THE CHURCH OF TOMORROW DEPENDS ON THE YOUTH OF TODAY

By E. A. VON POHLE

It is somewhat difficult to estimate definitely what per cent of homes are giving any attention at all to the religious instruction of the children around the hearth; but we believe that no more than one per cent of the homes of America any longer have family prayer or give any attention to the religious instruction of the children of the home.

All are very careful to give their children shelter, food, apparel, and education, but few give any serious consideration to the spiritual needs of their children. It is estimated that only about five per cent of America's youth attend church regularly, and about fifteen per cent attend part of the time. About eighty-five per cent never attend at all, and have no contact whatever with organized religious life.

With the Bible and Biblical religion, and the teaching of morals based upon the Bible left entirely out of education, with the church and home reaching so few of our youth, it is not surprising that delinquency and crime are increasing among the youth of today.

The Lord has said, "Remember now thy creator in the days of thy youth." Adventists should certainly rejoice and seize the opportunities which our denomination has provided for the religious education of our children and youth.

The Home Commission through its work provides opportunity for parents to learn the nature and needs of children and youth. Every parent should be familiar with its work.

The Christian school provides religious education five days a week for our children hand in hand with an education which equips them also for this life.

The Missionary Volunteer Society is the finest young people's organization in the world, and parents should encourage their children to become members. Its work is "to save from sin and to guide in service."

The right use of these agencies will assure us of a church of tomorrow composed of our children of today, and also help to fulfil the prophecy which says:

"With such an army of workers as our youth, rightly trained, might furnish, how soon the message of a crucified, risen, and soon-coming Saviour might be carried to the whole world."

The church of tomorrow does depend on the youth of today.

Fallen at His Post

By ANOL GRUNDSET

SINCE writing the article appearing in the GLEANER for May 16, headed "Dao Gao, Dao Gao, Dao Gao," our beloved and able Dr. Coulston has passed away.

From a letter just received from Elder Cossentine, I pass on the following, which I believe will be of interest to our readers:

"Dr. Coulston has now laid down his labors. He died of diphtheria, June 23, at the Peking Union Medical College Hospital in Peking. He is buried at Kalgan, where he worked and where his baby is buried. His funeral in Kalgan was a large event, participated in by representatives of the provincial and city authorities, with a police escort for the cortege.

Eulogistic banners and many wreaths were sent by various authorities, missionaries, business, and diplomatic representatives. At the memorial service in Peiping, many leading missionaries of the various boards represented there attended. Dr. Miller gave the funeral address in both places. All our foreign staff except myself were present. I was in the field and did not learn of the tragedy in time to be present.

"Dr. Coulston had been ill a week. From early in his illness he and his wife both seemed to realize that it was his last illness, and so laid plans for her future before he passed away. At the early age of twenty-eight has passed one who was already a very successful physician and surgeon, an ardent missionary, and one of the outstanding foreign students of the Chinese language that has appeared during the last two decades.

"It was my privilege on the trip I mentioned in my last letter to spend some time about the institution Dr. Coulston headed, to witness more than half a dozen operations, and to visit his clinic at the chapel and at the jail. He had made his institution self-supporting; in a little over a year he had gathered together an efficient staff of graduate nurses; he had seventy-two patients in the hospital when taken ill, and was preparing to enter the interior of Mongolia to start dispensary work there. The Lord has let him lay off the harness in the beginning of his strength. We know not why, but leave the matter with God. At present Dr. Herbert K. Liu, who has just returned from the States for service at the college, is carrying on till we can get another foreigner to take charge."

How sad this news is to us as we think of China's great needs. Our brother had accomplished a great work in a short time and endeared himself to many in his self-sacrificing ministry of physical and spiritual help given.

Another medical missionary must be sent, and it will take funds to send him. The present Ingathering effort is to provide such pressing needs the world over and keep our missions going.

Every believer should feel it a privilege to lift in the present crisis.

ON Sabbath, August 25, the members of the Kingston church, after a brief service in the afternoon, gathered at Spring Lake, near Kingston, to witness a baptism of seven persons. The day was ideal, in keeping with such a service. As the candidates went into the water, the audience sang, "I Will Follow Thee," and other songs that are expressive of this service. Some strangers and swimmers stood by, and in awe beheld a scene never before witnessed.

It might be of interest to the GLEANER family to learn of the experience one brother had when coming into this truth. Inasmuch as he was a salesman, he happened to call at the door of one of our members (a colporteur), and shortly the discussion of religion was entered upon. Before leaving that home that day, appointments had been made for Bible study. Eager to learn, he was not satisfied with one study a week, but three and four became regular. Very much troubled over the Sabbath question, he sought for wisdom from two resident pastors of Kingston; but these, to his amazement, could not give him what he was looking for, and instead of making him stronger in his old belief he was all the more convinced that what he had recently learned was the truth, and therefore took his stand for it.

Being the Sunday School superintendent and a deacon of his former church, it was necessary for him to hand in his resignation in writing, which opportunity he used to plead with the members of that church to search the Scriptures and follow the light as it comes to them. He is now a faithful colporteur, seeking for souls that would be saved.

On Sabbath, September 1, we had another beautiful baptism in Newburgh. We were blessed by a visit from Elder Heckman, who gave us a wonderful message at the time of the regular church service. In the afternoon the members all gathered at the home of Sister Stein to witness the burial in baptism of twelve persons. The spot was ideal and peaceful. The pastor made a few remarks on the meaning and significance, after which Elder Heckman offered prayer. As the candidates went into the water and came out, songs of prayer and surrender were sung by the audience. Of those that went forth we might relate some wonderful experiences, but space will not permit. However, one young man has already created an interest on the part of his family, also the family of his fiancée. We expect to start studies with them soon.

We praise the Lord for His wonderful blessings. It certainly fills our hearts with joy as we see men and women heeding the call to "come from Babylon." We solicit the prayers of the GLEANER family in behalf of the work in this field.

J. J. DOLLINGER.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

OUR brethren and sisters will be glad to know that we have been given permission by the City Welfare Commissioner to solicit on the streets with special cans again this year from October 15 to 31.

The Jamaica (Cedar Manor) church is the first church in our conference to reach its $10 per capita goal. During this week we received word that the Jamaica church had not only reached its goal but gone over.

In spite of the rain last Sabbath, there was a good attendance at the White Plains and New Rochelle churches. Elder Heckman gave a timely discourse at these churches, and all seemed very much pleased with the service.

SABBATH SCHOOL INVESTMENTS

"THE cause of God is a sure bank that can never fail, and the investment of our time, our interest, and our means in it is a treasure in the Heavens that faileth not."—"Testimonies," Vol. III, p. 90.

During the next two months our Sabbath schools will be garnering in investment funds from members who have taken God's promises at par value, and have had a living faith in them. This number is growing. Not every member in Greater New York may have "invested" in the Sabbath school as yet, but every Sabbath school numbers some. As a result, during 1933, $930 was the sum total of the Investment Fund, and practically the same amount came in in 1932. How we would like to see that swell to a four-figure amount when the 1934 finals are all in. The largest total in any one quarter was for the fourth quarter of 1933, when nearly $600 was received. Let us bring in all the offerings we have invested, and make it larger still this last quarter of 1934.

Now just a few instances, much condensed, of how God has blessed others:

A sister gave a tree to the Lord that had never borne more than six apples a year, and in the fall, by His blessing, it yielded twenty-one bushels of fine apples that sold for $21. A sister raised flower plants indoors from seeds, and netted $30 in the fall.

A baby, selected in the spring to be the Investment baby, gained eight pounds during the summer, and the pledges made on her "growing" netted $60. The next spring an offering of $127 from the same Sabbath school testified to the interest and faith aroused by the good investment the year before.

A busy sister, who helps her husband in the grocery store they operate, decided to save on the laundering of the white aprons they wear at work, and in doing them by machine saved $25 for the Lord in one year.

A sister watched for special sales in groceries and provisions. She would avail herself of these, even though it meant longer trips. She figured out the savings and placed the amount in the Investment Fund.

In a certain church twin babies were born. One was a victim of birth paralysis. Doctors and specialists could not help it. The Sabbath school decided to dedicate the twin babies to the Lord and ask His blessing upon the little afflicted one. The Lord heard their requests, and during the year that baby became as well as the other, and was walking and playing quite as the well one. E. BLANCHE MARKHAM, S. S. Sec.

THE BOSTON EVANGELISTIC EFFORT

THE first meeting to be held in the Boston Symphony Hall, on Massachusetts Avenue, will be Sunday evening, September 30. We give every person who lives within driving distance an urgent invitation to attend this first meeting. We advise you to plan to come early, for we fully expect to see an overcrowded house. Approximately 2500 seats will be free, but we are reserving 700 seats for individuals who will be willing to pay 25¢ each for them. Why not write us to reserve a certain number of seats for you and your friends, and by this plan be assured that there will be a place for you even though you might arrive late? Write Elder C. R. Gibbs, care of the Seventh-day Adventist Temple, Corner of West Canton Street and Warren Avenue, Boston, Mass., or telephone Commonwealth 8710.

Evangelistic Fund

Approximately $2900 was pledged at campmeeting toward this large Boston effort. May we urge you to send in the amount of your pledge at once. Please remember it was your promise made at campmeeting that encouraged us to go ahead with this large effort in Boston.

We are also making definite plans for every minister to hold an effort somewhere in his district this winter. We need your cooperation. If you did not make a pledge at campmeeting, we invite you to decide now to have a part in this great soul-winning campaign. Give your money to your church treasurer, and mark it "Evangelism Fund."

F. D. WELLS.

OPPORTUNITIES

OPPORTUNITIES are lurking on every side, and are unnoticed by many who, in their mind, are longing for just such opportunities.

There are people who have a longing in their hearts to have some part in the finishing of the Lord's work on the earth, and cannot find it, yet on every side the Lord is opening the way if they would only step forward.

At the present time Southern New England has a number of real opportunities for the members of this conference. The student magazine workers are back in school, and their territory is open for others to work. The people are acquainted with our magazines and want them. The opportunity is open. Will you respond? If interested, write the undersigned.

HARVEST INGATHERING PROGRESSOGRAPHS

ON September 1 it was my privilege to meet with our New Haven English and German churches and to join with them that evening and the following day in singing band and house-to-house work. Both of these churches have reached the halfway mark and are now on the home stretch. Elder Taylor is pushing the good work throughout the district, and Sister Taylor is assisting loyally. Undoubtedly victory will crown their efforts in a few more weeks.

Sister Kehrein, our faithful German Bible worker, not only reported a good sum gathered in, but also twenty interested ones found thus far.

Speaking of one loyal worker brings to mind another, for Sister

Spencer, our Worcester Bible worker, although having passed the threescore and ten mark has raised over $300 thus far. Such loyalty is indeed commendable, and should be an inspiration to those much younger.

Sabbath, September 8, afforded an opportunity to visit our Springfield and Northampton churches and to do some field work. Sister Ferguson is energetically leading out in the campaign work in Springfield, and we were all happy to learn that $600 of their $1100 goal was in hand. A few more weeks of faithful work and our Springfield church will be able to sing the song of victory.

OWING to the tardiness of several of our Sabbath school secretaries, our honor rolls for the second quarter are rather late, which we regret.

We wish to express our appreciation for their faithfulness to the forty-eight schools listed on these two honor rolls, and hope it may be our privilege to list many additional names for the third as well as the last quarter of 1934.

As we are standing on the threshold of the last quarter, shall we not resolve to make it the very best of the entire year?

If we have been careless in the past, let us turn over a new leaf and determine to spend at least ten minutes each day in the study of our Sabbath school lesson, and to be present and on time each Sabbath of the last quarter.

If we are not members of any Sabbath school now, let us definitely yoke up, for we cannot afford to miss its blessings.

If we have not been as liberal in our Sabbath school offerings as we should have been, let us heed our Master's admonition, "Freely ye have received, freely give."

Each class, division, and school should have a definite weekly and thirteenth Sabbath goal worthy of its best efforts. In many cases, no doubt, these goals should be increased in view of our increased tithe income. If careful work along this line is done immediately, there is no doubt but what many more of our schools will reach our General Conference minimum goal of 25 cents a week per church member and $1 per member on the thirteenth Sabbath for the last quarter, and thus be entitled to a place on our Sabbath school financial honor roll at the end of the year.

"The Lord has marked every phase of missionary zeal that has been shown by His people in behalf of foreign fields.

"He designs that in every home, in every church, and at all the centers of the work, a spirit of liberality shall be shown in sending help to foreign fields, where the workers are struggling against great odds to give the light to those who sit in darkness."—"Gospel Workers," p. 466.

OVER THE TOP

HOULTON reports they are over the top, with an average of $21.40 per member. We believe this is the highest per capita for any church in this union. Berlin, N. H., reports an average of $17.62 per member.

At the Bangor meeting one sister told how she raised her funds. Living in the country, it was a problem to know how to get her $10. Today she has $42, which came through asking callers at the home, writing letters to friends, and when she goes to market, sometimes at three o'clock in the morning, she solicits prospective customers. Where there is a will there is a way.

One sister writes: "Early this summer it seemed a physical impossibility for me to do anything for Harvest Ingathering, but by working two and a half hours a week I've been able to gather $13.57. It is wonderful how the Lord blesses when we do our little best."

One brother has been blessed to such an extent that he writes: "I am almost tempted to become a colporteur so that I can spend all my time telling others this wonderful truth." I wish all those who go Harvest Ingathering would have the same desire. There is room in the Lord's work for all.

Elder Bunker's face shone as he told of one business man giving him a check for $20, with an invitation to come next year. All the ministers in this conference, with their multiplied duties, are putting their shoulders to the Harvest Ingathering as well as the laymen. This is as it should be, in the Lord's army all are workers.

Recently Elder L. H. Gardiner, of the Leeward Islands Conference, has been visiting the churches. Our hearts were stirred as he told of entire villages begging for Bibles and teachers, of how churches were not large enough to hold the worshippers, and of some villages where every person was a Sabbath keeper. It is strange that here we must almost force men to listen to the gospel message, while in other lands they are literally begging for it. These Harvest Ingathering funds which are being taken from door to door by our members are to answer these calls where the message is wanted. Each one should ask himself, Am I doing my part?

LARGE BAPTISM AT GLENS FALLS

LAST Sabbath, at the close of a tent effort conducted between Hudson Falls and Glens Falls by Elder H. W. Walker and Brother Theodore Carcich, a baptismal service took place at which time Elder Walker baptized forty-eight persons. Members were present from all parts of the Albany District, and in spite of the inclement weather there was an attendance of 300 at the Sabbath service. An offering was taken for evangelism in the Albany District, and nearly $100 was contributed. It is Elder Walker's plan to use this money to help hold an effort in Amsterdam, which he will commence next month.

Our members in the Albany District have loyally given their services in the Harvest Ingathering campaign, and in spite of the fact that Elder Walker has been giving his time almost exclusively to the effort, the large Albany District (which is next to the largest in the conference) stands second from the head in per capita Ingathering gifts.

We feel that this tent effort has been remarkably successful, and it has demonstrated that a successful effort can be held even during the Ingathering campaign. We hope that this is merely the beginning of a large increase in membership in this conference. We surely feel indebted to Elder Walker and the group of loyal workers who have been associated with him.

M. V. CAMPBELL.

UTICA OVER THE TOP

UTICA is rejoicing over the fact that its goal is reached. The other churches in the district are working to this end. We are making every effort to go over by October 1. If all will get under the load, it can easily be done. It means that if each member will raise $3 more, the goal will be reached. Why don't you do it? You will do it, will you not? You say, Yes! But just pledge yourself to do it before October 1.

We can be the first district over, and that is the way it can be done. God may be impressing you to make a substantial offering to the Harvest Ingathering. Just listen for that "still small voice," and then follow its counsel.

If everybody will arise and respond, our task will be completed. May God bless you.

COLPORTEUR RALLY IN NEW YORK CONFERENCE

Oct. 6-14

ELDER E. E. Franklin, associate secretary of the General Conference Publishing Department, Elder B. M. Preston, Atlantic Union field secretary, and I are planning to visit a number of the churches in our conference in the interest of the literature ministry, with plans as follows:

A week-end rally in Buffalo, October 6 and 7, when our regular colporteurs living in the western part of the State will be called in; Tuesday morning, October 9, chapel services at Union Springs Academy; Wednesday evening, October 10, Binghamton; Thursday evening, October 11, Utica; A week-end rally in Albany, Sabbath and Sunday, October 13 and 14, when the colporteurs living in the eastern part of the State will be called in from that section.

These meetings will be of special interest to all who are anxious to see the work of God advance and to hasten the coming of our Lord. We invite all who can possibly avail themselves to attend these meetings.

I. M. EVANS,
Field Secretary.

BAPTISM IN THE ALBANY DISTRICT

SABBATH, September 15, nearly three hundred of our people gathered in the big tent at Hudson Falls. The gathering seemed like another campmeeting as cars and trucks loaded with people drove in from all ends of the district. Elder M. V. Campbell, president of the conference, gave a very helpful and timely message at the morning service in presenting the need of repentance, conversion, and a changed life to conform with God's desire for a Christian.

There was a brief meeting in the afternoon for the examination of candidates, after which we gathered in the First Baptist church of Glens Falls for the baptism. It was a wonderful sight to see this large class of forty-eight go down into the watery grave to become a part of God's family, and to join themselves to this great movement.

Words can never express our gratitude to those who have been praying for the success of these meetings. We know from the reports received that our ministering brethren and laity over the conference have borne a burden before God that has had much to do with the results of the meetings. And we are glad to tell you that others are being prepared for baptism in the future. As we were leaving the grounds, one brother who has resisted bitterly, came to the writer and with tears in his eyes asked to be baptized at the next baptism. I feel that some of our very best converts are yet to be harvested.

Brother and Sister Theodore Carcich will remain at Glens Falls for the winter. Brother Carcich will carry on a series of evangelistic meetings there after January 1. This will do much to strengthen what has already been accomplished, and will result, I believe, in many baptisms.

During the remainder of the fall we plan to hold a series of evangelistic meetings in St. George's Hall on Market Street, Amsterdam. We expect these meetings to begin October 14, and continue until Christmas. We earnestly solicit the continued prayers of our people in behalf of these meetings.

The work our people have done in the Harvest Ingathering has been very gratifying. It was a joyful thought Sabbath that forty-eight people were baptized that otherwise might not have occurred had it not been for the loyalty of our people in the Harvest Ingathering, thus releasing Brother Carcich, Mrs. Walker and me for the evangelistic work. We hope this same zeal will continue that we may prepare for another harvest of souls before the new year opens. Already we have baptized sixty persons in the district this year, and we are praying that God will help us to make it a hundred before the year closes.

We must speak a word of commendation for the spirit manifested by the Gloversville church, which is leading the conference. It is the youngest church in the district, and one of the youngest in the conference. It has already gone over $11 per capita, and I understand they plan to raise about $45 more to add to their goal. Let us all keep earnestly at the Ingathering until the full $10 per member goal has been raised for the district.

HOWARD W. WALKER.

READY FOR THE NINTH GRADE, BUT

"MY DAUGHTER is ready for the ninth grade, but I do not have the money to send her to an academy. Can she take ninth grade studies through the Home Study Institute? and will she receive full credit for her work when she goes back to the academy?"

We are glad to answer "Yes" to these questions. A pupil can take the whole of the ninth or tenth grade, or any high school grade, through the Home Study Institute, and for the work thus taken full credit will be allowed in all our academies and colleges. Pupils may also take a year of college work through the Institute, and some are doing it. Young people may also take a part of a high school year or one or two college courses. Such students can live at home and be at

OBITUARY NOTICES

THOMAS.—Irving Thomas was born at Ipswich, N. H., Aug. 16, 1876, and died suddenly at his home near Wickford, R. I., from a heart attack, Aug. 11, 1934, having reached nearly fifty-eight years of age. He accepted the advent message about eighteen years ago under the preaching of Elder A. T. Robinson, uniting with the church at Slocum, R. I., where he remained a faithful and honored member till the day of his death. Because of his devout Christian character, and his excellent reputation in the community, as well as his ability as a leader, he served his church as their local elder for the last ten years of his life. He was a most faithful and energetic Harvest Ingathering worker, often collecting three to five hundred dollars in one campaign. He leaves a wife and daughter, four brothers, and two sisters who sense very keenly this loss. But all share in the belief that their loved one was prepared to die, and that he will come forth in the first resurrection.

Hannah Crowell. Her mother having died when she was quite young, she was taken to St. Johnsville, N. Y., where she resided with her grandmother, Mrs. Dyslin. It was here she received her education. At the age of nineteen she was married to Andrew Jackson Kimball, to which union was born three boys and four girls. Two of these children survive her, Elizabeth and Duane.

In the year 1918 the writer held a tent effort just across from Mrs. Kimball's home, Mrs. Kimball, her daughter, Elizabeth, and granddaughter, Virginia (who is now employed as stenographer in the General Conference office) were some of the fruits of this effort. Mother Kimball was loyal and devoted to the faith till death. About two weeks before she died she suffered a slight stroke. She passed away quietly. The funeral was held at her home, and she rests in the Fair View Cemetery awaiting the call of the Master on the resurrection morning.

REPORT FOR WEEK ENDING Sept. 15, 1934

A SISTER in Albany went out rather fearfully. Coming to a home, the lady said, "Come in, I've been saving for the Lord," and brought her 400 pennies.

Glenda Rolfe, eleven years old, has solicited over $25, mostly from house-to-house.

A singing band went to a street that had netted practically nothing, and secured $7.

If one way fails, try another.

Houlton, Maine, is over the top, with an average of $21.40 per member.

BERMUDA OVER

WE ARE happy to report that Bermuda has reached its full goal of $10 for every member in the island. Regarding the campaign, Elder J. Capman writes:

"Our churches have their $10 per member goal. We reached this amount about September 1. We are now trying to go beyond our last year's record. We have a few Ingathering papers left, but will use them. It has been a pleasure to work here in the island with our churches; they surely responded to the Harvest Ingathering plan, and we soon reached our goal. It is wonderful what a church can do when the whole church joins in an active campaign. Organization and cooperation count for success."

This is surely a good report from Bermuda, and a real lift to missions.

ELEMENTARY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

October 12-15, 1934

AN institute for all elementary teachers of the Atlantic Union Conference will be held at South Lancaster, Mass., beginning Friday evening, October 12, at 7:30, and continuing through Monday, October 15.

Every elementary teacher of the Atlantic Union Conference is expected to attend. Arrangements should be made by the teacher with the conference superintendent of education, and also with the local school board for the institute.

UNION OFFICE NEWS NOTES

FRIDAY, September 14. Elder B. M. Preston joined Elders Weak and Mace in Greater New York, where several meetings were held in the interest of the colporteur ministry. Thursday night Elder Preston met Elder W. P. Elliott, of the Review and Herald Publishing Assn., following which several appointments were filled in the Southern New England Conference.

Elder Anol Grundset met with the Springfield and Clayton churches on Sabbath, remaining for a field day in the latter place on Sunday.

College and sanitarium board meetings, also meetings of the Southern New England Conference committee, have claimed the time and attention of Elder J. K. Jones during the last few weeks.

Elder W. P. Elliott, manager of the Periodical Department of the Review and Herald Publishing Assn., was a welcome caller at the office on Sunday.

small expense for board and room. While they are studying through the Institute they can also have time to earn some money with which to pay their way in college another year. It is very unfortunate to miss a year in college or academy. By taking the work at home under the guidance of the Institute, the student can keep up with his class and save money.

Special financial arrangements are made with students who do good work and complete four full units of high school studies within the nine months of the school year. Write for particulars. Our catalogue is yours for the asking.
