Our Literature Ministry

J. L. McElhany

IN the day of final reckoning, when the records of eternity are made up, there will be one outstanding fact in evidence; and that will be the number of souls saved as a result of the production and circulation of truth-filled literature. Undoubtedly the greatest single helper the living preacher has in the great work of soul winning, is the use of the printed page. It is impossible to overestimate the value and far-reaching influence of the publications that expound the truths of God's word.

The Lord has placed within reach the greatest possibilities for service through the literature ministry. Many possess the talents necessary to become efficient in literature evangelism, and if they will consecrate their talents to this work and secure the training necessary to make their work more successful, they may become real soul winners.

Our message-filled books open a door of opportunity in soul winning to hundreds who ought to be consecrating their time and efforts to this work. The people of the world need to know the meaning of the terrible events now disturbing the nations of earth. The eternal salvation of countless thousands depends upon making known to them the meaning of these things. There has never been a time when the need of bringing a knowledge of God's saving message to the people of the world has been so urgent as now.

Dear fellow believers, will you join the ranks of those who, by the use of our truth-filled literature, will unite in gathering a harvest of souls for the soon-coming kingdom?

Two Worlds

A RECENT book, "One World," in the last two months has had phenomenal sales, but with all of its popularity it only attempts to cover half the actual problems that face us. The real facts are that we, all of us, live in two worlds—one, the real, material, physical, visible, measurable world; the other, the intangible, invisible, immaterial world.

Our lives are like a ship at sea, keeping its course day and night through storms, wind, waves, breakers, fog, and the fury of the deep—actually surrounded by that which is dangerous, that which can be seen, felt, and feared. Yet as the ship moves through the ocean, it also moves in another world, invisible and intangible, the invisible, powerful forces playing with magnetic fingers on the ship's compass, and the uncanny instruments aboard keep the vessel on its course and bring it to its destination. Life is like that. Two worlds—physical and material on one hand; spiritual values, ideals, and faiths on the other.

This living in two worlds has been a big problem to all who have lived on the earth, and few there be who have learned to live successfully in both worlds at the same time. The real Christian is the one who has peace and serenity in both realms.

Dr. Jekyll, of literary fame, was bent on discovering a drug that would keep its victim in his "one world," and not permit him to make intermittent journeys into the other. Alas, but no such subtle drug can be discovered to separate us into our component parts and thus save us from meeting squarely the problem of living in two worlds. Our children can and must be taught to do it successfully. Actually, our church recognizes both worlds, and their importance and dangers to our everyday lives. In fact our church has established a system of schools calculated to teach the child how to relate himself to these two worlds, and to live successfully in each. Send your children to such a school.

THE July issue of the Watchman Magazine contains a presentation, conspicuously featured, on "I Salute the Flag," by Weldon Taylor Hammond, which article is not only a classic in its own right, but will settle once and for all this question concerning our relationship to the government and to the flag.

The July issue of the Watchman Magazine is dedicated to the cause of religious freedom in America. For this reason it appears in an attractive three-color cover. The articles and illustrations of this special number are excellent, and there is every indication that the Watchman and Message publications will pass 100,000 each for the month of July.

Some of the special features include an article by Ellen G. Kernan, an excellent essay on religious freedom inspired by the dedication of the memorial to Jefferson, April 13; "Is Religious Legislation Right?" by H. F. De' Ath, London correspondent, which is a clear portrayal of the principles involved in Sunday legislation; "The Boon of Religious Liberty," by A. R. Church School Programs

A SERIES of inspirational and well-planned graduation exercises were held recently in the churches of Greater New York conducting church schools. The first closing school program was held in the Ephesus church Sunday night, June 6. The program, given under effective lighting conditions, demonstrated the faithfulness and hard work of pupils and teachers.

The Poughkeepsie program, given Thursday night, June 1, included a

Greater New York Junior Camp Rally

PLACE: Greater New York Academy Chapel.

WHO SHALL ATTEND? All conference Juniors, parents, and others interested in camp.

NATURE OF PROGRAM: Remarks and pictures of last year's camp, and special film entitled "Youth in Camp."

portrayal of the making of our first flag and an awarding of two eighth-grade diplomas. It was inspiring to see the pupils render their parts so well.

The Staten Island church school gave its program Sunday night, June 13. The thirteen pupils of our newest school in the conference had learned well their parts on the program. Bouquets were given by the pupils to the two teachers who had carried the school work so well during the present school term. Opportunity was also given the pupils to present flowers to their parents.

Wednesday night, June 16, a most impressive program was given in the Washington Avenue church. The program demonstrated anew the high ideals that are formed in the lives of our church school pupils. Before the presentation of diplomas to the four students being graduated from the eighth grade, eleven pupils received progressive class pins in the Sunbeam, Builder and Friend classes.

The following night, June 17, both the City Temple and Danish-Norwegian schools had their graduation exercises. Five diplomas were presented at the Danish-Norwegian church, and four were presented by Pastor Taylor at the City Temple program.

Sunday night was the date for the Newburgh school program. There were no eighth-grade pupils enrolled in our church school, but their excellent program came as a fitting climax to a successful school term.

The final graduation exercise was conducted in the Ephesus church Sabbath morning and Sunday night, June 19 and 20. Elder Bunker gave the baccalaureate address Sabbath, and Sunday night the commencement address was given by President Jones, of Atlantic Union College. Seventeen diplomas were presented to the graduates after the commencement address. Six students completed their Junior high school work, and eleven were graduated from the eighth grade. These impressive services marked the termination of another successful school year. The boys and girls who have been guided on to greater heights by their teachers are also better prepared to gain new victories with the battle with sin. As never before, our children must receive their training in our own schools.

News Notes

ELEVEN churches were added to the victory list during the Ingathering "Big Week" ending June 26. These churches are as follows: Babylon, Czechoslovakian, Danish-Norwegian, Italian, Jugoslavian, Russian, Swedish New York, Temple, Washington Avenue, Bronx Company, and Brownsville. There are now twenty churches on the Honor Roll in Greater New York.

The Russian church had their full goal in hand a week ago, but in some way the report failed to reach us at that time. This group have been without the services of a pastor for some time, but they have, nevertheless, organized their forces and carried on a successful campaign in Ingathering. Such faithfulness is greatly appreciated.

The Brownsville Company, under Elder Kaplan's leadership, have gone over the top by ninety-one per cent. In one week's time they have brought in $210—an amount equivalent to their full goal.

The Italian church, with a membership of 176, have enjoyed one of the best Ingathering efforts in their history. To date 110 have received the individual minuteman emblem.

A woman living near our office in Forest Hills called recently to learn if this office were connected with the Bible Auditorium of the Air. As a child she had attended a Seventh-day Adventist Sabbath school, and though for many years she had been out of touch with those who believe the message, she has been an earnest Christian and expressed her sincere pleasure in learning that the conference office was located near her home, and in again meeting Seventh-day Adventist people. She is listening regularly to the radio broadcast and is thoroughly enjoying the Bible correspondence lessons.

Washington Avenue Church Progresses

AFTER a slow start, Ingathering went over June 25.

Two Ingathering weeks gave us a total of over $2,000.

In 1942 missions reached sixty cents per capita, and the Sabbath school reached thirty-two cents under the leadership of Miss Edythe Hartman.

A. E. LICKEY.

Junior Camp Opens Soon

ONLY a few days remain before the opening of Pine Grove Camp for the boys, Monday, July 19. Applications and train reservations to the camp should reach the conference office not later than the preceding Wednesday, July 14. Notification must be given the Erie Railroad officials July 14 concerning the number of boys who will go by train to Middletown. Pastor Reese Jenkins, of Babylon, who will also serve as one of our counselors at the boys' camp, will assist our boys leaving on the Erie Ferry from Chambers Street Monday morning at 10:40. The train leaves from Jersey City at 11 A. M. All luggage can be taken by train, but if our Juniors prefer, they can send their bedding by express to Middletown. A truck or other conveyance will be on hand in Middletown to take our Juniors to Pine Grove Camp.

Other conference officials assisting in our boys' camp are Elders Peterson and Larsen, of the Newburgh and Danish-Norwegian churches respectively. Professors Smart and Sowers of Greater New York Academy, will also be there. We believe our staff will prove sufficiently strong to guide aright the activities of our two-week camp. The Juniors can obtain their camp folders from their church pastors, or they can contact our office direct. Applications, with one dollar, should be sent to our office immediately.

Juniors should not forget to bring their ration books, or bring eleven points per week of blue stamps and fourteen points per week of red stamps. This is required by the Ration Board. Complete details are given in the camp folder.

A special Junior camp rally will be conducted in the Greater New York Academy Chapel Saturday night, July 10, at 8:15. Color pictures of last year's camp and an interesting sound film entitled "Youth in Camp" will be shown at this special Junior camp rally.

Union Springs Academy News Notes

MR. H. W. Bass, former principal of the Philadelphia Academy, has accepted a call to join the faculty of Union Springs Academy as Bible teacher. Mr. Bass has had many years of experience in our schools, and we feel that he will add real strength to the program at the academy.

The second floor of the boys' dormitory from the stairway toward the middle of the building is completely torn out. The floors have been leveled and new oak floors will be laid. The rooms will all be rewired and replastered. This floor of the dormitory will be as completely redone as was third floor last summer. The apartment for the dean of boys has also been torn out and is being rearranged and completely remodeled. Brother David Coon, of Union Springs, is in charge of the work.

In spite of the very late season and shortage of farm help, Mr. Silas Raymond, the farm superintendent, has his crops in and is giving them excellent care. He has put in a large garden which will supply quantities of fresh vegetables for the kitchen. He has 12,000 tomato plants in. His other crops include corn, wheat, hay, soy beans, buckwheat, and potatoes.

A number of students have picked out rooms they want for next year, but have not sent back their reservation fees. Requests are coming in for rooms all the time, but no room will be held unless the five-dollar reservation has been placed on it for each person desiring the room. The five dollars will be applied on the first month's expenses, and is nothing extra.

E. A. ROBERTSON, Principal.

Every Church to Reach the Goal

THERE are a number of churches that have not yet reached their full goal in the Ingathering. The next few weeks will prove the most profitable in getting this matter out of the way. If your church has not reached its goal yet, then will you not make it possible for all of us to say every church has reached its goal?

Our office is informed by the Utica church that they have the whole goal accounted for at this time. They have had some obstacles to surmount, but they were able to see victory for their church.

R. T. MINESINGER.

News Notes

MIDSUMMER Offering is to be taken in all our churches Sabbath, July 17. The Lord says he will gather His saints together unto Him; those who have made a covenant with Him by sacrifice. This is the time to sacrifice and get our money into the cause of God, that His work in the earth may be speedily finished. Plan to give a good liberal Midsummer Offering Sabbath, July 17.

Elder N. S. McLeod and the Buffalo East Side church are to be congratulated on their fine program of freeing their church from debt. They have done good work, and the five year contract was cleared up in a year and six months. We know all the members of the East Side church are happy, and we rejoice with them over the completion of this splendid program. Elder McLeod recently baptized four new believers, three into the Buffalo East Side church, and one into the Ebenezer church in Rochester.

The camp meeting in Jamestown over the week end of June 19 was held in the Y. W. C. A. We had a very fine attendance. The auditorium was packed on Sabbath and well filled on Sunday. The members in Jamestown rendered exceptionally good special music, which was very much appreciated and enjoyed by all in attendance. Those present from outside the district were: Elder J. F. Kent, from the union; O. T. Garner, Adam Rudy, D. P. Wood, W. A. Fagal, J. B. Frank, R. T. Minesinger, and David Johnson. Elder Scott baptized six on the Sabbath.

The Union Springs camp meeting was also well attended by the brethren from the near-by churches. We were happy to have with us Mrs. R. P. Kilgore and Miss A. E. Davis, from Atlantic Union College; Elders R. L. Hubbs, S. N. Rittenhouse, D. P. Wood, A. Houghton, and L. R. Scott; also David Johnson and Walton Smith. We had a very enjoyable and profitable time together.

Elder W. A. Fagal started his tent effort in Buffalo Sunday evening, June 27, with a good attendance.

The Rochester camp meeting services will be held in the church, 60 Grand Avenue, Rochester.

A fine report comes from Mrs. D. P. Wood, superintendent of the Rochester Sabbath school, concerning their Thirteenth Sabbath Offering of June 26. The amount received was $558, or, in other words, three dollars a member. The Sabbath school had its beginning in Rochester, and truly the spirit of the present-day Sabbath school is seen in Rochester.

Elder O. T. Garner went to Niagara Falls with Elder L. R. Scott, of Jamestown, who is locating in Niagara Falls to take charge of the work in that city and district, to look for a hall for a series of meetings this fall. A good location was obtained and we are looking forward to a strong effort in this famous city of the New York Conference.

Winchendon, Mass.—Winchendon was added to the growing list of victory churches on Thursday, July 1.

New London, Conn.—More than $300 in pledges was added last Sabbath to the $100 already reported by this church, which has been working without a district leader.

Plainfield, Conn.—Sister Mary Phillips, aged 79 years, was the first to reach the minuteman goal in this church. To do this it was necessary for Sister Phillips to walk long distances, as her neighbors are scattered over a wide territory.

Gardner, Mass.—Almost $200 was gathered by nine solicitors here on Thursday, July 1.

Lynn, Mass.—The believers here reported $59.75 on July 3, thus going beyond their church and minuteman goals.

Athol, Mass.—Athol became the eighteenth minuteman church in the conference on July 1.

Attleboro, Mass.—This church is still reporting more funds, though it already has a per capita of $15.04.

At least forty-one of our churches have now gone beyond their goals, and nineteen of them have a minuteman rating. We anticipate good reports from the eighteen churches still short, and expect most of these will be able to announce victory by the first Sabbath of camp meeting.

Auburn Regional Meeting

THE Auburn Regional Meeting was held in Auburn, Maine, June 25 to 26. We were happy to have Elders M. L. Rice and R. J. Christian, from the union, with us. Their messages were greatly appreciated by all. Elder Christian spoke Friday night; Elder Rice at the eleven o'clock hour Sabbath; the conference president at 2:30. This was followed by an ordination. Brother Branson Chrispens was ordained to the gospel ministry. At 4:30 P. M. a symposium was conducted, and in the evening Elder R. W. Moore, of Portland, Maine, delivered a splendid closing message. We pray that all who attended the meeting received new courage to press on in the Christian life.

Ingathering Reflections

To think that our Ingathering goal is reached, and that before the end of June, is almost like a dream. It has taken us just a little less than seven weeks—the shortest time in which we have ever reached our goal.

Some churches, of course, are not quite through yet; but these will keep right on until they have accomplished their task, also. In some cases these churches were retarded by the late spring, but we know they will bring up a strong rear.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all of our workers, officers, and members everywhere for the good work they have done. It has been a pleasure to work and plan with you.

A. F. RUF.

Educational Day— July 31

THIS is just an advance notice to all of our workers and church elders that a special program is prepared to be given in all of our churches on the above date. The material will be sent out to our district pastors and elders in plenty of time to give careful study and planning to it.

On that Sabbath, a special offering is to be taken in all of our churches for our conference educational work. We hope it will be a liberal one. The treasurer is to mark this offering "Educational," and send it in with the rest of the money to the conference.

We would request that on that day our educational work be remembered in a special way in prayer.

News Notes

ELDERS M. L. Rice, D. A. Ochs, W. C. Raley, and Brother L. E. Aldrich were in Bangor on business on June 29 and 30.

The Auburn-Lewiston Regional Meeting had favorable weather, and there were about 300 in attendance. The Sabbath school offerings amounted to $167.

The names of all interested persons found during the Ingathering should be sent in to the conference office, and we shall contact them with the 20th Century Bible Course.

Elder R. W. Moore, pastor of the Portland District, has returned from his vacation to Wisconsin.

Elder V. A. Anderson, pastor of the Manchester District, is out at the present time on his vacation. He is spending some time in Chicago and the West.

All the office workers, with the exception of Miss Virgene Sauer, attended the Auburn-Lewiston Regional Meeting on the 26th.

We have received word that the Camden church is definitely planning on a church school for the coming school year. We know that the Lord will bless them in their endeavors.

Mrs. Vera Emerson, one of our teachers, will contact many of the homes in Manchester this summer with 20th Century Bible Course literature. We trust that many will be enrolled through that means.

IN South Washington, Vt., stands an old community church. Some years ago it was the writer's privilege to preach the message in this church, and a number accepted the truth. Among these were Sister Zilla Frances Doyle. On June 3, 1939, Sister Zilla, her parents, and brother Edgar were baptized by the writer, and joined the Barre church, together with Brother Harold Henry Miles and others. And on June 8, 1943, in the same little South Washington church, Sister Zilla and Brother Harold were united in marriage by the writer as they stood under a beautiful arch of evergreen and lilacs, in the

OBITUARY NOTICES

SEAMAN.—Rose Lehnette Bradley was born February 9, 1883, in Union, N. Y. She quietly fell asleep at her home in Cortland, N. Y., January 27, 1943. She was married to Fred Seaman in Cortland, April 20, 1913. She was a member of the Cortland church, though because of failing health she was unable to attend regularly for some time.

She leaves her husband, other relatives, and friends to mourn their loss. Services were conducted in the Earl W. Wright Funeral Home on Sabbath afternoon. Words of comfort were spoken by Elder Glenn A. Coon, of Syracuse. She is laid at rest in the beautiful Cortland rural cemetery.

MABEL A. VREELAND.

HALL.—Mrs. Carrie Hall was born in Clearfield, Pa., August 5, 1875, and died in Albany, N. Y., February 20, 1943. On January 4, 1904, she was married to Roland K. Hall, to which union were born seven children, five of whom survived and were present at the funeral service. Mr. and Mrs. Hall made their home at Olean, N. Y., until about six years ago, when on account of failing health they moved to Albany to make their home with their children residing there. Mrs. Hall accepted the doctrines of Seventh-day Adventists under the labors of Elder J. N. Clapp about twenty-five years ago, and became one of the charter members of the Olean church. From the day she accepted this message until the time of her death she was very much interested in every phase of the church work. She worked untiringly in Ingathering and was always willing to help wherever help was needed. She will be greatly missed in the work in Albany. While she had been in ill health for some time, the end came very suddenly with a heart attack on Friday afternoon. That evening she was taken to the Albany hospital and died at two o'clock Sabbath morning.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, Roland K. Hall; two daughters, Mrs. Charles Walker of Albany, and Mrs. James Russell of South Lancaster, Mass.; Richard A. Hall and Charles F. Hall, also of Albany, and Edwin H. Hall of Bolivar, N. Y.

We believe she sleeps in Jesus and will be called forth to the resurrection of the just. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer, and she was laid to rest in beautiful Bethlehem Cemetery.

S. N. RITTENHOUSE.

WILTSE.—Mrs. Eliza L. Beardsley Wiltse, eighty-six, widow of Melvin Wiltse, died at the home of her son, William Wiltse, Busti, N. Y., on Sabbath, May 8. She is also survived by two other sons, Claude Wiltse of Jamestown, and Arthur R. Wiltse of Detroit; a daughter, Mrs. Mabel Earl of Warren, Pa.; a sister, Mrs. George Ward of Salamanca; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Her husband died in 1932.

Mrs. Wiltse, before her marriage, was principal of the Youngsville, Pa., school, and also taught at Randolph. She was a member of the church at Jamestown, N. Y., for many years. She was laid to rest in the cemetery at Busti, N. Y., in the hope of the resurrection.

L. R. SCOTT.

CLAYTON.—Katherine Yohe Clayton was born July 2, 1881, and died May 17, 1943, at her daughter's home in South Lancaster, Mass.

Sister Clayton was married to Martin J. Clayton May 1, 1904. She was baptized by Elder C. T. Everson over twenty-five years ago. She was a most faithful member of the church and assisted in the work among the Jewish people in New York City. She was very devoted to her Saviour. Her faith was strong to the very end. Her daughter gave her very devoted and efficient care.

She is survived by her husband; an only daughter, Mrs. May Burnett of South Lancaster; and four grandchildren. She will be missed by her many friends.

The funeral service was conducted by the writer. Interment was in the Eastwood Cemetery, Lancaster, Mass. "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

Last Report Shows Remarkable Progress

THE seventh week of our campaign closes with a total of $110,778 in hand. At the end of the seventh week last year we had $58,470.41.

Last year it was September 15 before we passed the total we had in hand this year on June 26. This week, undoubtedly the union will reach its goal of $116,500. Last year we reached it September 22.

This year we are planning not so much on our goal of $116,500, but on every Seventh-day Adventist reaching at least the full minuteman goal, $12.55.

Greater New York Conference reports the largest total of any conference this week, and from Brother Bunker we understand that it hopes to reach its full goal this week. Good success and good courage, Greater New York! Southern New England should easily pass its $40,000 this week. Good work!

New York stills leads in per capita. Congratulations to all of our believers in the New York Conference.

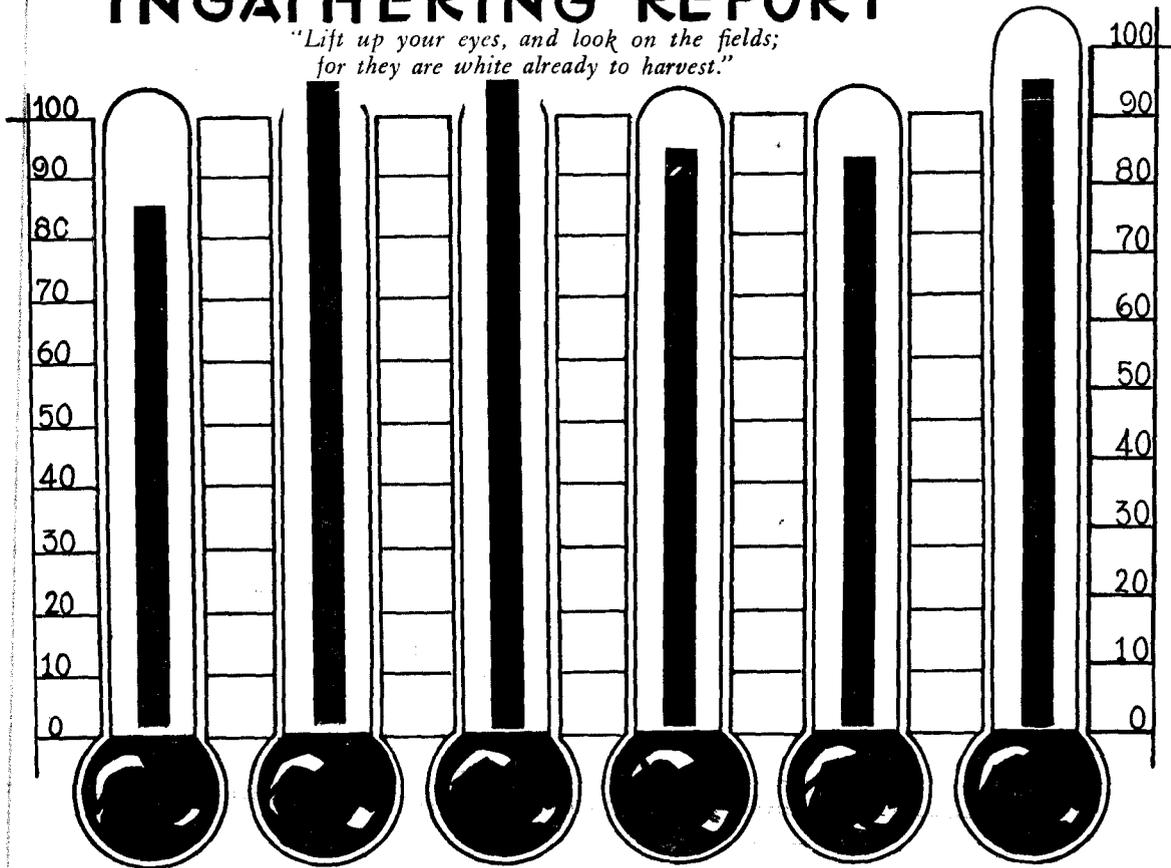

Northern New England Conference has the largest overflow over its goal of any conference in the union; and by the time it reaches its full per capita goal, the overflow will truly be most outstanding.

Bermuda lacks only eight per cent of having its full goal. Congratulations, Bermuda.
