GENERAL ARTICLES

REPORTS OF THE GREAT MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

This is the time in which every believer in our ranks should make certain of having our denominational church paper, The Review and Herald. It is not many weeks until the General Conference will be in session in San Francisco. To every Seventh-day Adventist this will be the most important meeting or event of the year. There is nothing to be compared with it. Those representing the great world-wide work of giving the last warning message from the farthest corner of the earth, will be present at this meeting with thrilling reports of God's providences, and the onward march of the message. There will be abundant illustrations accompanying these reports.

During the conference we understand that there will be daily numbers of the Review, excepting for the Sabbath. No one who is interested in this message and its advancement will want to be without these full reports of the General Conference proceedings.

We are hoping to see the Review placed in every family, and enjoyed by every believer in our field. This is the time to subscribe. You cannot keep pace with this message and its advancement in all of the world without this one paper which is set apart as the official spokesman for our world-wide work, in which will appear weekly the reports, decisions, and announcements that will mean so much to every believer. We hope to see a thorough plan worked out in every conference and church, by which it will be made possible for every member to become a reader of the Review.

WHY EVERY SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST SHOULD BE A READER OF THE REVIEW AND HERALD

We are living in times of special peril to God's people, for every wind of doctrine is blowing; many false prophets are arising, claiming God has called them to steer the remnant church into the kingdom. My own experience leads me to believe that I cannot afford, in religious issues, to listen to this one or that one who claims to have a message for these times, but that my only safety is to connect myself in a definite way with the established faith of this people.

The safe interpreter of this message is our good old standby, our church paper, the Review and Herald. It rings true every time, and never fails to give the trumpet a certain sound, warning us of apostasies and independent movements that pull off from the body. The Review and Herald is our spiritual protection. No one who faithfully reads it each week will be swept away in the current of false doctrines. That alone is sufficient reason why every home should be a subscriber to it. Another great reason why you should take it and read it, is that it will keep your heart fires burning brightly with the glow of this message, by bringing you each week pentecostal reports of the wonders of God's grace in fields abroad and at home. It will cheer you on the way with its thrilling reports of the grand, old advent advance in all lands, preparing a people for the Lord. Other papers are necessary for missionary work among our friends and neighbors, but remember, brother, you need the Review and Herald to encourage your own heart while you work for others. If I could only subscribe for one paper, it would by all means be the Review and Herald.

BIG WEEK IS DRAWING NEAR ARE YOU READY?

Instead of the last Sabbath in April we are launching our Missions Extension campaign the first Sabbath of April, in order to have it well out of the way by General Conference time.

Our publishing houses have again supplied us with excellent books: "Peace or War" and "Better Meals for Less," a sample set of which has been sent to each church elder. A junior set, "Bedtime Stories" Nos. 5 and 6, is also available, as well as a special number of our good magazines.

Our Book & Bible House will be pleased to receive your order, and if this has not already been sent in we trust you will do so very soon, so no loyal soldier will be held back for lack of ammunition.

Order liberally so there will be plenty to go around.

Territory should be promptly assigned, and where two or more churches are located in one city, the missionary leaders should promptly get together and have a clear understanding to avoid confusion and discouragement.

Our minimum individual goal has again been set at 10 sets, or $2.50 in cash, and we know many of our members will greatly exceed this.

While we always appreciate prompt cooperation, we will appreciate it doubly this year, and hope every loyal member of our field will reach his Big Week goal just as early in April as possible, so a good report can be taken to General Conference without fail.

The sale of 10 sets of books or its equivalent in magazines, and the profits turned in to the Missions Extension Fund, will entitle you to be listed on our Big Week lightbearers' honor roll. Will your name appear on our very first list? We hope so.

This is the tenth anniversary of Big Week. Let us unite in making it the very best in each church in every respect, and especially in the amount of our light-giving literature used.

Is Your March Report In?

If you were home missionary secretary, you would greatly appreciate cheerful cooperation in the matter of reporting. Our goal as you know is "Every member a working and reporting member." Are you helping your home missionary secretary reach it? Do as you would be done by, and hand in your missionary report each week, or at least each month.

If you have failed to report thus far this year, include it all in your March report and hand it in next Sabbath. F. Bohner.

THIRTEENTH SABBATH, MAR. 29

For a good many weeks now our minds have been directed each Sabbath to one of the most interesting and fruitful fields of our work, the Philippines and Manchuria.

The Lord is richly blessing the faithful efforts of our meager force of laborers there. Thousands of new believers have been gathered in during recent years and a good offering on March 29 will greatly cheer the hearts of our loyal workers and believers there, and enable them to do a still stronger work in these promising fields.

Our first thirteenth Sabbath offering last year brought in the fine sum of $4350, or better than $1.75 a member. Let us again do our best for the Master, and thus finish the first quarter of the new year in a strong way. We hope all of our home division and isolated members will also lift cheerfully this time, so we will at least hold our own in this time of great need.

We hope many additional schools will receive the conference Sabbath school banner and that many additional stars can be awarded as a result of increased faithfulness in supporting our missions program during the new quarter.

Picture Rolls

How much appreciated they are and what great help they render in making the wonderful gospel story more clear to those who have been in darkness so long. We are glad to be able to say that as far as we know each picture roll used in our conference is doing double service, first at home and then abroad.

The time is almost here to send off the roll for the first quarter of the new year to the mission station to which your school promised it. We hope every secretary will be kind enough to attend to this little duty promptly, so there will be no disappointment at the other end. If you knew how much these rolls mean to the mission fields you would never overlook it. If there should be any unused picture rolls at this time, we will be very pleased to supply you with the name of a mission station which would be thankful to receive it.

Another Fine Record

Twelve enrolments for the Sabbath School Workers' Training Course from Vienna with a church membership of 32. "All my regular teachers have enrolled, and some assistants," writes Sister Mills. Most commendable, I am sure. Does your Sabbath school value proper vision and teaching efficiency equally high?

There is still time to enrol. Insist upon growing officers and teachers in your school. 100% enrolment should be the aim of each superintendent. F. Bohner.

BOOK AND BIBLE HOUSE NOTES

Are you all equipped with your Lesson Quarterly and Sabbath School Worker, ready for the next quarter's lessons? This is the last opportunity you will have to order before the new quarter begins. The new lessons will be just as interesting as those you have been studying, and for nine out of the thirteen in the quarterly the book "Prophets and Kings" will be the lesson help. You cannot afford to be without it. If you have "Patriarchs and Prophets," and have benefited much from its help, you can appreciate what the new lesson help will mean in your study, $2.25 in cloth, $3.25 in limp binding.

We are glad to report that all of our colporteurs who have been on the sick list have now practically recovered. They are not afraid of the cry of "hard times" that one hears from every side now. With full time put in each week, and the Lord blessing each one, our reports should and will, we believe, improve. Let us remember the colporteurs at family worship.

We are glad to welcome Brother Preston, from the Northern New England Conference, as field secretary of our field. Brother Maris has found it necessary to give up his work in that capacity on account of his physical condition, and we are sorry to lose him. We trust that everyone will give Brother Preston the most hearty support possible as he comes to us.

As this Gleaner comes to you it brings the news that you still have a chance to obtain a copy of the 1930 Home Missionary Calendar. Three months are nearly gone, but there are nine more ahead. This calendar gives you the dates of all special campaigns and days during the year. Every Adventist family should have one on the wall. Don't delay this time, if you intended to get one before and forgot. Just send 25 cents (in stamps, if you wish) for this beautiful calendar.

Unless you are situated very differently than most people in our conference, you have several foreign neighbors. Do not overlook these friends in your Big Week work. It has been the general experience of those who have visited these people to find that they are de-

A SUCCESSFUL WEAPON

There never was a time when it was more important for God's people to take advantage of every unifying plan than now. Undoubtedly the most potent weapon of the evil one against the onward march of God's cause is to bring in among the remnant people confusion, disorganization, and doubt.

One of the most successful weapons against these assaults is the weekly visit of our fine denominational paper, The Review and Herald. Without the regular visits of this periodical in every Seventh-day Adventist Home, the cause is weakened, as a result of the unacquaintance of our believers with the facts of the onward march of the cause of God throughout the world.

At this time, when our pastors are making special efforts for every family to have access to the wonderful inspiration of the Review, let every believer who is not now finding access to the perusal of these important pages give consideration to the real loss which he is sustaining. Deny yourselves something else rather than the Review. How can any loyal, thoroughly devoted Seventh-day Adventist keep pace with the advancement of the message which we bear, without the regular visits of our church paper?

WILL WE BE READY?

The servant of the Lord said many years ago, "The loud cry of the message may come, and those who fail to read the Review and keep track of the progress of the work will not know it." Surely these words are more applicable to-day than ever.

Truly the Review holds a very unique place in our work, for it is our only church paper that gives to us each week up-to-date reports of the rapid advancement of our work around the world. Besides these excellent reports, there are sermons, articles, editorials, etc., that give us spiritual food for our souls.

While we are pleased to learn that the brethren credit us with a larger percentage of readers than most conferences, yet we sincerely believe that without many isolated believers, who scarcely ever hear a sermon, we should be even more anxious to see the Review in every home in our field. It makes us sad to think of the 500 homes in our conference which are without the Review and Herald. What can we say or do to place it in these homes is a subject we often discuss in our committees.

Church officers and members read this: "The Review . . . contains matters of great interest to the church, and should be placed in every family of believers. If any are too poor to take it, the church should, by subscription, raise the amount of the full price of the paper, and supply the destitute families." Will you help us increase our subscription list?

F. D. Wells.

OUR NEW MISSIONARY VOLUNTEER SOCIETIES

A short time ago, when I was at our church in Richmond, Maine, we organized a new Missionary Volunteer Society. We have always had a good many young people in Richmond, but so many of them live such a distance from the church that it has not been possible for us to have an organized society. But we think we have at last found a way of overcoming this difficulty, and our society, of about fifteen members, has been enrolled. Miss Ruby Farley is the leader, and Mrs. Lottie E. Farley the assistant leader.

Then again, the news has just come in that a new society has been organized at Enosburg Falls, Vermont. This society started all by itself,—that is, although there are only a few young people in Enosburg Falls, they decided that they must do something for the Lord Jesus; so they have organized as Missionary Volunteers, and written to me for supplies, membership cards, etc. Apparently they are all ready for business, for they have written in for Anti-Tobacco pledge cards, which we are using in our present campaign! Miss Lucille Dow is leader.

What good are these Missionary Volunteer Societies?

First, they lead our young people to feel that they have an actual responsibility as missionary workers in their own neighborhood.

Second, they help our young people to realize that they belong to the church, and that the church belongs to them,—that we are all one in Christ Jesus, and that we all, old and young together, are working to one goal,—the "advent message to all the world in this generation."

Third, the young person who is actively interested in Christian work who feels that he is responsible for some corner of God's great vineyard, is seldom the young person who apostatizes, or is lured away by the world. Spiritual things are real to him, and through his Missionary Volunteer Society he may enter into a definite religious experience of his own.

We welcome these new societies into our sisterhood of Missionary Volunteer organizations in Northern New England. May the Lord bless the young people in Richmond and Enosburg Falls, as they labor in the harvest field which is near at hand.

G. Dalrymple,
Missionary Volunteer Sec.

A CRITICAL TIME

I have been anxiously waiting for the mail-man to bring me news from the office relative to the standing of our conference on Sabbath school offerings for the month of February. He has just arrived, and I hasten a report to all our members through the columns of the Gleaner, with a prayer that every member of our conference will be stirred to greater faithfulness in supporting our Sabbath school mission program with more liberal offerings.

I submit the following figures for your consideration:

Sabbath School Offerings

Feb. 1929	$808.21
Feb. 1930	697.91
Loss	$110.30
	1929	1930
Jan.	$894.75	$688.55
Feb.	808.21	697.91
Totals	$1702.96	$1686.46
Quota for Quarter	$4820.40
Received Jan. and Feb.	1686.46

Should be Raised in Mar. $3133.94

You can imagine how heavy my heart sank within me when the post-man brought the news that our Sabbath schools dropped over $100.00 below what they gave for February last year. This is serious, brethren.

Undoubtedly all our members know that I have been assisting Mr. Townsend in an evangelistic effort here in Camden this winter, and I hoped that while we were obliged to be away from our work at the office in an effort to bring some honest souls into the fold, our Sabbath schools would continue to be faithful in giving funds to send the gospel to those in the uttermost parts of the world, who know not the saving power of our Lord Jesus.

Dear brother and sister, do you feel that you have done your best during January and February to help Northern New England to be a loyal-to-missions conference? We have the remaining days in March to redeem our record for the quarter. Let us demonstrate that Northern New England believes in the word advance, and not retreat.

To reach our mission quota for this first quarter, $3,133.94 should be given in Sabbath school offerings during the month of March. Will any individual member, or any Sabbath school, plan to be satisfied with giving less than $2.00 a member on this coming 13th Sabbath?

May the Lord help us all at this critical time to have the true spirit of sacrifice which will characterize those who will triumph with the third angel's message.

Mrs. V. C. Townsend,

Sabbath School Sec.

SUNBEAMS

A meeting of the conference committee, and of all conference workers, is being held this week at the office in Rochester. Elder E. F. Hackman, of the General Conference, and Elder Slade of the Union Conference, are in attendance.

Will you be one of the thirty-two new subscribers to the Review and Herald this week? By allowing us to enter your name now you will receive the eleven special numbers of our church paper which will be required to pass on to our people an adequate report of the great General Conference which will be held in San Francisco from May 28 to June 12. We need only thirty-two additional subscriptions to reach our quota for the conference. There will be no extra charge for the General Conference reports—the price is $2.50 for the year.

Brother and Sister B. M. Preston left Rochester last week for their new field of labor, the New York Conference. A farewell reception was held at the home of Brother and Sister R. S. Blackburn Tuesday evening. We were loath to lose Brother Preston and his family, but find some consolation in the fact that we were able to give to our sister conference such a valuable worker.

Large orders for the new book, "The Story of a Lost Day," by Elder F. D. Nichol, are coming in every day. Yes, there is a discount of 50 per cent on this book, when 10 or more copies are taken at one time.

Our stock of the new Big Week books is here in the office at Rochester. Our first order for these sets came to us from the church at Randolph, Vermont. Get ready now for for a good strong Big Week campaign. The best way to do this is to secure a good supply of books and then demonstrate that they can be sold, and in your vicinity. Yes, they can be sold anywhere. Who'll be next?

Take another look at this week's colporteur report, and notice the figures after the name of Brother F. B. Oaks. Certainly looks good, doesn't it? If Brother Oaks can take orders for $211.75 worth of books in a single week, and deliver $70.25 worth while he was doing it, surely every one of us can dispose of $4.00 worth during Big Week.

Don't forget your Sabbath school supplies. They are all ready for you now.

"REVIEW AND HERALD" FORWARD MOVEMENT!

The time assigned to the Review and Herald forward movement is March 22 to April 5. During this special season let all of us impress upon our people the importance and the imperative need of the good old Review. It is the safest, sanest, and most constructive church organ issued. In its history it has demonstrated a fixed status in keeping our people informed and instructed on the growth and development of our work in its world-wide proclamation and promulgation.

This being General Conference year is an added reason why we should do our utmost to influence every believer to avail himself of the ministry of our church paper. The convention to be held at San Francisco will be the most significant and far-reaching in our history, and to be fully informed on its proceedings and decisions is essentially important to maintain that intimate and inspirational touch so vital in our growth and loyalty to the message.

We are living in an unsettled and disturbed atmosphere. Every standard and tenet of religion is placed in the crucible of exacting investigation, and in the closest scrutiny of scientific analysis, with the one aim to discredit and disparage the will of God as inculcated by His Word, which forces upon us the necessity of a more intelligent and comprehensive grasp of the facts and doctrines of our message. The policy of the Review is calculated to safeguard the interests and integrity of our truth, and where it is conscientiously and consistently read rarely do we see a defection or departure from the message. Let us be in real earnest to make it possible for the membership of our conference to enjoy its ministry.

D. J. C. Barrett.

THE THIRD ANGEL'S MESSAGE GOING INTO NORTH ADAMS, MASSACHUSETTS

The Lord has been blessing me in His work in the Lowell district. Last year there were 21 who were baptized and received into the church. This year, after getting fifteen or sixteen dear souls to give their hearts to the Master, and take their stand for the truth, I was called to go into the evangelistic work in North Adams, Mass., with Brother Smith F. Webb as assistant. Consequently, I was only privileged to baptize six of these people. But I sincerely trust that the others will follow their Lord and be baptized soon.

At the very outset we secured the beautiful Universalist Church in which to hold our meetings, which stands in the center of the city; and have given out literature and invitation cards into the homes of the people. We began our meetings on March 2, which you will remember, was a very stormy night, in fact, a real blizzard. In spite of this, however, we had a good congregation of interested people. Our attendance is increasing, and we are kept busy by visiting and calling on from 100 to 200 homes each day throughout the week, giving them Present Truth and extending a personal invitation to attend the services.

We desire an interest in your prayers, that these honest souls, who are hungering and thirsting for the truth, may receive it, and that a good company of believers may be raised up in this city.

Floyd E. Gibson.

OBITUARY NOTICES

NOBREGA.—Edmund Nobrega, the youngest son of Elder Manuel Nobrega, of the New Bedford Portuguese church, was born July 26, 1920, and died from bronchial pneumonia March 14, 1930, at the tender age of 7 months and 16 days. The assurance of God's power to bring the children from the land of the enemy, being a hope to brighten the future, and an encouragement to meet the duties of life with reference to our children, was the basis of remarks by the writer.

J. F. Knipschild.

FOSTER.—Walter Canhan Foster was born in Hallowell, Maine, May 29, 1903, and died at his home in East Readfield, Maine, on March 13, 1930, after a lingering illness of nearly four years.

From 1923 to 1926 he attended Atlantic Union College, and was enrolled in the ministerial course. Owing to a breakdown in his health, he was hindered by only a few weeks of completing his school preparation for the gospel ministry.

He was a most consistent Christian, and the supreme purpose of his life was to be an efficient soul-winner. This was made evident through his association with Elder V. C. Townsend in an evangelistic effort while at the College.

Brother Foster was a patient sufferer, and bore his affliction with an implicit faith in his Savior. He leaves to mourn their loss his mother; father; two brothers, Henry and Robert; a sister, Minerva; besides a large circle of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by the writer. Words of comfort were based on I Tim. 1:12. Our brother was laid to rest in the family plot at Harrington, Maine. He rests, awaiting the call of the Life-giver at the first resurrection.

H. P. Gram.

NEEDHAM.—Mrs. Ann S. Needham, nee Stott, was born in Sherbrooke, Quebec, March 14, 1873. She graduated as a nurse from the Boston City Hospital; and was married to Amos P. Needham in 1913. Sister Needham died following an operation at the Boston City Hospital, March 13, 1930. The burial service was from their home in Vergennes, Vt. Besides her husband, one sister and four brothers survive her.

F. M. Dana.

LAWRENCE.—Warren N. Lawrence died March 9, 1930 at West Bangor, N. Y., the place of his birth, in his 71st year. He was a faithful Seventh-day Adventist until the end, a good neighbor, and a loyal husband and kind father. The large attendance at the funeral in the Union church at West Bangor, attested to the high esteem in which he was held by those who knew him longest and best. He was a son of the late Elder Horace W. Lawrence, a pioneer preacher of the advent message, who passed through the first angel's message and the disappointment of 1844, and was ordained to the gospel ministry by Elder James White and later raised up the company of believers at Buck's Bridge, N. Y., where the first Seventh-day Adventist church edifice was built. He is survived by his wife and three children; Mrs. Loraine Jameison, Mrs. Lillian Sloan, and Wales S. Lawrence, formerly superintendent of the Peruvian Mission in South America, but now recruiting his health in New York state.

Words of comfort were spoken by the writer from the text chosen by Brother Lawrence some months before his death, Job 14:14.

THIS DAY THE TIME TO DO

In other sections of this issue of the Gleaner you will find statements from various leaders of our Union relative to the value of the Review, and the desirability of its being read weekly by all our people who understand the English language. This is a most opportune time to subscribe. As has been stated before, the reports of the coming General Conference session will be published in the Review. To do this six issues a week will be printed during the time of the conference session. This will bring the reports of the conference in a very satisfactory manner to the homes of the subscribers. No extra charge is being made because of printing more numbers than usually come in a year's subscription.

The price of the Review is but $2.50 a year. Those who add 50 cents more will receive for a full year the Review and Herald, Life and Health, Liberty and Present Truth. We recommend the latter, which is called by the publishers the Big Four Group.

All orders should be sent to your conference Book and Bible House. For your convenience we print an order blank which you can cut out and mail.

N. E. SANITARIUM AND HOSPITALNEWS NOTES

During the week the chaplain gave a series of six chapel talks on the subject, "Character Building." Next week we are to have a health week.

Dr. Brown is taking postgraduate work in Boston. The course lasts two months and is known as Dr. Fomon's Medical Review Course. Dr. Fomon has specialized on this line of work for many years, and is a superior instructor. He will be in Boston for two months. There are some forty or more doctors taking this postgraduate work with Dr. Fomon.

Recently one of the secretaries of the State Nurses' Association visited the Sanitarium and spoke to the members of the Alumni association. She stated that she is in correspondence with Mrs. Eugene Jewell, one of our graduates who is in mission service in Africa. Mrs. Jewell is preparing an article for the magazine published by the State Nurses' Association.

Miss Joy and Mrs. Deininger are preparing a medical exhibit to be used at the General Conference. It will be in the form of a reproduction of an African village.

On Tuesday evening Dr. Otis lectured and showed motion pictures of scenes in Germany.

On Wednesday evening Mr. Cornforth demonstrated the making of gelatin desserts.

On Thursday evening the Adelpian Male Chorus of Atlantic Union College entertained at the Sanitarium.

Mr. Henry W. Barrows, treasurer of the Far Eastern Division of the General Conference, is at the Sanitarium having a medical examination. Brother Barrows is planning to go to General Conference, and then return to Shanghai, China, the Far Eastern Division headquarters.

Mr. Percy Griffis, of Union Springs, N. Y., had his appendix removed during the week. Brother Griffis is very much pleased with the new electrical method of surgery. He reports very little pain.

Mr. Homer Seward has had his tonsils removed.

Mrs. Pattie Clarke spent a couple of days here visiting friends. She also took a few treatments.

ATLANTIC UNION COLLEGENEWS NOTES

The spring Week of Prayer is being observed this week. At the opening meeting, Friday night, Elder T. M. French, head of the Bible Department, spoke on the need of a deeper Christian experience for all. Many of the students, in the testimony meeting following his talk, expressed their reconsecration and their desire for a more active experience.

The College and church were glad to welcome Elder F. C. Gilbert again. He spoke in the South Lancaster church on Sabbath.

Saturday evening teachers, students, and friends in the village enjoyed a five-reel motion picture trip to Germany. The pictures were shown through the courtesy of Dr. E. F. Otis and Mr. Leonard Bohner, of the New England Sanitarium and the Universal Travel Service.

Thursday evening, the 20th, the men's glee club, which is known as the Adelpian Male Chorus, gave a program at the New England Sanitarium. About fifty went from South Lancaster to take part in, or to be present at the program.

The junior class organization was formed on Thursday of last week. The class numbers about fifteen students who will be candidates for degrees next year. The officers of the class are: Orville Wright, president; Esther Johnson, vice-president; Harvey Davies, secretary-treasurer.

"The test of a man is the fight he makes,

The grit that he daily shows,
The way he stands on his feet and takes

Fate's numerous bumps and blows.
A coward can smile where there's naught to fear,

When nothing his progress bars,
But it takes a man to stand up and cheer

While some other fellow stars."
