GENERAL ARTICLES

DEDICATION AT CONCORD

It was a great pleasure to me to join some of the workers of the Northern New England Conference in a dedicatory service at Concord, N. H., Sabbath, October 12. In the past years Concord has occupied rather an important place in this northern field, for it was the headquarters of the conference as it was organized at one time.

While we have had a company of believers at Concord, we have not had a church building of our own. Sometime ago a lot was purchased, but the congregation had not succeeded in building a church thereon. During the past summer it was learned that the city was about to sell by auction a church building that had formerly been built by the Baptists, which the city had used for school work for a time. Learning of this the conference officers attended the same and found that the property was going at a very reasonable price. It was purchased at that time. Elder H. P. Gram rallied the forces at Concord and they have placed this property in excellent repair, and on the date mentioned it was dedicated entirely free from debt.

On this occasion a number of important meetings were held during Sabbath and Sunday. Elder A. T. Robinson joined us in presenting a most encouraging and inspiring lesson. Elder F. D. Wells led out with helpful studies and plans for going forward with the work. Elder H. P. Gram is leading out for the accomplishment of a strong work in Concord, and has already begun a series of evangelistic meetings. He will appreciate the prayers of the people throughout the field in behalf of this important effort.

We are grateful indeed that this important city is provided with a former Adventist, Mrs. Crampton, recognized the paper, showed her interest and was rebaptized. Through her connection studies were begun, Elder King giving some and Brother Fagal finishing. Mrs. Senn attended and accepted the truth, being baptized a year or so later by Elder Capman.

A year ago Mrs. Senn went out in Big Week work and met a Mrs. Lake who bought not only Big Week books, but others as well. In the fall, when she was out in Harvest Ingathering work, she again called on Mrs. Lake and found her and her son convinced of the Sabbath. She continued calling on them and studying with them. Later they came from Mohawk to Utica to attend lectures Sunday nights a few times, the husband becoming deeply interested. Studies were commenced at their home by Brother Carelli, who could only go a few times. I then took them up shortly turning them into baptismal studies. For a time the husband struggled with his tobacco, finally coming out fully for the truth, and on June 8 I had the privilege of leading Brother and Sister Lake and their son, Richard, into the water together where they sealed their covenant with Jesus by baptism.

Last fall, in the Harvest Ingathering, Sister Armstrong called on a lady who had never made a profession of religion. She was receptive and Sister Armstrong called again, very neat and commodious church, located in a good section, which will add greatly to the efficiency of our work in Concord.

HOME MISSIONARY EXPERIENCES

(Related at New York Campmeeting by Elder W. W. Rice.)

Several years ago, when Elder King was stationed in Herkimer, a new Sabbath keeper, Sister Predmore went out in Harvest Ingathering work and met a Mrs. Robert Senn who donated and carried the paper she received to her sister, Mrs. Bartlett. In Mrs. Bartlett's home finally giving her a course of studies. She took her stand fully for the truth. Her wedding ring was deeply imbedded in her flesh. She had to have it filed off, the file cutting into the flesh as well as the ring. She also was baptized June 8 and is a very faithful earnest Adventist.

In Camden, a few years ago, Brother Twitchell did some very earnest work. One lady and her son became interested and began to study. When Brother Twitchell returned to Pulaski, Sister McIlroy continued the studies. A year ago, last September, I was privileged to baptize the mother and son, who have become very enthusiastic workers. Uniting with Sister McIlroy's efforts, another lady became interested and last year I gladly baptized her. Now, another lady has begun keeping the Sabbath and is looking forward to baptism. A good, strong Sabbath school of twelve to fifteen has been established and the interest is growing. I am hoping to be able to conduct an effort in Camden this fall to follow up the interest created by these faithful workers, and see a good, strong church organized.

NOTES

We have been pleased to have with us for the past ten days Elder F. C. Gilbert, who has been holding revival services in the First Brooklyn church every night and on two Sabbaths. These services have proved a great blessing not only to the members of this church but to many from other churches in the conference. A deeper work of grace has been started in many lives, we believe, through the splendid meetings which have been held. Elder Gilbert has also carried on special services during the chapel period of the Greater New York Academy during this same period. The students have been greatly blessed thereby.

It has been a pleasure to again welcome to our midst our former president, Elder C. B. Haynes, who has been with us the past few days with his wife. Their son, Donald, has returned to the Atlantic Union College to finish his education, after spending 2 years in South America in evangelistic lines of work. Elder Haynes preached in the Temple last Sabbath, spoke to the Senior young people in the afternoon and also took part in the dedication service of the First Brooklyn church. His messages of missionary progress in the Neglected Continent were a great uplift to our people.

Elder C. A. Scriven, Home Missionary secretary of the Union Conference was a welcome visitor in our field this week. He preached in the Cedar Manor church on Sabbath morning, and was present at the dedication service in the afternoon. His help in our churches is always appreciated.

We were glad to have Elder W. A. Spicer, our General Conference president, with us upon the occasion of the dedication of the First Brooklyn church last Sabbath afternoon. His dedicatory sermon was most inspiring. A more detailed report of this important service will be forthcoming soon for the Gleaner readers.

Let all our people put their shoulders to the wheel of progress in the mission fields through the finishing off of our Harvest Ingathering effort. We are a little delayed in our start this year, but the way the funds are coming in it seems sure that we will reach our goal if our people keep up their present pace until the work is accomplished. Let us not let up until the report is given that the goal has been fully reached. The goal this year is $30,000 for the conference, and although your church may have reached its goal we trust our workers and people will keep right on so that those who have not reached their goal may feel encouraged to continue. Let the strong help the weak so that there will be no slump this year.

Evangelistic meetings are being conducted in many places in the conference during these fall months. Beginning Sunday night, Oct. 20, Elder D. P. Wood, pastor of the First Brooklyn church, began his fall effort in his newly acquired church. We are looking for a good influx of souls through this effort held for the first time in this commodious church. Elder O. J. Dahl, pastor of the Danish-Norwegian church, will open his fall meetings in his new church on Sunday night, Oct. 27, following the dedication services. Elder A. O. Lund, pastor of the Swedish churches, is arranging for hall meetings to begin very soon on Sunday nights. These meetings will doubtless be held in Manhattan. Elder Catalano, pastor of the Italian churches, is now holding regular Sunday evening services. Elder W. A. Ralls, in charge of the Hudson River district of the Up-state, is continuing his evangelistic services on Sunday night in the Tabernacle in Kingston. A good interest is being followed up there. Brother Dollinger and wife, who are working on the ministerial internship plan, located in Delaware County in the Up-state, report a very fine interest in three or four different sections of their field and special services which they are holding in two different school houses. This interest has been located through the faithful work of our resident colporteur, Brother Mason. Services are also being conducted on Sunday evenings by our two colored pastors in Harlem, Elders Humphrey and Strachan, in their respective churches. Also Elder Bradford, pastor of the New Rochelle and White Plains churches, is holding evangelistic services each Sunday night in the New Rochelle church, as is also Elder Willis, pastor of the Second Brooklyn church. A fine interest is reported also by Elder Ochs, pastor of the German Brooklyn church, in his special evangelistic services held in his church every Sunday night, and Elder Penner, pastor of the German New York church, reports the same.

We are glad to know that Brother N. H. Kinzer, pastor of our new Spanish church, finds difficulty in seating his people on Sunday nights who come out to his evangelistic services. Beside those already mentioned, services are being held by the president of the conference each Sunday evening in Svea Hall, in West New Brighton, Staten Island, where a good interest is being seen. Altogether, then, we now have in progress fifteen evangelistic efforts in our field which will be continued throughout the fall and possibly the winter. Brethren of the churches, please pray earnestly for these servants of God who are striving to hold up the banner of truth in a public way that sinners might repent and turn to the God of truth. These men are all carrying heavy burdens in our church leadership and need a special unction from on high for their sacred work. Do all you can to lighten their local church tasks that they may give themselves to the preaching of the Word, and thus share in the final reward which shall surely come to Christ's soul-winners.

DEDICATION OF THE DANISH-NORWEGIAN CHURCH

Beginning October 25 a three-day meeting will be held in connection with the dedication of the newly constructed church auditorium of the Danish-Norwegian church, located at 618-50th St., Brooklyn.

Elder W. W. Eastman, of the General Conference Publishing Department, will speak Friday evening at 7:45. Elder W. A. Spicer, president of the General Conference, will lead out in the dedicatory service at 3:00 p. m., Sabbath, Oct. 26. Elder M. N. Campbell, secretary of the Bureau of Home Missions, Elder N. R. Nelson, secretary of the Danish-Norwegian Department, and Elder L. K. Dickson, president of the Greater New York Conference, will also be with us.

We extend an invitation to all of our churches to attend these services.

O. J. Dahl,
Pastor Danish-Norwegian Church.

HARVEST INGATHERING

Probably most of the readers of the Greater New York section of the Gleaner are more or less familiar with what their own churches are doing or have done in the Harvest Ingathering campaign thus far, but it may be of interest to all to know the standings of the various churches up to and including October 12. Here are the figures, just as they were sent out in the Ingathering Bulletin dated October 17.

Finnish	$19.84
Middletown	10.35
Hungarian	10.11
Port Jervis	10.02

October 12 marked the end of the six weeks suggested by the General Conference as the time for the Ingathering Campaign for 1920. But here in Greater New York so many of us are away on vacations or out of the city for other reasons during August and the early part of September that we really don't get a good start on the Ingathering work until the middle of September. This year we seemed to get started later than usual, so that when we came to the end of the six weeks, we were less than half through with the work we set out to do. We set a goal of thirty thousand dollars. On October 12 we had a little more than thirteen thousand dollars, according to reports received from our church treasurers. So you will see that we have much to do yet before we can turn our minds and activities from this annual effort. Only four of our twenty-eight churches are over the ten dollar goal. Some that had reached their goals at this time last year are lagging far behind this year. Our young people are faithfully doing their part. The Juniors especially are working with enthusiasm. But if we are to bring this effort to a successful conclusion it will require the help of all. We set out to provide a definite amount for the support of foreign missions during the coming year, and it would be too bad if we failed. If you had heard the call of the Lord and answered it and thereby found yourself laboring for souls in some far-off corner of the earth and had to depend on the gifts and Ingathering activities of the friends you left in the homeland, would you want them to fail?

"If your hand's on the plow, hold on, hold on!" J. B. Frank.

ITALIAN BROOKLYN CHURCH DEDICATION

On Sabbath, November 2, at 11 a. m., the dedication service of the Italian Brooklyn church will be held. Elder M. N. Campbell of the General Conference is expected to preach the dedicatory sermon and it is hoped that other representatives from out of the city will be present. Elder Calderone, former pastor of the church, will take part, as will also the writer, representing the local conference. A special program has been arranged with musical and other numbers. All our churches are invited to be present. Pastors are asked to please take notice and make special announcements in their churches regarding this very special occasion this coming Sabbath. The church is located at 176 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, near Borough Hall. L. K. Dickson.

EVANGELISTIC EFFORTS IN THE CHURCHES

At our last workers' meeting it was decided to hold an intensive effort in each church of the conference. It is calculated that during this special series each Sabbath-keeping family will receive at least one pastoral visit. In these days of stress and pressure there is a danger of neglecting the personal contact that means so much in the advancement of the truth. We solicit the prayers and cooperation of each believer to the end that the special blessing of heaven will rest upon the workers and endow them with soul-winning efficiency and power.

The outline of appointments is as follows:

NOTES

Dr. and Mrs. Birkenstock, of the famous leper colony in Africa, visited the church on Sabbath. We regret that he did not have time to speak to us, and we extend an invitation to do so when it is possible to arrange a little time with us.

Elder J. W. Mace, in company with Brethren Kirk and Butler, recently visited a number of the churches in the interest of the book work. They report a very favorable response to the call of the hour, in the interest of the literature ministry.

Elder J. A. Stevens, Home Missionary secretary of the General Conference, spent a few days in our field. He spoke to the Sanitarium family on Friday night, Oct. 11, to the Boston and Everett churches on the Sabbath; and Sunday night at the South Lancaster church; and Tuesday morning to the students of A. U. C., after which he addressed the workers of the S. N. E. Conference in their regular monthly meeting. His stirring and inspirational messages were greatly appreciated.

Elder Bartlett, vice-president of the British Union, gave an interesting and instructive report of his experiences in East Africa, to the South Lancaster church, on Tuesday night. He also spoke to the Sanitarium family the same morning. The College students were favored by having him address them on two occasions, a privilege which he also enjoyed.

Elder A. V. Olson, president of the South European Division Conference, spoke in Boston on Sabbath, the 19th. His recital of incidents which demonstrate that God is working in a very special way for the extension of the world wide work in this hard and difficult field, in the face of many forbidding circumstances, was a great blessing to the believers here in this field. On Sunday morning Elder Olson spoke to the Bindery family and expressed his appreciation of the work being done in this line for the young men and women, in equipping them for places of trust and responsibility in this work. Sunday night he spoke to a very large company in the church.

WEDDING

On the evening of October 7, in the Gymnasium of the New England Sanitarium, it was the pleasure of the writer to unite in marriage Mr. Clebern Sturgis Edwards of the Sanitarium business office, and Miss Lillian Emelina Nothstein, of the recent graduating class of the New England Sanitarium training school. One of the largest gatherings of its kind that the gymnasium has held for some time was assembled to witness the occasion. The platform was decorated with an arch artistically adorned with autumn foliage in all its glorious colors. Miss Helen Guthrie was at the piano for the evening, and, besides playing the bridal and recessional march, also accompanied Miss Dorothy Hall of the Atlantic Union College as she sang a beautiful and appropriate solo in anticipation of the event. The maid of honor at this occasion was Miss Helen Stradley of the Atlantic Union College, while Miss Gertrude Green, a classmate of Miss Nothstein, was bridesmaid. Preceding the bride as flower girl was little Lorraine Burke of the Sanitarium family. The groom, accompanied by Mr. Glen Bowen of Washington, D. C., was ushered by Mr. Leonard Pohner of the business office. After the ceremony, a reception for the happy couple was held at the home of Brother and Sister J. R. Kennedy, relatives of the groom. Following a brief trip to New Hampshire and a visit among friends, Brother and Sister Edwards will resume their duties at the Sanitarium. The writer joins their many friends in wishing them God's choicest blessings in their new relationship, and a life of happiness in the service of the Master.

WEDDING

On August 24 Brother Everett Watrous and Sister Myrtle Brown were united in marriage in the Methodist church at Bridgeport, Conn. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers. The many valuable presents attested to the host of friends that wished them well. Brother Watrous will be remembered as a student at South Lancaster, and Sister Watrous as a student in Washington Missionary College and a teacher in Oshawa Missionary College. They are teaching in the Providence church school this year.

HARVEST INGATHERING PROGRESSOGRAPHS

The writer has just returned to the office once more after an absence of twelve days in the field, and takes pleasure in informing you that we are on our last round. The sum of $30,450, or 6/7 of our Ingathering goal, is at hand, and we are now working on our last $5,000 to reach the desired mark. A little more diligence—a little more persistence and victory will be ours.

Not only are we thankful for the good number of mission dollars brought in by our loyal leaders and people, but the 480 interested souls found as well. Proper follow-up work will undoubtedly bring a good number of these into the fold before another campaign rolls around.

Three of our districts, Utica, Albany and Rochester, are now well over their $15 per member mark, having attained a percentage of 112, 108 and 106, respectively, by Oct. 12. Well done indeed.

The Buffalo and Binghamton districts will undoubtedly be crossing the winning line in the near future.

It was a real pleasure to join our Jamestown English church in their victory celebration Sabbath, Oct. 5. This marked a new experience for this church, and everybody was happy and thankful, especially those who worked hard to make this early success possible. If you could have heard the many ringing testimonies, particularly by Brother Taylor and Brother Frank Johnson, you would be convinced that "there is joy in labor for the struggling neighbor." An excellent spirit prevailed and many said they were looking forward to the next campaign and will be ready to start when the first call is sounded.

Our Olean company is likewise taking hold with its old-time vim. We greatly enjoyed our service and field work with them. The testimonies given proved their loyalty to the Master. Sister Eldridge, who has gathered in over $200, again emphasized the value of goals when she said: "Had I not had faith enough to set a high goal, I would never have reached what I did."

We can depend on Olean reaching its full $15 per member in the near future.

It is hard for our Salamanca members to get together during the week, so only a small number were present at our evening meeting, but we claimed the Lord's promise and were richly blessed nevertheless. Owing to Brother Hick's wide and favorable acquaintance it is always a pleasure to join him in Ingathering work, and the Lord blessed us. Sister Gates, Sister Dade and others are working hard and the $88 still lacking on their $15 per member goal will soon be on hand, I am sure.

Our Jamestown Swedish church has been without a pastor since Elder Lund accepted a call in New York City a few weeks ago. They had a good start before he left and are pushing the campaign along very commendably. Sister Marie Larson, the Bible worker, and Brother Forlander, the home missionary secretary, are leading out, and many

BIBLE HOUSE NEWS NOTES

Several new books have already been called to our attention as either being ready for distribution, or in the process of printing. The newest ones are as follows:

"Certainties of the Advent Message" by Elder W. A. Spicer will be a book every Seventh-day Adventist will want to own and read. We have received an advanced copy. Further information will appear later. Just bear this in mind.

"Choma," will find its way into the Junior Reading Course for 1930. A very attractive book, and one that every young person (and older ones too) will want to read. Price separate from the course, $1.25.

"Bible Lectures," a series of five lectures by Evangelist Charles T. Everson, is another new book. The contents are as follows: "Which Day of the Week did Christ Sanctify, Bless and Keep?"; "Were the Tables of Stone nailed to the Cross?"; "The Mark of the Beast"; "Saved by Grace"; "The Last Warning Message." It is written in such a manner that it grips the attention of the reader, so that these truths are impressed deeply on the mind. This is a fine book to loan to your neighbors and friends. Will provoke thought and many inquiries. Price, $1.25, postpaid.

All the friends of the "Bedtime Stories" set will be glad to know that there is now an additional book available, "Bedtime Stories No. 5." Every youngster who has read or had the stories in the previous books told him will doubtless want No. 5 too. Price is 25¢ for single copies; ten or more copies will entitle you to a 50% discount—postage extra.

Now that the Ingathering work is nearing completion in the conference as a whole, it will be well to turn our attention to a paper that deserves far more attention and publicity than has been given to it in our conference. We refer to the Anti-Tobacco number of the Instructor. Many have no doubt seen it and read it, but what has been done to inform others who really need the information that this paper contains? Not as much as we can do and should do. Place an order today for fifty or a hundred copies.

The price is but $2.50 per hundred. In thousand lots, $20.00.

We are glad to have one or two new workers take up the selling of the Watchman. This is a magazine that many of our sisters who cannot put in full time at other selling work, can use to advantage. One way is to establish a regular route, calling on the people month after month, getting acquainted with them and working with them. Incidentally you earn for yourself a little extra money for mission offerings and other things. Why not try it out. In lots of ten or more the price is 10¢ each, and sells for 25¢.

Liberty Magazine for fourth quarter is ready for distribution. Liberty has been one means of warding off the Sunday Blue Laws thus far. We need your help in placing even more copies of this paper in your city or town. Very soon Sunday Laws will be facing us again. Let us each do our part in distributing Liberty. Only 8¢ per copy in quantities.

SPARKS FROM THE INGATHERING ANVIL

Everybody! Ready? Go! Beginning October 20, we trust every church will dedicate the week to the Harvest Ingathering work. We shall need the cooperation of your church in this matter if we accomplish our Ingathering task by October 31. We want you to join us in the song of victory.

Conference church members: to make this year's Ingathering campaign a real success we solicit the cooperation of every conference church member. Send in your quota of $12.00 now, then you also can join us in our song of victory.

Only $1458.08 more: at close of week ending October 12 we were just this amount short of our conference goal.

Keep these figures growing: Twenty-seven churches are over their quota; and 22 churches have already that our Missionary Volunteers in Northern New England, both Senior and Junior, are faithful in gathering funds to send the story of the Saviour into all the world. In our Ingathering drive, the Juniors have thus far reported $182.24, and the Seniors have reported $551.80; thus making a total of $734.13 which has been brought in by the close of September.

Our goal is one thousand dollars. Let us work to have a great overflow for the work of the Lord.

Have you heard about the silk bookmarks which we are giving to our Missionary Volunteers this year? These are issued to every Junior who solicits more than six dollars, and every Senior who solicits twelve dollars. Here is a list of the young people who have thus far received bookmarks.

H. I. PROGRESSOGRAPHS

of the members who have the welfare of the mission lands at heart are backing them up loyally in their endeavor to reach the goal at an early date. Brother S. A. Larson and Hennie Johnson, two new members, had $56 and $30 to their credit respectively.

We also had an opportunity to visit a number of our isolated members on this trip and were pleased to meet Sister Van Aernam and Sister Wallace of Cattaraugus, Sister Amelia Frank of West Valley, Sister Gogel and daughter of Ellcottville, and Sisters Iva and Wallace Cheeseman of Delevan, and Sister Holland. We were very sorry to find Sister Gogel and Elder Williams, of our Fredonia church quite sick. Elder Williams is one of the pioneers of our work in this part of the field and always rejoices to hear of the progress of the work along all lines. He desires to be remembered to all his friends.

According to our records, less than half of our members have participated in our great missions campaign thus far. Where is the other half? A very small number of our conference church and isolated members have done their part thus far. Once more we earnestly appeal to all such to delay no longer. Join the workers. The Lord expects loyal service from every follower of his in this important time, and we need your help to reach our full goal. Next Sabbath being the last Sabbath of the month, be sure to turn in all Harvest Ingathering money so we may know exactly where we stand at the end of October. Also please report any interested people found and turn in your missionary report. Let us cheerfully cooperate along all lines and endeavor to serve the Lord more faithfully from month to month.

F. Bohner.

SPARKS FROM THE H. I. ANVIL

passed their 1928 Harvest Ingathering record. Is your church listed among these? If not, ask the Lord to help you to do what you can to put your church on the honor roll.

Little girl 11 years old gathered $25.00. This is a record of which Elder Gram's little girl, Inez, should be proud, don't you think? She has worked hard afternoons after getting out of school, also Sundays. She has received several dollar donations. She was presented with a $25.00 bookmark last Sabbath.

Have you received your silk bookmark? If you have turned in to your church treasurer $12.00, $25.00, $50.00, $75.00 or $100.00 for Harvest Ingathering, you are entitled to a beautiful silk bookmark for each of these amounts. If you have not yet received yours, ask your treasurer to send for them.

Harvest Ingathering Goal

Reported to October 12

$83,213.98

Business conditions October 1, according to Forbes Magazine, were excellent in all of New York State with the exception of the Adirondac district, where they were shown to be good. Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts also are listed as excellent, with the eastern part of Massachusetts as good; Vermont and New Hampshire good; the northern tip of Maine as excellent, with the rest fair. So much for business conditions in the Atlantic Union territory.

During the first eight months of the present year, Montgomery Ward & Company made a sales gain of 31.3%; Kresge a gain of 6.7%, National Bellas Hess, 19.1%; J. C. Penney & Company, 18.44%; Sears and Roebuck, 29.8%; and Woolworth's gain is shown at approximately the same.

Last year the Atlantic Union Conference raised $114,147.10 in the Harvest Ingathering. The great sales companies of the world all making gains, with business conditions ranging from fair to excellent throughout our entire territory, and the largest appropriation voted by this people to foreign missions confronting us, surely we cannot rest satisfied with anything less than a good gain in our Harvest Ingathering. If this is to be realized, some who have already reached their goals must do a little more, and those who have not yet done their part must not fail. Let us all unite, not only in praying but in working to this end, that the victory may be ours.

C. A. Scriven.

NOTICE

The interest in the intensive course in nutrition held in Portland, Maine, October 6 to 11, was such that it is thought best to hold another one to accommodate those who were unable to attend the former. The dates chosen for this second course are November 10 to 15. For particulars apply to Martha W. Howe, 64 Brentwood Street, Portland, Maine.

If you want to win, stick! If you want to succeed, begin right, and then keep it up! Don't quit! The world has no use for quitters. The failures in the world have been the quitters—those who begin all right, but did not hold out.
