GENERAL ARTICLES

MY RECENT TRIP TO MAINE

It was my privilege to spend a few days with Elder F. D. Wells in the state of Maine. We were accompanied by Brother Dalrymple on our trip over to Bangor, where Elder O. D. Cardey has been carrying on a public effort for some time. You have been reading the accounts of this effort and of the way in which that city and other towns about there were pretty much stirred about the Sabbath question. Elder Cardey, we find, has done very faithful work in this city and there is a good interest. We hope to see still others brought into the church.

A new church was organized at this place with a membership of 42. It was a blessed privilege to unite with the brethren in the organization of a church of this size, mostly new believers, in this important city in Maine. All but eight of these are new in the faith, eight having been brought into the new organization by letter. A full corps of officers was elected and delegates were selected for the coming conference. I share with the laborers of the Northern New England Conference, with Elder O. D. Cardey and Brother E. J. Clark, who has been associated with him, and with the believers of the entire field in rejoicing to see a new church of this size organized in eastern Maine. And it is my prayer that we may see still other equally encouraging developments in the work in other places.

We went on from Bangor to Camden where we held a few meetings with the Camden church. Brother V. C. Townsend and his wife have been conducting an effort in this place and the Lord has abundantly blessed their labors. We have a neat little church building in Camden, and I was pleased to see the house well filled when speaking to them at a meeting Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon we went to a beautiful spot out about three miles from Camden where a baptismal service was held. A large gathering of people was present and the scene was a most impressive one as Elder F. D. Wells took charge of the baptismal service. We are glad to report the addition of 24 new believers by baptism to the Camden church. We rejoice with Brother and Sister Townsend in this splendid ingathering of souls. There are still others to be baptized and brought in later at this place.

I learned from Elder Wells that during the last few weeks, baptismal services have been held by Elder Capman at Portland and Elder Gram at Brunswick, bringing the total of new baptized believers up to 79. I feel to praise the Lord for these evidences of the outpouring of His Spirit upon our work here in the homeland, and especially in this territory where the message had its beginning and has been known so many years. Let us take courage and press to the front in our soul-winning endeavors throughout the field.

BIG WEEK REPORT

The Lord has blessed us richly in our Big Week effort thus far this year. The remittances to the Union office from our conferences to the close of May are $18,834.33, or a gain of $3,445.57. Our total at the close of last year was a little over $20,000. When the June remittances reach our office we should have in hand close to $23,000. This will depend upon the faithfulness of those in our churches who have not yet had a part in the Big Week effort and the additional lifts made by some who have already worked and contributed liberally. These funds will mean much to the strengthening of our work in the mission fields, and thus the hastening of our Lord's return.

C. A. Scriven.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION PAYS

We hold 85 per cent of youth trained in our Christian schools. We lost 65 per cent of youth not trained in our Christian schools.

We recommend to parents and youth:—

Atlantic Union College, South Lancaster, Mass.

Union Springs Academy, Union Springs, N. Y.

Pine Tree Academy, Auburn, Me.

Greater New York Academy, Washington and Gates Avenues, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Harlem Academy (Colored), 108 West 127th St., New York City.

Why not write to the school in your territory for catalog and information, and make plans now to attend next year.

"Let the youth who need an education set to work with a determination to obtain it. Do not wait for an opening; make one for yourselves. Take hold in any small way that presents itself. Practice economy."—"Christ's Object Lessons," p. 333.

"Remember that you will never reach a higher standard than you yourself set. Then set your mark high, and step by step, even though it be by painful effort, by self-denial and sacrifice, ascend the whole length of the ladder of progress. Let nothing hinder you. Fate has not woven its meshes about any human being so firmly that he need remain helpless and in uncertainty . . . . Press with determination in the right direction, and circumstances will be your helpers, not your hindrances."—Id., p. 331.

"In order that the work may go forward in all its branches God calls for youthful vigor, zeal and courage. He has chosen the youth to aid in the advancement of His cause. Young men and woman are invited to give God the strength of their youth."—"Counsels to Teachers," p. 535.

"The uneducated man who is consecrated to God and who longs to bless others can be, and is, used by the Lord in His service. But those who, with the same spirit of consecration, have had the benefit of a thorough education, can do a much more extensive work for Christ. They stand on vantage-ground."—"Christ's Object Lessons," p. 333.

Do not wait, plan now to obtain the advantages of a Christian school next year, and fit yourself for more efficient service. N. H. Saunders.

A WORD TO THE STUDENT COLPORTEURS

If you are interested in tasting life—go sell. If you want to learn how much your training has meant—go sell. If you want to devote yourself to a life of constant service you will find no greater field than gospel salesmanship. If you want the glory that comes to the pioneer—start selling. If you have longed for battle, you will find shrapnel and shell awaiting you. If you want to scatter sunshine and peace you will find a storehouse at your disposal. If you want to live—go sell.

To those heroic souls that must pass into obscurity by devoting their lives to service I promise the greatest reward—development of character, the most precious and treasured gem of gems.

Discard egotism, clothe yourself in confidence and go sell. Let Faith be your trusty sword, Industry your fiery steed and Service your emblazoned banner. With these sally forth into the Battle of Life, and you will emerge the Victor. If, in addition, you will reinforce yourself with enthusiasm, an indomitable courage, and faith of conviction, I will further promise that you will build a character that will manifest itself through betterment of the world and human progress.

In serving, your reward will not be computed by the blows you inflict, but by the scars you show the world. By serving, you can so live that monuments will not have to be erected to remind posterity of the good you do. You can make your life one long day of service which will erect a monument in the hearts of your fellowmen that will stand as a Gibraltar, invulnerable against time.

So young man, or woman, if you want to live a life of service—go sell.—Selected.

THE WORK IN THE UTICA DISTRICT

It has been a long time since the writer has had the privilege of visiting the Utica district, so it was surely a pleasure for the treasurer, Brother Osterblom, Brother Nosworthy, of the office staff of workers, and I to be present at the baptism conducted by Elder Rice in Rome, Sabbath, June 8.

It was a beautiful day, and a most gratifying sight out in the open water to see twenty dear souls follow their Lord in this sacred ordinance. There was a large delegation of our people present from different parts of the district to witness the scene.

This is a large number to go forward at one time, but Elder Rice informs me there are at least a dozen or more who are preparing for baptism later on. I was favorably impressed by the fact that the greater number of the candidates were well matured in years, one of them being the wife of a minister.

At the Utica service, Elder Rice took pains to give due credit to the faithful Bible worker, Sister Helen Armstrong, also the various church workers, for their part in helping save these souls. This is as it should be, for no one of us does it all in the work of rescuing souls.

We were pleased to note that several of those baptized were found first through the Big Week and Harvest Ingathering campaigns; thus proving that such efforts have far more than a mere money importance.

Brother Rice informs us that the Rome membership is now 48, Utica 74, being the highest points these churches have reached for a number of years. Whereas the membership of the entire district a few years ago was about 130, it is now 200, thus it will soon be pressing close to the larger districts.

We are gratified as we witness this excellent growth, while the Big Week and other campaigns are being kept up at the same time. It is a healthy growth, higher than the average seen in some other parts of the field. Not having said much about the work in this district, and but little about these faithful laborers, it gives me pleasure to tell our people of the good work going on in the Utica district.

May the Lord continue to give Elder Rice and Sister Armstrong much fruit for their labors, is my prayer.

J. K. Jones.

CAMPMEETING NOT TWO WEEKS AWAY JUNE 28-JULY 7

Only a few days now and camp-meeting will have begun. The opening service will be held Friday evening, June 28, as the Sabbath of the Lord begins—surely a fitting time for the first meeting. I would urge all who are coming to plan to at least arrive here early enough Friday or even Thursday, so they can get located satisfactorily before the Sabbath. If you have a tent, ask for Brother C. E. Eldridge who will locate you. If you are in the dormitory, Brethern Sevrens and Field will take care of you, while Brother H. W. Walker will look after your interests if you have a room in the village.

Orders for tents and rooms are flowing in upon us, and now that good weather is here we look for a good attendance. Come and stay all through the meeting, for there is

MAKE JUNE VICTORY MONTH

Almost daily now Big Week victories are being reported. Sister Arquitt and Brother Walthousen are the last two sending in cheering message, enrolling our Canton and Amsterdam churches in the victory column. Very soon now June will be over. Will your church be listed with the winners then? Have you done your part to make our 1929 campaign for our Missions Extension Fund the best of all?

Have you sold at least 10 sets of Big Week books or its equivalent in magazines? If you have and your name has not been sent in, we would like to receive it for our final Light-bearers' Honor Roll.

Are You Bearing in Mind June 22

the advance date for our Thirteenth Sabbath Offering? Let us do nobly for needy India then; and then let us all aim for perfect records in the new quarter.

Campmeeting Date, June 28-July 7

Of course all who possibly can do so, are planning to attend campmeeting, for an unusual feast of good things is in store for us again.

Excellent help will be in attendance for young and old. We hope to have some good officers' meetings again so bring along your problems. Be sure to bring the children and allow them to share in the blessings of the meeting also. Miss Kite, our church school teacher from Rome, will have charge of the children's tent; and Miss Seitz, one of our Rochester teachers, will again make the hours pleasant and profitable for those of kindergarten age. Both are enlisting volunteers of experience to help them so your children will be in competent hands.

Let us earnestly pray for showers of blessing for us all.

LAST MINUTE ANNOUNCEMENT FOR CAMPMEETING

Every conference worker is taxed to the utmost to accomplish in the next few days before campmeeting, what is necessary to have the encampment in readiness for the large attendance expected for the opening night, Thursday, June 20, 1929.

As the tent city of living accommodations is pitched on the street and alley plan, the tents being indicated by numbers, it will be easy to locate your tent. The comforts of the campers will be looked after by our own trusted watchmen.

The location of the camp site will make it more convenient to live in tents, as all conveniences will be right at hand. A grocery tent with a full supply of food necessities will be near the dining tent. Milk will be delivered every morning.

Necessary adjustments will be made for those who have already ordered rooms in the village and wish to live in the tent city. The reception tent is at the very entrance of the grounds.

J. E. Edwards.

ATTENTION! MUSICIANS

June 20 is drawing nearer—and so is campmeeting. All predictions point to this coming assembly of devotional hearts as the most inspiring in recent years, and plans are being formed to make this the greatest and most helpful soul-winning revival in our memory.

To accomplish this successfully, music must hold a prominent part, and that is to be one of the outstanding features of this meeting. All of our people who play instruments sufficiently well to take part in the orchestra are urged to bring their instruments and some music with them for the large, augmented band. All singers will please make their presence known.

Remember campmeeting begins Thursday. Come and stay for as many meetings as possible, and take a personal part in the Lord's service.

Harry Hadley Schyde,
Musical Director.

ITEMS

By the time you read these notes your campmeeting will be ready for your presence. Plan now to attend. Order one of the large tents, with accommodations for two families, stay on the grounds, attend every meeting in a real, old-fashioned campmeeting. A grocery tent will be on the grounds where you can get health foods, all groceries, milk, etc., at a very reasonable price, also cooked foods at the camp kitchen; and we believe that you can afford to come and stay the entire ten days. Remember we are here to please you and if everything for your convenience is not available on your arrival, let your wants be known and with the cooperation of your patience it will be adjusted to our mutual pleasure. Brother Butler and his helpers are anxious to please.

The beautiful new, roomy pavilion has been pitched and it will not leak.

The book tent will have on display a nice new Bible that will please you at $2.50 (made by the James Pott Co.). We will be glad to show it to you.

Friday was a busy day in the office, our young ladies, Miss Detamore and Miss Dawson worked up to nearly five o'clock to get out 2500 campmeeting letters with inserts.

Sabbath, the 15th, a special meeting was held at the first Seventh-day Adventist church, in the rural vicinity of Washington, N. H. About 35 automobiles from various points of the three states came for the second annual meeting at this house of worship. Some of the larger cars had trouble in making the last grade between the town of Washington and Mellon Pond, but with the assistance of Brother Farnsworth and his shovel, a small stretch of newly repaired road that was soft from the recent shower, was repaired and all arrived just a little late. Nearly every seat was taken, well over one hundred persons were present, and Elders E. K. Slade, G. W. Wells, F. D. Wells, H. P. Gram, H. H. Dexter, A. T. Robinson and Brethren E. E. Covey, V. O. Panches, V. C. Townsend and others were in attendance.

When one contemplates this humble beginning of the last great message going to a perishing world, and then thinks of what it has done for humanity in all the world, we say with men of old, "What hath God wrought."

We are much pleased to note the many renewals for the Review and Big Four that have reached the office during the past few days.

COLORED WORK IN NEW HAVEN

Knowing that the Gleaner family is always interested in the advancement of the message, I am giving a brief report of the progress of the work among the colored people of New Haven.

Thursday night, June 6, marked the close of a very successful school year. At that time an excellent program was given by the pupils under the direction of our faithful teacher, Mrs. Jennette Hill Anderson.

One of the important features was the presentation of a health play in which Mrs. Living-in-the-wrong-way, of Sickness Street and Grave Avenue, after following proper instruction in healthful living, changed her name and residence to Mrs. Living-in-the-right-way, of Health Street and Happiness Ave.

The following Sabbath after the close of Sabbath school the whole congregation went to the waters of the Sound. There, seated under several stately elm trees, we listened to a brief sermon by Elder H. D. Greene. At exactly noon, when the bright rays of the midday sun shown beautifully on the silver waters of the sea, the first candidate was buried with his Lord in baptism. Nine others followed. We were reminded of the time when John was preaching and baptizing in the Jordan. We all knew that the Lord was with us and many of the believers consecrated themselves to the Lord, while unbelievers were deeply impressed.

THE LAST CALL TO THE FEAST

The Lord has blessed us with beautiful weather to erect the camp. At this writing, Friday, June 14, we are very happy to see the progress that has been made. Every little tent, with the exception of three, is pitched and ready for occupancy. The dining room is ready, the platform is built for the auditorium, and the seats are all placed. It seems now that we will be well prepared to receive our guests as they arrive next Thursday. Dear reader, we want you to join with us and receive the blessing that awaits those who are ready to receive it. Jesus will be here through His Holy Spirit to impress our hearts that we need to be ready to greet Him when He comes in the clouds of heaven.

The following letter has just been received from a dear sister who will miss the campmeeting this year: "Dear laborers in the cause of truth:

"For more than forty-five years I have been keeping the Sabbath. The first angel's message had an interest for me even from childhood. When I first began to read the Bible for myself I found the promise of a Saviour who would come again. Today, when I am more than eighty years old, that promise shines out from His Word even to me. It has been many years since I have attended campmeeting. Also many years since I have heard a sermon on present truth, but I am still trusting in Him who has been my keeper in the days that are past. I am almost entirely a shut-in not having been out of my dooryard for eighteen months. The hope of a soon-coming Saviour is precious to me today and I am trusting that I may be kept faithful. My own strength is dependent on the One who can keep me. If you wish you may read this letter at campmeeting as my message to you all."

Signed, Mrs. W. L. Coffee,

R. D. 2, Freeport, Me.

This is a splendid letter of courage to us. We are confident that there are many others in this field that are in similar circumstances with Sister Coffee. Would it not be a wonderful campmeeting if all of the old people who believe the message, and who live in our territory, could meet once again in campmeeting session. How they would enjoy it! While that is impossible it is with great anticipation that they look forward to the great reunion in the earth made new.

This will be the last call that we can give to you, brother, sister. From the number of tents and rooms that have already been ordered it now looks as if we would have a good attendance from our field. If you have not ordered your room or tent do so at once.

N. E. SANITARIUM AND HOSPITAL*NEWS ITEMS

The Sanitarium continues to enjoy an excellent patronage.

Mrs. A. T. Robinson recently joined Elder Robinson at their summer camp in New Hampshire.

Elder C. O. Perkins, wife and baby are also on a vacation. They have gone to Quebec Province, Canada. Elder C. L. Blandford, on furlough from China, is acting as chaplain during the absence of Elder Perkins.

Dr. Fisher and family have just returned from a week's vacation.

Prof. Harry Schyde entertained the patients in the parlor after vespers on Monday evening. His songs were very much appreciated.

On Thursday evening of last week the patients and family were entertained by a group of colored girl singers. Negro spirituals were pleasingly rendered.

On Thursday evening of this week Gunnar Ekman, a Swedish violinist, entertained in the gymnasium.

Helen Smith, daughter of Mrs. Smith, our housekeeper, and Mr. Laurel Smith of Melrose, and also a member of the Sanitarium family, were members of the graduating class of the Melrose High School.

Miss Frieda Schneider recently from Washington, D. C., has begun work as office nurse. We already hear good reports of her work.

Albert Conrad is our new elevator operator.

Brethren Dyer and Hodgkins, who have been connected with the Sanitarium family for a short time, went to Bangor for the week-end. They expected to be baptized by Elder Cardey.

Dr. R. J. Brines, medical superintendent of the Wichita (Kansas) Sanitarium visited us on Sabbath. He is taking several weeks' post-graduate work in Boston.

Mr. Norman Bigart, a former member of our family, recently came on from his home in Honesdale, Pa., and has since been joined by Mrs. Bigart and their son. Mr. Bigart is driving a taxi for Mr. Holden, who telegraphed for him. Mr. Holden is pleased to secure such a reliable driver.

Miss Ellenora Thrush, former school nurse at South Lancaster, is now supervising in the Ladies' Treatment Room.

Miss Gertrude Green has returned from Worcester because of illness. Miss Green was among the affiliates at the Worcester City Hospital.

Mr. George Leslie and Mrs. Fred Green have recently undergone successful operations.

Mr. Cornforth, our chef, and New England's foremost dietician, expects to attend the graduation exercises at Colby College. This is the thirtieth anniversary of Mr. Cornforth's class at Colby.

Miss Silloway, late matron at Pine Tree Academy, is working under Mr. Cornforth for the summer. She is desirous of gaining experience in the culinary department.

The new team of horses recently purchased for the farm are proving to be good workers. The farm looks prosperous. Brother Osier says he expects a bumper crop of berries this year.

Arrangements have been completed whereby automobile tires may be purchased through the Sanitarium Purchasing Dept., at a liberal discount on the wholesale price. Anyone interested may write to the Sanitarium Store.

An Underwriter's Fire Pump, having a capacity of one thousand gallons per minute, and a Fairbank's Platform Scale, with a capacity of fifteen tons, are being installed in the engineering department. The installations are being superintended by Mr. H. B. Gardner, our chief engineer.

Brother Webster says the sanitarium laundry is averaging three thousand pieces of flat work each day.

Brother and Sister Alexander Houghton, of New Haven, and Elder and Mrs. H. D. Greene, of Boston, visited the sanitarium recently. Brother and Sister Houghton and Sister Greene took medical examinations preparatory to going to mission fields.

H. M. Fleming of Union Springs, N. Y., registered at the Sanitarium on Tuesday.

June 11, the occasion of the birthday of our manager, Mr. Place, the office force had a little picnic down on the shore.

Several student nurses have arrived to enter the new class. They are: Thelma Guild, Washington, D. C.; Miss Affolter, Rome, N. Y.; Mrs. Martha Montgomery, Bangor, Me.; Mary Muckenheiter, Dayton, Ohio; and Miss Edna Powell of the Sanitarium. C. L. Blandford.

THE UNANIMOUS VOICE OF OUR PRESIDENTS FOR LIBERTY

Do you know what Washington, Jefferson, Monroe, Lincoln, Taft, Coolidge, and other presidents had to say about religious liberty? The The July Watchman presents the direct testimony of each of these men.

Francis D. Nichol, associate editor of The Review and Herald, in his July article shows how the calendar reform plan presents a predicament for Sunday keepers, and observes that they are strangely silent at the prospect of a "Wandering Sabbath."

Are "Know Thyself" and "Cleanliness is next to godliness" in the Bible? In his article "Quaint Ideas about Religion and the Bible," John L. Shuler answers these questions, and corrects other common erroneous ideas.

"Would You be Beautiful?" Then seek health first. Science is discovering that what we eat goes far toward determining character and looks asserts Hans S. Anderson, dietician, in his July article.

"Lions all About" is the title of a thrilling account of missionary experiences by William H. Branson.

We would like to tell you more about the good things in the July Watchman, out June 12, but you had better get it and read it. Then get out and sell a number to your friends and neighbors.

Many of our sisters are earning their sixty cents a week for missions selling The Watchman. It only means selling 16 a month. Why not earn your mission funds in a missionary way?

The Watchman is 25¢ a single copy. 10¢ each in lots of 10 or more, $1.00 a year. Order a liberal supply of the July Watchman through your Book & Bible House.

WARREN.—George Hinman Warren was born in Deerfield, N. Y., in 1860, and died of pneumonia June 1, 1929. Early in life Brother Warren united with the Free Methodist Church, and a few years later accepted the third angel's message, continuing an earnest believer and worker in the message for more than forty years. For about ten years Brother Warren carried the responsibility of leadership in the company in Utica, and then, as the company grew into a church, for years he served as deacon and treasurer. Several times he was elected to the conference committee. Always he carried a burden for the young people and always stood ready to do anything he could to help. A wife, a son, a daughter, a granddaughter and a great-grandchild mourn their loss, and the church feels keenly the loss of one who was felt by all to be an earnest Christian. A message of comfort was given from Isaiah 57:12, and we laid him away with the bright hope of coming up at the call of the Life-giver.

STEVENS.—George V. Stevens was born in Pierrepont, N. Y., October 31, 1894, and died October 2, 1928 of drowning. After fruitless efforts to recover the body, Brother and Sister Stevens and Sister Myrtle Stevens of Saranac Lake were compelled to wait through the winter until the body was found May 24, many miles from where the accident occurred. The burial took place May 26. It was a beautiful, sunny day, and the funeral services were conducted by the grave side, where a large number of relatives and friends gathered to express their sympathy. A message of hope was given from Hebrews 2:14,15. Our hearts go out to Brother and Sister Stevens in their grief for their son, and to Sister Myrtle Stevens as she mourns for her husband; and we long for that land where sorrows never come.

WEDDING

Beneath a green bower erected for the occasion at the Beckner homestead, at South Lancaster, Mass., Miss Mary Emmogene Bartle and Mr. Alfred Burnell Burdick were united in marriage, May 27, in the presence of numerous friends, among whom were President and Mrs. John and a large number of students of Atlantic Union College, of which institution Brother and Sister Burdick are graduates. At the conclusion of the ceremony, Professor Harry Hadley Schyde sang two beautiful selections.

Among those present from out of the state were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bartle, of Oxford, N. Y., parents of the bride, together with her brother, John, of Rochester, N. Y., and Mrs. Dixon, of Norwich, N. Y.

Confidence begotten by years of faithful service while students at Union Springs and South Lancaster, has led to the selection of Brother and Sister Burdick for places of responsibility on the faculty of Pine Tree Academy for the coming school year. As they go to their new field of labor we bespeak for them the rich blessing of God upon their united service in His cause.

James E. Schultz.

ON HIS FACE

There are two classes of students that will enter college or academy next fall with smiling faces,—those who have won scholarships, and those who have in their pockets Fireside certificates covering substantial school credits. Both have spent happy, purposeful summers, and are in the best of shape to go on with their school work. Their minds have a good cutting edge; their will power is at concert pitch, they are looking for new worlds to conquer.

Possibly the boys and girls with the broadest smiles on their young faces are those who belong to both classes. They won their scholarships, and in their spare moments they met the requirements of the new Fireside course in salesmanship. And they have a right to smile, for the salesmanship course not only yields two hours of college credit; but it increased their book sales and so made it easier to win the scholarship besides making the actual work of canvassing far more interesting.

Particulars of this salesmanship course may be had on application. Our new catalogue is now out, and should be in the hands of every wide-awake student. Write for it today, and tell us what especially interests you.

M. E. Olsen,

Fireside Correspondence School,
Takoma Park, Washington, D. C.

is the suggestion of the July color Signs cover, and the feature article is by Dr. G. H. Heald. It tells how we may have an enjoyable vacation and yet keep our health and strength. Other articles beautifully present the "lost time" question, sin—the world's worst disease, the war-peace paradox, and in a strong way refute the scoffings of modernists against miracles.

Only four cents each in lots of ten or more to one address. Ask your Bible House secretary for a liberal supply of the July color Signs.
