

Atlantic Union Publishing Department

By C. H. SMITH

Publishing Department Secretary, Atlantic Union Conference

The following missionary report indicates that this has been the best year ever, not only in sales, but in missionary endeavor. An unusual number of baptisms traceable to colporteur contacts is evident.

Literature given away .....	88,973
Bible correspondence course enrollments .....	12,844
New interested people attending church .....	357
Former S.D.A.'s contacted and invited to church .....	569
Homes in which prayer was offered .....	18,220
Bible studies given .....	1,476
Baptisms from literature evangelist contacts .....	103

The literature evangelists worked a total of 175,911 hours. They delivered a total of $438,650.92 worth of books and magazines. The largest previous year's delivery, which was for 1957, totaled $420,278.36, thus giving a gain of $18,372.56. Those who delivered between $7,500.00 and $9,500.00 were Houston Merriman, Waldo Alger, Kenneth Wilber, Nelson Barron, and Peter Esveld.

We are happy so many students accepted the call to go out into the vineyard during the summer months. The combined student deliveries were over $90,000.00, which was a gain of $9,000.00 over 1957 for the student group. Just over one hundred college and academy students canvassed, with sixty qualifying with sufficient hours worked for scholarships. Ronald Turk of Northern New England again held the record, with deliveries of over $5,000.00 for the summer.

One student said, "I want to thank God for the privilege of working for Him. A year ago the canvassing work was the farthest thing from my mind." Another said, "After canvassing a man for Bible Readings and having prayer, he said, 'I don't understand the Bible.' He paid cash for the book." Still another said, "Sold Desire of Ages to a man who said, 'That's just what I need. I'll take one.'" Yet another said, "I am having a wonderful experience every day." These testimonies indicate the type of missionary work these young people were doing.

We are grateful to God for His blessings in giving us such a good year, and ask that you will pray with us that many more may respond to His call and invitation as given on page 18 of Colporteur Ministry, "The Lord calls for many more to engage in the canvassing work."

This is the time of winter institutes and rallies, and from the spirit manifested we believe that the publishing work, augmented by the students this summer, will continue to grow and increase during the days of 1959. Our literature evangelists are earnestly dedicated to the task outlined on page 388 of Volume V of the Testimonies, "Carry the word of God to every man's door, urge its plain statements upon every man's conscience, repeat to all the Saviour's command, 'Search the Scriptures.'"

We are glad that these literature evangelists could deliver 7,000 copies of our large subscription books, helping to fulfill the statement, "The larger books, Patriarchs and Prophets, The Great Controversy, and The Desire of Ages, should be sold everywhere . . . Nothing is to hinder their sale."—Colporteur Evangelist, p. 124. Another striking statement is found on page 129 regarding these volumes, "They are the voice of God speaking to His people, and they will have an influence upon minds that other books do not have."

As if in answer to these statements, one publishing secretary wrote in a recent letter, "We feel that time demands that we should do our best in placing the Spirit of prophecy volumes." Are you closely following present-day trends in the religious world? These indicate that the work will soon be finished. Will you have a more definite part in it? Write your publishing secretary.

Evangelism in Bermuda

The evangelistic fires are burning brightly again in Bermuda under the powerful preaching of Elder C. E. Bradford, evangelist from the Northeastern Conference. Meetings began on January 17, with an overflow attendance at our Hamilton church. The church was filled each night during the week as meetings continued, and the interest has grown steadily. It became clear that the church was too small for Sunday meetings.

The second Sunday night the service was transferred to Hamilton Hall, the largest auditorium in Bermuda, seating 1,000. Our hearts were cheered to see this auditorium filled to capacity. As we begin the third week of meetings, plans are made to stay in the large Hamilton Hall for the week-night meetings as well.

A 100-voice choir, consisting of members from all three churches, and some non-Adventist friends, has been organized by Mrs. Rosa Lee Jones. This has proved to be a very attractive feature, and has added greatly to the success of the meetings.

The evangelistic company is composed of Elder C. E. Bradford, speaker; Mrs. Bradford, secretary and pianist; Mrs. Rosa Lee Jones, choir director and Bible instructor; Mrs. Jessie J. Bentley, from Lexington, Ky., Bible instructor. We wish to express our thanks to the Northeastern Conference brethren for the loan of these capable workers.

There is a large and growing interest, and prospects are bright for a most successful campaign. By the time you read this article we will be preaching the testing truths. Pray with us for a large fruitage of souls during 1959, the 350th anniversary of the founding of Bermuda.

77 per cent of their goal. We are giving the list of the Minuteman churches. One church has reached a double Minuteman goal. The accompanying pictures give a pictorial story of this Ingathering triumph for the Hempstead church. We are also giving a picture of the Livingston church which has reached its Minuteman goal, even though most of the members are elderly people. Our hearty congratulations to all of the following Minuteman churches in the Greater New York Conference. ### Literature Evangelism in the New York Conference

Nineteen fifty-eight was a wonderful year for the distribution of the printed page. Our God-fearing messengers delivered about $9,000 more literature than in the previous year, 1957.

More important than the gain in deliveries is the fact that fourteen souls were baptized into this wonderful truth. For this we praise God.

The new year is freighted with great possibilities. Our goal for 1959 is twenty-five souls baptized and deliveries of $80,000. To accomplish this will mean we will be in need of more workers.

March 24-28 the New York Conference is conducting the annual institute for literature evangelists. This important meeting will be held in the Syracuse church. We expect to have help from the Atlantic Union, the Review and Herald Association, the Southern Publishing Association, and the General Conference. If you are interested in this work, either part time or full time, please get in touch with the publishing department as soon as possible.

Why not write to us today for an application blank to fill out? Address your letter to C. L. Wilber, Box 1285, Syracuse 1, N. Y.

Cortland Activities

The activities of the Cortland Dorcas Health and Welfare organization working in co-operation with the Pathfinder group of the church have been notable during the past year. Of particular interest were their enterprises and projects during the recent holidays.

Thanksgiving and Christmas supplied the group with challenging experiences in ministering to our local community. At Thanksgiving time over thirty baskets of food were packed for the needy under the direction of Mrs. Philip Kipp. Food for these baskets had been obtained chiefly through the hard work of the Pathfinder organization of the church under the leadership of Charles Van Arsdale. Over four hundred cans of foodstuffs were collected by the Pathfinders on Halloween.

A surprising and gratifying number of grocers and merchants also contributed cases of fruit, vegetables, and baked goods. At Christmas time seven stores gave toys to the Pathfinders, some of which needed slight repairs.

Cortland Pathfinders with the baskets of food and toys ready for distribution. The picture at the right shows Harlan Nelson, son of Elder and Mrs. Carlyle Nelson, and Miss Candace Luss, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Luss.

Mrs. Van Arsdale and the pupils in grades 5 through 8 of the church school repaired the new toys that needed attention. These gifts were sent to over forty children in twenty deserving families who also received food baskets with the toys.

The true meaning of the holidays was appreciated in this way by the pupils of the school and members of the Dorcas Society.

Book and Bible House Notes

The records for the operation of your Book and Bible House for the year 1958 are now complete and we are happy to announce that our total net sales amounted to $105,580, which represents an increase of a bit over $9,000 over the previous year. We thank the Lord for His every blessing which makes such a report possible and that we were once again able to care for all obligations and show a gain for the year.

Our faithful missionary secretaries in the churches have much to do with the continued growth of our literature work. During the year a total of $30,359 worth of literature was handled by our secretaries through the society accounts. To all secretaries in our 63 churches we express our sincere appreciation for their co-operation and help and list below, in recognition of special achievement, the 48 secretaries who through untiring effort and the co-operation of their fellow church officers and members of the church were able to have their society account paid in full at the close of the year:

Evangelistic Team to Bermuda

On Monday morning, January 12, Elder and Mrs. C. E. Bradford, Mrs. Rosa Lee Jones, and Mrs. J. J. Bentley, boarded the Pan American clipper for Bermuda, where they will engage in a three-month evangelistic effort. Upon the request of the Bermuda Mission, the Northeastern Conference Committee voted to lend Evangelist Bradford and Mrs. Rosa Lee Jones, of its working staff, for a three-month crusade to be conducted at Southampton, Bermuda.

Elder C. E. Bradford is the home missionary and Sabbath school secretary of the Northeastern Conference, and he has engaged successfully in summer evangelistic efforts for the past two years in this conference. His latest effort was with Elder R. T. Wilson in Buffalo, where one hundred persons were baptized.

Mrs. Bradford was formerly a music teacher at the Bethel church school and a secretary. Through the years, Mrs. Bradford has been a very important link in the Bradford evangelist chain, in that she has served as the manager, paying the bills and keeping the vouchers, etc., and in like manner, she is an accomplished pianist. Many times Elder Bradford has said that she is his right hand in any crusade in which he engages. She will assist with the records of the crusade, as well as being the pianist.

Mrs. Rosa Lee Jones is known throughout the country as an excellent Bible instructor and director of choirs. Before leaving, she was Bible instructor at the Ephesus church, where she has done a magnificent job of soul-winning. Also, she has formed a New Believers Choir, which is one of the outstanding church choirs in the metropolitan area of New York City.

Mrs. Bentley is a Bible instructor who has spent many years in many conferences doing a splendid work of teaching and leading men to Christ. She comes to us from an effort in Tampa, Florida, where she was associated with Elder R. C. Ward, the Southern Union evangelist. Over two hundred persons were baptized in that crusade.

We look forward to a very fruitful crusade as this splendid team unites with the Bermuda Mission director, local church officers, and church members.

The prayers of the faithful of Northeastern will continually go up for the success of this venture for God.

Investment Day at Corona

The Corona Mission had its first Investment Day program, December 13, under the direction of Mrs. Juanita Hamilton, who worked very hard to make the Investment Day a success.

Special numbers were presented in the Sabbath school, the 11 o'clock hour, and also in the afternoon services. The guest speaker at the afternoon service was Harold Kibble, pastor of the Ephesus Youth church. His subject was "Invest for Christ, for He Invested for You."

The sum of $58.37 was received for Investment. Participating in the program were: Miss Yvette DeGuzman, Miss Effie Wilder, a new member, Louis Arvinger, and Robert Doswell. The mistress of ceremonies was Miss Dorcas Garfield.

A. DOSWELL, Press Secretary

Brownsville Purchases Church

About twenty-four years ago six persons started the Brownsville church in Brooklyn. One of the first members is still with us, Sister Marie Armstrong. The first church was held on Gates Avenue. After worshipping there for a short while, they moved to Stone Avenue in Brownsville and stayed there a number of years. They were forced to move from this location, and have since moved many times.

Our present pastor, Elder James J. North, has been with this group for fifteen years, and with a few members has struggled to make the church what it should be. On January 22, 1959, the Lord opened the way for a beautiful edifice to be purchased by the Brownsville church. It is a large and spacious building with many furnishings which will be a credit not only to its members, but to the Northeastern Conference.

The prayer of the members of this church is that many souls may be won to the kingdom of God as they continue to work in Brooklyn.

ADAH G. MONTELL,
Press Secretary

Youth Day at Staten Island Church

The Young People's Missionary Volunteer Society of the Prophetic Voice church presented an inspiring program on Sabbath, January 10, in which they included their plans for the coming year. With their theme, "Seek Ye The Lord," to guide them, they proposed to redouble their efforts to win more souls for Christ. Through their leader, Miss Gladys Benefield, they appealed to the adults for strong and prayerful support in their efforts to achieve their goal.

Using this theme as the topic of his Sabbath morning's sermon, Pastor Alfonso Williams took his texts from Matthew 6:33 and Matthew 5:6. The highlight of his sermon was that all should continually seek God, and not only when troubled. To further support his topic, he closed with references to I Cor. 1:30 and Phil. 3:7,8.

To round out this service there was a vocal solo by Miss Rachele Grant, and selections by our church choir.

The MV officers for this year are: Miss Gladys Benefield, leader; Miss Frances Hines, assistant leader and secretary, and the wife of our pastor, Mrs. Ida Williams, counsellor.

Special mention was made of Mr. Justo Barreiro for his successfully winning ways with the young folk.

The afternoon program consisted of a short song service, led by Miss Benefield, and an interesting question-and-answer period followed, in which both young and old participated.

The MV Society of our church are to be complimented on the results of their beautifully planned program, and it is our humble prayer that their efforts will meet an abundance of success in 1959.

JOHN E. HUNTER,

Sabbath School Convention

There will be a Northern New England conference-wide Sabbath school convention at the Portland, Maine, church, 75 Grant Street, February 13-15.

Due to limited facilities, we are asking each of our churches and Sabbath schools to send just one delegate, and we hope that the superintendent will come as that delegate. If, however, the superintendent cannot come, then we hope the Sabbath school will send the assistant superintendent, secretary, or some other person as an official representative. We want each and every Sabbath school in the conference to be represented at this convention.

The Sabbath school should take up a special offering, or use their available Sabbath school expense fund, to pay the expenses of the delegate enroute to and from the convention, and while at the meeting. As far as possible we will endeavor to find rooms in the homes of our members for delegates on Friday and Saturday nights. Do not wait until the last minute before coming to the meeting, however, to ask us to get a room for you. Some, of course, will prefer to obtain their own accommodations in a motel, hotel, or tourist home.

G. R. Nash, General Conference Sabbath school secretary; Lemuel E. Esteb, our union Sabbath school secretary; A. E. Millner, our conference president; C. H. Gerald, our conference treasurer; R. E. Aldrich, Book and Bible House manager; and the writer will be present to give counsel. The meeting begins Friday night, and ends Sunday noon. A good program has been prepared. Our Sabbath school work will be strengthened as a result.

H. E. VOORHEES
Conference S. S. Secretary

News Note

Young people of the Portland church, ages 6 to 30, plus the MV officers, raised a total of $1,791.55 for Ingathering during the month of December in caroling and house-to-house work.

Evangelism, Christian Education Discussed at Workers Meeting

Evangelism and Christian education were the two main themes discussed at the workers' meeting conducted at the New England Sanitarium on Monday, January 26. Elder L. R. Rasmussen, an associate secretary of the Department of Education of the General Conference, was the devotional speaker and challenged each worker to be loyal Seventh-day Adventist Christians and to not only "preach" our religion but "practice" our religion.

Elder W. J. Hackett, president of the Atlantic Union Conference, Elder E. J. Folkenberg, evangelist for the New York Youth Center, and Elder Merle L. Mills, president of the Southern New England Conference, spoke on the importance of public evangelism and the need of preaching the Third Angel's Message in a stronger way than ever before. The workers responded to the appeal presented by our president and set their goals for souls for 1959.

The afternoon session was devoted to Christian education and the new academy in particular. Plans for launching the $1,800,000 campaign were discussed in detail and all workers in the conference responded by accepting the challenge and committing themselves by giving at least 3 per cent of their income to the new academy. A more detailed report will be given in the GLEANER next week.

Literature Evangelists

During 1958 the Southern New England literature evangelists delivered over $81,000 worth of our truth-filled literature. Of all orders taken, they delivered 92 per cent. There were about 110 who took part in making this record, and God blessed with souls won to the Third Angel's Message.

The accompanying picture shows most of the full-time workers brought to South Lancaster for our annual institute. Brother Waldo Alger delivered the highest in our conference, $8,516.95, and Brother Thomas came in second. We thank God for His wonderful blessings and know that 1959 will be another wonderful year.

Our colporteurs have set a goal for $95,000.00 in deliveries in 1959 and 81 souls won to Christ. With the spirit of God controlling our colporteurs we believe that this goal can be reached. Don't you want to join in this work and have the joy of seeing souls ready for Jesus' soon return. Write or see

Investment Activity at Springfield, Mass.

The Primary boys and girls of the Springfield, Mass., Sabbath school were happy to participate in investment for the Lord's cause. The above picture shows them with the little huts that they used for Investment. When they brought a dime they pasted a bunny on the hut. When they brought a nickel they pasted on a carrot. At the end of the year their leader, Sister Gemme, reported they had brought in over fifty dollars. Surely the Lord is pleased to have the boys and girls invest their means for His cause.

Remember the call to prayer for the Patriarchs and Prophets plan.

Golden Wedding

Elder and Mrs. Claude E. Eldridge, former workers in the New York and Southern New England Conferences, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on March 4, 1959. We believe it will add to the joy of this occasion if many of their friends from this section will send them cards. Their address is 2526 North 14th Street, Phoenix, Arizona.

Notice

We have received a call for certain numbers of the ATLANTIC UNION GLEANER for the years 1908 through 1919. As we are unable to supply these, we are wondering if any of our readers have GLEANERS for those years which you would be willing to spare. If so, please let us know which ones you have. Thank you.

The Pharmacy

The practice of pharmacy can be traced back to the earliest days of recorded history, yet it has been only in the last few years that most hospitals, especially small or medium-sized ones, have recognized the importance of establishing a department of pharmacy. This is probably due to the fact that prior to this time the number of medicinal agents available was relatively small, and the usefulness of those that were available was doubtful. In contrast to this, today rational therapeutic agents can be numbered in the hundreds, and probably even in the thousands.

It is in providing these medicines

N.E.S. Pharmacy

for the use of the staff physicians that the pharmacy at the New England Sanitarium and Hospital fulfills its most important function. Our prescription department is well stocked with these modern therapeutic agents so that there is seldom a delay in providing that which is needed by the patient. We dispense an average of more than 150 separate medicines to hospital patients daily, which comes to almost 50,000 in a year's time. In addition, we fill almost 6,000 outpatient prescriptions every year. There is no doubt that these medicines, when used wisely, play a very important part in helping to restore and maintain the health of those who use them.

Our gift shop, which is connected with the pharmacy, provides a place where patients, visitors, and workers can purchase gifts and necessities. Many of the ambulatory patients take advantage of their opportunity to come in and browse around, thereby getting a little relief from the "hospital" atmosphere. Our book section is especially popular with many of the patients and visitors. There we have books from the Book and Bible House, with emphasis on short devotional books and books on health and nutrition.

Although our personal contact with patients is limited to ambulatory patients and outpatients, I am sure that each employee of the pharmacy has ample opportunity to witness for his faith. We feel our job is an important one, and we pray for God's blessing in fulfilling our desire to do our part in making the New England Sanitarium and Hospital a stronger influence in spreading the gospel of health and salvation.

ALBERT S. GOODWIN,
Chief Pharmacist
