

Missions Extension Fund

THE following recommendation touching our Missions Extension Fund has been passed by the General Conference and is worthy of our careful consideration.

WHEREAS, The Missions Extension Fund has been used of God to greatly extend the publishing, educational and medical work throughout the world; and,

WHEREAS, The Autumn Council of 1933 set a goal for the North American Division of $60,000, to be raised through this fund in 1934, leaving it with the Executive Committee to select the projects to be the beneficiaries of the fund,—

We recommend, 1. That the individual Missions Extension goal continue to be $2.00.

2. That conference and institutional workers join in the Extension plan by giving an offering to the Missions Extension Fund equivalent to at least one day's income.

3. That our laymen be encouraged to join the regular workers in dedicating one day's income to the fund.

4. That our books and magazines be sold as one means of securing money for this special offering.

The following enterprises are to receive the amounts listed below:

1. Hospital, Addis, Abeba, Abyssinia,	$ 4400.00
2. Juliaca Training School, Peru,	3456.00
3. Signs of the Times Publishing House, Shanghai, . . .	2657.70

GRAND TOTAL,	$62576.76

I TRUST that we will be able this year in Canada to raise our quota of $2.00 per member. It is not too early to lay your plans now and save up your nickels and dimes.

A new plan is to be followed in receiving the money this year. A dime container is provided each member of the church and should be in the hands of the individual member not later than March 24, and then the individual is to save up the dimes, placing them in the container and turning them in to the church treasurer on Sabbath, April 21 or 28.

The Canadian people have always responded to every call of our mission field and I am sure that this call will not fall upon deaf ears this year. The General Conference forty-cent-a-week fund showed a loss of $235,000 for the year 1933 over the preceding year. In order to prevent further losses our members are called upon to give up all unnecessary expense, for nick-nacks, candies, and chewing gum.

Information About Our Literature

NEAT little booklets have been prepared in which the little tots may paste their memory verse cards and thus preserve all the cards for the quarter. They are only five cents each.

Year Book for 1934 is ready for you. The price is 90 cents.

The Canadian Watchman is now to be published once a month, and the subscription price will be $1.00, instead of $2.00. The circulation of the plain number has dropped so much that it is out of the question to continue it. The circulation of the colored number is increasing. If you subscribed expecting to get both numbers, your subscription will be extended. So any who are now subscribers will receive full value for money paid in.

If you have subscribed for the Watchman Special, or six months of the plain numbers, we will send the colored numbers to these names instead. No more subscriptions will be entered for this special. Remember the new rate on the Watchman, one dollar for a year, 60 cents for 6 months.

A new tract, "The Difference between Seventh-day Adventists, and Seventh-day Baptists," is just off the press. Price, five cents each.

The French Signs of the Times, a quarterly magazine is printed here in your publishing house. The subscription price is only 35 cents a year. If you have friends or neighbors who are French, why not send them this magazine?

W. W. Prescott, who is well-known in Canada has written a book entitled "The Spade and the Bible." It is now ready, and the price is $2.45.

The April Watchman is ready for mailing. Some of the articles are, "Is There any Hope for Our World?", "What To Do for Appendicitis," "Time's Grandest Pageant", "Is Prayer Old-fashioned?", "Who are the Angels?", etc. Price, ten cents a copy, or ten copies will be mailed to ten different addresses for only 50 cents. The Fifteen-Minute Home Missionary Period

THE fifteen-minute home missionary service was carried out in as fine a way as the writer has ever seen it, in one of the larger churches in the union.

After Sabbath school had closed and the three or four people who desired to do so had left, the doors were shut by the deacon and the meeting began immediately.

The home missionary leader of the church took his place in front of the platform, talking in a clear voice so that everyone in the room could hear distinctly. He announced the topic for the day and proceeded immediately to discuss it. Later he called on Brother A to relate a missionary experience of the preceding week. This was given briefly and to the point. Sister B read a letter she had received from one of the interested H. B. S. L. readers.

The leader then announced that the missionary reports would now be taken up, whereupon the band leader distributed the weekly missionary report cards. Every member reported his missionary work for the week. Some had much to report, some little, all reported what they had done. When all had reported, the band leader received the cards and placed them in the envelope. Now the home missionary leader offered the closing prayer asking God to bless His faithful workers the coming week. Now, everybody was prepared to listen to the sermon for the day. They had done their part, had reported their work and were in a better mood to receive some more instruction.

What is good and practical in the eighty-three churches in Canada is good for all churches in Canada. Plan your fifteen-minute service well and work your plans. Do not waste brain-power working up excuses for not having a fifteen-minute missionary service, but work the General Conference adopted plan. J. H. ROTH.

"A Sound in the Tops of the Mulberry Trees"

THE sound of a going is already being heard this early in the year. Our mission advance is the motive power behind this going. Ministers and pastors are already starting their work. They figure that the expression "The early bird catches the worm" is not an empty phrase only, but teaches a valuable lesson.

Our Ukrainian worker in the city of Winnipeg started his Harvest In-gathering during the month of March and to date has several good donations ranging from $2 to $5 each. He has not only made personal calls but also written letters to the principal firms of the city which no doubt will bring him more than $100 of Harvest In-gathering funds in return.

Why not, in the face of the great need of our mission work, start your work now. While the business people are making up their budgets for the year 1934 it is well to get in on the ground floor and get a little consideration as early in the year as possible. Experience has taught us that if we delay other organizations get in ahead of us and will take the cream and we will have to take what is left, and if there is nothing left we will get nothing.

A word to the wise is sufficient.

J. H. ROTH.

Did You Learn of The Message Through Reading?

IF so, we would like to have the story of how the message found you. Did you buy a book from a colporteur? Did some one hand you a tract or mail you some of our literature?

We would like to have your experience that it may be used to encourage others to sow the seeds of truth.

To all who send in their experiences we will send a little book, "Life's Greatest Things," to pay you for your trouble. Write your story out briefly and send it to C. L. Paddock, Box 398, Oshawa, Ontario. Be sure to give us your name and address, so we can send you the book.

Maritime Conference

12-13 Imperial Block, Moncton, N. B.

Pres., W. A. Clemenson; Sec'y Treas., Fred Bernhard

Maritime News

BROTHER ACKERMAN reports a very successful visit with the Lake George church, N. B. While there he organized another M. V. society. We are glad to have one more such organization for our youth in the Maritimes.

THE pennies in the cent-a-meal boxes in the Maritime Conference are to be turned over to the church treasurers on Sabbath, March 31. We will open the boxes once a quarter. The treasurer will open the box for you and return it to you again for another three months.

THE Maritime colporteurs are reporting success in their sales. Last week we received a report from Brother Crooks, Cape Breton Island, reporting sales of over $400. There are still others in Maritime who have no work and can make a success in the colporteur work. Write to the field secretary.

BRO. ANGUS ATWOOD is conducting Sunday night meetings in the community hall at Oak Park, N. S., on Sunday night. There are three souls who are showing a good interest in the studies given. We also have word from Cetreville, N. B., that Bro. Harry Cogle is conducting Sunday services in the district where he lives with a good attendance. Are there not more of our lay brethren that will take up that work in your district? Let us hear from you.

ELDER MACKINTOSH opened the series of meetings which are to be held in New Glasgow, N. S., on Sunday night, March 4. He reports an attendance of over 800 at the first meeting. New Glasgow has not had an effort for some years and we are hopeful that a large number may be added to the church at this time. Elder Cooke is continuing his Sunday night meetings in Dartmouth, N. S. He is unable to get the hall for more than Sunday nights. He is spending the rest of the time in giving Bible studies.

WE hope to have a good response to the effort which will be put forth during Big Week this year. The dime cards have been mailed to all isolated and the church treasurers have been supplied for each of the churches. Each card filled will be worth $2. Let us do our very best to fill our cards. Ask your friends and neighbors to put in a dime. They will be glad to give you assistance. April 14 is the time when the cards are to be filled and turned in to the church treasurer.

MISS IZEE HUBLEY and Brethren L. Nadeau and Marshall Longard were visitors at the conference office recently. We are always glad to have our brethren and sisters come to visit the office when in the city.

ELDER CLEMENSON is at St. John, N. B., where he is conducting a ten-day series of meetings in the church at St. John.

Ontario-Quebec News Notes

WHILE the Sabbath service was being held recently in our Iroquois church on the Six Nations Indian Reserve, a stranger walked in and informed the members that their church was on fire. By quick action on the part of the attendants at the church the fire was successfully extinguished. It was found later that a crow had built its nest in the chimney and when the building was heated because of extreme cold, it forced the flames to prey on the side of the chimney and into the building.

Sister E. Deer is carrying on a very commendable work on the reserve and we appreciate her efforts. She has just informed us of our aged Brother Waters' death. Brother Waters accepted the truth through reading our literature sent to him by Sister Deer together with personal correspondence. God always rewards such faithful efforts.

"MANY of our missionary enterprises are crippled because there are so many who refuse to enter the doors of usefulness that are opened before them. Let all who believe the truth begin to work. Do the work that lies nearest you, do anything, however humble, rather than be, like the men of Meroz, do-nothings."—"Testimonies," Vol. 8, p. 246.

Northern Saskatchewan

IT WAS the writer's privilege to spend some time with the believers who have gone out homesteading in northwestern Saskatchewan.

I first went to Glenbush where I visited one of our families. They were very much pleased to have a conference worker call on them. While there we partook of the Lord's supper. I was also able to present the truth-filled message to the people in the Mennonite church, having conducted two meetings there.

From there I journeyed on to Fairholme. Here I held several meetings with those of like faith. They were glad to have someone call on them. I also conducted two meetings there for outsiders, which were fairly well attended.

Now my road turned in a north-westerly direction which I undertook to travel by train as far as possible and then it still left me sixty miles from my destination. The remainder of the journey occupied two days.

At Flat Valley I gave the believers there a great surprise, as I was the first conference worker to visit them since they moved there in the spring of 1929. Here I held twenty meetings in the home of Bro. and Sister D. J. Goertzen. In spite of the cold they were so well attended that we had to build extra benches in order to afford sufficient seating accommodations. A goodly number assembled with the believers to study God's Word from day to day. The Lord's presence surely was felt and as a result one family is keeping the Sabbath and others have made a start. They are now rejoicing in the hope of having baptismal services this spring.

Let us take courage, brethren, and press on till the prize is won.

D. D. NEUFELD.

Manitoba-Saskatchewan News Notes

MRS. D. N. REINER is convalescing at her home after having undergone an operation in the City Hospital.

ELDER REINER and Brother Bernhard are spending a few days with the Macrorie church, conducting a home missionary and young people's institute.

Already several cent-a-meal boxes have come in from our isolated members. We hope all our believers who are isolated will send in the pennies accumulated during the last quarter at the end of the month. Our church treasurers have been instructed to do likewise. We hope and pray that the Lord has blessed our people in remembering Him at each meal, and thus helping considerably in the expense of our evangelistic work.

WORD has been received from Bro. G. F. Ruf, former home missionary and young people's secretary of the Saskatchewan Conference, that he expects to visit our field in May. We hope to be able to persuade him to remain until camp meeting. Brother Ruf, as you no doubt remember, was called to work in the South American Division.

BROTHER BLAIR who is canvassing in Saskatoon comes into the office frequently and relates some very interesting experiences. He is finding many doors open and in some cases where he has delivered, the customers have been ready and anxious for the book.

THE majority of the office workers will attend the convention that is being held at Oshawa. However, the office work will be carried on as usual and all matters will receive prompt attention.

ELDER DEMCHUCK's meetings which he has been conducting in Saskatoon the last couple of months are coming to a close. He expects to organize a baptismal class soon.

MRS. S. WILSON, of Quill Lake, is a patient in the hospital here at this writing. Sister Wilson has been in poor health for some time but hopes to find relief at this time.

ELDER S. A. REILE reports that the attendance at his meetings in Winnipeg is increasing. He plans to organize a baptismal class in the near future.

IN spite of the cold weather we have had during the past few weeks Brother Balmer is continuing his meetings in the Hillside district.

BROTHER BELLCHAMBERS reports that he has organized a baptismal class at Port Arthur. He expects to have baptism the end of March.

GOOD reports are coming in from the colporteurs. They are working faithfully in spite of the cold and the slush and water.

BRETHREN JOHNSON and Jackson are still continuing their Sunday night meetings in Regina with a fair attendance.

ELDER O. ZIPRICK returned from Regina where he conducted the marriage of Miss Lena Hutzkal and Alexander Kaytor at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

ELDER LONG, who has held some meetings in the Ridgedale district during the past few weeks is planning to go to Brockington, where it is reported an interest has been awakened.

WE ARE glad to report that five of the ten members of the Waldheim junior Sabbath school class have memorized the fifty-two memory texts for the year 1933 and were able to say them at the end of the year. These members are Leona Nickel, Bernice Nickel, Jake Spent, Lizzie Spent, and Raymond Neufeld. Risella Wiegell and Rollin Neufeld did very well. Leona Nickel has also earned the two-year book mark for a perfect Sabbath school record for two years. Her sister Bernice, a little younger, has just finished the yearly perfect record. We hope that this report will be an incentive to the rest of the class as well as to others to strive for a perfect record.

Evangelistic Efforts

ELDERS Johnson, Buckwalter, Ruminson, Winter, Rick, Neufeld, and Bodrug are all busy in evangelistic efforts. Their crowds run as high as five hundred. A large number are interested. One hundred and eight new Sabbath-keepers have been reported so far this year.

Twenty-three colporteurs are actively engaged in the field.

Six lay preachers have been holding meetings or assisting in meetings this winter.

The evangelistic work is onward in this conference. A. V. RHOADS.

Cent-a-Meal Boxes

THE quarter is soon drawing to a close and our isolated Sabbath-keepers are, no doubt, wondering just what to do with their cent-a-meal boxes at the end of this quarter. It would be expensive to mail the boxes to the conference office, therefore, we would suggest that you open the boxes and send the contents to the conference office in the form of a check or money order.

To open the box, remove the label on the bottom. Underneath this label you will discover a device through which the contents may be removed. When your remittance comes to hand another label will be supplied.

Members of our various local churches should turn in their cent-a-meal boxes to their local treasurer who will remove the contents, issuing a receipt to each church member and return the box for the next quarter.

There may be those who have failed to put in a cent a meal during the quarter, but if there are such we hope they will make up the amount before the end of March. G. L. SATHER.

Notice!

DURING the first three weeks in April Miss Marian MacLean will be in charge of the office while the rest of the conference office workers are attending the convention at Oshawa. G. L. SATHER.

At Cluny, Bassano, and Cassils

IN THE last MESSENGER we gave you a partial report of Elder Roth's visit to our field and our work at Rosebud. Now we are glad to report our visit to Cluny, Bassano, and Cassils in behalf of the Home Missionary and Missionary Volunteer departments. While Elder Roth is not carrying the missionary volunteer work in the union, yet we appreciate very much the stories he told our young people and his help in a general way.

During our visit to the last named churches, plans were laid for a stronger missionary organization such as the first Sabbath service and the fifteen-minute missionary service. These plans were accepted whole-heartedly by the churches.

On account of its place and importance in the Advent movement, Elder Roth held a few parents' meetings. Really, brethren, the time has come when parents should realize that the responsibility of parents is the underlying principle of all church activity, including especially the spiritual welfare of our young people everywhere.

The Cassils church is busy sending out literature systematically through the Home Bible Study League. They are earnestly praying for an ingathering of souls. In this church there are fifty-three young people between the ages of six and twenty-five. They

The MAKERS and POLICIES of "HEALTH"

THE "RIGHT ARM." The new magazine "Health" has been founded with the one great purpose of telling the world about the health program committed to Seventh-day Adventists. The spirit of prophecy long ago declared our views on health to be "the right arm of the message." It was said that health should be an entering wedge in the presentation of the gospel, and should be linked with our general work. All the policies of "Health" are shaped to this end. The editors and publishers believe the time has come to give greater impetus and greater publicity to our health message. We are the only evangelical denomination in the world with a health program, and surely the time has arrived to proclaim it everywhere.

INSTITUTIONS BEHIND IT. The new magazine is not being produced by one institution or by a small group. It is being published by the Pacific Press, but all our sanitariums everywhere, as well as our great medical school at Loma Linda, are helping to fill its columns. Those doctors, nurses, and dietitians who are staffing our chain of sanitariums, clinics, and dispensaries the world around are all writing for "Health," and helping to mold it from month to month. It is truly a most representative denominational organ.

TWO HUNDRED CONTRIBUTORS. On these pages you see the faces of a few of the doctors, nurses, dentists, and dietitians who are writing for "Health." In addition to these, there are some hundred and fifty others that we do not have space to list here,—institutional men and women, as well as many of our professional brethren and sisters engaged in private practice in various parts of the world field.

THE EDITORS. Dr. Percy T. Magan, president of our medical school, is editor of the new magazine. Dr. Magan's long association with our denominational work gives him the background, the perspective, and the training which admirably fit him for this editorial position. Dr. Magan entered our work as a colporteur in 1886. He was later a tent master and preacher, then a secretary in Mrs. E. G. White's office. He accompanied Elder S. N. Haskell on the first Seventh-day Adventist missionary tour of the world. For years he was a teacher of history and Bible in old Battle Creek College, then the prime force in the removal of the college to Berrien Springs, Michigan; and later, with Dr. E. A. After taking a medical course in Tennessee, he joined our medical college in California in 1915, and for the past nineteen years has been helping to build up that institution until it is one of the foremost medical schools of the nation. And now these forty-eight years of experience sit behind the editorial desk of "Health."

Elder Alonzo L. Baker, editor of the Signs of the Times, and for sixteen years connected with that great missionary paper, is the managing editor of the new health magazine. Elder Baker is well-known to our people as an author and lecturer, as well as an editor.

MR. AVERAGE MAN. "Health" is in nowise a technical or highbrow journal. It is written only for the average man and woman who need our health message in simple, understandable language. Its description of methods of diet, water treatments, etc., is so practical that any mother or housewife can put them into practice in her own home. To reach the masses with Seventh-day Adventist health principles is "Health's" goal.

MANAGING EDITOR
ALONZO L. BAKER
Also editor, "Signs of the Times"

FEATURES HEALTH PRINCIPLES. "Health" believes that Seventh-day Adventists have great light for the world on diet, hydrotherapy, nondrug cures, the value of sun and exercise, and the relation of the soul and heart of man to his physical well-being. It holds that one of its great tasks is to show the degeneration that the world is bringing on itself by the use of drugs, narcotics, tea and coffee, tobacco, alcohol, etc. All these subjects will be featured in "Health."

AN ATTRACTIVE MAGAZINE. "Health" is one of the most attractive journals ever put out by the denomination. It has four-color art covers on a very fine grade of paper. The type and art work throughout the magazine are modern and appealing. The expert artists, lay-out men, composers, engravers, and pressmen of the Pacific Press are making a periodical of which our denomination will be proud and which will instantly attract men and women everywhere.

CLUNY, BASSANO, CASSILS

have a strong senior society organized under the leadership of E. E. Farnsworth, and all features of a successful young people's society are being promoted. In addition to this they have a companion class consisting of thirteen juniors. This class is well supervised by Miss Moline. We appreciate the hard work being done by Miss Moline and these boys and girls. They are looking forward to an Investiture service.

At Bassano and Cluny the Missionary Volunteer organization is progressing, the leaders endeavoring to lead and guide the young people in the right direction as far as possible.

We wish to thank Elder Roth for his visit to our conference. He worked hard and we were rewarded in seeing souls won to Christ. We wish him God-speed and are looking forward to another visit from him at some other time.

E. J. WESTMAN,

H. M. and M. V. Sec'y.

Our Colporteurs

TWENTY-TWO colporteurs attended the institute held in the Calgary church February 11-21. Most of them remained throughout, and entered the field immediately after the institute. Six were unable to attend, some because of illness and others because of the expense in bringing them from the Peace River district to Calgary. A short institute is planned in connection with the camp meeting in that district.

Brethren E. E. Franklin, P. D. Gerrard, and G. L. Sather rendered the general instruction, and the morning devotional hours were divided among Elder A. V. Rhoads, P. D. Gerrard, and the writer. We were glad to have Elder Westman with us for a short while.

Elder Franklin, who represented the publishing department of the General Conference, could not stay with us until the close of the institute, but we were happy to have him remain with us one whole week.

The institute was a time of spiritual refreshing, indeed, and the practical instruction given in gospel salesmanship by the brethren was most helpful and inspiring. This is what one colporteur, who has attended several colporteur institutes said: "I am certainly enjoying the institute. Really, it is the best I have ever attended. There is such a spirit of real congeniality and good-fellowship among all, and a strong desire to serve the Master in the literature ministry. It is indeed a wonderful season of refreshing for me." I believe this good colporteur expressed the sentiment of all who attended. Our president, Elder Rhoads, is taking a great interest in this branch of the Lord's work, and his counsel and studies greatly contributed to the success of our institute.

Friday evening the young people's meeting was given over to the colporteurs and a number of very interesting experiences were related.

On Sabbath the Lord met with us in a special way. Elder Franklin spoke at the 11 o'clock hour and just before closing conducted a very impressive dedicatory service in which all the colporteurs stood before the altar while Brother Gerrard offered the dedicatory prayer, dedicating these young men and women to the service of their Master. Before the benediction was pronounced one of our colporteurs, Reginald Sandford, who is entering the field for the first time, followed his Master into the watery grave, thus publicly indentifying himself with the people of God. May God make him an example and a blessing to many. The writer officiated.

In placing the colporteurs in their respective fields we have tried to follow the group plan recommended by the General Conference, that is, have two or more colporteurs make their headquarters in one place and work the surrounding territory. Thus they will be able to spend the week-ends together and be an encouragement to each other. Thinking that our people throughout the province might be interested in knowing the approximate territories of our colporteurs, I am giving you a list of their names and territories:

Jessie McMillin and Rupert King, South of Lethbridge. Ejler Jensen and Reginald Sandford, North of Lethbridge. Wm. R. Robertson, Medicine Hat. George Miller and Beth Lundy, Calgary. L. A. Riste and Ross Riste, West of Innisfail. Gordon Jump, East of Innisfail. P. J. Corban, Lacombe district. Erwin Lange, Leduc district. Mrs. H. Williams, Edmonton. Hugh Campbell, Lester Johnson, Wilbur Ruckman, and Herman Hoehn, Northwest of Edmonton. Gaylord Wimer, Bill Markowsky, and Peter Boyko, Smoky Lake district. Floyd Oliver, Fred Schultz, and V. O. Stearns, Peace River district.

We are thankful to the Lord for this army of workers. Others are definitely planning to enter the field in the near future.

Dear fellow-believers, we solicit your co-operation and an interest in your prayers that success may attend these noble workers and that many souls may be won for the truth.

H. D. HENRIKSEN, Field Sec'y.

Wanted

"WANTED—hands and heads and hearts.

Strong and sure and steady.

To make gardens everywhere.

Now the soil is ready.

"WANTED—roots and bulbs and seeds

That are full of vigor,

To make gardens everywhere—

Better ones—and bigger."

THIS is the plea that comes to you, and to me, from the Investment Fund. The only reason for the existence of this fund is to help supply the great need of foreign missions. Can you, or I, afford to ignore this earnest call for workers when it is within our power to answer? Let me quote a verse by Ernest Lloyd which is very fitting here.

"Just do your best. It matters not how small,

How little heard of; just do your best.

Our God above, He knows it all,

And in His great plan you count as one.

Just do your best until the work is done.

Just do your best; though poor, despised, forsaken,

Let not your faith be shaken.

Colporteurs at the Alberta Institute

If in the wild, hot rush for wealth and place, you do not excel,
Why fret? Just do your best, and do it well.

God does not forget. Press on.
Nor doubt, nor fear. Just do your best.
Reward will come to those who stand the test."

We were practically $220 short in 1933 of that contributed through the Investment Fund in 1932. What will the books say when they are closed for 1934? May the Lord help us to Do Our Best.

Fischer-Rehm

THE Hanna S. D. A. church was the scene of a pretty wedding held on Sunday at 2 P. M., February 25, when Miss Matilda Rehm, of Delia, was united in holy matrimony to John Fischer, of Hanna, the writer officiating. Following the ceremony the guests were invited to the home of the groom's parents, where an appetizing lunch was served.

Our Attitude Towards Each Other In These Times of Stress

DAYS of strain and perplexity mean a real test in the life of the Christian. Many who are pleasant and agreeable when things are going well find themselves in an entirely different attitude when they meet with hardships and difficulties. There is a real danger that as individuals and churches we may allow the enemy to gain an entrance in this very way.

Some do not realize of what spirit they are. They have felt a duty to reprove and to blame others instead of exemplifying the love of Christ. Unkindness, ungodly criticism and meddling in the private affairs of others have been by some, praised and exalted as Christian duties instead of being recognized as sins which will bring upon them the wrath of God.

"Unchristian hearts will think they can discern great wrongs in others where none exist, and will dwell upon little matters until they appear greatly magnified. The work of adjusting these little matters, which seems so large to some, God has left for His own followers to do. . . . When Christ is in the heart it will be so softened and subdued by love for God and men that fretting, faultfinding, and contention will not exist there."

"You feel that it is a virtue to talk plainly, and tell people just what you think of them and their acts. You call this frankness, but it is downright discourtesy, and arouses the combativeness of those with whom you are brought in contact. . . . Those who are accustomed to speak plainly and severely to others are not pleased to receive the same treatment in return."

"You should overcome the habit of picking at little things that you think amiss: Be broad, be generous and charitable in your judgment of people and things; open your heart to the light. Remember that Duty has a twin sister—Love; these united can accomplish almost everything, but separated neither is capable of good."
—Vol. 4 pp. 610, 134, 62.

We are told on page sixty-six that while Christ knew just the amount of censure that was needed by the individuals whom He met, we do not have that knowledge and cannot have it unless all selfishness is put away and self is crucified. May the Lord help us that the love of Christ shall thus be shed abroad in our hearts.

H. A. LUKENS.

Don't Forget the Mother

THE "orphan" has grown! It has now become the "mother" of other ideas for raising funds, such as the "cent-a-meal" for evangelism, the suggested "dime-card" for Big Week, etc.

Pennies, nickels and dimes (yes, even dollars,) for Investment are still in vogue; "Can your money" remains our Investment slogan. While you are lending your loyal support to these very worthy new causes, do not forget the mother of them all—the Sabbath School Investment.

Your Sabbath school has doubtless already had its spring Investment program, but even if it has not, now is the time to Invest for missions. Make an early start and reap a larger harvest.

HYLDA B. GREEN, S. S. Sec'y.

B. C. News Notes

FUNDS continue to come in for the new office building. Remember that every dollar thus contributed actually means the saving of a dollar a year in our operating as long as time shall last.

SEVERAL individuals have sent us good amounts of tithe and we know the Lord will richly bless them because of this faithfulness. Remember that the important thing is not the amount but the faithfulness of tithe paying.

A NEW Sabbath school was organized by Elder Wagner when he visited the Langley Prairie company on Sabbath, March 10.

ELDER LUKENS recently paid a visit to the Rest Haven and Victoria churches.

ON March 10 several individuals presented themselves for baptism at the Vancouver church. The baptism was planned for March 17 and will doubtless have taken place before these words appear in print. We are glad that souls are still accepting the truth as a result of efforts put forth on their behalf.

A Wide-Awake Home Missionary's Efforts Are Rewarded

"THE usual attempt to interest the unemployed in the message is met with either a request to desist or with a contemptuous sneer. One of our members had this experience repeatedly while working in the ditches. He was despairing of meeting with receptive ears, when with surprising suddenness an opening presented itself along unthought of lines. "Ghosts" was the subject under discussion, and our member was asked his opinion. The Bible was quoted, but to many this was not taken as evidence in combating the ancient superstition. The Present Truth on the subject of Spiritualism was handed around shortly after this, and these were followed up with Signs of the Times and other Present Truth, which fanned the interest into an intense desire to learn the truth.

"What is this message?" was asked one day, and in turn the member asked the questioners if they desired to learn the indisputable truth from the Bible, and would they like the present day strife explained by the Divine Word? There was eager assent by men who had suffered; men who had never read the Bible; men who were well versed in book lore, but who never sought in the right direction for the only truth that gives rest to depression-worn lives. Five agreed to meet Elder Erntson at the member's house. Six came, and for the first time they heard the Word of God read into a living message for them. Most of them have met with him many times in this way, and their wives have joined in and all are happier as a result of these lessons. They are continuing and others will join them soon."

SISTER ANDREWS, the church missionary secretary, sending in this experience related during the fifteen-minute service, states that last Sabbath, for the first time, two of this group came to Sabbath school and church service. Let us remember this earnest group before the throne of grace, and ever keep a watch for souls as those who one day must give an account.

J. W. WAGNER.

OSHAWA MISSIONARY COLLEGE

"Service—Not Fame"

Box 308, Oshawa, Ont.

Vox Viri Association

ON Nov. 8, 1933, after a recess of three years, we boys of West Hall formed a betterment society. We chose as its name "Vox Viri Association." Since that date we have had sixteen meetings: four given to intellectual progress, four to social attainment, four to physical development and four to association business.

Those who have addressed us at our various meetings have been: an eminent surgeon, a publishing house manager, a scientist, a union conference president, a college president, a prominent musician, and an elocutionist.

The club management has enjoyed real co-operation from its members. The total of thirty-four are now in good and regular standing.

According to constitutional regulations, the present executive committee, consisting of: Milfred Hubley, president; Mervin Pears, vice-president; L. Downing, secretary; Gordon Hewlett, treasurer; and Scott Lowry, sergeant-at-arms: will turn over their duties, at our next business meeting to the officers for the second semester.

To the officers to come—success and co-operation to you.

L. DOWNING, Sec'y.

CANADIAN JUNIOR COLLEGE
 "The School of Character" College Heights, Alta.

C. J. C. News Notes

WILBUR RICK and Willis Clark have been putting long hours in the food factory the last few days. An order has been received for twenty-five cases of "Vita-Wheat-Bits," our new breakfast cereal. Professor Martin and Mr. Edstrom have been putting forth every effort to build up a market for this product.

THURSDAY evening after study period, the girls had their worship around the fire-place in the parlor. Lillian Morsch, who left the next day was presented with a "book of memories" to take with her. George Bauer and Mike Welygan have also returned to their homes, the former having completed his pre-medical course, and the latter having to put in his spring crop. We are sorry to see our friends leave, but new students seem to come to fill their places. Walter Smith of Fort William, is a welcome addition to our number.

THE boys will look back to March 4 as one of the most important days in 1934, for on that date the girls gave their annual program. Following a delicious supper the dormitory boys were entertained in the parlor with readings, dialogues, songs, and selections by a piano quartet. The "outsiders" gave their program in the church school basement. One of the boys present reported that the supper, the quiet Dutch program, and the games which followed, were so good that they will hardly need the souvenirs presented them by the girls at the close, to keep the evening in their remembrance.

MESSENGER Copy

COPY for the two April issues of the MESSENGER must reach College Heights on or before noon of March 29 and April 12.

C. J. C. NEWS NOTES (Concluded from page 11)

WE were fortunate in having more than the usual number of visitors during the past two weeks. Josie and Marshall Price recently had the happy privilege of seeing their father for a few days. Mr. Howard Hanson, of Seattle, a former student, and well acquainted with several members of the faculty, has been visiting his old friends. Mr. Buckle, the editor of this column last year, also dropped in for a few days. Louise Moritz was more than delighted to have her sister, Martha, with her over Sunday.

PROFESSOR MARTIN'S lecture on the South Seas, last Saturday evening convinced us that there is much work for consecrated young people yet to do.

Obituaries

Stroshein.—Mrs. Roslea Stroshein, nee Dorn, born in Poland, Feb. 19, 1882, died at her home in Theodore, Sask., Jan. 30, 1934. She was buried at the "Home Stead" cemetery. Funeral service was held in the Baptist church.

O. ZIPRICK.

Segade.—Mrs. Eva Segade, nee Geobel, born Nov. 4, 1886, in Austria, died Jan. 29, 1934, at Canora, Sask. Funeral service was held in the Union church, and she was buried at the Canora Union cemetery. Our deceased sister suffered much in late years, but she rests in Jesus.

O. ZIPRICK.

Reid.—Mrs. Catherine Cameron Reid was born Oct. 23, 1868, and fell asleep at the Armstrong Hospital, Nov. 20, 1933. Sister Reid had been bedridden for fourteen years, but through it all she was faithful and witnessed for the truth to her many friends. In the absence of Elder Chapman, the writer conducted the funeral service at the Grandview church.

GEO. O. TOOMBS.

Eidemiller.—Catherine Margaret Eidemiller, nee Schaffer, was born April 1, 1847, in Semiria, Russia, and died Jan. 1, 1934, at Leader, Sask. She was a faithful member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church till the day of her death. Funeral service was held in the Seventh-day Adventist church at Leader, Sask. Although our deceased sister was an invalid for thirty-five years, she was very patient and had strong faith in the Lord Jesus. She rests in peace.

O. ZIPRICK.

Butcher.—Brother Malcolm Butcher, of Spencers Cove, Newfoundland, passed to rest in the St. John's General Hospital on January 25, 1934, following an operation for acute appendicitis. Age twelve years.

The last days of Malcolm's life were hard. He had to be brought by motor boat, horse, sleigh, and train to the city, and the trip by train was broken so that he was obliged to spend one whole night in a small town awaiting the train to go on. During this time the pain was intense. Shortly after entering the hospital he was operated on, but passed to rest the following noon. His father accompanied him to the city.

On account of delayed and uncertain transportation facilities it was decided that he be laid to rest in the General Protestant Cemetery of St. John's. Words of comfort and hope were spoken by the writer at the graveside. He awaits the call of the Life-giver. Malcolm leaves to mourn his parents and a younger brother and sister.

S. G. WHITE.

Dudar.—We have all been made sad by the death from appendicitis of Bro. D. Dudar who has been the church elder of the Myrnam church.

Brother Dudar was born in Austria, Sept. 8, 1886, and fell asleep in Jesus at his home at Myrnam, Alta., Feb. 23, 1934, at the age of forty-eight years. He came to Canada in 1898 with his parents. He embraced the truth of the third angel's message which was presented in 1920, by Elder Teofil Babienko. The late Bro. Dudar was a faithful church elder and a kind father in his home. He was a good advisor and counsellor, willing to aid others when they needed help. He was very much respected and esteemed and will be long remembered by all.

Deceased left to mourn his wife, five sons, five daughters, his mother, one brother, two sisters, and many other relatives. He was laid to rest in the S. D. A. cemetery at the Pobida church, one mile west of Beauvallon. All his relatives and many friends and neighbors were present during the funeral service which was conducted by the writer.

Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones. He was laid to rest with the full hope of the first resurrection.

N. BODRUG.
