WHAT ARE YOU DOING WITH YOUR SPARE MOMENTS?

Are you one of those who just failed to get to a Christian school this year? Do you know we have a school that you can attend? Do you know that you can make a program light enough to fit in with anything you are now doing?

It is possible to drift on through the year and have no school credit to show for it. While waiting for the second semester at the College or academy to open, why not take a short study at home through the Fireside Correspondence School?

Whatever you do, don't drift!

"It is entirely proper for a piece of wood to drift on the water. It cannot do anything else. It has no wisdom to choose the better way and no power to resist the force of the current in which it finds itself. It has no responsibility for its own movements, and is not to blame if it floats idly about in a wild torrent. It is right enough for a piece of wood to be a waif.

"But is is altogether different with a man. Drifting is very unworthy in him. It is intended that he should choose his own direction and forge his own course, whatever way the tides may be running or the winds be blowing. Man was made to be master, not a mere creature of circumstances."—Miller.

Stem the tide by a study with the Fireside. Send today for a catalogue. Address, Fireside Correspondence School, Takoma Park, D. C. N. H. Saunders.

MISSION PLEDGES

The very interesting and profitable meeting which we held the last Sabbath of campmeeting, at which time the Spirit of God demonstrated its presence by impressing our hearts to give liberally to the advancement of the work of the Lord, is still very fresh in my memory. All who were present recognized that it was an extraordinary meeting. Our hearts were made tender as we felt the need of great sacrificing.

The result of that meeting was $3000 in pledges for foreign missions. These pledges were to be paid before the close of this year. Approximately $1600 of these pledges are still unpaid. We feel certain that you who gave the pledges fully expect to meet them within the next few weeks; but the object of this notice is to invite those who were not with us at campmeeting and who did not pledge themselves to real sacrificing, to also join with us and give liberally to the cause of missions before the close of this year.

Pay your pledges to your church treasurer and mark your envelope in such a way that your treasurer may know that the money is to cover your pledge made at campmeeting. This will assure you of receiving your receipted pledge card.

You will be interested to learn that our mission offerings to date give our conference a per capita of 47c per week. We do have an opportunity of increasing this so that our good Northern New England Conference may take its place with other conferences of the Atlantic Union and have the satisfaction of knowing that we have finally reached our full 60c a week. F. D. Wells.

MISSIONARY VOLUNTEER HARVEST INGATHERING

We have just been looking over the figures sent in by our Missionary Volunteers on their Harvest Ingathering goals. We are glad to find that on our conference goal of $1000 for our young people, an amount of more than $580 has already been reported to us. Now we must make a real effort by the grace of God to quickly gather in the remainder of our goal,—$420.

Our isolated young people are making progress in carrying their share of the work. For example, a letter just came in from Greensboro, Vermont, where there is a small company of believers and only a few young people, stating that these young people have already turned in $33 for the Ingathering. We believe that the blessing of God rests upon our young people who are far from any church and without the privilege of regular meetings, but who nevertheless go out to work in His cause. May the Lord bless their efforts.

Last Sunday I was out working with one of our Juniors. He told me, when we met to exchange experiences, that in one house when he had shown his Ingathering paper and asked for an offering, the lady said, "Well, I have only a little change, which I was saving up for the Sunday newspapers. But I suppose it will do me more good to read about the missionaries; so here is the money." I am sure that the paper did help her.

There is a blessing in the Ingathering work. There is a blessing for the one who gives, and a blessing for the one, whether young or old, who goes out to gather for the missions. Have you received this blessing yet?

HONOR ROLL

(Churches Over Quota, $11.54 per Member)

Lebanon
Elmore Company
Keene
Lewiston
Gardiner
East Hardwick
Falmouth
Richmond
Pine Tree Academy

Falmouth, Richmond and Pine Tree Academy went "over the top" in a hurry last week, and that's the way we like to see the Ingathering move, isn't it?

There are several more churches that should be listed on the honor roll at the close of this week if they will just make one leap to carry them "over the top." Why not do it?

We are glad to report over $7,500 Ingathering funds turned into the treasury at the close of week ending Oct. 6. We should be gathering approximately $1,000 a week from now until the close of the campaign. We can do it, brethren and sisters, if all will get under the burden and lift together. Have you done your part yet? We need the loyal support of every member in the conference to reach our conference goal—$13,500.

Isolated members, please turn in your Harvest Ingathering money at as early a date as possible.

Another interesting item we wish to note is the fact that Elder H. P. Gram's district is only about $300 short of the quota for the entire district. We expect to hear him sing the song of victory soon. Next week?

Let us make October our big month for the Ingathering. We reached our conference goal early in November last year. Why not do it again this year? Help boost your church over the top. Every member should be stirred to action at this time of a greater need of souls dedicated to the Master's service, and of funds to heed the cries of thousands, yea millions, who are pleading to know about Jesus, the Saviour of men.

Pine Tree Academy Field Day

Monday evening, October 8, everything was set for a field day Tuesday. A total of forty-four young people signified their desire to go out to gather funds for the advancement of the Lord's cause. The problem was not how many would be willing to answer the call to service, but rather how to provide transportation for all who wanted to go.

It was the scheme of someone to get us all up bright and early Tuesday morning, and, in order to accomplish this task, just about the break o' day the fire gong began to ring and ring, and ring, which was immediately interpreted as signifying a fire drill. We understand that the students did well in the drill, hurrying very orderly to the "fire", but as visitors "weary and foot-sore" we fell into a semi-conscious ecstasy with this thought—"If the building burns, we'll burn with it."

Rain, more rain, and then rain started off the day. The clouds were black and they hung low and heavy. It was a problem at worship time to decide whether we should go or stay. We knew the Lord knew all about the plans for the day, how much work it meant to get a student body ready for the field day. It was work for Him that we were going to do that day; so we just left it with the Lord, knowing that He had power over the "Prince of the air." Seven car loads, including the Academy truck, headed in as many different directions, and by the time we reached our destination and started to work, the sun was shining.

The Lord not only blessed us with sunshine, but when all the cars returned at the close of the day, it was found that a total of over $214.00 had been gathered that day, which put Pine Tree Academy "over the top" on their quota of $276.96 with an overflow of about $50.00. Every one went to bed tired, but happy.

V. C. Townsend.

WILL THE CONFERENCE REACH THE INGATHERING GOAL?

Reader, will you answer this question in the affirmative? With God's help we as a conference can reach it even though some members and churches seem to be going slow. Brethren and sisters, God has outlined the program for us. It is not man's devising, and it seems to me that the sooner we as individuals line up with God's program better progress will be made.

More than $8000 has been given to apply toward our goal, leaving approximately $5000 yet to be raised. Let us turn this money into the treasury this month and release our conference laborers for evangelistic work for the last two months of this year. It seems to me we are retarding the work of the Lord by stretching our campaign out too long.

The following churches have reached their quota:

E. Hardwick	$21.30
Lebanon	20.03
P. T. Academy	15.15
Gardiner	14.34
Lewiston	12.69
Keene	12.08
Falmouth	11.91
Rochester	11.71
Richmond	11.62
Bordoville	11.54

What others have done you can do and by so doing place our good old New England Conference on vantage ground.

AT PINE TREE ACADEMY

Wednesday evening, October 17, during the supper and worship hour, the teachers and students held a welcome and farewell reception in the chapel. We very much regret losing Miss Ruth Bunston who is leaving our school in response to a call to Atlantic Union College. A gift was presented to Miss Bunston by the principal in behalf of the teachers and students as a partial expression of our appreciation and well wishes as she leaves her work as French teacher and preceptress. An equally cordial welcome was extended to Miss Myrle Tatro of Enosburg Falls, Vermont, who is taking the work Miss Bunston lays down. Miss Tatro is a graduate of Pine Tree Academy of several years ago and more recently of the Oshawa Missionary College.

Our school family was very much pleased to have President and Mrs. O. M. John and daughter and Miss Aldridge of the College spend the week-end of October 13 with us. President John spoke to our church on Sabbath and to the students at vesper service. We hope they will come again, and we also look forward to sending our fine graduating class of about fifteen on to the college next year for more preparation before entering the Lord's work.

Pine Tree Academy has exceeded by nearly $100 the Harvest In-gathering goal. The school has set a new mark for missions and this entire amount was raised on two field days and one Saturday night.

Our enrollment is now 68. The grades offered are 9-12 inclusive.

Last week we installed a new water filter. With our new pump this ought to insure us an improved supply of clean water.

Brother Strand, who has a nursery at New Gloucester, visited us the other day. He is planning to landscape the lawns and grounds this fall. Contributions of seeds, shrubs, or bulbs will be gladly received, for we are endeavoring to beautify our grounds and surroundings as much as possible.

The crops are nearly all harvested and in good condition. The silo is full with an overflow of corn, the potatoes are in the cellar, and the threshing was finished last Tuesday. We shall have bushels and bushels of carrots, beets, parsnips, turnips, cabbages, etc., for consumption in the dining room this winter. Everyone is hard at work and we solicit your continued prayers for your school.

Kenneth A. Wright,
Principal.

I just wish to call your attention to these last figures—only short $294.08 of reaching the Sabbath school share of the 60c-a-week-fund. And only $294.08 short of meriting the "Loyal-To-Missions" banner awarded by the General Conference to the conferences that reach their Sabbath school quota. And every conference in the Atlantic Union has merited a banner except Northern New England, and we almost did it this last quarter which closed with Sept. 30. But almost is but to fail, isn't it?

If everyone in the conference would give just .02 a week more than he did during the third quarter we shall reach our quota for the fourth quarter. Let's be loyal to our great missions program, brethren and sisters.

Many of our schools (25 in all) went over the 30c mark, and we certainly do appreciate their faithfulness. But, let's all try to do a little better during this present quarter, especially every school that is listed below the .30 per capita. Will you do it?.. Try and you will!

Our new Sabbath school slogan; adopted at the recent Fall Council-- No retreat! Let's be sure to advance during this last quarter, but let us not forget that it will take the co-operation of every member in the conference to make the advance.

Yours for advancing,

MISSIONARY VOLUNTEER
INGATHERING

Yes, we are still climbing the scale fast, Volunteers. The Temple Seniors surprised us with several hundred dollars more than we could have possibly estimated. No doubt, the Temple will have their $1,000 goal when this is in print. The First Brooklyn youth deserve much credit, too. Their enthusiasm and results are the highest ever. All watch the report for first Brooklyn next week! Middletown, too, gave us a wonderful lift. Others are storing surprises. Let the societies that started late now press right in and "push the battle to the gates." At the time of our Jubilee Rally, we hope to have the most inspiring report the youth of Greater New York have ever rendered. We have reached $4,000 for the M. V. Ingathering and expect to say more than this next week.

Our Schools

Our courage is high as we check over the many omens of progress in our school work. Never have we had a better group of teachers nor better cooperation on the part of our parents and children. Ridgewood has an active "Home and School Association. This feature, well organized, is now lending a strong background to the school. Its attendance is excellent, too. The Temple school may well be proud of its teachers and the strong work carried on. The Up-State schools bring cheer and courage to the two churches. Harlem has many improvements. Both academies have a good group of teachers and daily victories are apparent. On the whole, God has been good to our school program and to Him be the glory.

THE BIBLE YEAR

"Luke is the Gospel for the Greek: the rhetorical, philosophical, beauty-loving Greek. And as such it is wrought out with wondrous taste and symmetry.

"Renan, who calls Matthew the most important book in the world, because of its initial facts, terms Luke the most beautiful book in the world, both because of what it conveys, and the way the author conveys it. And he is right. It is the sweetest story ever told and no story was ever told more sweetly; its theme is beauty; its telling no less so; it is, in every way, perfect!

It is the man Christ Jesus that is presented here: the friend of sinners. Luke is ever talking of men, and to men. His genealogy goes back to Adam. Therefore it is the universal gospel. As says Hosea, 'I drew them with cords of a man' (11:4). 'Behold the man!'

"Luke was himself a kind physician, and he knew the symptoms of the world's disease, its wants and yearnings; and he introduces to us here the world's great Physician, meeting in full man's most clamorous needs. 'He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted; to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised' (4:18).

"It is the Gospel for the outcast of earth. It is Luke who tells of the Samaritan (10:33, cf. 9:52), and the publican (18:13), and the prodigal (15:11); of Zacchaeus (19:2), and the thief on the cross (23:43). He it is who has most to say for womankind (chaps. 1 and 2).

"It is the poetic Gospel. The great hymns of the church get their harmonies from the flood of songs from heaven with which the book opens: three angelic benedictions, addressed to Zacharias, Elizabeth, and Mary: a kind of divine oratorio. It opens with a song—'Glory to God'; it closes with a song—'Praising and blessing God.' The world has been singing ever since and all the bells sweetly ringing. 'Thank God for such a Gospel.'—J. W. Weddell.

GOOD NEWS

We are pleased to announce to our brethren and sisters in the Southern New England Conference, and our sister conferences, that we have reached our General Conference Ingathering quota of $10.00 per member, totaling $29,875.00, and more in the field that has not been reported. We are still pushing on and will soon reach our $12.00 per member which is our conference goal. The Lord has abundantly blessed us in our work and I believe He is pleased with the result.

This has meant much planning and a great deal of hard work on the part of our laborers. The local leaders and members have rendered valuable assistance and I feel they have been blessed for their sacrifice. If there are those who have not had a part in this good work, may the Lord give you courage to jump in and receive an inspiration which comes only by personal contact.

There are, however, a few churches that have not reached their full quota of $12.00 per member. We exhort you to finish your campaign quickly as possible, as the Red Cross and Salvation Army start their campaign Nov. 1. Do not wait for tomorrow, it may never come. Every member ought to be able to solicit his quota and not depend on his brother or sister to do it for him.

Joseph Schnetzler.

"A LITTLE BOY MADE WHOLE"

As Jesus came down from the mountain with Peter, James, and John, He came upon a scene of great confusion. Jesus saw the scribes surrounding the little group of disciples talking excitedly, and asked, "What question ye with them?" And one answered, "Master, I have brought my son unto thee which hath a dumb spirit. And wheresoever it taketh him he teareth him, and foameth and gnasheth with his teeth and pineth away."

Jesus said, "Bring him to me." And they brought him unto Him and when he saw Him straightway the spirit tare him and he fell on the ground and wallowed foaming. The father was in despair and cried, "If thou canst do anything have compassion on us and help us." "If thou canst believe," answered Jesus, "All things are possible to him who believeth." And straightway the father of the child cried out and said with tears, "Lord, I believe. Help thou mine unbelief." Never was such a cry unanswered.

The above is part of the chapter "Two Children Healed" in the new book that has just come from the press "The Children's Friend." This book is illustrated with beautiful pictures taken from the old book "Easy Steps" and cut down in size to match "Best Stories." It is the best presentation of the life of Jesus that has yet appeared for the price, which is $1.50.

All the home workers who have bought the cases and sets should add this new book to the set, for it is sure to be a wonderful seller; 192 pages, purple cover, and gold stamped. Order at once from Book and Bible House.

WE ARE ALL LOOKING FOR THIS

The one event that will satisfy every noble desire, consummate every hope, fulfill every prophecy, end every woe, reward every righteous effort, correct every injustice, obliterate every evil and banish forever the pangs of death from the universe of God, never, never to return again, is set forth by Elder C. S. Longacre in the November number of the Watchman Magazine.

Other articles of great importance that you will appreciate and that will be enlightening and beneficial to your neighbors, are written by Elders L. E. Froom, J. H. Shuler, A. W. Spalding, W. H. Branson and Dr. Daniel H. Kress, besides some very interesting contributions from Watchman representatives in different parts of the world. Order at once in lots of 10 or more at 10c each from your Book and Bible House.

HARVEST INGATHERING GOAL
ATLANTIC UNION CONFERENCE
FOR 1928

Reported to October 13, $84,213.98

With two conferences over their $10 per member quota and still pressing on toward higher achievements, and with the rest of the Union continuing to put forth a strong effort during this beautiful fall weather, surely we will pass our $100,000 in the near future. Interested people are being found throughout the field as the result of the campaign this year. While our thermometer records the dollars raised it is well to bear in mind that souls are being influenced here in the homeland.

C. A. Scriven.

ATLANTIC UNION COLLEGE

NEWS NOTES

At the Wednesday chapel hour Professor Higgins spoke to the student body. Following his remarks a farewell program was given. Mr. Burdick and Miss Haskin expressed the appreciation of the student body for the faithful service Professor and Mrs. Higgins have rendered. While their loss will be deeply felt it will result in binding the hearts of the students to the great mission field beyond. President John presented them with the school gift,—a beautiful steamer rug and a pretty white baby blanket for little Miss Higgins. Professor and Mrs. Higgins have left to spend a few weeks visiting relatives before sailing to their new field of labor, Solusi Mission, Africa.

Professor and Mrs. Howard have moved into the preceptor's apartment in West Hall. We welcome these faithful workers as they join the College family and bespeak for them a pleasant and helpful school year.

Miss Ruth Bunston, recent preceptress at Pine Tree Academy, arrived at South Lancaster Friday afternoon to take up her work as instructor of French and expression. We appreciate the presence of Miss Bunston as she takes up the important class work laid down by Professor Higgins and Miss Morgan, who have left us for service elsewhere.

The Friday night service was conducted by Professor Armstrong. A hearty response in testimonies was given by students and teachers present. These Friday night meetings are of vital importance to the College in encouraging deeper spiritual life in the College, and giving opportunity for personal expression.

Professor M. E. Cady met with the classes in expression and pastoral training last Tuesday and Thursday giving special instruction affecting the line of study pursued in each class.
