SO. NEW ENGLAND

CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

(Concluded)

"Whereas, We are ambassadors to all men, and,—

"Whereas, We believe the teachings of the Roman Catholic church and those of the Federated Protestant churches of America and allied interdenominational organizations, concerning the relation of religion to the State, are subversive of the fundamental principles of the gospel; therefore,—

"12. Resolved, (a) That it is both our urgent duty and Christian privilege to present in such contrast the teachings of the Gospel with those of other churches and organizations, that the danger may be apparent, and all men have the opportunity of turning to God with all their hearts.

"(b) That we request our laborers to carefully note current events involving these principles, and so be prepared to make use of the printed page, the public press, the public rostrum, and such other agencies as opportunity may afford or occasion may demand.

"(c) That these laborers may receive assistance, and effectual cooperation be secured, That the Conference Religious Liberty Secretary devote whatever time may be necessary, directly, to studying, coordinating, and leading out in this work in the Southern New England Conference.

"(d) That we advise the liberal use of the magazines Protestant and Lib- erty, by both our magazine workers and church members.

"(e) That we concur with the recommendation of the recent General Conference Council relative to placing "American State Papers" in public libraries and the hands of State officials, legislators, attorneys, and public men.

"(f) That the Religious Liberty Secretary be kept intelligently informed regarding all matters of interest to his department permitting of his giving attention to same, we approve of an arrangement whereby each portion of our territory be assigned to some individual who will be responsible to watch the public press, and report all items of importance involving the principles of religious liberty.

"13. We recommend, That the conference treasurer be recognized as the auditor of the books of the local church officers, assisting them in unifying and systematizing their records and accounts, and that if unable to attend to this personally he be held responsible for its performance.

The Nominating Committee reported the following names who were elected to their respective offices:—

President, C. H. Edwards; Conference Secretary and Treasurer and Secretary and Treasurer of the Tract and Missionary Department, W. E. Fortune; Religious Liberty Secretary, C. H. Edwards; Sabbath-school and Young People's Missionary Volunteer Secretary, C. H. Reimers; Field Missionary Agent, H. C. Wilcox; Educational and Field Missionary Secretaries to be appointed by the executive committee; Executive Committee, C. H. Edwards, W. R. Andrews, J. C. Stevens, W. E. Fortune, J. A. Tefft, D. B. Parmelee, H. C. Wilcox; New England Sanitarium Constituency, C. H. Edwards, J. A. Tefft, J. C. Stevens, H. C. Wilcox; South Lancaster Academy Constituency to be appointed by the executive committee; Southern New England Conference Association Constituency, C. H. Edwards, W. E. Fortune, W. R. Andrews, J. C. Stevens, J. A. Tefft, D. B. Parmelee, H. C. Wilcox, D. A. Bidwell, E. F. Henry, S. C. Peckham, D. W. Ives, M. J. Hadfield.

The following persons received credentials and licenses:—

Ministerial Credentials: C. H. Edwards, J. C. Stevens, W. R. Andrews.

Missionary Licenses: W. E. Fortune, C. H. Reimers, H. C. Wilcox, Wm. O. Cluff, Mrs. Clara Cluff, Mrs. Eva B. Daggett, Mrs. Clara R. Ellis, Mrs. W. G. Ellis, Miss Jennie L. Person, Miss Jennie M. Smith.

The Committee on Constitution and By-laws reported several substitutions and additional articles and sections to the By-laws, which were adopted after careful consideration.

During the meeting a report came to us from the General Conference Treasurer, showing that on the basis of our membership for 1911 we were short over $400 this year on the fifteen-cent-a-week plan. This matter was taken up with the few members that were present, and over $300 of this deficit was raised in cash and pledges. It is hoped that our church officers will bring this matter to the attention of those who did not attend camp-meeting, and so make up the amount needed.

The interests of the Southern work were remembered, and a nice amount was raised in cash and pledges for this needy field.

W. E. FORTUNE, Secretary.

NOTICE

WANTED AT ONCE—The brethren of the Westerly, R. I. church need about four hundred dollars with which to finish their neat little chapel. They have labored hard and earnestly to erect this memorial for God, and they need a little help just at this time. Is there not some one among our people who would loan them the above named sum, and take a mortgage on the property? The building and lot is worth at least two thousand dollars, but they need a little ready money with which to seat and carpet the building. They are willing to pay 5 percent interest, but the prospects are that the note and mortgage would not run very long. Please write me at once if you wish to help these brethren. Donations to this building will be gratefully accepted.

ITEMS

ENCOURAGING returns are being received from the midsummer offering, and it is hoped that the total will add materially in building up the fifteen-cent-a-week fund.

Nearly all of our canvassers have done well in their work this summer, and are placing large orders with us for delivery this week. We expect soon to receive reports of the success that they are having in making their deliveries.

We are sorry to learn that Brother Louis Ahrens, on account of the sickness of his mother, was obliged to leave the canvassing work for a while. It is expected that he will return to the field this week to make a delivery, and work up another nice order before the opening of the school.

A very good interest is reported by the workers connected with the tents at Bridgeport, Westerly, and Providence. Although the attendance is not large, it is regular, and a good class of people manifest a desire to hear the message. Let us all remember our workers at the throne of grace that there may be many who will receive the truth and obey.

In harmony with a recommendation passed at our recent camp-meeting, the New Haven church has set about starting a school. A building has been secured, and other plans are well under way. Last Sabbath Elders C. S. Longacre and M. M. Hare met with the church to give instruction and counsel along educational lines. Elder C. H. Edwards and W. E. Fortune were also present to represent the conference in encouraging the good work. The meeting seemed to be enjoyed by all and the church strengthened to take up this responsibility.

MAINE

THE MAINE CAMP-MEETING

ONLY a few short weeks and camp-meeting time will be here. You will be asking yourself the question, "Is there anything in this meeting for me, and will it pay me to go?" Before deciding in the negative, it will be well to take a sort of spiritual inventory of ourselves, as it were, to determine definitely. "Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves." If after this thorough examination of ourselves, we find that we are rich and increased with goods, and have need of nothing, it may be we could decide that this meeting would not benefit us, but dear brethren and sisters, I know that your hearts are crying out for more of the Pentecostal blessing. Our great need is made the more apparent as each year brings us nearer our final reward. Soon we must stand before God.

"How shall we stand in that great day?

Shall we be found before Him wanting?

Or with our sins all washed away?"

The camp-meeting season is a special time of coming together to seek God for spiritual power. Here we can learn more of what it means to be true followers of the Man of Galilee. We need to understand the work God has for us in the home, the church, the conference, and the regions beyond. "Properly conducted, the camp-meeting is a school where pastors, elders, and deacons can learn to do more perfect work for the Master. It should be a school where the members of the church, old and young, are given opportunity to learn the way of the Lord more perfectly, a place where believers can receive an education that will help them to help others." Testimonies Vol. 6, p. 49.

Probably the greatest thing for us as God's people to learn right now, is how to become active workers in his vineyard. One of the objects of the camp-meeting is to furnish practical instruction in missionary work. The message is fast closing. Everyone who would stand firmly with this people to the end is expected to buckle on the armor and press into the conflict. There is work for each of us.

So come to this meeting. It will do you good. We shall have special offers on our books and tracts, and hope to have special instruction on how to use them. The time of the meeting is August 29 to September 8. The place is Norridgewock, Maine.

NEW YORK

NOTICE

THE camp-meeting committee will arrive in Utica on the camp-ground Monday forenoon, Aug. 12, and we expect to meet our brethren who are coming to help pitch the camp. Thus far we have been a little disappointed in the number who have responded to this call. We still hope and believe, however, that the Lord will impress a sufficient number of our brethren of the importance of this work to enable us to get the tents pitched in ample time for the camp-meeting.

We are planning for a regular workers' meeting during these ten days that precede the regular camp-meeting. We shall all be busy during that time, pitching the camp and getting the grounds in readiness, but we plan to take some time each day for Bible study and spiritual work, and not devote all the time to manual labor.

We have asked our churches to send help for this occasion, and we hope there are some isolated brethren who will be glad to come and help. We are asking our brethren to donate their time, and the conference will, of course, furnish their board, and entertain them. This we understand is as the New York Conference has done in past years, but this year, due to the increasing interest in the tent meetings in progress in the cities, we fear we will not be able to have many of our ministering brethren with us very long before the camp-meeting begins. Therefore, we are very anxious to get a large number of our lay brethren to come and attend the workers' meetings. Please send us your names as soon as possible so we can plan to receive you.

The camp will be pitched between South Genesee and Oneida Sts. on Park Way. Take a car at the New York Central station, or anywhere in the city marked Genesee, ride up Genesee St. until your car leaves the city, get off and walk two blocks to the left.

The address of Brother H. F. Taylor, who is now laboring in Utica, is 287 South St.

This is the last opportunity we will have to make this call through the GLEANER. We now leave it with you and the Lord.

W. H. HOLDEN.

HOW TO REACH THE CAMP GROUNDS

As the time is drawing near for our fifty-second annual conference and camp-meeting, undoubtedly many are making plans to attend, and are anxious to see some statement as to how to reach the grounds.

We have a very good location in the south part of the city, among the best class of people, and it is accessible to two car lines. The ground is well sodded over and has a grove in one end, which will make it more pleasant. While it is in reach of the citizens, still it is out far enough so we can enjoy the quiet and beauties of nature.

Those arriving at the New York Central depot will take the street-car at the depot marked Genesee or one marked Clinton, and get off at Park Way, walk one block to the left or east, turn south one half block to camp-grounds; the grounds are in sight of the car.

Those arriving on the O. W. or D. L. W. Railroad will walk to Genesee St., and take the same car mentioned above.

Those arriving on the Little Falls or Rome electric cars will call for a transfer to the Genesee car, and take the same cars mentioned above at Genesee St., going south.

Those arriving on the Syracuse and Oneida electric cars can get off at Park Way, the first stop after the car turns off from the West Shore tracks. An announcement will appear later in reference to baggage.

BROTHER HOLDEN visited the South Onondaga church Sabbath, Aug. 3.

Our tent workers all report an increasing interest, and wish it were so that they could remain longer in the field.

Brother Mathewson dropped in to see us a few minutes Friday, Aug. 2, on his way home to West Eaton. He reports a good interest in Albany.

We are glad to report that we are sending in a check for $576.05 to help carry the message in foreign fields. This is for our July offering only. May God bless it to the salvation of souls.

Brother W. H. Lewis called at our office a few days ago, and made our hearts glad by leaving a generous amount with us, which nearly settled the account with the Vienna Society. "Go thou and do likewise."

We shall ship the camp-meeting outfit to Utica soon, expect to begin Aug. 6 or 7. This means that our brethren throughout the conference will soon meet together for the purpose of seeking the Lord. Let us have a large number with us all through the meeting. Come, brethren! you cannot afford to stay at home, and lose this precious opportunity.

WE are glad to report the work as onward in this city. Since our last report about three weeks ago, the interest has continued strong, and through all the testing truths the attendance has continued as large as it was any time during the meeting. Last Sunday night, July 28, we all considered the best meeting we have had this summer. The spirit of the Lord came in in a marked manner, and the people seemed to be sensible of its presence. When asked how many believed the truth as it had been preached at the tent this summer, nearly all in the tent quickly raised their hands. Upwards of a dozen have taken their stand for the Sab- We have reasons to believe that a number more will take their stand in two or three weeks.

Because of the interests, it has been thought best to keep the tent up during camp-meeting, perhaps dropping out for a week for the camp-meeting, and then continuing the meeting during September. It is possible we shall move our tent ten or twelve blocks, and hold the meetings there.

One lady has come direct from Romanism to this truth. A number of young people are desiring to take their stand, although their parents are greatly opposing them. I have never seen such severe opposition to the truth and individuals as we are seeing here in some cases just now. Yet we believe the Lord's word will gain the victory. We have some other good things to tell our brethren, that we will be able to report in a few weeks we trust. Pray for the work here.

WESTERN NEW YORK

ROCHESTER

I AM glad to say that the Lord is blessing us here in our tent work.

The Lord is surely working on the hearts of the people in this section of the city, and we praise his name for it. I have never witnessed such an interest among the people here in this city, nor have I ever heard of such. Surely there is a great work to be done in Rochester, and we are looking for the ingathering of many souls this summer. I pray the Lord will send more workers into this city, which I believe is fast closing up on the message. We are surrounded on all sides by the enemy, but God is able to keep us, and to use us to his glory.

Our tent is located on the corner of Hawley St. and Jefferson Ave. We have had an attendance from one hundred and twenty-five to three hundred. Sunday nights we cannot begin to get them in the tent, or seat them.

Brothers and sisters, pray for the work in Rochester.

F. M. KOONS.

ITEMS

SINCE we are for the present without a field agent, canvassers desiring help will write to the office, and we will do our best to provide the needed assistance.

Mrs. Carr has been in Buffalo since July 28, assisting in the tent effort there, and doing some other work. Both the English and German efforts are having a good interest, and we believe there will be a harvest of souls.

Elder Westbrook was called the 31st to the funeral of little Robert Stevens, son of Brother and Sister Harold Stevens, of Dunkirk. Brother Stevens and his family have been living at Washington, D. C., for some time, where he was employed in the Review and Herald printing plant.

Elder Kennedy writes that his tent is overflowing every night at Rochester, and that they are of excellent courage. The work in Elmira is also encouraging, and the laborers there are working hard.

Brother and Sister George Owens are now at Tunesassa getting ready for the opening of school, which will be September 19. We want to correspond with all who are interested in the good school which we expect to have this year. If you have not received a copy of our announcement, send for one.

One of our agents writes that he is working in territory where he has previously canvassed for "Coming King." He says that some of the people recognize him, and are glad to see him, so he does not think the previous work in any way hinders his success now, but rather is a help.

Last week we received an order from a hotel proprietor for subscriptions to Life and Health, Liberty, and the Protestant Magazine, also some extra copies of the current issue of the Protestant Magazine. He became interested in it, so wanted some more of our magazines. Another mail brought an order for fifty copies of Life and Health, evidently from one who had also bought a copy of the magazine.

APPOINTMENTS

PROVIDENCE favoring, I will meet with the church in Corning Sabbath the 10th inst., and the 24th I will meet with the church at Richburg. Hope to have a general attendance and much of the blessing of heaven.

GREATER NEW YORK

TO THE READERS OF THE GLEANER

In behalf of the colored people of Greater New York Conference, I take this opportunity to express our gratitude for, and appreciation of, the kind help given us in the collection taken in the month of May throughout the Atlantic Union. May God bless every one who contributed to such a needy and deserving enterprise, and return to you a hundred fold. You might be interested to know how much has been reported to date.

From the Greater New York churches, $116.48; from the A. U. Conf. Treas., $345.60, making a total of $462.08. I must again say we thank you, and as we are yet struggling to meet our payments, any who have not yet subscribed to this fund, may find this an opportunity to do what they can.

Our tent effort has created quite an interest, and already we have a few souls who are rejoicing in the glorious hope of the coming King, and are walking with us in the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus. We shall write more later concerning the effort. Pray for us.

J. K. HUMPHREY.

ITEMS

Do you know of any isolated Sabbath-keepers who should have the missionary readings? If so, kindly send the office their names and addresses.

Sabbath, Aug. 10, has been appointed by the conference committee as a day when we should take up a special offering for the literature fund. From this we are to assist in supplying literature, Bibles, and such supplies as may be especially needed in some of our missionary work. This is a conference fund, and should be forwarded to the office with other funds.

Our workers' meetings are proving interesting as well as helpful. They should be meetings where we do not only meet as workers, but where we shall meet with the Master and receive power for his work. We trust our church people will continue to pray for the prosperity of Zion as now represented by the several efforts in the tents. New Sabbath-keepers are reported by nearly every tent company, with special interest in each tent.

We are sorry to report that Brother Carroll Barrows has been advised by the doctors to leave his present work with the Review and Herald Publishing Association here in the city, and seek more out-of-door work.

Please note that our telephone call is Stuyvesant 3829, and not the call of the Review and Herald.

We call attention to our report. Several of our canvassers have not reported so as to be included in our report, which necessarily deprives the agents and the conference due credit.

MASSACHUSETTS

LOWELL, MASS.

WE opened our tent meetings in this city Wednesday evening, July 10, at 7.45 o'clock. We could not start our meetings when we had planned, since the one who was to be our tent master, and whom we counted on to help us erect our camp, failed to appear at the proper time, and at this writing has not arrived, nor do we look for him this summer. Prof. Curtis, my fellow laborer, and myself, have been on a decided hustle, I can assure you. Notwithstanding all obstacles, we got started at last, and have had a good time ever since. Our meetings opened with forty inside and a larger number outside the tent. Since then, we have reached as many as one hundred inside of the tent. Sunday night, July 14, one hundred and fifty persons were out to the service.

Our tent is in a very aristocratic section of Lowell, and we are both pleased and surprised to get as many as we do to attend our meetings. The car company put advertising on their cars for us, and the papers have kindly published several articles. I have enjoyed having Miss Myrna Lee to help us in our work here. She has lectured twice thus far in the tent, before good audiences. Many have asked her questions, and expressed their appreciation of what she has told them. It has already opened doors for us here. Nearly every one knew we were seventh-day people as soon as the tent went up. Brother Walker lived only a short distance from our tent, and of course had worked more or less in the vicinity of our tent location. In another week we take up the Sabbath question, and we ask your prayers that God will save some of those coming to our tent. In our company are Prof. Curtis, Miss Lee, Miss Ruth Mercereau, and myself. We know that Jesus alone is the source of all our help and strength. In his strength we rest our case, knowing he doeth all things well.

J. K. JONES.

ITEMS

The tent companies all report encouragingly, and there seems to be a good interest in each effort. The time has come when the testing truths are being presented, and those who are making decisions for eternity should have the help of the prayers of God's people.

Last Sabbath Elder Hartwell met with the Swedish church at Gardner for the celebration of the ordinances, after which he visited the church at Athol, where he reports that there was an unusually large attendance and a good meeting.

Our brethren and sisters will be encouraged to know that for the first six months of this year our tithe receipts were $1,234 more than they were for the corresponding months of last year, and for the ten months since our last conference session, the tithe has been $2,444 more than it was for the corresponding ten months previous. Let us endeavor to maintain this good showing during the rest of the year by being faithful in returning to the Lord his own.

"Institutions that are God's instruments to carry forward his work on the earth must be sustained. Churches must be erected, schools established, and publishing houses furnished with facilities for doing a great work in the publication of the truth to be sent to all parts of the world. These institutions are ordained of God, and should be sustained by tithes and liberal offerings. As the work enlarges, means will be needed to carry it forward in all its branches. And when the members of the church wish in their hearts that there would be no more calls for means, they virtually say that they are content that the cause of God shall not progress."—

ITEMS

We were glad for the presence this week of Brother C. L. Kilgore, the Atlantic Union Treasurer. He has audited the books of our conference.

Our camp-meeting, also conference session, will be held at Manchester, N. H. August 21 to Sept. 1. This time is not far distant, and all our people throughout the conference should be planning to attend, as we look to the occasion when all who will may become more effectual workers for the Master. Full particulars regarding exact location, etc., in next GLEANER.

After five weeks in the northern part of our conference, Brother W. F. Brockway returned to the office. He says the outlook is good for a good, strong force of canvassers during the fall and winter months.

A PRETTY home wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Laura L. Stinson, Cambridge, Vt., the afternoon of July 30, when Albert Muirroe Cram, M. D. of Roxbury, Vt., was united in marriage to her daughter, Winifred Bell Young. The ceremony was simple and impressive. A number of the near relatives and friends were present, the undersigned officiating.

FALL HARVEST INGATHERING

We are sure it is not too early to call the attention of all our brethren and sisters in the Atlantic Union Conference to the coming Harvest Ingathering Campaign which this year is divided into two divisions. First, one week, beginning September 29 and closing October 4. During this week it is expected that nearly every one in the denomination will make some effort to distribute the Signs of the Times monthly, and solicit donations for foreign work. After this week is over, the longer section of the campaign will continue to the close of the year. During this time many will work as they can with the journal, securing what means they can for foreign missions.

We are glad to announce this year that the Signs of the Times will be in a different form than last year. This year it will be in magazine form with a three-colored beautiful cover which will be attractive to people everywhere. It will cost more, but we are sure will be much more acceptable to our people and to the world generally. It will be full of interesting matter with reference to our foreign work, and will be a splendid number to put in the hands of friends, business men, neighbors, and anyone whom you wish to inform with reference to what we are doing in heathen lands.

We believe that all of our churches should begin now to make their orders to their local tract societies, and get ready for this campaign which will soon be here. We would caution that each church do not order more magazines than they will actually use, but we trust that every church will order a goodly number, and then put them into the homes of the people. We believe that if our people will go to their friends and neighbors with cheerful countenances, show them the little journal, tell them what it is about, and a little something of what we are trying to do to bring the cross of Christ to those who know it not, that there are not many people who will not be glad to give a donation to foreign work. We wish this fall that a real hard, live, vigorous, effort could be made all through the Union Conference. Thousands upon thousands of dollars could be secured from the world in this way if we would give it careful thought, prayer, and a little time. All this gathered from the world will apply on our fifteen-cent-a-week fund to foreign missions.

Now, brethren and sisters, the General Conference is doing all it can. It is providing us with a beautiful magazine to use at this time. Thousands of dollars will be expended in its make-up, and shall we not now take this journal to the people and kindly ask them to assist us in the work we are trying to do in such fields as China, Japan, Korea, Africa, and the Islands of the Sea? We hope every church will act at once, find out how many papers can be used, and send in your orders to your local tract society. These journals will be placed in your hands free, but it is expected that about every one given out will bring back to foreign missions a good return.

May the Lord bless every one as we take hold in this work.

OBITUARY NOTICES

BALLINGER.—Died, at his residence in the town of Erwin, Steuben Co., N. Y., July 6, 1912, of cancer of the stomach, John A. Ballinger, Sr., aged 89 years, 5 months and eight days. His wife died three years ago. He was the father of six children, all of whom survive him but one. The writer formed the acquaintance of Brother and Sister Ballinger forty odd years ago in connection with their acceptance of the truths of the third angel's message. Their lives were such as won the confidence and esteem of those who knew them. Two of the children are now rejoicing in the truth, and looking forward with joyful anticipation to the glorious reunion of all the faithful in Christ at his coming. May that include all the members of this dear family. The services were conducted by the writer, and largely attended. Prov. 14:32, 1 Thess. 4:18, and II Cor. 1:3, 4 were employed as waymark texts.
