

Learning to Forget

By MERLE L. MILLS, President
Southern New England Conference

During the past few weeks we have been painfully aware that 1960 was rapidly failing in health due to the common and inescapable ailment called old age. It became evident that there was no recovery from this disease as vigor waned and the pulse beat became irregular on December 31. Plaintively and anxiously the alert and serious observer saw the old year take its last gasp with rigor mortis setting in at 4:20 p.m. Now that its demise is a reality another chapter has been written in the book of history. Another score has been added to the symphony of life. Father Time has passed another milepost in his long and venerable career. Much has transpired during the past year. To some, it has been a harbinger of disillusionment and despair. To others, it has been a precursor of happiness and hope.

We stand poised on the brink of a new year. As we take our leave of the old and plunge into the uncertainty of the new, a voice is heard crying out from the dusty ages of the past which has great significance and wisdom at this pivotal time. It is the voice of inspiration saying, "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 3:13, 14).

As we reach forth into the new year aspiring to gain new heights and new victories, we must first forget those things which are behind us. And what are the things we must forget?

First, we must forget our attainments and our good works. All that we have gained or accomplished we owe to Christ. The propensity to glory in one's self and boast of one's success is a sin which leads to spiritual disaster and death. Smugness and complacency are some of the most subtle dangers we must face. It was this attitude which brought forth the scathing rebuke to the Laodiceans who said, "I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing . . ." (Rev. 3:17).

Second, we must forget our mistakes and our failures. Nothing so blights the soul and withers the spirit as the fear of beginning again after suffering defeat or failure. Would the baby ever learn to walk if he kept thinking how many times he had fallen down? Then why should we hesitate to make a new start despite what has happened in the past?

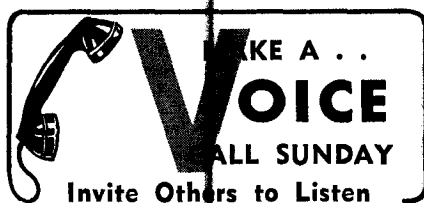

Third, we must forget our griefs and disappointments. Frustrations, vicissitudes, and tragedies are the common lot of mortal man. The child of God is given no immunity to the trials and tribulations of life. Consequently, we must be flexible and adaptable to the changing circumstances and situations which are beyond our control, being assured that we are the supreme objects of God's love and care. The shuttle of time and the loom of life are weaving a pattern which is designed by the Master Weaver.

Fourth, we must forget insults, grudges, grievances, and offenses. Failure to do this will warp the soul, debilitate the mind and poison the life, engendering discontent, misery, strife, and hate. To nurse one's wounds and permit bitterness and resentment to rankle one's soul, because of injustice, false accusations, and ill treatment which you have suffered will result in spiritual and physical illness. Christ said to pray for your enemies and do good to them which despitefully use you.

Someone has said, "To forgive is human, to forget, divine." Since we are human, how then can we forget those things which are behind? The answer is to be found in a spiritual solution. To forget, one must forgive or be forgiven. But confession is a prerequisite to forgiveness; therefore, one must first repent and acknowledge his guilt and seek reconciliation. Even if one is an innocent party who has suffered insult or injury, it is his duty to seek a reconciliation with his enemy. If broken friendships are to be repaired, misunderstandings clarified, grudges and grievances forgotten, it is necessary to follow the biblical injunction of first leaving your gift at the altar, then going to your brother and effecting a reconciliation. Those who desire reconciliation must be willing to crucify self and be atoned by the efficacious blood of Christ. Sin must be renounced, wrongs made right, guilt acknowledged, confession made, and forgiveness sought. In some cases it will be necessary to say, "I was wrong." That which has been unlawfully taken during the old year such as tithe, unpaid pledges to the church, pilfered goods, overdue accounts, loans, notes, and other debts which have been deliberately overlooked must all be restored and paid. Then and only then will you be forgiven and be in a position to forget those things which are behind. All who desire to courageously and optimistically face the untarnished and challenging new year must follow this divine remedy. Having taken these steps you may with assurance and confidence say, "Forgetting those things that are behind, I reach forth to those things which are before me in 1961, pressing on toward the mark of the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Old Gold, and the Closing Message

Hundreds of families across the United States and Canada made an unselfish and wise decision in 1960. They put to work for souls their useless jewelry and old gold and silver by contributing it to the Voice of Prophecy, to be sold and turned into much-needed money to pay for stations and the Bible School. Because of $1,500 realized from these items, a number of radio stations have during the past twelve months carried this great final message fifty-two times into tens of thousands of homes.

What sort of things are acceptable to the Voice of Prophecy for this purpose? We have received wedding and engagement rings; lodge rings and chains; watches, both men's and women's; gold pins and brooches; sterling silver; old gold in varied forms; diamond pins and brooches, and a variety of other items of monetary value.

Lying in your jewelry chest, safe-deposit box, or even perhaps being worn unnecessarily, may be valuables that might, through radio, be finding some precious "jewels" in the world for whom Christ died.

It could be that, sooner than we think, we shall find the doors of mass communication such as radio closed to us! Lest some may think this is but a cry of "wolf, wolf!" we share with you information received in a service report from our station-time buyer, dated November 22, 1960. This states that a certain radio station in New England dropped the Voice of Prophecy broadcast as of November 6. They stated that our radio program did not have the "regional flavor" that would make it acceptable.

A network representative contacted the manager of this station to urge a reversal of the action, but he "absolutely refused to reinstate the program." This shocking action may be a forerunner of other station cancellations.

Only our Father in heaven knows the exact length of time we still have in which to proclaim the gospel over the radio waves. In places, religious bigotry is beginning to lift its ugly head. Suppression of religious liberty, freedom of speech and press are the result of religio-political powers which have always denied freedom to the minorities. Time may be short.

SDA Motel Owners and Managers

The editors of the MV Program Kit are interested in securing the names and addresses of Seventh-day Adventist owners and managers of motels throughout North America. We would appreciate your sending to us the name of your motel, the name of the manager or owner, and the address. This information is needed for a future travel display project that will appear in the pages of the MV Program Kit.

Please send us this information by air mail. It should be sent to: Editors, MV Program Kit, Southern Publishing Association, Box 59, Nashville 2, Tennessee.

Have You Started?

Do you want a deeper Christian experience? Do you wish to be rooted and grounded in the faith? Then, by all means, do not neglect taking the Spirit of Prophecy correspondence course. I am sure it will bring you a richer and fuller life. It will prepare you for the tremendous days ahead.

Won't you stop right now and send in your dollar for the Spirit of Prophecy Treasure Chest and the lessons if you have not already done so?

Now Is the Opportune Time

If there ever was a time when we, as Seventh-day Adventists, need to be awake to our opportunities—it is now. We are awaiting the Supreme Court's decision on Sunday legislation. The arguments are all in and the Court will be bringing its decision to the American people within two or three months. There are those who are ready to institute legislation for a national Sunday law as soon as a favorable decision is handed down.

The liberties we have enjoyed are slipping away. Now is the time to call these things to the attention of ministers, judges, lawmakers, and others whose duty it is to keep America a free land. Therefore, let us do our part in the Liberty campaign. Let us send thousands of the Liberty magazine to the leading citizens of our nation remembering that what we have not done to spread the message in a time of freedom, we must do under a time of persecution!

W. J. HACKETT, President Atlantic Union Conference

News Notes

~~~~ Elder and Mrs. H. P. Gram, of Amesbury, Massachusetts, came to Bermuda the 30th of October to assist in the follow-up work for the "It Is Written" meetings that were recently conducted by George Vandeman. Elder Gram has been busy holding Bible studies and cottage meetings. His Sunday night evangelistic meetings in the St. George's church, along with Tuesday morning Bible classes, have been well attended. On Sabbath, December 17, Elder Gram buried six precious souls in baptism. These individuals were all formerly members of the Church of England. We greatly appreciate Elder Gram's wholehearted response to our invitation to come over to Bermuda and help us in the garnering in of precious souls for God's kingdom.

~~~~ Sabbath, November 20, was a thrilling day for the Southampton church. On this, the second Sabbath in their new church building, a baptism had been planned. A large number of friends and visitors joined with the members in their worship at the new church. This was followed by a beautiful baptism at the old Southampton church, a waterfront property with facilities to conduct an outdoor baptism. It was inspiring to hear the members unite their voices in sacred song as each of the twelve candidates was led into the watery grave of baptism.

"It Is Written" Crusade

The "It Is Written" crusade held in Hamilton, Bermuda, was a great success. The Sunday evening meetings were held in a recently completed modern theatre, seating over eleven hundred people, and every seat had been requested by visitors before the meetings started. In order to accommodate everyone who wanted to attend, an overflow meeting was held on Sunday afternoon at the church. The response has been phenomenal. Hundreds of the visitors requested the "Take His Word Bible Study Guides." Hearts were touched and many came forward when the call for surrender was made. H. Reese Jenkins, superintendent of the mission, sent an S.O.S. to the Atlantic Union Conference for additional help in order to visit the hundreds of interested folk coming out to the meetings. Beaman Senecal, Jr., and Jack W. Clarke from the Northern New England Conference were flown to Bermuda in response to his plea. In the above picture, the ushers and usherettes are at the rear, while the ministers who participated in this crusade are standing in the front row. They are, left to right: Beaman Senecal, Jr., Alvin R. Goulbourne, George E. Vandeman, Joseph Melashenko, H. Reese Jenkins, and Jack W. Clarke.

Bermuda Ministers

The Lord is blessing the effort which Elder Goulbourne is conducting in the new church building, and many interested individuals have been attending the meetings. Another baptism is being planned for the near future. We look forward to a rapidly expanding work now that this beautiful building is able to serve as an evangelistic center in this rapidly growing section of Bermuda.

Dr. Robert A. James opened his dental practice in St. George's, Bermuda, on December 5. He is the first Seventh-day Adventist professional medical practitioner we have had in the Islands. Dr. James was stationed here from 1950 to 1953, and while in the Islands he met and married Ruth Simons of Paget, Bermuda. He received his Doctor of Dentistry degree from the University of Southern California. Dr. and Mrs. James have two children, a boy of seven and a daughter two years old. We welcome them to Bermuda and wish them success in their work.

Greater New York Academy Temperance Week A Success

A full program of temperance was introduced to the students of Greater New York Academy, November 15-18, by E. F. Armour, Greater New York Conference temperance secretary. The purpose of this program was to spur the students to 100 per cent membership in the American Temperance Society and to encourage them to commit their lives against the use of alcohol, tobacco, and narcotics.

As the first program progressed, Elder Armour told us of the many problems that alcohol presents in everyday life; in the home, to the public, and to the individual. Following this we were shown the film "From Five to Seven-Thirty." This film showed us the problems of a young high school student whose parents had their "social" drinks in the home from 5:00 to 7:30.

The following day the problem of alcohol advertisements was presented. The fact that three of the nation's leading magazines carry mostly alcohol and tobacco advertisements was brought to our attention. It is surprising to note how much work and money is going into the advertising of these unnecessary evils.

On Thursday Elder Armour read statements on the effects that tobacco had upon our nation. Following this the film "One in 20,000" was shown. This film made us realize how closely connected the smoking of cigarettes and the use of tobacco are with the cause of lung cancer. Two students, Barbara Haller and Steve Nyirady, told us why they do not smoke, and they gave some very convincing reasons. Following this the campaign for membership in the American Temperance Society was launched.

As the week came to a close, the student body seemed to realize the effect alcohol, tobacco, and narcotics have upon the traffic accidents, the suicides, and the countless men and women lying in the gutter with no hope and no love.

We were convinced that though the world cries for peace we will not attain this worthy aim if we allow this menace to take its toll on human lives.

Station Relations Director Speaks at Huntington

On Saturday, December 3, Ernest Wendth, director of station relations for Faith for Today, told the Huntington church group meeting at Norden Lodge at Huntington Station, Long Island, of one of his experiences in the Far East. Mr. Wendth stressed the importance of a Christian witness in both the foreign and home mission field.

At the 3:30 p.m. church service, Mr. Wendth spoke on using our talents, no matter how few or insignificant they might be. "The smallest talent, with God's blessing and used in His work, can do great things," said Mr. Wendth.

The small, but active church group was again congratulated for being the first church on Long Island to reach and surpass their 1961 Ingathering goal.

But before we are delivered from Satan's power without, we must be delivered from his power within.—C.O.L. 174, 175.

A Farewell

Farewells are usually sad occasions and certainly, to the former students of Union Springs Academy, the demolition of the old academy building will be no exception. There comes a day when old buildings, with their nostalgic memories outlive their usefulness and must be destroyed; so, under the hammer and crowbar of David Coon, this old landmark will soon be no more.

David Coon and R. W. Moore, president of the New York Conference

That this building is still standing is a miracle. Fire has threatened it at least three times and the rafters in the roof are so badly charred in many places that it is a wonder they ever supported the weight of the winter snows. More miraculous still, is the fact that one fire which occurred about the turn of the century was ever put out using the old type apparatus which was available then. We can only assume that Providence kept a guarding hand over this school which has produced many of our outstanding workers.

This building, a former Quaker seminary, housed not only the administrative offices, but both boys' and girls' dormitory facilities for many years. On completion of the two dormitories all activities were moved from the old building with the exception of the chapel which has been in use until last November. All programs including the Sabbath services are currently being held in the girls' worship room; and, needless to say, conditions are very crowded. It is anticipated that this situation can be alleviated very soon with the proposed construction of the new auditorium-recreational unit.

With the top floors vacant and the lower floor only in occasional use, the building was costly to heat and presented a continual disciplinary problem. The Academy Board finally voted to have it torn down and Mr. Coon was awarded the contract. Work is to be completed by April 1, 1961. There are no plans for the construction of a building on this site at the present time.

The removal of this (for some time) unsightly structure will aid greatly in the over-all "new look" planned for the academy.

M. REES, Director

Academy Spotlight

◆ On Wednesday evening, December 7, 1960, the Senior Class organized. After spirited balloting the following people emerged as the 1961 Senior Class officers: David Hazen, president; Helen Valentine, vice-president; Patricia Milton, secretary; Lorna Lawrence, treasurer; Conrad Clausen, pastor; Allan Gates, sergeant-at-arms; Elder and Mrs. Walton W. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Mervin B. York, sponsors.

◆ The Watchman Quartet went to the Binghamton district rally held on December 10, 1960. They sang several numbers for the gathering. Two students, Carl Lombard and William Curry, gave short talks on the advantages of Christian education, and the needs of Union Springs Academy. W. J. Hackett, Atlantic Union Conference president, was the guest speaker.

◆ The Echo-Memoria Victory Banquet, sponsored by the Student Association, was held on December 11, 1960, in the school cafeteria. Candlelight and soft music added to the enjoyment of the evening. Prizes were awarded to those who earned the most subscriptions in each class. The grand prize winner, Miss Judyanne Reid, received a watch. The class winners who received flash camera sets were: Mildred Smith, senior; Marlene Good, junior; Emmett Coe, sophomore; and Linda Peters, freshman.

◆ To date the student body and faculty have raised over $1,200 during the Christmas caroling season.

Institutes for 1961

During the first two months of 1961 the following institutes will be held:

1. Temperance Secretaries' Institute, January 14. Dr. J. Wayne McFarland, temperance secretary of the Atlantic Union Conference, will be our guest speaker and this institute will be held at the Bethel church, 457 Grand Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. All temperance secretaries, Action Unit officers, and those who are interested in the temperance program are invited to attend.

2. Missionary Volunteer Officers' Institute, January 20-22, 1961. Don Yost, editor of the MV Program Kit and a member of the General Conference MV Departmental staff, will be our guest. The MV officers' agenda items and the MV Pathfinder Training Course will be featured. The Pathfinder Training Course is a 20-hour course. Therefore, the first two hours will be Friday night, 7:30 - 9:30 at City Tabernacle, 562 West 150th Street. On Sabbath, January 21, all meetings will be held at the Northeastern Academy office, 1122 Forest Avenue, Bronx, New York, and these will begin promptly at 9:30 a.m. We will meet again on Sunday morning at City Tabernacle. All MV officers, and Pathfinder directors should plan to be in the city over the week end of January 20-22 to take part in the Pathfinder course.

3. War Service Secretaries' Institute, February 4. This institute will be held at City Tabernacle. On Sabbath, February 4, Clark Smith, associate War Service and MV secretary of the General Conference, will be with us for a War Service Secretaries' Institute. All War Service secretaries should be in attendance and especially for the 2:30-3:30 p.m. service at which time the agenda items for War Service secretaries will be discussed. Between 3:30 and 4:30, there will be a question and answer period for all young men from age 16 and up who are subject to the draft in the area. We are looking forward to seeing all our War Service secretaries and our young men, age 16 and up, at this important institute.

Conference Appoints Public Relations and Religious Liberty Secretary

The executive committee of our conference has voted to invite Samuel A. Yakush of the Ohio Conference to be our public relations, religious liberty, radio and television, and industrial relations secretary. He replaces Carl P. Anderson in part who was our public relations secretary until he connected with the Atlantic Union Conference as director of Church Development Service. Elder Yakush has accepted this call and plans to commence his duties in our conference on January 15.

Elder and Mrs. Samuel A. Yakush

Elder Yakush is really a native of our conference having been born here when his father was pastor of the Czechoslovakian church in Bridgeport. He is a graduate of Washington Missionary College which college his wife also attended prior to their marriage. Since his graduation in 1944, Elder and Mrs. Yakush have served in the Ohio Conference where they have pastored five districts with eighteen churches. During the past five years they have pastored the Worthington and Delaware churches and Elder Yakush has served as chaplain of the Harding Sanitarium, a psychiatric institution which is a member of the ASI.

He has been very active in working against the Sunday laws that were promoted in the central Ohio area in recent years. He has served as a vice-president and director of Columbus, Ohio, POAU and is a founder and a trustee of the Ohio Free Schools Association. He has helped sponsor the church exhibits that have been shown at the Ohio State Fair which have attracted much favorable comment.

In recent years Elder Yakush has taken advanced studies in public relations and journalism at the Ohio State University.

Elder and Mrs. Yakush have one son, Andy, who is sixteen, a junior at Mount Vernon Academy where he is president of the Seminar. We welcome these workers to Southern New England and assure them of our co-operation as they take up their new responsibilities in our field. Elder Yakush will be making appointments and meeting with our churches with the intent of getting acquainted with our people as quickly as possible. Will you not pray for these workers as they locate in our midst seeking to help us in our attempt to fulfill the great gospel in this part of the Lord's vineyard.

MERLE L. MILLS, President

Thanksgiving Baskets

Twenty-eight Thanksgiving baskets were distributed to needy families by the Dorcas Society of the Pittsfield church. Included in the bushel baskets were seventeen cans of food, apples, bananas, celery, grapes, tangerines, bread, cookies, and homemade baked goods donated by the ladies of the church.

Over four hundred cans of food were collected through a house-to-house solicitation by four boys in one family of the church. They are Albert, Sigurd, Peter, and Thomas Ballweg. The members and friends of the church donated sufficient funds to enable each family to receive fresh fruit and vegetables in their basket.

Mrs. Anna M. King, Dorcas leader of the Pittsfield church, and K. W. Hutchins, pastor

The accompanying picture shows Mrs. Anna M. King, Dorcas leader of the Pittsfield church, and K. W. Hutchins, pastor, putting the finishing touches on the baskets just before they were distributed.

As a direct result from this endeavor one family of twelve has requested Bible studies. These will be given by two laymen of the Pittsfield church. The distribution of Thanksgiving baskets is one means of shedding the love of Jesus in a practical way.

First PVA Building to Be Erected this Summer

The cafeteria and laundry building comprising 26,000 square feet of floor space is to be the first building erected on the campus of Pioneer Valley Academy. Construction is scheduled to commence in the early part of this coming summer. Working drawings for this building are already being developed at the architect's office with the promise that they will be completed by May. The building will be 90 x 145 feet and will be situated between the two dormitories. Careful study has been given to the planning of this building. It has been the earnest desire of the committee to avoid mistakes and deficiencies in other similar buildings. It has been the desire of the committee to make the cafeteria the cultural and aesthetic center of the campus. There will be two entrances to the cafeteria—one for the girls and the other for the boys. Sufficient space has been provided in the lobby for cloak rooms and book shelves. Enlarged heat tunnels will make it possible for the students to enter the basement of the cafeteria from their dormitories during inclement weather. These tunnels are located right under the sidewalks.

The dining room will provide space for three to four hundred students. Large windows on both the west and south permit the students to look out over the rolling landscape and the distant valleys while they eat. The details of the kitchen arrangement and the working area of the cafeteria as well as the selection of the equipment has been done by Paul Damazo, a qualified dietitian and food service consultant, an authority in his own right in this field, who is now employed by the Glendale Sanitarium.

The basement of the cafeteria provides space on one side for a temporary general shop which will be a classroom for the boys who will be taking vocational arts including such subjects as mechanical drawing, printing, wood-working, sheet metal, electrical, and automobile mechanics. On the other side of the basement there will be a working area for the girls who will be working in the school laundry, with provision made for future expansion as a commercial laundry thus providing greater working facilities for girls who wish to help earn their way through the academy.

Our plan for 1961 is to concentrate our energies in raising funds for this building. Consequently, we are asking each of our members to join in this united effort of making it possible for Pioneer Valley Academy to begin taking shape this summer by the erection of this building. It can be done if each member will give consistently a liberal amount with each pay making his contribution to PVA at the same time he pays his tithe to the church.

MERLE L. MILLS, President

News Notes

● The Browning Memorial church school in South Lancaster turned in a check of $300 to the conference as its Christmas gift for PVA.

● The students and faculty of Greater Boston Academy gave Merle L. Mills checks amounting to $100 at their annual Christmas party. This was their Christmas offering for PVA.

● Elder and Mrs. Sydney Rittenhouse, former workers of this conference, now retired and living at Loma Linda, California, were recent visitors at the conference office.

● Mrs. Thelma Miller of Waltham, Massachusetts, is joining the office staff of the Southern New England Conference as secretary to the president.

● The Sanitarium church voted to have an every-member canvass which commenced January 8 under the direction of Carl P. Anderson, director of the Church Development Service of the Atlantic Union Conference.

● Elder and Mrs. Mills and family were guests of the students and faculty of Greater Boston Academy at their annual Christmas party held at the Andover Inn on the evening of December 21.

● D. A. McAdams of the General Conference Publishing Department is to be the featured speaker at the annual Colporteur Institute to be held in Hartford, January 15-21.

● A one-week revival is to be held at the Sanitarium church, February 4-11, by Willis J. Hackett, Atlantic Union Conference president, Elman J. Folkenberg, union evangelist and J. Wayne McFarland, M.D., union medical secretary.

New cafeteria and laundry building scheduled to be constructed the early part of this summer.

• The conference has employed Albert Cross of Washington, D.C., and Herbert Pomfrey of Florida in order to meet the need of the increased number of churches who are requesting assistance of the Church Development Service in connection with the every-member canvass program. The conference is temporarily augmenting its staff during the first part of the year by securing the services of Mr. Cross and Mr. Pomfrey.

• Instead of exchanging gifts, the students and faculty of Greater Boston Academy collected funds for presents and food which were given to a number of orphans who were invited to the Christmas program held in the chapel on December 21.

• The Boston Temple voted to provide space on the second-floor wing of the building for a church school beginning with the new year. During the first part of this year, the pupils have been transported by taxi to the Stoneham church school.

• Ernest Wendon, public relations director of the Faith for Today program, and Merle L. Mills, who in addition to his executive duties is Radio-TV secretary of the conference, visited the two TV stations in Boston, WBZ and WNAC, on December 20 in the interest of ascertaining the possibilities of purchasing time with the hope that our TV program could be given an outlet in the populous Boston area.

Ground-Breaking Ceremony for New Bedford Portuguese Church

Wednesday, November 30, was a historic date in the history of our Portuguese church in New Bedford for it was on this day that the first spade of earth was turned in preparation for the construction of our long-awaited new church home. D. E. Mansell, pastor, was in charge of the brief ceremony assisted by Saulte Perry, chairman of the building committee, who will also be the general contractor for the building project. Even though it was a cold day, a goodly number of interested church members were present at the appointed hour to witness this historic event.

Elder Mansell opened the program with a brief speech of welcome. Scripture reading was read by the conference treasurer, Kenneth W. Tilghman. Merle L. Mills, conference president, brought greetings and congratulations to the group from the conference commending the church for the vision, courage, and sacrifice they had manifested in laying plans for their new church home. He emphasized that the New Bedford church was just one of the many thousands of Seventh-day Adventist churches in the great Advent Movement that were coming in existence or expanding around the world. He elaborated on the text, Isaiah 54:2, showing how the Seventh-day Adventist church fits into the program of expansion as predicted by the prophet when he stated that the tent was to be enlarged, the stakes strengthened, and the cords lengthened.

The mayor of the city was to be present but, because extenuating circumstances prevented him from doing so, he sent a representative of the city government to speak to the group expressing the congratulations of the city government to our people for their plans in building a new church in the city of New Bedford. Saulte Perry, building chairman, then spoke briefly giving some facts concerning the size and type of building that was to be erected on the site.

The history of the church was read by Adeline Augustine, church clerk. It was thrilling to hear how God had led in the development of our Portuguese work in New Bedford, to realize that the supreme hour of their anticipation had come, and work was to commence on a beautiful new church that is to be simple in design yet attractive, rightly representing our message to the thousands of people who will pass by on this busy street of Rockdale located in a lovely section of the city and observe another lighthouse erected to the glory of God.

The service was then brought to a close with prayer offered by the pastor of our New Bedford English church, E. L. Anderson. It is planned that the church will have adequate facilities for all the departments and provide seating accommodation for at least 200 people. It is to be of brick veneer construction. The church is located on the lot so that in the future sufficient land will remain on which a church school building can be constructed. Our good people have sacrificed and worked for a long time for this day and while much yet remains to be done, we are happy to see them off to a good start on a project which we believe will be to the glory of God.

Some Parents Say

"We will not influence our children in making choices and decisions in matters of religion" and we add, in the temperance cause.

Why not? The ads will! The press will! The radio will! The movies will! The neighbors will! Their business will! We use our influence over flowers, vegetables, cattle—shall we ignore our children?"

"The National Voice"—May 5, 1960

School of Nursing Activities

Miss Marilyn Kueffner, assistant director of the School of Nursing, accompanied by five students are visiting the academies in the Atlantic Union Conference in the interest of nursing recruitment. They present a program at the chapel period and have been able to talk with many academy students about careers in nursing. Miss Kueffner reports a good interest in nursing among the academy girls.

Classrooms 2 and 3 have just been painted! Other improvements and plans have been made for the near future, but students and faculty all agree that this is a big improvement.

Disaster Nursing Course at New England Sanitarium

Believing that "disaster could be now," over forty graduate nurses of the New England Sanitarium and Hospital recently completed a course in disaster nursing. The course met eight Monday mornings for four-hour sessions, repeated in the late afternoons to accommodate the varied shifts of nurses.

The thirty-hour course, sponsored by the Massachusetts Civil Defense Agency and the hospital's Nursing Service, was part of the graduate nurse inservice education program.

Lectures, films, demonstrations, and practice included such subjects as kinds of disaster, planning for families and the public as well as patients in the hospital, nurse's responsibility, organization for disasters, management and care of victims, and treatment of anticipated types of casualties.

Instructor of the course, Miss Esther Oldham, health education director of the New England Sanitarium and Hospital, attended several refresher courses and workshops before conducting the classes.

Lecturers from the hospital staff who assisted were: Albert Walker, co-ordinator of the civil defense unit at the hospital; Dr. C. A. Haysmer, and Dr. Paul Gaver. Miss Mary Donnelly from the American Red Cross spent one session presenting the nurse's responsibility in shelter situations, and Red Cross activities during disasters.

Of special interest were the improvisations made by the nurses for use if supplies and equipment are not available. These were on display several days during and following the course.

Certificates were awarded Monday, December 19, by V. D. Dortch, administrator, assisted by the instructor, Miss Esther Oldham, and director of nursing, Miss Alice Kuhn.

Graduate nurses who completed the requirements successfully were: Evelyn Aprahamian, Phyllis Armstrong, Margaret Austin, Mary Camara, Esther Causing, Lois Cavanaugh, Elizabeth Coe, Rose Crandall, Ruth Deininger, Verda Foster, Mabel Gascay, Annie Grant, Jean Grieve, Dorothy Harris, Dorothy Huntley, Florence Kinnear, Sadie Kivi, Alice Kuhn, Ruth Legg, Mary Lindquist, Edna MacDougall, Marjorie Marston, Margaret Peckham, Pearl Shaffer, Gladys Torres, Florence Wendell, and Mae Williams.

It is anticipated that thirteen others who were among the enrollees of the course will be awarded their certificates in early 1961.

OBITUARY

TAYLOR—Harry Franklin Taylor was born at McPherson, Kansas, April 22, 1881. He fell asleep in Jesus at Loma Linda, November 17, 1960. During his youth he lived in Arkansas and Michigan. He was born into an Adventist home, but was born again at a revival service held by Luther Warren at Battle Creek, Michigan. He was baptized at Grand Rapids, Michigan, in 1903. Two years later he entered Emmanuel Missionary College where he prepared for the ministry. He entered the ministry in the New York Conference in 1908. Five years later he was called to labor in Bermuda. Returning to the States he labored in Maryland and New Jersey. In 1919 he was united in marriage to Emma Smith in Loma Linda, California, by G. B. Starr. He and his wife labored in the Southern California Conference for several years before accepting a call to do evangelism in the Southern Union. Because of failing health, he and his family returned to Southern California in 1941 and operated a poultry ranch in Mentone for a number of years. Three and a half years ago they settled in Loma Linda where he was a faithful member of the Hill church. He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Lucille Carlisle of Redlands, California, Retta Mae Kunkel of North Hollywood, California; a son, Harry Taylor, of Aurora, Illinois; seven grandchildren; a brother, Robert Taylor, of Akron, Ohio; and a sister, Maude Lobdahl, of Highland, California.

HAAS — Mary Druel Haas was born August 13, 1890, and died at Roswell Park Hospital, Buffalo, New York, at seventy years of age.

She was the beloved wife of the late Martin A. Haas, and the mother of Mrs. Gladys A. Bonezar, Martin C., Clarence J., and Harold Haas, Mrs. William Shepard; and the grandmother of fifteen grandchildren.

She was an active member of the Hedley Place Seventh-day Adventist church, and took an active part in Dorcas Welfare work.

The writer, assisted by James Everts, conducted the funeral service and Mrs. Haas was laid to rest in St. John's Cemetery, Buffalo, New York.

Ingathering progress in the Atlantic Union is cheering! Today's report for the union totaled $26,931.72. We now have 58.93 per cent of the goal, and a per capita of 10.96. It is encouraging to see the good gain of more than $30,000.00 over the same period last year. Thanks to every conference and church for the large caroling amounts!

The new year has arrived! Let us make the month of January count in business solicitation during the remaining days of the official campaign. Many business people are happy to give now. They still feel the "glow" of good business during the holiday season. They have set up new budgets for the 1961 contributions to charities.

This year more churches in the Atlantic Union than ever before are endeavoring to have "Ingathering — All Done by January 31." They have set out to reach the full goal in harmony with the General Conference official campaign time.

Success to all the conferences and churches that are pressing on for early victories in making the transition to the new official campaign time. We put forth energetic effort! God blesses! Victories are attained! In all of this—let us be alert for souls!

Obituaries

JONES—Inez Jones was born September 24, 1896, in Newfield, Pennsylvania. The former Inez Spence, she was united in marriage to Harry Jones of Wellsville, New York, December 24, 1914.

Since uniting with the Wellsville Seventh-day Adventist church about seven years ago, she has been very active in the work of the church. She was leader of the local Dorcas Society until her death, and through her leadership created much good will for the church in the community.

She was loved by everyone with whom she came in contact because of her kindness in word and deed. Her death has created a great vacancy in the Wellsville church, as well as in the community she served.

Mrs. Jones passed away August 23, 1960, in the Jones Memorial Hospital in Wellsville after suffering a critical illness. The funeral services were conducted at the Fredrick Mulholland Funeral Home where words of comfort were spoken by the writer, and she was laid to rest in the Johnson Cemetery in Wellsville.

Surviving Mrs. Jones are her husband, Harry Jones of Wellsville; two daughters, Mrs. Clark Wilkins and Mrs. Catherine Quackenbush of Wellsville; one son, Harry Jones, Jr., of Albion, New York; ten grandchildren; and ten great-grandchildren.

CARL R. JOHNSON

ATWOOD—Edith Chamberlin was born on March 22, 1873 in North Windham, Connecticut into a Sabbath-keeping home.

At the age of twenty-five she was baptized into the Seventh-day Adventist church and left for Battle Creek, Michigan, to take a course of instruction offered in the Haskell Home. For eleven years she taught church school in North Windham, Connecticut; Keene, New Hampshire; and Worcester, Massachusetts.

While teaching in Keene, she met Roy Atwood to whom she was united in marriage on September 14, 1911. While making her home in Keene, she was very active in the work of the church, and even during her final trying days, she was working for the Sabbath school as the extension division secretary.

Surviving Sister Atwood are her husband, Roy Atwood; her daughter, Carrie M. Brewer: a grandson, Earl Brewer; and a granddaughter, Eleanor D. Wright. Funeral services were conducted in the Fletcher Funeral Home and burial was in Woodland Cemetery in Keene, New Hampshire.

SOON PERSECUTION WILL INCREASE

YOU HAVE READ THE PROPHECIES!

THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD ARE FACING CRISIS AFTER CRISIS.

YOU HAVE THRILLED AS NEWS REPORTS HAVE REVEALED THE FULFILLMENT OF PROPHECY!
MEN'S HEARTS ARE FAILING THEM FOR FEAR AS THEY LOOK UPON THE THINGS THAT ARE HAPPENING IN THE WORLD.

In the religious world, too, signs are multiplying:

1. Today several great Protestant churches are planning to unite.
2. Recently the Archbishop of Canterbury visited the Pope in the Vatican. Steps toward healing the breach of Reformation are even now being taken.
3. In many countries heroes and heroines of the faith are being persecuted and imprisoned. The wrath of Satan is being concentrated in an attempt to destroy the Remnant Church.
4. The Sunday-law issue is being pushed with renewed vigor.

What are you doing to bring a knowledge of the truth to the world?

LIBERTY magazine will help you to alert your neighbors and the leaders of your community.

LIBERTY magazine is doing an important work. But its influence should reach many more. LIBERTY should be going into five times as many homes and offices as it is now reaching.

In this important hour won't you increase your subscription list for LIBERTY five times? Yes, FIVE times!

"Shall we sit with folded hands, and do nothing in this crisis? . . . God help us to arouse from the stupor that has hung over us for years! There are more souls to be saved, and a far greater work to be done in warning our world, than has yet been accomplished."—R&H 12-18-88.

Today we yet have opportunity to support religious liberty with an all-out effort, with our prayers, our means, and our witnessing.

Tomorrow may be too late! Increase your LIBERTY list now!

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY WEEK—January 14-21, 1961.

Day of Fasting and Prayer for those now suffering persecution, and LIBERTY magazine subscription list opportunity, January 14, 1961.

Religious Liberty Offering, January 21
