LIBERTY MAGAZINE TIME IS NOW!

THEODORE T. JONES

The year 1989 has been an exciting one with many activities which have impacted the work of Religious Liberty on a world-wide basis. Recent newsworthy items like Mr. Gorbachev's trip to the Vatican have caused observers of prophecy to take another look in order to see whether or not this could be the beginning of some portentous end-time event.

August 23 to 27, 1989, marked the Third International Congress on Religious Liberty, sponsored by the International Religious Liberty Association, with the cooperation of six other bodies including our own Public Affairs and Religious Liberty Department of the General Conference, held in London, England.

Topics for discussion ranged from discrimination and intolerance in the world to the question of can the rights of the religious majorities and minorities be reconciled?

The Congress also addressed the issue of the world-wide rise of fundamentalism and what it portends for religious freedom. Truly an ecumenical meeting, we saw Hindus, Catholics, Buddhists, Protestants from many denominations, World Wide Church of God, and a host of other religionists make interesting presentations. A Jewish Rabbi was prominent among the delegates. We were especially happy to have representatives from the Soviet Union present at the meetings.

Most of those who served as moderators were Seventh-day Adventists. Lay persons and pastors from London attended and made contributions during the question-andanswer periods. A real spirit of brotherhood was evident during the Congress.

I found item four in the International Religious Liberty Association Declaration of Principles to be of great interest:

"We believe in the natural and inalienable right of freedom of conscience—to have or not to have a religion; to adopt the religion or belief of one's choice; to change religious belief according to conscience; to manifest one's religion individually or in community with others, in worship, observance, practice, promulgation and teaching—subject only to respect for the equivalent rights of others."

Here in the ATLANTIC UNION CONFER-ENCE we have the opportunity to send LIB-ERTY MAGAZINE to judges, attorneys, civic leaders, politicians, religious leaders, colleges and universities, so that they may know what our position is on religious freedom and the separation of church and state.

Current events in the political and religious worlds mandate our support of LIBERTY MAGAZINE! The end is nearing and the world must be warned. Please do your best this month to send LIBERTY to thought leaders and friends.

A typical winter scene in New England is the horse and sleigh, which conjures up many happy memories. Barbara Ela from Auburn, MA, who works at Paul Revere Insurance Co., took this picture of her brother-in-law and his horse and sleigh in Spencer, MA, She used a Canon A-1 camera. Her picture received Honorable Mention in the 1985 Gleaner Cover Photo Contest.

NATURAL BRIDGE, NY-September 30 was an exceptional day when eight young people were baptized. This was also historical because it was the first baptism in the church.

Pastor James Drake thoroughly enjoyed studying with and baptizing these young people to whom he presented the challenge of furthering the Lord's work in the North Country.

W. POLAND, ME-A new company three miles from Poland Spring Health Institute, started meeting on Nov. 18. Seventy-five people, 12 of whom are non-Seventh-day Adventists, planning regular attendance, gathered for Sabbath school, church, and a special afternoon organizational meeting in the 150year-old McGuire Hill Road Chapel. The Highland Cemetery Association, which manages the 200-seat chapel, has offered the building rent free in exchange for upkeep, insurance, and utilities.

This lovely old chapel, built in the 1830s is steeped in early Advent history. Ellen White's twin sister lived on McGuire Hill. In the winter of 1845, after receiving her first vision, Mrs. White drove by sleigh from Portland to W. Poland to visit her. While there she first publicly proclaimed what she had seen in vision. Although history is silent on the exact location, many believe this event took place in the chapel. Advent pioneer Joshua V. Himes, who first began to publish Signs of the Times, preached in the chapel in 1844.

Dr. Richard Hansen, director of Poland Spring Health Institute, is the shepherd of the new flock. He explains that the company's formation also serves as a training center for the Institute's six full-time students in the areas of church organization, responsibility, and preparation as lay pastors in dark counties.

GREATER NY CONFER-ENCE-The Hope for Today Crusade, planned for the Afcongregation rican that meets at the Grand Concourse church, was blessed to have nine persons baptized at its conclusion, and many interested persons with whom to study. The month-long Fall campaign met three nights each week and was conducted in the Twee language by Evangelist Brempong Owusu-Antwi, an Andrews University student who is completing his doctorate in religion.

Grand Concourse pastor, Roy Gordon, says the church "is blessed to have an African community" and planned the crusade as part of his 1989 evangelistic outreach. An African church is expected to be established this year.

HARVEST 90 FINAL CHALLENGE

By Carlos E. Aeschlimann Harvest 90 Coordinator

od in His love is giving Harvest 90 a harvest of souls beyond our expectations. By the end of November 1989, we reached the basic goal of 2,000,000 baptisms. The South American and Inter-American divisions have reached their total Harvest 90 goals along with approximately 40 unions and local fields. We have surpassed the mark of 6 million church members. In 1880 there were only 11 Seventh-day Adventists per 1 million of the world population, but in 1985, there were 975 Adventists per 1 million of the world population.

We are now in the final stretch of the Harvest 90 race. Now is the time to accelerate our efforts to the maximum.

What is the next move? Elder Neal C. Wilson, General Conference president, in a special message to the world leaders wrote, "Only a little time remains to conclude Harvest 90. We invite the world church to unite in an unprecedented evangelistic outreach by dedicating the last six months of Harvest 90 for a gigantic program of soul winning. We would like to produce a Global Evangelistic Explosion in which all administrators, departmental leaders, pastors, and church members actively participate in some soul-winning activity."

The October 1989 General Conference Annual Council voted the following plan of action: 1) To produce, in the last six months of Harvest 90, a powerful movement of evangelism and soul-winning activity involving all the forces of the church, and 2) To involve the 16,284 pastors around the world in aggressive evangelism transforming each of the 29,000 churches into evangelistic centers and to mobilizing and training 1.5 million church members as soul winners and reach 2.5 million baptisms by the end of Harvest 90. All the divisions accepted this challenge and are making plans to create a big evangelistic thrust to culminate Harvest 90.

Also during Annual Council, Elder Kenneth Mittleider shared with the delegates the Harvest 90 Victory Statement:

"Whereas only a few more months remain for Harvest 90, we appeal to the world church to launch a total, unprecedented evangelistic outreach to give a victorious finale to Harvest 90:

"January-March 1990-a global evangelistic explosion in which administrators, departmental leaders, institutional directors, pastors, and at least 1.5 million lay persons will participate in some kind of evangelistic activity. Each church will implement an ongoing evangelistic program that includes public campaigns, Revelation baptismal Seminars, classes, homes as evangelistic centers, and at least 20 percent of members active in soul winning.

"April-June 1990—90 days of reaping dedicated to doctrinal, decision-based sermons, calls to accept Christ and connect with His church; and frequent baptismal ceremonies. Set a faith goal of baptizing 2,000 souls per day or 180,000 during the last 90 days of Harvest 90.

"Sabbath, May 26, 1990-a worldwide Harvest 90 victory baptism in which churches throughout the world will join in baptizing all possible candidates, with a faith goal of 100,000 baptisms in one day, the largest number in the history of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

"Sabbath, June 30, 1990— Harvest 90 victory celebration featuring a service of celebration, thanksgiving, and reconsecration. Each division will prepare its own celebration program.

"In view of the times and our Lord's call to reap the fields that already are white to harvest, we appeal to all church members to dedicate themselves to preaching the gospel, thus culminating Harvest 90 with a mighty offering of precious men and women to present to God at the General Conference Session."

We have before us a great opportunity to conclude Harvest 90 with a memorable victory. But let's not stop or rest. The challenge is to go forward with even more zeal. Please give evangelism priority and mobilize all workers and thousands of church members in a worldwide evangelistic thrust.

In conclusion, Elder Wilson sums it up well when he said, "Harvest 90 has been a great blessing in focusing the priority of the Church where it should always be—completing the great commission to evangelize the world. Let us unite in culminating this program by an inspiring festival of evangelism, which will produce the most wonderful harvest of souls in the history of the Adventist Church—All to the honor and glory of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ!"

AID GOES TO PUERTO RICO AND ST. CROIX

Three ADRA-arranged truck containers with nearly 33 tons of goods for Puerto Rico and St. Croix were loaded at the Greater New York Community Health Services Van Center during September/October. Responding to pleas for help coming from pastors and members in these hurricane-torn areas, volunteers from New Jersey and Northern New England joined hands with Greater New York believers in filling more than 1,500 cartons and barrels with food, water, milk, clothing, diapers, bedding, household items, and medical supplies. The shipments were valued at over $79,000. An additional monetary donation, totaling $9,096.23 was sent to the local conferences as well, according to Juanita Kretschmar, Community Services director.

NORTH BRONX HIGHLIGHTS

Under the leadership of Pastor Earl Knight, North Bronx church has continued in a pattern of activity, and has been blessed to see constant growth far above expectations. The following were highlights of 1989 for the church:

• A number of series were conducted, on a range of subjects including Old Testament prophecy, stewardship (with Pastor Harold Lee), a youth crusade led by Pastor Newton Cleghorn, and a six-week tent crusade, resulting in 76 baptisms.

• Soul-Winning Action Team (SWAT) training of church members, with assignments into teams for door-to-door Christian witnessing.

PATHFINDERS MARCH AGAINST DRUGS IN MANHATTAN

Pathfinders in uniform, senior youth, and other members marched with banners and posters on Sunday, October 15, with a clear anti-drug message from Seventh-day Adventists of Greater New York. The parade was conducted in Manhattan under the direction of Youth Ministries director, Willie Oliver (shown holding microphone and daughter, Jessica). Magazines and information dealing with addictions were distributed. One person listening and watching the parade called the conference office to request material and prayer counseling for a friend with a drug problem.

WE'RE PROUD OF OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

Vienna Pathfinders Youth Club made front-page headlines in their local paper when they had a successful day of collecting canned goods for Thanksgiving baskets. These baskets will bring cheer to the needy and elderly. This group represents many of our Pathfinder and Church School groups who do the same thing each year. Hurrah for the good things our young people do!

NEW IDEA BRINGS RESULTS

A new idea is being tried at Perrysburg, New York, called Prayer Central. People can dial a number, hear a recorded message on prayer, a prayer, and leave a prayer request.

These requests are then brought to the Lord by church members. Plans are being made for members to visit and pray with callers.

The response to promotion in the local newspaper as well as posters displayed throughout the community is encouraging.

MANY AUDIENCES DELIGHTED WITH SLIDE PRESENTATION

Tioga County church members, Cutler and Jeannette Baldwin, have delighted audiences in their community with a slide presentation, "My Father's World." This creative endeavor depicts the beauties and wonders of this earth and outer space. The couple photographed many of the scenes, added a few from NASA, and put them together with music and narration.

After making 32 presentations in their area, they were invited to present their program in the Van Center of New York City, where they were very well received.

"Ultimate Gift"

Steve Wallace, a SDA pastor and lecturer from Montana, spent a week on our campus as guest speaker for Fall Week of Prayer. Remembered by most as a vocalist in the gospel group "Take Three," he demonstrated God's devotion for humanity by presenting Christ's ultimate gift to the students and staff in a series called The Garden Story. The main emphasis of the week was Christ's overwhelming love in dying for mankind after the fall of Eden.

The USA Choir, Les Chanteurs, and select instrumentalists from the Concert Band were featured at the Oakman Spanish church on October 28, 1989. This was the official opening of a Spanish SDA church by the Northeastern Conference. Several dignitaries were present for the afternoon dedication service including Rochester's mayor. Something about that distinctive Spanish lunch brought out the best in our students and the mini-concert was deeply appreciated.

SUPPER FOR DISASTER RELIEF

Members of the Tioga County church felt great sympathy with recent sufferers from hurricanes and earthquakes. But they didn't stop there. They did something about it! They scheduled a potluck supper, but it was different from the usual feast. The menu was soup, bread sticks, and popcorn.

Thus each family could donate the amount they would usually put into their sumptuous dish! Over $200 was donated for ADRA. Not only were the church members fed by the potluck but also hurricane and earthquake victims!

FRIEND'S DAY A SUCCESS

The Arcade Company had an exciting Friend's Day on September 30. While the average Sabbath attendance is 20-30 people, the congregation decided they would plan and pray for an attendance of 100. The Lord honored their faith to the number!

One of the Friend's Day guests made a touching contribution to the Sabbath service. Dennis Robler, pictured with Pastor Mark Komula (standing), sang a miniconcert of praise to God. Though he is blind from diabetes and has had a recent failure of his kidney transplant, he expresses great trust in God with his beautiful singing. May we all join him in prayers as he awaits another transplant when a donor can be found.

Pastor Mark Komula is also excited about the Revelation Seminar being held at which there is an average attendance of 12 non-Adventists.

OUTREACH FOR MORRISVILLE

It was the earnest desire of the Morrisville, Vermont, members to have a special outreach project. At a Wednesday night prayer meeting this summer, the idea was tossed out for discussion—"Why not have a booth at the county fair?" It looked like a large responsibility for a small church with a high percentage of its members daily employed, but we wanted to engage in an activity that would expose us to a mass gathering of people. The more we discussed the idea, the more exciting it became.

Doris Clark conversing with an attender who is interested in the truth-filled literature the Morrisville, Vermont, church displayed at the Orleans County Fair.

Mary Harris laid the groundwork by making arrangements with the fair officials, ordering literature, securing the Kenneth Cox video series, and finally, scheduling volunteers for daily shifts to man the booth.

Many wonderful contacts were made as we called attention to our wide variety of reading material. Our volumes of Steps to Christ, The Great Controversy, and The Desire of Ages were readily accepted. Several interests for Bible studies were indicated, also a sign-up sheet revealed a desire for more literature in the future. Parents were happy to see their children being given Our Little Friend and Guide. Our greatest need, however, was not having a supply of reading material for the teenagers. Another year, this will be of prime concern.

The Orleans County Fair was held for five days and nights, and by Sunday forenoon, our supply of literature was nearly depleted. Approximately 1,000 Spirit of Prophecy books, magazines, and pamphlets were selected by individuals attending the fair. It was a great inspiration for those of us who participated in this witnessing effort. A space has been reserved for next August's fair, with

PARKVIEW HOLDS GRIEF RECOVERY PROGRAM

Over a five week period Parkview Memorial Hospital conducted a program designed to help people cope with the death of a loved one. Chaplain Jim Brassard along with Hospice Volunteers facilitated the group each Thursday afternoon.

Unfortunately, most people, even Christians, do not know how to be a support to those grieving. Most people feel that after a few weeks or months at most, grieving should be completed. The reality is that one is never the same. One's life is always void of any interaction with that loved one. The grieving process normally can take several years. Still, coping must be dealt with.

"Our group provides a safe haven for sharing the memories, the pain, and the anger with those of similar experience. Jesus provided comfort, compassion, and understanding to those He ministered to," says Chaplain Jim, "and that's what our goal is, to provide a holistic healing atmosphere that reflects Christ." The group is structured with "homework assignments" with specific tasks, a sharing time, as well as a presentation on the steps of grieving. This helps the individual understand what to expect at this most difficult and trying time.

"Tears are OK here. We are here to be compassionate friends by God's grace," comments Chaplain Jim.

The group is held every spring and fall. For more information, call Chaplain Brassard, Parkview Pastoral Care Department at (207) 729-1641.

PTA ALUMNI NEWS

A recent graduate, Andrew Lay, '87, is a student missionary from Atlantic Union College, and he writes:

"I am working as a professor of music and English for Pesionado Adventista 'Ciudad de Quito,' Ecuador, South America. I am now in the process of writing a program of English for kindergarten to third grade. I expect to have four choirs, two classes of recorders, all the

THE CARING SCHOOL–PROJECT JOY AT PTA

"Our mission is to complement the home in motivating, nurturing, and educating young people to become mature individuals, able to share Jesus with others and willing to give of themselves showing the example of Christ who 'grew in wisdom and stature and favor with God and man'" (Luke 2:52). -Pine Tree Academy Student Bulletin, 1989-90

The emphasis at PTA is on a caring Christian education that matures individuals from caring Christian homes, to become members totally committed to a caring Christian church—the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

PROJECT JOY (Jesus, Others, Yourself) is an outreach program that puts the philosophy into practice. Ninety-one students and 24 adult sponsors work together in 24 community locations, such as Reclasses of English for the primary school, and possibly some lessons in organ, piano, and voice. I am working also as the organist for two churches. Basically I am very busy!

"You know it is interesting. Of the people who were privileged to work in Maranatha for senior trip, a lot of them are now planning to be student missionaries. I am very glad for what I learned at PTA, the teachers' responses to the students, the personal interest taken gional Hospital, Good Shepherd Pantry, Habitat for Humanity, and the Coastal Humane Society.

While sorting cans of clams, clam chowder, and clam juice at the food bank may seem routine and unglamorous, sophomore Tanya DiPietrantonio reports: "I love going to food bank because we are always laughing and having a great time." In this case, their fellowship occurs not in a church but in a warehouse!

Other students work with younger children as day care and elementary volunteers: "I love reading stories to the kids," says Becky Mason. "I enjoy being their friend and helping with their special projects," answers Dori Dixon, who admires their trusting, carefree, and happy attitudes. What better place to learn what it means to "become like a little child" than in a day care setting?

Sarah Farley, Rachel O'Brien, Jen Steenhoven, and Amy Valliere are junior volunteers at Regional Hospital. "It's great to see in each student's life is something I will cherish the rest of my life. The work of Mrs. Kreuger and Mr. Beckwith have helped me in my studies at college. May God bless our school in the work of educating young people."

Other student missionaries from that class include Stephanie Haynes and LeeAnne Sargeant. We will report on other alumni activities in the future.

the expressions on their faces after doing even the littlest things for them." In Freeport, "Older members of the community really enjoy us coming," says Heidi Sabnani, a member of the Friendly Visitor program. Shawn Waterman applies his manual talents with the Community Freeport Project: "The satisfaction of being able to help someone improve their home, and the appearance of the community-it is rewarding!" That's the PROJECT JOY paycheck!

Steve Wrate, coordinator of the program, concludes: "The signs are up all over the school and community: GOD AT WORK. He's not finished with HIS mission yet! As one adult working at Habitat for Humanity told us, "They were praying for someone to work during the week—just before we contacted them offering our students. The students are an answer to prayer, really filling a need."

seeing a real live astronaut in the person of Colonel James B. Irwin and hearing him tell of his experience in walking on the moon. As a member of the Apollo 15 crew, he was the first person to use the Lunar Rover vehicle in exploring the surface of the moon. This mission took place between July 26 and August 7, 1971.

In 1972 he retired from the Air Force and founded High Flight Foundation for the purpose of sharing his Christian faith. Other retired Air Force pilots have joined the foundation as staff members and speakers. The goal is "to lead man to his highest flight through life, to realize his greatest potential, using his gifts and abilities to the highest degree." The program is especially aimed at helping young people to set their sights in life on a high level.

Colonel Irwin spoke to elementary, academy, and college students while on his three-day tour in South Lancaster, and was received with enthusiasm by these groups as well as church members and community friends.

BROOKLAWN HOSTS PUPPETS

Louis Parra and his Friendship Puppets brought a blessing to more than 50 children and adults at the Brooklawn church Sabbath afternoon, September 16.

The varied program included such children's favorites as "Woof, Woof, Woof, Hallelujah!" "I Just Wanna Be a Sheep," and "Jesus Loves the Little Children." Parra was assisted by his wife, Nancy, and Brooklawn members Jacques Maignan and Trish Camera. Toward the end of the program, children from the congregation were invited to participate as puppeteers, with assistance from Parra.

The program was scheduled by Jacques Maignan, who is Brook-

LITERATURE EVANGELIST CONTINUES SOUL-WINNING WORK

Elder Jean-Baptiste, pastor of the Ephesus French Haitian group in Dorchester, Massachusetts, reports that on November 4, 1989, five precious souls were baptized. The happy candidates were led to accept Jesus as their personal Saviour by Ernst Vieux, a new Southern New England Conference literature evangelist of three months.

Brother Vieux has been blessed by the Lord with over 100 baptisms during the last 15 months. Since he became a literature evangelist in the Southern New England Conference three months ago, he has already sold more than $6,000 worth of Seventh-day Adventist literature.

The baptism was conducted in the Boston Spanish church; be-

Elder Nahor Muchiutti, Southern New England Conference assistant publishing director, performed the baptism of the new candidates. Shortly before this baptismal service, Elder Muchiutti accepted a call from Greater New York Conference to become their new conference publishing director.

The persons newly baptized are: Guerton Auguste, Michael Pandrovany, Colete Moreau, Fegueire Jorge, and Marie Claude Labath. This baptism brings the total baptisms resulting from the labors of literature evangelists in the Southern New England Conference during 1989 thus far to 17. We praise the Lord for His divine leading in our lives.

C Homeschooling

LMar. 11; 6:00 to 8:30 p.m.

During the past few years, in this area, more and more parents are considering the option of teaching their children at home.

Linda Richards taught public school in Maine and has taught her son at home for the past several years. This workshop will include some parents sharing both their reasons for choosing to homeschool their children and their experiences in doing it. Linda will also present some methods that she uses as she teaches and some resources available to parents who are interested in learning more about providing an education at home.

For more information and to register, call Linda at (413) 625-9539.

FSome simple home remedies Mar. 25: 6:00 to 8:30 p.m.

Some easy tips and treatments which can be done at home without the use of medicines. To be included: a hot foot bath, a throat wrap; 50 (well, maybe 5) ways to use charcoal, and the beloved of many cultures, garlic.

Except where noted, all workshops are free. Also, except where noted, to preregister for a workshop call (413) 772-2348.

If dangerous driving conditions, workshops will be held the next Sunday.

If you have questions about something in the Bible, or if there is something you would like to study, or if you would just like to learn more about the Bible in general, please feel free to call David Brooks at (413) 337-8402 or the church at (413) 625-2489.

If there are other workshops in which you would be interested, or if you would like to participate in a Breathe Free Stop Smoking Seminar, please feel free to call us at the above numbers.

May the Lord richly bless you as you participate in one or more of the above workshops.

As a result of the two-week evangelistic series held November 3-17 in Oxford, ME, by Elder Everett Cumbo from Colorado, 10 persons have been baptized. They joined both the Woodstock and Oxford, ME, churches. The evangelistic series was organized by Elder Harry Sabnani, Church Ministries Director for Northern New England Conference.

Four different seminars held at Camp Winnekeag, Ashburnham, MA, Nov. 17-19 as part of the training program of the Personal Ministries Dept. of Southern New England Conference were attended by 115 lay persons from the Spanish and Portuguese churches. "How to Conduct Home Revelation Seminars" was taught by Elder Carlos Martin from Texas; Elder Manuel Rosado, now retired, taught the seminar on prison ministries; the seminar concerning children's ministries was taught by Mrs. Sarah Fanton, office secretary, and Mrs. Kareen Villanueva from Central California Conference and now retired; and Elder Sergio Moctezuma, Church Ministries Director of the Inter-American Division instructed in Portuguese concerning Sabbath School Evangelism. The participants were encouraged by the presence of all of the pastors. At the conclusion of the seminars each participant decided to increase their participation in soul winning. So far this year, the 11 Spanish and four Portuguese churches in the Southern New England Conference have baptized 124 new members.

Did You Know

The Survey Research Service of Loma Linda University plans to survey some 3,500 Seventh-day Adventist households from 250 churches selected from the eight unions in the U.S. to gather information regarding health status, dietary practices, and the use of drugs and medicines, and health-care facilities. In addition, the survey will obtain members' views toward the church, attendance, involvement in church activities, financial support, children's attendance at Adventist schools, and members' opinions regarding divorce and abortion. Questionnaires in Spanish and French are available if preferred.

Although several health studies of Adventists have been made, there is no comprehensive national baseline data on their health status, health practices, and attitudes.

It is hoped that all members selected for this study will be willing to participate. All information gathered is strictly confidential and used only for statistical purposes. No personal information will be disclosed to anyone.

Inner-City Offering-January 13

The inner city is the soul of society, an integral part of the conscience of the Christian church, a mission field just blocks away. Urban America-abandoned physically by the greedy and the prosperous, abandoned spiritually by institutionalized Christianity-our home mission field, the seedbed for Christian influence and evangelism, cries and calls for help.

Your sacrificial financial gifts on January 13 are desperately needed to meet the challenge of ministry to millions locked in economic, social, and spiritual bondage in the inner city. Where the church, people, or pastor have no urban vision, people needing the gifts of salvation perish. Your gifts funded 34 projects in 1989 using more than $200,000.

We are instructed in the Word of God to seek the peace and welfare of the city, "for in its welfare, you will find your welfare" (Jer. 29:7, RSV).

Thanks for doing what God inspires you to do.

AWR/Europe Offering

N. A. Zhukaluk, president of the Ukrainian Union, was all smiles when he talked with Allen Steele, manager of AWR/Guam, about the new European station whose signal will blanket the western USSR. From all over the Soviet Union come exclamations of joy that one of their ministers has permission to record the messages to be broadcast from Adventist World Radio/Europe. Special worldwide offerings for this project will be taken March 10 and May 19, 1990. Plan now for your gift toward this finished-work ministry.

Deaths

ALMEIDA, Gloria K. (Linton), born Dec. 31, 1928, in Gardiner, ME, died Oct. 6, 1989, in the Clinton, MA, hospital. She was a devoted follower of Christ and a member of the Atlantic Union College Seventh-day Adventist Church, So. Lancaster, MA.

Survivors: her husband, Paul J. Almeida of So. Lancaster, MA; two daughters, Paula Curren of Candler, NC, and Wanda Cantrell of Sterling, MA; one son, Lorne Almeida of Clinton, MA; seven grandchildren; father, Hurlbert Linton of Lancaster, MA; three sisters, Beverly Linton of Lancaster, MA, Glenys Reynolds of Hudson, MA, and Helen Glazier of W. Gardiner, ME; two brothers, Daniel Linton of Clinton, MA, and David Linton of Bolton, MA.

Funeral services were held in the College church and interment was in the Litchfield Plains Cemetery, Litchfield, ME, with Pastor Marion E. Kidder officiating.

DEMPSTER, Jeannette Robidoux, born July 29, 1904, died Aug. 13, 1989. Jeannette was baptized into the Seventh-day Adventist Church in 1933, and she faithfully and willingly served the Lord in many capacities. Especially close to her heart was the ministry for church shut-ins.

In November 1986, due to failing health, she was voted by the Jackson Heights church membership to be an honorary deaconess for the remainder of her life.

Funeral services were conducted by Peter Sikora, Sr., head elder, assisted by Steven Vitorovich and Charles Olsen. Elder Louis Torres, executive secretary of Greater New York Conference, officiated with lay person Arthur Campbell at the graveside service in Lutheran Cemetery.

MCKIGNEY, William, born Sept. 10, 1903, died May 7, 1989. In the late forties he was baptized into the Seventh-day Adventist Church and was a faithful member of the Jackson Heights church at his death.

Bill's love for young people was reciprocal as he served as leader of the junior division for a number of years in the Washington Avenue church, with the Boy Scouts of America, and volunteering as a Scout leader after reaching the Silver Fox category, the highest position in the Scouts.

Bill worked in the Van Ministry for several of his retirement years, correcting Bible lessons and faithfully writing to Bible students. One of his favorite pastimes was studying birds. Writing poetry was one of his God-given talents, and he used it liberally to the glory of God.

Survivors: his sister, Mrs. Watson; and a grandson, Billy, of New Jersey.

MCWILLIAMS, Gerald E., born June 28, 1960, in Irvington, NJ, died Aug. 31, 1989, in Norton, MA. He was a member of Greater Providence, RI, Seventhday Adventist Church. His death was the result of a tragic accident.

Survivors: his wife, Donna (Merigan) McWilliams; a four-month-old son, Matthew Nicholas McWilliams; and two daughters, Cynthia Louise McWilliams, six years old, and Megan Michelle McWilliams, three years old. Funeral services were conducted by Elder Colin Rampton, assisted by Elders William Johnson, Franc Sarault, and Art Stagg with interment in Rockhill Cemetery, Attleboro, MA.

WALTON, Xenophon Pendleton, born Jan. 22, 1901, in Newburyport, MA, died Aug. 1, 1989. He was a faithful member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church for many years.

He practiced dentistry in Newburyport from 1940 to 1968 when he retired and went with his wife, Alice (Palmer) Walton, to Malawi, Africa, to serve as a relief dentist at the Seventh-day Adventist mission. He and his wife then retired to Florida where they lived until her death in 1981. He then moved to Chattanooga, and in 1984 he married Ruth Gordon Short.

While he lived in Newburyport he was active in civic affairs as well as holding various offices in the Amesbury church. He started his career as a public school teacher in Putney, VT, moving on to Union Springs, NY, and Brooklyn, where he was principal of Greater New York Academy. While there he decided to study dentistry, graduating from Emory University School of Dentistry, Atlanta, GA.

Survivors: his wife; two daughters, Dorothy Louise Uhl of Calhoun, GA, and Alice Ann Davitt of Newburyport; a son, Paul Edwin Walton of Hot Springs, AR; 11 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. A memorial service was held in the Amesbury Seventh-day Adventist Church with private burial services at Long Hill Cemetery, Salisbury, MA.
