided for the Sabbath, and six have taken their stand with us, and we are constantly finding those who are earnestly studying the truth. Elder Munce and the writer have been the public laborers.

We continued our meetings in the hall nightly for two weeks, and now hold them Sunday, Wednesday, and Friday night with an excellent attendance. Our house-to-house work is very encouraging. A returned missionary from Africa invited the writer and his wife to give a lesson at her home on "Health Reform." We complied, and found fifteen of her neighbors assembled to hear. All appeared to be deeply interested in the word of life. A confirmed smoker gave up his tobacco. Several gave up pork, and among them the sister and her daughters at whose house the reading was held. She is deeply interested, and has enlisted the dean of theology in Union University to attend our readings. Pray that our heavenly Father may direct us in this work, as she has opened her home for its continuance.

We are very grateful to the conference for the live interest shown in the colored work during the past year. Two organized churches and one house of worship are the result, besides many new Sabbath-keepers are recorded in various parts of the State. Our dear brother, Elder Hottel, did all in his power for the work, and we are sure that the new president, Elder Herrell, has no less interest in this people.

There is great need of consecrated men and women to sell books and papers among the colored race. Write to Brother W. H. Zeidler, 1312 North Twenty-eighth St., Richmond, Va., and learn what a ripe field awaits your efforts.

The Lord instructs us: "Let the self-denying, self-sacrificing, the lovers of God and humanity, join the army of workers. Let them come, not expecting ease, but to be brave and of good courage under rebuffs and hardships. Let those come who can give a good report of our publications, because they, themselves, appreciate their value."—"Testimonies for the Church," Vol. 33, page 162. Again: "The only thing that should lead the canvasser to enter the field is the love of Jesus in the soul."—"Gospel Workers." We need the hunters and fishers (Jer. 16: 16), for many will be reached in no other way. Our publications will preach where the living minister can not.

The PRINTED PAGE

VIRGINIA.

THE brethren in the Virginia Conference will no doubt be pleased to have a few words from the State agent in regard to the progress of the canvassing work. From January 1 to October 1, reports were received from twenty-four persons. They have worked 2,885 hours in 525 days. During this time, they obtained orders to the value of $2,906.10, and have delivered $2,110.50. Last year, twenty-two persons reported, and they worked 3,967 hours in 669 days. The value of their orders was $3,408.50, and the value delivered was $1,751.75. You will see by a casual glance over the figures given that there has been a very encouraging increase in the amount of orders delivered in 1907; also that while we have yet two months of the year before us, we are only five hundred dollars behind in the amount of orders taken in 1907, while the deliveries have exceeded those of the year 1906, by $358.80.

This comparison has given me renewed courage, and will bring courage to the heart of each of you; for it is an evidence that the Spirit of God is cooperating with our efforts in selling the printed page, and it testifies that much can be done if we have faith. In a recent letter from one of our brethren, he stated that fifteen thousand six hundred and eighteen small books were ordered from the bindery, and more than ten thousand large ones. This was very gratifying to me, as I considered that Virginia by her labors helped to make it necessary for them to do this; and I hope that we shall sell so many more that they will be compelled to double the amount. It is possible for us to help bring this about. In 1905, our sales were only $1,206.30; so you see we have come up considerable since then. Now that we are on the upward move, with your cooperation we can keep it moving up each year.

I notice in the reports that there are several sisters who are giving their spare time to the work, and it is wonderful how much they accomplish in their spare moments. One sister found time in the past eight months to work two hundred and eleven hours, and thus was able to place $145.40 worth of reading matter in the homes of her people. There are other interesting cases that might be mentioned. One brother in fifty-three days delivered $395 worth.

There is also another very encouraging feature in the record; and that is, that so many of the workers are from the home churches. This is as it should be. Jesus said, "Ye are the light of the world." The "ye" means a real person, and that person is he who professes to be God's child; and I know from the fact that your name is on the church record that you wish to be one of these. In order to be so in truth, we must go; for he said, "Go ye into all the world." The methods of going may be varied; but he has a method suited to each case, and he will lead you in the best way to reach the business man or the laborer, whether it be by means of a leaflet, a tract, a paper, a book, or a visit. What the Lord desires is first a willing heart. Brethren, if your hearts have not been willing before to take up the canvassing work, go to him in prayer, and see if he will not bring to your mind many testimonies that say the canvassing work is ordained of God, and that it is missionary work of the highest order. We have yet two months of the year before us, and the weather is so fine, it seems to plead with you to lay aside every weight of doubt, and enter the work, to make it a success.

To others who have written in times past concerning this field, I would say, Come now, for it is a very favorable time. We have had a prosperous year, and no better time could be selected to become acclimated. To those who are contemplating moving here, we wish to say, Write first, and we may give some counsel that will be helpful to you in locating. One of our sisters has told us that she will do all that she can if some one will come to her neighborhood and canvass. This place is good country territory, and there are other places just as loud in their cry for the canvasser.

Above all, is the appeal made by the example of Jesus, who thought more highly of us than he did of his own life, as is evidenced in that he died for us. We often say we love him; if we do, will we not do as he did? The world is full of sin and its results. Are we willing to give our life that some one may be saved from the condition from which we were delivered? I know there are some who will wish to help us, and I shall be glad to answer all questions, so write soon to my address.

W. H. ZEIDLER.

1312 N. 28th St., Richmond, Va.

EAST EMPORIUM, PA.

I AM glad to be able to give in my testimony for what God is doing for me in the work that he has called me to do. For a long time I was not able to go out with books. The doctors told me I had a heart trouble, that I had overdone, and must lie by awhile and rest, but there was nothing serious in my case. I prayed to the Lord for strength to go on with my work. He answered my prayers.

About five weeks ago, I started out with my books. I was quite weak, but I was careful not to overdo. I have been gaining in strength ever since. At present I feel quite well and strong, and my courage is good to continue on in the work in which I am engaged. It had been several years since there had been any canvassing done in this part of the country until I came here a little more than two years ago. I was in the town of Austin, Potter Co., Pa., last week, and three days in the week before that. In these eight days. I visited more than one hundred families, and took seventy-two orders. I also sold more than eight dollars' worth of books.

As a rule, I found the people at their homes very cordial and attentive to what I had to say, and I have felt at home among them. I have tried in a humble way to show them the necessity of studying God's word, and taking him for their guide. Many have manifested a good interest in our conversation together on the subject of religion. I have been much encouraged to go on with the work since I have visited so many at their homes. They have generally been very kind and attentive while I was exhibiting my books. I thank the Lord for his goodness and mercy toward me, for he has gone before me, and has put it into the hearts of the people to receive the message that comes to them through the books that I present to them for perusal.

I also take great pleasure in meeting with so many children at their homes. I am reminded of what Christ said while here on earth, "Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

I found three families keeping the Sabbath of the Lord. I stayed over the Sabbath with Brother Case and his estimable family. I found them rooted and grounded in the faith that was once delivered unto the saints. I attended Sabbath-school with them, and found them making good progress in the divine life, having that zeal which is according to knowledge. I was very much strengthened in the faith while we went over our lesson together, and felt like praising the Lord for his goodness toward his scattered children. We all were blessed together for meeting on God's holy day to hold communion with him and meditate on things that pertain to our spiritual and eternal welfare. Our prayers were that others might accept the truth as it is being taught from the Bible, and join that little company of followers of Christ. I believe that God has many honest souls in Austin, who are anxious for more light.

In my work I have come in contact with scores of little children that have not come to years of accountability. I take more interest in them because of their innocence. They know not what a cold and wicked world they have come into. It is very alarming, to say the least, to see them growing up under the bad influences that surround them every day of their innocent lives. It ought to make us all more interested in the church schools all over the world. We are to care for the little ones. May God help us who have been lax in the past to do better in the future.

C. B. BALDWIN.

CANVASSER'S LETTER.

Paterson, N. J.

I HAVE every reason to praise the Lord for his goodness. I have passed through very severe temptations, the enemy insinuating that there was no use in trying to canvass because I should have no success. But, praise God, he has promised to be with us, and he always blesses us in our efforts if we are willing to have faith in him. I never felt more anxious than I do now to press onward with the help of God, and bring the reading matter before the people. I rejoice in the Lord's promise to be with me always unto the end.

Truth Envelopes which Brother Thompson so faithfully distributed for nearly a year. A stranger visiting in Waterville writes, "I am visiting a friend and found on his table a large envelope with the words 'Something Important' on it. The reading matter in it is very interesting to me. I am going to my home in Boston very soon, and should like one or two of the envelopes to take with me."

We are receiving kindly responses from all over the State to a circular letter on Tithing which was sent out recently. One sister writes, "It is just what I have believed. I can say 'amen' to every sentence. At first I used my tithe for the Lord's work in various ways, but I now see that it should be paid into the treasury."

Another writes, "I have delayed replying to the letter, and I hope you will not think it was because I was offended because of what you wrote about tithes, for that is not so. Ever since I understood what the Bible teaches about the tithing system, I have been in harmony with it, believing that it is right."

E. H. MORTON.

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE
ATLANTIC UNION CONFERENCE OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS, SOUTH LANCASTER, MASS.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

Subscription Price Fifty Cents a Year.

JENNIE THAYER, - - - EDITOR.

Entered at South Lancaster, Mass., as second-class matter.

IN a letter bearing date of October 11, Brother R. L. Price writes that he has been very busy since he went to Port of Spain, and is enjoying his work, and the tropical fruits.

THE Missions Special number of the Signs of the Times is considered the best publication on missions yet printed, and the best number of the Signs ever issued. All of our church-elders should make an effort to secure a club of these papers.

THE report of the Central New England Conference proceedings, given last week, read, "Medical Secretary, P. F. Bicknell." It should have read "Medical Secretary, Joel P. Bradford, M. D.; Religious Liberty Secretary, P. F. Bicknell." A line was omitted in setting the report.

THE magazine Liberty is certainly better than any periodical we have read on the subject of religious liberty. Number four, just issued, should have a wide circulation. Price, twenty-five cents a year. Terms to agents: From two to five copies, five cents each; from twenty-five to five hundred copies, four cents each. It retails at ten cents a copy.

ERRATUM.

THE undersigned desires to acknowledge an oversight on his part in the report of Greater New York Conference proceedings, in that the name of the president was not attached.

Yours for the Master,
AMOS MITCHELL.

VIRGINIA.

THE contract has been awarded and the work on the new industrial school at New Market has begun. We are now ready to receive the amount due on pledges for this purpose, as payments will have to be made as the work progresses. Send in the amount of your pledge to Dr. A. M. Neff, New Market, Virginia, who will send receipt for the same. We will report progress on the building as the work goes on, and as soon as we can know when we will occupy the same, will send out calendar of the school. We hope, weather permitting, that we can use the building some before the close of the school year.

R. D. HOTTEL,
For Virginia Conference Agency.

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

Notice!

THE fourth annual session of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference of Seventh-day Adventists will be held in their church, Fifty-first and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, November 21 to 27. The opening meeting will be held at 3:30 P. M., Thursday, November 21. This session of the conference will elect officers, and consider and act upon other important matters relating to the work, not only in Eastern Pennsylvania, but also in the general field. It is therefore important that the churches be as well represented as possible. Each church is entitled to one delegate for the organization, without respect to numbers, and to one additional delegate for each ten members. Let the churches attend at once to the election of delegates.

W. J. FITZGERALD, President.

NOTICE.

A COMMODIOUS three-story house, with all modern improvements and steam heat in every room, located at Fifty-second and Chestnut Streets, only two blocks from the church, has been rented, and will be nicely fitted up for a home for the delegates who attend the Atlantic Union Conference to be held in Philadelphia, November 14 to 24.

The committee which has the matter in charge requests that the delegates bring their own towels, and as far as possible that each bring a pillow. If any can, without too much inconvenience, bring a pair of blankets, this will also be appreciated. Everything else will be supplied by the committee, and no pains will be spared to make all comfortable and happy during their stay with us.

V. H. COOK,
For the Committee.

THE secretary of the Western New York Conference reports that between September 1 and October 18, a company of four sisters, with W. S. Cleveland as manager, sold $350 worth of Life and Health and Bible Training School.
