A Great Soul-winning Record

By L. E. LENHEIM

Recently while attending the North-eastern Conference workers' meeting in New York City I was greatly impressed by the soul-winning record of one of our faithful Bible instructors, Mrs. Rosa Lee Jones, who serves as Bible instructor for the large Ephesus church in New York City. Sister Jones has been connected with the North-eastern Conference since 1945, having come to us from Detroit, Michigan.

She is a gifted musician as well as a real soul-winner for the Lord. During the eight years that she has been serving as Bible instructor for the Ephesus church she has been instrumental in adding 450 souls to the church. Sister Jones has already won more than 50 souls to Christ in the first nine months of this year.

Mrs. Rosa Lee Jones

Personally I think this is an outstanding achievement for a Bible instructor and Sister Jones is certainly setting a wonderful example for others to follow in the art of soul-winning.

In addition to her Bible teaching responsibilities she has also raised large sums of money for various churches in the New York area by giving benefit musical recitals.

We are indeed very happy to salute Sister Jones as one of the leading soul winners in the Atlantic Union Conference and we pray that the Lord will continue to give her abundant success in her work.

Brave Men

Yes, they are brave men, every one of them, these men who volunteered for medical research!

After careful study, a committee which included Elder A. V. Olson, W. R. Beach, Dr. T. R. Flaiz, and others, approved the participation of our service men in a medical study calculated to provide knowledge essential to meeting the threat of a disease which is world-wide in its distribution, including western United States.

Contacted in groups, and promised only the thrill of service in helping their fellowmen as the result of their own possible suffering, many of our servicemen volunteered when they were interviewed by the writer and Lt. Col. W. D. Tiggert, of Walter Reed Army Medical Center. The one hundred seventy who passed the rigid physical examination required of them came to Washington, D.C. Most of them are here yet. Many have completed all phases of the text, and at least one of them insisted on a second opportunity. Some were sick. Some were not. All are well now. The best medical skill available is in constant touch with these men as they go through the study.

The results of the project are set forth by Major General S. B. Hays, Surgeon General of the United States Army. After stating the medical objectives involved in this research, General Hays says: "While it will be some months yet before all of the medical data can be evaluated, it is completely clear . . . that . . . most of the objectives noted above have been met."

For more complete details, including the statement by Elder Beach, and further extracts from a recent letter received from General Hays, see the article "Beyond the Call of Duty" in a forthcoming issue of the Review and Herald.

We are sure that all of us are proud of the courage and devotion shown by our men as they participated in this project.

Temperance Day Offering

Church members throughout the Atlantic Union will be interested to learn that $3,831.74 was contributed in 1954 by our churches on the occasion of the Temperance Day Offering. The report by conferences is as follows:

Bermuda	$36.24
Greater New York	908.42
New York	889.82
Northeastern	346.70
Northern New England	468.36
Southern New England	1182.20

Union total $3821.74

We appreciate the support our people have given the American Temperance Society in combating the forces of evil. Each contribution has been used effectively in an effort to remove intemperance, the cause of all evil in the world.

The needs for 1955 are even greater. Inasmuch as "intemperance stands like a mighty barrier to prevent the progress of truth and righteousness," (Temperance, p. 165), we must give generously. "Now is our opportunity to do a blessed work."

Based upon our membership, goals for 1955 are as follows:

Bermuda	$248.80
Greater New York	1558.80
New York	1542.40
Northeastern	1580.40
Northern New England	1032.80
Southern New England	1981.20

Come prepared to give a liberal offering on Temperance Sabbath, October 29.

Big News

Sixty-seven delegates returned from the Laymen's Congress, "on fire for God." Three things have captivated the minds of our members. First, we must visit. There is no substitute. Already some church members, who have never done this wholeheartedly before, are rejoicing over the new-found joy in visiting neighbors around the vicinity of the church, in a friendly way. The welfare approach helps to "win friends and influence people" for God.

Second, every man is called upon to dedicate one pocket to God; the women to do the same with a portion of their purse. Thus members could share their faith at any time an opportunity presented itself. New supplies should be handed to every member every Sabbath.

The new cards for the Jewish Bible course, handled by Faith for Today, are ready now. The church missionary secretary should also stock these and give them out weekly, not weakly.

"Time is short, and our forces must be organized to do a larger work."—Testimonies, IX, 27.

"Let there be in every church, well organized companies of workers to labor in the vicinity of that church."—C.S., p. 72.

Finally comes the big news. To share in a vivid way the special "Welfare Enactment" of Grand Ledge, something grand is planned—the one and only showing of the motion pictures, kodachromes; in fact, the complete program will be held in the Manhattan English church at 232 W. 11th Street on October 29, at 8 p.m.

This is your invitation to "come and see."

Book and Bible House Notes

● October 29 at the Salamanca church the Book and Bible House Bookstand will be open at 6:30 p.m. Promptly at 7:30 the showing of the picture "Martin Luther" will begin. On this occasion we hope to meet a large number of the members of the Olean and Jamestown districts as well as others desiring to come in for this grand evening together. Plan to reach the church in plenty of time before 7:30 to allow opportunity to browse at the Bookstand in the church basement. Regular holiday discounts will be in effect and a bargain table will contain many items of interest. "See You at the Bookstand."

● We are happy to announce that during September another complete set of the deluxe Home Bible Study Projector Equipment was placed in our conference. One of our faithful laymen in the Dexterville church will now be carrying on a greater work with this material. Pray for these brethren as they go from home to home with the message for the world at this time.

Note of Progress

★ The student body at Union Springs Academy enjoyed the visit of our denominational youth leader, Elder T. E. Lucas, on Friday evening, October 14. Elder Lucas also preached Sabbath morning at our youth rally held in Johnson City. The youth rally is held jointly by the East Pennsylvania and New York conferences.

Wesley Amundsen Visits Nursing Homes

Elder Wesley Amundsen, secretary of the Association of Self-Supporting Institutions, came from the General Conference recently to spend two days visiting the nursing homes in our conference. On Sunday afternoon, October 2, we visited Mrs. Eunice Linscott at Kezar Falls, Maine. She has an unique way of boarding four ladies. Each one does light housekeeping in her own private room. Each room has running water. The room is partitioned so that the "little kitchen" is hidden in a nook all by itself. There is a large refrigerator for use of all in the hall way.

From Kezar Falls we went to visit the Wetmore Nursing Home at Center Conway, N.H. Here Mrs. William Wetmore has a large three-story house in which she is caring for 12 patients. She is doing a noble work in her sweet, Christian manner. Right now she is needing and willing to employ another practical nurse.

On Monday we visited the Watson Nursing Home in Gorham, Maine. This is owned and operated by Mrs. Mary Watson. She has six patients at present, and space for a total of eight. She is letting her light shine while she ministers to the needs of her patients. In Brunswick, we had a fine visit with three of our doctors: R. A. Bettle, Michael Weaver, and M. W. Westermeyer. In the not too distant future, these three doctors envision a Seventh-day Adventist institution in Brunswick, which will serve the interests of the community in health service.

It is always a pleasure to visit the Farley Nursing Home in Richmond, Maine. Here Brother and Sister Fred Farley, both registered nurses, are caring for 14 patients in the name and spirit of the Good Physician. The newest nursing home in our conference is the one recently acquired by Brother and Sister Curtis M. Smith at Hallowell, Maine. At one time this was operated as the county poor home. The Smiths are now in the process of renovating, painting, and polishing it so that it will be a real credit to the community and to their church. At present they have about 15 patients, and expect soon to have facilities for a total of 30. It is called the "Crestview Nursing Home," and sits on top of a hill from which there is a beautiful view.

In reporting on a recent survey, a public official in the state of New York said that fully one half of the patients in hospitals were actually nursing home patients. They are chronic patients who need nursing care rather than medical service in a hospital. As Seventh-day Adventists, we have been given wonderful light in the book Ministry of Healing in caring for the sick. May God help us to know how to practice our faith so that multitudes will be restored to health and learn to praise and serve God, the Author of life and the Preserver of health.

"Helping Hand of the Gospel"

In every part of the world the "blessed work" of temperance is proving the way for the full reception of the gospel.

In places where we cannot enter directly it is melting away opposition and opening the way for our evangelists and Bible workers to carry their work.

Outstanding leaders in government, science, the professions, education and the churches are looking to us to take the lead.

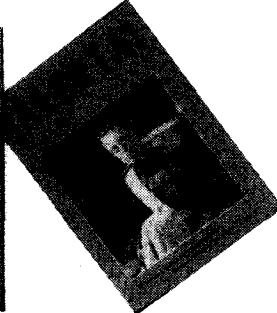

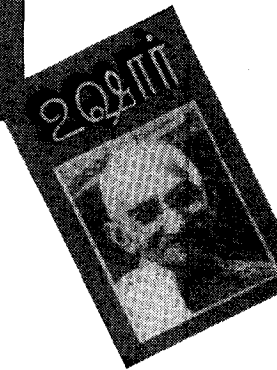

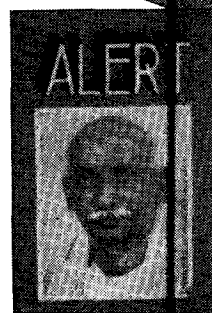

These worldwide opportunities compel us to widen our horizons and plan for ever greater achievements for God.

"NOW IS OUR TIME, NOW IS OUR OPPORTUNITY, TO DO THE BLESSED WORK."

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

These are some of the new progressive projects in the first stage that will receive a real impetus by your liberal support at World Temperance Day.

1. Developing of an effective junior temperance program to reach down into the elementary grades for our boys and girls. This will help instill early in life the ideals to fortify our youth against temptation.

2. Support of an enlarged sponsorship circulation of Listen to the leadership class of our communities, and the launching of new national editions of Alert in overseas countries. One enthusiastic reader: "Stopping to look at Listen was the first step in my becoming an Adventist."

3. A new film in the field of alcohol, persuasive, direct, scientific, that will make the powerful impact on youth and thinking people today that the tobacco film, One in 20,000, is making. "This film can teach more in thirty-five minutes than we can say the Mormons, "than we can say in six months."

4. Enlargement of the Institute program around the world and the movement of Institutes in new areas. Annual sessions have made Loma a rallying center for a nationwide abstinence movement. This year the first session of the all-Europe Institute began in Geneva. Next year the India Institute begins.

5. Expanding opportunities for opening in many countries. High government officials appreciate the work and look to us to lead in a program that will benefit their people. In some countries temperance is the only wedge for the gospel.

WORK

1. Crowded Institute room at Loma Linda. 2. India officials sign registration papers for International Commission. 3. Governor Gökay of Istanbul addresses Geneva Institute. 4. São Paulo governor helps lay plans for temperance work in Brazil. 5. Tobacco film discussed by Glendale, California, officials. 6. Junior Temperance Club, Bloemfontein, South Africa. 7. Each packet of cigarettes represents a person won from the tobacco habit by the showing of One in 20,000 by Brother and Sister Hutchins, Massachusetts laymen.

Evangelism in Hartford and Bridgeport

The Hartford evangelistic campaign commenced Sunday night, October 9, in the beautiful and spacious Bushnell Memorial Auditorium, with Elder Clifford Reeves as evangelist and Elder L. O. Cummings as music director. There were 1,367 by actual count who attended the opening meeting to hear Elder Reeves speak on the topic "The World's Mad Gallop." Literature was requested by 362 non church members at the close of the sermon. The offering amounted to $525.00. Special music by the Faith for Today quartet of New York City, solos by Elder L. O. Cummings, splendid choral numbers by the choir under his direction, and the clear and forceful presentation of the subject by Elder Reeves, who elucidated the subject of the signs of Christ's coming, captured and held the attention of the audience from the beginning to the end. The church members of the Hartford church are thrilled with the campaign for their city and are giving both financial and moral support. The evangelistic company, consisting of Clifford Reeves, L. O. Cummings, William Carpenter, John Hayward, Mrs. Clifford Reeves and Miss Helen Weston, Bible instructors, and the laity are working as a team to make these meetings a success.

Another evangelistic campaign was launched on the same evening in Bridgeport in the beautiful Kline Memorial Auditorium. In a communication from Elder William Baxter, the evangelist, he stated that the auditorium was crowded to capacity, with an attendance of between 1,600 and 1,700, and that several hundred were turned away for lack of room. The members of the Bridgeport churches were thrilled with this meeting, for it has been many a year since they have witnessed anything like this in their area. Since Bridgeport is densely populated with Catholics, Elder Baxter is using a unique and radical method of procedure in the initial phase of this campaign, with the hope of creating and sustaining an interest with the Catholics as well as those of other or no religious persuasion. Assisting Elder Baxter are William Menshausen and Mrs. Frances Bishop, Bible instructor.

Meetings are being held in Willimantic by S. A. Renzi, pastor of the Willimantic district; in New London by George Coffen, pastor of the New London district; and in Guilford by G. F. Williams, pastor of the New Haven district. We plan to bring you reports of the progress of these meetings later on.

Please pray for the evangelistic meetings in Connecticut as well as those in progress in other parts of our conference. Encouraging reports are coming to us from many of the areas where these campaigns are being held, and we are sanguine that they will be the means of increasing our baptisms. If we pray earnestly and work diligently to make these meetings a success, we believe that the Lord will not fail us, but will reward our faith as we launch out into the deep.

MERLE L. MILLS, President

Spot News

- Regional Pathfinder rallies are being conducted throughout the conference by Elder I. V. Stonebrook at the following places: Amesbury—October 15, Providence—October 22, Springfield—October 29, Bailey Hall, South Lancaster—October 30.

- October 23 to 26 the Northern New England and Southern New England conferences will hold a joint teachers' convention at Atlantic Union College. Superintendents Paul Whitlow and I. V. Stonebrook will be in charge.

- At the last meeting of the Conference Publishing Committee, applications to work as literature evangelists were accepted for the following: Mrs. Doris C. Berube, Springfield; Mr. Arthur A. Joseph, Bridgeport.

- The Book and Bible House reports that Story Time No. 3 by May Carr Hanley has been added to their shelves. This book, with a four-color picture insert on the cover, contains 19 stories that children like, and which teach valuable lessons for training characters. It sells for $1.00.

- The Greater Boston Academy board met Monday, October 10. The financial statement by Brother J. D. Woodin, treasurer, and the remarks by the principal concerning the operation of the school thus far were very heartening. Prospects look bright for a successful school year. It was voted by the board to install special window shades to make it possible to darken the chapel during the day for the purpose of showing pictures. Seventy-two have enrolled at Greater Boston Academy to date, which is the largest enrollment in the history of the school.

- Friday evening, October 14, a candlelight consecration ceremony was conducted for the M.V. officers of the Taunton church.

- Beginning with October 2, the Voice of Prophecy program is being broadcast on Station WARE, Ware, Mass. If you are in the area served by this station, please pass this word along to your neighbors and friends, and help our soul-winning effort along by opening many new homes to the gospel of the soon-coming Saviour.

- The conference treasurer has just closed the books for the month of September and the third quarter of 1955. He reports that God is blessing the people of this conference wonderfully, for our total tithe to date shows an increase of more than $35,000 over 1954. The total mission funds show an increase of almost $10,000, and of this total the Sabbath school offerings show a gain of almost $5,000. Although we show a gain of 2 cents per week per member for Sabbath school and have 36.1 cents per week per member for 1955, we must realize that we are considerably below the General Conference goal of 50 cents per week per member. In these last days when the needs to advance the work of this message are many, it behooves us to render unto Him our sacrificial offerings while time remains for us to give.

The College Church

The College church was organized recently under the able leadership of Elder Gerald H. Minchin, who is also head of the Department of Religion here. Assisting Elder Minchin are Roy E. Stotz, treasurer; Miss Louise Smith, clerk; Robert Marshall, missionary leader; and nine elders, fifteen deacons, and a host of other officials.

James A. Roberts is the general superintendent of the Sabbath school, and Frank Koos, a senior, heads the College Division of this very important department. The Academy Division head is Gordon Hoppe, a student at South Lancaster Academy. The Missionary Volunteer Society has George Chonkich as leader, with Mrs. Otilie Stafford as sponsor.

The new church publishes an attractive bulletin of its own where the Sabbath morning order of worship, Sabbath school program—both college and academy, and important announcements, appear.

Elder Minchin was ordained a minister in 1941, and has served in such fields as Europe, Australia, and the Far East. In 1948 he was appointed head of the Department of Religion at Atlantic Union College.

The students of this fine college are proud to have a church of their own where they can more fully develop their mental and spiritual faculties. The prayers of all are solicited as the College church marches on under God as an active, soul-winning agency.

Servicemen Honored

Students and faculty who have served their country in the armed forces were honored in an impressive service at the college chapel recently.

Those who had returned to the campus were honored and those who will not return were remembered. Mrs. Kilgore, who has kept in touch with

A.U.C. men serving their country, called the roll, which included the following men:

Students Lead Workshop

Student leaders from Atlantic Union College presided at all sections and general meetings of the Sixth Eastern Intercollegiate Workshop held on the campus last week.

Robert Edwards, president of the Associated Students of A.U.C., was the general chairman, with Audrey Shaw as secretary. Ralph Thompson presided at the sectional meetings of student spiritual leaders, William Forssberg for the editors of papers, and Eunice Dahlgren for the yearbook editors.

Student leaders from eight Seventh-day Adventist colleges in the eastern area spent three days praying and planning together for the improvement of student activities and the religious life in our schools.

Representatives were present from Emmanuel Missionary, Madison, Oakwood, Oshawa Missionary, Southern Missionary, Southwestern Junior, Union, and Washington Missionary colleges.

Among the delegates was Dr. L. N. Holm, former president of Atlantic Union College, who came as faculty sponsor for the student association at Southern Missionary College. Dr. Holm addressed the students at chapel and other services, and other delegates took part in the Friday evening vespers and Sabbath school.

Elder L. E. Lenheim gave the closing message to the group at the Sabbath morning services at the College church. On Sunday the delegates were treated to a tour of the historical and literary shrines of New England guided by Prof. Rochelle Kigore.

News Notes

The Autumn Week of Prayer has begun at A.U.C. Student and faculty prayer bands and individual prayers unite for the spiritual strength of the college. The meetings will be led by Elder Vernon W. Becker, educational and Missionary Volunteer secretary for the Atlantic Union Conference.

The Symphonic Choir, under the direction of Prof. Lyle Jewell, sang at the Cathedral of the Pines in Rindge, N.H., on October 1. Many members from nearby churches as well as a large number of visitors were present. Elder C. L. Taylor of South Lancaster directed the mind of all to the Maker of the beauties of nature in his sermon: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills."

The organ meditations played by Prof. Melvin West, combined with pictures on the screen showing the flaming beauty of New England autumn shown by Prof. Harold Drake, formed the background for a quiet half-hour of song, poetry, and prayer in the vesper service at the close of Sabbath, October 1.
