THE COMING MID-SUMMER OFFERING

Sabbath, July 21

By J. K. JONES

It is proper that Seventh-day Adventists have a just pride in the fact that as a denomination we have not had to retreat from the mission fields. While it is true that during this time of money shortage we have had to lay off workers in some fields, it is also a fact that none of our important mission stations have been abandoned.

This splendid endeavor of holding strongly to the mission enterprises already launched, has been made possible only by the continuous sacrifice of our loyal believers. Notwithstanding the fact that here in New England and New York State we have passed through the same financial depression experienced elsewhere, I am glad to say that the Atlantic Union has still kept in the very front rank of givers to foreign missions.

Many of our dear people all through this Union have gone without necessary food and clothing in order to make sure that the work in foreign fields does not suffer. It is truly marvelous what our brethren have done and are doing for the carrying of this message to heathen lands. But the work that remains to be done must be done quickly. Events are closing in upon us. The rapid strides the Catholic Church is making in America and even in England is significant, while the complete disintegration of so-called Protestantism in the United States has nearly been accomplished. Atheism and communism in our country are increasing at an alarming rate.

Nothing here seems secure, not even money itself.

The safest place in the world to invest your dollars is in the third angel's message, for if invested there you can see souls won to the truth through such offerings, whereas if it goes into the world you never know what will happen to it. While we should keep the home fires burning, we never can let go our hold upon the foreign fields. The Lord will never come until earth's teeming millions have heard this truth.

Mission offerings are coming in slowly compared with the more prosperous days. This creates a real situation for the Mission Board, for our general brethren at Washington do not want to close mission stations nor to call missionaries home. This time of the year our funds are low, but the work abroad must be supported nevertheless. This can only be done just now by calling upon our people here in this favored land to give most generously at the time the Midsummer Offering is taken, Sabbath, July 21.

At the time of the Spring Council, the General Conference Committee voted to ask each union conference field to raise a certain amount of this offering. The Atlantic Union Conference is to raise over $10,000. This will mean that each conference in this Union should raise an average of about $1 for each church member. It means that for those who are unable to average that much, the rest of us who can should make up their part. To do this, some should give $25 or more; perhaps some could give $100; while many can give $10, $5, $2, or surely $1. If we each try to give a large amount, each church could reach its goal.

I appeal to our people all over the Union to keep July 21, the date of the Midsummer Offering, in mind. Pray about it now, think continually about it, and plan every way you know how to give a liberal offering to this worthy endeavor. This is one of the main offerings our general brethren depend upon each year to hold together our foreign mission work. Will you not begin even now to lay aside each week some definite sum toward the Midsummer Offering? I appeal earnestly to those of our people who have work, or who have money in the bank, to come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty at this time.

Give generously, ever remembering all that God has done for you, keeping in mind that the Lord loveth a cheerful giver. Place all you save in the church envelope under "Midsummer Offering," not forgetting this even though some one fails to mention this offering in the church. Remember the day, Sabbath, July 21.

Early Harvest Ingathering Victory at Danvers

By ANOL GRUNDSET

WE WERE very happy to receive the following interesting report from Brother J. Ernest Edwards, district superintendent for the Northeastern District in the Southern New England Conference:

"By the united effort and whole-hearted cooperation of every one of the twenty members, the Danvers church was signally blessed by God in gaining a Harvest Ingathering victory in three days, which is the quickest record we know of for raising the Harvest Ingathering goal in North America.

"On Tuesday, May 29, the loyal members and the enthusiastic young people's society rejoiced when a telegram announcing the speedy Harvest Ingathering triumph of having reached the General Conference goal was sent to Elder Stevens at Washington. The Danvers, Mass., church is greatly honored in being privileged to send the first Harvest Ingathering funds to mission lands in 1934.

"At the Sabbath service, May 26, the Danvers members and youth answered the four questions presented concerning Harvest Ingathering: 'Is it the Lord's work? Is it my work? Is it the Lord's way? and, Is it the Lord's time?'

"An earnest appeal was made, and in answer to the call for consecration and sacrifice every member of the church immediately responded. 'Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power.' In a few moments 20% more than the $10 individual goals for the church membership was pledged.

"With the same enthusiastic and loyal spirit that characterized last year's four-day campaign, the church members under the leadership of the elder, Brother W. Cornell, engaged in field days, leaving housework and washing until Wednesday. Believing the promise in Eph. 3:20, the Missionary Volunteer Society, headed by their active leader, Brother W. Fizer, energetically commenced the intensive three-day campaign. The young people solicited funds Saturday evening, and as a singing band sang in various towns the next three nights.

"Brother Hartman, ninety years of age, who has been in the truth for the last sixty years, and has been a member of the Danvers church since its founding, introduced Brethren Bohner and Edwards to some of the business men of the town. Through this assistance, God impressed these men to give liberally for the advancement of our cause.

"We are forcefully impressed with the truth that when a church yields to Christ to do what He commands and to go where He sends, all things are possible through Christ which strengtheneth us."

The above report shows what can be accomplished by strong leadership and a consecrated cooperative church. We hope hundreds of our churches will go and do likewise and make 1934 Ingathering short and successful.

"THE LAST WORD"

"A CERTAIN man made a great supper and bade many: And sent his servant at supper time to say to them who were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuse." Brethren and sisters, the campmeeting feast has been prepared. The invitation has been extended to you. Come and enjoy all the good things God has in store for you. Please do not be like the men listed in the parable and begin to make excuses because of some other responsibilities.

If you come by train and would like to have some one meet you, either telephone our office or the campground upon your arrival and we will send some one for you.

F. D. WELLS.

BAPTISMS

THE brethren throughout the conference seem to be a bit reticent in sending in definite word concerning the baptisms that have been held in the different districts of our conference recently, therefore I do not have as much information as I should have in order to give a full report.

Elder C. R. Gibbs held a baptismal service in the Boston Temple church within the past few weeks, and another service was scheduled for last Sabbath. The first service was largely the result of the work in the Everett church which was carried on by Brother Leon Moore, there being eight young people baptized.

Sabbath, June 2, the writer baptized eight individuals at Amesbury, Mass. This was the first fruit of the Victory campaign conducted by Elder L. F. Passebois and Brother Ernest Edwards. Elder Passebois had another service scheduled for last Sabbath in Lowell, but the writer does not have the full facts to report.

Elder Snipes baptized eight in New London recently. These dear souls were the result of the work of Brother Snipes and the missionary members of the New London church. I am glad to report that more than 100 have been baptized in the tabernacle effort at Providence. Please keep in mind that "joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth." We are confident that God has many more souls in this field who are impressed with the need of living a better life.

DANVERS INGATHERING VICTORY IN THREE DAYS

IF ONE were to visit the Danvers church now, he would see on the rostrum a large book set on an easel, entitled, "The Modern Book of Acts," in which are recorded the names of the church members and loyal workers. Appropriate recognition has been given all for their labor and for the goals reached.

The 1934 slogan which inspired an early victory appears on the outside cover of "On to Victory for Christ." This beautiful book will be displayed at campmeeting.

On the front wall of the church hangs a banner for which the members are glad, for it represents real sacrifice and effort. It reads, "Last Year's Record Broken."

We trust that this report of achievement, through God's blessing, may send the spark of consecrated service around the world, and may arouse every church to greater activity, for the King's business demands haste. "To God be the glory, great things He hath done." J. ERNEST EDWARDS.

ANOTHER MOST ENCOURAGING LETTER

"I am sure you will be glad to know that the Hartford church reached its Big Week goal, Sabbath, June 2. This was made possible by the faithful work done by our members in cooperation with Sister Walsh's leadership.

"While we have a large amount to raise in order to keep our pennant, we are of good courage, and are determined with the Lord's help to make June 16 a dollar day for missions."

The Hartford church aims to share its part in helping to hasten the coming of Jesus. We trust that each church will meet its objective, and that a large offering will come into the treasury at the close of the month.

Come to Campmeeting

The conference workers and a few additional elders are busy getting the camp ready for the annual encampment of God's people. Good progress is being made with the Lord's continued blessing, and we hope to be ready in good season.

As in other matters, our conference president, Elder Wells, is setting us a good example and is spending all the time possible working with us on the campground.

We trust this vast amount of labor will be of real benefit to a large number of our people. Therefore, be sure to plan to come, and pray earnestly that the Lord will make the 1934 campmeeting the best ever held and a real blessing to every person attending. We hope you will not only come yourself, but that you will also bring the children to enjoy the feast of good things with us.

Sister Gerald will again have charge of our Primary tent, and Sister Rasmussen, one of our able church school teachers, will have charge of the Kindergarten tent this year. Both have selected a group of competent teachers to assist them, so rest assured that the interests of our children will be well taken care of, and bring the lambs of the flock to enjoy the campmeeting with you. F. BOHNER.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

It is always a source of great encouragement to us as a people when new churches are organized. Several years ago an interest was developed between Union Springs and Ithaca. This interest has been fostered until it was my privilege, in company with Brethren Lawrence, Frank and Bement, to organize a church of twenty members Sabbath, June 2, at Lansingville. This church will apply for membership in the sisterhood of churches at our conference session.

Sabbath, June 9, I joined with Elder Walker in a district meeting at Albany. On Friday evening Professor Wright spoke to the young people; Sabbath morning it was my privilege to speak to the congregation; then in the afternoon, following a strong presentation of the principles of our message, Elder Walker baptized five dear people. Again, on Sunday evening, at the close of his service three more went forward in baptism. These services were a fitting climax to the winter's work in holding a brief series of meetings, and the complete renovation of the church. A beautiful new baptistry has been placed in the Albany church, which added to the beauty of the baptismal service. There are several more people interested. Brother Carcich, who plans to join Elder Walker in a tent effort this summer, was also present with us at the services.

When this article reaches you through the pages of the GLEANER, the camp will be partially erected here on the academy campus. Orders are coming in from our people for tents, leading us to anticipate a large attendance this year. We shall be happy to meet those whom we have met at the meetings in past years, and also to shake hands with the new converts who have accepted the message since our meeting one year ago. May we urge you that every effort be put forth to be present this year, realizing that the Lord holds in store a special blessing for His people when they gather in these holy convocations.

C. A. SCRIVEN.

MUSIC AT THE CAMPMEETING

INASMUCH as I have been asked to take charge of the music at the New York campmeeting this year, I am writing this note through the columns of the GLEANER, requesting that all those who play instruments bring them to campmeeting that we may have a good orchestra. David tells us to worship the Lord upon instruments of music, so let all those who play report to me upon their arrival at campmeeting. With close cooperation, I am sure it will be an enjoyable occasion when we shall praise God with the talents with which He has blessed us. I am also looking forward to meeting the sweet singers of Israel. We want to organize a good choir from the start blending our voices in songs of praise to our heavenly King. V. C. TOWNSEND.

SPECIAL INVITATION TO UNION SPRINGS ACADEMY ALUMNI, FORMER TEACHERS, AND BOARD MEMBERS

UNION SPRINGS ACADEMY graduates are to have an Alumni Association, with former and present teachers and board members as honorary members.

A special reunion will be held on the last Friday of campmeeting at 3:30 P. M., in the Academy chapel. At this time officers will be chosen, and further plans for the association will be adopted. No membership fee will be charged, so come and enjoy a real reunion with the present faculty and students and see yourself as you looked many years ago.

This will be an opportunity to recall former experiences and renew friendships formed at Union Springs Academy.

Plan now to come and spend the 4th of July and the remainder of the week at the New York camp-meeting, and be sure to be here for Academy Day in the big tent and the Union Springs Reunion immediately following at 3:30 on Friday afternoon, July 6.

KENNETH A. WRIGHT, Principal.

UNION SPRINGS ACADEMY

By the time the GLEANER reaches you, the 1934-35 Union Springs Academy Catalog and Announcements will have been mailed. If you have not yet received one, we shall be glad to send you one if you will send a card to the principal of the school asking for a copy.

As we start our field work, we are very much encouraged with the prospects for another year.

Campmeeting will soon be here, and I would urge our young people to come and enjoy the spiritual blessings which it presents each year. KENNETH A. WRIGHT.

ELDER H. P. GRAM FOR NORTHERN VERMONT

The executive committee voted unanimously to invite Elder H. P. Gram to take the leadership of the Northern Vermont district and he has accepted the call, planning to take up his duties immediately following the conference session. He will no doubt desire to visit the field and make a survey of the territory in order to determine the most favorable location as headquarters for the general good of the work of the district.

Elder Gram and his family will throw themselves whole-heartedly into the work in their usual vigorous, enthusiastic way. The people of Northern Vermont will of course rally to his leadership and give the best cooperation possible.

We are surely glad to welcome Elder Gram back to our ranks after a year's absence, knowing that the Lord will bless his labors as in the past. Our prayers will follow this fine family to their new field of labor.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO ME?

I HAVE just read that there were 100,000 suicides in this old world during the past year. We know America is not falling behind in this matter, as fifty-five millionaires committed suicide last year in just one of our largest cities. Crime is increasing. Strikes are becoming more numerous; the re-birth of the Papacy reveals the surety of prophecy; Protestantism has lost its hold and is sliding toward the precipice of doubt and infidelity. This weekend, through hurricanes and tidal waves, cities were destroyed and thousands of lives were lost. News of preparation for war is in all the papers, and fear is gripping the nations. What does all this mean to you and to me?

There is good reason to be fearful of the future. This world has almost run its course; we know it is time to look up; we know that our redemption draws nigh.

There can be no hope in man or money, we can only hope in God. As in Noah's day, we must invest all in the ark and trust in God. The onward march of the third angel's message is one bright picture that cheers us. As we see its onward march, we are thankful that souls are being warned and salvation is being brought to their very doors.

We hope you are planning to make a good offering to the Lord on the coming thirteenth Sabbath, as we cannot afford to let down in our offerings at this time. It is imperative that we hold all the work we have begun.

"Never in the history of the world have there been so many providential openings for the gospel in foreign lands. Never have the calls been more urgent for men and means, and never has there existed a greater need."

"Our burden for the 'regions beyond' can never be laid down until the whole earth shall be lightened with the glory of the Lord."—"Testimonies," Vol. I, p. 29.

The following plans and resolutions were adopted:

I

God's Blessings

WHEREAS, God, in His all-wise providence, has so graciously blessed and prospered His cause in the Greater New York Conference since we last met, we do, in all humility, express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to Him for all His manifold blessings, and in evidence of our gratitude we do solemnly surrender anew our unworthy lives to Him who hath loved us, in evidence of our deepest gratitude.

II

Foreign Literature

Recognizing the fact that truth-filled literature will occupy an important place in the finishing of God's work, and that through the agency of the printed page in a large way the message is going to peoples of many languages; and having been told by the Spirit of prophecy that "Many of these foreigners are here in the providence of God, that they may have opportunity to hear the truth for this time," and that "Those in responsibility must plan wisely to proclaim the third angel's message to the hundreds and thousands of foreigners in the cities of America,"

Resolved, That as watchmen on the walls, knowing the imminence of Christ's second coming, we undertake as never before to arouse our people to realize the vast possibilities through the circulation of our foreign periodicals and other literature in making known the message of the hour to many millions of people preparatory to the coming of our Lord.

III

Jewish Work

WHEREAS, The Jewish people are much interested in the views of civil and religious liberty as believed and taught by Seventh-day Adventists; and,

WHEREAS, Jewish editors have said that "Jews are greatly interested in the struggle for religious liberty . . . Christians who believe that Saturday is the universal Sabbath have our sympathetic accord and we should know more about them," and,

WHEREAS, At the present time an unusual opportunity offers itself to present still further to that people the true principles of the separation of church and state, therefore,

Resolved, That we invite the conference leaders and workers to unite with the Jewish Department in encouraging our churches in Greater New York to give the July number of the Yiddish-English monthly a wide circulation. This issue of the World Movement deals particularly with the principles of human rights as accepted and taught by Seventh-day Adventists. We believe its wide circulation will win for us the friendship and co-operation of the Jewish people, and will create in them a desire to become more familiar with our teachings.

IV

Sabbath School

WHEREAS, We recognize that the spiritual benefits of the Sabbath school to our people, both old and young, are unlimited, and that the Sabbath school has contributed in the past about 50% of the mission funds of this field, and is now invited to increase that to 62½% and,

Further, rejoicing that our Sabbath school membership has increased 855 in the two years past, or from 80% to 88% of the church membership, and that the mission offerings have increased proportionately during that time,

We earnestly recommend, That all our church and Sabbath school officers work unceasingly not only to hold our present membership, but to win all church members, resident and nonresident, either to active or Home Division membership in the Sabbath school.

(To be Concluded)

GREATER NEW YORK ACADEMY

THE closing exercises of Greater New York Academy were held the week-end of June 9 and 10. Elder W. A. Ralls of Patchogue, Long Island, was the baccalaureate speaker and gave us an excellent sermon. Following the sermon, he offered a consecration prayer for the senior class, and the class sang a consecration song.

On Sunday evening a large audience came to the commencement program, which was a combined class night and graduation exercise. Elder H. J. Capman gave the commencement address, and members of the class furnished other numbers on the program. Fourteen were granted diplomas; ten students received scholarship honor pins.

Professor L. G. Sevrens of Atlantic Union College has been a welcome visitor in our conference and school. We trust that many of our young people will plan on going to A. U. C. next year.

Plans are already being laid for increasing the efficiency of the work in our own Academy, and during the summer months we shall be glad to meet any who are interested in gaining a Christian education.

X. P. WALTON.

NEWS NOTES

WE CERTAINLY appreciate the excellent help Elder C. K. Meyers has given us during the past winter and spring. He has left for the West Coast now, but attended the Cedar Manor church last Sabbath. His church meets in the Masonic Temple in Jamaica and has a membership of twenty-nine, but the attendance last week was seventy.

Miss Hope Winsor has already taken up her duties as Bible worker. We welcome her to our field, and wish her the Lord's blessing in her work.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frank and Miss Otellie made us a visit and renewed old acquaintances. Mr. Frank is our former Bible House secretary, and is now connected with the New York Conference.

Miss Dorothy Bartlett, of Union Springs Academy, also visited us for a short time last week.

Elder S. M. Schleifer, of North Carolina, passed through New York City and paid us a brief visit in the office.

(Concluded from page 8)
these neighbors of ours into the fullness of the gospel of Christ.

The following persons have been added to our working force: Edna York of Camden, Maine; Arthur Sorenson of Long Island, N. Y.; Rozelle Wright of Lancaster, N. H.; Lydia Fuller of Utica, N. Y.

From the register we gather the following names of members of our churches: Milton and Mrs. Reynolds of W. Lebanon, N. H.; John McBeth, Boston; Paul Coates, Amston, Conn.; Flora Levenseller, Worcester, Vt.; Mrs. Malcolm Thurlow, South Lancaster; Mrs. Luella Garvin, Greensboro Bend, Vt.; Mrs. Irene James, Norridgewock, Maine; Ada Hitchings, Hudson, Mass.

Mrs. Marion Shuh, one of our patients, came by airplane from Burlington, Vt., to the Boston airport in a little over an hour. And then it took her nearly as long to reach the Sanitarium from the airport. Some day we may have our own private airplane to meet guests at the airport, which in a few minutes would wing them to our doors.

Elder and Mrs. Dexter motored to Calais, Maine, where they spent a week visiting their daughter, Mrs. Pamela Fox, who, with her daughter, returned with them to enjoy a needed vacation.

Our carpenters, George Nickerson and Manchester Ryder, are happier men since the installation of the new combination wood worker. Thirty-two different kinds of work can be done by this modern machine. It's a time and money saver, and fills a long-felt want.

Vernon Rickard, one of our faithful call boys, is convalescing after having undergone an operation for appendicitis.

She is survived by her husband; a son, Everett Reed; and a grandson, Melvin Reed. She also leaves a sister, Mrs. Frederick Smart and a brother, B. Frank White.

Sister Reed accepted the third angel's message under Elder Rice. She was one of the charter members of the Taunton English church.

The funeral was held May 16, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Smart. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer concerning the home of the saved.

N. E. SANITARIUM AND HOSPITAL

NEWS NOTES

ELDER A. T. ROBINSON of Angwin, California, who, for several years was chaplain of the New England Sanitarium, spent a few days with us. His many friends were delighted to greet him again, and to hear his voice from the pulpit once more. Besides the Sabbath sermon, Elder Robinson talked in chapel and at the vesper service. Come to see us again, Elder Robinson, before returning to your home in the West.

Miss Kathryn L. Jensen, of the Nurses' Division of the General Conference, spoke several times to the family on the importance of the work of the missionary nurse. Especially interesting was her survey of the work of nursing in all the world.

Dr. Clara Beckner Otis, who has been a member of our medical staff for many years, has gone to California to join her husband, Dr. Elmer Otis. At the farewell gathering, her many friends expressed their sincere regret at seeing the doctor leave. That will be a grand reunion in the kingdom of God when we shall meet to part no more.

The members of the Wakefield Lion's Club took their noon meal in our spacious dining room on a recent Tuesday, after which they visited the various departments of our well-equipped institution.

WE ARE glad for the good gain shown during May, as compared with April, but we still have less as compared with a year ago. May we not hope that every believer who has not yet brought in his pledge or given at least $2 to the Missions Extension fund will do so during June?

Bear in mind that twenty-five mission enterprises are looking our way for their portion of Big Week funds. Don't disappoint your missionaries on the hard and difficult mission frontiers. Cheer their hearts by doing your part.

ANOL GRUNDSET.

The following day the men of the Rotary Club of the same city enjoyed a vegetarian feast. The same evening forty of the women—wives of the leading men of Wakefield—had their supper with us. And so the message of health reform is being appreciated. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit may lead
