GENERAL ARTICLES

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

I HAVE greatly appreciated the good reports coming in from various parts of the field of the progress of the Harvest Ingathering campaign. I think I have shared with many others in having some misgivings for the outcome of this work owing to the times of great depression. I expect that we are influenced more than we should be by the conditions that surround us. It seems evident to me from the reports that I am receiving that we are meeting with as good success as we ever have before. In my own solicitations during the few times that I have been out, I have never met with a better response.

It has been a real pleasure to me to note that our two institutions, Lancaster Junior College and the New England Sanitarium, are entering into this work with the churches located in these places in such a vigorous manner. It now appears that the efforts in these places will be more successful than at any time in the past. Plans are laid to continue the Harvest Ingathering effort right on through until high goals are met.

It is to be regretted that some of us are called to leave the field at this time to attend the council in the West, yet of course at that meeting we will be confronted by problems of unusual magnitude. You should pray for the brethren assembled at that council that the Lord will give special wisdom. You will have our earnest prayers that while you are going out from home to home you may be used by the Lord for helping to meet the emergency of the hour. Every condition indicates that we are rapidly hastening on to the end.

Sooner, I believe, than many of us expect, we will be in the midst of troubles and difficulties beyond our comprehension. The situation calls for more complete consecration to the work of God and more devoted endeavor than ever before to carry it forward.

Our home missionary secretary, Elder W. A. Butler, is working almost day and night during this important campaign in directing, encouraging, and inspiring where he can in the various conferences to make it a decided success. He is being assisted by Elder H. A. Weaver, our religious liberty secretary, who is now spending some time in Southern New England. Every local conference home missionary secretary is doing his utmost to lead out in this campaign, and we do greatly appreciate the earnest and faithful response that is so evident throughout the field.

AMONG OUR ACADEMIES

RECENTLY I have visited the following academies: Union Springs Academy, Temple Academy, and the Harlem Academy. At Union Springs I found Professor Shull and his earnest corps of teachers working with courage and high hopes. This school is just opening for the first time, and is a result of the combination of the Eastern and the Western New York academies. Brother Shull and his fellow-teachers have every reason to be thankful, optimistic concerning the work of the coming winter. The Eastern and Western New York Conferences have backed the school in a liberal way financially, so that the equipment is now adequate, and the school finds itself entirely free of debt, excepting for a mortgage of eight thousand dollars still standing on the school farm. Considering the value of the property obtained and the value of equipment now on the grounds, the brethren in charge of the school there have every reason to be thankful that God has permitted them to take hold of a work under so fortunate circumstances.

The enrolment at the Academy on the 27th of September was eighty-one. More students were known to be coming, so that no doubt their number now exceeds the figure given. I was very much pleased to be permitted to meet this splendid corps of students. An earnest spirit of work and of conscientious study was evident and I left Union Springs with a feeling in my heart that God had been good to his people in giving them this school for the training of their boys and girls, and I feel high confidence that the young people who are in attendance at this academy will prove worthy of the opportunities being offered them.

From Union Springs Academy I went to New York City and visited Temple Academy, which is being conducted under the principalship of Brother Morse. This school opened last year with an enrolment of only twenty-nine. The brethren and sisters of Greater New York were not yet convinced that Temple Academy was an assured success. As an evidence that their confidence in the school has been established, it is enough to say that Temple Academy opened this year with an enrolment of eighty-two, and already some of the schoolrooms are so crowded that the teachers are meeting some difficult problems in this respect. We are thankful for such problems as these. Some of these young people who are in attendance at Temple Academy come long journeys in order to receive their schooling in a Christian school. We cannot but believe in the devotion of parents and the earnestness of children who are willing to make the sacrifices which these good people in New York are making for the cause of Christian education. Brother Morse and his faculty are doing excellent work, and the work of the school is being maintained at a high standard of efficiency.

After visiting Temple Academy, I went to Harlem Academy, where I visited Brother Moran, the principal, and his corps of faithful teachers. This school is I think, the largest colored school in our denomination north of Mason and Dixon's line, and I think is exceeded in members by only one or two other schools. This school opened the first day with an enrolment of one hundred fifty. This crowded the school quarters to the very limit of their capacity, and the teachers had to turn away many students who could otherwise have been enrolled.

The school work at Harlem Academy is being conducted under handicap. The physical facilities of the building are not adapted to school purposes. I wish something might be done to provide proper school facilities for our colored people in Greater New York. The school last year did very creditable work, and the magnitude of their problems is such as to make their work one of major importance in our field.

We are busy at this office at present in gathering statistics of the educational work in this Union, and will be in position soon to publish in the GLEANER full information concerning our schools.

Some little difficulty is being encountered in securing proper reports from some of the superintendents in our Union, and we are wondering if this may not be due to the fact that some of the teachers are tardy in making their reports to the superintendents. This is a matter of importance in our educational work, and we hope that this suggestion will be fruitful of promptness on the part of all.

Educational superintendents would do well to send in their reports, making notation of such teachers as have failed to make report on time. The report from the Atlantic Union will be forwarded to the General Conference Department on October 14, regardless of whether the report from the field is complete or not. We must each of us make it a point to do our work promptly, in order that the whole may not be retarded because of us.

P. L. THOMPSON.

UNION SPRINGS ACADEMY

UNION SPRINGS ACADEMY

OUR enrolment is steadily growing. It is now eighty-one, and we have definite word from nine more who are coming within a week, while one or two others write that they will be here by November 1. We are working toward the hundred mark, and it will surely be reached before Christmas. Some have been coming to us after having started in high school. The Lord is certainly impressing the hearts of our parents with the need of placing their young people in our own schools. And he is certainly opening the way in many cases for them to attend. Only today a letter came to the principal's office saying: "We had given up sending our daughter to school this year, but the way has been opened now for us to send her," etc., and many are coming in reading much the same way. There is still time for our young people to enter, and we trust that God will continue to work on the hearts of the parents.

The Lord is certainly blessing us with the right kind of young people. We have seldom seen such a fine, earnest body of young people gathered in any of our schools as we have here. Such a contrast with the average high school! Surely if the parents of our young people still in the worldly schools could only see the difference between the atmosphere here and that of the worldly schools, they would be willing to make any sacrifice in order to send their children to God's school.

Mrs. Ellis arrived last week to take charge of our sewing department. Many of our readers doubtless know that Sister Ellis is one of the most experienced teachers in our denomination along this line. For some years she was in charge of that department at South Lancaster. We feel that we were very fortunate to secure her services.

The faculty reception to the students was held on the first Saturday evening of the school year, and was much enjoyed by both students and faculty. A number of friends from the village, not of our faith, were in attendance upon our invitation, and commented very favorably on the program, and on our fine class of young people.

Our friends will perhaps be glad to learn exactly who are in attendance at Union Springs, and we will try next week to give a complete list of those enrolled. Of the eighty-one now here, thirty-one are from Eastern New York, forty-one from Western New York and nine from other conferences.

C. A. SHULL.

NOTES

SUNDAY, October 2, there occurred two events that were of special interest to two of our large departments. In the morning a large number of people from the negro department, as well as a goodly number of our brethren and sisters from other churches, gathered in Inter-State Park, on the banks of the Hudson River, and witnessed Elder Humphrey, the superintendent of that department, baptize forty-six candidates. It was an interesting sight to see the long line of precious souls who have accepted the truth through the past summer as a result of the tent effort conducted by Elder Humphrey on One Hundred Thirty-ninth Street. He has had the largest interest in the history of his work, and the baptism of these candidates is only the beginning of the results that are to follow. Many more are now being instructed preparatory to going forward in the ordinance of baptism. The effort in the tent continues and nearly every night new ones are taking their stand for the message. What he will do with these souls is a great problem to Elder Humphrey, as his church is already filled on Sabbath days to overflowing. God is greatly blessing the work of his faithful servant in this department.

In the afternoon, at three o'clock, we gathered on Fiftieth Street, Brooklyn, and participated in the laying of the corner stone of the Danish-Norwegian church. A large gathering of brethren and sisters and friends of the Norwegian work were present. The address was given by Elder Haynes, pastor of the Temple church. Elder Neilsen, superintendent of the Danish-Norwegian department of the General Conference, was present and participated in the exercises, as did also Elder W. R. Andrews, and Elder Halsvick, the pastor of the church. The beginning of the erection of this building has brought new life and spirit into the hearts of our Danish-Norwegian brethren, and the work of the church is showing progress. They expect to be able to get into their new home about the first of December.

HARVEST INGATHERING

DEAR MEMBERS OF THE GREATER NEW YORK CONFERENCE:

We trust that you will take special notice of the Harvest Ingathering report which appears below. This report will show us just where we stand in our campaign. We are somewhat disappointed in not reaching our full quota during the three weeks, but when we realize that a large number of our people did not take part in the campaign, we feel like complimenting those who did work; for every one who had an active part in the campaign received a special blessing from God.

We want to make a special call to you who have not reached your individual quota to get into line and share in the blessings that are waiting for you.

In the light of present-day conditions and the many calls from the mission field, we cannot afford to be idle and not do our part. For the last seventy years the third angel's message has been going forward by leaps and bounds toward the four corners of the earth. We have sent hundreds of missionaries, and we cannot afford to have the work stopped at this time. We appeal to every member of our conference, and especially to you who have not had a part, to help us reach our conference quota within the next few weeks.

REGULAR TERRITORY

SOME of our people have regular territory which they cover every year in the Harvest Ingathering work, and receive better results by so doing.

A few weeks ago a young man took his regular Sunday Harvest Ingathering tour. As he went from home to home among the farmers, nearly all were glad to see him. Usually, upon entering the yard, some one would come out of the house to meet him; or, if they were a little distance from the house, they would call, "Wait a minute and I will be right there."

Very little needed to be said about the magazine, save that it told what their offering of last year helped to accomplish; for the people were glad to get it, and were willing to make an offering. Most of the time was spent in asking for the welfare of the home during the past year, and talking about the many things we have for which to be thankful.

At one home the young man happened to call during the meal hour. He was invited in and asked to take dinner. After the dinner was over and the offering taken, he left with a hearty invitation to take dinner the next time he came.

At almost every place where the young man called as large or larger offering than that of the previous year was received.

The Lord wants scores of people in Northern New England to do as this young man is doing. This is one of the best methods of doing Harvest Ingathering work. If this method were followed each year, it would be an easy solution to many of our foreign mission problems, and at the same time it would be genuine home missionary work.

Are you taking this method to raise your portion of the Harvest Ingathering fund? It is the best way. Try it now.

THE HARVEST INGATHERING CAMPAIGN AND ITS ORIGIN

THE Bible says "There arose a king in Egypt that knew not Joseph." It would seem that the brothers of Joseph had been highly favored when they first went down to Egypt. This was doubtless due to Joseph's influence with the Egyptian king, also to the fact that his brethren kept to themselves in the land of Goshen, so that the Egyptians were not brought into very close contact with them. However, after Joseph had died and the children of Israel had increased greatly in number, they naturally were brought into closer contact with the Egyptians than before.

The very fact that their religious customs and practices differed from that of the Egyptians, brought opposition upon them, and this new king determined that he would make of them a race of slaves.

When Moses came on the stage of action, the opposition of the Egyptians, was fierce and cruel. When Moses brought to the attention of the children of Israel the binding claims of the Sabbath and urged them to cease from work, immediately the whole Egyptian nation and false system of religion arose against God's people. No such sect was wanted, unless they were willing to abandon their religious convictions and break the Sabbath of the Lord. It really was a test of the true and false religion.

God told Moses that Egypt was doomed to destruction, and that Pharaoh and his hosts were to be obliterated. Knowing this was to come upon the nation, also knowing the deep poverty and distress as well as the needs of his chosen people in that hour of crisis, God decided that while Pharaoh and his hosts were to be destroyed, yet a large share of their wealth was to be saved to his cause and people. Then and there, began the first Harvest Ingathering campaign.

You will notice that in Exodus the command was that "every man and every woman" was to take part in the campaign. It was a solemn obligation resting upon them. The campaign was not to rest upon their feelings, but they had a duty, and it is very evident from the Scripture and the final results, that every man and every woman performed their duty, and actually went out and asked their neighbors to give them gold and silver to help them out in their work.

It is said that God gave the children of Israel favor in the sight of the Egyptians, and they gave them as much as they needed. Now, brethren and sisters, is it not a fact that this old world and its modern Egypt (darkness) that these modern Pharaohs (rich men that glory in their wealth) are doomed to destruction in the very near future? Is it not a fact that very soon the wealth of this world is to be thrown to the moles and bats? Again is it not a fact that the cause of God is now in its hour of crisis? You have heard repeatedly how we are hundreds upon hundreds of thousands of dollars short in our needs for foreign fields alone. This, brethren and sisters, means a loss of thousands of souls to this cause. Ought this not to reach the heart of every Seventh-day Adventist?

Now the Lord has a remedy for this situation. In our time of great need, he has told us to do today exactly what he told ancient Israel; namely, to take these beautiful Harvest Ingathering papers and go around from door to door and acquaint the people with our work, our needs, and then ask them to make a contribution to this cause. Do you realize that many of these dear souls who give to this had better give to this than have it all burned up a few years from now?

We do not need to feel that we are doing them an injury or insulting them by asking them to help us. We are simply securing for God's cause money that some time would be burned up in the destruction of this world. That is actually the way to look at it.

When we look at it that way I am sure we will be willing to lay aside our false dignity and pride that keeps us at home, and we will be glad to go out and work for the Lord Jesus. One dear old sister, the other day, who is nearly ninety years old, told me she had raised nearly $4 in the Harvest Ingathering campaign. This ought to shame those who are younger and who have done nothing in this hour

LESS THAN TWO HOURS

MRS. R. B. CLAPP has just reached the Maine field. She has had her first taste of home missionary work in Maine. You ought to see how happy she looks as she tells her little story. She said: "I was working less than two hours on Monday and what did I do? I sold twelve 25 cent magazines, ten 25 cent 'Steps to Christ,' and collected $1.22 for missions. I was less than twenty minutes selling those ten 'Steps to Christ.'"

Brother, sister, this is not theory but actual results. Many of you who read this, if you only go at it, can do as well or better. The prophet said, "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh." This means the unbelievers as well as the believers. In a special way God by his Spirit has prepared the hearts of humanity today for the most favorable response possible to our approaches. "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest that he will send forth laborers into his harvest." Then yourself respond and go.

BRIGHT FROM THE MINT

ELDER BUTLER, while in Albany with other brethren, spoke at the Sabbath morning hour last week, and brought out of the mine of truth some Harvest Ingathering texts that the writer is sure would be appreciated by GLEANER readers.

Micah 4: 13: "Arise thresh." Threshing means speed, activity. Beating of the wheat brings forth the golden grain. So the daughters of Zion are to thresh "many people," and "I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth."

If you, dear reader, will speed up and become more active in this Harvest Ingathering time, God will give you gold from the people. He will impress them to give as you ask them for money. He is doing it for others, why not for you?

Eccl. 2: 26: To the sinner God giveth travail to "gather and to heap up." That is all worldlings live for, and talk about—money, stocks, bonds, and bank accounts. They "heap up" their profits—why?—To "give to him, that is good before God." Is it God's intention that the worldling should "heap up" for his own selfish gratification and lust?—No.

"The gold and silver is mine, saith the Lord," and dear reader, will you not go out in this Harvest Ingathering campaign and get what sinners have "heaped up"?

Isa. 60: 5 says that the "wealth of the Gentiles shall come unto thee." But you must "arise and shine" for God and his cause. Do not let your experience grow dim. Do not let the soot of sin besmirch your influence and mar your life until you cannot "let your light so shine."

Brethren, these are days of thorough dedication and great earnestness. Throw off every thought of timidity. "Be not afraid of the face of man," but make these beautiful October days count for the Harvest Ingathering.

Brother Kilgore writing us of the great need in foreign fields says: "It is as if our brethren were at the end of a long rope being let down into a deep well, depending upon us at the top to hold the rope to keep them from dropping into the abyss below."

The Harvest Ingathering campaign is the rope to save them. Will you help?

ITEMS

ELDER HEALD is attending the Fall Council of the General Conference at Minneapolis, Minn.

Elder W. A. Butler, Atlantic Union home missionary secretary, and Elder Schnetzler are visiting some of the churches in the interest of the Harvest Ingathering campaign. Field-days are being held, and they report excellent experiences among the people, who seem quite willing to give to foreign missions.

E. E. Franklin, field missionary secretary of the Atlantic Union, together with Brother F. E. Kinnear, has held several interesting stereopticon lectures in our larger churches, giving a history of the book work of this denomination. From small beginnings, our work has now reached the place where whole car-loads of books and whole car-loads of magazines are nothing out of the ordinary. Surely God is in this movement.

The special gift edition of the Morning Watch Calendar for the year 1922 is now ready. Every one will like the "elephant hide" cover, the price of which is but fifteen cents. Then, too, there will be the regular 5 cent edition as usual, with the picture "I am the Good Shepherd" on the outside. Now is the time to start making out your list of friends who should have this excellent calendar the coming year. Stock is ready. Send us your orders.

"Home Nursing"

The above is the title of a new book published for the General Conference publishing department, and is designed to meet the demands for a book that, while in every sense a text-book, can be used by all who have not had the opportunity of joining classes in nursing. Well illustrated with photographs taken especially for this volume. There are nineteen lessons with examination questions. Bound in blue cloth, with a picture of a nurse in white, it makes a very attractive appearance. Price $1.

We feel sure that all who read the excellent report of our book work in this week's issue of the GLEANER will rejoice with us. The Lord is giving our faithful colporteurs a goodly number of orders, and the deliveries are excellent with very few exceptions. How many are watching the reports of magazine sales? Surely much good must result from the shower of magazines all over the conference. There are others who should be engaged in this splendid line of work. If you are interested, write Brother F. E. Kinnear at the conference office.

SPECIAL APPOINTMENTS

You will be pleased to learn that our Union home missionary secretary, Elder Wm. A. Butler, and the assistant home missionary secretary of the General Conference, Elder E. R. Numbers, have arranged to pay our conference a short visit in the interest of our Harvest Ingathering work. Elder Butler expects to be with us two weeks, while Elder Numbers can spare us but one week.

I wish we could visit all our churches, but this being impossible, we have mapped out the following program:

Sabbath, October 15

Rochester church. Meetings morning and afternoon, illustrated lecture by Elder Numbers in the evening.

Sunday, October 16

Field work (Harvest Ingathering) at Rochester in the morning. Illustrated lecture by Elder Numbers in the evening.

Monday, October 17

Field-day with Rochester church in the morning, and meet at Sister

Leggett's, Niagara Falls at 7.30 P. M.

Tuesday, October 18

Field-day with Niagara Falls church in the forenoon, and meet with the Buffalo church at 7.30 in the evening.

Wednesday, October 19

Field-day with our Buffalo church in the morning, and meet with Fredonia church at 7.30 P. M.

Thursday, October 20

Field-day with Fredonia church in forenoon, and meet with the Jamestown churches in the evening.

Friday, October 21

Field-day with our Jamestown churches in the morning, and arrive at Salamanca in the afternoon.

Sabbath, October 22

Meetings at Salamanca, probably morning and afternoon.

Sunday, October 23

Field-day with the Salamanca church in forenoon, and meet with the Wellsville church in the evening.

Monday, October 24

Field-day with Wellsville church in the forenoon, and meet with the Hornell church at 7.30 P. M.

Tuesday, October 25

Field-day with our Hornell church in the morning, and meet with our Corning church at 7.30 P. M.

Wednesday, October 26

Field-day with the Corning church in the forenoon, and meet with our Elmira church at 7.30 P. M.

Thursday, October 27

Field-day with the Elmira church in the morning, and travel to Union Springs in the afternoon. Evening meeting if we arrive in time.

Friday, October 28

Field-day with Union Springs Academy.

May I solicit your earnest prayers and hearty cooperation in order that our trip may accomplish much good.

Are you doing your best and using every opportunity? If so I know you will have some very interesting and encouraging Harvest Ingathering reports for us.

F. BOHNER,
Home Missionary Secretary.

"SIGNS" SIXTEEN PAGES EVERY WEEK

THE word just passed on by the Signs of the Times office to the effect that from now on the Signs will be sixteen pages every week will be welcomed by our people everywhere. While they would like to have made the change earlier, the publishers explain that this has been impossible without a heavy loss on paper stock. Although as yet this stock is not all used, it is felt that this change will bring great courage to our people, and new confidence in the Signs.

In a general way it is also announced that a program is now being carefully worked out that will greatly strengthen the Signs in its appearance and its presentation of the truth. All of this is of more than ordinary interest to our readers.

of need. We are glad so many have gone out and are still going.

We are glad to see the Gideon band increasing day by day, and that new ones are catching the vision, and we hope that during this month of October there will be many scores of persons in our churches take part who have never done so before.

To you, my brother, my sister, comes a command from the Lord. It is as clear as though spoken from heaven, sending a message to the church of which you are a member, and the message is this, "Speak now in the ears of the people and let every man borrow of his neighbor, and every woman of her neighbor, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold. And the Lord gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians." J. K. JONES.

Wisemore have now located in Cortland, N. Y., and have taken up the book work, using "Great Controversy." Our prayers will follow them as they once more put on the harness.

Our isolated brethren in every part of the conference report good experiences in the Harvest Ingathering campaign. If there are those who have run short of papers, we shall be glad to replenish your stock from the office.

HARVEST INGATHERING

I AM very much gratified at the general reports that have come in at the close of September in our Harvest Ingathering work. A number of our churches have reached their goal and some have gone well over their goal. Our largest churches, however, have not nearly reached their goal. We are very anxious that October shall practically put the conference over on the goal of $8000.

There has been a universal testimony from those who have been out in the field soliciting that the money comes as easy this year as any year. Especially those who have labored in the country have found that large donations can be secured at almost every house. We recommend that more of our city people go to the smaller places and into the country some time during the beautiful days of October, and save the city territory for winter work.

As the brethren are gathered at the Fall Council at Minneapolis during the larger part of this month, there will be many prayers sent up for the success of our brethren who are holding the ropes in the local churches. We earnestly pray that every worker and every member in the Southern New England Conference will aim for a completed goal by the end of the month. While away from the field, I shall meet with you around the throne of grace daily that the Lord may prosper his cause and e success to your endeavors for the building up of his work.

E. L. CARDEY.

THE SANITARIUM

NURSES' TRAINING COURSE

Graduating Exercises

THE baccalaureate sermon, in connection with the graduation exercises of the New England Sanitarium training class for nurses, was delivered by Elder J. C. Stevens, of Boston, on Sabbath morning, September 10, in the sanitarium gymnasium, in which the life of Christ—the model medical missionary—was presented before the class as their only true and perfect example.

Wednesday evening, September 14, the gymnasium having been tastefully decorated by the juniors, the commencement exercises were conducted in the presence of a large audience. Sixty nurses in training, preceded by the members of the faculty and quite a number of former graduates, marched in procession to the platform. Elder B. M. Heald, president of the Eastern New York Conference, delivered the commencement address, setting forth in an impressive way the high ideals of service suggested in the class motto,— "For Service or Sacrifice." The class address was given by Miss Ruth M. McIntosh, and the class song—a loving tribute to their "Alma Mater,"—was composed by Miss A. M. Towne.

Dr. W. E. Bliss, medical superintendent, presented diplomas to the sixteen members of the graduating class, who had successfully completed their three years' course of training. Sixteen members of the incoming class were present to share in the pleasure of the evening's program. Several of the graduating class will remain for a time in the employ of the sanitarium. The prayers and best wishes of the sanitarium family will go with those who leave.
