"Harvest Time" in Hong Kong

By E. L. LONGWAY

A hundred mile an hour gale of wind, with rain falling in torrents, couldn't hinder seventy-six out of the seventy-seven candidates who had prepared for baptism at the joint baptismal service in the Boundary Road Church, Kowloon, Hong Kong, on November 6, 1954. These weather conditions did delay the opening of the meeting that afternoon, but before Pastor W. L. Pascoe, the treasurer of the Far Eastern Division, had finished his sermon, four of the five candidates who had been unable to reach the church because of the storm, arrived and joined in the ceremony.

This baptism rates special attention for a number of reasons. It is the largest baptism ever held in the Hong Kong area, and also the largest anywhere in the whole of China since before the war with Japan, which began in 1937. It is remarkable also because those baptized were almost exactly evenly divided as to sex. Another feature is the great majority of youth in the group. The youngest was a little girl of eleven, and the oldest a lady of about seventy, with bound feet.

Fully 75 per cent of this group have been students of the Voice of Prophecy Bible School in Hong Kong. All of them have been through the series of evangelistic efforts that were conducted in the Hong Kong and Kowloon churches during the last summer, and have had from two to four months of Bible studies in their homes. All of them have been keeping the Sabbath and paying tithe for some time.

To this time 157 have been baptized in the Hong Kong-Macao Mission since the first of the year, and candidates now preparing for the baptism scheduled for Christmas day will bring the total for the year well over two hundred, the largest number for any year in the history of the work in that mission.

I've just glanced at the statistical report for the Taiwan Mission, covering the first three quarters of this year. One hundred sixty-five baptized thus far this year! For this little union we will likely have over four hundred baptisms this year. And these dear people are but the first fruits of the great harvest waiting to be gathered home. The new Taiwan Sanitarium-Hospital will help to establish our work on a firmer basis. We need your best gifts this Christmas time, and know that we can depend on you. Thank you!

The Easy Way

Some people like to do things the hard way. Others study and plan to get the most done with the least effort.

As a lad I had a very much loved pet. His name was Nero, and his weakness was porcupines. He always came out second best, and I had special pliers to pull out the quills. He would squirm and cry, but he always went back for more. I tried to explain to him that if he insisted on fighting porcupines, it was foolish to continue doing it the hard way, but I didn't have much hope that I could ever teach him to do it the easy way—that is to grasp them by the nape of the neck.

One day I was cleaning out the barn when Nero stormed in with real excitement. Something important had happened, but I couldn't tell what. He pulled at my overalls and barked and started running toward the back of the barn. He led me to a dead porcupine. Nero hadn't a quill in his nose—he found out how much easier it was to do it the right way.

Everyone is going to do a wonderful job in Ingathering again next year. Last year the easiest money the denomination raised was from Thanksgiving to Christmas, by a million-dollar choir. In our union we raised $25,000. Several other unions raised over $100,000. This is the psychological time. People are poised, prepared, and ready. It is the spirit of this time of year to give.

This is the easy way. Those who have tried and found out how easy the money comes through caroling say they never had it so good.

There is one great danger, however. This method is so easy that there is the temptation not to do the house-to-house work and business sections later on.

Let's join the million-dollar choir. The easiest money we will raise in this campaign is waiting for us. The time is now. Caroling is the easy way.

William Miller Lives Again—

—in the pages and illustrations of Elder LeRoy E. Frooms' new book, Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, Volume IV.

The newly published set of books, now complete, is the greatest contribution to Adventist literature since Sister Ellen G. White finished the "Conflict of the Ages" series about forty years ago. It is profusely illustrated with pictures taken especially for this edition. It is the product of twenty years of intensive research on the part of Elder Froom and of many diligent helpers in three continents.

To those who like to get good value for money expended, I should be happy to suggest buying this latest volume, or the complete set, of Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers. It will provide most worth-while, informative, and inspirational reading for the long winter evenings just ahead. The price for the full set, postpaid, is $44.00; for single volume, $8.50. Order from the Book and Bible House, South Lancaster, Mass.

Literature Ministry

The librarian of a prominent church in a residential district of Long Island ordered Life and Health and These Times from a colporteur. These magazines made such an impression that the librarian wrote in immediately for a set of Children's Hour for the church library. (This set had been advertised on the back cover of Life and Health.)

It was my privilege, together with the colporteur, to appear before the committee of this church recently to display a number of our books for children. As a result, the committee voted to purchase for their library the following books: Children's Hour, Bed-time Stories, Pageant Series, Bible Pictures and Stories, Rainbow Series, Desire of Ages, and Bible Readings.

This experience reminds us of the statements made by the servant of the Lord: "If there is one work more important than another, it is that of getting our publications before the public, thus leading them to search the Scriptures."—Christian Service, p. 145.

"Our publications are now sowing the gospel seed, and are instrumental in bringing as many souls to Christ as the preached Word. . . . In this work every disciple of Christ can act a part."—Ibid., p. 146.

Notes of Progress

★ For the week ended November 20, the colporteurs of the New York Conference received orders for $1,432.75 and made deliveries of $1,257.50 worth of our publications. This is a good report for one week, with a combined total of 584 hours for the colporteur group.

★ Elders L. E. Esteb and V. A. LaGrone will worship with the Syracuse congregation on Sabbath, December 11. The entire day will be devoted to the home missionary program for 1955. The following districts are urged to attend: Utica, Rome, Cortland, Union Springs, and Syracuse.

★ On Sabbath, December 18, Elders H. J. Capman and V. A. LaGrone will worship with the Binghamton church. The morning sermon will be delivered by the conference president, and the afternoon service will be at 2:00 and will be in charge of the conference home missionary secretary.

★ Our genial Book and Bible House manager, Brother E. L. VanSanford, will worship with the Opondaga Reservation church on Christmas, December 25.

★ Elder M. D. Hannah will worship with the Olean church on Sabbath, December 18.

★ Our Book and Bible House is working with Elder Tucker of the Rochester district in planning for a very special occasion on Saturday night, December 11. A large literature display will be set up in the auditorium of the Culver Road School, and the bookstand will be open at 6:30. During the evening, at about 8:00, a very interesting motion picture will be shown. We encourage all who can to plan to take advantage of this opportunity to see our literature and make purchases for holiday gifts. Special holiday prices will be in effect on all items.

★ Brother and Sister R. P. Jenkins were recent callers at the conference office. They have given very faithful service in leading out in the Pulaski church for the last twenty-three years. Brother and Sister Jenkins have sold their home and are moving to Hayward, California. We certainly will miss them. May God's blessings go with them.

Square-up-with-God Month

At a recent meeting of the Northeastern Conference workers, plans were laid to make the month of December a month in which we would all review our relationship with God spiritually and financially, and bring ourselves into full harmony with His will for us.

It is possible that some have lost grounds spiritually, and need earnestly to seek after righteousness. Some may have been negligent in returning to God that which is His own in tithe. Isn't the last month of the year a good time to bring our accounts into order with God?

We trust that the month of December will be a month of deep heart searching and seeking after God; thus we will be prepared to make 1955 the best year in our Christian experience.

H. D. SINGLETON, President

The Autumn Council

I feel that it is in order to report to the constituency of the Northeastern Conference on a few high points of the Autumn Council held in Washington, D.C.

Your leaders from all over North America and many points abroad gathered to make a budget and to lay plans for the promotion of God's work in 1955. It was interesting to note that last year 83,000 converts were added to the Seventh-day Adventist church, which is the highest number for any one year during the history of the denomination. Early in this year the baptized members of our church numbered 924,822. It was revealed that the Adventists now have entered 197 of the 230 countries of the world.

The budget and appropriations voted for the world work in 1955 is $20,298,281. This budget is to meet our mission program and certain phases of our work in North America. From this, Oakwood College was appropriated $233,000. A major portion of this is for the men's dormitory. Riverside Hospital and Sanitarium received $10,000.

The Seventh-day Adventist church is a major organization with a tremendous responsibility to finish the work of God in this generation.

Spot News

Ephesus. The membership of the Ephesus church of New York City now stands at 1,511 as reported up to September 30. On Sabbath, November 27, the Ephesus young people's society entertained the young people of the Hartford Avenue Seventh-day Adventist church, Detroit, Michigan. On Sabbath, December 11, Elder G. E. Peters, retired field secretary of the General Conference and former pastor of the Ephesus church, will be the pulpit guest of the pastor and church. Sabbath, December 18, is Youth's Day. Mr. Merriweather, youth leader of the church, informs us that the young people are remodeling the lower auditorium of the church for the conducting of youth activities. On Sunday night, December 26, Pastor Lee plans to conduct the final baptismal service of the year, when at least 15 souls will be baptized to the honor and glory of God. Elder Lee reports that 1954 has been a year of blessing at the Ephesus church. More than one hundred members have been added to the church at this writing.

White Plains. Pastor T. Wilson states that after the baptism on November 14, the White Plains church membership has reached and passed the one hundred membership for the first time in the church's history. A program is being launched to completely redecorate the church before the new year.

New Rochelle. Mrs. Sylvia Stovall, M.V. leader of the New Rochelle church, reports that the M.V. society sponsored a bazaar recently which raised to date nearly $150. The money is being placed in a special education fund to assist students from the church away in school who need financial help. The Home and School Association is planning an Education Day for Sabbath, December 18. The objective of a church school for the children of the church burns in the hearts of the members.

Buffalo. The week end of November 27 was high lighted by the youth activities at Emmanuel Temple, 127 Florida Street, Buffalo, N.Y. The program for the day was dedicated to the youth and carried out entirely by the youth of the church. On Sunday night, November 28, Elder T. Wilson presented the picture dealing with the effects of tobacco on the human system.

"Voice of Youth" Evangelism

Every hand was raised in response to the closing appeal made by the "Voice of Youth" speaker. Brother Kenneth Moore had just asked for a show of hands of all those who wished to have a part in God's eternal kingdom, the "kingdom of stone."

The young people of the Brattleboro district, organized as the "Voice of Youth," are conducting evangelistic meetings in the Brattleboro church. The series opened on October 24 with the showing of the color film, "I Beheld His Glory." Standing room was at a premium as more than sixty of our non-Adventist friends attended.

On October 31, the first "Voice of Youth" topic, "A Modern Book for Modern Youth," was presented by eight speakers. It was illustrated on the screen and followed by a thrilling motion picture on the place of the Bible in modern-day Christian living.

The prophecies of world events as given in Daniel 2 were forcefully presented by six speakers on November 7. An estimated twenty-five friends joined with the church members and responded to the closing appeal.

Our junior girls, uniformed in black skirts, white blouses with black and red capes, act as usherettes. Junior boys in dark trousers, white shirts, and black bow ties take up the offerings and collect attendance slips.

Our young people are working hard and finding a new blessing in this all-important work. They solicit the prayers of believers everywhere.

Brattleboro District

Preaching the Word

Thinking it will be of interest to our members to hear of some of the activities now being carried on throughout the conference by our ministers, I am pleased to submit this report to you.

In the Bath, Me., area Pastor Reginald L. Cheney is leading out in evangelistic services each Sunday night. The meetings are being held in the newly enlarged and renovated church. Guest speakers have been invited in from time to time, and the report is that the work is onward there.

Elder Tracy S. Hill is now conducting a series of evangelistic lectures in the Grange Hall in West Baldwin, Me. A number of families not of our faith are attending. We trust and pray that some honest people will be led to accept the full Adventist message which is due the world in this tense hour.

It has been the privilege of the writer to attend the meetings being conducted by Elder Reese Jenkins and Brother Paul Smith on two occasions. These services are being held in the Odd Fellows' Hall in Auburn, Me., and the attendance has been most encouraging. The members there in Auburn, together with members from near-by churches in the district, have assisted with the musical features. Prospects look bright for the future.

Elder Richard A. Mitchell is engaged in holding meetings in our church in Concord, N.H. Concord is the capital city of New Hampshire, and a most beautiful city indeed. Although I have not had a direct report of the results of these meetings, we shall follow with interest the progress.

Every Sunday night the lights are brightly burning in the Brattleboro, Vt., church as Elder Leslie J. Norris leads our young people forward in the "Voice of Youth." It is a program of youth participation under the direction of their pastor. Splendid reports are coming to us concerning this adventure for Christ.

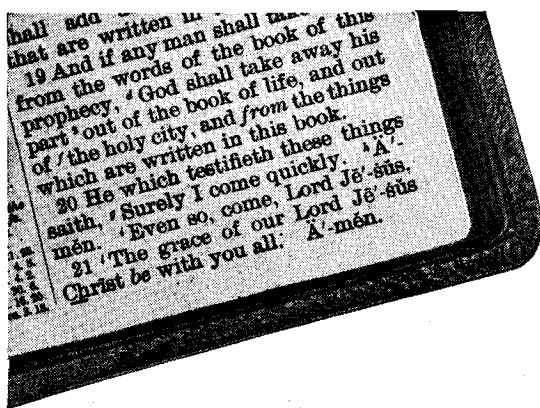

I was privileged to speak in the Bennington, Vt., church recently. The members are thrilled over the Sunday night services being conducted there by their pastor, Elder Arnold R. Swanson. The members report that they are experiencing the best attendance ever witnessed in any similar undertaking in that city. The Sunday night preceding my visit additional chairs were brought into the sanctuary to seat the people.

Elder G. B. Smith, pastor of our Burlington, Vt., district, is planning an evangelistic campaign in the beautiful city of Burlington starting on Sunday night, January 2. Word comes that Elder J. Wyland Wood is preparing for a series of revival services throughout his district. Our other district pastors are busy conducting cottage meetings, giving Bible studies, and following up various interests. Elder W. W. Rice, our veteran worker, is constantly writing me of new interests which he is finding. We are deeply appreciative of his energetic leadership.

At your family altars won't you please remember daily these various public efforts in your prayers?

Some day the work will be finished and we can all rejoice together. May the Lord hasten that glad day.

ROSCOE W. MOORE

Report of Evangelism

In Springfield, evangelism is considered an integral part of the daily activities of the church. This includes not only personal evangelism, as seen in follow-up of Voice of Prophecy and Faith for Today interests, but in temperance work, and the building program as well, as we note from a letter received recently from W. G. Gibson, pastor of this district:

W. G. Gibson

"God expects personal service from every one to whom He has entrusted a knowledge of the truth for this time. . . . All can be home missionaries in their families and neighborhoods."—Test., IX, 30. Accepting the challenge of this divine counsel, the pastor and members of the Springfield district desire that every activity of the church be evangelistic and soul winning. To aid in preparing our laymen to do this work, choice materials on the art of soul winning have been selected, mimeographed, and distributed to each family. A weekly class was organized for the special study of lay evangelistic methods.

"Feeling that 'we have no time to lose, and the end is near,' plans were laid for an evangelistic advance in Northampton. Sunday night, September 19, a series of public evangelistic meetings opened in the club room of the People's Institute. From the first we had many evidences of God's presence. At both Sunday and Wednesday night services, a large percentage of non-Adventists attended. Already several families are looking forward to church membership, and a number of new ones are attending Sabbath services regularly. There is a very fine group in both Springfield and Northampton in the baptismal class, and definite plans are laid for one and possibly two baptisms before the end of this year. Faithful follow-up of Bible course students also promises fruitage.

"During the past few years the Springfield church has carried the heavy burdens of a building program. We feel that this too is long-range evangelism, for it has already added great strength and character to the advent cause in this city. New non-Adventist visitors worship with us weekly.

"In a recent temperance battle in Springfield, Elder Gibson took a leading part in public hearings and enlisting others in the fight against the liquor traffic. In this way we have won many new friends and established several fine contacts with prominent state and city officials and local business men. This opened the way for Bible studies, and further advanced our aggressive program to reach the quarter of a million souls in the Greater Springfield area and the over 60,000 people in the 'dark city' of Holyoke."

OBITUARIES

ROBBINS—Lulu Etta Hazen Robbins was born at Ellsworth, N.H., on November 16, 1872. She moved to Leominster in 1898 and since that time has resided there.

She married Frank A. Robbins of Hopkinton, Mass. He died in 1913.

About 45 years ago it was the privilege of Mrs. Robbins to attend services held in Leominster by Elder A. E. Sanderson. She was convinced of the truths presented, gave her heart to God, and began to observe His Sabbath. She never gave up her faith in God and the truths of His Word that she had learned. For many years her health was poor, and she was unable to attend services.

Some four weeks ago Mrs. Robbins was taken seriously ill and was tenderly cared for by her daughters, Mrs. Edith Noble and Mrs. Gertrude Wyman, both of Leominster. The end came early Thursday morning, November 11, 1954.

Besides her daughters, Mrs. Robbins is survived by one granddaughter and two great-granddaughters.

Our sister was laid to rest in the family lot in Evergreen Cemetery, there to await the call of the Life-giver.

Senior Class Organizes

On October 1 the senior class of 1955 organized and elected the officers to lead them in their activities of the year. Morrill Quinnam, pre-dental student and academy dean of boys, was chosen president, while Helen Chen, foods and nutrition major, will assist him as vice-president.

To carry other responsibilities, the class elected the following: Kenneth Siver, pre-dental student, treasurer; Lillian Ruprecht, elementary education major, secretary; Richard Douglass, ministerial student, pastor; Duane Cady, pre-medical student, sergeant-at-arms. Elder G. H. Minchin was asked by the class to serve as faculty sponsor.

Under the able leadership of this group of officers, the senior class of 1955 may look forward to accomplishment of the year's tasks which will confront them in preparation for graduation.

Placement Service

It is a privilege for Adventist young men and women to study in a Christian college. It is also a privilege for them to find their place of usefulness in service after their graduation from college. The Placement Service at Atlantic Union College is making a wonderful record. For several years there has been a 100 per cent placement reported by Mrs. Charles L. Kilgore, director of student placement.

The 1954 class consisted of 42 members, every one of whom is accounted for as follows: four have been drafted into the armed forces; one has gone into conference employment as an assistant to the treasurer and the Book and Bible House manager; two have colporteur internships; one is studying dentistry; four are studying medicine, and ten are doing other graduate study; one has entered the field of home economics; four have ministerial internships; two have private plans; one has become a salesman for the college bindery; one has entered sanitarium and hospital work; eight have become teachers, another one is a teacher-pastor; and two are secretaries. Two members of the Alumni Association have been placed, one as a foreign missionary and one as principal of a junior academy. With no member of this graduating class unaccounted for, the college has again made a 100 per cent placement record.

Already work has begun in the gathering and classifying of materials for the data sheets which are sent out annually to prospective employers, with the hope that an equally good record may be made for next year's graduates.
