GENERAL ARTICLES

REPORT OF THE NEW YORK CONFERENCE

The New York Conference and camp-meeting were held at Union Springs, June 24 to July 4. The attendance at this meeting was larger than usual and remained good during the week. We were glad to see so many attending the meeting throughout the whole period. One prominent feature about the New York meeting and everything pertaining to it was the splendid order and system and promptness. We must recognize that neatness and an orderly arrangement of affairs contribute much to the success of the camp-meeting.

The reports that were submitted by Elder J. K. Jones, the president, Brother J. E. Osterblom, secretary-treasurer, and the various leaders of the departments were most encouraging. This conference has doubtless led the large conferences of the world in foreign mission funds and in the strength of its Harvest Ingathering work. A decided increase in tithes was indicated. A splendid response was made to the call for a mission offering. This conference is contributing liberally throughout the year, but when the call was made on the last Sabbath something over $10,000 was given in cash and pledges.

The educational work of the conference is well organized and is advancing nicely under the leadership of Mrs. E. B. Markham. It was a pleasure to observe the strength of the home missionary work in all its phases. Brother Bohner is leading out strongly in this line. Five churches were received into the conference at this session with the assurance that they are all in good condition and give promise of growth.

An ordination service was conducted the first Sabbath, at which time Brother J. E. Whelpley was set apart to the gospel ministry.

It was a pleasure to have with us from the General Conference Elders Montgomery, Branson, Stahl, and Passebois. Unusual interest was shown in the reports of Brother and Sister Stahl, and all felt the inspiration of hearing of God's providences in connection with the labors of these faithful missionaries from the South American continent. Of equal interest were the accounts given by Elder Branson of the advancement of the work in the African field.

During the conference sessions all phases of our work were given attention, and the business was carried forward with dispatch. Few changes were made in the personnel of the conference laborers and committee. Elder J. K. Jones was reelected as president and J. E. Osterblom as secretary-treasurer for the coming term.

The laborers from the Atlantic Union Conference and representatives from the Atlantic Union College and the New England Sanitarium, with Brother D. A. Bailey of the Review and Herald Branch, all contributed to the various interests of the work. There seemed to be a decided spiritual awakening on the part of all at this meeting, and it was truly a blessed occasion that will be long remembered by all who attended. It is a pleasure to be able to say that the work in the New York Conference is on good footing and that splendid progress is seen in every department.

THE CALL OF ELDER HAYNES

A president for the South American Division was not provided for at the time of the General Conference. Recently the General Conference Committee, with such representatives of the South American Division as could be present, took this matter up, and unanimously voted that Elder C. B. Haynes, president of the Greater New York Conference, be released by our field to take this important position. I am informed by Elder Haynes that after most earnest and careful consideration he and Sister Haynes have decided to accept of this important call.

I believe that I am warranted in saying that Elder Haynes will be able to give considerable attention to the Greater New York work until the time of the Autumn Council. We assure the membership of this important conference that most careful attention will be given to every interest whether it pertains to individuals or general problems, so that there will be no break in the continuity of the most careful administration of all the interests of the conference.

Without doubt this call comes to many as a surprise, and all will be disappointed that Elder Haynes is to leave this field. A most efficient work has been carried on in all lines in the Greater New York Conference. As we are subjected to the loss that we sustain in our field, we have the assurance of giving up a co-laborer to fill a most important and needy place in the great world movement. South America is one of the most important of the eight world divisions of our work. A wonderful work is in progress in that field. That a former student from our college and a co-laborer of our field can go to fill this important position is a cause of gratitude, and I am sure the prayers of Elder Haynes' acquaintances will follow him.

The Greater New York Committee will in the near future give consideration to plans for the future presidency of that conference.

There has been quite a shift in the force of workers in the Southern New England Conference during the last few weeks. Professor C. H. Schowe takes charge of the Greater New York Academy, and Miss Louise Kleuser will have the Sabbath School, Educational and Missionary Volunteer departments of that conference. Elder H. P. Gram and Brother B. M. Preston are taking the Home Missionary and Field Missionary secretaryships of the New England Conference.

Elder A. E. Sanderson has been granted a leave of absence for special labor on behalf of the "Review" in the Central Union. His place in Providence is being filled by Elder J. E. Shultz of Springfield, and Elder J. W. McCord is transferring from New Haven to Springfield. We are negotiating for a worker for the New Haven district.

Elder E. E. Osborne has been invited to take charge of the work in the Hartford district and will give special attention to the binding off of the Granby interest.

Brother and Sister Rice of Springfield will look after the work in Brockton, Elder J. F. Knipschild taking charge of that district.

Sister Hoar is retiring from the Bible work in Providence, and Miss Harriett Holloway has been invited to take up work there.

Brother Andrew Nagy has already arrived in Bridgeport to take charge of the Hungarian work there as a result of Brother and Sister Mozar's call to Broadview College.

Brother Andrew Wellington Clark is taking charge of the colored work in Springfield and Brother James Jones will look after the New Haven No. 2 church.

Owing to the camp-meeting coming later in the season because of the General Conference, greatly shortening the time left for tent efforts, and owing also to the large number of transfers that are being effected, only four tent efforts will be in the field this summer, the other workers looking forward to a strong lead-off in the fall efforts.

The Lowell company will consist of Elder J. W. Freiburger, Brother Ernest Moore, and Miss Clara Curtis, the two latter being this year's graduates from Atlantic Union College. Brother Moore is under appointment for China.

The New Bedford company will consist of Elder H. N. Williams, Brother Oscar Snipes, and Miss Nella Eastman, with Sister Grace Robbins doing magazine work, and Mrs. Williams acting as pianist.

The Worcester English company will consist of Elder Walter Howard, Brother Vivian Townsend, with Sister Townsend acting as pianist, also our veteran Bible workers, Sister Cora Spencer and Ella Wilber.

A Swedish effort will also be conducted in Worcester, the company consisting of Elders Carl Swenson and Adolph Blomstedt with Miss Lane doing Bible work and Mrs. Blomstedt acting as pianist. At the conclusion of the tent effort Brother Blomstedt will open up work in some other section.

We would request that our people who contributed so liberally to the Conference Poor Fund mark their envelopes "Conference Poor Fund" when turning in their pledges. Church treasurers will kindly forward all such money to the conference treasurer.

W. C. Moffett.

We are holding at the office two letters not called for during the camp-meeting, and on which there is no return address. One is addressed to Mrs. H. B. Gardner and the other to Mr. Harry Hall.

Our trip to Southern Vermont was a very pleasant trip. Mrs. Hale and I enjoyed it very much.

Our first stop was Keene, New Hampshire, June 26. We found Brother Redding and family busy getting ready for the Sabbath. They had other visitors, but they made us welcome.

Sabbath morning they brought the visitors with them to church. By a little after ten o'clock the church was pretty well filled. A number from the Washington church came down and we had a blessed day together. All but two or three who were not members reconsecrated all to God. Every one in attendance took part in the testimony meeting.

Sunday we went on to Brother Elliott's in Athens, Vermont. We spoke to a number of people at his home. We hope to have enough to make a good church here some day.

On our way to Jamaica, Monday, we had a good visit with Brother's Allen's family of the Townshend church. We had a good attendance both evenings at the Jamaica church. On the last evening Brother Knight, who had been elected elder of the Townshend church, came up and we ordained him to his office.

Wednesday and Thursday were spent with the Bennington company. We had two good meetings with them, one at Sister Jensen's and the other at Brother Bailey's in South Shaftsbury.

Friday we found Brother Covey quite busy in Rutland. We had a good meeting Sabbath with the church. Almost every member took part in the social meeting. A good spirit is manifest here on the part of the church. Brother Covey will soon have some Bible studies started. We hope to see people taking their stand in the near future.

Sabbath, July 10th, was spent with the Concord and Manchester churches. At Concord every heart seemed to be touched. All testified that it was a good meeting. Members continue to move away and this is weakening this church. Pray that the Lord may provide help to keep this church built up.

At Manchester Brother Howe seems to keep courageous, and while here also members are moving away, yet they are of good courage. A few good active faithful members can do wonders in the way of keeping up the spiritual interest of a company.

Sabbath, July 17, we will be with the Randolph church. I am now just ready to start up there. After the convention at Cady's Falls, July 24, I want to spend some time looking for Sabbath keepers around Silvers Mills and Dover-Foxcroft. If we can have a meeting I hope we may do this. From here I will visit around Ridgely.

Following that will come camp-meeting. Word comes to me that there is a good interest in campmeeting this year. Many are making inquiry about accommodations. Write in early for your tents and rooms. Look for more about this next week. D. U. Hale.

SUNBEAMS

Elder H. P. Gram and his family arrived in Rochester this week. Our Home Missionary Department has been without a head for quite a long time. We are pleased that Elder Gram will take charge of this work again. His first effort will be in Harvest Ingathering. Let us all support him heartily in this campaign and see how quickly we can reach and pass our goal of $12,000.

The Harvest Ingathering magazines are here. We shall be pleased to send you a quantity so that you may start work at once. Now is the time to start.

Two full carloads of camp-meeting equipment are now on their way from Rochester to Pine Tree Academy. Another month from now many of our people will be on their way to our yearly camp-meeting. You can not afford to lose the spiritual uplift of this meeting. May we pitch a tent for you? Come and renew your acquaintance with God, and with your friends.

Miss Jessie Bragan arrived in our conference this week to take up the magazine work in some of our larger cities. Miss Bragan has had a good deal of experience in this work, and we are confident of her success.

Several orders have come in for the "Big Three" this past week. You can now get the "Review," "Life and Health," and the "Liberty" magazines for a year for only $3.00. After ordering the "Big Three" some have written that they were not receiving the "Liberty" magazine. Please remember this is a quarterly magazine, and is sent out once in three months.

Several of our colporteurs are making their deliveries just now. Satan works hard to cause many not to accept the books they have ordered. Our colporteurs report good success in delivering, however. Let us continue to pray for them.

Several of our churches have been disappointed in not receiving their Picture Roll for the third quarter. The reason is the supply at the publishing house was not large enough. In order to avoid a repetition of this disappointment, we suggest that you allow us to place a standing order for your Picture Roll. You will then be sure of it each quarter, and the price is only $1.07 each quarter. When ordered singly these rolls cost $1.25. So send us a standing order, please.

Rev. 14:6 "And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people." This is the work that God has given Seventh-day Adventists to do.

Those who attended the General Conference or read the bulletins could not help having two facts pressed home: first, we are doing a wonderful work in many lands; in the second place, so many opportunities are opening to us and we hear so much of the millions and millions who know nothing of Christ and our message that we can not help realizing that there is a great work yet to be accomplished. In fact, as I read the reports and appeals I could not help feeling that God was opening the world to us in such a way that we who are in this message now must feel about as the brethren did when they sent the first missionary to Europe. At first America was their vision of the field, then Europe opened, and then one by one the other continents opened, until today we are face to face with a world task.

Such a task will call for every resource that we have. It will call for our strength, our wealth, and our families. We must face such a task understandingly. We must plan and work and sacrifice. We must put all upon the altar in loyal devotion to the cause that is ours,—the giving of the judgment message

Pettengill.—Mrs. Susan E. Pettengill, widow of Samuel Pettengill, was born Jan. 19, 1839, and passed away May 27, 1926. All, or nearly all, of her eighty-seven years were spent on Cliff Island, Maine. Sister Pettengill had not been well for nearly twenty years and never enjoyed very good health, although she lived to the ripe old age of eighty-seven. During the last seven years of her life she made her home with Brother Alpheous Griffin and wife. She leaves to mourn, one brother, two sons, four grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren, many of whom were gathered in the little church at Cliff Island, when the writer spoke words of comfort to those assembled. We laid our sister, who has been many years in this truth, to rest in the little cemetery on the Island, to await the call of the Life-giver.

N. E. SANITARIUM AND HOSPITAL

The number of patients who registered at the sanitarium during the past four weeks is one hundred and eleven. The average length of stay of each patient since January 1, has been twenty-six days.

The drought which had begun to effect the growing crops has been broken by recent copious rains and everything on the sanitarium farm, orchard, and gardens has taken on new life. An abundant supply of strawberries and other small fruits is being enjoyed, and the farm and orchard give promise of a splendid harvest at the end of the season.

Nothing is a greater inspiration to the members of the medical staff and their associate workers to reach the ideals which the New England Sanitarium and Hospital is seeking to attain than are many of the letters of appreciation from former guests. We trust the writer of the following letter will pardon the liberty we are taking in publishing it.

"Rev. Dear Sir:

Charles L. Kilgore, Treasurer.

"I am sure you have never had a more skeptical person enter your doors than I, for I went against the wishes of my friends, after hearing an unfavorable report, which I now know was untrue,—and it is such a pity that a place like the sanitarium with such high ideals should be at all misrepresented.

"I smile when I think of the tact and diplomacy of the young man who showed me the rooms, and I'm sure I exhausted his full supply of patience. Only when he assured me that I might leave at any time did I decide to stay.

"I should like to tell you the whole experience in detail, but it would take too long. The outstanding facts which remain with me are these: Dear, kind Mrs. Robinson who mothered me from the first; Dr. Fisher's understanding and patience; the courtesy of the nurses without exception; the kindly, efficient hostess in the dining room and the enjoyable guests I met there; the well-prepared, good tasting food, and my menus carefully marked by the dietitian. I must say this experience has given me my first real faith in the illusive vitamins, A and B, etc. I don't forget how I liked the little call boys, and how much I admired the little fellow who refused a fifty cent piece which I offered him.

"I have told you all this without mentioning the one thing which most impressed me,—the quiet, religious atmosphere of the place. One guest said to me, 'I have lived all my life with

Christians and I have never seen Christianity lived until I came here.'

"There is a great deal more that I could write,—Mrs. Clapp's hospitality and enjoyable quick wit,—and much more if time and space allowed. I shall very much enjoy the 'Health Educator' and thank you for sending it to me."

"Cordially yours,"

A. T. Robinson.

ATLANTIC UNION COLLEGE

The work of getting ready for the opening of the new school year is going steadily forward.

Applications are coming in every day, and the prospects for a full school are very encouraging.

Students desiring work should make their application during the first two weeks of August. This gives us time to plan for them.

Students who are doing colporteur work are meeting with success, and we expect the largest number of scholarships in the history of the school. There is yet time to earn at least a half scholarship. See your field agent and make the effort.

It is indeed a pleasure to know that the graduates from Atlantic Union College are finding work in the cause. Out of the College graduating class of 1926, there are ministers, teachers, stenographers, bookkeepers, joining the ranks in God's service. The year 1927 will witness a like company. Do you not want to join them? Come along.

B. F. Machlan, President.
